matter the will to believe may fasten itself upon new objects, no matter how much economics and social conditions may vary, human nature remains pretty much the same. Hates love, fears, courage, all these things are the appendages of humanity, a heritage from the ages. To force religion other than that which the conscience of the individual dictate is a reversion to the days when the Inquisitor was king.

The initiative measures which will appear on the ballot for the determination of the voters of California are receiving considerable attention. The house wives are giving the Food Tax Bill a verbal lambasting which will no doubt send that pernicious measure to limbo. There is a doubt as to the success of the racing measure as it is being opposed by the organized women as well as the churches.

There seems to be no doubt as to the success of the entire Republican ticket—both State and National—and the concensus of political opinion is that it is but a question of majorities. But Voter Should Not Allow Themselves To Overlook Walter Perry Johnson For Judge Of The Superior Court.

HIGH TRIBUTE EO GARLAND ANDERSON

nouements. The court scene, when the Negro is on trial, is the best I have ever read or seen presented. That is saying a great deal, for there have been many plays with such scenes, including the famous "Madame X" trial.

How Garland managed to get his play presented on Broadway is in itself a thrilling story. No doubt you read something about that last fall. I did, but I passed it over with a shrug, thinking it was just another story of New York "falling" for the unusual. When you hear the recital from Garland's own lips you realize just what he accomplished with little or no backing at the start except his faith in himself. Citizens of San Francisco did raise a small purse for him, and did send him to New York with strong letters of recommendation. He arrived there with $200 and his manuscript. For weeks he went from one producer to another, but could make no impression. All agreed he had written something good, but no one was willing to make the experiment of selecting a cast, rehearsing them and paying all the preliminary expenses. It meant a gamble of perhaps $20,000, and why should a New York theatre owner take that risk on an unknown Negro bell hop's play, when there were hundreds of recognized playwrights ready with the season's offerings?

So Garland soon found himself in the big city with all his money gone and nothing in the way of assets except his manuscript. In some way he managed to rent the Waldorf ballroom for a reading. By much effort and persistence he secured the agreement of Governor Al Smith, Mayor Walker and other distinguished citizens to appear on what he called his list of "honor guests." He got the newspapers to tell something of the story and to announce that a reading would be given. Much to Garland's own astonishment, more than 700 people were present. It was free, but after the story had been told, those present contributed $300, of which $200 paid the ballroom rent. Then a producer came forward and agreed to give the play a trial run. It appeared for three weeks, playing to big houses, and was then taken off because the theatre had been previously leased for another attraction. That was last fall.

Now Garland Anderson is back in California, and early in November his play will be presented in Los Angeles. A well known theatre has been rented and Garland's friends amongst the white people are putting up the money. Practically the same cast seen in New York will be here. The cast and the characters are all white except the bell hop, the janitor and the maid.

This may seem a rather long column on one subject, but I think Garland's record deserves much space and praise. He is to the drama what Roland Hayes is to the world of song. He also ranks with Booker T. Washington and Paul Lawrence Dubnar. They constitute a quartet of Negroes who should be an inspiration to their race.

HENRY LOUIS MENCKEN COMING

ority complex. Always in the midst of literary combats and fiercest controversial duels, Henry Louis Mencken has never been defeated or outreasoned or out-written in any of his many thousands of pen battles.

As the author of these books, vvifi., "In Defense of Women," "Democracy", "Prejudice", "Burlesque" and numerous other works, poems and plays. Mr. Mencken shows a either George Bernard Shaw or H. G. Wells of England, and as a humorous writer he ranks far higher than the much lamented late Mark Twain. Of him it can be truly said that he is the most original writer America has ever produced and that as a classical stylist, whose language burns, stings, and sings at the same time, he is the modern philosophical founder of a new and higher school of American literature.

WHAT HENRY LOUIS MENCKEN DOES

Henry Louis Mencken toils and speaks for the soul of a better, a truer, a juster America—an America that we wish and hope for, but have not practically carried out yet. As the fiercest enemy of the Ku Klux Klan, the Volstead fanatics and the owlish Fundamentalists, no man in America has a greater home following and a stronger international all-world standing than Henry Louis Mencken. The most celebrated authors, best equipped lawyers, most scholarly thinkers are daily yearning to receive his indorsement and recognition, yet he is like a marble statue, if they seek favors that are not strictly of the true ideal-stripe and turns against them, fearless as a lion, if they seek imitators, as he alone is in a strictly scientific niche by himself; in 500 years America cannot produce and has never produced another Mencken.

WHAT WILL MENCKEN DO IN LOS ANGELES?

Many are wondering what Henry Louis Mencken may want to seek in Los Angeles!—

Is he coming here for a long rest after his ceaseless poundings, his inexhaustible broadsides against the reactionary Bourbons, Capitalistic hypocrites, and the life-undermining foes of the Mencken-championed Negroes? Is the beauty of our scenery, are the richly drawn and poorly over-drawn opportunities of climate and riches the dazzling magnets that are bringing Henry Louis Mencken to our shores? Is he aiming to establish a coast edition of his famous magazine —The American Mercury? Is it because of the stern truth that Mencken feels that as an undefeated literary Nestor at the age of 45 years he needs California adulation now after he has criticized California more than ever any man ro woman dared at any time and in any place?—

What is the greatest object of the Mencken visit to Los Angeles? Here is the plain fact: This greatest American writer aims to write his greatest and most immortal book on "The truth and the future of the Negro."

He is gathering most carefully and with an all-seeing eye and unstained soul all the available material possible to write a book upon the Negro, as has never been written before, neither by White, Black or any other author, and this grandest master work of Henry Louis Mencken upon the maligned, persecuted and crucified Negro will rock the world and change the atlas and the governments of all humanity a few years after it leaves the press.

"Needless to say I'd be delighted to meet the intellectual Negroes of Los Angeles!" writes Henry Louis Mencken in his latest message to this writer and since he knows that here alone, at fairly measured leisure, is about the most promising opportunity to meet the most notable Negro men and Negro women of any and all sections of the world at large, the readers of this paper and also the New Age-Dispatch and the Pacific Defender are hereby asked to organize a powerful Committee of no less than 200 intellectual and powerful men and women of the race, later to be enlarged into a 4 figure column, to receive and welcome our modern and glorious Lloyd Garrison-like defender of the race—Henry Louis Mencken, so that from this intellectual and social intercourse with all the local leaders of the race, he may not merely gain lots of material, but most abundant inspiration to write his already begun monumental and world-trembling book upon the Negro, a historic transformation master product with as many readers as the Bible and more portentous results from its logic than the Magna Charta of England sustained.

As far as the writer knows Mencken and his matchless genius and resources, it can be promised to the readers of the Eagle that his forthcoming book upon the crushed Negro race will purify and stabilize France, rock and split up England, disorganize and straighten out France, mutate Mussolini by unmuzzling Italy and paralyzing this latest dictator's colonial nightmares, drive Spain out of Africa and force Belgium into European space merely and away from the Congo to run the government of her own poplation alone. Henry Louis Mencken's book for the Negro's freedom will do for the world's Ethiopians and much more what Harriett Beecher-Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" did for the chattel slaves of America.

Send all names and addresses for a befitting Reception Committee for Mr. Henry Louis Mencken's visit to Los Angeles to the Eagle Office, 847 Central Avenue, or to Mr. E. C. Jennings, 1144 E. Adams St.

WHEN ARE LIARS TELLING THE TRUTH?

Mrs. Wiseman the hoax woman in the McPherson case, a confessed liar, former inmate of an insane asylum, now comes forth with a mythical story about meeting John Doe and forming a plot and letting on that she was on intimate terms with Judge Carlos Hardy.

Now what we want to know is when is a confessed liar to be believed? She was under oath when she made the affidavits at Carmel, she is under oath on the witness stand now. Who is going to believe this tommy rot about Judge Carlos Hardy? Everybody who knows Judge Hardy knows that he is a friend to man. They know that he would go any length to help out anybody whom he believed innocent of a crime. There is no question but he believed Mrs. McPherson innocent of wrong doing and if he was imposed upon by this unspeakable creature, it is just such rewards as are often meted out to any other good Samaritan seeking to do good.

This woman, Mrs. Wiseman with her hands already steeped in crime was to our mind using high-powered methods to get hold of money. This was an opportunity and she worked fast but when she found out she could not get by with the story she found the District Attorney an easy mark; but watch out for the turning of the tray or we badly miss our guess.

TO THE SOIL IS THE CRY FROM EVERYWHERE

Slippin away from the soil for city life is being more and more keenly felt, to such an extent that many states are making strenuous efforts to rehabilitate the farms.

Our attention is called to the following bulletin just broadcasted from the Department of Labor and Industry of the State of Michigan, which is indeed interesting reading to thoughtful people:

Department of Labor and Industry
Division of Negro Welfare and Statistics

Lansing, Mich,. Oct. 4, 1926.

In keeping with that part of the program dealing with the rehabilitation of Michigan farm lands, the Division of Negro Welfare and Statistics is announcing the wealth of opportunity afforded Negro farmers in locating in various agricultural sections of the State.

The steady decrease in the number of operated farms and the continual stream of farm folks cityward, is having its effect in both avenues of life. Each Fall finds a greater number of vacant farm properties and a larger list of unemployed in the city. In the latter case, because of racial lines, the Negro suffers more severely than the white workman and it is the hope of the Division to help the Negro who has had agricultural training, in securing a fuller measure of independence by takng over one of the many attractive offers to be found.

It is pointed out that the Fall of the year is the ideal time to consider these locations as that season of the year marks the movement from the farm, with many farmers eager to rent or sell their property after the crops have been gathered and disposed of. For the benefit of the tenant or purchaser, the Winter months offer the opportunity of establishing and preparing for the Sprng Sowing.

Although the Division of Negro Welfare and Statistics is not a selling agent in any sense of the word, yet listings of available properties have been made for the sole purpose of being of service to the Negro group in this connection. It also serves as a guide or adviser to the prospective purchaser who may be unfamiliar with Michigan soil. The Division is inviting the inquiries of any persons who may be interested and letters directed to the department, addressed to Lansing, will receive immediate attention.

Referring further on the above we observe in California the tendency of farmers who come here from other climes and stopping a while in the city to get their bearings as it were, are wont to camp here and forget about the farms.

We are firmly of the opinion that this is where they err. Golden opportunities on the farms in California where one acre will produce more products than ten where they came from are yawnng for their acceptance and along with it absolute independence. No color line is in their way, segregation is unknown and unheard of yet they prefer the city and the white lights. The mantle of the thrifty Japanese is upon them, yet they cast it aside. There are others to come; we hope they can see the light.

VETERANS TAKING ADVANTAGE OF OPPORTUNITY DESERVE FURTHER ENCOURAGEMENT

California enjoys the happy distinction of having enacted a unique piece of co-operative legislation for its veterans that has proved in actual practice to be the most economically sound measure for ex-soldiers ever devised in any State or Country. The finest endorsement of Proposition No. 1 on the November ballot, whch provides an additional 20,000,000 to finance homes and farms for veterans wthout cost to the taxpayers, is the splendid record made by the Veterans' Welfare Board in the administration of the original $10,000,000 appropriated in 1922.

The figures taken from a recent report of the Welfare Board show that more than 5,000 000 were saved to veterans by simply using the credit of the State to enable the veterans to benefit by the buying power of cash and by obtaining for him a 5% interest rate rather than the usual 7%. Every dollar advanced by the State and interest on the entire $10,000,000 is being paid back by the veterans but in the process of repayment, he is saving practically 50% of the amount he would be required to pay if he bought his home or farm on the usual time payment plan.

Up to June 1, 1926, 2200 veterans, not one in a hundred of whom had previously owned real property, had purchased property with an aggregate value of $10,300,000. Without the credit of the State, these identical homes and farms would have cost the veterans at least $15,370,000.00. In other words, the State without cost to the taxpayers has saved our veterans more than $5,000,000 and at the same time has taken a remarkable step in building up better ctizenship which always comes with home ownership.

With only 2200 of the 15,000 applicants for the benefits of this bill accommodated by the original $10,000,000 bond issue it is imperative for our State to carry on the good work started and to see that every deservng veteran be given the privilege of owning a home or farm with state aid. The additional $20,000,000 bond issue which appears on the November ballot as Proposition No. 1 will adequately care for these men and is deserving of the support of every Californa voter.

"NIGGER HEAVEN".
By Carl Van Vechten. Published by Alfred A. Knopf, Inc., 730 Fifth Ave., N. Y. City. Price $2.50

The colored reader who is not familiar with Van Vechten's other novels may think that in "Nigger Heaven" the colored man is given a rotten deal, so largely is the book concerned with the Negro's sensual life. Such a reader, however, has only to get "The Blind Bow-Boy," or "The Tattooed Countess," from the library (supposing the librarian permits such books to circulate) to learn that "Nigger Heaven" is mild compared with Van Vechten's pictures of white folk. He needs, too, to understand the viewpoint of an author who says "voluptuousness: to free hearts a thing innocet and free, the garden happiness of the earth." And most of all he should realize that this novelist loves the tale that seems unreal and impossible, repugnant to common sese. Such a tale "veils a deeply mysterious truth, and the greater the absurdity of the letter, the deeper the wisdom of the spirit."

With a knowledge of Van Vechten's other work, "Nigger Heaven" comes as a surprise; it is serious, so real. It is less a satire than a tragedy. It has a hero whose efforts to make a place for himself in this prejudiced world are full of heartbreak. I can think of no colored writer who has so well shown the working of race prejudice upon a sensitive, highly strung Negro. It has an ending that is vivid, tremendous. One must read the story if only for its last pages.

"Nigger Heaven" is a sardonic name for Harlem, the land of opportunity, where Negroes gather from all parts of the Continent. The novel shows us the cultured professional class, foremost. The heroine, Mary Love, a librarian, who we first meet at the home of Adroa, a colored member of the Nouveau Riche. Adora, to my thinking, is the best drawn character in the book. One sees her surrounded by sycophants who drink and shout and dance through her house, "ink fingered trash," she calls them, "who come here to drink my booze and eat my food and raise hell at my expense." Here Mary meets the hero, Byrn Kasson, and learns of his ambition ti write. "Oh, I haven't published much. I've had a piece or two in Opportunity but that won't keep me alive." One follows Mary to her home, reads the titles of the books on her table, "Cane," "There is Confusion," and feels veritably in the colored world. No white man, save a shadowy author and a very live editor, enters into it. It is a story of the Negro peoples as they move thru Harlem.

How good this picture is, I for one cannot say. Some of the Expressions used, Mr. Van Vechten has a glossary of colored slang, I have never heard. Some of the race talk is familiar, and one recognizes the youth who is undecided whether or not he shall go white, the girl whom we are told is marrying a white man "and nobody's going to tell him." But the most brilliant part of the story moves about the cabarets, "the swaying couples, black bodies, brown bodies, high yellows, a kaleidoscope of color transfigured by the amber searchlight." "The band snored and snorted and whistled and laughed like a hyena." And it is at the cabaret that the curtain is rung down.

"Nigger Heaven" is a cross section of New York. It belongs with Van Vechten's other New York cross sections. But one finds this modernist who likes to draw the impossible intrigued at last by his own characters. His hero is no puppet but a youth suffering from bitter disappointment, his flimsy writing torn to shreds, striding down Sixth Avenue. And as he strides and as he curses, he is caught by the dark siren of the book who comforts him at first, and then turns him out after a few wild nights. "White men and brown men, I use 'em until I tire of 'em, and then I say, damn you and good-by." Lasca, the siren, is real, and so is the "Creeper" who brings murder on the stage at the end. And if Mary and her friends are less vital, I suspect that is the truth with most stories. Vice is much easier to portray vividly than virtue.

You may object to the title, "Nigger Heaven," but don't fail to look in on the place.

IN NEGRO WORLD NATIONAL LEAGUE SERIES

Bacharachs Beat Chicago

Atlantic City, N. J.—The Chicago American Giants, champions of the Negro Nat. League, by losing their game here Wednesday with the Bacharach Giants, local champions of the Eastern League, made their total of losses in the first four games of the World Series an even three. It took six games, instead of four originally scheduled, to settle the Eastern end of the series. The opener Friday was a tie, which was played off Saturday here and the Monday game, in Philadelphia, which also ended with the count even, was played off here Wednesday, making a total of six games, four of which were snappy exhibitions.

Tuesday was the day the Bacharachs got their's. With the count 3-0 against them in the fifth, they jumped o Currie for 6 runs in their half of that frame and drove him from the slab. Powell, who took his place, held them to one run from then on out, making a total of seven. The visitors tallied three time in the first and twice in the sixth due to errors and not to the ability of the Chicago club to get any bunched hits off Mitchell, who was working for the Bachs. Four was their total for the afternoon. This sent the Easterners into the lead for the series, the game count then standing 2-1 Bacharachs. The giants' attack was weak and in the field they looked like rabbits.

BASEBALL

World Series To Cards

Though the world series recently finished did not present any really great ball playing on either side save for the record-breaking home runs of Babe Ruth and the wonderfully hard work of "Alexander the Great," yet it held the fans' interest seemingly more so than any series recently. The final tie-breaking game was a classic and will go down in the history of world series. It was played Sunday, October 10th.

LINCOLN U TRIMS WILBERFORCE 8-0

St. Louis, Mo.—Lincoln University here blanked Wilberforce University, Ohio, 8 to 0 in a hard fought football game at State Fair Ball Park, here Saturday.

Winter League Players Getting Organized In Philly

Philadelphia, Pa.—Players from the various National Negro League teams are assembling in Philadelphia prior to departure for Los Angeles where they will take charge of the White Sox Park during the winter months.

Among those slated for the trip are Rogan, Harney and Cooper, pitchers; Murray and Pullen, catchers; Mackey, third base; Wells, short; Allen, second base; Suttles, 1st base and Dixon, Holloway and Stearnes, outfield.

BABY GANS WINS

Baby Joe Gans, local fighter was successful in his first invasion of the East by winning over Jimmy Goodrich in ten rounds. Goodrich was formerly lightweight champion. Gans was accompanied by Lasney Leishanstein and Charokee Tom Jones. The bout took place at the Coliseum on Friday, October 8th.

GOOD WRESTLING CARD AT OLYMPIC

Ad Santel, famous Oakland "Flying Dutchman," was signed by Promoter Lou Daro today for a a bout with Paul Jones on the next wrestling card at the Olympic Auditorium a week from Wednesday night. Nick Lutze will meet Jimmy Londos in the main event.

Gilberto Martinez, Mexican wrestler, was also signed to meet Jack Hunnell, the Denver "Bronco Buster," in another bout. Daro is also seeking an opponent for Ricard.

Giants to make up for the poor support it is said that all had. For it seems that something had happened in the Windy City of the dizzy white lights the night before; something connected with wine and song, and the sensational end the great Monarch's hitting had fallen to zero; they couldn't hit, field or run bases and these rose leaves, as champions had gone to pieces, disappointing their friends and backers and even themselves, all for a night out.

Along Fisticuffs Row

That was a very successful banquet given at the Jackland Thursday evening last by Theo. Sielski for his protege "Young Jack Thompson." Everyone enjoyed themselves and many were the toasts said to the future champion of the world—"Young Jack Thompson."

x-x-x-x

Wayne Dunn one of Fisticuffs' most prominent fights in the past and a great patron of pugilism is a good business man and a great fellow.

Kid Hilliga, the tall, rangy Hollywood fighters who used to show great promise is preparing to stage a comeback.

Johnny Risko Slugs Eddie Hoffman To A Win

Beginning at the first ball in the first round Johnny Risko cut-fought Eddie Hoffman at the Olympic Auditorium Wednesday night, winning 8 out of ten rounds. That baker boy to the "Jim Corbett" for science but he can really throw wallops and keep on throwing them. He was on Eddie all the time and Eddie was fighting back with all the gameness the gallor possess and his ability to take 'em. And he took 'em, plenty, and yet was on his feet all the time coming back at Risko in occasional rallies that once spun Johnny around like a top.

A full house saw the bouts. Winning this fight gives Risko a bout with Young Stribling at Dick Donald's outdoor show about the 23rd.

In the semi-winding Johnny Walker won a technical knockout over Eddie Barnett when the latter's nose was broken in fighting.

By virtue of taking four out of six rounds from Jimmy Lucas, Beany Marks won a decision in the special feature bout. In a substitute bout Jimmy Fox won three out of four rounds from George McCoy.

Bobby Hernan beat Casper Circlo in the curtain-raiser.

BIG STAKES IN TIA JUANA RACE

The eighth running of the Cruft-fast handicap at Tia Juana, Mexico, will be worth approximately $100,000 to the winner, according to a recent announcement by Lewis H. Falk, president of the Tia Juana Jockey Club. They will be the largest purses ever [illegible] In events of the meeting won last year by W. T. Anderson when his Cavalcade came home first. With a season of 100 racing days the Tia Juana track, which is just across the line from San Diego, will open its gate Thanksgiving Day, November 25th. The increase in purses and stakes will be extended to other races, Falk announced, with the Tia Juana Derby, second richest event on the card, raised $5,000 in added money value from $20,000.

Chas. B. Ray First Colored Football Captain

Lewiston, Me.—Charles B. Ray, Negro backfield star, today held the distinction of being the first of his race ever elected captain of the football team of Bates College.

Ray, now a senior, came to Bates from West Chester, Pa., and gained a place on the varsity squad in his freshman year. The rule barring freshmen was not adopted until the following year. For two years he has been chosen unanimously for a place on the "All-Maine" college football team.

AUTOMOBILE EDITION

U. S. FIGURES ON INDUSTRY PARADOXICAL

BY: REEVE GARTZMANN
(Oakland and Pontiac Distributor)

Statisticians report that motor car prices are lower. The advertisements of the manufacturers prove that they are lower, yet the Department of Commerce has issued a report in which it is shown that while the total production of motor cars in 1922 was 7 per cent greater than in 1923, the valuation of this production increased 12 per cent.

When production increases only 7 per cent and prices increase 12 per cent it looks as if automobile prices had increased, but quite on the contrary they have been materially reduced. The apparent discrepancy in the figures is explained by the fact that Americans in every class are choosing the higher priced models of each respective make.

SUPREMACY WANING

Formerly the four-cylinder car predominated the production field. Its supremacy is waning. The public prefers sixes, and hence the increased production of sixes as compared to 1923 and hence the larger per unit valuation.

To be more exact, the six cylinder closed car has the call, and it necessarily costs a little more than the open car of the same class. Ten years ago only three out of every 200 cars built were closed. Now 117 out of every 200 are closed cars.

American women demand closed cars, and the American women usually get what they want. Feminine influence is the most important factor in motor car sales, and just as it was the women who made it necessary to build more easily handled cars it is the women who are maintaining the demand for closed cars and finer cars, hence the increase of 12 per cent in valuation against a 7 per cent gain in volume.

AUGUST PUT 9,790 MORE CARS ON ROAD

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA PILES UP BIG TOTAL OF SALES, WITH L. A. COUNTY CONTRIBUTING 7,410

When September began there were 9790 more new motor cars on the highways of Southern California than at the opening of the previous month. That was August's contribution toward maintaining this territory as one of the foremost motoring sections of the world.

While Southern California was piling up the 9790 total, Los Angeles added 7410 as its share of the new cars, not including Hollywood where the month's separate registrations were 528. The August total for Los Angeles County was 7180 new, shining automobiles.

Enough Gas? Ah—That's Motorists' Question

The speedometer is a very valuable piece of equipment, but never depend upon its mysterious reading to tell when the gasoline supply needs replenishing. Always trust the only indication of gas and that is the gauge. All the "miles" the engine runs are never recorded, but the leaks of the carburetor or gas line. Also there is evaporation to be considered. Do not trust that the gas tank needs when it is necessary to feel and shake the gas supply. Get that it is working properly and look into the tank between the filler pipe when possible.

One Hurt Each Day At Crossings

In California one person is now killed each day at grade crossings and every two and one-half days one person is injured. The Southern Pacific Lines in California, during the first eight months of 1923, killed as many persons at grade crossings as the entire state of California killed during the same period of 1922. Year by year the Southern Pacific Lines in California have been reducing the number of persons killed at grade crossings. Year by year the County Road Department has been eliminating grade crossings. In 1923 only seven lives were lost through collisions between trains and automobiles on the Southern Pacific Lines in California, as compared with [illegible] in 1922. WELL FOLKS!

It looks as though those that have not taken a fool's advice and acquired a car are going to be sorry ere long if Uncle Sam's word counts for anything. Yes, sir ree! Cars are going to take the upward grade in price anyway.

Of course if you can't afford a car don't get one but, if you can or do need one better get in touch with some of the salesmen on the avenue and make arrangements before the rush. Automobile may decide that they have as much right to higher values as individuals have to increased salaries.

MOTORS AND THEIR CARE

LOCKING THE CAR

Many cars are fitted with a battery ignition system in which the distributor arm is removable. By removing this arm the car owner makes stealing his vehicle possible only by towing it away or by fitting another distributor arm. The arm may be removed simply by unclasping the distributor cover to which the wires are attached. It usually happens that there is only one way in which this arm will fit, so there need be no worry about replacing it.

SLIPPING EXPLAINED

When the gears acquire the habit of slipping back into neutral from high or second, the trouble is due to the shifter forks. If they are worn the gears will not always be fully engaged, and where there is considerable strain or vibration (as in climbing a steep hill in second) it will be necessary to hold the shift lever in the desired position. Misalignment of the forks will often cause the gears to slip back to neutral from any position, particularly annoying in the case of slippage from high to neutral when descending grades. If the trouble is confined to the latter and is slight, it can often be overcome by avoiding sudden application of power or brakes and by gentle handling of the clutch.

BATTERY LIFE AIDED

Battery life is largely dependent upon the absence of extreme discharging and charging. The more extreme these processes, the more chemical action is forced upon the battery and quicker its plates go to pieces. The life of a battery, therefore, can be lengthened by making starting easier. To do this it is necessary to use good gas, oil of the right consistency and to have the battery fully charged. If it is fully charged it will not have to work so hard, for fully charged it will give the engine a livelier spin and increase compression. Furthermore, nothing is to be gained by having the battery forced to a quick charge.

CARE OF TIRES

Tires should be watched to detect surface cuts and lacerations and these should be repaired promptly. When rubber is gouged out of the tread, leaving deep ragged cavities, clean the edges and interior if the opening to its full depth with gasoline. Be very careful that all dirt and other foreign matter are removed. A small stiff brush or splinter of wood covered with waste or cloth may be used. After the gasoline has evaporated and the cut is absolutely clean, coat its walls with cement and let it dry.

BAD FOR CLUTCH

The practice of keeping the car in gear and using the engine to keep the car from coasting backward when halted in traffic on an upgrade is particularly trying on the clutch, which, in slipping, has to act as brake for the time being. Wise drivers avoid the annoyance of a long wait on a hill with brake and clutch depressed by climbing it a little slower when all indications point to the fact that traffic is scheduled for a halt—just a matter of looking ahead, literally.

LOS ANGELES MAIDS GET UNION PACIFIC DE LUXE TRAIN

The Los Angeles Maids are gleefully happy and grateful over the news that they have been awarded the crack Union Pacific De Luxe train which will make it's initial trip on November 14th to Chicago. They say good things come to those who wait and that it never rains but what it pours, as in addition to getting the De Luxe, they will also have the operation of the new Gold Coast Limited as far as Ogden. It will take at least five Maids to operate the Gold Coast and twelve for the De Luxe, which of course will assure the Maids who have been running extra all summer a regular line. It has been rumored that the regular Maids now operating the Los Angeles Limited will have charge of the De Luxe and the extra girls the Gold Coast to Ogden; the De Luxe crew will go through to Chicago as before. This is rather a pleasant surprise to all the Maids as for a while they were in doubt as to whether they would get the De Luxe and were continually encouraged and urged by the Railroad Clatter to put up a fight for this train, which in all probability would have been given to Chicago Maids, if no effort had not been manifested by the Maids of this district. Mr. Shores has been continually in touch with the Chicago office for the Los Angeles Maids, and it is to be hoped that they will show their appreciation by rendering a brand of service which has already brought forth much favorable comment from the traveling public. You have already become famous in transcontinental service, on November 14th you will be put to a much greater test than you were before; prove yourselves worthy by hitting the ball and keeping down complaints —you are now in possession of the hen that lays the golden eggs, it is up to you to make him lay by feeding him with courtesy and SERVICE.

LOS ANGELES PORTERS TO OPERATE GOLD COAST LIMITED

The Los Angeles Porters now on the extra board, which number about seventy or seventy-five will be glad to hear that the alarming prospect of laying idle part of the winter, will be somewhat alayed by the awarding of the Gold Coast Limited to this district. The operation of this train will take about twenty men and will relieve the now greatly conjected extra board to a certain degree. The Gold Coast Limited will operate over the Union Pacific to Chicago on the Los Angeles Limited's former time; so get ready boys and change your B. V. D's., the weather in Chicago in the winter time will not agree with them.

S. A. HOPGOOD DECLINES TO RUN AS CANDIDATE TO P. P. B. A.

Mr. S. A. Hopgood, although winning over his nearest high competitor by a majority of 89 votes in the primary election, has refused to run in the finals on the grounds that he was not nominated at the first open meeting along with the other nominated candidates, and further that it was unanimously agreed upon in his presence to support Mr. T. A. Simms, and that even though he was nominated at another meeting, it was done by an entirely different group than those present at the first meeting held and unknown to himself and other nominated candidates; thus, in his estimation, casting an unfair light upon the methods used in nominating him, and that in fairness to himself and other candidates nominated he sees fit to politely decline. This leaves the race in the finals between the next highest candidates which are T. A. Simms and C. H. Levy; their names will go on the final ballot on the 15th and the battle will again be renewed for the Grand Delegates' seat seat to the Grand Lodge. Following is the result of the primary election: Chairman—R. J. Murray 170, C. H. Levy 11, T. A. Simms 3, total 184 votes; Vice-Chairman—C. H. Levy 161, C. A. Crain 8, S. A. Hopgood 7, total 176; Secretary—C. A. Crain 150, J. L. Burnette 16, H. E. Washington 7, total 173; Treasurer—J. L. Burnette 162, S. A. Hopgood 10, J. T. Ambrose 5, total 178; Delegate—S. A. Hopgood 141, T. A. Simms 56; C. H. Levy 1, total 198; Grievance Com.: H. E. Bradley 117, J. T. Ambrose 178, J. L. Burnette 127, total 476. Be sure and cast your ballot in the finals. Election Committee: H. E. Burnette, J. L. Hill, C. Seaves.

PILOT SEES

The Santa Fe is trying out a new style jacket for the porters who will operate their new De Luxe Train the Chief. The jacket is the same color as the Pullman uniform.

The members have come and gone and we humble folks are none the richer after having millions in our minds for this week.

Now comes the drama between Sheffield, Radolph and Mrs. Jacobs. Sheffield knocks on the door of Mrs. Jacobs' home and shouts—EVERY TUE, walks in and gathers up 6 pints and 2 bottles of home-brew-luck. Mrs. Jacobs said the bottle that beer belonged to George Washington & Pullman Porter, he always has me keep two bottles on ice for him while he's away on his run to Chicago. These boys work so hard on the train they come in totally exhausted, if they didn't have their cold bottle of beer waiting for them, they just couldn't stand the trip. We heartily agree with Mrs. Jacobs, BUT that was in 1925 and '26 when there was no Sheffields or Randolps, evidently the lady is some kin to Rip Van Winkle, but we glory in her spunk.

Baby No. 3

Well folks, they are coming so fast that I have to number them. Last week we were roughed some by E. L. Arnaud announcing a new born baby in the family and now, not to be outdone comes the startling news that a daughter was born to Mrs. J. A. Wortham, and mother and daughter are both doing well. C. L. Arnaud and J. A. Wortham congratulations.

E. L. Arnaud says his baby has has learned to talk already. He now says, give me, just as plain.

LIBERTY CLUB GIVES DINNER

The Liberty Club gave a dinner at the Christian Tavern which was one of the leading social events of the week. Many Pullman Porters and their wives were present and danced to the strains of an orchestra composed of West Side talent under the supervision of Prof. Spikes. Some of the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ambrose; Mr. and Mrs. L. Thropay. Mr. and Mrs. J. Wortham; Mr. and Mrs. F. Jasper. Mr. and Mrs. C. Fletcher and numerous others about sixty couples in all. The high light of the evening was the graceful foot-shaking of Mr. J. T. Ambrose.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC AND RED CAPS

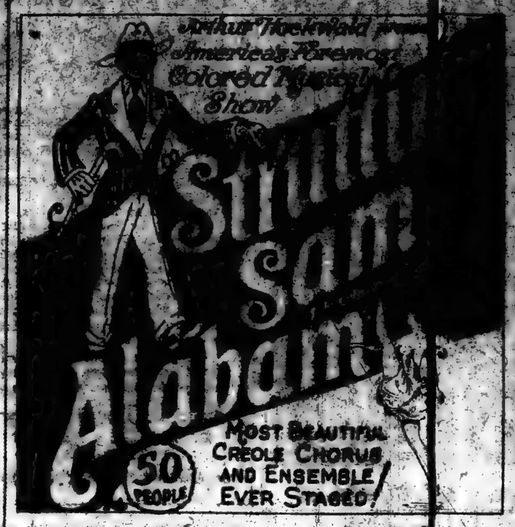
The Jazzland hounds of the S. P. and U. P. seem to be Ovid Scott and Louis Edward Love.

We have at last discovered another Sheik to take the place of R. Burns who held the honors so long—"Why S. T. Phillups of course." Girls! he just won't behave.

What has long been conshidered a crack crew and a crack run is now on the verge of being broken up. The crew is as follows and operates the "Lark" between Los Angeles and Santa Barbara. They say that you should always put age before beauty, so we will have to start off with Holand Wakes, Douglas De Vaughn; Ed. Lewis the famous banjo picker; R. Burns, former shiek; S. T. Phillups, present sheik and Lonnie Stubblefield. When this famous crew was interviewed by the writer they were sad and down-hearted over a rumor that they were going to operate the crew through to Frisco. For some reason or other which is a little too deep for the writer to undertake to explain, Santa Barara seems to have won a warm spot in the hearts of the boys' ranches. Well, I don't know, it's too deep for me.

RED CAPS

W. S. Newby lost his mother-in-law and his wife Mrs. Newby has gone to Denver to attend the funeral.



Pete Sullivan is much grieved over the loss of his baby girl.

J. Gray Christened his baby last week and is all smiles now.

They are batting a hundred per cent—John Wilson, F. Cook, C. Farrar and Red Brown. Following are the heavy 3 way 9—Glover, Palmer and Gus Conway—lots of new entries in the lineup.

Mr. Hugh Gory was seen gliding down Central Avenue in his Studit, loaded with suitcases. We wonder was he going to load No. 8.

Address all railroad news to Chas. L. Upton, 2190 W. 30th St.

Charter Amendment Will Benefit All

Every section of Los Angeles will be benefitted through the opening and widening of Major Traffic streets, with the passage of Charter Amendment No. 7-A on the city ballot at the November 4 election, according to David R. Faries, executive vice-chairman of the Major Highways Committee of the Traffic Commission.

Mr. Faries said that the charter amendment will provide money to pay the city's share of some 20 projects, all included in the Major Traffic Street Plan. In this way, he said, street improvement assessments will be reduced, as the city will accept some of the burden that otherwise would fall on the property owners.

"Charter Amendment No. 7-A," Mr. Faries said, "provides for a nominal tax increase amounting to 9c for each $100 of assessed valuation of property for a period of not to exceed five years. At the end of this five year period, the increase will be automatically discontinued.

"Traffic congestion is now the most serious problem facing Los Angeles. With the tremendous growth of the city comes a corresponding increase in the number of automobiles. Within five or six years we may see two machines on the road where there is one now.

"If we do not provide room for these machines, what will happen? People simply will not be able to use their cars to advantage. They will either have to leave their cars home, or experience a continuous traffic jam.

"Two years ago Los Angeles voters were foresighted enough to approve the Major Traffic Street Plan, calling for a definite scientific program for the widening and opening of traffic arteries.

"This plan must be continued. We cannot expect the property owners to pay all of the cost, as the general public, too, is greatly benefitted. The only fair way is to provide funds so the city can pay its share. This will be done with the passage of Charter Amendment No. 7-A.

"Projects included in the second unit have been recommended so that every portion of the city will get traffic relief. Venice, San Fernando Valley, the arbor, Hollenbeck Heights —all will participate in the benefits.

"Vote 'YES'" on Charter Amendment No. 7-A. Remember, better streets are an investment that increases property values, and prepare for the future development and prosperity of the city."

Sam Langford Arrested For Drunkenness

(By A. M. P.)

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 5.—N. Rathblott, an honest-to-goodness Philadelphia Jew, believes he is the only Jew in America who can claim membership in some of the negro Baptist Associations in the world. He defines himself as a Baptist who is also a Jew.

Monday morning when the confirmed President's Special to the National Baptist Convention in Fort Worth, Texas, pulled out from Chicago, Rathblott was aboard.

"Well, you see, I'm a regular Baptist," he announced several times in response to inquiries of curious eyed clergymen. "I have been elected a member of the National Baptist Convention. A short while ago, I was accorded membership in the Baptist Sunday School Congress."

Rathblott came to America twenty years ago from Russia, and landed with five cents. He was fleeing from the oppression which Jews suffer in Russia. Needless to say, his five cents have grown. He has quit his client. Today he directs the activities of the sub-divisions known as the N. Rathblott Development and Realty Company.

A few years ago this company purchased some 2,000 acres of land on a site called Mitpah, almost centrally located between Philadelphia and Atlantic City, in New Jersey. This acreage was subdivided and it was proposed to make a model town, of it that should be a sort of haven for the oppressed. And peace, apply was almost steadily [illegible]

[illegible] of the 32,000 lots at Mitpah have been sold to Jews. Negroes, and to those whites who wanted to live in a community ruled by harmony. Many very prominent Negroes live in Mitpah. As the President's Special made its way to Texas, the preachers and their wives gobbled those lots up. They seemed to like the story of this Baptist Jew who declared that after all, the problem of the Jew and the Negro is the same and that these two should get together for their mutual benefit.

But don't think a Jew can't forsake his trade. Rathblott was doing a tremendous business among the Baptist brethren when the time for the celebration of the feast of Yom Kippur and the Jewish New Year arrived. He knocked off.

"You're missing thousands of dollars," a friend protested. "What difference does that make?" Rathblott resolutely replied.

SOUTHERN CAROLINA LYNCHES TWO BOYS AND A GIRL

By: WILLIAM PICKENS

(For the Assocated Negro Press)

The American people are so used to lynching news that they are in danger of falling into an apathy and indifference that will cause them to miss the full meaning of a horror like that reported from Aiken, S. C., on October 8th, that a "WOMAN AND TWO MEN" had been lynched. A brief analysis of the case will impress this upon the average mind:

1. This girl and these two boys had been put into jail and tried for their lives because an officer was killed when a "raid" was being made on their home, without any warrant of court, it seems, and when the inmates of the home had no way of knowing that the attackers were officers.

2. It is not charged that the girl or even either of the boys did any shooting. The house belonged to the father of one of the boys and the girl, and the other boy was their cousin. It would seem from the garbled news that the one who did the shooting in defense of the house, escaped, inasmuch as these three children of the home were charged with "conspiracy" to murder, and the two boys were condemned to hang and the girl given a life sentence,—all this because they were at home, where they belonged, when this trouble occurred there.

3. But the higher court of South Carolina would not stand for this judicial horror, and ordered a new trial.

4. At the new trial, the first boy who was put on trial, was acquitted, —by a white jury and white judge, with white lawyers on both sides in the State of South Carolina,—so that God knows he must have been guiltless.

5. But the mob thinks that every Negro being TRIED for killing a white person must be guilty,—and the little trick was worked immediately of having this acquitted boy rearrested for "assault" and recommitted to jail,—so that at night the mob could go and get him and the other boy and the girl and take them out and shoot them.

6. The "raiders" had already killed the mother of the girl, and the girl herself had been shot through the body,—in their own home. Even if the man should be adjudged guilty of wrong who shot in defense of his home when it was being "raided" without any process of law, certainly these women, who perhaps did not know one end of a gun from the other, were guiltless. But one was killed and the other lynched.

7. Do not forget that these three young people were about to prove their innocence in a white community, a white court, in a state entirely run by white people,—and if a white court was about to free them of the charge of killing a white man in South Carolina, they were certainly INNOCENT.

8. That is the real meaning of mob violence. It is reasonless; it overthrows law, makes justice impossible, and reduces innocence to despair, helplessness—. And the worst thing is: Nothing will be done about it. Local prejudice paralyses law,—and the weight of the whole nation is needed against lynching, through a federal law.

Bring Man North For Trial

(By A. N. P.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 18.—Carl Nolly, possessor of a half dozen select aliases, has been ordered returned to Pennsylvania to face a murder charge. Requisition papers of Gov. Pinchot of Pennsylvania were honored and although Nolly was serving a five years' term in the state penitentiary for highway robbery, Gov. McLean was content to let him go back to Pennsylvania on Pinchot's promise that he would be returned to North Carolina in the event he was found not guilty, or a prison term in Pennsylvania should be consummated. Nolly is charged with killing a Philadelphia officer.

"MIAMI, THE PLAY GARDEN—A TENT CITY"

By: JESSE O. THOMAS

(By A. N. P.)
(For the Associated Negro Press)

Beautiful Miami, the magic city, the play garden of America with its tall sky scrapers and beautiful Spanish designed bungalows and steel-ribbed office buildings towering toward the skies, has become the desolated tent city. The people are housed in tents that have been sent down from Oglethorpe, George, and other places. Much of the city is still under water.

As a result of an organized protest of the colored citizens the conscription measure enforced by the Marines has finally been recalled. Not only were men of all classes conscripted, women also at the point of guns were compelled to get in the trucks and form a part of the Peon Brigade. To the credit of the Red Cross it can be said that there was no discrimination in the matter of supplying food and clothing to the refugees. Most of the Negro churches were badly damaged. There were a great many white churches blown away or rendered "unusuable." There has been a marked decline in the singing of the blues since the hurricane. The Negro spirituals and the old fashioned hymns are the popular songs you hear sung by everybody and everywhere. I wonder what does this mean?

DIES DEFENDING HIMSELF

(By A. N. P.)

Charleston, Mo., Oct. 16.—Artie Noel was shot to death by Deputy Sheriff Owen Cook as Noel engaged in a gun battle with the deputy and a posse of farmers. Noel had taken refuge in a ditch. One of the farmers, Henry Cherry, was killed by a bullet from Noel's gun. Trouble began after Noel had beaten Roy Stark, a white farmer for whom he worked, as the climax to a quarrel over wages.

INDICT COP FOR MURDER

(By A. N. P.)

New York, Oct. 16.—Patrolman Joseph A. Higgins, white, has been indicted for murder in the first degree as a result of the death of Clinton DeForest in Central Park two months ago. DeForest, after having been beaten by the policeman, was found by a taxicab chauffeur and taken to a hospital where he died the next day.

Ney York, N. Y., Oct. 18—Dispatches from London state that Lady Stanley, widow of the great African explorer, Sir Henry Stanley, died here Tuesday.

Abyssinia Stings Italy, Great Britain

(By A. N. P.)

New York, Oct. 18.—Dispatches from Europe bear significant testimony to the high character of recent notes sent Italy and Great Britain by Ras Tafari, regent of Abyssinia, commenting on the allegedly philanthropic effort of the two countries to appropriate Abyssinian territory. Tafari forgives Chamberlain of England and Mussolini of Italy for their past efforts to take advantage of Abysinia, but makes not that he is keeping close watch on their activities in the future. The note is characterized as a classicly satirical commentary on the so-called philanthropic statemanship of Mussolini and Chamberlain.

Mrs. Viola Cadrez Gets Her Divorce

At a hearing in the Superior Court on last Friday, October 15th, Mrs. Viola Cadrez was granted an interlocutory divorce from Arthur F. Cadrez.

Mrs. Cadrez was given her maiden name. No alimony was asked for.

Mr. Carez did not contest the case.

SUES "BLACK BILLY" SUNDAY FOR LIBEL

(By A. N. P.)

New Orleans, La., Oct. 20.—Rev. J. Gordon McPherson, known as Black Billy Sunday, is defendant in a ten-thousand libel suit brought by Rev. A. Thornton in Jackson, Miss. It is alleged that in a recent revival conducted by the Rev. McPherson in Jackson that sixty per cent of the gross receipts were to be turned over to the visiting evangelist, but after the close of the event Thornton said that sixty per cent of the net was sufficient. Hot words ansued and the fiery evangelist instead of turning the other cheek, literally, said a mouthful which only ten thousand dollars will heal.

PAUL ROBESON STARS IN "BLACK BOY"

(By A. N. P.)

New York, Oct. 16.—Paul Robeson won new laurels for himself at the opening production of "Black Boy," a melodrama of James Tully and Frank Dasey. The play was given its initial performance at the Comedy Theatre goes without saying that theatre-goers prefer that Eugene O'Neil shall hereafter write the plays in which Paul Robeson is to appear. The play is in three acts and is rather tawdry. It lacks distinction, save that which is brought about through the artistic acting of Paul Robeson. The circumstances of the play are these: A lad goes forth with a desire to win championship in the prize rings; he falls in with a woman whom he believes to be white and who claims to love him; he gains laurels by knocking out the fighter whose sparring partner he has been engaged to be. Robeson, it is claimed, plays all the roles well. He is at first in plender, in a luxurious Harlem apartment where he is, of course, attended by those well-known habitues of the bright lights; the woman betrays him, because a man who knows much of her evil ways, tells her to, and "Black Boy" is forced to return to the life of workman, which he does with absolute abandon. To some the play is repugnant, but everyone is deeply impressed and moved by the acting of "its dusky star with his fine physique, his voice of deep, deep music and his genuine genius of the actor." Mr. Robeson sings, and this brings more breathless silence over the theatre and everyone watches him as he takes "it" the moment and another his full artist's stature above the mere mess of things on the stage.

L. A. To Have Great Choral Presentation

What is doubtless one of the most ambitious musical efforts ever attempted by the colored people of Los Angeles will take place at Hilharmonic Auditorium, Tuesday evening, November 30. Sixty of our leading voices taken from the various churches have been combined under the direction of James B. Jones and formed into what is to be known as the Los Angeles Choral Club.

Following the recent choral competition held at the Hollywood Bowl, many of Los Angeles' ablest music critics proclaimed the colored chorus of this city the equal of many of the best white choirs of America.

Frederick Skinner, Baritone, who is being sponsored by the Pacific Southwest Artists Bureau, and considered the latest colored sensation will appear as assisting artist.

Lynch Negro in Tenn.

(By A. N. P.)

Dover, Tenn., Oct. 15.—Informing the sheriff that they wanted either him or Herbert Bell, a mob of 500 unmasked men took Bell from prison Friday night, took the sheriff along, and hanged Bell to a tree. He had been arrested following the death of Rufus Joyner, a white farmer who is said to have been shooting dice with Bell. The usual investigation has been demanded.

Stabbed To Death By A Woman

(By A. N. P.)

Lexington, N. C., Oct. 16.—Because he told her he was going to a show without her, Lula Dean, common-law wife of Willie Cofer, seized a knife and threatened to prevent him by radical means. Cofer grabbed two bottles, struck her with one, and threw the other at him. She drove the knife through his heart. She will be tried for murder.

THE COURIER REPEATS ITS OWN LIES

By: WILLIAM PICKENS

(For the Associated Negro rPess)

One of the dirtiest bits of conscienceless journalism is that on the front page of the Pittsburgh Courier for October 9th, headed "N. A. A. C. P. 'Slush Fund' Aired." It is calculated to mislead the ignorant who do not know the full meaning of such terms. It states things that everybody knows, as if they were dark secrets,—in order to impress the unintelligent; it says, for example, that Negro organizations, like the Urban League and the N. A. A. C. P., have received from the Garland Fund, appropriations totaling about $62,000 in five years, as if this were some dark, hidden secret,—when as a matter of fact any citizen of the United States can get the report of the Garland Fund and read about all its gifts for himself. Instead of complaining that the Negro race got so little of this fund, the Courier pretends to be excited that it got $62,000 out of over a million and a half.

The Courier dates its article from "New York City," when, as a matter of fact, the whole pot of poison was concocted right there in the Courier editorial office in Pittsburgh as an effort to poison the humble Negro's mind against the Campaign of the N. A. A. C. P. to raise a permanent defense fund. All that the Courier got from New York for that Article was got by sending word to its New York agent to get a list of the contributions from the Garland Fund to Negro organizations. This agent phoned the Association for the information, and the Association gave him the name of the Secretary of the Garland Fund, to whom the agent phoned and got the information, just as any other person in the world could get it.

And this is all of "the investigation" there was, and the Courier knows it. They have given impression in the very first sentence of their lying article that there was some public "investigation" and exposure of something wrong. The Courier knows how to lie and dodge the law at same: for example, if the Garland Fund would stoop to having the editor of the Courier arrested for lying when he says that the Fund was "investigated," the Courier Editor could say that his New York agent "investigated" the Fund, when that agent phoned James Weldon Johnson for information as to how much much the Fund had given to worthy Negro enterprises. And the Courier uses this courteous giving of information by the Fund secretary as the basis of a statement that the Garland Fund was "investigated," writing headlines to imply that there was some scandal connected with it. The Courier even "exposes" a gift by the Fund of $26,000 to the "Sweet Defense," as one of the dark secrets, although the N. A. A. C. P. had published this gift in all the papers of the United States, and indeed this gift from the Garland Fund had stimulated colored people to give to the Defense of Dr. Sweet and h's associates.

If ever a more slimy attack was made by a dirty newspaper, we have not heard of it.

ANOTHER VIEW OF CONDITIONS IN STORM SWEPT FLORIDA

By: MARY McLEOD BETHUNE

The Red Cross has ceased its emergency work for the MASSES. Individual help and family welfare is now its program and in this, members of our group have a very small share.

The struggle for rehabilitation is making heroes and heroines out of our people. They are, figuratively speaking, making brick without straw."

Injustice and prejudice seem to be rampant all over the State and it is not an easy matter to hold on under such circumstances. Yet we realize that God lives and does not wield His scepter in vain.

Most of our towns have collected hundreds of dollars, clothing and bedding and have shipped them to the stricken centers.

The Fraternal Organizations have sent their donations by special persons. Orlando sent $500.00, Daytona $200.00 and Deland $100.02. Orland sent a Colored Nurse. Daytona Beach through its Red Cross Colored Branch, through its Red Cross Colored Branch, sent Miss Anna Papino, Red Cross Nurses and Superintendent of McLeod oHspital, Bethune-Cookman College. Miss Papino writes as follows:

"Dressing Station,
Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Dear Mrs. Bethune:

Here I am sitting down in what is left of the Sanctified Church, waiting for the Colored Doctor to come for me. I have waited for over an hour.

Our poor people here have no one to lead them. No Colored Relief Committee is working and they just have to wait until the Red Cross gets time to wait upon them.

I went to the general headquarters of the Red Cross Saturday. They were glad to have me, especially when they found out that they would not have to pay me a salary. Everyone seemed delighted.

I was then sent to the Head of the Public Health Nurses, who assigned me to work at this Dressing Station from which I shall make home calls.

I shall dispense the clothes and money where I think they are most needed.

Respectfully yours,
ANNA PAPINO, R. N."

Friends, the time has come for us to do a special work for our group. Individuals and families must be assisted in their struggles to remake their homes.

Those of you who are differently situated must come to the rescue and help to keep the home fires burning. All of Florida is affected and bravely is she striving to meet the issue.

Send your contributions to me for all stricken sections, and to Miss Papino for Fort Lauderdale.

Fisk Stages Comeback; Defeats Roger Williams

(By A. N. P.)

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 16.—After being out-played, out-gamed and outgeneralled for three periods by the Roger Williams eleven, the Fisk Bull Dogs, staged a comeback in the final period and defeated the Williams warriors 13-0 here Friday afternoon on Fisk campus.

While the game was dubbed a "practice game," it had all of the color and rivalry of a regular game. Roger Williams presented a stronger aggregation than the Bull Dogs and the physical condition of the men contributed largely to their defeat.

Fisk's scores resulted from a sweeping end run from the 35-yard line by Gee and the second from an intercepted forward pass by Yost. Coach Johnson has a wealth of material and when "certain combinations" are effected, Fisk will be heard from. Thornhill of Roger Williams was the outstanding star of the game.

AUTO INDUSTRY HOLDS OWN

What some of the leaders in the industry are doing as the end of 1926 is drawing near and what is practically certain will top all previous years in production and sales figures, can be seen by the following:

Chrysler entered October with orders on hand for 25,000 cars. Production is being stepped up; Oakland's October schedule calls for 16,000 units; Chevrolet is working on a 70,000 schedule for the present month; Packard is maintaining a monthly output of 3000 sixes and 500 eights and will continue uninterrupted until the first of 1927; Studebaker sales in September topped 11,000 and October's will be equally as good. The new closed models bearing the Atlanta emblem are in good demand.

The Nash factories at Racine, Wis., are increasing prpoduction capacity of its light six to about 325 cars per day through the installation of $600,000 additional equipment. Current production is around 225 daily; Moon sales are 20 per cent over those of one year ago.

Production and shipments of whippet cars by the Willys-Overland Company during the first seventy working days following the announcement of the car, totaled 40,724. The daily output is around the 575 mark.

Production figures for the Ford Motor Company are not made public. The plants are now on a five-day basis—as they have been for the past several months.

The N. A. A. C. P. Presents JOHN A. GRAY, Pianist and SINCLAIR WHITE MURDOCK, Violinist

In Joint Recital

TUESDAY, 8:30 P. M., OCTOBER 26, 1926

AT SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH, 24th and Griffith ADMISSION 50 CENTS

I have been asked by Mrs. A. C. Richardson, to contribute some space for a very rare and unusual treat and a most worthy cause, namely the presentation of MADAM SINCLAIR WHITE MURDOCK, whose charming personality and exceptional ability as a Violinist put her in the rank of the very few outstanding artists of the race, and our MR. GRAY, who by concentrated effort and diligent application, through sacrifice and hardship, has reached the point of recognition as an artist because of his technique at the piano and as a teacher of same. We all love JOHN GRAY and MADAM MURDOCK because of what they mean to the community. Both have character and are devoting their life's work helping our little ones along the line of musical education, which aids so materially in character building, and as for the N. A. A. C. P., the work of the organization speaks for itself, and I sincerely urge that all of you who read this announcement will not only go yourselves, but will tell a friend or acquaintance to do likewise that these two young artists and our great association will be encouraged to do even more.

I am thankful for the opportunity of donating some space for this occasion.

Wilbur C. Gordon M.D.

NOTE:—MOST UNUSUAL CAREER FOR MADAM MURDOCK

At the age of six she entered the Chicago Musical College under the joint tutorship of Alexander Sebald and Anatol Melzakowski, at the age of eight, her genius recognized, was taken by Melzakowski to Warsaw Russian Polland, studied there until she was fourteen years of age, gave 48 chamber music recitals through Russia, eight and fourteen years, returned to United States, re-entered the Chicago musical college under the same tutors, through post graduation. Won three gold medals and one diamond medal, was the youngest competitor for four consecutive years, had the honor of representing the Violin Department of the college at their commencement exercises, at which time she rendered Max Bruch's Concerto in G-Minor with full Thomas Orchestra, which was led by Carl Reckex. At age of nineteen was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Arts which meant the completion of the required curriculum of the institution in Violin, Harmony, Pedagogy, Canon, Fuque Composition and history of music.

Madam Murdock accompanied Madam Anita Patti Brown through the West Indies and South America, returned and resumed studies under Felix Witernitz for one year, gave joint recital with the now famous Roland Hayes, was for a year violin instructor at the American Conservatory in Chicago, being the first woman of Negro blood to hold such position, also personal violiniste for Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle for three years. She enjoyed two successful seasons of the Orpheum Circuit, as soloist for Rienee Davis. After making one tour of the Pantages Circuit, arrived in Los Angeles and falling in love with the beautiful climate and lovely people, she decided to go no further, continuing her studies with Alexander Roman of the Philharmonic Orchestra, and has taught among us for five years. We shall be honored by hearing Madam Murdock play the concerto that won her the diamond medal, and she says that she will play it on a very rare old Amati violin, which she was able to purchase through her teacher, Alexander Roman. I'll say this is some career, and I don't see how anyone can afford to not hear this unusually talented woman.

NOTE:—SHOULD ANYONE ASK US ABOUT MR. GRAY, WE TAKE PRIDE IN POINTING OUT THE FOLLOWING WHICH SPEAKS OF HIS CAREER:—

Mr. Gray started his musical career under the tutorship of his father, a choir director of a Norfolk Virginia Church. Dad taught him the fundamental principles and rudiments of music. Then came the hardships known to so many of us who perchance might achieve success in life, and our John was largely self taught until he was able to reach Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and he had a real teacher for the first time. After coming to Los Angeles in 1909 he entered the Von Stein Academy, under the tutorship of Herr Von Stein, then Piano harmony under Dr. Eugene Davis, of the Davis Music College. Then for two years he took harmony, counterpoint and composition with N. L. Ridderhof. At the same time Mr. Gray was studying Pipe Organ with Bruce Gordon Kinsley, French and German with Karl Muhlenfield, and Italian with Frank Tortorelli, went to Polytechnic two years in piano with Joseph Riccard.

Then came the war which put him back. After the war, he resumed his studies for the first seven years with the same French teacher; also taking up theory and counterpoint with A. J. Gantvoort of U. C. Southern Branch. This young man has also studied the Alchin System of harmony with Vincent Jones at the U. S. C., and for the past two winters has been studying German and Italian at the U. C. Extension Departments. He is one of the affiliated teachers of the University Extension Conservatory of Chicago, has done much pioneer work here with us, and we well remember the two-piano recital with Mrs. Bessie Williams Dones and the other two-piano recital with Mrs. Lorenza Jordan Cole. He was the founder of the Bridge Tower Trio, the only Chamber music organization of the race on the coast.

He had the pleasure of serving as an accompanist to our great artists, Roland Hayes and Florence Cole Talbert. Mrs. Talbert, by the way, is now studying in Italy and we believe she has been engaged to sing Aida. The coming program will reveal Mr. Gray as a soloist, accompanist and ensemble player, the three divisions of piano-playing, indeed rather versatile, we should say.

I assure you that we have no other two people in these parts with a musical career which will excel those two people, Sinclair W. Murdock, and John A. Gray.

KEEP COGSWELL ON THE JOB

As Supervisor From The 1st Supervisorial District

For the first time in 20 years the First District has been given the Chairmanship of Roads on the Board of Supervisors. This is an honor conferred only upon the senior member of the Board.

As Chairman of Roads, Supervisor Cogswell has full authority in all highway matters. He is also acting chairman of the Grade Crossing Elimination committee and head of its $20,000,000 program.

Supervisor Cogswell initiated the policy of apportioning auto license funds for construction of highways through incorporated cities. He alone is responsible for over $1,630,000 expended on highways and bridges in the First District during the past year. Petitions for over 500 miles of additional highways are now on file.

On April 19, 1923, at a meeting of county, city and railroad officials the viaduct object was originated, and by assuming th epayment of 20% of their cost by the county, Supervisor Cogswell made possible the building of the eight great viaducts over the Los Angeles rives, providing faster transportation for the First District.

Can the people of the First Supervisorial District afford to lose the Chairmanship of Roads and endanger the highways program now under way?

Will they realize that it does not pay to "change horses in the middle of the stream" in a program of this magnitude?

Los Angeles County has voted $35,000,000 for dams to protect against flood and conserve our water supply. Supervisor Cogswell initiated this great project and knows intimately its details.

As his home is in the San Gabriel valley, menaced by floods no one appreciates more than he the necessity for prompt completion of the dams. His experience and knowledge of water conditions are worth millions to the taxpayers.

Over 300,000 acre-feet of water will be stored in the twelve great dams and reservoirs and the homes and ranches of Los Angeles county permanently protected.

Property losses such as the $20,000,000 flood disaster of 1914 will be avoided and lands now waste opened to cultivation. There must be no delay in this program.

Property values will be increased and thousands given employment by this great project. Agricultural production, lessened by decreasing water levels, will be stabilized by control of the water supply.

Can the property owners of the First Supervisorial District afford to endanger this most vital project at this most critical time?

Will they realize that it does not pay to "change horses in the middle of the stream" in a project of this importance?

Prescott F. Cogswell was in the State Legislature from 1907 to 1917 as chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the House and of the Revenue and Taxation committee of the Senate.

His legislative record was flawless in support of all measures of true benefit to the state. He was one of the first to champion woman suffrage, and helped pass the suffrage amendment.

For the past eight years he has represented the First District on the Board of Supervisors, for four years as chairman of the Roads committee.

At the time of his election as Supervisor, the county government was operating under a $1,000,000 deficit. Today it is operating with a surplus, even in the face of the tremendous improvements of the past few years, and the tax rate has been reduced 10 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

Los Angeles County, owning property worth $100,000,000, and with over $40,000,000 of improvement bonds voted for the immense development program now under way, needs a man of the business experience and sound judgment of Supervisor Cogswell.

Can the taxpayers of Los Angeles County afford to lose the services of a man of the ability of Supervisor Cogswell?

Will they realize that it does not pay to "change horses in the middle of the stream" in public as in private enterprise?

One of the swellest affairs of the season was the social entertainment of the East Side Better Health Club, October 6th Mrs. W. J. Jones, 780 E. 17th St., hostess. Mrs. Jones is the daughter of one of the best physicians and surgeons the Lone Star State affords—Dr J. H. Stevens. She is widely known and very prominent among the social set. To know her is to love her. We, the East Side Better Health Club want to thank Mrs. Jones for entertaining the club so elaborately. The 7-piece orchestra furnished "red hot" music and we danced to the strains to our hearts content. The tiny odd-shaped delicacies were more than good. Mrs. Jones may we come again real soon?

CITIZENS ALLIANCE COMMITTEE ADVISES AND WARNS OF DANGERS IN CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 18 APPEARING ON NOVEMBER BALLOT

FELLOW CITIZENS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA:—

On Vovember 2nd at the polls your vote will determine and effectively decide the all important question of conserving our water and its by-products.

Under the caption of water and power initiative measure known and designated as Constitutional Amendment 18 includes powers destined to destroy the very foundation of our American institutions. This proposition has been twice rejected by the people of California, four years ago it was rejected by a majority of nearly 354,000 and two years ago by a majority of more than 431,000. It is a Constitutional Amendment which pledges the States' credit to an issue of $500,000,000.00 of tax-free State bonds. A board of five persons appointed by the Governor would spend the money in acquiring, operating and maintaining such water and power projects as it deemed necessary or convenient.

This political board would operate the projects from Sacramennto, fix rates, and determine conditions and quality of service all without regulation by the Railroad Commission. Consumers and communities would thus be at the mercy of five politicians with a virtually unrestrained control of industry. Should incorrect estimates, inadequate service or political mismanagement prevent projects from paying expenses or meeting intereat charges of requirements for re-payment of principal out of rates, explicit provisions are made to meet deficits and losses out of the general funds of the state.

HEREIN LIE THE DANGER POINT

This is a bill designed, possibly, on an altruistic theory but so formulated that it would not only impair the credit of the state, but would prevent the building of the dam at Boulder Canyon.

The board is impowered to appoint such employees as it may require and fix their compensation. These employees are exempt from the state civil service law so that the board can build up a great political machine thru patronage.

Advocates of the measure seek to take political advantage of California's additional dry years and its constant concern about water problems by masking the water and power amendment as a water conservation plan, public ownership will not increase rainfall. What we need in times of drought is more rain, not more empty reservoirs. Bringing water and power from the Colorado River to Southern California is the primary need of this community, and civic-minded men and women should use every effort to oppose a radical bill which would interfere with the Colorado River project. There is no public need for the state to embark in the power business, and no good reason for adding a half billion dollars of tax-free bonds to the huge volume of such outstanding securities.

Some advocates of the water and power measure, undismayed by the failure of North Dakota in the wheat and banking businesses, and of many other government ownership projects, favor the act as a first step in California toward the taking over by government of essential industries and the redistribution of private wealth through taxation. There is no more reason why the state should venture into the power business than into the flour or automobile business. Less than sixteen years ago the state undertook effective regulation of public utility companies. As a result, the rates, investments and service of such companies are now controlled by a public agency.

BORDERS ON DISASTER

To scrap the policy of regulation and substitute public ownership would be unjust and foolish. Even those who assert that regulation has failed can not logically offer as an improvement a new commission appointed like the Railroad Commission by the Governor and given the insufficiently restricted power of expanding the tax payers' money and hiring armies of employees.

Private initiative and effort developed California. Political management is usually wasteful and inefficient, and to compel tax payers to provide enormous amounts of borrowed money for the financing of unspecified ventures by a political machine would be to invite disaster.

It therefore becomes your duty as loyal citizens to defeat the restless and twice defeated agitators who refuse to accept the decision of the people so emphatically expressed.

VOTE NO ON PROPOSITION NO. 18

UNJUST LEGISLATION

What is perhaps one of the most discriminatory and unjust pieces of legislation ever put up to the people of California for a vote is the oleomargarine bill, now presented in the form of a referendum. It is an attempt to impose a sales tax and other harsh restrictions on a legitimate food product manufactured in this state; one which happens to be competitive with the butter producers.

PLAIN FACTS

By DR. RUTH TEMPLE

NOTE: Last night a lady came into my office who was one and a half months pregnant. She explained that she had come early to put herself under medical care, because she had lost her last baby, and wanted to be able to save this one if possible. It makes me feel very glad to see our women becoming really intelligent about maternity and kindred conditions. I have the pictures on my desk this morning of 3 beautiful babies whom I feel would not be living today had their mothers not come to me early and had God not blessed the work which I did for them. A certain small percentage of babies will be lost in spite of all that medical science can do, but remember your chances of having a live, strong and healthy baby are increased a thousand fold by seeking medical care just as soon as you know that you are pregnant. MOTHERHOOD---ART. II.

Physical Changes in the Mother During Pregnancy

Sometimes we think of pregnancy as a condition affecting simply the womb and other pelvic organs. But a little more careful observation will help us to realize that this is not correct. We are right when we state that every organ and every tissue of the body from scalp to toe nails feels the stimulus of pregnancy. And this because of these profound [illegible] throughout the entire body house that hundreds of books have been written on the subject and thousands and thousands of lectures given. And because it is such a vitally important subject we will get a large amount of good out of a careful and rather detailed consideration of every practical phase of motherhood or maternity. As we study the body during pregnancy we are forced to pause and marvel anew at the wonderful, wonderful way in which the Creator teaches the cells of the body to each do its own definite part in preparing for the little new life which is to remain a part of it for nine long months.

CHANGES IN THE BLOOD

As we study the blood we find why it is so dangerous for women with tuberculosis or even with a tendency to tuberculosis to have children. Normally the blood carries in it all of the iron calcium, phosphorous and other salts that the body needs; and these salts normally are in perfectly balanced proportion. During pregnancy the two elements that are especially needed by the new baby are iron and calcium. The iron to enrich and strengthen the blood and the calcium to build good bones and good lungs. Now just these same two elements are those especially deficient in the tubercular mother.

With the poor little new baby calling for calcium and the poor and weak mother's lungs calling for calcium and the body's calcium appropriating organs deficient, it is no wonder that the overstrained maternal system often fails under the trial. This is why it is very, very dangerous for anyone with lung trouble, or with even a tendency to lung trouble to have children.

FOODS WHICH ENRICH THE BLOOD

Contrary to common opinion, the foods which give more strength and richness to the blood are the foods which we usually call "light" foods rather than the heavier foods. Spinach, oranges, lettuce, prunes, pineapples and carrots are simply teaming with wonderful mineral salts which the body needs. And the beauty of the salts in these fruits and vegetables is that they are in a form in which the body can so easily assimilate or use them, while the salts in medicines are so often in a form which the body cannot assimilate. The body can get more iron out of one meal of spinach than out of a quart of medicine.

Because green vegetables and fruits are so rich in the mineral salts so greatly needed by the pregnant woman, every prospective mother should make these things the chief articles of her diet.

Next week we will continue the subject of the physical changes during pregnancy.

BIG OPEN AIR BOXING SHOW AT WRIGLEY FIELD SATURDAY

Dick Donald, The Intrepid Square Shooter, Who Brought The Great Tiger Flowers Here To Add More Laurels To His Crown In July Is Staging Another Great Event

Featuring Dick Donald's bargain at Wrigley Field, Saturday afternoon are three ten-round all-star bouts with Bert Colima, flashy Mexican middleweight meeting Everett Strong, hard hitting middleweight, in the top bout. Backing up this great battle are two other ten-rounders, featuring Joe Salas and Bobby LaSalle in a grudge fight and Paul Demsky and Joe Schlocker in the third go.

The reason of the bargain bill is hard to understand as either one of the bouts would be a main event in any club. The Colima-Strong bout alone is worth the price of admission which will be from one to two dollars with every seat reserved.

The Colima-Strong Bout looms as great because of three things. Not the least of these three things is the fact that the winner of the bout has been promised a match with Mickey wants. The flashy Mexican star has Walker. This is just what Colima wanted a crack at Walker ever since the former welterweight king beat him last year. Bert has recently undergone an operation which saw his jaw completely remodeled. This has made his chin stronger and tougher ad Bert claims that he can now take the hardest punches without any ill effects. The Whittier pride is also out to regain his old standing as the greatest middleweight on the West Coast. He intends that Strong shall be his first victim.

Strong however, has different ideas. He believes that he can beat Colima. He also knows that a victory over Colima will mean that he will be in the big moey class. He intends to win. He will try Colima's new jaw also as Everett is one of the hardest punchers in the middleweight ranks out here. The bout looms as one of the greatest that has ever been booked.

The Salas-LaSalle bout also looms big. This fight may steal the show. The lads have a grudge against each other due to their recent bout in which LaSalle was given the decision. Salas claims that it was a pure gift and is out to erase the stigma of the defeat. The winner of this battle has been promised a shot at Jimmy McLarnin. LaSalle has been after a McLarnin bout and is also sore at the claims made by Salas. This should assure everyone of a bang up battle.

The Paul Demsky-JoeSchlocker bout has as its prize, a shot at Mushy Callahan's title as Junior Welter champ. These lads are two willing mixers and always give everyone a run for their money. Demsky has lost only one bout since coming to Los Angeles and that was a most questionable decision to Tommy O'Brien. He is cut to get a crack at Callahan or O'Brien or Baby Joe Gans.

REECORDS OF ALL KINDS BROKEN IN WORLD'S SERIES

New York.—Fifteen new records were established in the 1926 world series and five were tied. Babe Ruth with eight new marks and two ties, led the assault on the record books. The records are:

New attendance record of 328,051.

New receipt record of $1,207,864.

Babe Ruth made a new series playing record, participating in seven series, three with the Red Sox and four with the Yanks.

Ruth established a new home run record for a game, three, made in the fourth game; also a new single series home run record of four, and home run record of eight for the total number of series played.

Ruth made a new total base record for a game by hitting for 12 bases in the fourth game; also a run scoring record of four tallies, made in the fourth game. He tied the runs-batted-in record of four for a game, which was also tied by Lester Bell of the Cards in the sixth game. The record was established by Elmer Smith of the Indians on October 12, 1920.

England at Least has a Wrestling Champ

England seems to be going backward in athletics. They never developed a real boxing champ any more, but at last have a wrestler of promise.

Sam Clappam of England today claims to be the world's light-heavyweight wrestling champion by virtue of his recent triumph over Ted Thye, at Melbourne, Australia. Thye had been generally accepted as the title-holder in this division in the Antipodes for several years. They order things differently in these matters in Australia. The bouts are by rounds as in boxing, and Clappam obtained one fall in twelve ten-minute rounds.

The La Premierer Football team is out to win the City Championship with plenty football tactics and in brief they are doing fine.

With the president, Mrs. Nell McClanahan presiding, Kensington Art and Literary Club held its second meeting of the club year, at the residence of Mrs. Coper on E. 23rd St., Mrs. Rhoda Roach entertaining. Plans have been made for an instructive literary program, which will be enjoyed at the next meeting with Mrs. Lula Slaughter. The members have long been recognized as having ability in art work; but every effort will be put forth this year to excell in literary lines.

TENNIS

"The defeat of the American players by the French tennis stars was a well-deserved spanking," said William T. Tilden, 2nd, one of the victims; in a recent address before the Bridgeport (Conn.) Chamber of Commerce, "but we can't lay down under it. We must develop younger players if we are to regain supremacy in this sport. There is now before the United States Lawn Tennis Association a very comprehensive plan to bring back to this country the tennis supremacy of the world. I hope it will be done. It is a big job. I don't know if it can be done. If we do it, if Billy Johnston can go back next year and win—I frankly believe he can—Billy Johnston is not through, far from it; if Vincent Richards can recover his spark of confidence; if this poor old crock can recover from the extreme age that is descending upon him, we have won only half the battle, because it may be the next year or the year after that we really curl up from old age. It is the future that we have got to look to, and the future is the question of the development of younger players."

Ritola Can Really Run

Willie Ritola, of the Finnish-American Athletic Club, the only lad able to defeat Nurmi on the Finn's visit to the United States, won the two-mile steeplechase run for the National A. A. U. championship at Travers Island, N. Y., on September 25th, when he beat Russell Payne of the Illinois Athletic Club to the tape by fifty yards. His time was the best ever made for the event, but it will not be accepted as an official record, since the obstacles were not placed according to A. A. U. rules. The meet was held under auspices of the New York Athletic Club.

Want a Job Killing Ducks?

The hunter who likes to bring down the teal, mallard and canvasback while they are flying over should have an easy time down in the Imperial Valley just now since the season is wide open for ducks. When the wind is blowing strong they settle on the Salton Sea, but at other times especially when the days are warm they often fly in great flocks and settle on some field that has been sown with barley and irrigated. Drawn by the water they feast off the barley seed to the discomfiture of the farmers, who often hire men to guard the field and drive them off.

HARRY WILLS

By: WILLIAM PICKENS

(For the Associated Negro Press)

It will not soon be forgotten that the only way to get Wills out of the way of white heavyweights was to charge him with "fouling," and then seek to discredit him by wide and derisive publicity in the white press. If Wills fought as poor a fight for thirteen rounds as the papers claim, why couldn't Sharkey stop him? Sharkey should not have needed the help of a referee in getting rid of a man to whom Sharkey is claimed to have been so superior.

There is something awfully significant in the general sigh of satisfaction and relief which nearly all the white papers expres sover the possible elimination of Wills. They seem to think that the "white race" has been "saved" again. But men will long turn over in their minds the fact that ARRY WILLS WAS FINALLY OUSTED BY A WHITE REFEREE, NOT BY A WHITE BOXER.

We have not heard the Wills side of the story yet,—but we expect that there is more to the story.

Crack Fighter Joins the Sielski Stable

Fresh from a string of victories around the Golden Gate cities where he has been boxing for Tommy Simpson, Charlie Long, the crack welterweight who hails from Omaha, Neb., has arrived in town and signed up under the tutelage of Theo. Sailski, manager of Young Jack Thompson and a good string of other first raters.

Being too near press time to give a full account of long prowess and his future plans we will in our next issue give the full "low down" on him, but suffice to say he has the goods. He has met and defeated such men as Speed-Ball Hayden, Eddie Morris, Ray Carter, Tiger Payne, Red Ulian, Phil Kaplan, Jimmy Finley, Lefty Cosper and many others. He will soon be seen in action at a local club.

EYES OF GRID WORLD FOCUSSED ON LINCOLN-TUSKEGEE BATTLE IN PHILADELPHIA, OCT. 29

(By A. N. P.)

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 16.—The eyes of the grid-world are focused on the Lincoln-Tuskegee battle which will be staged on Franklin Field, Friday, October 20, in this city.

This battle may rightly be termed as the "Battle of the Season," and brings together teams developed by two of the craftiest menters in the game and two of the best coaching staffs in colored schools. Abbott of Tuskegee, and Young of Lincoln have consistently produced winning teams and have proved beyond any doubt their ability as coaches.

AN INTER-SECTIONAL BATTLE

'Tis, too, a battle of sections. Southern teams have invaded the north from time to time to disput the supremacy of northern teams and each instance have been repulsed. Tuskegee, the southern champion for three years, is the logical team to represent the south and Lincoln is a formidable exponent of this section. Abbott's Tigers are coming north determined to carry the honors to the South, and Lyn Young's Lions are equally determined to carry victory back to the lair of the Lions in Chester County.

Another peculiar angle of the game is the battle between two Lincoln stars who are now engaged in coaching. Meyers, who produced the famous Four Horsemen of Tuskegee, was a star quarterback at the Pennsylvania institution under Fritz Pollard, and Walls a lineman is now coaching the Lions' line. The question to be answered on the 29th is: "Can Walls' forward wall stop the on-rush of Meyers' backs." Only the test can answer this question.

TUSKEGEE IN FORM

Coach Abbott will lead his Tigers to Philadelphia in fine shape for the fray, about 30 strong. The southerners, according to the dope, will enter the game, the favorite, boasting of a machine possessing offensive and defensive strength.

While interest is in the whole Tiger outfit along with the Four Horsemen, the greates part will be centered in the mighty Stevenson, the Tigers' triple threat man. Stevenson has run through every team in the south and his kicking has been phenomenal. He has been declared the equal of Jazz Byrd, the famous Lion backfield star of two years ago. Fans are anxious to see Stevenson in action against the Lions.

LINCOLN HAS SOMETHING

Notwithstand the fact that Lincoln enters the game the underdog and as an unknown quantity, the showing of the Lions has stamped them as a dangerous opponent. Young has assembled a group of youngsters and imbued them with the traditional fighting spirit of all Lincoln teams, and the Pennsylvanians will be represented by a fast, powerful, fighting machine. Fans in this section have seen Lincoln start as the underdog and emerge the victor on many occasions and are expecting the Lions to "come through" on the 29th.

SPECIAL TRAINS

According to advance announcements several special trains will bring fans to the city from all parts of the country, including the "Tuskegee Special" bringing 5,000 supporters from the south.

JACK THOOMPSON FUTURE LIGHTWEIGHT AND WELTERWEIGHT CHAMPION OF THE WORLD

The San Francisco Call and Post in reviewing Young Jack Thompson's technical knock-out of Billy Adams up here last week, named it as a fault, that Jack is not inclined much to lead. Well, that is not a fault for such lead of fighter makes is an off-guard disadvantage he puts himself in. So Young Jack Thompson makes the other fellow lead by crowding, crowding all the time and shoots over that shaking left or killing right at the first opening.

Theo. Sailski, young manager received a wire from the Dreamland Ring in Frisco asking Thompson to fight them again on November 5th or 12th. Without any serious setback he should be able to cop the lightweight crown within another year then he will have to go into ancient the welter title as by that time he may have grown into a full-fledged welter-weight.

It has frequently been reported that colored fighters are not welcome at the Manhattan Gym but that is erroneous for they are and the management appreciates they and their followers. Vic Alexander, Whitey Black and others are training there now.

Whitey Black Another Sam Langford

In Whitey Black we see a fighter new in these parts but with a string of victories behind him at El Paso and elsewhere. He is a fighter who will give good account of himself in the very near future. Broad-shouldered, big muscled, he packs an awful wallop, especially a wicked left hook to the stomach that beat Tiger Bob Robinson at the Olympic recently and Ray McPeek at the Orange belt A. C. although McPeek claims an unjustified foul. Whitey Black is quick as a cat with all his strength and has a style much like the great old Sam Langford.

ENRAGED FAN KILLS UMPIRE

"Out." yelled Umpire Patrick McTavey in a baseball game at Long Island City, N. Y., on September 25th. The decision was given at the home plate and instantly the umpire was surrounded by a horde of enraged fans. McTavey gamely stood his ground until some person, as yet unknown, felled him with a blow on the jaw. His head struck the home plate and he died while being taken to the hospital. Two suspects have been arrested.

Boxer Shot By His Mistress Recovers

(By A. N. P.)

Paris, France, Oct. 18.—Bob Scanlon, colored boxer who was shot in the neck recently by his French Mistress, Germaine Debiton, after a quarrel in her apartment, has recovered.

The boxer, employed as an entertainer in a Montmartre resort where he made the acquaintance of Mme. Debiton, had aroused her jealousy by his attentions to other women. When arrested the woman expressed her regret at the incident, saying she had acted in a fit of anger and had no intention of seriously injuring her lover.

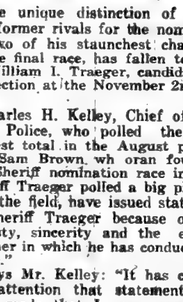
OPPONENTS NOW SUPPORTERS

Sheriff William I. Traeger (Center) Candidate to succeed himself as Sheriff of Los Angeles County, numbers among his best supporters, Sam Brown (Left) and Chief Charles H. Kelley of Pasadena Police, both of whom were Traeger's competitors in the August Primaries but who are now working for Traeger's re-election.

The unique distinction of having two former rivals for the nomination as two of his staunchest champions in the final race, has fallen to Sheriff William I. Traeger, candidate for re-election at the November 2nd election.

Charles H. Kelley, Chief of Pasadena Police, who polled the third highest total in the August primary and Sam Brown, wh oran fourth in the Sheriff nomination race in which Sheriff Traeger polled a big plurality over the field, have issued statements to Sheriff Traeger because of "His honesty, sincerity and the efficient manner in which he has conducted his office."



Says Mr. Kelley: "It has come to my attention that statements have been made that I am supporting Home's candidacy. This is untrue, on the contrary I am heartily in favor of the re-election of Sheriff William I. Traeger and ask all my friends to assist me in securing his re-election November 2nd."

Mr. Brown has issued a similar statement, adding: "I have known Sheriff Traeger for many years and never at any time have I ever had any occasion to doubt his honesty and sincerity. He has inaugurated many progressive policies and built the Sheriff's department of Los Angeles County to the point where it is the biggest and best in the United States."

Judge Langdon For Dy- . . er ANTI-Lynching . . Bill

Judge William H. Langdon, a candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Courts is campaigning in Southern California with headquarters at Los Angeles.

At the Primary Judge Langdon received a very high vote and more than a majority of all votes cast for his office but because the law requires a majority of all votes cast at the lec-tion it was necessary for the Judge as well as the other two candidates, who are running for two full terms, to continue their campaign until the general election.

Judge Langdon is only 2200 votes below the highest man and is 92,000 above the third candidate, so it is apparent that the Judge will be one of the two candidates to be elected for the full term of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court. This will be particularly gratifying to the readers of this paper because the Judge's record is entirely froom from all racial or other prejudice. This fact is demonstrated by the Judge's attitude on the Dyer Bill which is of such importance to the people of our race.

When Congressman Dyer was touring the country in behalf of the Dyer Bill, a couple of years ago, it was Judge Langdon of San Francisco who introduced him to hhe meeting held at the Baptist Church on Sacramento and Hyde St., San Francisco and there delivered a stirrin gaddress in behalf of the Dyer Bill. To few of our public men take a positive stand on questions vitally affecting our people and when the Judge, at a time when he was not a candidate for office and interested only as a fair minded citizen, advocated the Anti-Lynching Bill proposed by Mr. Dyer, it shows that his heart is in the right place and his mind is free frm prejudice.

The Judge received a very large vote in the city of Los Angeles at the Primary and he gives credit to our people for a substantial proportion of that vote and hopes to increase it at the General Election.

Until lawless lynchers, skulking jackal-like under cover of the night cease to exist, until brutish men more criminal than their victims cease to register their contempt for the law of the land; until dastardly deeds such as the lynching of the Lowman family, two men and a woman, in Aiken, S. C., last week, have become only ghastly memories of the past, then and then only should colored voters with the ballot as their trusty weapon keep up the fight begun by electing to office such men as Judge Langdan.

Westlake Republican Club

The Westlake Republican Club, after an exciting meeting Monday evening at the home of Senator Newton M. Allen, endorsed the Bar Association's candidacy of Judges Hollzer, Keeler, Westover, Burnell and Schmidt.

The president, Mr. Leo Freund said: "The five men on the Bar Association's ticket for better judges represent the highest type of American manhood in their reputation for fairness, courtesy and devotion to those ideals which will elevate the American system of jurisprudence."

Mr. Harry Magrid, second vice-president of the organization will conduct an active campaign throughout the entire Wilshire District for this ticket. Mr. Magrid said:

"We appreciate the attitude that the Los Angeles Bar Association has taken in giving the public the benefit of its legal information and accurate judgment in sponsoring a campaign that will minimize the criticism of our courts and guarantee to every citizen equal representation before the law."

The organization endorsed H. S. G. McCartney for short term Superior Court Judge.

Senator Allen went into the merits of the two reapportionment measures No. 20 and No. 28. No. 20 was endorsed. The members went on record as being opposed to No. 28. A. J. Barnes was endorsed for Supervisor of the Third District.

Thomas Lloyd Lennon advanced the claims to recognition of Joseph McInerney, candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and while the laws of the Club prevent endorsements of candidates for State Offices Mr. McInerney will find much support from the members of the Westlake Republican Club, according to its officers and members.

The O. E. O. 20th Club met last Thursday at the beautiful home of Mrs. Surlena Houston, 1446 E. 52nd St. Delicious refreshments were served. Club adjourned to meet next Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. Jackman, 787 E. 18th St.

Strong Endorsement Of Titus Alexander For The Assembly

CALIFORNIA EAGLE,
9th and Central Avenue,
Los Angeles, Cal.

My Dear Mr. Editor:

Are the readers of the California Eagle aware that an important political contest is now being waged in the Seventy-Second Assembly District of Los Angeles County?

Have the readers of the California Eagle informed its readers of the public records of these two candidates, so as to enable them to cast their ballots in an intelligent manner and for their best economic interests?

Has the California Eagle advised its readers, that one of these candidates, in the person of the Hon. W. E. Badham, who now is and has been for several terms performing the duties of this office, and who seeks to return to it on November 2nd, voted AGAINST all Colorado River development legislation in the last session of the legislature, including the building of a high dam at Boulder Canyon which constitutes Los Angeles' only method of future expansion and progress? That this gentleman voted AGAINST any endeavor on the part of the city of Los Angeles to legally bring the waters of the Colorado River into this city? and signified by his vote that no endeavor should be made to preserve the great Imperial Valley from inevitable destruction?

Has the California Eagle informed its readers that Mr. Badham served notice on the citizens of the Seventy-Second Assembly District by his vote in the last legislative assembly, that he did not favor any further improvement and advancement of the state's educational institutions of higher learning? That by his vote in that legislative session said that he did not believe that the Woman's Eight-Hour Law should be strengthened? That by his vote he said he was opposed to increasing the maximum payment now provided by California's Compensation Law for injured workmen? and by his vote in general, served notice that in his opinion, labor needed no legislative protection in its economic rights against the exploiting acts of the stronger few?

Has the California Eagle informed its readers that the candidate contending against Mr. Badham for this office in the person of Mr. Titus Alexander, is not only a citizen of exceptional ability, but honest, upright and of sterling integrity, and who has resided in this city over a quarter of a century?

Has the California Eagle advised its readers that Mr. Alexander stands four square, now and always, in favor of Colorado River development by and under public ownership and control? That Mr. Alexander favors all sane and forward looking legislation having for its object the protection of the political and economic rights of ALL the citizens of the state without reference to their social or financial standing, and that no corporate or private legislative favoritism strings are attached in any way to his candidacy?

If not, why not do so, you will be performing a real duty to your patrons and readers.

Very truly yours,
P. M. ABBOTT.

W. G. McAdoo States His Opinion of Titus Alexander in Assembly Fight

The following endorsement by W. G. McAdoo is and should be treasured mighty highly by Titus Alexander, candidate for the Assembly from the 72nd District:

"Los Angeles, California,
"October 18, 1926.

"Titus Alexander, who is a candidate for the Assembly from the 72nd District, is a man of character and capacity. He has always taken a keen interest in public affairs, and I am sure that he would, if elected, serve the State with fidelity and efficiency. I commend him to the voters of the 72nd District.

"W. G. McADOO."

Elect A Liberal To The Supreme Court

The death of Associate Justice Thomas J. Lennon, dean of the Supreme Court and the recognized leader of Liberalism on the bench, leaves the court without a member who may be classed as liberal.

Those whom Justice Lennon opposed, and whom he would have defeated in the progress and in many cases reversed, would mean that Justice Lennon would be succeeded by someone antagonistic to his views.

Over three hundred thousand voters registered their approval of Justice Lennon's principles on August 31st, three weeks after his death. Thousands and thousands more would have voted for him had he not died. He stood for idealism in government, and liberalism in the judiciary, and his fight must not be abandoned.

Important legislation may be passed by future legislatures. There should be a broad-minded liberal on the Supreme Court, a liberal free of all discrimination bigotry, if not minorities are to be protected.

It is, therefore, urged that Joseph McInerney, Campaign Manager for Justice Lennon and his intimate friend and adviser, be elected November 2nd, to carry on the work of Justice Lennon. McInerney is steeped in the liberalism which characterized Justice Lennon. He is in accord with Justice Lennon's views. To elect him to continue Justice Lennon's efforts toward the freedom of our courts. McInerney has the endorsement of Justice Lennon's family, as representative of Justice Lennon's principles.

JOSEPH McINERNEY

REPEAL THE WRIGHT ACT

LAW ENFORCEMENT

The question of Law Enforcement is not involved in the campaign to repeal the Wright Act. The only practical way for the people of California to show Congress their objection to the Volstead Act is to repeal the Wright Act. It then becomes the duty of the Federal Government, without any shifting of its responsibility, to enforce Prohibition in California by Federal Officers and Federal Courts, and also to pay the cost of enforcement out of the Federal Treasury, thus leaving California State and local officers to enforce its own criminal laws that are now being so sadly neglected.

The Constitution of the United States guarantees the "freedom of speech and of the press, and the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances." These constitutional guarantees necessarily imply the right of the people, or any group, to organize and act for the purpose of amending or repealing existing laws.

Colored Voters in Texas Denied Franchise Rights

(By A. N. P.)

Houston, Tex., Oct. 19.—With autumn elections less than three weeks off, the colored voters of Texas are manifesting very little interest in the coming election, when a governor of the state, several congressmen, state district and county officers will be elected. Much of this indifference and apathy is due to the autocratic and high handed manner in which the Republican Party in the Lone Star State has managed and manipulated by R. H. Creager of Brownsville, Republican national executive committeeman from Texas; Eugene Nolte, state chairman, and others of the "lily-whites" regime now in control of party affairs in this state.

At the first primary election ever held in Texas by the Republicans on July 24, 1926, all Republican electors who were not in accord and sympathy with the Creager-Nolte faction, were denied a right to vote in said party election; and the so-called "regular organization" exerted every effort to maintain a vest-pocket organization, composed chiefly of federal office holders, aspirants, their friends, and members of their immediate families.

Wherever a large colored constituency existed, the Creager regime failed to hold an election, thereby disfranchising said American citizens and denying them their constitutional rights. In all, less than 15,000 votes were cast in the Republican primary election in this state, despite the fact that the normal Republican vote is around 100,000, and the Republican-klan gubernatorial candidate in 1924 received around 298,000.

As is true in most of the Southern States, the black man constitutes the bulk of the Republican party, and, since the colored brother was disfranchised and outlawed in the July primaries, this virtually represents the white Republicans of Texas, except in the 14th vote congressional (San Antonio) district, where Congressman Harry M. Wurzbach was renominated over the Creager-organization candidate, Fred E. Knetsch, a life-long democrat. The congressman is not being supported by the so-called regular Republican organization, headed by Creager, in his (Wurzbach's) fight for re-election.

In Hohston, alone, more than 3,000 Republican voters of color were denied their rights as American citizens and Republican electors in the Republican primary election due to the fact that C. F. Richardson, editor The Houston Informer, a race newspaper, and one of the most militant editors of our group, was a candidate against R. B. Morris, "lily-white" county chairman of Harris County and a candidate to succeed himself in said primary election. Richardson's supporters were denied the chance to vote for him, and where some did cast a ballot for him, Morris and his "lily-white" executive committee refused to count and tabulate said vote.

Since H. H. Haines of Houston, the "organization" candidate for governor of Texas on the Republican ticket, was not nominated in a fair election, and since E. P. Scott of Corpus Christi, the Wurzbach aspirant for gubernatorial nomination, was given such a rotten deal by the Creager organization, there seems to be a little sentiment in certain sections of this state to scratch Haines' name on general election day and write in the name of Scott.

UPTON'S RAILROAD CLATTER

By Chas. L. Upton

WHAT ARE WE?

In looking over the Messenger this week, we find a very interesting article under the above title, written by one of our most scholarly young citizens in the person of Mr. George S. Grant, as a man looking far into the future welfare of his race. Mr. Grant has presented us with an idea that should be given serious consideration by all thinking men and women. His article in part follows, the respect of his fellow-citizens is the citizen's birthright. When through circumstances not created by himself, this birthright is threatened or taken away, it becomes his duty as well as his privilege to use all lawful means to restore unto himself intact this right which is lost or threatened.

A title which is neither Contemptuous, nor Ridiculous, is an essential part of this birthright.

The word "Negro" used to designate a certain group of American citizens is a Contemptuous term; resembling in sound and structure the more opprobious epithet, "Nigger," the associations brought up by one are easily recalled by the other and aside from its ethnological incorrectness make it an unfit term with which to classify American Citizens.

The misplaced word, "colored," used to designate this group is ridiculous; grammatically Absurd, it also inevitably calls to mind the Comic, the Grotesque which Never demand Respect.

The term BLACK AMERICAN fills a long felt want. The argument for it begins with the fundamental assertion that we are no NEGROES (niggers) or colored people (culled fellahs) but AMERICANS; IF it is necessary to distinguish us from the white Americans, then we are BLACK AMERICANS; Not all of all of us are BLACK, not all of white people are white, BUT "BLACK" and "WHITE" are used here to classify rather than to describe.

In conclusion, Mr. Grant says, by adopting the term "BLACK AMERICAN" we will avoid the nicknames which furnish a large part of the excuse for attempts to impose upon us different and inferior treatment and conditions. Mr. Grant has given the serious minded race man and woman much food for thought. It would be a good idea for us to give his suggestion a trial. It will do no harm. The race press should fall in willingly in the use of BLACK AMERICAN instead of Negro, even though they would have to use thirteen letters in each instance mentioned instead of five as in Negro, the benefit derived therefrom would greatly overbalance the sacrifice made in type and space, let us be BLACK AMERICANS from now on, and thanks to Mr. Geo. S. Grant for his brilliant suggestion.

GOLD COAST LIMITED UP FOR BID

The Gold Coast Limited which will operate over the Union Pacific to Chicago on the Los Angeles Limited's former time starting November 14th was posted up for bid for both Maids and Porters last week. It will take 24 porters to operate and a number of maids. The maids will go as far as Salt Lake or Ogden, the porters will go all the way. This train is not the De Luxe extra fair but is a first class solid Pullman train on the same type that the Los Angeles Limited is at the present time. The Los Angeles Limited will be the De Luxe train and will leave in the afternoon instead of the morning. Maids now operating on that train who have been kicking on the long run have now got an opportunity to bid in the Gold Coast to Ogden if they prefer a short run. The awarding of these runs to the Los Angeles district came just in time. Both trains should be good all winter as a heavy tourist travel is being looked forward to by passenger agents. A rumor that both trains are already sold out top and bottom for as far in advance as the month of March shows that the bulk of winter travel is headed this way. 24 Porters taken off the extra board will be a great help to this district and assure many new men a full check each month. Football travel will also be in its height between Los Angeles and Frisco and the good old days of four and five sections of the Padre, "Lark," Sunset and "Owl" together with a flock of extra cars to San Diego on Thanksgiving day the opening of the races, should make this district one of the most properous on the Pacific Coast within the month. Make hay while the sun shines.

P. F. B. A. Election

The final race is on in full bloom for the grand delegates office, as far as could be asserted by a straw vote the main issue lay between C. H. Levy and T. A. Simms, R. J. Murray is a foregone conclusion as far as Chairman is concerned, while C. A. Crain for Secretary will win out in a walk. W. H. Walker, S. H. Burnette and O. Soares are serving on the election Committee this week.

PORTERS JAILED IN MEXICO

Two porters who went over across the line while they were laying over from a special in San Diego, ran afoul of the Mexican police and were locked up. Mr. R. W. Taylor, Ass't. Supt. inquired about them while in San Diego and the Mexican Law said, No Babe Key Lost.

PILLOW SLIPS

8th Annual Convention Ticket Agents

They do the job up bright in this part of the country. First, we had the Passenger Agents, then the Bankers and last week the Ticket Agents held their convention at San Diego; about fifty-two extra cars were parked, and supervised by Ass't. Supt. R. W. Taylor, Mr. Thatcher and Mrs. Pilgrim, several solid Pullman trains with Maids and club cars and everything was down to the old town. It was the biggest rush San Diego has had since last year's races.

And all of that to contend with, nobody went crazy but two porters and they went to jail.

We even had Strutan Sam from Alabam in a special car.

J. Carter No. 2 felt very much humbled indeed when he had to make a trip to San Diego last Sunday. Tough luck for the Tuxedo Boy!

H. L. Armstrong had the Hon. Mr. Wm. McAdoo last week.

Dan Hood also paid San Diego a visit last week and said, Never again.

J. L. Hill is now hustling memberships for the Y. M. C. A.

L. Banks hurt his back while taking the Struten Sam Co. to San Diego. Well, that's possible.

Maid Tennie Upton has been laying off for a trip, resting up for the De Lux.

By and by maybe I catch 'e'm too, but not now.

The following crew had a glimpse of San Diego on the Ticket Agents Special: J. L. Raines, Dick Moore, J. Reeves, H. Herford and W. Fillmore.

Diner 10122 with Chef Van De Meter, A. McKinney, H. Allen, J. Davis, Wm. Holmes, B. Roberts, R. C. McClendon, W. Jones and Collier, all had a taste of Tia Juana last week.

Joe Powell, Fred Thornton, Bill Wharton and several others helpped entertain the ticket last week.

And lest we forget T. H. Hill, Chef Frank Croon and M. Pearson were very much in evidence at the Ticket Agents convention. Frank wore the smile that won't come off and said all the crew was working for him.

The City Council served Bill Wharton a five-day notice to the effect that after the first of the month, his automobile would be classed by them as an aeroplane on account of it being so raggedy that it comes under the heading of vehicles with wings.

Porters A. Payne and W. H. Clausell are still on the sick list.

FULLERTON

Mrs. G. E. Rascoe of 244 East Valencia Ave., was hostess on October 13th to a group of 10 lady friends. After serving a lovely luncheon Mrs. Rascoe made a talk to the ladies on organizing a small club of 6 or 12 members; the other ladies were asked by Mrs. Rascoe to join this club, so they did not knowing at this writing just what this club will be named. We suggested each one will bring in a name at the next meeting and select the name for this new club. Each lady suggested to make Mrs. Rascoe president and Mrs. E. Montague, Sec. After a few games of 500 and whist was played. They agreed to have the next meeting in Los Angeles.

On October 18th the Handicraft Club met with Mrs. Allen after a lovely luncheon the club took in three new members, this making the 13 membership of the club; this closes the club, anyone wishing now to join the Handicraft Club can only be put on the waiting list. The next meeting will be in Fullerton with Mrs. G. E. Rascoe, October 27th, let all members be present, by order of, Mrs. G. E. Rascoe, Pres..; Mrs. T. L. Walker, Secy.

Miss Marie Jones has a dandy friend of hers from La Habra spending the week-end with her.

Mrs. Cox has returned to her home this week after spending a week with her brother in Los Angeles.

We are glad to note at this writing that Mr. Tolin is at his old job again, after a week's sickness.

Mr. Shores is an expert horse shoer and is recognized as one of the best in the entire country. Mr. Winburn has only returned a short while back from a twenty-years' absence from Los Angeles, he is highly intelligent and worth while citizen. Mr. Watson Burns is nationally known as an authority in the realm of sports and a successful business man.

It was thirty years since Burns had met Winburn and 20 years since he had met Shores, so it is self-evident that it was an interesting dinner party and we were highly appreciative of the courtesy extended by these gentlemen.

BRILLIANT IN THEIR JOINT RECITAL

JOHN A. GRAY AND SINCLAIR WHITE MURDOCK DEMONSTRATE THEIR ABILITY AS ARTISTS

By: LOUIS MICHEL

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People had its best quality and best patronized instrumental concert at Rev. Griffith's Church on Tuesday 8:30, October 26th.

1100 People, intermingled by 125 Caucasians were there, but 5000 listeners should have heard the artists.

The following program was offered:

1. VOLIN—Concerto in G Minor, Max Bruch; Allegro Moderato; Adagio; Finale.

2. PIANO—Grillen, Schuman; Nocturne, Op. 15, No. 2, Chopin; Rhapsody No. 6, Liszt.

3. VIOLIN—Ziegeunerweisen, Sarasate; Nocturne, Op. 9, No. 2, Chopin?Wilhelmj; Hungarian Dance No. 7, Brahms; Air from County Derry, Grainger; Perpetual Motion, Ries.

4. PIANO—Sonata in C Minor, Grieg; Allegro molto ed appassionato; Allegretto expressivo alla Romanza; Allegro Animato.

This master program, preeminently classical was a gala treat for both the audience and the artists, but it belongs, before a vast metropolitan throng of art judges—it was too great, too auspicious for the local sectionalization, no matter how beautiful a church may be.

GENIUS S. W. MURDOCK

This woman is a born genius and a daringly skilled producer of her own chosen tones. She is the greatest female violinist we have heard, subtler than Maude Powell ever was, and belongs in the Fritz Kreisler circle. She has the divine heart and the independent searching mind. Her skill is rare, her inborn reproducing force truly marvelous—she can roll like thunder, lisp like the zephyr, cry like the baby, dance like the gypsy and dream like the somnambulist upon her precious violin. Flawless, deft and lithe like the sweetning breezes of a spring morning in a noble atmosphere appears her marvelous bowing—such rare bowing is so seldom seen. Her angelic phrasing, transposing and transfusing moods are marvelously scientific and soulful—she is all soul with technique so fully mastered by her that it is simply perfection itself. She is not a slave to any composer, because she is so perfect in her art, that the greatest composer appears greater and more exalted by her masterful art—she enriches any composition, no matter how great.

Her classical numbers were superfine, but her "Carry Me Back To Old Virginny" and "Swan" struck her mostly non-classical auditors with the genuine electricity of public desire. Her audience was thrilled by the popular chord mostly.

She is indeed the best race violinist known to us and one of the very few greatest women-violinists in the world. It is a disgrace to humanity that such a masterly woman-genius is held in local chains, instead of electrifying the world, as she has the rare gifts to magnetize and sweep everything before her magnetic art and sweeping bewitching mastery of the violin.

Mr. John A. Gray was a fitting companion artist to the lady-star and either as an accompanist, or soloist and in their last numbers as a duet player, proved himself a very accomplished, erudite and cultured musician.

Mr. Gray is as great as he possibly could be under the best as well as the poorest conditions America has in store for him—in Europe his star would rise quicker and much more effulgent, considering the uphill battles that he had to encounter, he is, indeed, a remarkable young pianist and his knowledge of the piano is bound to attract notable attention. He is a creditable, cultured and soulful artist, who has made the very noblest climb a brave genius can make in a country where a race artist meets so many vulnerable and heart-breaking circumstances. Mr. John A. Gray is a pianist with true soul-fire whose sentiment shines out fully as big as his skill of finger-technique.

Lack of space prevents us to say any more except the three closing words: "It was fine!"

Mrs. A. C. Richardon can be warmly congratulated for her wining efforts in this Recital. Dr. Hudson acted as presiding master of events

Judge Walton Wood Orders Increased Alimony

Among all classes the alimony Bee is a bone of contention in divorce sases of this moderen age, and almost daily has its inning in court.

We note last Thursday in judge Walton Wood's court, with attorney H. E. McBeth representing the defendent Ernest Trokey, on the showing made by his wife Maudine Trokey 938 E. 41st. St. a sister of Homer Brothers, 1004 E. 41st. St., with the assistance of Mrs. Madge Trent, 988 E. 41st. St., who proved to be a very clever witness, Mr. Trokey was ordered to pay more money for the support of the children.

Among the claims made by Mr. Trokey was, that another man was keeping his wife away from him. And it is ever so, an endless chain moves on and on and the divorce mill and alimony claimants keep the courts busy indeed.

Twenty-Fourth Infantry Full of Talent

Fort Benning, Ga., Oct 23.—(By The Associated Negro Press). In addition to the athletic prowess for which the peacetime organization of the Twenty-fourth United States infantry is justly famed, it enjoys equal distinction in the concert field. The regiment gets repeated calls from other organizations of the garrison here and civic bodies and clubs to furnish entertainment for social functions, and furnishes dance orchestras, glee singers, string orchestras and Charleston, soft shoe and breakdown dancers. It has a number of quartettes and trics, and its band, one of the largest and best in this section, fills engagements throughout this section.

The service club and recreation hall of the regiment is being completely renovated and equiped with a larger stage and dancing floor.

Attend International Mission Conference

(By The Rev. J. E. East, Secretary, Foreign Mission Board, National Baptist Convention.)

Leo Zoute, Belgium, Oct. 23.—(For The Associated Negro Press). Twenty-seven of the two hundred fifty delegates were: President Hope of Moregates to the recent International Conference on African Missions held here were colored. Among those delehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., and his wife; Max Yorgan of the Y. M. C. A.; Bishop and Mrs. Gregg of the A. H. E. Church, stationed in South Africa; President Atkins of the Winston-Salem College of N. C.; Secretaries N. A. Graham and J. E. East of the Lott Cary Convention and the Foreign Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention, respectively, Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Edmiston, Congo missionaries; Rev Allen of America; Rev. and Mrs. McCoy, representing the colored Presbyterian church of America; Rev. and Mrs. Olden of the Congregational Church; Mrs E. C. Bouey, a returned missionary, and Miss Williams, a social and health worker among colored people of North Carolina. There were also in the group from Africa Mr. Mahanbee, president of the National African Congress, and Rev. Dubey, president of the Ohlangu College, both of South Africa, also Rev. Clark of Nigeria.

The colored delegates were receivved with open arms and much sincerity and earnestness was manifested in all of the discussions. South Africa constantly occupied much of the convention's time. Whether discussing race, religion, education, health or labor conditions the arguments seemed to center around South Africa where conditions along all of these lines were most acute respecting the natives. For in South Africa as in no other part of the dark continent the white man is trying to make the country a white man's country. There was a large representation of whites from South Africa who were unfailing in their efforts to have the most favorable interpretation possible put on the oppressive treatment given natives by the government in that part of the continent.

The purpose of the conference was the spiritual, educational, social, and economical development of the aborigines of Africa. Practically all the European governments holding territory in Africa were represented, either officially or unofficially. Some of the leading churchmen and officials of all the denominations doing work in Africa were there, especially was this true of the Foreign Mission Boards of these denominations. These were flanked by a large number of African missionaries, retired and active, some of whom had spent more than forty years of actual service in Africa.

The discussions in the meetings were much in general where all were present and then in sectional conferences. The topics discussed were evangelism, health, native welfare, education, and economic conditions of the natives. While there were special committees appointed to discuss and if possible bring in resolutions on questions such as the South African situation, forced labor situations throughout Africa and the admittance of American Negro missionaries into Africa. In the past there has been great opposition by white missionaries themselves to Negro missionaries coming out and this opposition maintains in a large way until the present, but in spite of that a most favorable resolution was passed by the conference recommending the opening of Africa to qualified colored missionaries, not only of the churches connected with white people of this country but the independent Negro churches also. On the last day of the Conference resolutions were passed setting forth the opinion of the great conference on the subjects above mentioned, all of which were most commendable. Forced abor was condemned in no uncertain terms. The French, Belgian, and German representatives spoke in no uncertain terms as to what the object of the white man should be in Africa—that is, the development of the black man and to make Africa a black man's country.

There are about three thousand white missionaries, European and American-born, laboring on the continent of dark Africa. This number includes some of the best brains of the world along all lines. Millions of dollars are being poured out and thousands in lives. White missionaries are penetrating the dark continent in increasing numbers, establishing hospitals and clinics and educational institutions in the very heart of the dark continent. The great shame of the colored people—there is not one single American-born physician laboring in Africa, and there are less than fifty American-born Negroes doing mission work in the land of our ancestors, while other nations are rushing to the rescue of dark Africa. May the black man also awake and do his duty. There are many things that the white man has done in Africa in the way of oppression, exploiting, robbing, and enslaving, but the good the missionaries have done in carrying the gospel will far out-weigh the evil done; however, magnified. All this was clearly manifested at the great conference.

Prominent Oakland Citizen Passes at Elsinore

T. E. Smith, a prominent insurance man of Oakland, Calif., and one of the leading spirts in the U. N. I. A. movement of that city, well known in this vicinity, came to the city two weeks ago to spend his vacation and in the meantime to recuperate his health.

After spending a few days in the city, he went out to Elsinore and was stopping at Coleman's Motel De Luxe. He was getting along splendidly when he took seriously ill and passed away on last Thursday. The body was taken in charge by the Elsinore undertakers and, we learn, shipped to Oakland.

A Silent Hero Comes to His Reward

By Willis O. Taylor

On Tuesday afternoon, of October 26, in Los Angeles, the funeral and burial services of the late David G. Scott were held under the most beautiful and, at the same time, the most serious impressions.

The funeral service was held from Wesley Chapel, M. E. Church, Dr. A. P. Shaw, pastor, officiating. Before the hour of 2 o'clock P. M., the entire chancel of the church was filled with floral pieces expressing in a riot of color those golden hues that have made California the home of beautiful flowers. Chrysanthemums and dalhia, carnation and rose, lily, fern and astor mingled, mixing, vieing to impress upon the funeral place the affection and tenderness that those who came to pay last respect sent ahead of them to soften and make sweet the ceremony.

"This is my own, my native land." Scott, and so too, felt the deceased.

San sang the great Sir Walter when a lad of 13 years he joined the Union Army and helped pin back those 13 stars into his country's flog. Sixty-five years ago, that! A long time back and a land far distant from the beautiful design, and building and kower of the Los Angeles of October 26, 1926.

The hardest fame to acquire, the dearest bought glory, is that which is won in the common places of life. And yet, the late David G. Scott, accomplished this hard task, and was gathered to his fathers, "leaning upon his staff," his face still broken in a sweet and patient smile, even as he gazed upon the cold gray eyes of death.

A father who raised five lovely daughters, two of whom (Mrs. Mattie Nelson and Mrs. Nellie McClenahan) survive, and each one an ornament to noble womanhood. An employe of the Pullman Company for 56 years without one adverse report, a churchman for 50 years and faithful at 76; a Mason who could happily reflect upon a well spent life, and whose patient kindness never abated in lodge-hall, street or home. Thus lived, and thus died—David G. Scott!

But very striking indeed was the attendance at the funeral service: Masons in lamb-skin and gloves, Templars in plumes with swords by their sides, a sight often seen at funerals. But Bartlett Post of the G. A. R., and the Ladies' Relief Corps, with standards, draped with black, with tear-dimmed eyes and broken voices—each depositing a twig of the green things God grows upon the earth on the coffin—this, a sight rarely beheld at the funeral of one of our silent heroes.

The G. A. R.—noble words, lasting cause. These are they who really loved, as man to man, the Negroes of their day and time. The Union soldiers wrote the 13th, and 14th and 15th amendments, and their like has not been written since. Hacked, hewn and battered by legal reasoning, that limited and evaded them,—they still remain impervious to storms of prejudice and the changing sentiment of these times. In substance they are yet impregnable. The L. A. Bartlett Post and Ladies' Relief Corps of the G. A. R. wropped "Old Glory" about their comrade, David G. Scott,——said of him that he was an officer in the Post for years, and was always a high-minded, kindly, Christian gentleman, whom to know was to love.

They then sounded those taps, which once their dead comrade had heard under the walls of Ft. Pillow as he laid down to rest upon the hard ground even a little while before the battle should begin. How sweet are "taps" to those who can wrap "Old Glory" about them, and lie down to pleasant dreams?

ATTACK ESCORT WITH HAMMER

Hollywood, Cal., Oct 25.—(By The Associated Negro Press). A general pick-up order is being circulated in Hollywood, Los Angeles, and outlying districts, for Frank Green, 40, a colored man who had been living with his wife on the west side up until several months ago when they separated. It is reported she had been having some trouble about Fred Ware, a white man, 1359 West 36th Place. As Ware was walking home with Green's wife a few nights past, Green followed them in his Franklin car and alighting beat Ware to the ground with a hammer, fracturing his skull. He also bruised his wife severly with blows of the hammer.

MAX YERGAN SAYS SOUTH AFRICA IS ADVANCING

New York, Oct. 23.—(By The Associated Negro Press). Out of an environment that is still largely uncivilized, the natives of South Africa, backed by a growing sentiment on the part of the white residents, are steadily advancing socially and intellectually, according to the picture of the situation just brought back from Cape Province by Max Yeargan, the originator and leader of the work of the Young Mens Christian Association among the natives in South Africa.

Mr. Yergan returned from Africa on furlough October 9 after five years of uninterrupted work, based partly on the support given by Negros in the United States and partly on what he calls the "growing sentiment among a certain portion of the white population in South Africa in favor of greater justice for the natives."

Last week he was the honor guest at a dinner at the International House, this city, an event which has since been called the most outstanding interracial gathering ever brought together here.

At that dinner, Mr. Yergan outlined his work and his hope for the future.

"The mind of the Europeans," he said, "is slowly awakening to the magnitude of the African situation. Wealth is pouring into that vast territory, and the world is turning there for the products which Africa yields. This has created a startling economic and social problem.

"By force of circumstances, the natives find themselves living in a civilization which is basically European. Their heritage being different from that of the Europeans, they are face to face with the necessity of measuring up to the standards which surrounds them.

"Of the 7,000,000 people in South Africa, 5,500,000 are colored, and less than 1,000,000 of these have become Christianized. Yet those who have had opportunity of advancement, intellectually and socially, have proved themselves well able to fulfill the obligation which it imposes. And more and more they are looking for aid and guidance from the Negroes of America, who unquestionably occupy the highest place of any colored people in the world.

"The people among whom I work are desirous of having a share in politics, but I give as my considered view that they hold no revolutionary ideas. They are somewhat discouraged by the land situation and by the Color Bar Bill, which seeks to keep natives out of certain skilled occupations. They also are protesting certain proposals for removing some of their franchaise privileges in the Cape Province. But they do not seek to overturn the existing government.

"The situation is being considered with notable moderation by the native leaders, who seem willing to cooperate in every way with the government. It is my belief that in time this spirit of cooperation will meet with a definite response.

"The Young Men's Christian Association has been responsible for bringing the claim of the natives before the white inhabitants. Out of that has come an increasing inclination to give the situation the study it deserves. One of the brightest ights on the horizon is the system of oint councils, comprising both white and colored people, seeking better interracial relations."

COMMENTS

By:
W. J. WHEATON

A really, goodness to gracious, royal personage, Queen Marie of Rumania, is visiting Uncle Sam and the sychophants and trucklers are vieing to bow down and pay her homage, all with one exception:: Uncle Sam's chief representative, President Coolidge, who respectfully declines to Kow-Tow and kiss the Royal hand. When she sat in the big chair in Mayor Jimmie Walker's office the women fought to be first in occupying it when vacant. It is possible that California will have to forgo the pleasure of seeing her Majesty as the hard-headed business management of the S. P., and Santa Fe Railways cannot see why they should carry royalty for less than a democratic American. There are hundreds of men and women in Europe who have contributed more to the progress of humanity who, should they visit us, would not be received by special committees or greeted with the salvos of national salutes. We preach democracy and cater to the fetish of royalty.

With the passing of Eugene Debs this country has lost one of its most colorful personages. He was a fearless defender of any cause which effected the rights of humble people. He believed in the Constitutional right of free expression and suffered martyrdom because he spoke his objection to the slaughter of our young manhood in Europe's disagreement. His labor policies, while never popular, were always founded on the principle of human justice. He was the ballance wheel of labor. His political sagacity caused him to become a narked figure in the councils of the Socialist Party. While disagreeing with him one could but be impressed with the sincerity and honesty. He was humble in the sense that he believed that the wises man at this tage of the world's affairs is he who news that none of us is wise.

Here is an instance reverting back o type. News from Bengal, British ndia, tells of the discovery of two young girls who had been adopted by a she wolf and reared with her litters. The girls, 2 and 8 years of age, whe discovered had all of the fierceness of the animal and fought their captors like demons. They ran on all fours, and in every respect, ran to wolf form. The younger of the duo died. They had a bad time trying to clothe the remaining one who would tear the garments from her even when sewn on. When eating she would persist in putting her face in a dish and woul disp up the water like the ad been taught by her foster mother. It is a mystery how the children became thus, but it is conjectured that the mother or mothers of the babes abandoned them to their fate.

Governor Richardson marched his men up the hill and marched them down again. That is he called his legislators together to vote on the ratification of the six state pact-Swing-Johnson-Boulder Dam measure, and they declined the issue by such an overwhelming vote that it was immediately adjourned. But not before T. C. West, Alameda county, had moved to invite the Governor to send in the list of his appointees for confirmation. Well! when Inman got through with lambasting that motion there was only three men who had the temerity to vote, Yes! From the standpoint of a layman, the call for a special session of the Legislature at this particular time was a very poor piece of political judgment. But then, he had nothing to lose at that.

Senator Phipps, Colorado, Chairman of the Senatorial Campaign Committee, was with us recently and was very optimistic concerning the outlook of Republican chances. He placed special stress on condition in California and predicted overwhelming majorities for the State and National tickets. C. C. Young and Samuel M. Shortridge will pull such a big majority that all the weaker ones have to do is hang on tight. The amendments to be voted on are receiving much attention and study by Mr. and Mrs. Voter. Each measure is being searched for the possible joker that may be hidden in its verbiage. The people are becoming wise to amendments knowing that some

Dr. Cockrell, Prominent DENTIST MISREPRESENTED

The unfortunate incident which occured on the 15th inst. in the office of a colored physician, resulting in the death of Mr. John Hammond Hayes, who was buried October 18th from the Angelus Funeral Home, has, through a similarity of names, caused a deal of misunderstanding due to the fact that a number of persons have erroneously heard that it was in Dr. W. H. Cockrell's that the regrettable tragedy happened.

Many inquiries have been made at the Eagle office concerning the matter so as mitakes will happen, the real facts of the case stand. That or no other accident has occured in the offices of the dentist, W. H. Cockrell, 1063 E. Jefferson St. Dr. Cockrell, who enjoys a large and growing practise, holds and appreciates the confidence of the general public, but has been forced, since the incident, to receive the misplaced sympathy, for connection with an untimely death of which he knew nothing for several days afterward, and this all through a similarity in the names of his dental offices and the offices of the physician in which it really occured. So his establishment is not only still open at the old stand, but still doing business as usual.

Calif. Citizens Civic League Goes On Record As Opposing The Election Of Judge Walton J. Wood

As being temperamentally unfit to serve in the capacity of judge of our courts, Judge Wood automatically disqualifies himself when he allows his personal feelings and prejudices to enter a case.

This was demonstrated in the case of Anna Williams, prominent W. C. T. U. worker, vs. Kibs Bros., Cafe owners, tried before his honor. She was brow beaten, insulted and humiliated while seeking justice by the following language from the court.

"You should stay out of such places and not expect to be served."

This, in our opinion, unfits him to position to which he aspires.

Carver Acres Approved

Ministers Endorse Land Movement.

On Wednesday, October 6th, a large group of ministers representing all denominations visited Carver Acres, our new acreage subdivision. At the session of the Baptist Ministers Union, last Monday, the following report was enthusiastically adopted:

To the Baptist Ministers' Union, Los Angeles City and County:

Dear Brethren!

Your Committee appointed to investigate Carvers Acres, now being sold by the California Land and Development Co., visited these acres Wednesday, October 6th, and beg leave to report: In company with a number of the pastors the Committee made a nexhaustive study, not only of Carver Acres, but of surrounding conditions. The land is high and sightly and rolls evenly toward the boulevard, Highland avenue. The soil is well adapted to the growing of citrus crops and all kinds of fruits and vegetables. There is an abundance of water in the neighborhood, and water can easily be secured for this tract. (The Company guarantees water rights with every acre sold.) The prices asked by the Company are less than prices asked in the adjoining sections. We have investigated the matter of title and find that same has been brought down to date. The Company is amply able to fulfil all conditions stated in their contracts.

Therefore, we most cheerfully recommend and urge the public to purchase this acreage at the earliest opportunity as available land in Southern California is becoming scarcer every day.

Respectfully submitted,
COM. ON CARVER ACRES,
H. D. Prowd, Chairman.

Addresses of approval were made by Dr. H. D. Prowd, Revs. W. H. Rosier, J. D. Gordon, G. W. Jordan, A. T. Hines, R. H. Wade and others All who spoke advised and urged that the public visit Carver Acres and purchase one or more acres without delay.

KEEP COGSWELL ON THE JOB

As Supervisor From The 1st Supervisorial District

For the first time in 20 years the First District has been given the Chairmanship of Roads on the Board of Supervisors. This is an honor conferred only upon the senior member of the Board.

As Chairman of Roads, Supervisor Cogswell has full authority in all highway matters. He is also acting chairman of the Grade Crossing Elimination committee and head of its $20,000,000 program.

Supervisor Cogswell initiated the policy of apportioning auto license funds for construction of highways through incorporated cities. He alone is responsible for over $1,630,000 expended on highways and bridges in the First District during the past year. Petitions for over 500 miles of additional highways are now on file.

On April 19, 1923, at a meeting of county, city and railroad officials the viaduct object was originated, and by assuming th epayment of 20% of their cost by the county, Supervisor Cogswell made possible the building of the eight great viaducts over the Los Angeles rives, providing faster transportation for the First District.

Can the people of the First Supervisorial District afford to lose the Chairmanship of Roads and endanger the highways program now under way?

Will they realize that it does not pay to "change horses in the middle of the stream" in a program of this magnitude?

Los Angeles County has voted $35,000,000 for dams to protect against flood and conserve our water supply. Supervisor Cogswell initiated this great project and knows intimately its details.

As his home is in the San Gabriel valley, menaced by floods no one appreciates more than he the necessity for prompt completion of the dams. His experience and knowledge of water conditions are worth millions to the taxpayers.

Over 300,000 acre-feet of water will be stored in the twelve great dams and reservoirs and the homes and ranches of Los Angeles county permanently protected.

Property losses such as the $20,000,000 flood disaster of 1914 will be avoided and lands now waste opened to cultivation. There must be no delay in this program.

Property values will be increased and thousands given employment by this great project. Agricultural production, lessened by decreasing water levels, will be stabilized by control of the water supply.

Can the property owners of the First Supervisorial District afford to endanger this most vital project at this most critical time?

Will they realize that it does not pay to "change horses in the middle of the stream" in a project of this importance?

Prescott F. Cogswell was in the State Legislature from 1907 to 1917 as chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the House and of the Revenue and Taxation committee of the Senate.

His legislative record was flawless in support of all measures of true benefit to the state. He was one of the first to champion woman suffrage, and helped pass the suffrage amendment.

For the past eight years he has represented the First District on the Board of Supervisors, for four years as chairman of the Roads committee.

At the time of his election as Supervisor, the county government was operating under a $1,000,000 deficit. Today it is operating with a surplus, even in the face of the tremendous improvements of the past few years, and the tax rate has been reduced 10 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

Los Angeles County, owning property worth $100,000,000, and with over $40,000,000 of improvement bonds voted for the immense development program now under way, needs a man of the business experience and sound judgment of Supervisor Cogswell.

Can the taxpayers of Los Angeles County afford to lose the services of a man of the ability of Supervisor Cogswell?

Will they realize that it does not pay to "change horses in the middle of the stream" in public as in private enterprise?

TEMPERANCE SERMON AT THE BIG GOSPEL TENT

Sunday night, October 31st, at 7.45 P. M., at the Big Gospel Tent at 20th and Central avenue, Los Angeles, is scheduled for a knockout blow for JOHN BARLEY CORN, who will try and come to greater life again at the polls Tuesday if the Wright Act is repealed. And the question is one of great concern to thinking men and women and now is the opportune time to get the matter straight before the voting public—for to blunder now may mean many regrets in days to come.

Evangelist P. G. Rodgers will, at this service, endeavor to present both sides of the question in an intelligent way, and yet there is to be no comprise with strong drink nor with those who would be less liable to prosecution for the illegal sale of strong drink, if the Wright Act is repealed.

For this Big Subject, a Big Audience will be on hand and it is urged that all come early for the best seats.

THE BIG TENT is just as warm as a closed building, having been equipped with five large gas heaters which takes away all chill from the evening. LET NOTHING KEEP YOU AWAY FROM THIS SERVICE. Everybody welcome.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Edwards of 17th street are glad to hear of their recovering from their recent illness.

one has an axe to grind, hence the solicitide for the welfare of Mr. Public.

That little band of rebellious students who abetted their parents, tried to segregate the Chinese pupils of the Sweet school, have failed and have returned to their studies. The superintendant of the public schools of Oakland took a firm stand and declared that neither race, creed or nationality should ever be the cause of barring any child from enjoying the educational advantages of the schools. It was a splendid victory for the right and should prove an object lesson to those poor, misguided, syncophantic Negroes who are advocating segregation in the public schools of California.

Mrs. Ethel Clarke, Massachusetts, known nationally as one of the most efficient workers in recreational fields has been secured by the Recreational League of San Francisco to direct the activities of the Booker T. Washington Community Center. Mrs. Clarke is one of the few Race women who have specially trained for the work and has varied experiences in carrying on in the several communities where she has directed. The citizens of the city gave her a cordial welcome and pledged her their support, and she is deserving, but, as a general rule, the people of San Francisco are more ready with criticism than praise.

We urge upon the voters of San Francisco to remember that Walter Perry, Johnson, incumbent, Judge of the Superior Court, is up for re-election. The Judge has been endorsed by the State Bar Association, the civic clubs, and numerous friends who know of his sterling worth as a jurist. A vote for C. C. Young means a humane state government for California. A vote for Samuel Shortridge means that the prosperity of the nation will be maintained, a vote for JUDGE WALTER PERRY JOHNSON means that the integrity of the law will be upheld and honest descisions rendered without fear or favor.

EDITORIAL

UNJUST LEGISLATION

What is perhaps one of the most discriminatory and unjust pieces of legislation ever put up to the people of California for a vote is the olemargarine bill, now presented in the form of a referendum. It is an attempt to impose a sales tax and other restrictions on a legitimate food product manufactured in this state; one which happens to be competitive with the butter producers.

All will agree as to the importance of California's dairy industry. All will agree that this vital industry should be fostered and encouraged in every way. But, should one particular branch of the dairy industry be allowed to cramp its competitors? Should the wheat grower, because he produces a major necessity, demand a restrictive tax on rice? Shall we allow the olive oil pressers to obtain discriminatory taxation on cotton seed oil?

The thinking voter will register a decided "NO!" to Proposition No. 3; even though he much prefers butter to olemargarine or any other substitute—and most persons do—he will not be so un-American as to inflict higher prices on those whose circumstances compel them to purchase something less expensive as a spread for their daily bread.

Much of the propaganda which has been issued in favor of the proposed harsh taxation on butter substitute users—and that is where the taxation will fall—has been misleading, even silly. The day has passed when the public might be made to believe that margarines are unwholesome. Everyone knows better than that. State and Federal Laws care for the purity of all our food products. Good olemargarine is a wholesome food. To tax the buyers of it would impose an unjust and unfair hardship on those who prefer to buy butter substitute—on the legitimate California manufacturers who produce it.

Certain features of the bill require fair labeling and fair advertising of butter substitutes. Such features are already required by law. But when an act, such as this Proposition No. 3, goes to such lengths as it does in an effort to eliminate competition of one food product in favor of another, it becomes indefensible.

Butter producers, it is declared, produce 73,600,000 pounds of butter—not enough for the butter eaters of the state. This production was not enough to cover the California demand, inasmuch as 22,000,000 pounds additional was shipped in from adjoining states and foreign countries. It is a puzzle why anyone should be concerned over the 15,000,000 pounds of margarine made annually here. Butter makers, with their admittedly superior product, are well able to face olemargarine competition. Let them stand on their own feet: let us start no pernicious system of class legislation in the taxing of competitors' food stuffs.

Vote "NO!" on Proposition No. 3.

LOOKING FOR A BLACK HOPE

If our fistic hero, Harry Wills had not been so highly touted we could all have great hopes for the future. This failing to be the situation, we must cast about us for another Black Hope for the heavyweight division.

CAPTAIN McCLAREY RETURNED

Captain L. L. McClarey has been returned to the command of the Newton Street Station which takes in practically all of the East Side, and with his return things are slated to take on a more tranquil turn, as dissatisfaction had run rampant for some time over the conditions which obtained to such an extent that the mighty Sheffield and his squad was removed.

Captain McClarey thus far has had the happy knack of taking care of all situations which would arise to the general satisfaction of the people, and there is no reason why he should not continue to do so. With Captain McClarey in charge of the police and Captain Glenn in charge of the Detective force there is no reason why the Newton Street Station should not rank shoulder to shoulder with any other station in the city.

TRAINING OF OUR YOUTH

A careful observation of the conduct of many of our young women and men in public places disclosed the fact that the race has much to overcome in its onward march of progress. The youth of many of our best families go out to what is supposed to be associations with the very best social set and commit all sorts of depredations, and fall back on the saying, "That boys just will be boys." We do not believe there is any group of persons that will come up with such bad behavior as the youth of our group. There is a reason for this and that reason is, the home training which they have received. There is quite a difference with those who have had the home training and those who just grow up like weeds.

The angle in the building of a race is indeed a vital one and there is no greater need for our future progress than the training of our youth to be young ladies and gentlemen.

WHO KILLED COCK ROBIN?

If any sort of ego is justifiable it is certainly not the kind which makes individuals come in and dictate the police department or any part of it. That would indeed make the people subject to exploitation. To consult and suggest in an organized manner for appointments for the betterment of the community is certainly in order at all times, but when seventeen different persons come to us and tell us all at one time that they killed Cock Robin in the recent police shift on the East Side, it is really a little more ego than we thought existed.

GOOD FOR THE N. A. A. C. P.

We congratulate the N. A. A. C. P. rather than to condemn it for the masterly fight it has made and the fact that it has recognized other publications than their own (The Crisis) convinces us of unselfish motives when spreading propaganda.

From the howl made by some of the Eastern papers, it may be they are all "het up" because they were not on the list.

PASADENA VOTERS OPPORTUNITY

Pasadena voters to our way of thinking will act wisely in voting out the present form of City Government. If a City Manager refuses citizens the recognition due them there is no come back, but with a Mayor and City Council you have a certain and sure opportunity of hitting back.

GOOD PICKING FOR THE CREAMERIES

A vote for the Oleo Margerine Cloture is but one way of raising the price of butter and make times pick up for the creameries. Vote against such legislation.

TRIED AND TRUE

Tried and true are such jurists as Judge Harry Holzer and Charles S. Burnell and everybody can well afford to rally to their support.

ELECT SHERIFF TRAEGER

We want to let it be known that we are strong for the election of W. I. Traeger as Sheriff. We want no misapprehension about it for the great common, everyday people there is no one else to vote for.

The Ku Klux have endorsed another and that in itself is sufficient for all decent and law-loving citizens to even become stronger for the election of Sheriff Traeger.

AGAINST THE FIVE HUNDRED MILLION

Yes, it would certainly be pretty soft pickings for somebody should the people of California so far forget themselves as to vote the five hundred million bond proposition. We have no idea that the people will for one moment stand for this pernicious scheme. Vote against this big commission grab and save California.

C., as their National Director of Districts and Auditor. Mr. Dent has had over ten years experience in the business world as a publicity man and public accountant, during which time he was managing editor of the Detroit Leader, auditor and director of "Your Cab Company," Chicago, Ill., which company he helped organize and the Liberty Life Insurance Company of Illinois at Chicago of which Company he was auditor and is a life member of the Advisory Board of Directors. Mr. Dent will be a great asset to the F. A. A. due to his wide acquaintance and general business experience. He is especial fortunate in that he was a close personal friend, as well as a business associate of the late Frank L. Gillespie, who was considered by many of both races as the financial genius of the present century.

TWINS—ALMOST

Stork Gives Doctor Merry Chase

Not contented with chasing Dr. Ruth Temple out of bed at midnight Friday morning, the stork fixed up a little game of "Catch Me If You Can," which almost baffled the doctor.

After having spent the night on the "East Side" at the storks demand, about day-break Dr. Temple got a call to come At Once to east 18th street. As fast as the Dodge could go, she drove over. She had hardly gotten "scrubbed up" and put her gloves on, the phone rang, saying that the stork was flying in other quarters and that her srevices were needed at ONCE. Things looked must perplexing for a moment, but with the efficient little trained nurse, Miss Jamet Fletcher, left to watch one case, while the doctor was with the other, Dr. Temple was able to take care of both jobs nicely. Within just a very short space of time she was able to deliver a handsome fine baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. V. Pitts of 18th and a perfectly adorable little doll-baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Wheley of the "twins" are doing fine.
986 East 32nd street.

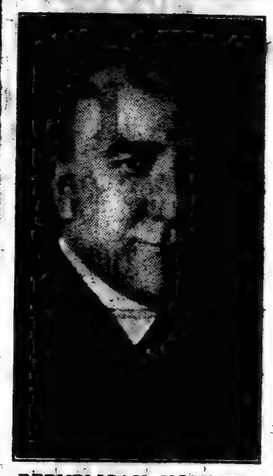
Both babies are as healthy as they are beautiful. And the mothers of The Whaleys are a "bran new couple" and this their first baby while the big boy born Friday is the 3rd baby deposited at the Pitt's house by Dr. Temple within the past three years. And everyone says that they are three of the prettiest children in town.

KIDDIEES MAKE MERRY AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie E. Stubblefield gave a birthday party in honor of their little daughter, oLnnie Mae, at their residence, 973 E. 40th street, Monday, October 11, 1926.

Lonnie Mae received many presents. Her aunt, Mrs. Juanita Mutch gave her a ukulele which made her very happy. Her uncle, Mr. Mutch, presented her with a beautiful blue crystal perfume otimiser. Another one of her aunts, Miss Odell Stubblefield gave her a beautiful white silk slip trimmed in lace and rose buds. She received many other beautiful gifts from her many friends.

The table was beautifully decorated in Hallowe'en colors. The children had a Charleston contest and the prize went to little Edward Manly. Games and fortune telling concluded the evening.



THE BACHELOR GIRLS CLUB

—And the goblins will get you, if you don't watch out! There were goblins and spooks galore at the Bachelor Girls party on last Friday evening at the home of Miss Edith Pottle. There were spooks to greet you at the door and welcome you with a clammy handshake, then there was the ghost-walk, but best of all there was the apple dider to give you the true hallowe'en feeling.

The Bachelor Girls on last Wednesday evening, carried baskets of groceries to an elderly woman who is in dire need.

The next meeting of the Bachelor Girls will be held on next Monday evening at the home of the vice-president, Miss Camille Allen.

PLAIN FACTS

By:
DR. RUTH TEMPLE

Specializing in Obstetrics and Women's Diseases; Staff Member White Memorial Hospital; Staff Member the Maternity Division of the City Health Department.

Note:—At the Health Department this week the Supervisor in Obstetrics addressed the doctors on the great importance of "Prenatal Care." That means the direct supervision of the mother before the baby comes by a physician who has studied to so care for the expectant mother that during the pre-natal or "before birth" period the very best can be done for both mother and babe. For one hour and fifteen minutes those doctors sat and listened as point by point was taken up. Later we will give, in this column, just the sense, if not the exact words, of all of these pre-natal lectures. For I cannot help thinking, as we study and learn at the feet of these learned doctors of years and years of experience in maternity care, if it is necessary for doctors, who have had many years of training, to constantly study and learn the simple things about the care of the expectant mother before the birth of her little one. Then, readers, it is equally as important that you, who are the most directly affected, should realize the grave importance of the pre-natal care and we doctors, who are carefully studying Obstetrics, do not expect to rest, nor to give you any rest, until you learn to put yourselves under medical care early in pregnancy. Whoever you are, don't wait until just before the baby is born, as a lady did with me the other morning. But when you know that you are pregnant, then go at once to your own doctor, if you have one, or to some good doctor, if you do not have a regular physician, and be examined. And then place yourself under that doctor's care for the whole night or nine months of your pregnancy. And if he or she is a doctor who is doing the right kind of work in Obstetrics—and we have a lot of good doctors in town who are—he, or she, will put you on the table and examine you thoroughly when first you come to the office, take your measurements and go carefully into your history to see just what bearing the past conditions or conditions will have on the present pregnancy. Then he, or she, will have you come to the office every two weeks during the whole time of your pregnancy and take your blood pressure and examine your urine and make any other necessary examinations and give any necessary treatments.

Again, I say, for over an hour we doctors at the Health Department dwelt on the grave importance of these things, and I beg of you, readers, do not treat it lightly. If you are pregnant, seek medical care at once—do not delay. It may save your life or the life of your unborn child.

MOTHERHOOD NO. III
Changes in the Physical Body During Pregnancy.

We will discuss, in a few words, a very important physical change which occurs in some women during pregnancy. Many women are very thin before pregnancy and then get very, very stout while pregnant. Is this normal, or is it not? Obsolutely, no! And moreover, it is very dangerous.

Why is it dangerous to put on large amounts of fat during Pregnancy?

Because it usually means that you are overfed, and you may kill yourself and your baby if you do not stop overeating and reduce in weight. The first case of eclampsia or convulsions of pregnancy that I ever had in one of my patients was that of a woman weighing about 300 pounds, and who simply would not give up being a glutton. She loved to eat, she would eat and she almost killed her baby and herself. She had one hard convulsion after another. I rushed her into the hospital and we delivered the baby at once with instruments. Got a live baby and finally the mother pulled through alive. But she almost dug her own grave with her knife and fork.

Next week we will tell you how one mother killed more than a half dozen children with pork chops, and also explain in what way overeating causes convulsions of pregnancy.

Address all questions for this column to Dr. Ruth Temple, 3556 So. Western. Phone Van. 1221, Univ. 1255, Emp. 9981.

The Misses Leonsie and Lulu Morris were two delightfully youthful hostess on last Monday evening when they entertained about a half a hundred of the younger married contingent in compliment to the natal day of their mother, Mrs. Jessie Morris. The luxurious Leroy Calhoun bungalow in Madison Avenue was used for the setting, and the evening was given over to dancing and cards. A buffet supper was served at a late hour, and the guests all departed feeling that the little Misses were the best of hostesses.

Three meetings of the Avondale 500 Club have been held since the opening of the season, the first with Mrs. Chas. Conner, as hostess at Christian's Tavern; the next Mrs. Wm. G. Judge Langdon Shows In Great Legion Hall Speech His Stand Against Race Mistreatment

Judge William H. Langdon, aspirant for a place o nthe Supreme Court of California as Associate Justice, is making his closing tour of Southern California. Judge Langdon's campaign has been featured with a wide range of endorsements from personalities of state-wide repute. Judge Langdon, as a farmer's son, had to carve out his own career. He began as a sch ool teacher and rose to Superintendent of Schools. After taking up the law he became District Attorney of San Francisco. At the conclusion of two terms in this office he removed to Modesto to engage in the practice of the law. During this period he became President of the State Board of Education and had an important part in developing the progressive policies of our public school system.

Judge Langdon became Superior Judge of Stanlaus County and after serving four years was elevated to Presiding Justice of the District Court of Appeal for the First District. He has a remarkable record in the number of opinions written and decisions rendered and in judgments upheld by the higher courts. The fairness of his decisions have never been questioned.

Judge Langdon has spoken before the people of our race on several occasions since he has been in Los Angeles and has been given a hearty welcome and his addresses have been enthusiasticalilly received. On Friday last he spoke at the Repjublican Rally at the American Legion Hall on 12th Street and on Monday addressed the meeting of the Ministers Association at the Y. M. C. A. Building on 9th street, laying special stress on the Dyer bill and his support of that measure to stop the outrageous and unlawful practices against our people. Judge Langdon will receive the tremendous support of the Negro voters in California on November 2nd.

Support The Bonds for the Firemen

To The Voters of the City of Los Angeles—Greeting:

Referring to Proposition 8-A, as appears on the ballot of November 2nd next, permit us to say that particular amendment is the result of the combined efforts, upon agreement, of the Pension Commission, the City Council, the City Attorney's Office and the Committee representing the Fire and Police Departments, each Committee having contributed something toward the proposed amendment, which we deem will be most beneficial to all parties concerned; i. e., the Fire and Police Departments ad the Taxpayers.

The members of the Fire and Police Departments have expressed themselves voluntarily as being agreeable to the contributory system and under the terms of the proposed change they will contribute a sum of a million ($35,000.00) Dollars to the Pension Fund out of their salaries annually. Such contribution, at this time, is considerably greater than the disbursements for service pensions, so by this agreement the members of the Departments will be contributing a sum which will always be in excess of fifty (50%) per cent of the total amount necessary for service pensions.

The proposed amendment limits the pension to be paid the higher officials to a sum not in excess of one thousand eight hundred ($1,800.00) dollars per year.

Further provisions have been made to increase the pension of widows with minor children.

In the matter of years of service, the proposed change increases the length of service for retirement to thirty-five (35) years.

An added section in the pension provision gives credit to men who have served in the United States Army, Navy or Marine Corps during the war. Said service to be counted the same as if they had remained in the Department. This applies only to men who left the Department during war and returned to the Department when honorably discharged from the United States.

The provisions, as a whole, means a great saving to the taxpayer by the contribution of an amount equal to four (4%) per cent of the member's salary and the increase in the years of service; thereby saving taxpayers of the City of Los Angeles a sum in excess of one-half a million ($500,000.00) dollars annually.

It is the urgent request of the members of both the Fire and Police Departments that this matter receive the support of all the voters.

Respectfully,

LOS ANGELES FIRE and POLICE PROTECTIVE LEAGUE,
President, Howard T. James,
Vice-President, J. L. McClary,
Secretary, E. E. Henry.

We are asking Eagle readers to respond to this call which means greater efficiency and more economy.

Last Call G. O. P.

Beginning its final drive of the 1926 political campaign, the Los Angeles Republican County Central Committee has issued a statement predicting that the entire G. O. P. ticket from Lieut. Governor C. C. Young, the party candidate for Governor, down to the last Assemblyman nominee, will be swept into office in next Tuesday's balloting by record breaking majorities.

Will not a day pass between now and the election, Frank A. Gibson, Chairman of the Committee declares, but that the success of the candidacy of Lieut. Governor Young, Republican nominee for Governor, and the re-election of United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson, Republican nominee for re-election, and Congressional District party choice, and other candidates on the ticket, is positively assured.

"The most vital issue in Southern California is a continuation of the Republican policy of a high tariff for the protection of our agricultural industries," said Chairman Arnold," and Senator Shortridge and Mr. Evans have concentrated their efforts on warning the citizens of the Southland of the perils of sending men to Washington who do not uphold this policy.

"The candidacies of Mr. Young and Mr. Fitts have struck a popular chord of appeal and I am certain that these Republicans, along with the other party nominees, will be elected to the offices to which they aspire by the largest majorities ever given any candidate for my office on any party ticket in California at the election next Tuesday."

Playgrounds Moral Cure

Athletic Games Best Preventative for Juvenile Delinquency, Says Councilman A. J. Barnes.

That the old saying, "An idle brain is the devil's workshop," applies to body as well as mind, is the declaration of City Councilman A. J. Barnes, candidate for County Supervisor in the Third District, who comes out unqualifiedly in favor of Proposition No. 20A on the November ballot, which calls for a $1,500,000 bond issue for playgrounds.

"Athletic games not only make the body fit and help to raise the physical standard of the coming generation, but they develop a mental keenness which also elevates the intellect," says Barnes, who adds:

"There is no better preventative of juvenile delinquency on earth than healthful outdoor play. The devil hasn't a chance to edge a toe in with a youngster who is busy romping and indulging in the natural exhilaration of a competitive game which requires physical alertness.

"We must put Proposition No. 20A across. The money involved is insignificant when compared with the returns that will come from the investment. We owe it to our boys and girls."

Los Angeles, California.

We take this method of thanking our many friends and members of Apostolic faith church for the kindness and sympathy shown during the illness and death of our mother and mother-in-law, Mrs. Rhoda Thomas, who departed this life Oct. 10th, 1226; also for the beautiful floral offering. Looming On The Political Horizon

Vote For Joseph McInerney

In casting their votes for Joseph McInerney, candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court to fill the unexpired term of Justice Thomas J. Lennon, members of the Negro race have a splendid opportunity to assist one of their real friends.

Mr. McInerney is a friend of our people. Men who are interested in Negro problems have perfect confidence in him. They have found him free from any vestige of racial prejudice and his mind is actuated by the thought that the spirit of justice father than technical words is the true basis in law interpretation upon which to adjudge problem coming before the court.

There are so many candidates and so many propositions to vote upon on November 2nd that some of these offices are likely to be overlooked when the ballots are being marked.

It is the belief of this paper that negro citizens will be doing themselves a distinct injustice if they fail to recognize Mr. McInerney's friendship and mark their ballots for him.

Don't Overlook This!

BE SURE AND VOTE FOR JOSEPH

For Associate Justice Supreme Court (To Fill the Short Term Created by the Death of Justice T. J. Lennon).

Mr. McInnerney is a friend of Our People—Free from any vestige of Racial Prejudice, and Negro citizens may vote for him in the compete confidence that they will have on the Supreme Bench a just and able judge, who will be mindful of our rights, and whose judgment will not be swayed by any thought except that Justice is Paramount in the interpretation of the law.

This advertisement is sponsored and paid for by Negro friends of Justice Lennon as a tribute to his memory, and in the hope that out sincere friend, Joseph McInerney, may be elected to succeed him.

Oct. 12, 1926.—The Central Avenue Garden Industrial Club had their general election of officers: Mrs Collett, President; Mrs Bateman, Secretary.

Why You Should Vote "NO!" On the $500,000,000.00 Water and ower Act

1. It authorizes $500,000,000.00 of bonds, which means an ADDED debt of $700.00 to every average-sized family in California, as the FULL FAITH and CREDIT of the State is pledged for payment of principal and interest. This would increase the bonded debt of th State seven times, making it 40 per cent of the entire indebtedness of all the other 47 States in the Union.

A Menace to Boulder Canyon Dam Proect

2. If this enormous bond issue carries, it will defeat the Boulder Canyon Dam Project as far as benefits derived by Los Angeles are concerned, as the burden of Los Angeles' share of the $500,000,000.00 Bond Issue will be so great that it will prevent the Municipality from putting over a bond issue for the expensive aqueduct necessary for securing Water and Power from the Boulder Canyon Dam.

Increases Cost of Living

3. It means higher rents and higher living cost. If this Half Billion Dollars is issued, the People will have to pay $30,000,000.00 in interest EACH YEAR and $10,000,000.00 more for Principal. This $40,000,000 may be collected in Taxes—the Act says so. The landlord adds his share of the Tax to the rent, the merchant to the goods we buy. The burden is on the wage-earner and small home-owner.

Influx of Labor

4. It would crowd the labor market of California, and, notwithstanding the fact that it would be years before such actual development work would take place as would employ any considerable amount of labor, thousands would at once rush to this State from all over the Country, expecting work here, when they heard that a Bond Issue of $500,000,000.00 had been passed by the People, to be spent as this act provides. This rush to the State in the hope of employment would create an army of unemployed to be cared for; wages would be cut, and because of forced and unfair competition, the jobs of those now well employed would be jeopardized.

Tax Exempt Bonds for the Rich

5. It means Working People will pay the tax on these $500,000,000.00 of bonds as the Act provides they may be paid from taxes collected. The bonds themselves are not taxable. Wealthy people will buy them—wage-earners could not afford to purchase them. The intcrest and principal on these bonds must be paid and the People will have to foot the bill, as there can be no guaranty that this experimental enterprise will ever pay ONE DOLLAR on principal or interest.

Act Is Not Needed

6. It is not needed. Present laws permit cities, communities and districts to develop their water and power resources. Why should cities like Los Angeles, San Diego, Santa Barbara and others, already bonded for millions and owning their water and power, be compelled to pay their share of this $500,0000,000.00 to provide for other communities?

Not Public Ownership

7. It is NOT public ownership. The People cannot elect members of the Board of Five Members that will spend this Half Billion Dollars; cannot vote upon what projects will be undertaken; cannot question any of the acts or expenditures of the Board, and the People cannot by Initiative Petition compel the Board to do anything; the Referendum is denied and the Recall is not assuered.

Blocks Needed Improvement

8. It would block public ownership, as taxation would be so heavy, bonds could not be sold for the taking over of any utility should the people so desire. Where could the State, carrying 40 per cent of the bonded indebtedness of all the States, sell bonds for schools, highways and other needed public improvements?

Political Board Is All Powerful

9. It places autocratic and dangerous power in the hands of five political appointees, and helps to build up a powerful political machine that may ultimately be a menace to the people's free exercise of the ballot. No other official or department of government is given such powers. The Board is beyond control by the People, and is not subject to review by the Legislature at the direction of the Governor. Members can only be recalled by a two-thirds vote of the entire Legislature, and that only after the damage is done. The Board can do any and all things it thinks necessary with YOUR money. It can even spend all or any part of the $500,000,000.00 outside of California.

Vote "No!" on Number 18, Water and Power Act

Citizens Protective Association

Note:—This same Act was defeated by the People by a Majority Vote of 431,949 in 1924.

Characterizing proposition No. 8, the so-called oleomargarine referendum, as a tax on food, J. J. Mack, secretary of the California Anti Food-Tax Association issued a statement today in which he urged voters to defeat the measure at the November election.

The principal arguments against the law as presented by Mack follow:

1. A tax of two cents a pound is levied on all margarine sold in California; this is the first time this state has imposed a TAX on FOOD.

2. Margarine is recognized as a pure food, both by the United States Government and the State of California; there are already ample laws, both Federal and State, for the regulation of the manufacture and sale of this product; there is positively no need for this law as a pure food regulation.

3. This tax on about 15 million pounds of margarine annually sold here would each year yield about $300,000; the State already receives about $50,000 from oleomargarine dealers in license fees; the expenses of running the State Dairy Department is only about $46,000 a year. The tax is, therefore, unnecessary and wasteful.

4. The law is not necessary for the protection of the dairy industry of this state. California milk and butter already bring a higher price than in any other Western State, and California dairymen find today an ample outlet for all the milk they can produce.

5. The question is, therefore, not one of margarine vs. the dairymen, but of creamery factories vs. the people; the sponsors of this bill have for their goal the elimination of margarine in order to increase the price of butter.

7. It is un-American to tax one industry in order to help a competing industry.

8. The law imposes burdensome restrictions which would make it impossible for manufacturers to do business, for instance, most margarine is made by churning vegetable fats and pasteurized milk—the law would forbid the use of such terms as "churn" or "mill" or "pasteurized"—an attack upon truth in advertising—other similar tyrannical restrictions are imposed—in effect a gag law.

9. The law is a tax on FOOD, an attack on the pocketbook and personal liberty of the citizen, and class legislation.

Pasadena Voters Strong Against City Manager Form of Government

On next Tuesday Pasadena voters will decide upon a regular form of government, called by many a true representative form of government. Instead of the present election of Commissioners and a city manager it is insisted a majority of the people favor the election of a mayor and city council.

To procure this sort of government it will be necessary to vote YES on No. 3 and NO on Nos. 1 and 2.

The colored voters are strong for proposition No. 3 which will give the city a Mayor and City Council. They claim that it has been impossible to secure recognition under the present form and are a unit for No. 3.

Among the leading sponsors for the proposition to change from the present plan are Rev. J. M. Riddle, J. C. C. Jackson; Fred A. Wright; J. M. McAlpine; H. E. Olcott and others.

Among the organizations endorsing the stand for No. 3 are the California Citizens Civic League; Eastside Independent Club and many other civic organizations.

The General Campaign Committee of the Citizens Union League are constructing a winning fight for this change of plan in government.

Judge Charles S. Burnell Deserves Strong and Hearty Support

There is no man on the bench of the Superior court who is more deserving of the support of the great common people than Judge Charles S. Burnell. He stands four square as an exponent of even handed justice.

It makes no difference with judge Burnell as to your station in life, when in his court, you will receive a just and square deal as the law provides.

During his term of offices time and again he has met the issues without faltering and justice has been given out to rich and poor alike, for all meet on the same level in the confines of judge Burnell's court.

Judge Burnell came to the Supreme court after a rich and varied experience of practice before the bar. He had served the people in high places of honor, they called upon him to serve them still higher and he has indeed met all requirements as the peoples judge.

We write these lines to merely in a general way give an insight into the general characteristic of this broad gauged jurist and to stress the importance of both working and voting for the reelection of a man of his caliber. Too often we sit idly by and fail to do our duty in giving our whole hearted support to the men who really stand up at all times for that righteousness which exalth a nation.

We are strong for Judge Burnell and we ask all who read these lines to know they are sincere and we ask for your consideration for the reelection of Judge Charles S. Burnell to succeed himself on the bench of the Superior Court.

SAN FRANCISCO POLITICIAN VISITS CITY

John Taylor, well known in political circles as a strong adherent and parcel of the Going for Governor forces, and whose work is recognized by the powers that be, was a visitor in the city the latter part of last week and until Sunday of this week.

Mr. Taylorwas here as a representative of the State Central Committee to feel the sentiment among our people for the Republican ticket. He visited San Diego and other points and found a united front for the ticket. He met many of our citizens here and was much impressed with the situation for party success. He left Sunday for Bakersfield, Fresno and Reno.

WALTON J. WOOD
AN APPRECIATION

On Monday, October 25th, at Christian Tavern, the Blackstone Club held an informal dinner in honor of Judge Walton J. Wood, and pledged Judge Wood the support of this Club in the coming election.

Judge Wood is a candidate for re-election to the Superior Court, long term and is one of the five judges to be elected for a full six year term.

The Blackstone Club appeals to the voters of this County to vote for Judge Wood! This, for reason of his high integrity, and his fearless exposition of what he believes to be right, and this no matter who it hurts.

Judge Wood has not been endorsed by "big interests". In fact the "big interests" do not like Judge Wood. There is a reason.

For many years Judge Wood was the Public Defender of this County. As such he made it his business to see to it that the poor man, and the uprotected litigant had a square deal.

We want no "favors", but we do want justice for all alike, rich or poor, high or low without regard to color, class or creed. In voting for Judge Wood, we know we will be safeguarding the rights of all, of each citizen alike.

The record he has made is the very best: The fact that he cannot be "used" by certain cliques is all the "used" by certain cliques is all the more reason why he should be elected.

Vote for Judge Walton J. Wood!

Houser For Associate Justice Supreme Court

It is the opinion of Judge Frederick W. Houser, candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, that the right of judges to jail and fine newspaper editors and writers who criticise judicial proceedings, on charges of contempt of court should only be invoked in extremely aggravated cases.

Though twenty years on the Bench, and during that time handling many cases which kept the attention of the press and the public for weeks at a time, Judge Houser has never cited a newspaperman for contempt.

Judge Houser says: "Only where a deliberate malice on the part of a newspaper editor is shown or in instances where a grave injustice is being done, should any judge, no matter what his rank in judicial authority, invoke the contempt penalty.

"I have found newspapermen willing at all times to co-operate in the interests of law, order and justice, and never have I had a single reporter or editor violate my confidence.

"The freedom of the press is a most essential element in American liberty and I fear the tendency on the part of some representatives of the judiciary to assume a too autocratic policy, muzzling the press at every turn, is a menace to the God-given rights of the people.

"Respect for the judiciary can only be incurred through the unimpeachable character and conduct of our judges, not through the frequent and tyrannical power vested in them by use of contempt of court charges."

E. SCOTT, RETIRED PULLMAN PORTER LAID TO REST

Mr. D. Scott, one of the oldest Pullman Porters on the retired list of the Pullman company, was quietly laid to rest at Evergreen cemetery last Tuesday afternoon. His funeral which was held at Wesley Chapel was the occasion for various and lengthy praises from different organizations which he had been affiliated with in the past. Quietly resting in a gray casket banked with flowers, and surrounded by the American flags. The knights of Pythias, Masons and Old Veterans; the last rites were held over the grand old gentleman. Mr. L. A. Coffin, Pullman instructor of this district spoke of the fifty-six years of service that Mr. Scott had faithfully rendered the Pullman company during which time he was given 460 credit marks and not one demerit. Mr. Coffin extended the sympathy of all the Puman porters, and acted as special representative of Mr. L. S. Mungerford, Vice-Pres. of the Pullman company. The scripture was read by Father Cleghorn, Rev. Bean rendered prayer, and Rev. Shaw read a lengthy obituary. Mrs. Henry Baker sang a solo. The address delivered by Rev. Shaw was a very touching one, Rev. Gordon spoke of race organization, after which the ladies of the relief corps took charge of the services which ended by them marching around the casket and putting sweet peas on it. A representative of the post of which Mr. Scott was a member spoke very highly of him as a comrade. Wesley chapel was packed with people of all classes and description, old and young alike shared in the services. White and Black, one will not soon forget. In death their is no color line, after the body was viewed by all present, it was taken charge of by the Masons, who ecorted it to Evergreen cemetery, and there may be rest in peace.

MR. WHITE MARRIES

Last week our old friend Wm. White stepped up bravely to the altar and promised to hand over his tips for the balance of his natural born life to a charming lady from Dallas, Texas, named Mrs. Hill. The romance first started in The Palm inn some time ago, and apparently was one of those cases of love at first sight, as friend Bill dropped out of sight of the gang from that time on; Mrs. Wm. White is a friend of Mrs. C. Smith, who married C. Smith No. 2 a few weeks past; Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wortham, R. Hicks and his fiance were present when the knot was tied; the Railroad Clatter extends its congratulations, and begs to remind its female readers that the boys are going fast.

C. B. LEVY WINS RACE FOR DELEGATE

Piling up an overwhelming lead of votes in one of the most heated P. P. B. A. election battles of this district, C. H. Levy was unanimously elected Grand Delegate to the Grand lodge in Chicago, defeating T. A. Simms, who was considered a strong contender for the honors from the start. The unseen hand of the powerful P. P. B. A. politician J. Montgomery was much in evidence in the election of Levy, and it is thought by many that the bitterness which has been known to exist between Big Jim and T. A. Simms was chiefly responsible for Simms defeat. Following is the final result of the election: Chairman, R. J. Murray, 107; Vice Chairman, S. A. Hopgood, 82; Sec. C. A. Crain, 75; Treasurer, S. A. Hopgood, 71; Del. C. H. Levy, 102; Greviance Com.: M. B. Brazley, 117 S. H. Burnette, 117; J. T. Ambrose, 113. It will be noted that S. A. Hopgood after refusing to run as Delegate was elected to two offices, Vice Chairman and Treasurer, what he will do with two offices remains a question. The new officers will be installed at the next regular meeting of the Local.

MEN SLOW IN BIDDING ON GOLD COAST

Apparently some porters do not know where they want to run, many will refuse on national unless they can get on the "Lark" and it is a sure thing that all the portars in Los Angeles can not run on the "Lark" so the best thing is to forget it and pick a run that you can hold. It was a hard job to even get the operation of the Old Coast on the U. P. for this District, and now that this district has got it, nobody can hear from those extra boards who lay around the Platform offices for a chance to get an extra run on the "Lark" now and then is, it's a season run, what of that? when the season is over and they pull it off or give it to Chicago, you should be more than willing to turn it a loose as the best people ride out here in the winter months and it is a very pleasant run in the winter, and a lucrative one. This is the first time that this district has had the opportunity of operating a first class transcontinental train, and they should not hesitate in taking a shot at it; evidently the snow line so shows for Los Angeles porters.

Walter White Gets Names Of S. C. Lynchers

N. A. A. C. P. ASS'T. SECRETARY ON SCENE, UNCOVERS REIGN OF LAWLESS TERROR

Full Evidence Turned Over to the Governor of South Carolina

NEW YORK, OCT. 29.—Names of lynchers and full details of the lynching of one colored woman, Bertha Lowman, and her brother and cousin, at Aiken, South Carolina, in the early morning of October 8, have been obtained in an investigation on the spot by Walter White, Assistant Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and all the facts submitted in a letter to Governor McLeod of South Carolina.

A lawless reign of terror in the State of South Carolina in the vicinity of the lynching city of Aiken is disclosed by the the N. A. A. C. P. Assistant Secretary, who brings to light the following startling facts:

1. The lynching was planned and executed by members of the Ku Klux Klan.

2. Officers of the law took part in the lynching and a number of them acted as "official executioners" of the mob victims.

3. The prisoners were turned over to the mob by the Sheriff and his assistants, who were parties to the crime.

4. Reputable white citizens living in that vicinity are in terror of their lives from the lawless Ku Klux Klan ring and go heavily armed, bar their doors at night, and have been "praying to God" for some person from outside the State to come in and bare the facts.

Walter White, who has just returned to New York, made the following statement:

"I went to Aiken for the National Associatiin for the Advancement of Colored People and as Special Correspondent of the New York World. I found a situation in South Carolina which beggars description. Among the persons with whom I talked were some of the best known and most respectable white citizens of South Carolina, including lawyers, newspaper editors, farmers and business men. I found them heavily armed and terrified because of the activities of the Klan and allied criminals. The predicament of colored people can easily be imagined.

"Early in 1924, Sam Lowman, his wife, Annie and their children moved from Saluda County where htey had lived all their lives to the farm of a white man named Hartley, 13 miles from Aiken. As a result of a quarrel between this man and another white man, the latter sought to embarrass Hartley by notifying the Sheriff that that Lowmans were selling whiskey. I talked with a number of white people and without exception they declared that the Lowmans were an entirely industrious, law-abiding and respected family. As a result of the anonymous letter to the Sheriff, Sheriff H. H. Howard and Deputy Sheriffs Nollie Robinson, R. L. McElhaney and A. D. Sheppard went to the Lowman home on April 25, 1925. Two weeks earlier, on a Sunday night, a crowd of Klansmen robed and hooded had called Demon Lowman, 22-year old son, from his home and whipped him.

SHERIFFS SHOWED NO BADGEES

"When the four white Sheriffs in plain clothes, and with no badges, approached the Lowman home, Mrs. Annie Lowman, the mother, 55 years old, was making soap in the backyard and her daughter Bertha, 27, was sweeping the yard. Sam Lowman, the father, had gone to the mill to have meal ground, while Demon Lowman and Clarence Lowman, 14 years of age and his cousin, who had been raised by Sam Lowman and his wife, were plowing in a field 100 yards away.

"When Mrs. Lowman and her daughters saw the white men approaching the house they thought it wisest to go inside until they had passed. The Sheriffs drew guns and started running towards the house to surround it. Bertha Lowman screamed. Demon and Clarence ran to the house as the Sheriffs rushed into it. Sheriff Howard and Bertha Lowman reached the back steps at the same time. The Sheriff knocked Bertha out of the way with his left fist, his pistol clutched in his right hand, shouting to her to stand back. In the melee Deputy Sheriff Robinson fired and killed Mrs. Annie Lowman. Bertha Lowman was shot twice in the left breast just above the heart and once through the abdomen. Claence Lowman was also severely injured while Demon Lowman was shot but not wounded seriously. Sheriff Howard was killed by gunshot wounds and, in the first trial three state's witnesses testified that a pistol bullet went hrough his head. The Sheriffs had pistols. Clarence Lowman had a shotgun while Demon Lowman had a pistol but at no time was anywhere near Sheriff Howard or at a point where he could have shot the Sheriff. In the trial it was brought out that the white men did not in any manner indicate they were officers of the law.

HASTY TRIAL AMID HIGH TENSION

"Five of the Lowmans were arrested and moved hastily to the penitentiary at Columbia to avoid a lynching. According to the record of the South Carolina State Supreme Court, the shooting took place on April 25, Howard's funeral on the 26th (at which were present more than 200 Klansmen in full regalia), inquest was held on the 27th, the court convened on May 4, the indictment of the Lowmans was had the same day, the defendants were arraigned on the 9th and placed on trial May 12. Feeling was so high in Aiken, according to the defense brief in the Supreme Court, it was published to the world that it would be difficult to obtain lawyers for the Lowmans in Aiken. Attorneys were appointed by the court, who merely went through the gestures of defending them. In his charge to the jury, Judge H. F. Rice, knowing of the danger of the lawyers, even though appointed by the court, apologized for the formal defense made by them and impressed upon the jury the fact that 'none of them wanted to do it.'

"Bertha, Demon and Clarence were found guilty of murder with a recommendation of mercy in the case of Bertha. Demon and Clarence were sentenced to die on June 12, 1925 and Bertha to life imprisonment. It is worthy of note that Bertha and Clarence Lowman's lives were hanging in the balance from their wounds at the time they were placed on trial and they were taken from the hospital to the court room.

"The case was so outrageous that N. J. Frederick, a colored attorney of Columbia, on his own initiative, entered the case and filed an excellent appeal to the State Supreme Court for a review of the cases, resulting in a reversal of the convictions and the remanding of the defendants for a new trial.

"The three defendants were again placed on trial October 5th, at Aiken, Judge Lanham presiding. Mr. Frederick retained L. G. Southard, a white attorney of Spartanburg, paying him $125 out of his own pocket. Messrs. Frederick and Southard put up a magnificent defense and completely demolished the State's case. On October 7, a motion was made for a directed verdict of not guilty in the case of Demon Lowman. It was generally conceded in Aiken that Clarence and Bertha would be freed by the jury next day. At 5 in the afternoon Judge Lanham granted the motion for the dismissal of the cast against Demon. He was however immediately rearrested on a charge of assault and battery and recommitted to jail.

THE LYNCHING PLANNED BY KU KLUX KLAN

"Within one hour after the Judge's decision, news had been sent to as distant a point as Columbia that the 3 Lowmans were to be lynched that

Daly Store Appoints Colored Manager of Branch Store, 25th and Hooper Ave.

Demonstrating their faith in the ability of one of our group to successfully conduct business and at the same time give due recognition to their patrons, the great Daly Chain Store Corporation has taken an advanced step and made Mr. Matthew B. McKenzie manager of its branch store at 25th St. and Hooper Ave.

MR. M. B. McKENZIE

We are glad to note that this corporation has been broadguaged and big enough to accord this recognition which we trust will be followed by other business enterprises in the various avenues of effort.

This matter was brought about largely through the efforts of Mrs. Zora Ward McKenzie who worked most faithfully to secure this just recognition. She canvassed the community, prepared the petition to the Daly Company and simply would not give up the fight for recognition in a business where all of its patrons were of the Colored race.

We want to see the people of this section demonstrate their appreciation by giving to Manager McKenzie their hearty support. His success means that this is just the beginning of giving places of this kind to our group.

APPEALS TO HIGHER COURT

(By A. N. P.)

Wasington, Nov. 4.—Kate Williams, who has been sentenced to serve six years in the penitentiary on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of her husband, Fred Williams, who died December 7, last, from burns received a week previous, has noted an appeal to the Court of Appeals in the form of a brief submitted on her behalf. In an altercation with her husband she is alleged to have inflicted burns from the which he died in a local hospital a week later.

To Hang Self-Defense Killer

(By A. N. P.)

Layfayette, La., Nov. 4.—Sam Woodard, after the jury had "deliberated" a few minutes, was found guilty of murder and sentenced to be hanged. Woodard, while confessing to the shooting of James Guidard, a Southern Pacific Railway employee, claimed that he shot in self-defense while being ejected from a box car in the yards in July.

PROBATION OFFICER RESIGNS

Unable to withstand the inducements offered him with a larger sphere in which to work, with a greater future before him S. B. Danley Jr. assistant probation officer of Los Angeles county has resigned his position and in a fortnight will leave for his new field of endeavor at Springfield, Ill.

The people of Los Angeles realize they are losing one of its brightest stars and most efficient officials and all request his leaving, however they are charitable in the premises when they realize his new situation gives him a greater scope for service and advancement. Mr. Danley is a California product and do such is the West's contribution to the East. His parents, Rev. and Mrs. Danly came to California in 19044 and settled in Pasadena. Mr. Danley therefore received all of his education in California, going through the grammar and high schools of Pasadena and subsequently finishing college work at the University of Southern California. It is note worthy indeed that Mr. Danley successfully passed the Civil Service requirements for probation officer and received his appointment four months before his graduation. This was in March, 1923. His time has been that of unselfish devotion to the interests of the Negro Youth. Many of whom have already voiced their regret that they will lose such a friend and helper as they found in Mr. Danley. He is a number of the American Association of Social Workers, the National Prohibition Officers Association, the California Probation Officers Association, California Conference of Social Work, Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity the Masons and many other professional, social and civic organizations.

Mr. Danly did not by any means limit his service to official limitations but always took a lively interest in the community and civic enterprises of both Los Angeles and Pasadena.

Another happy situation in Mr. Danly's career and admiration of his friends is the fourthcoming announcement that before his departure he will take unto himself a helpmeet in the person of Miss Theresa Bell-Harper of Pasadena, the daughter of Mrs. Lena Harper of Sacramento who is the daughter of that militant trail blazer and one of California's foremost citizens, B. A. Johnson.

N. A. A. C. P. Notes

The Association wishes to thank supporters of the Gray-Murdock Recital. Below a criticism that was quite general:

The Violin and Piano Recital of Mrs. Murdock and Mr. John Gray at Second Baptist Church lat Tuesday night was one of many fine Recitals it has been my good fortune and pleasure to attend.

Mrs. Murdock and Mr. Gray are splendid artists and the support given them on this occasion most certainly did attest the fine appreciation Los Angeles has developed for music of the highest class. I shall look forward with happy anticipation toward hearing them next year, and truly hope that they have set a precedent for all aspiring young musicians among us in the West.

Thanks to the N. A. A. C. P. and Mrs. A. C Richardson.

Yours sincerely,
MAUD ROSEMAN WATSON,
Piano and Voice Teacher.

Lowe-Payne Nuptials

(Delayed—Published By Request)

The Independent Church of Christ was the scene of a most picturesque and beautiful wedding, when Mayme Wiley Lowe, talented and winsome daughter of Mrs. J. B. Lowe, plighted her troth to K. Carson Payne Jr., a son of Mrs. Lorena Perkens.

A most gorgeous fall setting was chosen for Miss Lowe, by Ralphs Porter. Every detail and appointment being made to blend in one grand picture. Real Florida beach leaves of various fall hues ranging from golden brown to purple were artistically arranged as a mammoth background, the entire platform, a terraced arrangement of green grass and ferncry was approached from the center aisle by broad stairs. A simple altar draped in white satin and laces with golden candelabra from which willowly tapers of yellow gave forth a soft glow with masses of white mallne in cloud effect surmounting all.

The chancel, a study in delicate greenery, was further beautified by scores of giant yellow chrysanthemums being attractively arranged the entire length of the rostrum. Graceful fronds of golden rod being also effectively used, its feathery delicacy lending beautifully as a hedging.

Prior to the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. Bessie Dones, who as an artist is without a peer, appeared in the background, under the glow of giant floodlights, the entire church having been darkened to represent Dawn. With that grace and ease, she beautifully rendered "At Dawning." Miss Hasel Gottschalk presiding wonderfully at the organ. Mendelssohn's March pealed forth and the bridesmaids, Miss Henrietta Montgomery Fern Caldwell, Ruth Johnson and Eliza Robinson, appeared in the chancel, under rays of strong spotlights.

These wore chic French frocks, yellow crepe de chine in basque effect, trimmings of vari-colored flowers, adorned the skirts which were finished in deep transparent hems of black tulle. Parisienne model picture hats in black pan velvet with a single golden butterfly and streamers, the only ornament. Opera pumps of black satin and sheer chiffon hose completed their attire. They carried huge Japanese art fans of heliotrope ostrich with yellow premier roses, orchid sweet peas and cyclomen blossoms attached with numerous streamers of orchid ribbon falling in shower effect.

Entering the church they marched the side aisles and were met in the rear by the groomsmen, Bill Steard, Bennie Arbon, Clarence Stevens and Payne Middleton, respectively, all approaching the altar by the middle aisle and walking alternately and alone.

Mrs. Walter Webster (nee Ruth Sykes) served Miss Lowe as matron of honor, her gown, an elaborate combination of peach georgette, heavily beaded in rhinestones with a beautiful shoulder drape of green tulle was held in place by a beautiful rose of contrasting shade; she wore an imported black picture hat, with touches of peach green and gold, silver slippers and accessories completing her novel attire; she carried an arm bouquet of premier roses and fern.

Miss Adele Kemp as maid of honor in a most striking gown of orchid chiffon velvet, richly betrimmed in rhinestones, with hat of silver lace and slippers of orchid and silver combination, also carried premier roses, as an arm bouquet.

The auditroium was then flooded with light, for 'twas "morn" and the bride preceded by Mellonne Temple and La Verne Lattamore in darling frocks of daintily beruffled orchid and peach crepe de chine strewed petals in the park of the bride. She in all her regal sweetness could not have appeared prettier. Her gown, an exquisite creation imported Crepe Roma was daintily embroidered in Motifs of silk Chemille. Imported Spanish lace was effectively used and she wore only a pearl broach, a family heirloom. The beautiful embroidered veil was worn in Coronet fashion, held in place a simple, but pretty arrangement of Orange Blossoms. Slippers of satin and accessories to match completed her trousseau.

Approaching the altar unattended, she made a beautiful picture as she carried a beautiful white kid bible in shower effect of Orange Blossoms and Orchids. She ascended the stairs on the arm of the Groom, attended by Bennie Morris as best man.

The beautiful marriage lines were laid by Rev. N. P. Gregg, pastor of Independent Church and Elder P. S. Rogers of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, of which the bride is a prominent member. Immediately afterwards the party was ushered to Christians Tavern, where a beautiful reception was held, to a large concourse of well wishing friends, Mr. and Mrs. Payne leaving shortly after for a short honeymoon to be at home to friends 1857 East 55th street temporarily. She wore a strikely tailored midnight blue tailored suit of French Charme, with hat and accessories to match.

The peppular couple were the recipients of many a valuable and useful presents, ebing well remembered by their many white friends as well as colored friends and people in all walks of life being noted in attendance at the wedding.

RHO PSI PHI MEDICAL SORORITY

The New Medical Sorority Home

In 1922 there were thirty-five young women attending the Medical School of Howard University, that year Dr. Mary Jane Watkins, who is now practicing in Pittsburgh, Pa., thought of the idea of a medical sorority, so with the support of the other young women, the first colored medical sorority was set up. Twenty wives of the men at Freedman's Hospital and at the Medical School headd by Mrs. W. A. Warfild, wife of Dr. W. A. Warfield, surgeon-in-chief at Freedman's ospital acted as patrons or associate members to the sorority. On the recommendation of Dr. Edward Ballock, dean of the medical school, the sorority was granted a charter and was made national. Rho Psi Phi Sorority has a total membership of 125 medical women who have either graduated from an accredited medical school or have successfully passed a State Board.

On May 26, 1924 the Beta Chapter was set up by Emily Brown Childress, Ph. G., with ten members. The associate body consisting of wives of some of the medical men together with a few representative citizens' wives was headed by Mrs. J. T. Whittaker. Since May 1924 the thought of a sorority house has been foremost in the minds of the members. There were three benefit dances given for this purpose, the largest of the three was the dance given at Shrine's Auditorium at which $1225.00 was cleared. As the result of this dance Rho Psi Phi paid down on a house and opened the doors of their sorority house to the public to view Monday, October 25th, with Mrs. R. Henry as matron. Several useful gifts were received from individuals, sororities, clubs and fraternities of which the sorority is thankful for.

It is situated at 1259 West 36th Place, EMpire 4864, five blocks from the University of Southern California and two blocks from Vermont Ave., which car line goes directly to the University of California, Southern Branch.

Striving to be a big sister to all university women. Betta Chapter has offered their rooms in the sorority house for $12.00 a month which includes the privilege of cooking, washing and ironing; telephone, piano and sewing machine service. Young women wishing to board with the matron can do so by making special arrangements. The sorority thanks the more than 250 guests who attended the Open house on House Warming day for the many favors they presented and the many expressions of good-will and hopes of future achievement.

COMMENTS

W. J. WHEATON

Before this is read the battle of the ballots will have been fought and victory and defeat will have been emblazoned on the banners o fthe many aspirants for public favor. Prophesy fortells the success of the national ticket sponsored by the administration. In Californit it is a foregone conclusion that the nominees of the Republican pparty will receive an overwhelming endorsement from the voters.

The result of the national tickets in the republican strongholds of Pennsylvania and Illinois, at this writing seems doomed to defeat. The "Slush Fund" scandal will make it very hard sledding for Vare of the Keystone State and Smith of the Sucker State. They have been side-tracked by the National Committee.

President Coolidge has designated Vance H. Marchbanks, Jr., as a candidate at large from the United States to take entrance examination to the United States Military Academy, West Point. Vance H. Marchbanks, Sr., is Warrant Officer of the 10th U. S. Cavalry and is stationed at Tucson, Arizona. We will wait with patience and see what excuse they will have for turning down young Marchbanks. It will be a great surprise to the majority of the Race if, even though he passes a perfect mental and physical test, some means were not found to prevent his entrance.

It is alleged that the Navy Football team has threatened to cancel the game with Colgate unless the colored player, Ray Vaughn, is kept on the bench. That savors of the attitude which the Navy has assumed toward the Colored people during the past decade. It is a rare thing to see a Colored sailor other than in the mess. The day has long passed when they manned the guns and did a seaman's duty. Occasionally one will be found stoking the boilers or water tender. Yes, Preudice, we refer to racial prejudice, has drawn the imaginary line of demarkation and the colored seaman is enlisted for culinary purposes only.

The country has forgot the gallantry of the men who fought with Perry on Lake Erie or the indomitable courage of Farragut's black sailors. The Navy of today is composed mostly of snobs who stay the limit of enlistment in order to receive the retirement pay which enables them to become barnacles on the craft of progress. We hope that Colgate will give the proper reply to the band of gentlemen, who are being educated at the expense of the people and that a protest to the Secretary of the Navy, Wilbur, will receive recognition.

Reading the comments of the South Carolina press on the lynching of the two Negro men and one Negro woman, it would seem that the perpetrators of that damnable crime would soon be brought to the Bar of Justice. But, so far, we are compelled to believe that the blatant utterance of the Press and the demonstration of the Governor is but a camouflage to cover the dastardliness of the act. Until we see the leaders of that mob sentenced and hear the prison doors clang behind them—It is asking too much (?) that they have their necks stretched—we will be pessimistic as to their punishment.

Recently, in the city of Brotherly Love, members of the A. M. E. Church formed in a procession and held service at the tomb of Richard Allen, first Bishop of the denomination. Notwithstanding the criticism of a Metropolitan Journal "that the A. M. E. connection in rusting," it is a splendid sign when we see them reverring the builders of the past and catching an inspiration for the buildings of the future. Let us hope that they will not dwell too long in reviewing the greatness of the past or they may, indeed, truly rust.

Ye advocates of segregated schools read this and if your "think tanks" are not corroded or the water on the brain turned it to concrete, you will see the fallacy of your arguments and the sinful injustice which you are seeking to bring on the youth of the Race because of your baleful ignorance. This in New Orleans, where no doubt, many of the proponents of segregated schools come from. "A new school for colored has been opened in the 17th Ward (New Orleans). The school is temporarily located in the basement of St. Paul A. M. E. Church with an enrollment of 244 pupils and four teachers. This will fill a long felt need in this ward as the nearest school for colored now there, is miles distant.

"AMERICAN WOODMEN EMPLOY NEW DEPUTY"

The field force working out of the Los Angeles office of the American Woodmen has been increased to four salaried Deputies by the addition in October of Charles L. Daniels who will serve as Deputy-Clerk of the recently organized camp No. 5.

The appointment of Mr. Daniels is the result of his efficient work as solicitor during the Silver Jubilee Membership Campaign. He won first place among the Captains and general contestants for having secured the largest number of new members during the drive and a round trip ticket to the Woodmen convention held at Denison, Texas, in June. He was then recommended to the Supreme Commander for appointment by Ben H. Graham, California State Supervisor, and received his commission Oct. 15. Mr. Daniels resides with his family at 1359 E. 45th Street and has been a resident of Los Angeles several years. He is a member of the Junior Deacon board of the Second Baptist Church and is held in high esteem by his fellowmen.

At The Big Tent

"A Peep into Heaven"—will be the title of the Sunday night sermon by Evangelist P. G. Rodgers, Nov. 7 at 7:45 p. m., at the Big Tent, 20th and Central Avenue, Los Angeles.

Evangelist Rodgers has made the present work of Christ an important part of the Big Tent discourses and at this service the intercession of the sinner's Friend as He pleads for the lost human race, will be vividly dwelt upon. The speaker will carry his audience directly into hte great court room of heaven—b yfaith of course—and show through the great eternal telescope, the Bible—just what the Son of God is labering so intensely for as He pleads with His Father.

To all who are anxious to be helped both spiritually and intellectually this service is especially recmmended. The Big Tent is well heated with new gas heaters so that all are comfortable in this out of doors church. All are made to feel at home and invited to be present during each week night service, Mondy and Saturday nights excepted at 7:45 p. m.

The Pleasure Seekers held their regular meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Allien Smith, 305 East 40th street. A short business session as held after which whist was played. The prizes were won by Mrs. Rhemm, first; Mrs. Allen, second; Mrs. Strider, booby.

A delicious luncheon was then served the Hallowe'en color scheme being carried out beautifully in both the table and house decorations. Guests for the day were the Mesdames Gertrude Dupart, Omega Clemens, Flora Allen and Miss Tilla Haggar.

EASTSIDE BETTER HEALTH CLUB

"Royal Road to Success"

One of the most unique and unusual affairs of the season, one that carried me back to the land of my dreams was the beautiful "Japanese Tea" and Social given Sunday by the Eastside Better Health Club at Christian Tavern, 1318 Vernon Ave.

Those who decorated left nothing to be desired in respect to comfort and beauty. It wafted one back to the thoughts of the South Seas with all her romance and charm.

One of te most attractive affairs of the season was a Hallowe'en Tea given by members of the T. M. Art Club, Sunday afternoon, October 31st at the residence of Mrs. Sam Clay, 1153 E. Jefferson St. Special decorations suggestice of the occasion were utilized throughout the reception rooms, conveying a spirit of merriment and jollity. The club members wore allowe'en costumes. Mrs. Sholders won the lucky "invitation" number and Mrs. Zanders the lucky "chance" number; each received a lovely hand embroidered piece. About 150 guests called during the afternoon.

Annual Exhibition Tea

OF THE

Modern Priscilla Club

The beautiful and spacious residence of Mrs. Geneva Wade, 1216 E. 35th Street was the scene of the Annual Exhibition Tea of the Modern Priscilla Club. The display of art work was indeed excellent and therefore proved to be very interesting as it varied from the simple to the most tedious. Beautiful hand embroidered towels, luncheon sets, pillows, dresses, bed spreads and shawls were to be seen, while pretty hand painted pictures, handkerchiefs, sketches, placques, a shawl and a chest of drawers worthy of mention were on display. A very pretty hand embroidered boudoir set to be raffled off at a later date made by the club members was also to be seen. The art work of Mesdames Mary Maxwell won the blue ribbon, and that of Geneva Perkins the white ribbon at the National State Federations of Colored Women's Clubs at Oakland this year. About 200 guests called during the afternoon between the hours of three and six. Receiving in the reception rooms among a profusion of flowers were the President, Mrs. Florence Moyer; Mesdames Geneva Wade, Irene Butler, Birdie Robertson, Estella Montague, Pearl Browning, and Carrie Irving. Assisting in the dining room where the club colors of pink and green were so effectively brought out were Mesdames Madeline Osborne, Flora Alexander, Carmen Williams, Carrie Parsons, Juanita Scott, Bessie McCaskill, Geneva Perkins, Australia McCarthy, Mary Maxwell, Viola Smith Bessie Westbrok and Viola Pollock. NAMES OF AIKEN, S. C. LYNCHERS DISCLOSED night. Within the same house the Ku Klux Klan held a meeting in the office of a prominent white attorney of Aiken who had been recently elected to the State Legislature. At this meeting plans were perfected for the lynching and also plans were discussed, but abandoned, to tar and feather Mr. Frederick and to castrate Mr. Southard, the white attorney. A prominent and respectable white lawyer of Spartanburg warned Judge Lanham and Solicitor Bert Carter that a lynching was in the air. Despite this the Lowmans were committed to jail with only one guard whereas plans had been made to remove the defendants hastily should they be convicted.

"Shortly after midnight a police officer of Aiken forced automobilists to remove cars from around the jail so that the lynchers would have a place to park their cars. According to reliable informants Sheriff Robinson, Deputy Sheriffs McElhaney and A. D. Sheppard, and Traffic Policeman Salley dragged Bertha Lowman from her cell, got the other two defendants and handed them over to the mob. After the mob had secured the prisoners two shots were fired inside the jail and not, as Sheriff Robinson claimed, when he was trying 'to prevent entry' of the mob into the jail.

"The mob numbering between 30 and 40 started out York street on the Dixie highway to a tourist camp about two miles from Aiken. On the way Clarence Lowman jumped from the car in which he was held. He was shot down and recaptured. In order to prevent telltale blood marks, a rope was tied to the back of the car and the other end of it around Clarence's body. In this manner he was dragged about a mile to the place of execution. The members of the mob stated that Bertha was the largest one to kill. She was shot but not killed instantly. She dragged herself over the ground and, as one member of the mob put it, 'bleated like a goat.' Another member of the mob, slightly more decent, said that she begged so piteously for her life and squirmed about so that a number of shots had to be fired before one found a vital spot and ended her agony.

FACTS GIVEN TO SOUTH CAROLINA'S GOVERNOR

"I have furnished Thomas G. McLeod, Governor of South Carolina, in a six-page letter, every detail regarding the lynching. I have given him the name of the member of the mob who was accorded 'the honor' of being executioner but whose nerve failed him. I have furnished him with the names of the three men who did act as executioners and of their two assistants. I have furnished him with the names and addresses and occupations of twenty-two members of the mob telling the Governor in detail of the part played by each one of them at the lynching. I have furnished him with the names of eleven other persons who were very close to the lynching as spectators but who did not actively participate in it.

"This list includes besides the Sheriff and his deputies other so-called law-enforcement officers, prominent business men and three men related to the Governor and the name of at least one member of the Grand Jury investigating the lynching. I also furnished the Governor with the names of four white men and one colored man incarcerated in the Aiken jail on the night of the lynching, and who saw the Sheriff and his deputies drag Bertha Lowman from her cell and turn her over to the mob. I have also stated to the Governor that I can furnsh him with the names and addresses of most influential and respectable white citizens of the community who will testify to the correctness of the facts set forth, if the Governor will guarantee them protection from the vengeance of the Klan and the lynchers.

ATTEMPT TO STAGE RACE RIOT

"Following the lynching an attempt was made to stage a race riot to cover the guilt of the murderess. Agents of the Klan went around Aiken saying the Negroes were armed and were going to 'rise in the night and kill all the white people.' The same tactics were used as in the famous Phillips County, Arkansas, riots of 1919, which the N. A. A. C. P. exposed. Fortunately this dastardly attempt did not succeed.

"I learned that the inevitable aftermath of Klan activities is now being seen in South Carolina. The element of membership which acted as a restraining influence in the Klan and which entered the movement believing it to be a law-enforcement body as it claimed, has largely resigned. The local Klans are now in the hands of murderers, bootleggers, operators of stills and other criminals. As I have said the law-abiding element of whites are living in a state of constant terror and indeed are more afraid of the Klan and of the lower order of whites than are Negroes.

WHITE MEN ARMED FOR DEFENSE AGAINST KLAN

"In the home of one white man, formerly a high officer in the Klan, and who resigned when he found out the nature of the movement, he showed me an automatic pistol which he carried in his trousers pocket and a .38 calibre revolver in a holster. He told me that if he went only across the road in front of his house after nightfall, a distance of some 75 feet, he strapped on his person, in addition, a cartridge belt and two .45 calibre army revolvers.

"This man showed me a collection of 30 guns including rifles, shotguns and revolvers which he had in his home for self-protection. For four years the members of the Klan from which he has resigned have been attempting to kill him. The late Sheriff Howard, the present Sheriff Robinson and the present Deputy Sheriffs were all expelled from the Klan some years ago for 'conduct unbecoming a Klansman.' But they were later readmitted. On the anniversary of Sheriff Howard's death, the Klan held a celebration at his grave in the Graniteville Cemetery at which, according to the Columbia State, more than 1,500 persons, many of them clad in Klan robes, were furnished with free lunches and lemonade and listened to eulogies of the late Sheriff. This celebration took place while the State Supreme Court was deliberating on the appeal for a new trial for the Lowmans.

"This makes the forty-first lynching I have investigated, besides eight race riots. In none of them have I seen the depravity, barbarity, and terrorism which exists in and near Aiken. One of the white men with whom I talked and who gave me much valuable information, put his hand on my shoulder as I was leaving and said: 'Mr. White, work into your story the fact that you were sent by God. For seven weeks a group of white people has met here in my house every night and prayed that some man from out of the State be sent to open up this mass of corruption and to publish to the world the terrible state of affairs prevailing here. You are the answer to that prayer.'"

EDITORIAL

LOS ANGELES SAVES DAY

Hon. F. M. Roberts is reelected with the usual majority, and he is Los Angeles' contribution as the sole representative in a State Assembly of our group west of the Mississippi.

NOW FOR BUSINESS

All of the lame ducks can now come up shouting, "I told yon so", when as a matter of fact they could impart to you nothing that you wouldn't know yourself.

MADE HISTORY JUST THE SAME

Titus Alexander failed to overcome the tremendous odds against him in the 72nd Assembly district race, but he made a good fight. One of which he need never to be ashamed and remained true to a principle of going to the forefront at all times in the interest of the great common people.

Truly in this instance and with the showing he made he has made history worth while just the same.

THE UNUSUAL MAN OF HISTORY

Hugh H. Gordon in his stereopticon lecture which depicts the plight of the black man from the very begnning of time to now, has indeed, by much labor and sacrifice, brought to the forefront a story worth while. If you have not seen and heard him on this subject, do so; it will be well worth your while and when you have performed this duty of gathering all possible information about yourself. You will indeed think more of yourself.

TRIUMPH OF JUSTICE

The election of Bill Traeger for sheriff means more to this community than the mere fact that the man we favor was elected. It means that in his election a great principle was triumphant.

In the campaign the die was cast, there could be no mistake as to the issue in Los Angeles county. It was the Ku Klux Klan arrayed against the red blooded citizens who stand for justice. The Klan was put to flight and justice in the sheriff's office reigns supreme.

BROADSIDE WAS A DUD

All the hog wash dished up by the newspaper from the smoky city falls on deaf ears by the people in this country from the mere fact that the people can see for themselves the mighty accomplishments of the N. A. A. C. P. It stands out in its full power as a mighty gladiator at all times insisting upon the full citizenship rights for all people. Nobody regrets who was paid a salary in the consummation of the work at hand and therefore the broadside fired by this newspaper up Allegany way fell as a dud and the N. A. A. C. P. goes marching on its way to do its utmost for even the writers of the paper to be free.

PASTOR MOORE MAKES ENVIABLE RECORD DURING FIRST YEAR'S PASTORATE OF THE A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

Bishop Martin, in sending Rev. I. Albert Moore to pastor the A. M. E. Zion Church, located at Pico and Paloma Streets, this city, by the practical demonstration of deeds performed by Rev. Moore, proved that his heart was set on providing for the Los Angeles Charge, a man second to no other. We want to say to the Bishop that Rev. I. Albert Moore has lived up to every hope and expectation. By his high Christian life, his tireless work, and his program of real progress, Zion Church has risen to the heights and is on its way as never before as one of the great Christian units of the mighty west.

Rev. Moore

Coming here October 11, 1925, Rev. Moore got right into the hearts of the people, which gave to him a starting point and then he placed no limit to which Zion might aspire. Not at all was this pastor afraid of the painter's brush or of printers' ink for with these implements of warfare he commenced to put Zion Church on the map. He had canvass signs painted and placed at strategic points throut the city. He placed an electric lighted sign on the dome of the church. Installed hot and cold water in the basement of the church, painted the apartment joining to, and which is also the property of the church, he established class leaders' school, placed more than two dozen disciplines into the hands of church officers, purchased 100 church hymnals, placed book racks on seats, installed class leaders' visiting cards, instituted modern Sun-School, added 75 members, baptized seven children with five conversions, got out blotters advertising the church, furnished guest chamber at parsonage, placed glass enclosed Bulletin Boards in front of the church, had Church glass doors and windows reset, painted and furnished upstairs rooms of the church, made annual payment on church debt, and paid 15 months' interest. We submit as a showing worth while and one which Rev. Moore might well be proud of.

Ably assisted is Rev. Moore by his very amiable and energetic helpmate, who is loved by all who know her for her sunny disposition and the wonderful service she has been to the women in their onward march.

Very truly all were proud of the recognition given to Rev. Moore and his good wife and were much pleased at their return to continue his wonderful program of progress.

Stanford Upsets Dope

BRICE TAYLOR COULD HAVE SAVED THE DAY

The U. of C. Trogans, undefeated this season went down to defeat last Saturday before 76,000 fans at the great Coliseum in a battle with Stanford University. And the odds had stood 10 to 7 against Stanford and the Trojans counted a sure winner. But Pop Warner did not pit his strategy and re-built machine in vain against Howard Jones' Victorious Trojans, so beat them in a close 13 to 12 epochal gridiron grapple.

BRICE TAYLOR

Brice Taylor, the great Colored star kicked off each time and his mighty booting is no doubt partly responsible for the advances the Trojans made, but in the last few minutes of the play, at the critical time when two points would have won for U. S. C. that is the time Coach Jones should have had Taylor kick instead of trying to drive the ball through the grim determined Stanford line.

Along Fisticuffs Row

Sam Langford is coming West the first of the year bringing a string of good boxers. Sam ought to be a good conditioner or adviser of boxers but as a manager he never seemed to be able to manage his own affairs to get the money he should have made.

* * * *

A hot shot once in a while helps. The article published in that excellent sport sheet the "Referee brought Young Zorilla and Pico Ramies together for a hair-raising fight in which Zorilla won.

* * * *

When Vic Alexander was in the ring Monday night at Colton he wasn't only fighting Mac House but he was up against the experience and wisdom of one of the best colored managers and trainers ever in the game. He trained Jack Johnson for the Jeffries fight and it is to his credit that Young Jack Thompson keeps in his wonderful condition and fights the way he does. For while Jack's able manager handles the business and this man Watson Burns does the ear-whispering that corrects a fighter's faults and makes him great.

Hallowe'en Night At Bronx Palm Garden

We don't know where you went on Halloween night but we know your night was not complete unless you looked into the Bronx Palm Garden which was transformed from 9 P. M. until (?) a. m. into a frolicsome mystery garden. Goblins and elves walked out on you suddenly from the dim nooks, witches, clowns and piergettes, matadors and ministers, dons and duennas, gargoyle heads with enormous noses and pretty pink masks from behind which mischievous eyes flashed. Indians, Chinamen even a seductive Hawaiian girl in the person of Miss Bertha Mogers all were there and made merry. No sooner would the music start than all would flock from the crowded tables to the dance floor to sway to the strains of the Creole Orchestra. In the revue dainty Emily Wharton led the peppiest best costumed fastest stepping chorus ever seen on a local revue.

Bo Diddle sang and picturized the touching song "My Old Man" and Miss Leslie Walton sang sweetly "I brought you roses," while Geo. Davis drew big hands with his clever tap dancing. All in all the Palm Garden broke the Halloween record.

Stopping in the hotel this week are the railroad men Messrs. C. Barnes, H. Reid, L. Reynodls, F. Woods, J. Connor, R. Sanders, H. Jones, J. Bostwick, D. Strange, and all of Chicago and maids, Mrs. McCarrol and Mrs. Johnson who went out over the S. P. and Santa Fe respectively. A beautiful and dainty little lady by the very characteristic name of Miss Mildred Love has opened a manicuring parlor in the lobby, and keeps very busy. Thursday night, theatrical night, saw Rube Wolf, "Bill Robinson" and other big stars as guests.

AT LAST WE HAVE 'EM

After much talk ppro and con, a postponement, a substitution, lots of discussion, "etc." Mr. Thomas O'Brien and. Mr. Gerald Slaughter, better known by the appropriate name of "Baby" Gans will climb through the Olympic Arena ropes on Tuesday night Nov. 9 for a little ten period debate, with one minute recesses. At the end of that interestingdiscussion one or the other of them will be traveling feet foremost to his dressing room, and won't "know what its all about" for if ever there was a scrap a safe gamble to end in a knock-out this will be one. Grudge fight?—Say, all the so—called grudge fights ever held will have nothing on this one for these boys see in each other the only rival, and stumbling block to future laurels; and have both expressed themselves so forcefully to their various followers that there will be venom in every punch. It will be hard to say which will win, but Gans should do the trick with his supeior skill and zoxing ability.

Australian Paper Praises Eagle Thomas

It is not the policy of the Eagle Sport Editor to use the trusty scissors but the following is clipped from an Australian newspaper published a few years ago.

KNOCK-OUT VICTORIES

Thomas has come to Australia with the highest credentials. According to the American record books Thomas won the amateur bantam championship of New ork on two occasions—only exceptionally good boxers have held that title—and since joining the professionals he has won over 100 contests. Most of the boxers Thomas has defeated are un known in Australia, but included among them were several considered to be in the running for the American bantam (professional) championship. Thomas is a boxer of the sensational type. He punches with great force; always carries the fight to his opponent and is remarkably tough, even for a negro. Thomas is expected to start a series of knock-out victories with Congrain.

Zorilla Beats Ramies

Before a big crowd at the Wilmington bowl Wednesday night, Santiago Zorrilla won a close decision over Pico Ramies. Jimmy Hackley, won over Joe Zapsy in the semi-windup. In the special event Roy Bailey lost to Red Ingram.

Joe Reinhart, knocked out Joe Pinks in the second round and the curtain-raiser saw Art Alvarez winner over Dicky Moore.

FANS KICK ON CALLAHAN-TIPLITZ BOUT

Young Langford's Best

A year ago Young Sam Langford was the talk of the town. He had rounded out from the old Madison Square Garden Club and the Assembly and climbed into the front ranks of the local boys. Then he slumped He seemed to go back, and with a few losses seemed to be almost forgotten.

But he has made good now. At Vernon in the semi-windup to the Mushy Callahan-Tiplitz fight he beat Nick Antonio decisively never giving him a chance to get that dangerous right going. So Young Langford is back again in the good graces of the public and with good care of himself ought to step right along from now on.

Contrary to this the main bout was a disappointment and many were the kicks registered around town at the easy way in which Callahan disposed of another set-up, in two rounds of a one-sided punching exhibition.

Uppercuts and Blocks

Don't forget the bridge that brought you over safe is an old adage.

* * * *

The above also means that some of our Colored boys should not forget that they got their first chance at a Colored Club boosted by the Eagle, the old "Assembly Club."

* * * *

Also it was the Soaring Eagle that fought in Sacamento for mixed bouts when Strelinger tried to have them tabooed.

* * * *

Praise your own paper some and patronize its Sport pages. The white people think more of you when you don't talk against your own race.

ATLANTA UNIV. DOWNS FISK 18-0

Young Jack Thompson

Dick Donald who made a successful feeler in his first Wrigley Field show week before last staging Bert Colema and Everett Strong sent out a hurry call for Tom Sieloki Wednesday last to figure on some star good enough to meet the rappiper-like stabs of the great little Jack Thompson. If successful Thompson will head the next big show which is sure to be crowd packer as all the fans love to see him neatly put his man away. Every body is still clamoring for a Gans-Thompson bout; when it finally comes it will be a hair raiser but not yet gentlemen, not yet!

It was reported today that by the time the new "Y" gym is ready that the Girl Reserves will have a good strong basket ball team lined up and in shape for the season.

MANAGEMENT AT MAJESTIC THEATRE USE 'JIM-CROW' METHODS AT "STRUTTIN' SAM" SHOW

Interviewed as to the reasons for cooping up the Colored patrons in a part of the house like occupants of a pest house, one of the management attempted to vindicate imself by saying that he considered it perfectly all right as the white patrons would rather that arrangement and besides the colored people would not or could not pay the higher prices. He was told in refutation that not only is there no ill-feeling caused at Theatres like Grauman's Egyptian by colored occupying main floor seats but that for Grand Opera at the Philharmonic Auditorium they are welcomed and pay the high prices for seats, one of which would buy several at the Majestic.

The show is good, the performers the best anywhere, but it is a insulting of self-pride to pay your good money and submit to unnecessary segregation, just for the sake of seeing your own color perform.

Tuskegee Defeats Moorehouse College

Tuskegee Institute, Ala., Nov. 2.—With the Alumni Bowl filled with graduate students and ardent supporters, anxious to see the Tuskegee Tigers in action and bid them farewell and success on their invasion of the lair of the Lincoln Lions, the Tuskegee eleven defeated the Moorehouse Tigers 13-6, here Saturday.

Coach Clyde Swendson of the Hollywood club arranged for a number of comedy races, featuring a pie race, a water hurdle race and many other funny features. The Hollywood Athletic club diving team, recognized as one of the greatest in the country, were down for a series of exhibitions.

Greb Loses Last Fight

Grief follows sensational championship loss to "Flowers" by loss in bout with "Death."

The fight fans the world over saw the end of a great and colorful fighter's career.

Harry Greb, former middle weight champion of the world and one of th greatest boxers the ring ever produced, died at a sanitarium in Atlantic City Friday. Greb was a marvel of the ring and made a fortune and his ppassing has cast a shadow of gloom on the boxing fraternity of the entire world.

AMATEURS GOING GREAT

Sunday before last, before a large crowd, the Merry Makers Club, coached by Lieut. Jesse Kimbrough, held the favorites, the fast N. N. B. Club to a scoreless tie. Big "Red" Touns of the N. N. B. Club, their star back field man was repeatedly stopped, Tommy Coombs occasionally proving his Waterloo. Little "Red" Bryant playing quarter for the Merry Makers was a sensation until they hauled him away on the stretchers. These teams are well matched and with a little more coaching, rematched should be a wow!

The La Premiers and the Wilshire Olympics tangle Sunday. The La Premieres should cop this, and with Big John Riddles doped to pipay it should be a cinch.

Liberian Steamship Co. To Purchase New Vessel

Negotiations have been put under way by Mr. Otero, President of the new directorate of the Liberian Steamship and Exmelsior Mining Co. to purchase a new vessel rather than use the Calepia which may not be capable in handling the large volume of business already contracted for by the company. A new board has been organized, the old with Rev. Lewis at its head having resigned and purchases in stock are rapidly increasing. One of the several ships being considered will be purchased within the next few days and with approximately $40,000 to $50,000 in cargo and passengers the ship will make its maiden trip about Nov. 28, touching South American ports connecting with Cape Town, South Africa, to Liberia back by way of New York and return.

The Betsy Ross Club met at the residence of Mrs. Maud Davis the afternoon was well spent playing whist. Mrs. Tyler won first prize, with Mrs. Whitaker carried the booby.

CAN RUBBER BE SUBSTITUTED?

Not Possible In U. S. A.

"There is still some talk about the possibility of rubber culture within the borders of the United States and some false hopes may be raised thereby," says W. O'Neil. "As we stated two years ago, it is a climatic and botanical fact that para rubber trees, yielding the highest grade rubber known—the kind grown on the plantations of the Middle East—do not thrive anywhere in the world except within a belt extending ten degrees north and ten degrees south of the equator.

"No Para rubber, therefore, can ever be raised in the United States except in greenhouses, if this remains a truth. Para rubber, so necessary in the manufacture of tires, it seems, must come from tropical countries. Only to the extent that our flag may wave over countries outside our boundaries, can our Para rubber ever be an American product.

"Some relief from the Malay crude rubber monopoly may come indirectly to the tire manufacturer from actual American sources, however. As stated, when the rubber flurry began, a shrub called guayule, yielding rubber of a low grade, is a native of the plains of North Mexico, South and West Texas and Arizona. Guayule rubber is not suitable for use in good tires, which require the best Para or hevea. However, guayule (pronounced wa-yoo-la) can readily be used, with excellent results in the manufacture of mechanical rubber goods, which do not have to bend and bear the strains common to tires. Guayule is well adapted to the manufacture of boots and shoes.

"That it is already a well-known and much-used rubber is shown by the fact that as early as 1909 over 40,000

Lynching Again on the Increase

Federal Curb Sought, as They Occur in Most States—"Usual Crime" Not the Usual Cause of Mob Violence—The Figures

(From The New York Times, Sunday, Oct. 17, 1926)

The Negroes, one a woman, were taken from jail at Aiken, S. C., on Oct. 9th and lynched. The same night a Negro was taken from jail at Dover, Tenn., and lynched. Since the last of January there have been twenty-four lynchings—six more within the first ten months of 1926 than occurred in the full twelve months of 1925.

In the last thirty-eight years, according to data gathered by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, there have been 3,583 lynchings in the United States, an average of nearly 100 a year. The percentage of those who were charged, truly or not, with "the usual crime," is less than 30 per cent. Since 1889 a total of ninety women have been lynched. Lynchings occurred in all states of the Union except seven.

By far the greater number of victims of the black race. From the statistics it appears that of the persons lynched between 1889 and 1918, 2,522 were Negroes and 702 were white—the percentage being 78.2 to 21.8. The largest number of lynchings, 2,834, were committed in the South. In the North there were 219, the West 156 and in Alaska and unknown localities 48.

Law's Delay Not Involved

It is true that in the period 1921—4, there has been a sharp decline in the number of such crimes. In 1921, 64 persons were lynched; in 1922, 61; 1923, 28; 1924, 16; 1925, 18. But, as pointed out, the ten months of 1926 record a larger number of lynchings than the entire year of 1925.

One of the causes assigned for lynching is that the people were impatient of the law's delays. But the recent mob lawlessness at Aiken, S. C., and at Dover, Tenn., does not substantiate this assertion. For in both cases the law with due diligence had been put into operation. The mobs in defiance of the courts murdered the prisoners. In the South Carolina case the court had dismissed the case against one of the three defendants.

An attorney of Aiken describes the crime that led to the lynching as following:

"Sheriff H. H. Howard of Aiken County, S. C., for whose killing the three Negroes were on trial, went in April, 1925, with three deputies, to the home of a colored man, Denman Lowman, early one morning. Sam Lowman, the father, had gone to a mill to get some meal ground. His wife, Annie, was making soup in a pot in the front of the house and Martha Lawman, his daughter, was grinding the yams.

Trial Process Interrupted

"The officers went to their duties and gave no heed or anything else to identify them as officers. The two women, seeing the four white men approaching, became excited and one of them screamed. The officers made a break for the house into which the two women had run, and in which were a number of children ranging in age from a few months to twelve years. The Lowmans had been living at Aiken county a little over a year, had never been in any trouble, and knew none of the officers by sight. They were frightened because two weeks before three masked white men had gone to the same house on a Sunday night, taken Denman Lowman out and whipped him.

"When the men working in the field heard the woman scream, they rushed to the house and in the altercation which followed, the mother, Mrs. Annie Lowman, was killed as well as the Sheriff. The three Negroes were arrested, tried, convicted of murder; the two men were sentenced to death and the woman to life imprisonment. On appeal, the evidence was found to be so faulty that the Judge, on motion made by council for the defence, dismissed the case against Denman Lowman. It seemed likely that a verdict of not guilty would be rendered for the other two defendants. This was when the mob stepped in and lynched all three."

Federal Law Desired

In this connection it is worth recalling that South Carolina has an anti-lynching law and a favorable record for lynching. But the conclusion to which the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has come, after years of appeal to state autohrities, is that the only effective machinery for stamping out lynching in the United States must be provided by an adequate Federal anti-lynching law.

Such a bill is now pending before the United States States Senate. The measure is intended to assist the states in affording to all persons within their jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws. The bill rests upon the clause of Section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment, which reads: "Nor shall any State * * * deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws." It provides for a fine of $10,000 upon a County in which a lynching takes place, recoverable by the family or dependents of the victim; it also provides for the prosecution in Federal courts of lynchers and delinquent and negligent officers of the law.

It was originally introduced in 1920, re-introduced on April 11, 1921, in the House of Representatives by Congressman L. C. Dyer, and passed by the House of Representatives on Jan. 26, 1922, by a vote of 230 to 119.

On Jan 27 the bill was referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Anti-Lynching Bill Re-introduced

On May 6, 1922, a memoial urging the prompt enactmet of the Dyer Anti-Lynching measure, signed by 24 State Governors, 39 Mayors of Cities, 47 Jurists and distinguished lawyers, 8 Archbishops, 85 Bishops and churchmen, including 29 college presidents and professors, 30 editors and 37 other citizens, was presented to the Senate by Senator Lodge. The American Bar Association, at its annual meeting held in San Francisco, unanimously adopted the following resolution:: "We find that further legislation should be enacted by the Congress to punish and prevent lynching and mob violence."

On Sept. 21 the bill was brought upon the floor of the Senate by Senator Shortridge, but met a decisive check when a group of Southern Senators announced that they would filibuster. In the preliminary wrangle that ensued the opportunity to bring it to a vote for consideration was lost. Thus Congress adjourned without any decisive action being taken. It has been re-introduced and is now pending before the Senate Judiciary Committee.

The main objection to the Dyer Anti-Lynching Bill was that it infringed on State rights. It is contended by those who object to such legislation that the Federal Government has no more warrant to step in to punish lynching in the States than it has to prevent or punish any other form of murder or any other crime—arson, for example. But James Weldon Johnson, Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, argued at a recent Senate hearing that lynching is not simply murder, that it is murder plus something else. The mob apprehends the victim, tries and condemns, and then executs him.

Moreover, he contended, even if we define lynching as murder we are still confronted with the fact that murder at the hands of a mob presents a question which the States have not been able to cope with. And that is why the National Association for the Advancement for Colored People is asking for the passage of the Dyer Anti-Lynching bill.

Argument for Federal Bill

Anti-lynching crusaders place the responsibility for the recent increase in the number of lynching upon the Dyer bill.

"It is now evident beyond argument," declared the Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, "that the States themselves either can or will not stamp out lynchings. When the Anti-Lynching Bill was pending in the Congress, lynching sharply declined, apparently because there was fear of Federal intervention. This evil which disgraces America before the civilized world apparently will never be ended until an aroused public sentiment definitely serves notice upon Congress that effective steps must be taken to stamp out this crime."

The main attempt to justify lynching has been based upon the contention that only by the summary method of mob murder could colored men be deterred from attacking white woman. But the figures of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people show that among the crimes thus punished, murder leads the list, and that the alleged or real causes include the most trivial offenses.

They point out that the strongest rebuttal to the statement that "the usual crime" that provokes lynching is that colored women have been lynched. From the figures it is apparent that other incidents than the so-called "usual crime" form a large majority of the causes back of the lynching of Negroes.

Dear Friend:

Your P. O. Order for $25.00 received, thanks very much. Word from the East, to the effect, that they are having great activity at this time. They expect to raise $10,000 in Columbus, Ohio, next week; and then make Columbus the starting point for to take Ohio in our 3 million dollar drive. The Tide seems to be turning at last. I do not anticipate that we will be more than 90 days late in our pay off, if we secure the $25,000 Loan as scheduled. This money will put the Company property in shape to show for our $3,000,000 drive.

The fire is growing in the East. A Mr. Walter J. Richardson of Pittsburg is here to help me. He was one of my main stand-byes in the dark days of the East. Two others are on their way. A Mr. Clogget of Duquesne, Penn., who assisted me and raised $10,000, the wife with him. Also a Mr. Thornton and wife are on the way driving. He will work in the mines. His wife will cook for us.

We expect to add a night shift in about two weeks and then drive hard. Warn the Co-Owners there to WAKE UP—Big things are happening; that this 40 for one passes this way but once, ONLY ONCE. Regards to all inquiring Co-Owners.

New York, Nov. 4.—Joseph Gralewski, who is in the employ of Walter Luzak, a butcher, is being held by the police following his arrest after a chase covering several blocks. It appears that he became involved in an argument with Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, a young colored woman, residing at 2701 Penn Avenue and drew a revolver and shot her. He immediately made his get-away but was captured.

On Wednesday, Oct. 19th, the usual club day, Mrs. Bill entertained us in a most unusual manner. Mrs. Holmes, the president, presided at the business meeting and then Mrs. Bill assumed her role as hostess and a lovely Chinese Party was held. The hostess wore a lovely Chinese costume of black satin. Tables and cushions wee placed on the floor in true Chinese style and chow mein, rice cakes and Chinese tea were accompanied by chop sticks. Various games were played for prizes; Mrs. Floyd, Mrs. Hope, winning firsts and Mrs. Wyndon, booby.

With the gay Chinese lanterns glowing and the room perfumed with incense the Pleasure Seekers and their guests, the Mesdames Pearl Patrick and Janet Hope, can truly say they found pleasure in abundance when they sought it with Mrs. Bill at her Chinese party.

Henry Louis Mencken, Titanic Book Master!

BY: LOUIS MICHEL

Real object for November journey, not search for rest, nor glories from Whites, but to gather information, mostly inspiration, from Blacks to write the crowning book of his life—the world emancipation of the Negro. Mencken is the greatest living writer of America and also the deepest literary giant America ever had and a much superior literary man than any President this country sent to the White House. His forth-coming book on the Negro will rock the world, change its map, and in a few years, perhaps only months after its appearance, bring complete deliverance and justice to the Black man. Reception Committee of 1000 and more Negroes is forming to heed the deep wish of Henry Louis Mencken: "Needless to say I'd be delighted to meet the intellectual Negroes of Los Angeles!"

The greatest living literary genius of the Caucasian race in America, the only literary epoch-marking mastermind of letters, books, poetry and unceasing polemics and subtlest and most original criticisms of mastermen and masterwritings of mastermen of this age, Henry Louis Mencken of Baltimore, will be a visitor and thousandfold guest in innumerable places and intellectual haunts in Los Angeles early in November, 1926.

Who he is and what he does and his noblest work that he is to do yet, Negroes shall know and are called upon to prepare and receive him as befits him and this finest opportunity to see the most distinguished White man since Lloyd Garrison was stoned and almost killed in the streets of liberty-loving Boston!

WHAT MENCKEN IS!

Henry Louis Mencken is a more distinguished sage than ever sat in the White House as the President of this nation. As the erudite and unparalleled Editor of the "American Mercury," he displays far more discerning intellect and finer literary abilities than all of the most scholarly Presidents we have ever had, than George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Alexander Hamilton, Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt, Howard Taft and the calamitous and unfortunate Woodrow Wilson—a fair man and true lady will class Mr. Henry Louis Mencken as a grander literary intellectual giant than any of the mentioned Presidents of the United States.

But the Mencken greatness is not only found in the almost uncanny and superlative stunning inborn diplomacy and deepest reasoning brilliancy in his articles and his books, but fully as decisive and rare in his sterling honesty and genuine sincerity that he always maintained in his splendid crusades for mankind's rights and the same square justice for the downtrodden ones.

Mencken was never bought by any corporation, nor any millionaire of our land; he always stood with the masses and never forsook the tortured Negro, for the White man's Ku Klux gold never had any charm for this admirable and most celebrated Titan of America's best penmen. At every movement directed against the Negro, Henry Louis Mencken fought bravely and defiantly for the Black brother's rights, and from this honorable literary pathway all the combined hellhounds of America's Lily-White discrimination leagues and clubs could not disibdge or silence the doughty and peerless Henry Louis Mencken. Born in Southernized Baltimore, soon, even as a very young man, Mr. Mencken discovered, and hurled his powerful shafts of earnest logic and Heinrich Heine-like wit and sarcasm against the White man's imaginary superiority complex. Always in the midst of literary combats and fiercest controversial duels, Henry Louis Mencken has never been defeated or outreasoned or out-written in any of his many thousands of pen battles.

As the author of these books—"In Defense of Women," "Democracy," "Prejudice," "Burlesques" and numerous other works, poems and plays, Mr. Mencken shows a much rarer and grander style than either George Bernard Shaw or H. G. Wells of England, and as a humorous writer he ranks far higher than the much lamented late Mark Twain. Of him it can be truly said that he is the most original writer America has ever produced and that as a classical stylist, whose language burns, stings, and sings at the same time, he is the modern philosophical founder of a new and higher school of American literature.

WHAT HENRY LOUIS MENCKEN DOES

Henry Louis Mencken toils and speaks for the soul of a better, a truer, a juster America—an America that we wish and hope for, but have not practically carried out yet. As the fiercest enemy of the Ku Klux Klan, the Volstead fanatics and the owlish Fundamentalists, no man in America has a greater home following and a stronger international all-world standing than Henry Louis Mencken. The most celebrated authors, best equipped lawyers, most scholarly thinkers are daily yearning to receive his indorsement and recognition, yet he is like a marble statue, if they seek favors that are not strictly of the true ideal-stripe and turns against them, fearless as a lion, if they seek to damage the public weal. Mencken has no literary teachers, nor real imitators, as he alone is in a strictly scientific niche by himself; in 500 years America cannot produce and has never produced another Mencken.

WHAT WILL MENCKEN DO IN LOS ANGELES?

Many are wondering what Henry Louis Mencken may want to seek in Los Angeles!—

Is he coming here for a long rest after his ceaseless poundings, his inexhaustible broadsides against the reactionary Bourbons, Capitalistic hypocrites, and the life-undermining foes of the Mencken-championed Negroes? Is the beauty of our scenery, are the richly drawn and poorly over-drawn opportunities of climate and riches the dazzling magnets that are bringing Henry Louis Mencken to our shores? Is he aiming to establish a coast edition of his famous magazine —The American Mercury? Is it because of the stern truth that Mencken feels that as an undefeated literary Nestor at the age of 45 years he needs California adulation now after he has criticized California more than ever any man or woman dared at any time and in any place?—

What is the greatest object of the Mencken visit to Los Angeles? Here is the plain fact: This greatest American writer aims to write his grandest and most immortal book on "The truth and the future of the Negro."

He is gathering most carefully with an all-seeing eye and unstained soul all the available material possible to write a book upon the Negro, as has never been written before, neither by White, Black or any other author, and this grandest master work of Henry Louis Mencken upon the maligned, persecuted and crucified Negro will rock the world and change the atlas and the governments of all humanity a few years after it leaves the press.

"Needless to say I'd be delighted to meet the intellectual Negroes of Los Angeles!" writes Henry Louis Mencken in his latest message to this writer and since he knows that here alone, at fairly measured leisure, is about the most promising opportunity to meet the most notable Negro men and Negro women of any and all sections of the world at large, the readers of this paper and also the New Age-Dispatch and the Pacific Defender are hereby asked to organize a powerful Committee of no less than 200 intellectual and powerful men and women of the race, later to be enlarged into a 4 figure column, to receive and welcome our modern and glorious Lloyd Garrison-like defender of the race—Henry Louis Mencken, so that from this intellectual and social intercourse with all the local leaders of the race, he may not merely gain lots of material, but most abundant inspiration to write his already begun monumental and world-trembling book upon the Negro, a historic transformation master product with as many readers as the Bible and more portentous results from its logic than the Magna Charta of England sustained.

As far as the writer knows Mencken and his matchless genius and resources, it can be promised to the readers of the Eagle that his forthcoming book upon the crushed Negro race will purify and stabilize America, rock and split up England, discolonize and straighten out France, muzzle Mussolini by unmuzzling Italy and paralyzing this latest dictator's colonial nightmares, drive Spain out of Africa and force Belgium into European space merely and away from the Congo to run the government of her own population alone. Henry Louis Menken's book for the Negro's freedom will do for the world's Ethiopians and much more what Harriett Beecher-Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" did for the chattel slaves of America.

Send all names and addresses for a befitting Reception Committee for Mr. Henry Louis Mencken's visit to Los Angeles to the Eagle Office, 847 Central Avenue, or to Mr. E. C. Jennings, 1144 E. Adams St. and any other addresses where the clans of the race gather.

SEEKS WAGE CONFERENCE

New York, October 18.—Invoking the aid of the Railway Meditation Board, the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters today began an intensive campaign to force recognition from the Pullman company, which has ignored the repeated requests of the Brotherhood for a wage conference.

In a letter addressed to the Railway Meditation Board, A. Philip Randolph, general organizer of the Brotherhood, today requested the services of the Board in securing a conference on wages and hours with the Pullman Company, declaring that more than 5000 porters, or the 51 per cent required by law, belong to the organization. Although railway legislation makes it the duty of employers to meet their employees in a representative union when requested to do so, the Pullman company has refused even to acknowledge the letters of the Brotherhood requesting a conference, according to Brotherhood officials.

The Railway Meditation Board, to which the Brotherhood has applied for aid, was created by the Watson-Parker bill of last session of congress and received the support, not only of the Transportation Brotherhoods, but of the Railway Executives Council, of which the Pullman company is a member. The bill provides that the two parties to a railway labor dispute shall meet each other before the Board if either applies for a conference. If the two parties fail to agree, adjustment, mediation, and arbitration boards may be set up to settle the dispute. One of the principle demands of the union is its recognition by the Pullman company as the authorized representative of the men, supplanting the Employee Representation Plan to the company. A conference before the Board will compel that recognition.

The Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters was organized a year ago and has enlisted more than half the porters of the Pullman cars in its ranks. Its membership is nation wide, including porters from every railway in the United States. The objects of the organization were outlined in a letter written to F. E. Carry, President of the Pullman company, on September 20, by Philip A. Randolph organizer, and made public by him today. They are; according to the letter, to "develop and employ initiative, intelligence, and responsibility to the end of creating helpful and constructive cooperation for the building up and maintenance of a high standard of service as well as merit the approval of yourself as the chief executive of our principal employers in the industry, the great public and those officials charged with the regulation of the transportation industry in State and Nation, as well as amicably, efficiently, and satisfactorily to adjust grievances that may arise from time to time between the Pullman company and the members of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters."

Roy Lancaster, secretary-treasurer of the union, which has its headquarters at 2311 Seventh Avenue, declared that the Pullman company has granted some of the demands of the men already, although it does not recognize the union.

—"Although the Pullman company refuses to acknowledge our existence, the union has already forced important concessions in the hope, no doubt, of averting strong organization," he said. "Shortly after the Brotherhood became active and its organizers had been discharged from company service because of their union activities, the company granted a wage increase of 8 per cent, an increase which the Employee Representation Plan had been trying to secure without success before the organization of the Brotherhood. This increase is directly traceable to the demands of the Brotherhood. Adjustments of pay for "doubling out" were also made.

"Only this week the company has granted another demand of the Brotherhood. One of the grievances of the porters has been the universal use of the name "George," which has been adopted and principally fostered by the Pullman company. The porter believes himself entitled to the individuality of his own name, just as the Pullman conductor is entitled to be known to his employer as John Smith rather than by some general 'handle'. The Pullman company has taken cognizance of this feeling on the part of the men, first expressed through the Brotherhood. It has announced that it will post the full name of every porter in his car. In a magnificent gesture, as if it had evolved an original idea, it declares "The company thinks that the public can be educated to calling George by his right name." As a matter of fact, the porter is perfectly willing to be called by his title, 'Porter' when the travelling public speaks to him. It is the us of the universal 'George' by company officials who know his name that is anathema to the porter.

The grievances which the opinion will seek a remedy for were outlined by Lancaster. The principle one is the ever-present question of wages.

"The rich Pullman company, which made a profit of 10 million dollars last year according to its own figures now pays its porters only $72.50 a month forcing them to depend upon the uncertain and unpredictable system of tipping," he said. "Even the rich runs seldom yield sufficient money in tips to make up a decent living wage for a man with family. The excessively long hours of work without sleep, and the vicious system of doubling out which may compel a porter coming off a run to go out again without a rest period calls for adjustment. Another injustice that needs righting is the "free work" which porters must contribute to the company. Under the present system, the porters are paid only for time spent when the train is in motion, although they must spend many additional hours preparing cars for their runs and in the termini."

ABOUT EMPLOYEES' REPRESENTATION PLAN

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The Pullman car porters are "justified legally, as well as morally," in refusing to help create a machinery of self degradation by voting in the Employee Representation Plan elections of the Pullman Company, which begins today, in the opinion of Donald R. Richberg, prominent labor attorney of Chicago, and counsel for the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters. Richberg's message was sent the porters in response to a request for legal advice from the men as to whether they could be compelled to vote in the elections of the company union in spite of the fact that the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters has presented their case against the company to the Railway Mediation Board. The company's policy of forcing porters to vote in the Pullman Porters Benefit Association, by refusing to allow them to go out on runs and holding up their pay until they had registered a vote, has led them to expect to meet a similar situation in the Company plan elections.

Richberg's full message is as follows: "Under the law it is the right and duty of railway employees, including those employed by the Pullman company, to organize and select representatives without interference, influence, or coercion exercised by the employer. The Pullman company employees plan does not comply with the law, but clearly violates the law. The employees are justified legally as well as morally in refusing to help create a machinery of self degradation."

The Employee Representation Plan elections are being held ten days earlier than provided by the by-laws of the Plan, although the Plan itself provides that elections shall occur the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, the Company arbitrarily ordered the elections for October 23. The order was sent out on the very day that the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters announced the presentation of its case to the Railway Mediation Board. A desperate Company effort to save some remnant of the Employee Representation Plan before the Brotherhood takes further action is the explanation for the hastily arranged election, in the minds of most of the porters. Many of them have declared their intention of refusing to vote, and backed up by the advice of an eminent attorney.

MANUAL ARTS SCANDAL

By Tomatoes

Hello, folks—We are now coming on the air with a Manual Arts scandal, so to speak.

Ye, Manual Arts Editor has just received a line from the famous skipper, in which he said to tell all of the fair Los Angeles maids, hello.

Romeo in the person of Mr. Percy Williams, was quite sad Friday noon, because his Dir Juliet in the likeness of Juliet Harris was not on the campus.

Extra! Extra! Gladys M. and Irma J. were seen arguing about a certain young man the other day. We wonder why? They say his name is Clifford Cook.

UPTON'S RAILROAD CLATTER
By Chas. L. Upton

COURAGE

COURAGE goes to make up a large part of our lives. It matters not whether we be rich or poor, strong or weak; it takes courage to conquer, courage to reach your goal, courage is being shown every day by someone. The deed performed may be ever so small, nevertheless in all probability it took courage for that particular person to perform it. But it is the exceptional feats of courage that are brought to your attention. In Italy you have one of the exceptional feats which stands out like the statue of Liberty before a clear sky. Mussolini, Italian rPemier, leader of The Black Shirts, Champion of Fascism has for the sixth time been the target for an assassin's bullet, but still possesses the COURAGE to go fearlessly on in face of death as the head of the fascist party without the slightest sign of nervousness, his slogan being, "Live in Danger." How many of you could live in danger without becoming terror-stricken, hysterical or eventually insane? Mussolini's would-be assasin must have had an abundance of courage, a mere youth 18 years old attempting the life of a premier in the midst of 50,000 of his friends. He could not have hoped to come out alive as the case was, he was killed before the smoke from his automatic had cleared away. This, my friends, is Courage. Pullman Porters, there are twelve thousand of you, have you COURAGE?

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE

President Coolidge in a message to the public last week, urged all voters to go to the polls last Tuesday. His message was, let no voters abdicate their sovereign right of self-government at the election by failing to vote. Well spoken, Mr. President but what about the thousands of railroad men who are forced to be on the road on election day? Would not the election be more complete, if there were some provision made for them to cast their vote on the trains, or at their terminal? Many railroad men who have registered year in and year out have had their hopes blasted politically by being sent out of town the day before election.

C. H. Washington has bid in line 18½ to San Diego.

The extra men are jubilant over the news that the many runs made vacant by the recent assignment of some 24 porters to the Gold Coast, will not be put up for bid, but will be left entirely to the operation of extra porters. This is quite a boon for the extra boys and will keep them stepping to fill these lines together with the regular extra work that this district always has during the winter months.

KING ZULOO INVITES QUEEN MARIE OF RUMANIA TO LOS ANGELES

Royalty is a great thing, and when one is in possession of a royal crown, they are all the go, don't cher know? Now comes King Zuloo, better known as Ed. Gray, with a special invitation to Queen Marie to be his guest in Los Angeles. The invitation was extended to her Royal Majesty thru the King's private secretary, Mr. J. W. Bush who needs no introduction as a diplomat with the blue blood of the country, having written many letters to notables of consequence in this, his august capacity. Following are a few of the high muck de mucks whom the King's secretary has had the pleasure of communicating with in the past and present periods: President Woodrow Wilson; President Harding; President Taft; Abe Lincoln; Pola Negri; Rudolph Valentino and Ponder. Following is the exact words of the special invitation sent to her Majesty from his Royal Highness, King Zuloo:

Royal Court of Sheet Artists
Pullman House of Tip Takers
Master of Snake Bites
Grand Gobbler of Heebie-Jeebies
November 4th, 1926

DEAR QUEEN:

Pardon me for not being aware of your presence in the United States, having just been cabled to that effect by his Royal Highness King Ferdinand, who apparently, is more than serious that you visit the Jazzland Cafe in Los Angeles. As far as a special suite is concerned, you do not need to worry about that, as I will arrange through the Grand Gobbler of the lower court, Mr. V. V. Rose to get you and the royal family out here on a dead-head car. I have already gone so far as to arrange for a suite of rooms at the New Breeze Hotel for your Majesty, and should your Majesty see fit to accept I will reserve box seats at the Majestic Theater, in order that your Majesty might have the opportunity of seeing "Struttin' Sam from Alabam." Wire at once.

KING ZULOO, THE FIRST.

APPROVES PULLMAN PORTERS STAND

(By A. N. P.)

New York, Nov. 4.—The Pullman car porters are "justified legally as well as morally" in refusing to help create a machinery of self-destruction" by voting in the Employee Representation Plan elections of the Pullman Company, which begins today, in the opinion of Donald R. Richberg, prominent labor attorney of Chicago, and counsel for the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters. Richberg's message was sent the porters in response to a request for legal advice from the men as to whether they could be compelled to vote in the elections of the company union in spite of the fact that the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters has presented their case against the company to the Railway Mediation Board. The company's policy of forcing porters to vote in the Pullman Porters Benefit Association, by refusing to allow them to go out on runs and holding up their pay until they had registered a vote, has led them to expect to meet a similar situation in the company plan elections.

Porters' Union Honors Eugene V. Debs

(By N. A. P.)

New York, Nov. 4.—The Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and Maids gathered in St. Luke's hall on Thursday in a memorial service for Gene Debs, a fighter in their cause.

As far back as 1894, Eugene V. Debs was fighting the injustices heaped upon the laboring man, and he championed the cause of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters to the day of his death. In letters and talks with the leaders of the Brotherhood, whom he claimed as friends, Debs indorsed the cause of the Pullman porters.

Judge Jacob Panken, socialist candidate for governor of New York, Joseph Schlessberg, secretary-treasurer of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, K. Philip Randolph, organizer of the Brotherhood, and Frank Grosswaith, personal friend of Debs, were the speakers. Many prominent union leaders from all over New York have signified their intention of being present.

The Ink Slingers will meet at the Egyptian Tea Room the 6th inst at one o'clock. Last week's meeting was postponed on account of the sudden death of Mrs. Evelyn Mason. Mrs. Anita Scott Coleman will be the guest of honor. Mr. H. L. Mencken, editor of the American Mercury, sent regrets for his inability to meet the the Ink Slingers at this time but probably will at some future date.

Y. M. C. A. Dedication Sunday

The new and modern Y. M. C. A. building at 28th and Paloma Streets, will hold its Dedicatory Services, Sunday afternoon, at 3 P. M., at which time this spacious building will throw open its doors and at last the fondest dream of the local membership of this section will be realized.

A very splendid program has ben arranged and an overflow crowd will be taken care of in the true Y. M. C. A. manner.

Every department of this great edifice is up to the minute in every way, fully equipped for all purposes. The furnishings are of the very best and truly nobody can find fault in the very splendid manner in which the "Y" managers have arranged for the patrons of th's great institution.

It has been suggested that the appreciation of the people can best be expressed by turning out in large numbers, and taking with you a liberal donation and for all subscribers to the building fund to rally as never before.

Secretary Green and his assistants will be on hand to serve you and give to all due credit for whatever you see fit to contribute.

Armistice Day; The Nero Makes a Challenge

By: DANIEL W. CHASE

So this is ARMISTICE DAY! We stand today at another milestone. Our feet are tired, for they have been brushed by our walks along the rugged way. Sometimes our burdens have become very heavy, and we have grown, O so weary!

Last night we looked up at the beautiful clear blue sky, and we thought of the wonder in the construction of the many stars. And today at dawn we were wondering what would happpen e'er the twilight closed upon us.

Our thoughts turn backward, and we see a war-ridden world. As children of a hopeful race we ask have we shed tears in vain? Have our tears for our fallen heoes of color been vain tears, or do we share a kindly grief knowing that the cause for which they died is the cause that rights all wrong? Have we borne the brunt of the battle as a foretaste of the gigantic struggle just ahead!! An armistice—a treaty—with whom—and for what?

And today, for a brief period, millions of Negroes stand with bowed heads, unwilling to abolish difficulties and dangers by denying their existence, and repeat "The race problem s the gravest of the world's problems." No, we do not believe in racial fusion or amalgamation; we believe that the Negro race must cherish its racial integrity, through which each one of us may develop the proper virtues and make a definite contribution to the general fund of human life and progress.

Armistice Day 1926, finds us wanting no aggravation of or addition to the difficulties that we fave at this moment. We will not have it. Yes, we have hopes of a peace in which all mankind must share for all remaining time.

At this time, we make the Capitol of these United States our trysting place, and instead of an armistice we make a CALLENGE: "In the name of high heaven we wage warfare—carnal and infernal as it may be—on all who regard us LESS THAN MEN, taking from us that which is rightfully ours—the divine right to live at peace with all mankind."

Shall we rely upon such? Yes, for we are facing the next great drama of man's destiny. In that drama the Negro will perhaps be compelled to play the stellar role. Will he know his lines? Can he play the part.

Armistice Day 1926 bids us see to it that we are strong to deal with all the mighty forces around us.

Woman May Get $30,000 PEARLS

(By A. N. P.)

New York, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Miss Adelaide Forta, 221 West 127th street several months ago found a pearl necklace valued at $30,000. She turned it over to the police who have been since trying to find an owner. If the owner does not claim it within the next few days, it will revert to the finder.

FROM LOS ANGELES TO NEW YORK

BY: C. A. B.

After a hurried preparation, a highly appreciable recept'on headed by the Hon. Noah D. Thompson and the Los Angeles Forum at the Forum the Sunday afternoon previous to our leave taking on Thursday 9:30 A. M., September 23rd, also a brilliant Reception headed by Mrs. Clara C. Hulbert and the Business Women's Club at Eagle Hall, on Tuesday evening, we were on our way. Our ultimate end was Providence, R. I., where we spent two weeks in close communion with our dear mother and other relatives—the joy of th's experience was to find our mother well, happy and chereful.

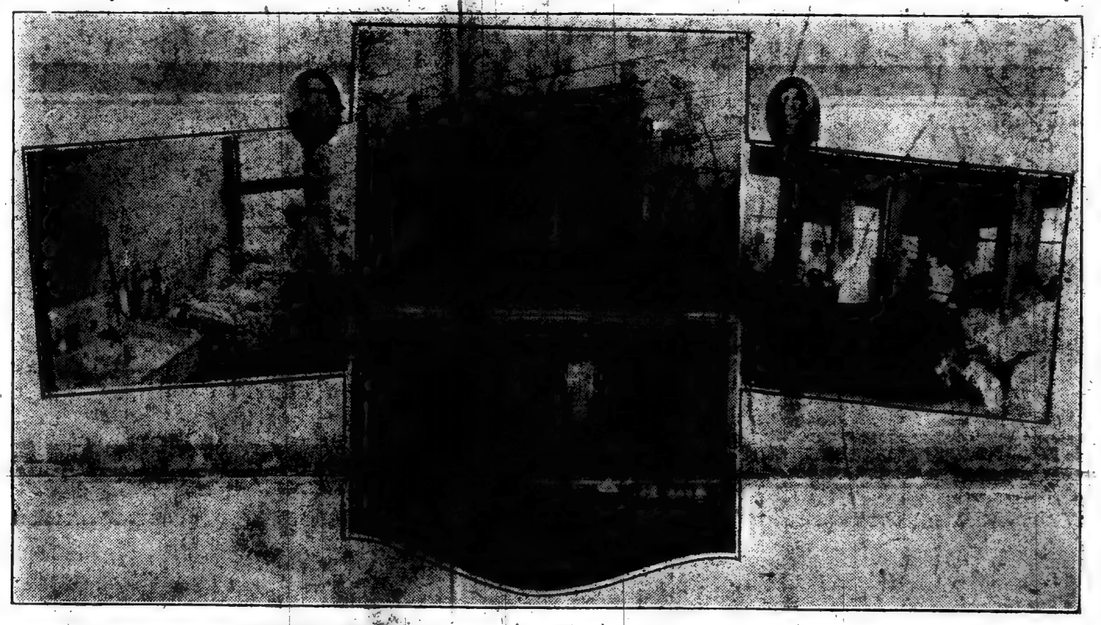
On our way from Los Angeles to Providence and New York, however, nothing out of the ordinary happened on the way until we reached Topeka, Kansas. Here we found awaiting our train our husband's good friend, John Taylor of that city; the newlywed, Mrs. Nicholas Childs and Mrs. Lillian J. Craw and nephew, Floyd. Indeed, this was one of the rarest treats of our trip for we deem it an especial privilege to number these good people among our friends. Our train was at Topeka only thirty minutes, but these were joyful minutes.

Our next stop pwas to have been a day at St. Louis, Mo., but due to the fact that our train was nearly six hours late we passed on St. Louis and went on to Springfield, Ill., where we met and visited our husband's uncle, Mr. William Jones, an old, wealthy and highly respected citizen of that section. We reached Springfield, Sunday afternoon and in spite of the fact that it rained every minute of the time we had a most pleasant two days' stay in this little old historic town.

Those who contributed to the pleasure of our Springfield visit were Mrs. Julia Duncan of 312 N. 13th St. and her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Ware. They came with their automobile, braved the rainstorm and took us out to Lincoln's tomb and to the house that was the scene of his early childhood. The persons in charge of the Lincoln tomb are well versed in the history of the martyred president and tell a story of his life, brim full of trials, humanitarian acts and devout service to God and man. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, parents of Mrs. Ware are amon Springfield's oldest residents and Dr. Ware is classed among the leading medical men of that city, an A. M. and M. D. and a member of the State Board of Health.

En route we met on the way Mrs. Emma Jefferson of Chicago, who was a pleasant traveling mate for three days, we also met and engaged in pleasant conversation with the Rev. Alonzo M. Petty of the American Baptist Home Mission Society, also of Los Angeles.

After leaving Springfield on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, our next stop was Chicago where we waited for two hours and changed trains.



We noticed with some degree of regret that white, instead of black, red caps, work all of the railroad stations from Topeka, Kansas to Chicago, Ill.

The run from Chicago to Pittsburg, Pa., was by night and a very dark one at that. It was Friday afternoon, October 31st, when we reached the smoky city of Pittsburg. Finding that we would not leave until six p. m. of the same day we decided to see that part of the city that held the greatest interest to us, and that being the home of the "Pittsburg Courier." We started out in pursuit of the same, and after nearly a two hours' search in keeping with directions, each differing in the essential, given by passing pedestrians, we wended our way up a narrow stairs on State St. and landed in the office of the "Courier," presented our card and were escorted by the office girl, who, by the way, was a charming young lady, into the office of the Editor here. We found in close conference the Editor, Managing Editor and Business Manager. They stated that the conference was called to make plans for the establishment of a newspaper plant and job shop; to date they have neither.

Leaving Pittsburg at 4 P. M. Thursday, it was best 4 A. M. Friday when we reached Philadelphia; having been on the road about seven days we decided not to stop but came right

MYEHARRY COLLEGE HAS CLOSING CELEBRATION; DR. GEORGE C. HALL DELIVERS ADDRESS

"MEHARRY MEDICAL COLLEGE—THE BATTLE GROUND AGAINST DISEASE."

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 4.—The celebraion of he fiftieth anniversary of Neharry Medical College, closed here Sunday evening after a four-day session, during which the history, the development and needs of the institution were reviewed and cited by prominent physicians, business men and educators.

Dr. George Cleveland Hall, chief of Staff of Provident Hospital, Chicago, and one of the most eminent surgeons of the country, delivered the keynote address of the semi-centennial celebration. Speaking on the subject: "When," Dr. Hall outlined the various periods in the life of the Negro race in America, describing them as the period when it was to be determined whether the Negro had a soul, when the question of his freedom was foremost, then came the subsequent periods when the question was "what to do with the Negro," then "What to do for the Negro," and "What to do to the Negro."

After discussing these periods the Chicagoan declared: "And now we come to the most crucial period when the question is "What is the Negro going to do for himself." The doctor pointed out the importance, value and necessity of self-help and will-power, declaring that "All the gifts that have been received by us for the advancement of this institution mean nothing if we do nothing for ourselves. We must first lend our support to this and other of our institutions, at all times remembering that what we do for ourselves will determine our future."

STATEMENT OF W. E. EVANS

"I deeply appreciate the honor the people of the Ninth Congressional District have conferred on me. My election must be construed as an endorsement of the present administration of governmental affairs at Washington, since my campaign was made on the basis of supporting that administration.

"The large democratic vote received by me indicates a repudiation of those influences abroad in the land designed to undermine and destroy government as administered trough party organization. The people are beginning to realize the wisdom of maintaining the sanctity and integrity of the two great major parties as stable working forces for efficiency in government, and as a protection from disintegration and factionism.

"I pledge the people of the Ninth Congressional District, and the community at large, that I will do all within my power to prove myself worthy of their confidence."

The Passing of a Wonderful Woman—Mrs. Evelyn Mason

By: HARRY LEVETTE

Rough men in toil stained overalls brushed horny hands across their eyes, women of the streets felt the tell-tale lumpp rise in their throats as they thought of resolves, and unfulfilled promises, made to her for betterment of their lives, little children looked up expectantly for her smiling face and the loving hand pat on the head they had become so accustomed to;—but all in vain for she had passed.

M. Evelyn Mason, a woman who came into the Los Angeles Community just a short five months ago but who in that time did more good than the average person does in five years. It is well t preach, to teach, to write but he or she who lives out daily the precepts they adjure others to follow, they are really God's messengers. This is not news. The news was flashed around the city last week when it was learned that this estimable lady had been called into the "Great Silence," but it is only one more tiny flower dropped tenderly on her bier. She did a great work here as the leader of a growing group whose watchword is Love, whose message is Truth regardless of Creed or Cult, and partially blind made to see and sick made well all testify to the healing powers of the faith she involved. She passed out as she lived—with a loving smile, a thought for others, an inspiration to her friends who cannot but grieve for her.

Forcefully Striking

The following poetry by Andy Razaf, so forcibly tears the mask from the fallacy of hatred that it should be broadcast to the four winds of the earth that all may read as they run.

RACE PREJUDICE

The white, red, black and yellow moan
Had nothing to do with his birth;
His color can never be a stamp
Of individual worth.

So then, why harp on race and creed
And the shade of a devil's hide;
When it fails to stand for a guarantee
Of what he ppossess inside.

To Death, the reaper, all men are fools,
For none does he step aside;
He laughs at their boasting for this and that,
Their arrogance and pride.

What does he care for race conceit,
For man-made values and forms,
Skin and flesh and blood are dust
And all are but food for worms.

So prejudice is ignorance,
The need of intelligent thought;
The lack of sinking for ourselves,
But believing what we are taught.

There is only one race—the human race,
Regardless of class or skin;
In good or evil known or brain,
All groups of men are kin.

—ANDY RAZAF.

COMMENTS

By W. J. WHEATON

The agony is over. Mr. and Mrs. Voter have registered their decree, and, in the main, the result shows special study of the candidates and measures ballotted for. Here, in California, a state sectional feeling prohibited a sane consideration of helpful highway issues and caused a rejection of measures beneficial to the commonwealth. Strange as it may seem there are a number of citizens south of the Tehatchipi who have an idea that that section is California and no good thing can emanate elsewhere. It will take a conference of sane leders to erdicate that feeling and blot out the North and South. One Californ'a for all within its boundary.

If Massachusetts gave the administratino a slap trouh the defeat of Senator Butler; California salved the situation by giving one of his most ardent supporters, Senator Shortridge, an overwhelming vote of confidence. The cohorts of Democracy were not only defeated, it was a debacle. C. C. Young and Buron Fitts, were elected governor and lieutenant governor by one of the biggest Republican majorities ever polled for like office. Walter Perry Johnson was re-elected Judge of the Superior Court. All in all, it was a pretty good old elect on throughout the nation. Just enough reduction in the working majority of both houses to make the Administration "sit up and take notice."

A janitor in a Los Angeles Bank found a roll of money which had been dropped through the carelessness of a responsible person. It is said that he found the amount—$74,000—after the bank had been closed and the employees gone. We think that he should have reported his find. We say that "we think," but instead he carried the money home with him. Possibly, some others would have done the same; not wishing to trust their amount of the bank's money elsewhere—(?). That was all right; but he could not stand the temptation of purchasing an expensive automobile which was wrong, as it lead to his undoing. He was compelled to reveal the hiding place, so money and automobile were lost to him. Moral: Don't spurge when you don't have to.

It is alleged that a soldier (white) from Kelly Field, Texas, sought forcible entry into the house of a Negro family and was killed by a little Negro boy. It seems as though white soldiers, a goodly number of whom have an idea that persons non-white are legitimate prey and can be insulted without fear of retribution overtaking them. Such conditions might have prevailed in the past but the fear of Azrael has long departed from the complex of the Negro and he is determined to defend the honor of his home with, if need be, his life.

Indignities, such as this which has been heaped upon the Negroes of Miami, Florida, brutalities to railroad men of the race because they drive fine cars. Forbidden to walk on streets in certain sections of the town; all of these things will bring day closer such an upheaval as will rock the social stratum of that vicinity from stem to stern.

We will never come to try to induce intelligent agriculturists with some means to come to California. Really, there is no more room in the rural districts for race migrants. We have taken a survey of conditions and find that employment, labor and domestic, is over supplied. But, the great spaces waiting to be tilled, the great opportunity which awaits the dirty farmer, they are here but pending rapidly into the hands of others who are learning the possibilities which this great state holds forth to tillers of the soil. Dreams of being dropped in the Orient; A population without fear, some commanding highest of educational advantages, and a paradise of atmosphere of freedom. These are some of the things for which we say to you "Come to California," but stay away from the big towns.

Republican Protective League Column

BY C. OLIVIER
(Chairman Executive Com.)

Senator B. M. Shortridge

The Republican Protective League is planning a special meeting in honor of the great victory achieved in his triumphant election on last November 3rd.

This meeting will also include the same attitude toward Hon. Joe Crail, Assembly Lyons, Senator Patsotti, and all republicans elected.

NEGRO LOBBY AT WASHINGTON

(By the Associated Negro Press)

We have often heard it said that the Negro race ought to maintain a permanent lobby in Washington which legislation and administration as the interests of colored Americans. Other groups not nearly so vital as the national well-being of Colored Americans have their lobbyists there.

The Washington branch of the N. A. A. C. P. is doubtless the most important agency through which this could be done. When Archibald Grimke was president of the branch he organized Negro Washington as it had never before been organized, and won the Spirgarn Medal for his loyal, able and effective guardianship of the rights of colored people. No case was too small and no individual too insignificant for him to make a call on the Congressional oCmmittee or at the office of the departmental head to see that justice prevailed in that case and for that individual.

Neval H. Thomas, a teacher in the Dunbar High School, is now president of the branch and is carrying on with like devotion and marvelous courage. It is nothing less than marvelous when a Negro school teacher, anywhere in the United States, has he courage to fight the battles of his race as Thomas has done.

Perhaps we have not fully realized the significance of the fight which he led against segregated bathing beaches. The case seemed hopeless. Congress passed the bill to "Jim Crow" colored bathers; the Secretaries of War and Navy indorsed it, and Calvin Coolidge, over the protests of Neval Thomas and the branch, signed it. There was yet one more trench—the appropriations committee under Madden. The bathing beaches could not be had without the money. Thomas and his cohorts, presented themselves to Madden. Madden was "told" and heeded. The appropriation was not made. Congress, War, Navy, and President were beaten in this last trench.—And Thomas still holds his job in the Washington school system.

U. C. L. A. STUDENTS FORM CLUB

Conduct is not merely three fourths of life as Matthew Arnold has said; it is the whole of life; and a genuine literary ability combined with conduct evolves a more perfect type of manhood. To this end the Negro students of U. C. L. A. have formed an organization under the name "Agenda". The purpose of this campus organization is to have the leaders of our race, both local and visiting, speak to the students of the organization in which case the meeting is to be thrown open to every student in the school. In order to develop the literary ability latent in our group, debates, reports on leading Negroes, impromptu speeches and oratorical contests are to be sponsored.

These contests when held on the campus will give the Negro college students an opportunity to account for their stewardship to the people, who constitute part of the society upon whose bent backs have fallen the onerous responsibilities and exasting sacrifices necessary to make free education possible. The organization is headed by Mr. Ralph Bunche, a student selected because of his leadership ability, and athletic ability as a candidate for the Rhodes scholarship. To enumerate upon the qualifications of the President is unnecessary as this fact speaks for itself. He has, however, chosen distant goals and lofty ideals for the organization, and is truly one inspired to lead them toward their attainment. It is the ernest desire of the organization to evolve a more perfect type of manhood and womanhood among the Negro students of U. C. L. A., a manhood which shuffling off the animal coil and fulfilling the divine ideal of man, shall attain a sense of honor that feels a stain like a wound, to an integrity that shall not palter with the truth. The other officers are Vice-President, Newell Eason; Secretary, Jeanette More; Treasurer. Ralph Johnson.

HORSE-RACING

For the second time this season Crusader, Samuel D. Riddle's three-year-old colt, on September 25th, at Havre de Grace, Md., took issue with the best of the older horses and beat them at their own game. His earnings for the season now total $135,000. Last spring he won the Suburban Handicap and his latest exploit is a clean-cut victory over the great Sarazen and a group of other classy turf performers. Moreover, the son of Man-o-War conceded enough weight to leave no doubt in the minds of knowing horsemen that he is one of the best if not the very best, colt of the noted sire. And it cannot be said that Sarazen was in one of his sulky moods, either. Mrs. Vanderbilt's colt ran one of the best races of his career.

Jimmy Gleason Is Winner in 100-Mile Motor Race

Driving at the rate of 103 miles an hour, Jimmy Gleason won the 100-mile feature race of the National Motor Racing Association at Baltimore, Md., on September 26th. His time was 57:07 4-5.

Russell Snowberger, who like Gleason drove a Miller Special, was second and Frank Farmer was third. Fred Winnat was thrown clear of his car when he struck the fence, but escaped with a few bruises and scratches.

He Will Continue To Make Good

W. I. Traeger

In an interview with Sheriff Wm. I. Traeger, by an Eagle representative, we are assured of his continued even handed justice in the administration and enforcement of the law. Quoting him we are pleased to note the following:

"I am indeed very grateful to your group for the expressed confidence demonstrated by the over whelming vote I received as compared to that of my opponent. Yes, I will keep every protection promise. I will endeavor to so conduct the office of sheriff as to reflect credit upon the whole people; this I believe to be my duty. I will in the very near future emphasize my appreciation to your group by appointing eligibles to the responsible positions as deputies. I am also pleased to know that I have the cooperation of the civic organizations. I will be sheriff of all the people all the time."

White Man Lynched; Eight Men Arrested

(By A. N. P.)

Douglas, Ga., Nov. 5.—The lynching of David Wright, a white man, several weeks ago, caused considerable unrest here, as a result of which eight men were arristed in connection with the lynching. Wright had been charged with slaying Mrs. Zelphie Rollins. Several others have also been indicted and officers are seeking to arrest them. Major Brown who has been held since August goes to trial soon. An attempt made by his wife to free him caused the placing of a heavy guard about the jail. Mrs. Brown is a sister of the slain woman. Her arrest has been asked.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM ARIZONA

Tucson, Arizona,
Nov. 7, 1926.

MR. J. A. WARREN,
Los Angeles, Calif.

Dear Friend:

I received the $60.00 P. O. Order, that as sent; every little bit helps. I hope to soon begin giving you good news as to our progress, which will stimulate things in general. We'll stop work on our big 5 metals vein in a few days, and move our drilling machine down from off the hill to begin our attack where the ore is mostly gold.

The showing is very fine up where we have been working. The big vein we are fixing to leave is 20 feet wide from all to wall; and it is stringered through with rich stringers of ore ore carrying gold, silver, copper, lead and zinc. These rich stringers being from 4 to 6 inches in width trough the 20 feet of vein material; and all the vein material carrying values; and there being many of these rich, with defined stringers. You will realize the importance of this big fissure vein, when looking north from the shaft, we can drive 2 miles and south one mile and above 300 feet is a great companion parallel running Major vein, wider than this, on which no work has been done yet; and below it at about the same distance another with many smaller veins between these 3 Major veins.

But time forces us to come down off the Heights and start work where gold is dominant; for as you know an income and demonstrating mill is an absolute necessity to make our big paying off drive; Plus our being able to show enormous ore reserves and bodies to draw from. Fortunately for us we have millions in sight as a natural showing.

Yours for success,
G. W. MILLER.

FROM LOS ANGELES TO NEW YORK

through to New York, where we landed at 6:30 A. M., Friday morning, and after a two days' rest at the residence of our sister, Mrs. Victorine Kimbough, proceeded on our way to Providence.

We have already stated how pleasant it was to be with mother again. The first three days in Providence were devoted to business with mother. On the evening of the fourth day, in company with mother and my sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnson, we attended the 80th birthday party of Mrs. Fannie Johnson, mother of Mr. Johnson. It was a delightful affair. Mrs. Johnson is one of Providence's pioneer citizens, and a carter member of the H. H. of Rut, and on this occasion many complimentary speeches were made in her behalf including remarks by the author of this article.

On October 12th we visited the twenty-third annual conference of the Rhode Island Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, presided over by Miss R. J. Dunbar at the Union Baptist Church of Pawtucket, R. I. We extended greetings on behalf of the California Club Women.

We found the Rhode Island club women striving towards the same goal that women generally are striving for, enjoying the same limited privileges, and facing the same handicaps, but Lifting as they Climb.

hard headed Governor, Friend Richardson, refues to be stampeded by Royalty and says bluntly, that the Queen or any other personage who wishes to visit the State are at perfect liberty to do so, and if they call at the executive office will be assured a hearty welcome. We can imagine our doughty Governor bowing and kissing the Royal Hand. Why, even the young Prince is quoted as saying that "He wished the damned American trip was over," the expression was forced from him by the obsequicus actions of a lot of co-eds who wanted his autograph. We may well ask the question, Why all of this "hulla balloo" over the visit of a sensible, good natured, middle aged woman, when we have so many millions with us?

PLAIN FACTS

By Dr. Ruth J. Temple

[Specializing in Obstetrics and Women's diseases, Member of the Attending Staff Maternity Division of the Los Angeles City Health Department, Staff Member White Memorial Hospital and Boyle Avenue Dispensary.] Address all questions to Dr. Ruth Janetta Temple, 8550 So. Western Avenue. Phones: EMpire 9981; VAndike 1221; UNiversity 1255.

NOTE:—I think that it does us all good, some times to forget ourselves and to think of others and their needs. Therefore, today, I am going to take my readers with me for a visit to the Boyle Avenue Clinic, of which I have charge on Tuesday and Thursday of each week. At some other time in the near future I shall have you visit with me, the Maternity Clinic of the Health Department.

A DAY AT THE BOYLE AVENUE DISPENSARY

As I entered the clinic this morning, Mrs. Cloud, the nurse in the department, came up and smilingly put her arm around my waist. "O here is my Doctor"! Then added: "Dr. Temple, I am so glad that you came early today because I went out this morning and brought in two patients especially to see you". As she talked we went together to the long narrow hall which was thickly lined with patients who were waiting to see me. Of the thirty or more patients whom I saw in the clinic I shall describe two cases which I think will be especially helpful to us.

There was a Mexican man who had brought his little girl in to be treated with the whooping cough. The child was thin and delicate and sick looking. On examining the child's lungs I found terrible roles and other abnormal conditions which lead me to diagnose the case as one of tuberculosis as well as whooping cough.

I explained the condition to the father and told him that the baby should be in a hospital or sanitarium. He said that he did not want to let the baby go. I told him that it was not a question of preference, but of wisely deciding to do what was best for the baby under those unfortunate circumstances. He replied that the baby would die if it left him and its mother. I told him that the baby already had gotten sick "with him and its mother" and that unless they allowed it to go into the hospital that it would die. I asked him if he did not love the baby enough to put his own feelings aside and send it to the hospital where its needs could be met. He began to cry and talk excitedly in Mexican, saying that he did love the baby, more than his own life; and that he would cut his heart out for it. "Well then", I replied, "do what is best for the little one—send it into the hospital where it will have a chance to live". Sadly he shook his head—"No doctora", he continued in his fauty Engish, "I can't send my baby away from me—if he die at home, he have to die. I can no send him away".

It made my heart ache to see this man consumed with paternal love and yet so very blind to the welfare of his child. He who could not sacrifice the presence of his little one in the home for a few weeks or months will let the baby suffer week after week and

DO YOUR BIT

Our people must not fail and we do not believe they will in contributing their quota to the Community Chest Fund which is now before us.

SOLD TO EUROPE

Roland Hayes and his announced engagement to a Countess in Europe doubtless will cause much discussion by both races. We cannot see just how it would affect anybody on this side of the pond and inasmuch as Mr. Hayes seems to be sold to Europe, who is here that will be so riled up as to venture a comment.

LOUIS MICHEL

We can truly appreciate the genuine sincerity of Louis Michel's friendship to the race when we read his dignified letter absolutely refusing employment with a firm which discriminates in selling musical instruments to our group on no other ground than the fact that they were black. In our next issue we propose to reproduce that letter and let the people know of Mr. Michel's stand for justice and right.

THE G. O. P. GOES BIG IN CALIFORNIA

There is no sign of weakening on the Republican party in California if the huge majorities rolled up for the ticket counts for anything at all. All peoples seem to be together on this particular proposition out this way.

Sheriff W. I. Traeger again proved that the people of Los Angeles County recognize in him, a man who is truly worth while and who will serve them best. We are proud of the fact that we never wavered in his support and feel that in Sheriff Treager all people have at the helm a public official who plays no favorites but treats all alike.

KEEPING FIT AND READY FOR SERVICE

In looking about for a successor for S. B. Danley, Jr., who has resigned as probation officer for this County to accept a better position n another state, we find a scarcity of qualified timber and we rise to enquire the reason thereof.

While we have an abiding faith that we will eventually produce a worth while successor to take up the work in which Mr. Danley made such a wonderful record, we deplore the apathy of our young men who fail to equip themselves despite the opportunity which is within ther reach.

Meanwhile it is a passing procession of misfits and not fiits at all and the race loses prestige in the interim.

PRODUCE FROM THE SOIL OF THE EARTH

Down near Ontario, on the highway to San Bernardino and Riverside, lie the Carver Acres. Named for the wizard of the soil, Prof. Carver, of Tuskegee. We are informed that this is good land and its richness is not unlike the soil which lies in the valley of the Nile. Water is to be had in abundance and it is being offered to our group in a minimum parcel of one acre. We are further informed that for one time everything about the title and terms is jam up and that it is a proposition of real merit upon which to transact business.

To our way of thinking with the above situation this proposition is well worthy of consideration. It is in line with our solution of the economic problems which confrona us; that of production from the soil of the earth. One acre of this land will produce more than forty acres will bring forth in other lands and climes. As a matter of fact one acre will produce your living and the more acres you acquire, the more will be your return. Anyhow look into Carver Acres and see for yourselves as we propose to do.

INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

The Minneapolis Tribune editorally declares that crime is Our Country's most expensive luxury. It quotes statistics charging that crime costs the United States about $10,000,000,000 a year. Loss in loot alone is about $3,500,000,000. Loss in diverted man-power is $6,500,000,000 more.

Each year crime costs America a sum equal to the entire war debt owed Our Country by Europe, or twice what it costs to run the government. In any one year we spend ten times as much for crime as we have spent on highways. Reducing crime one-half would in five years wipe out the national debt, costing each inhabitant $83 a year. The Chicago crime commission says that city has 30,000 crooks and criminals costing the city $20,000 a year apiece.

What is the remedy? Is it play or work? Does any nation spend more money on college and high school sports like baseball and football than ours? Do the children of any country play more and work less than our children? A genius proposes spending millions in every state on more playgrounds for the children.

Dr. G. F. C. Curry, D. D., of San Antonio, Texas, will conduct a revival for three weeks at St. John's Baptist Church, 30th and Compton, beginning Sunday, November 14th. Rev. D. C. Beasley, Pastor.

HOOVER PRAISES COMMUNITY CHEST

Adding to those expressed by others his good wishes for the success of the Community Chest appeal which opened Tuesday in Los Angeles to continue until November 23, Herbert Hoover recently wired his wholehearted endorsement of the Chest.

Hoover visited Los Angeles not long ago and talked with leading business men who were then preparing for the opening of the campaign which is for $3,220,114.25 for the support of 154 agencies in 1927. His endorsement comes following one by President Coolidge, Thomas A. Edison and other leaders of the nation.

Hoover said: "The Community Chest idea has been developed and well tried out in mn ycities of the United States. It has been found that it systematically spreads the number of givers throughout the community. It increases the interest of the community ni its burdens of public charity. It relieves the officers of charitable institutions of the time and anxiety which they must give to providing support for their institutions and thereby enables them to devote themselves to the primary work of the institution.

"It tends to decrease the overlap and waste among these institutions. It gives them a more assured and sounder basis of support.

"It protects the community from fraud and misrepresentation.

"It establishes once and for all the burden upon each individual in the community. It awakens public interest and support to the obligations of the stronger members of the community to th eweaker.

"I feel sure that these advantages of the Community Chest system will again appeal to the people of Los Angeles and that it will meet a great response."

Will Be A Record House

That all indications point to a record house is attested by the great demand for tickets that are coming in from all sources for the concert to be given by the Los Angeles Choral Club at the Philharmonic Auditorium, November 30th. The advance sale is already beyond any previous sale for a concert of this kind in this city. That music lovers are in for a great treat is unquestioned. Many of the newspaper critics of Los Angeles who have covered concerts for years are still mentioning the surprise that they received during the late Hollywood Bowl Contest. The fact that the best voices from all these choirs is being placed under capable direction will probably assist to outdraw any previous choral concert. Much interest is being developed on behalf of Frederick Skinner, Baritone. Mr. Skinner was taken in hand by the Pacific Southwest Resident Artists Bureau during the last summer. They claim they have in him another artist of the type of Roland Hayes. He has been coaching with Los Angeles' leading Vocal teacher. That he will be acclaimed during this concert seems assured.

The leading music critics of Los Angeles are to attend this concert and Mr. Skinner realizes that it is "now or never." He will be ready. This event is given for the building and organ fund of the Second Baptist Church.

Those desiring reservations should get in touch with Mrs. Clara C. Hulbert. Phone, HUmbolt 3061-W.

medical care and hospital care and probably finally die in a dark corner in a dirty little rag bed! Ignorance is awful. All of us are ignorant about some things. Most Mexicans are ignorant about the great advantage of hospital care. I had one Mexican baby to die of pnuemenia right here on E. 12th. Street near San Pedro St. who could most likely have been saved if its parents would only have consented to sending it into the hospital, before it was too late. White people know the benefits of the hospital with its large staff of trained nurses and doctors, but the poor mexicans and I am sorry to say, my own poor people too; are mortally afraid of the hospital and only a very few of the truly most intelligent can be led to see its benefits. Thus many lives are lost each year which could have been saved, if our women in child birth and our men and women in general diseases could be led to truly appreciate the great benefit of having hospital privileges.

The second case is interesting from a social, as well as from a medical view point. The patient was a little girl three years old, who had epilepsy. Her younger baby brother 1 and one half years old had been brought in with her. Both children looked deficient. When I inquired into the family history I found that the father of these children, was also the father of their one half uncle and auntie who were also their one half brother and sister. The one half uncle and auntie and one half brother and sister were just the ages of the little patients. In other words this awful condition existed. The father of these babies was living with a mother of her daughter at about the same time and had these two babies by the daughter as about the same time that he had two children by the mother. Again ignoranee is to blame; for surely no intelligent mother and daughter and no intelligent father would continue to live in this diabolical relation. It is because that ignorance is father to so much immorality and disease that "Plain Facts" came into existence, and we want it to continue to give these facts until all are wiser and better.

The menu consists of Men's Singles, Ladies' Singles, Men's Doubles and Women's Doubles. The entry fees will be 50c each t oall events. This tournament is open to everybody, old or young and the youngsters are expected ty make it hot for many of the old timers. Send entries to this writer 228-F N. Bonnie Brae St. or to Clarence H. Mills, 488 Oak Knoll Ave. Pasadena.

XMAS BASKETS FOR KIDDIES

The following members of the Alpha Ladies Tennis Club have made arrangements with the management of the Bronx Hotel, 423 E. 7th St, to hold the first benefit dance of this kind ever held by a local tennis club in their ball-room Wednesday Night, Novembr 24th (Thanksgiving Eve): Mrs. Maude Rosemond Watson; Mrs. Stella Peterson; Mrs. Stella Cole; Mrs. Sylvia Jones; Mrs. Hazel Harris; Mrs. Delina Summey; Miss Laura Devonport; Miss Bertha Cobb; Mrs. Beulah Cherry and Mrs. L. M. Hubbard.

The proceeds from this affair are to be used to buy Xmas presents for some of the many needy children of our group who will miss Santa Claus this Xmas unless local charitable institutions help out, so everybody should join in th's movement and make it a huge success.

GANG ASSAULT COLLEGE YOUTHS AT FOOTBALL GAME

The sportsman-like pleasure of the football game between the Racquet Wielders and the Merry Makers Club, Sunday, November 7th at Snyder's Field was marred by an incident that came near terminating in a tragedy.

Luke Rosser, a well-known young and very popular sophomore of U. C., was set upon and brutally attacked, knocked down and kicked by several members of the Merry Makers Club. The affair occurred through the playful joshing which young Rosser in one car with two friend, Clyde Thompson and another young man, name unknown, was giving to some members of the victorious team, in another car, as all were leaving the grounds. By the time they had reached Washington and Central the boys in the Merry Makes' were so highly incensed as to rush upon young Rosser and four or five began attacking him, led by a big fellow by the nick-name of "Hog." Knocked down during the melee in spite of the game defense he put up, another of the number by the name of Peter Rabbit Harper, is alleged to have kicked Rosser in the face, almost rendering him unconscious and disfiguring.

Rosser's two companions came to his rescue and battled his attackers allowing him to recover and use a glass straw contianer snatched from a Drug Store with telling effect on the heads of his late assaulters.

BIG GOLF TOURNAMENT FIRST OF THE YEAR

That a just share of the country's best known golfers will tee off in the Los Angeles $10,000 open golf tournament is evvidenced by the large entry list already received. More than thirty "out of town" niblic wielders have signed for the West's big event, to be held in Los Angeles January 5, 7, 8 and 9.

Willie Hunter, former British open champion and member of the "Big Six" committee, in charge of the affair, declares that the West will have the greatest field in its history of golf. Mike Brady, Tom Kerrigan, Bobby Cruickshanw, MacDonald Smith, John Battini, Johnny Black, Larry Nabholtz, Johnny Golden, C. R. Murray of Canada, Frank Minch, Elmer and Donald Harrison, Eddie Loose, Joe Novak, Tom Lally, Charlie Johnston, Fran Syrogell are a few of the East and Middle West who have already entered.

With the raising of the handicap limit the field is expected to double. Qualifying this year will be four or more courses, instead of just two. By the ruling of the "Big Six" committee the first thirty players at Sciota this year and the first thirty of the 1926 Los Angeles open will not have to qualify on January 6. This will give a numebr of golfers a longer bern-storming season.

The first 18-holes will be played on January 7; the second 18 on January 8, and 36-holes on the following day. Low 64s and ties of the seventh and eighth go into the finals on Sunday, the ninth, to battle for the $10,000 prpse money and silverware.

Young Harry Cooper, who has associated himself with a Los Angeles club will defend his title. His was the first entry received for the big event. George Von Elm, the West's greatest golfer and runner-up in the 1926 Los Angeles open, has also entered. It's a sure bet Von Elm will attract a good share of these golfers who are a bit undecided as to whether they will come westward or not.

The recently crowned amateur champion was accorded an ovation worthy of a national hero on his homecoming to Los Angeles. More than 5000 people greeted him upon his arrival here.

Mack House "Hope" Of Negro in Ring

Last week we advertised for a Black Hope after laying Harry Wills away to his rest. Well, we found him. You haven't heard much of House for over a year. Well, the great Watson Burns was bringing him up, training and teaching him carefully until now he has a finished product in a boy who can sock, block and take 'em. Mack is only 20 years of and from the way he romped over the hard-hitting Vic Alexander last week he ought to be able to clear out the local nest of light heavies and by the time he grows into a heavy be at the top. Before he dropped out of the limelight two years ago he fought Sailor Ridder, Frankie Denny Arthur Peney and beat a Larry when only 16 years old.

Mack fights Charlie Seminoff at Compton the next Monday, November 15th.

Uppercuts and Blocks

Did any brainless boob say Baby Gans run out of his match with O'Brien? If he did there's an excuse for justifiable homicide! For every time the writer saw the "young master" sitting around nursing that twisted, swollen jaw, and plugged ear, he had the saddest expression ever seen on a human face. He sure wanted to keep his date with "Tameable Tommy."

* * * *

Say there's only on good colored bantam weight in the city. All he needs is a chance. Let's all get behind him and push. He's that game, clean, hard-hitting, little fellow, Eagle Thomas.

* * * *

Three cheers for Young Jack Thompson! When he hits 'em he gits 'em! When he gits 'em they GO!

* * * *

Cherokee Tom is always welcome at the Eagle Office. He brought out Gans, Baker and several other present headliners.

* * * *

Watson Burns, one of the world's best managers and a champion cue artist is always welcome. He holds the wheel for Mack House now.

* * * *

Tom Sielski: A fine fellow. Good manager. He and Thompson are real team workers. Watch him. He's always welcome.

* * * *

George Tittington knows his onions. Has several good boys, most promising of which, seems to be Whitey Black and Young Langford. George and his gang of glove throwers are welcome.

In fact, all good fellows are welcome.

Dempsey Fights Berlenbach-Persson Winner

New York.—Jack Dempsey will return to the ring this winter, probably against the winner of a match between Paul Berlenbach, former heavyweight champion and Harry Persson, Swedish heavyweight, Tex Rickard reports.

Big Fistic Ball Here Soon

Sid Flam Band Won't that be grand? At the Shrine Auditorium, Thanksgiving Night, November 25th.

TOMMY O'BIEN TAKES BEATING FROM JOHNNY ADAMS

Tommy O'Brien should thank his stars that he didn't get out of the frying pan into the fire by missing Baby Gans than having to fight Jack Thompson as substitute. But the Commission ruled against Thompson fighting within the week so Tommy did not get the knock out that either of those colored stars would have given him.

Johnny Adams was put in the gap to sub against Tommy and nearly as many cash customers filled the great Olympic as if the expected bout had gone through. And all were surprised to see Adams at the small end of 2 to 1 betting give terrible Tommy a tailor-made trimming for 10 hectic sessions.

Tommy did not seem at himself at that. Only in a couple of rounds, the 4th, and first minute of the tenth did he show any of the stuff that has made his name mean "danger." The old right wasn't working. So Adams chased him from bell to bell and hit him with everything but the office safe, the crowd booing Tommy all through, especially when he tried any roughing.

Of the other fights the 6-round semi between Roy Moore and Billy Vincent came near stealing the show; it was full of slugging and toe to battling with Moore getting the hand raise at the end.

One big night! Don't forget or you will always regret. Shrine Auditorium Thanksgiving night!

Along Fistic Row

Again we ask to be wised up. What the heck is the matter with the fight game in Chi? Too much squabbling among the promoters, maybe. That kills the game anywhere. Anyhow, while they sit idle Rickard is preparing to build a 20,000 seat garden there and will cash in big.

Big Swim Meet at Oakland Athletic Club

Berkeley, Calif.—The public may get its first eyeful of the California swimming varsity some time this month in a dual meet with the Athens Athletic Club of Oakland. The contest has been tentatively arranged by Coach Jack Robertson, who is well known in Los Angeles and vicinity through his aquatic conquests. Robertson was at one time Pacific Coast 100-yard champion.

Although pleased with the number turning out for varsity practice, Robertson is far from satisfied with the quality of performances registered. Unless the varsity improves its paddling ways, it is feared that the Bears will be sunk in the tank as well as on the gridiron. Veterans in regular varsity practice are Capt. Castelago, Webb, Sullivan and Cliff Mayne.

Stanford Eleven Working Hard For Washington Game

Stanford University.—Stanford university's greatest gridders, conquerors of the U. S. C. Trojans, resumed work here this afternoon in preparation for the Washington game which will be played in the Rose stadium, November 25. The redskins arrived back from Los Angeles Monday and took a day off.

The men who did not play against Southern California last Saturday, practiced yesterday, but the others took a second holiday as a result of two days' rest Warners men were full of pep and eager to go this morning. They predict that they will score more points against the Huskies and are planning to run their team with vigor.

Banning Speedway Set For Armistice Day

The entries for the Banning Speedway events on Armistice day, November 11, show that some real speed will be exhibited on this little half-mile dirt track.

Some of the best known dirt track drivers in California havve been attracted to the Armistice day race.

The little track offers real enjoyment to spectators as the racers can be seen around the entire oval.

Wrigley Field Neighbors Protest Fights

Dick Donald can really run into all the trouble that goes around.

According to his figures, he has lost money on every show he has staged in Los Angeles since the passing of the 10-round law. He had plenty of trouble obtaining a permit to stage his last card in Wrigley Field and now another bunch of protestants has bobbed upp with a petition against further fights.

MANUAL HIGH HUMBLES HOLLYWOOD

Whatever chance Hollywood high school had to make a name this year in prep football circles was effectually spoiled when Manual Arts trounced the Foothillers, 21-12, in a seesaw game on the Toilers' field. Coach Kelley's team was fully as good as the Manual outfit, but failed to come through in the tight places and so lost the contest.

Bronx Hotel Notes

Nearly the entire Eagle Staff, led by the Sport Editor, visited the Palm Garden cabaret on Saturday night last as the guests of the management. And what did they [illegible] cessing for a "hot minute" from typepleing, copy proofing, and news hustling, they watched a revue keen enough for anybody's "Big Time."

Miss Walton sang a real Prima Donna ballad then closed it with a side-splitting "Messin' Roun'" dance with that funny Bo Diddle.

Then lo, and behold this same "Bo Diddle" did a head-spin dance as climax to a fast hoofing "single" that made folks climb their chairs to look at it.

Those "Creola Syncopators" just won't don't with real sharps and flats while Emma Wharton with the insured legs led a peppy chorus of prettily costumed girls.

Mr. Darby Hicks, now promoted to Asst. Manager, is a genial handshaker. Everybody likes Darby.

Mr. McMillan, Manager, is always planning new conveniences for the growing number of guests.

Franklin's Bronx Cafe will soon have to put in a balcony to serve the long line that waits for space.

And Miss Love—some name that, one is the pretty, dainty, pleasant, interesting and efficient little manicurist who has recently opened up in the lobby.

ANOTHER SCALP ON HIS BELT YOUNG JACK THOMPSON HANGS

Beats Alger at Frisco

When the fans in the crowded Dreamland at Frisco last Saturday settled back to watch the referee start the dishing up of Tommy Simpson's sweet menu they did not know just what to expect. They knew that the'r home boy, Billy Alger who is a junior welterweight could scrap and is a tough baby, and one who broke the record by fighting one year moe than 52 fights; over one a week. They knew too that Thompson hung his mighty right on Pitts for a home-run, and took down Long John Seaver's bucaneer flag. But they wondered; and wondering did not bet.

They should have piled bank-account the tin Lizzie and the family cow on Thompson, for he beat Alger in spite of all his toughness and the hard scrap he put up. The fans went wild ovr Jack's work and hailed him as the next world's champ. Thompson will rest a few days, then start training for his next bout.

School Boy's Blow To Stomach Killed Houdini Reported

The whole world was surprised and shocked at the sudden demise of Houdini, most famous magician and athlete that ever lived. The stomach muscles are usually built up to receive very severe blows so the following tale seems almost impossible in this case.

Houdini's, manager, H. Elliott Stuckel, issued a statement, attributing the magician's fatal illness to blows in the stomach received from a student at McGill university, Montreal 10 days ago.

"Mr. Houdini had lectured before the student body and had invited medical or physiological students to come to his dressing room for further information. Two students came to see him, and commenced up phis unusual strength.

"You would hardly feel a blow in the stomach, would you, Mr. Houdini? one of them asked.

"Certainly not," he replied.

"Before Mr. Houdini was aware of the boy's intentions and could brace himself, the boy struck him two short-arm punches in he pit of the stomach.

SEVERE PAINS

"The next night he was observed to double up several times, as though from pain, while giving his final performance in Montreal.

"From that time on, Mr. Houdini complained of severe pains in the stomach, something that never before had bothered him. He had never been ill a day in his life before that."

The remains were taken to New York for burial.

Germany Out of Olympic Games Since 1912 Back 1928

America, aided by such strong Negro athletes as Gourdin and others, gobbled up most of the honors in the 1924 Olympic games, but Germany means to crowd us in the games of 1928 and is making preparations to that effect in all lines of sport.

Based on present performances, the policy of the United States stands good to suffer more. The Germans are strongest in virtually every sport in which Americans in the 1924 games carried off firsts. The best bid, it appears, will be made in track and field events, swimming, cycling, equestrian sports, rifle and revolver shooting, tennis, figure skating for men, soccer and fencing with a fair chance in ice hockey, rowing and weight lifting.

LOMSKI AND FLOWERS MATCHED AGAIN

JESS McMAHON SEEKS BATTLE BETWEEN MIDDLE CHAMP AND SEATTLE SLUGGER FOR RICKARD

Seattle, Nov. 6.—Once more Jess McMahon, matchmaker for Tex Rickard's Madison Square Garden in New York, is endeavoring to bring about a match between Tiger Flowers, colored middleweight champion of the world, and Leo Lomski, the Seattle strong boy.

They were matched last spring but Lomski injured his hand and had to lay off. He has won 8 fights since and feels he can send the "Deacon" to the Amen corner.

What About It?

As the fourth week of play between the Nil Nisi Bonum and the Wilshire Olympic Club, local pigskin pushers de luxe, I wonder how many of the rabid fans who in large numbers have well supported their respective favorites in its race for football supremacy of the present season, have ever stopped to think of our athletes that are but on the field of battle.

In high school and college as you know, they charge admission to all branches of sports which takes care, not only of wounded athletes, but swells the athletic fund as well. Out of the six leading colored club of the city you will find no finer bunch of boys in the world. Most of them are hard workers while a few are still going to school.

As we are amateurs, it is against the rule to charge admission at the gate, but out of the five or six hundred football followers who like the art and clean sports—manliness of the players, I venture to say not one would be unwilling to pay ten or fifteen cents as a fair price with go to a good cause. Equal Rights League.

(By A. N. P.)

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The Equal Rights League held its 19th Annual Convention in the Varick Memorial A. M. E. Zion Church, sessions being held from Wednesday, Oct. 20 to Sunday, Oct. 24. There were several addresses delivered during the session, many stirring appeals being made to the Negro to "be up and doing." Maurice W. Spencer, prominent in the race movement in Washington, D. C., delivered a fitting memorial to Dr. William A. Sinclair, who wrought so well during his long life for the Negro cause.

The president, the Rev. George Frazier Miller of New York, delivered his annual address, which was well received. Hon. Ernest Lyon of Baltimore, Md., spoke on "Disfranchisement and Peonage as Violation of the Declaration of Independence" and the plan of battle was outlined. The keynote of the convention was the enforcement of the Declarstion, which is all the more imperative because there is being celebrated now the 150th year of the independence of the United States.

Lynching and segregation were discussed in unmistakable terms, and J. L. Neill, a well known practicing attorney of Washington, D. C., discussed from every possible angle the question of "Civil Rights." His discussion was roundly applauded.

William Monroe Trotter, editor of "The Guardian," Boston, Mass., delivered a masterly plea arousing much interest in "Segregation and League Works."

PROMINENT CITIZENS ON PROGRAM

Other persons of national prominence no the program included the Hon. E. Washington Rhodes, editor of "The Philadelphia Tribune" and assistant United States District Attorney, Edward W. Henry, local magistrate, Mrs. S. Willie Layten, widely known public speaker and organizer of activities, the Rev. H. D. Tillman, pastor of Wesley A. M. E. Zion Church, the Rev. Benamin W. Swain, who spoke of "Our Organization" and the Rev. Dr. R. R. Wright who spoke on "Race Progress." Much interest centered around the address delivered by the Rev. H. H. Smith, pastor of Bethany Baptist Church, Syracuse, N. Y.

PLEADS WITH RACE TO WAKE UP

Rev. T. S. Harten of New York in pleading with Negroes throughout the world to awaken out of their seemingly indifferent state, stressed the importance of their fighting discrimination in all its forms. All distinctions as to race were to be fought, and Negroes were told that this is the psychological moment to take some demands upon the nation.

Dr. Harten gave a glowing illustration of what can be done by organizing our forces when he told how he led a demonstration of one thousand Negroes in a silent parade to the city hall in Brooklyn, in protest against the unwarranted assault of a colored woman by a white member of the police force. He led the only protest that was made by our people, and this resulted in an indictment being returned against the white policeman and a sweeping vindication of the race woman involved.

As a result of this stirring incident much interest was created at this meeting and a new unit, the Philadelphia Branch, was organized, with J. S. Waters, president, Mrs. Mary E. Winston, vice-president, Elijah Crump, secretary, Mrs. W. H. Taylor, assistant secretary, and C. S. Whitted, treasurer.

BE SOMEBODY IN POLITICS

Dr. Harten in speaking against discrimination, pleaded with his hearers to support race-controlled Negro enterprises, the idea not to conduct a Negro grocery store, a Negro haberdashery, or a Negro newsstand, etc., but a business concern, a legitimate business—a general utility, for all. After having attained some measure of success in the business world, continued Dr. Harten, you will be a factor worth reckoning with in the political world.

Our near neigber, Mars, paid us a visit recently, that is a near visit, coming a few million miles closer. Our wise men visited various high mountain peaks hoping to have some sort of communication with the Martians. So far, with one exception, we have not heard of any direct exchange of words. The exception was an English savant whose hobby is telepathy, he claims an affinity on the Martian world with which he holds constant communication. Take it or leave it.

HAITIANS ON COL. UMBUS' ANCHOR

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—While the Italians of this city were celebrating the 434th anniversary of the discovery of America by their countryman, Christopher Columbus, others visited the Sesqui-Centennial and saw Columbus' anchor in the Haitian Exhibit. Hatred crept into the minds of many Italians for colored people due to the fact that the anchor they saw, which was the property of their countryman, belongs to Negroes.

It all happened in the year of 1492, when Columbus, with a colored navigator, the greatest of his day, sailed across the Atlantic and was wrecked on the north coast of Haiti, near what is now the port of Petits Anse, near Cape Haitian.

Hidden under the sands for centuries the anchor was finally dug up by the Haitian Government when the sands drifted.

In 1893 the anchor was exhibited at the World's Fair in Chicago and according to reports it nearly passed into private through the lack of funds of the Haitian Commissioners, and a mortgage was placed on it to make up the deficit.

The report reached President Hypolite, of Haiti, who ordered the anchor returned to Haiti and had it safely locked within the palace vaults.

Then in 1912 the palace was blown up in one of the country's uprisings, killing President Lecante. The anchor was found near his body, still intact ,though buried under a mass of ashes and debris.

In 1915 the anchor was found in the possession of a Mr. Aamadee, who had taken it as security for money due him from the government. General Alexander S. Williams, chief of police, claimed the anchor in the name of the Haitian Government and placed it in the hall of the gendarmerie headquarters. The narrow shaft of the anchor measures nine feet two inches in length, and its fluke-spread, from point to point, is almost four feet.

Problem in Religion: What should our theological leaders plead for first, fine churches or fine business and homes of our own? Send all your answers to 1261 E. 45th St.—I dare you!

One of our readers writes: Why not say something that will be of some real good to the woman readers, something that will help to make the home burdens a bit easier. 'Why that is very simple my dear madam. Any human being seeking to get the most out of life, should take lessons from the husbandman seeking to get the richest returns from the soil. It used to be thought that to cultivate many acres superficially was the way was the way to feed the world and enrich the farmer. But the study of the soil as a science has taught us that we must resort, instead, to the intensive farming which gives greater returns from reduced acreage. What is true of the returns earth makes to our granaries, is true of the returns life makes to our spirits. We need a science of intensive living that we may get the larger crop from smaller fields. It will be worked out by women, and it must begin in their domain, which still is, in spite of the sociologists, the home.

Out at the First National Studios we had the opportunity of getting some first hand information about humanity. I worked at this studio and was injured in a mild way and was in need of first aid. Most of the department heads seemed Oh! so very cold toward 'us' and I was a bit shy of going to the first. I entered. I met such a pleasant little lady in charge. I just had to tell you I now have the same old faith in human nature.

LONG BEACH

Mrs. Sarah Holman gave a "So Different" entertainment last Thursday night at her home. Everyone was invited who gave a penny for each year in age. The evening was a very worthy one and Mrs. Holman proved to be a very charming hostess.

Both Rev. Miller of Myrtle Ave. Church and Rev. Harding of the Baptist Church delivered very interesting sermons to a fairly large congregation last Sunday.

Miss Ernestine Holman seems to have become quite a stepper seeing she's a frequent visitor of Los Angeles.

It was overheard that the Tip Top Inn was lighted but empty last Sunday nigt. This only shows that our good citizens preferred to go to church at such a time.

Mrs. Butler entertained her friends with a card party last Friday night. Everyone reports a very enjoyable evening and very dainty refreshments.

Rev. F. W. Williams has recently proved to be quite an unique violinist. More power to you, Reverend.

Mr. E. Richardson and Mr. A. Bradley have been spending most of their time hunting her of late. Long Beac awaits the results but sees nothing.

Miss Dorothy Grice of S. B. U. S. spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. H. Nickerson.

The young males of this city have given up pall hopes seeing Miss Evelyn Richardson has a preferred suitor from Los Angeles of late.

PASADENA

CAN'T MAKE IT

Despite the many attempts to recall the Pasadena City fathers this last attempt of the citizens to have their grievances placed upon the election ballot with the signature of 5000 backing it, they ignominiously failed. It seems from reports that the present officials have met the enemy on their own ground and completely engulfed them. Ever since the present form of government has been in vogue, controversies of every nature hav arisen in practically every department of the city government, and they still go rambling. And as a matter of fact the citizens are wondering if there will ever be any real place. Money works wonders! The prpoposition for paying the firmen and policemen more money carried by a big majority, which will no doubt increase the city taxes, but no wonder what are either of them going to do to earn this extra change. The firemen don't have an average of three serious fires a year, the rest of the time they play quorts; and the police, about all they do is to arrest some speeder, bootlegger or some innocent victim for parking wrong. The increase in the salary is alright but do they earn it?

R. C. COOK WINS PRIZE

The annual flower show held at the otel Huntington recently under the auspices of the Pasadena Horticultural Society was a huge success. R. C. Cook, one of our group, residing on North, Kirkwood, took away the usual prize for his entry. He had on exhibition 24 blooms of six varieties of chrysanthemums and one rose of Zinnias both of which were given the blue ribon. Mr. Cook has gained quite a reputation for his yearly productions. When we consider this show to be one of the finest ever held Mr. Cook deserves special credit for being able to carry away two prizes where the competition was so keen and the great number of entries. No other of our group had any flowers of plants on exhibit and the honor is a signal one, for Mr. Cook.

Drops of water and rays of sunlight—could anything be more harmless? Yet science has taught us that seemingly pure water may contain deadly typhoid germs. Sunlight, too, has it's dangerous elements—the violet rays. Wellsworth Cruxite lenses protect eyes from this invisible danger.

OUR COLORED DOCTORS

Following an established rule of The Pullman Co., the porters of this district went through the motions of being examined by a doctor at the Santa Fe hospital last year. Over two hundred porters were sent to this white doctor for examination which was principally done on papers as far as a thorough physical examination was concerned, either this doctor did not know how to give one, or he was purposely getting by with the least trouble to himself, and the most trouble to the men. The writer was one of his victims, and all he did was to feel his pulse, ask his name and give him a slip of paper signifying that he had examined, and that was all. He did not even look at my teeth or tonsils. Now, how in the world is a man expected to know his condition with an examination of this kind. But still he is drawing the company's good money for work he is supposed to perform, but passes up, taking up much valuable time of the poters, who get no results whatever, other than to be allowed to go back to their runs for another year, perhaps with an ailment which could be remedied with a little medical treatment, if they only knew what it was. We are hoping that the Company will give some of our colored doctors an opportunity to show them what a real doctor can do for the betterment of his race's health, and we are willing to stake our all in all that the general health conditions of the porters will improve a hundred per cent under the supervision of any established colored physician that they would select from the many capable colored doctors now practicing in the city of Los Angeles. Give our Colored Doctors a chance, Mr. Pullman Company!

SEGREGATION AT THE MAJESTIC

Last week an article was published on the sports page of this paper concerning segragation at the Majestic Theatre. It caught the writer's eye on account of some similar experience which I had myself. I reserved a ticket over the phone. Naturally the "Crackers" who are in back of this prejudiced playhouse, did not know who they were reserving the seat for. It was the fourth seat from the isle, and in the fourth row on the main floor. Quite a few were in line when I called at the box office for the ticket, and the ticket clerk gave it to me without question. BUT—when MA Ferguson's son looked the ticket over at the door, he seemed at once to know that a terrible mistake had been made somewhere, and did not have any better sense than to tell me so, requesting me to take the ticket back to the box office and get it exchanged. If you scan the tickets closely you will note that they state: "no exchange made in tickets after they have left the box office." So I stood my ground and politely told the son from Texas that it was his bad luck if there was a mistake and that I would go to court and prove it if he did not believe it, after which yours truly strutted in to his treasured seat and witnessed the play without any further trouble. My advice to the railroad men and anybody else for that matter is, if you want good seats reserve them by phone, then fight it out, the play is worth fighting to see.

TRAFFIC OFFICER McGRUDER PLAYS WITH DUCK

The waiters now operating on the Southern Pacific will remember Mc. who was formerly a waiter for that road. Last week McGruder got quite a little publicity in the evening herald on account of a duck. McGruder directs traffic at 9th and Alameda Sts. While he had his back turned a duck started the autos to honking their horns by refusing to move, whereupon the brave Mc. gathered him unto his arms with fatherly love and carried him to the police station. But the gang kicked up on looking up a duck, so Mc. took him home planning on a Sunday dinner. Evidently the duck smelled a mouse, for when Mc. returned the next day with his appetite all set to go, the duck was gone. Now poor Mc. is singing the "Fow Blues."

H. L. Armstrong takes his sweet women to dine at the Santa Fe eating house now. He says when you eat there you know what you are getting, or is it the rates?

We are at a loss to know why our friend R. Hicks came all the way down to the depot to go out without his grip last week. Oh well, maybe his mind was on the purple dress and you can't blame him for being absent minded.

Can you tell me why Wm. Asbury is always in such a hurry to get off the "Lark" in the depot at Los Angeles?

The boys who operate the regular cars on the "Lark" are singing the blues about the two extra cars 78 and 79 getting all the gravey.

Countee Cullen on Staff

(By A. N. P.)

eNw York, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Countee Cullen, poet and author of Color, whose verse has charmed thousands and captured new friends for the race, has been added to the editorial staff of Opportunity, Journal of Negro Life, published by the National Urban League.

Mr. Cullen's popsition will be that of assistant to the editor, in that magazine's growing work and programs. He will select its poetry and counsel with the hundreds of young writers whose eager demands have long exceeded the magazine's means of attending them adequately. He will contribute occasional articles and conduct a monthly column of substantial discussion on books and personalities, social and literary trends significantly related to the Negro and race relations in general.

One Half Southern

(By A. N. P.)

Tuskegee, Ala., Nov. 4.—Attendance in Negro schools has been studied during the last two years by a committee of the National Association of Teachers in Colored Schools. In March, 1926, The Bulletin, official organ, published a report from this committee which partially bared some of the appalling facts on this subject. The second report, published in full in the November issue of The Bulletin, throws further light on a dark situation. While there are bright spots in the report which may encourage one, the fact remains that one half the Negro children between the ages of seven and twenty-one are out of school all the time and that many of those in school do not attend a sufficient length of time to do a good year's work.

Protests "Jim Crow" Policy Of Starr Piano Company

LOUIS MICHEL VIGOROUSLY ATTACKS THEIR PROGRAM AND REFUSES TO RE-ENTER THEIR EMPLOY.

Mr. Louis Michel, well-known saiesman for the Starr Piano Company, smarting under the brazen injustice, heaped upon the Colored citizens by the adoption of "Jim Crow" methods, promptly resigned rather than follow the r program of hate and injustice.

For Michel to resign meant that he sacrificed a position which he had builded himself and was worth to him in excess of $4000.00 annually.

The California Eagle feels justified in publishing in full Mr. Michel's letters to the Starr Piano Company and let the world know of the willing sacrifice of such a dauntless character as Mr. Michel, whose sincerity for the cause of human rights is so practically demonstrated.

The letters follow one another in the order sent and are self explanatory:

Los Angeles, Calif.,
September 3, 1926.

Mr. A. J. ROBINSON,
Salesman and Sales Manager,
Starr Piano Company, City.

My Dear Sir: I believe, Mr. Robinson, the time has come, when through the unfortunate, and perhaps, especially purposed move of Mr. Fred Gennett, to give to our Ethiopians twice as heavy terms as he grants to the Caucasians, as announced 10% down payment for Negroes and only 5% down payment for Whites on a new Piano, I am now compelled to tender to you my resignation as a salesman from the Starr Piano Company.

It would be entirely impossible for me to work under this new stipulation of Mr. Gennett, as I am a full-fledged American citizen, though an adopted one, and as such I believe not only in the great life work of Abraham Lincoln and in our much quoted Constitution of the United States, but I believe with the same ardor in our State Constitution of California, giving to our Negro population, who are all citizens of this State, as they become of age, excepting idiots and criminals, the same civic and industrial rights in letter and theory at least, as are given to the rest of the people of this state.

The ukase of Mr. Gennett with one fell stroke charging Negroes twice as heavy a down payment as he charges White persons is neither in harmony with our State nor our National Constitution, as both these documents call for the same equal treatment of all of our citizens.

Secondly, I am a member and have been a dues-paying member for years of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. I am in this capacity on an equal footing, not only with Negroes, but these men and women, who are all members of this organization: Clarence Darrow, eminent Jurist, Chicago; Mr. Moorfield Storey, great lawyer, Boston; Mr. Garrison Villard, famed grandson of his still greater famed grandfather, Lloyd Garrison—the Editor of the Nation; Miss Ovington, novelist and celebrated newspaper woman and hundreds of other celebrities and members of the Caucasian race, that are interested in the uplift and the welfare of the Negro race.

As a member of this organization I am compelled in accordance with the pledge I have taken to report the terms of discrimination in piano deals, as evolved by Mr. Gennett toward the Negro. Such a distasteful mission, having been so many years both with the Starr Company, as well as with the above named organization, cannot be maintained by any man with honor and character or real true Americanism about him and at the same time serve his principle as well as Mr. Gennett.

I consider the ruling of Mr. Gennett, made here in Los Angeles, as a ruling, if carried out, affecting the rights as citizens of 13 millions of Negroes in this country alone, and 300 millions of Negroes scattered throughout the five continents of the earth.

And how would his ruling affect the other brown and colored types of mankind: Chinese, Japanese, Mexicans, Filipinos, Indians, Egyptians, Hindus and does Mr. Gennett know that the Jews are not real Caucasians, but truthfully are up to this day members of the Semitic, not the Caucasian, tribes? Perhaps, he knows that I am a Jew, and his ruling, since I am not a Caucasian, but a true Semite, may be also made against me personally.

You see, Mr. Robinson, when a man begins to rule on racial grounds he ventures into dangerous and disastrous territory. The exact line between commercialism and Americanism cannot be interpreted by any man, neither myself, nor Mr. Gennett, nor anyone else, without committing a terrible blunder against somebody or something, as in the same establishment of Mr. Gennett, it would be a grievous moral crime, if not a commercial abrogation of our dearest American civic rights to measure out with two different measures the terms of Piano deals.

I myself cannot be a party to such an unfair policy, because I have not in my heart to charge at any time a Negro any higher terms than I would a White man, and would rather give up my position first, than commit such a serious offence against my adopted country. And how Mr. Robinson, would your own salesmen's organization fare under this unfair ruling of Mr. Gennett? To have two kinds of salesmen selling under different terms would break the disciplinary unfortunately of the toil of your men and women.

And suppose a colored customer would bring a white friend as a customer, or a white patron would bring a colored friend, for you can never break friendship of neighbors and loyal friends apart, how would Mr. Gennett's edict work out then? You see that from all attitudes the ruling of Mr. Gennett is not equitable and I cannot toil under it.

Thanking you for all your courtesies of the past days, I am,

Very truly yours,
LOUIS MICHEL,
2631 Mansfield Ave.

Los Angeles, Calif.,
September 11, 1926.

MR. A. J. ROBINSON,
Salesmen and Sales Manager
Starr Piano Co.,
330 S. Hill street.

My Dear Sir: Your splendid re-offer of yesterday to continue in the position as Salesman of the Starr Piano Company, a trusted position I have held for nearly 10 years, is highly appreciated, but, when the rule was laid down by your firm that Negroes would have to pay a down payment on new Pianos of 10% of the selling price whilst other races can have these same new Pianos delivered on a down payment of only 5%, after a very reflective reconsideration and mental diagnosis of the whole matter, I have decided that I cannot accept your liberal, and yet illiberal offer, made to me in your apparently kindliest spirit toward me, and again I must accept the call of my higher duty and decline the proferred position, from which I had resigned on the 3rd of September, under the ruling laid down by Mr. Fred Gennett, one of the responsible heads of the Starr Piano Company.

Human rights are far greater than property rights and the individual right of Mr. Fred Gennett, as spokesman of the Starr Piano Company, to charge for a new Piano a down payment of 10% of the selling price to the Negro, whilst a Caucasian can purchase the same goods with a down payment of only 5%, is absolutely denied by the constitution of this country as well as the State of California, as both these documents stand for the same commercial, industrial and civic rights of all of our citizens.

If some Negroes have been bad payers and a few of them very dishonest skippers that took their inistruments along with them in a thievish way, when they left this territry in possession of their unpaid Phonographs, the few hundred dollars lost in this way by the Starr Piano Company are more than offset by the many thousands, aye, tens of thousands of dollars the Starr Piano Company has made through the big Negro trade I have personally brought to them. But have not some White buyers of your instruments been equally unfaithful to their obligations and dishonest in their refusals to pay

Knights of Pythias, E. & W. H., Succeed In Financing Their Own Temple Project

The novel financing scheme concerning the Pythian Headquarters Building (Ruggles Building, Cor. of Ruggles nd Washington street, Boston, Mass.) of the Knights of Pythias, Eastern and Western Hemispheres, has been accomplished.

This property was purchased June 1, 1921, at a cost of $210,000, the two original owners taking back a second mortgage of $85,000; each owning $42,500 of same. On June 1, 1926, (5 years from date of purchase) the first and second mortgages had been reduced by $58,000. The second mortgage, owned jointly by the two men holding $42,5000 each, had been reduced to $22,500 each. From the beginning, stock had been sold at $5.00 per share to the members of the Fraternity (all Common Stock.)

On May 26, 1926, the idea was conceived of the Supreme Lodge buying the remainder of half of the second mortgage ($22,500) and selling same, bearing 6% interest, to the members of the Fraternity in such proportions as the members desired to purchase. On the 13th day of September, 1926, the entire amount of $22,500 had been paid in, notes issued and all transactions were consummated by Thos. G. Schuyler, Chairman of the Trustee Board, and Geo. E. Gordon, Sup. Keeper of Records and Seal.

This is believed to be the first instance of a fraternal organization giving its own members the opportunity to buy stock and own mortgage notes on the one piece of property, thereby making the entire proposition financially secure.

The Knights of Pythias, Eastern and Western Hemispheres, was organized January 22, 1889. Its manner of conducting its affairs, keeping inviolate every promise to its members, thereby holding their loyalty and confidence, has been evidenced in the unhesitating response in this instance.

W. Ashbie Hawkins, of Baltimore, Md., is serving his 11th biennial term as Supreme Chancellor.

S. B. Danley, Receives Fine Testimonial

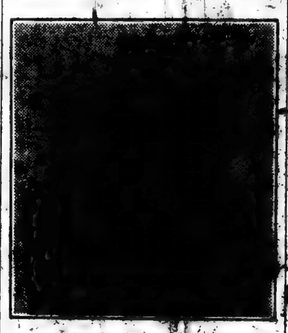
On the evening of November 15, the Zion Methodist Church at Pico and Paloma Streets, presented an animated scene.

The occasion was a rousing testimonial tendered Mr. S. B. Danley, Jr., of Pasadena and Los Angeles, who is about to leave this city to take up Urban League Work in Springfield, Illinois.

Mr. Danley has enjoyed the distinction of being Los Angeles County's only Colored probation officer, during the past three years, during which time he discharged his official duties in such manner as to win the respect and esteem of all who came in contact with him. His departure will be greatly regretted.

Among those present, who availed themselves of the occasion to laud Mr. Danley and his work, were Dr. Marian Van Waters, Referee of the Juvenile Court, Girls' Department; Mr. Prescott, Chief Probation Officer, Boys' Department; Rev. Bean and Mrs. Katherine Barr, of the Urban League, and many other prominent persons.

Chairman of the Committee on this occasion, and Mistress of Ceremonies, was Miss Georgia A. Robinson, pioneer social worker of the group in Los Angeles.



Mr. Danley leaves for Oakland, California, on Thursday, November 18th; on the 20th he will be married, in the northern city, to Miss Theresa Harper. Mr. Danley met Miss Harper in Los Angeles two years ago, while she was the house guest of Miss Marian Robinson. Miss Harper is a charming young lady, and made a host of friends during her visit here.

Mr. Danley's departure for other fields will be a distinct loss to the group and to the community at large.

However, a host of friends and admirers join in wishing him success and happiness wherever he may elect to live and work.

Majestic "Jim-Crow" Theatre Adds Insult To Injury

Not satisfied with segregating the colored patrons of the theatre the Majestic Theatre management is now trying to ignore Negro business by attempting to avoid payment for displayed ads they placed in the colored papers at the opening of the show. It is reported that this will develop into a triple law suit if not paid.

ATTY. MACBETH TO ADDRESS N. A. A. C. P.

The regular meeting of the Los Angeles Branch will be held Monday, November [illegible] 8:00 P. M. Business of great importance to be brought before the meeting. All are urged to be present. A. M. E. Zion Church, Pico and Paloma.

Dedication Of The New "Y" A Milestone On The Path Of Progress

At the corner of 28th and Paloma stands a mile-stone. A mile-stone than which no other, on any other highway stands for as much in hope, ideals and achievements or points the way through safe-guarded byepths more directly to a successful life. And this is the new Y. M. C. A. building which was dedicated Sunday, November 14.

Long before the opening hour over 500 cars had parked in every available space in the vicinity, and groups of pedestrians headed from all directions of the city constantly poured in to swell the great crowd. The magnet that was drawing them was the fact that a monument to the faith, energy, and perseverance of our group was about to be dedicated and in the great throng were seen practically all of our representative citizens, whom it would be a pleasure to name if space permitted.

That the Los Angeles Negro community, one of the newest in the cities of the nation should in so short a time metamorphose into such a unity of purpose as to make such a building possible, reflects the greatest credit upon our citizens. The building committee who deserves special credit were: C. Burchmal, D. C. Hamilton, E. P. Clark, F. C. Eckhart, I. C. Louis, H. F. Henderson, Jas. G. Warren, W. F. Holt, and R. J. Reed, in co-operation with a committee of members of the 28th Street Branch. The bulding is the most beautiful in architecture of any throughout the country, of a Spanish motif in brown surfaced concrets, with white stone ornamental facings and blue trimming, and with a roof of red Granada tile. The two great lobbies on the main floor, one for boys and the other for men, with high vaulted walls, the various indoor games, beautiful overstuffed furniture, the spacious, well equipped gym, the cozy, airy and sanitary bed rooms; and a beautiful white tiled swimming pool were all objects of interest. All the week visitors from all over the city and vicinity have been welcomed, and many were the congratulations received by Executive Secretary, Mr. T. A. Greene, who has so faithfully labored for this new institution. Also the very able boys work director, Harold E. Wilson, and the physical director, Jefferson Brown, received their share of well earned praise.

The following program was rendered and the doors thrown open to the men and boys of the city.

PACIFIC BEACH BONE OF CONTENTION

BATTLE LOOMS BETWEEN PRESIDENT CHARTER MEMBERS BOARD AND MAJORITY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

At the last meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pacific Beach Club, there was presented a petition of considerably more than one half of the members of the club praying for the consideration of the question of getting the r money on the golden premises of procuring a good beach club house, dancing pavilion, bath house etc., on the Pacific Beach near Huntington Beach.

Indeed there was built a bath house, dance pavillion, which immediately went up-in smoke. The promoter Hal R. Clark, tried devious ways to refinance and go ahead but to no avail.

The Board of Directors adopted the watchful waiting policy. During the interim foreclosure proceedings were inaugurated and the charter members themselves became restless and a movement was started and dubbed "The Money Back Club'. At the last meeting of the Board this club consisting of charter members, presented the demand for their money back. This being considerably more than a majority. A majority at the Board of Directors, heeding the call of their constituents, ordered a meting called for November 22nd to the end that the members might be heard and then to further consider what course to take.

This was indeed a sensible and sane course of action of which no reasonable person could take exceptions.

As a matter of fact it was a courtesy due the members by the board which is but the creature of the members themselves.

To complicate the situation however, the president, Attorney E. Burton Ceruti, in defiance of the order of the board, has called a meeting and in the call proposes to bar all who want their money back from participating. We sense trouble in this move for we know the temper of the people in the premises, and we miss our guess if they will for one moment stand for any such procedure.

There is no getting away from the fact that despite the fact that 99 per cent of the members went into the proposition with the loftiest intention and visualized a beach home for the race. That developments have arisen which make the original proposition a phantom, an [illegible] dream there is absolutely no doubt.

The people have in mind all the preceeding great and fabulous stories about these rainbow propositions, and bearing in mind the fate of past ventures, they are satisfied that they will indeed do well to get their money back at all.

They have not forgotten Peaceful Valley, Castine, Long Pauch and Hokoo Lillie, cabin sites, Country Homes etc. Also they bask in recollection fo Santa Monica Beach frontage as well as the other beaches and are in no frame of mind to be trifled with and if there is any way to get their money back they seem to want it and to want it badly indeed.

The situation is tense and we opine the sledding will be rough for somebody before the case is settled unless there is some changing of fronts.

Gus Mason Leaves For Montana

Unperturbed by the icy chills of the Montana mountains, valleys and deserts, Mr. Augustus Mason va Tuesday evening of last week departed from the land of sunshine and flowers in answer to the call of his old haunts and life long friends.

Gus Mason has become a mist of fixtures in and about the California Eagle office known for his genial disposition, affable and companionable manner and a real booster. Bounty of thought and action. The boys will be a mannest hated to see the genial old veteran of Montana days and truly Gus when the time comes, just had need of a dimmest in his eyes as he waits on all good-byes, and shall we say gone but not will see him again.

They have not forgotten Peaceful Valley, Castine, Long Pauch and Hokoo Lillie, cabin sites, Country Homes etc. Also they bask in recollection fo Santa Monica Beach frontage as well as the other beaches and are in no frame of mind to be trifled with and if there is any way to get their money back they seem to want it and to want it badly indeed.

The situation is tense and we opine the sledding will be rough for somebody before the case is settled unless there is some changing of fronts.

November eleventh: Armistice Day. City, village, hamlet, the wide open spaces, all throughout the United States the millions stood with bared heads as they sang the Star Spangled Banner. "Home of the brave and the land of the free," or saluted the colors as they were carried by. In California patriotism was manifest throughout the state. Orations, eulogistic of those who "fought, bled and died" that the world might be saved to democracy" came from fervid lips. John L. McNab, San Francisco, speaking on the site of the War Memorial, said, "This splendid monument which we here meet to dedicate is a tribute to a noble sacrifice." President Coolidge speaking from the base of the War Monument in Kansas City, Mo., said, "America first." In Texas they celebrated the day by the burning to death of three Negroes, one of them a WOMAN.

Who knows but that those two Negro men were among the number who, eight years ago, leaped from the filth and slime of the trench in France and with joyous shouts acclaimed the return of peace t othe world. Who knows but what those two charred and mutilated bodies were the remains of a vigorous manhood who had offered themselves to make the "world safe for democracy." To make America first: They to, may have stood at attention and swelled with pride as the song of their country was carried by and sang with voices thrilled with patriotic fervor, "My country 'tis of thee." America may swell with pride and boast of its Christ'an civilization, but the fiendish atrocity which snuffed out the lives of those two Negro men and one Negro WOMAN has splotched its escutcheon with a bloody stain.

Walter Cohen's home folk do not take kindly to the ballot. New Orleans, roughly speaking, has a Negro population of nine hundred, and seven have exercised the right of suffrage. We guess that it is the same in most places. The colored brother placed slight value on the privilege of suffrage and minimized the power of the ballot.

With the passing of Joseph C. Cannon, one of the most picturesque characters of American politics bade his exit from the stage. "Uncle Joe" was one of the old school, a firm believer in party loyalty. To his political enemies he gave no Quarter, nor asked none. No man in public life was ever so hated politically and personally loved. Very few of the statesmen of that day remain aside from ex-Senator Chauncey M. Depew.

OPTICIAN MAKES STARTLING DISCLOSURES

The fact that dangerous disease germs may be hidden within the tissues of the body without their presence becoming known even after a medical examination is a fact that was strikingly disclosed by Dr. Guidero, 931 Central Avenue last week.

He is one of the leading Optometrists and Opticians of the city, having been in business there enjoying a large practice for several years past.

Finding several of his patients in his demonstrations, Dr. Guidero demonstrated that not only could he ascertain the least defect in the eye but also if an ailment of any nature was about to begin its ravages on the system. The principal instrument used for this is a very delicate but wonderfully powerful new invention called the Giantescope which not only shows clearly the condition of acqueous and vitreous humor, but also throws as on a screen, an X-Ray view of the retina at the back of the eye, and the tiny net work of blood-vessels surrounding it.

Dr. Guidero will leave on December 15th to the 28th for Sacramento, for his first vacation in three years, and after his return has many new ideas and improvements for the benefit of his growing practice.

HEART FAILURE AND THE REMEDY

"For innumerable evils have compassed me about; mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me." Ps. 40:12.

David's past experience had been glorious. He knew this Psalm by heart. He waited patiently for the Lord and He inclined unto me and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock and established my goings. He hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God. Many shall see it, fear and shall trust in the [illegible] delight to do thy will, O God. Thy law is within my heart" and "I have preached righteousness in the great congregation. I have not refrained my lips."

His experience has been so glorious that he has been a prototype of Christ himself.

A Terrible Confession

But now the Psalmist is making a most humiliating confession. He is in a backslidden condition. He has temporarily lost out. He takes the matter to God and pleads for mercy, for the exercise of divine loving kindness toward him. He has sinned, not once but many times.

"Now these things were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope." Ro. 15:1-4.

You may be ashamed to confess it publicly, it may not be best for you to do so, it might not edify, but are you backslidden? It is not what you may say to others, it is what God knows. It is what your own heart knows.

Hope for Us

Well, here is hope for you. Here is your prayer. Lay hold and pray it. Don't give up and deny God's holiness. There is a remedy for the failing heart.

David had heart failure, not physical, maybe, though sometimes that comes as a result of spiritual struggle and uncertainty, and God must need be the strength of our heart as well as our portion forever. But David had heart failure.

When sin takes hold on us the heart fails—it fails in courage, in resolution, in assurance, in love, in understanding, even in patience and happiness.

It fails so that the body feels afflicted when there is nothing really the matter.

Tangled Affairs

But more than that, David's affairs had got tangled. This trouble arose and that trouble, this confusion and distress and that — "innumerable evils." How the devil loves to torment us when we lose the power, the heavenly connection, the holy assurance. "I am not able to look up," he said. He was like the publican who could only smite himself upon the breast. He did not feel worthy to lift his eye toward heaven. He didn't want to look him in the face nor look up to God. Oh, surely the wages of sin is death — death to bodily vigor and comfort, death to the courage, happiness and assurance of the soul.

"My sins are many. I have not offended just once. My sins are more than the hairs of my head." When God deals with conscience, every sin must be seen, by conscience confessed and forsaken. Sin seems at such times to magnify and multiply itself. When we compare all it does not seem to be sin, but whatever the result is great, the sense of degradation and, loss!

When sin does reckon with us the heart fails us. The very flesh feels captured and abused. My heart faileth me.

The Remedy

My heart faileth me. The unfailing mercy of God is the remedy. Have you applied the remedy? Have you made peace with God? How is your heart today? Get to God with it. He will cure you. He will Himself be strength to your heart. In a nation of heart failures you will have an upholding arm beneath, a sure remedy.

—Amen.

Urban League Reports On Industry For October

Bulletin No. 3 of the Industrial Relations Department of the National Urban League summarizes employment conditions throughout the country as follows:

Labor conditions remain practically unchanged throughout the country. This report comes from such widely scattered districts as Michigan, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Georgia, Missouri, Indiana, Texas, Arkansas, Kentucky, Illinois and New York.

Migration

There is still a movement of labor in the cotton areas of Missouri, Texas and Arkansas. An advisor from Texas estimates that there is a demand for 50,000 cotton pickers in that state. St. Louis reports an influx of workers during the last few months—most of them from the North. Colored families are leaving St. Paul because of lack of industrial opportunities. Two factories there which had promised to try a few colored workers now say that they cannot take them on at this time.

Discrimination

Colored waiters in Pershing Palace, Chicago, were replaced by white when a change was made in the management. A call received at the Brooklyn Y. M. C. A. from Philadelphia for a designer was withdrawn when a colored man was sent to apply for the position.

Organized Labor

The fifty colored members of the Paper Box Makers' Union in New York have been taking an active part in the strike of 2,500 paper box workers. On the other hand, there is an attempt being made to break the strike by the use of colored girls. An effort is being made to organize unskilled labor in Harrisburg, Pa. Colored girls in one factory in Chicago have started a movement to organize since the date workers have gone on strike there.

Favorable Conditions Reported

Chicago: There are openings in the lamp shade industry, date factories, and an increasing demand for power machine operatives. Calls are coming from parts of Illinois and Indiana for railway section hands.

New York: A coal company has employed a Negro salesman. There is a demand for track workers at 42 cents an hour.

Winston-Salem: Fifteen thousand Negroes are employed in the tobacco factories of Winston-Salem—13,000 being hired by one company. There is a gain in street repair work.

Hot Springs, Ark.: There has been a gain for colored workers in the building trades, farm labor, and in the sawmills. Several office buildings have engaged colored girls as elevator operators.

Louisville: The influence of the British coal strike is being felt in the Kentucky coal mine, where wages have been increased during the past few weeks and there is a demand for colored miners.

Milwaukee: A large drug store in this city employed a colored man as head of its stock department, two colored men have been employed by a large shoe store, and 15 chamber maids have been placed in a new hotel. Conditions generally are greatly improved in Milwaukee and factories are showing signs of returning to their normal schedules.

Boston: Slight openings for colored men have been made at the new Ford plant by the Boston Urban League.

Interested? Yes! Dance Thursday, the night in Elks Auditorium. Best of music.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS WITH A PARTY AT CHRISTIAN TAVERN

The Christian Tavern was a scene of beauty on last Monday evening, not alone in decorations and the soft, glowing lights which blended perfectly with the surroundings, but also the elegantly attired ladies in their evening costumes who tripped the light fantastic to the strains of the melodious music or played at cards with their equally well-groomed escorts.

Those fortunate enough to be present were the evening's guests of Mrs. E. L. Williams and Mrs. W. J. Sims, both of whom spared no effort to make the occasion one round of joy and pleasure for all. The success of these ideal hostesses was attested by each and everyone upon their departure at mid-night by their sincere appreciation of the lovely entertainment furnished.

AMERICAN WOODMEN DRIVE GOES OVER THE TOP; TO CLOSE NOVEMBER 30

The Silver Jubilee Membership Enrollment and Home Coming conducted by the Los Angeles camps of the American Woodmen simultaneously with six hundred other camps in twenty-six states has been a complete success, according to the announcement made public by Benjamin H. Graham, Supervisor for the Order in the State of California. The gigantic task of securing twenty-five thousand new members in ninety days was planned by the Supreme Executive Council to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the Order. The quota for the Los Angeles camps was set at five hundred new members for the period of the drive, September 1st to November 30th, and a special dispensation fee of approximately one-third of the usual joining fee was put into effect. "So general has been the response of the people of Los Angeles to this unusual opportunity offered by the giant Negro fraternals that we are more than pleased with the results," said Mr. Graham, and he adds further, "it proves conclusively that the American Woodmen have gained the confidence of the people by honestly fulfilling every promise made." The high-light of the campaign was the obligation of three hundred new members on the night of September 24th. As a result of the rapid increase in the membership, Camp No. 5 was organized by the Supervisor in October and Chas. L. Daniels was added to the force of deputies, bringing the number of salaried field men working out of the Los Angeles office up to four, J. E. Rector and H. K. Watkins being the other deputies, with Mrs. Callie V. Johnson as special field worker. The membership enrollment will close Tuesday night, November 30, with a mammoth home coming program.

GLADYCE GREENAWAY

Well, folks, we guess you are saving your appetites for that good old Thanksgiving dinner. Last Saturday, if everyone can recall that far back, there was quite a strong wind blowing over our fair city, which almdst blew Roger Boyd off the streets. We suggest that he eat a lot of "cold turkey" to keep him on earth.

The Girl Reserves started this year's program with a wonderful program at the Second Baptist Church which proved quite a sensation. Speeches by our Miss Gladys Mathonican and Miss Lucille Martin, advisor, were enthusiastically received by the audience. Selections rendered by the quartet composed of the Misses Velma White, Florence Cadres, Maudine Simmons and Agnes Johnson were beautifuly sung and an encore had to be given.

We wonder who will get the prize as L. A.'s best dressed girl on the 17th?

We wish to congratulate Miss Lucille Forby on reaching her 16th birthday. A little house party was given by the fair hostess last Sunday. Mr. Haven Johnson (who is sporting a rather effective moustache, a la John Gilbert) at the piano. Ione from Hollywood was rushing a "high yellow." Hey, Hey!

The following is dedicated to Mr. John Pettigrew of Jeff High:

"Oh, will I weep!
"Oh, will I pine!
I am bereft of half my mind
Because a maiden will not say
'I love you.'"

The above mentioned maiden is a West-side belie. (Not dumb-bell.)

ROLL CALL

It is getting along toward the closing of the year and the beginning of another year and roll call is in order on the propositions which have been promised the people and have never come to pass.

We warn all the valiant warriors for racial progress to get ready for roll call.

LOOK FOR A GREAT RECORD

We look for a wonderful record from Congressman elect Joesph Crail, and feel that we shall not be disappointed. He is a man who will never betray the confidence of the people, and they can rest assured that he will always give to the people the very best there is in him.

ENVIOUS PROPAGANDA

Just as we predicted, quite a holler came forth from the announcement of Roland Hayes' betrothal to one of Europe's nobility. But before the reaction had fairly set in a denial from the singer was forthcoming and it developed that it was only propaganda to destroy his coming concert tour. In other words the story came from envious souls who could not stand to see this black boy sing his way into the hearts of the people.

It is fair to say that the effort to destroy him in this manner fell flat, and that Hayes is on his way to higher and greater heights than he has ever achieved before.

STREET RAILWAY FARE ADVANCE

The advance of 2 cents for local fares on the Los Angeles Railway which is now before the Railroad Commission, promises no serious opposition, from the fact that the Company has always played fair and given to the public every possible consideration. A broad gauged management; before the war, during the war, and since the war, evidently has refrained from seeking any advance just as long as it was possible to do so. Therefore taking into consideration all of the elements in the situation there is little wonder that there is but feeble opposition to the company's request.

WHAT WILL THE HARVEST BE?

With the incoming state administration, we are expecting to witness a new era, in so far as giving recognition to our group is concerned. The fact cannot be disputed that the colored vote soured on Richardson and he could not command 25 per cent of the same for the primaries. The reason that the colored vote failed him was his consistent refusal to in any manner give this part of his constituency any recognition whatever. Therefore, when they had the opportunity to express their disapproval they did so in no uncertain manner. The returns from the black belt in Los Angeles tells the story; 99 per cent of the precincts voted against the governor an dthis ratio holding out all through the Southland, gained impetus in the north and was indeed a vital factor in Governor Richardosn's defeat.

And now it is squarely up to the incoming adminstration to profit by the mistake of its predecessor and not fail to recognize this vital force which meant so much for its success. We wait and wonder, what will the harvest be.

DOES IT PAY TO ADVERTISE ?

The following letter from an advertiser is a practical demonstraton that it does pay to advertise. All local readers know the writer of this letter well. If there is any doubt as to the genuineness of the same they have but to ask him does advertising pay. We appreciate the high compliment which he pays the "Soaring Eagle" in the premises and we quote it for the illuminating and matter of fact information which it gives to the public.

"Cuban Dream Laboratories, 'Tuxedo Finish'
"Los Angeles, Calf., Nov. 2, 1926.

"Mrs. C. A. Bass, Editor, California Eagle,
"Dear Madam:—

"Having run an advertisement, exclusively in The Eagle, fro the past month, we wish to inform you that we are positive that Eagle Advertsing pays exceptional dividends.

"We have received mail orders from Venice, Santa Monica, Riverside, Oakland, and Bakersfield, in addition to many local orders and inquiries.

"We feel that our advertisement in The Eagle is largely responsible for our great success in putting the sales of "TUXEDO FINISH" (Brilliantine Pomade) over the top. Kindly run our ad permanently and find our check enclosed.

"And May She Soar On and On———.
"Sincerely Yours,
"GEORGE—W. CALDWELL, Pres.
"Cuban Dream Laboratories,
"1384 Newton St., Los Angeles, Calif."

Following this another enthusiastic booster for printers' ink composes the following contribution and indeed we feel that we have established a stated case: that it pays to advertise.

Does It Pay To Advertise?

The Ostrich is great but modest;
Her ways, to many, seem the oddest.
In wilds remote from trumphet sounders,
She lays a lot of eggs,.....three pounders,
Which means that each is worth two dozen
Of those of Mrs. Hen, her cousin.
But since she wants each egg to quicken
And evolute an Ostrich Chicken,
She heaps the sand to incubate them
And leads no band to celebrate them.

The hen is far more enterprising;
She knows the world of advertising.
She drops one ovoid, small and pearly,
But tells about it good and early.
"An egg"! she cackles. "See! I made it!"
And all the barnyard knows she laid it.
She makes a most tremendous racket
Until her "kut-kut-kut-kedaket!"
Is taken up by all the Roosters....
That little group of Serious BOOSTERS.

Spencer Williams.

WE TAKE THE PEOPLES PROGRAM.

Some of us who are inclned to stand at all times for the interests of the massess, have been notified that we may come to a certain meeting if we are prepared to take his program. We wish to remark that the day has long since passed, for us to be placed in such a position and that whenever we attend any meeting it is always with the interest of the most people in the forefront.

The sorors of Upsilon Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority have formed a new organization. This new organization is composed of six young women who are pledged to become members of Upsilon Chapter. The name of this organization is the Pyramid Club. It was organized the 12th day of October by Juanita Ellsworth who was appointed the Dean of the pledges. The officers are Pres. Bennie Mae Pryor; Vice-Pres., Verlee Dandridge; Sec., Helen Ross; Treas., Olethia Smith; Parl. Leona City; Sargent-at-Arms, Elsie K. Washington.

At the regular meeting of the chapter last Friday evening a little Pyramid pin was placed on each of the members of the club.

A very pleasant evening was spent.

VOCATIONAL COOKING CLASS

The Thursday Vocational Cooking Class for Adults has had such a large attendance that another meeting day has been arranged. There will now be two classes—one on Tuesday from 2 to 4 p. m. and one on Thursday from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. The Thursday class is particularly for those who are out to service and who cannot come at any other time. As long as there is room in the Thursday class, persons having the time and the desire to do so may attend both classes. The first meeting of the Tuesday class was small and we hope that more people can arrange to attend that class so we will not be obliged to discontinue it. The regular Thursday class will meet on Monday next week because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

COURT SOLOMON'S DOINGS
By M. Denton, Jr.

As is customary when it held forth in commemorating any event, Court Solomon No. 8677. Ancient Order of Foresters, was host to a most pleasing and satisfactory assembly on Friday night, November 12th. The event marked the 29th anniversary of this Order, and from the exotic spirit that predominated on this occasion, it was clearly indicative that Court Solomon may assuredly look forward to the enjoyment of as many more prosperous years.

A splendid program was the offering of the evening, featuring the "Forrester's Wonder Band," under Prof. John C. Spikes, and the Forresters' Drill Corp, both of whom gave wonderful demonstrations of the results to be obtained under versatile leadership.

After the hour had grown late the crowd began to depart, expressing its keen enjoyment of the program and the refreshments and praising the order for its congenial hospitality.

PHILADELPHIA ROYAL GIANTS DEFEAT WHITE RIVALS IN WINTER LEAGUE

Los Angeles, Calif.—Two great days is the record of the Royal Giants on Saturday and Sunday last, at White Sox Park in the Coast's Winter League Baseball. Saturday's game was played in a driving wind that whirled the dust in the players' eyes and cut down the attendance but did not keep the determined Giants from holding down the fighting All Stars to a lone tally made by Fonseca. Stearns, the Phillies' center fielder, made one of their two runs while Mackey, third baseman, dropped a sweet fly over the right field fence for the other one.

Mackey did other great work in stealing second, and third and in double plays to Allen and Mothell Harney pitched for the Giants, Pullen caught while Koapal and Pirrone were batteries for the All Stars.

Saturday's game was the shortest of the season, 1 hour and 16 minutes.

Sunday saw a bright, warm day with nearly 500 cheering, screaming cushion-throwing fans crowding the stands. Almost an equal number of these were of the fairer sex in bright-colored summer costumes sprinkling color through the crowd. It was a sensational game with the Giants fighting from a handicap of 8 to 2 in the 4th session piling up 12 more runs in the next 4 and allowing the All Stars only 1 more. The game was replete with sensational plays and good work on both sides.

Regan, Giant captain, pitched 3½ of the opening innings out after two doubles had been made on him decided to pull himself. So with the real generalship he displays he put in Harney who held the romping White Kings down and made himself the hero of the day. Duncan caught the game working all over as usual.

The All Stars used up five ppitchers trying to offset the Giants batting streak. Lonnie Goodwin's excellent management has made a real plant of the park and efficiency shows throughout.

Sunday's game, though only an 8-inning game was the longest of the season running almost to darkness with 2 hours and 29 minutes. Below are the returns:

NIL NISI BONUMS BEAT WILSHIRE OLYMPIC 12 TO 7

The fighting team of Nil Nisi Bonums beat the crack Wilshire Olympic at Snyder's field Sunday, Nov. 13 in a hard fought game. Rossen was the hero of the game and responsible for the winning tallies. Martin caught some good passes and the boys on both sides put out some real work.

Blooms Again in Greater Glory---"The Legion Club

"So the Legion Club has opened again" is the word that passed along the White Way when on Thursday night Nov. 18 the lights flashed on in the big familiar sign on Twelfth Street near Central. The faithful patrons of the Legion Club hail the news with joy for after all it is in a class by itself, besides being an especial pride of the ex-soldiers. Those beautiful walls alone are a study in themselves; a veritable art gallery that hardly any artist could surpass for paintings, that represent the happiness, the music love, the love for dancing and pleasure that the world realizes is so characteristic of our versatile race. Added to this the wonderful dreamy lights, a large glassy unobstructed dancing floor, plenty of seats and excellent service, and let joy be unconfined. For the musical feast a brand new orchestra has just arrived from Mexico City where it has played before president Calles and other notables and brings some of the thrilling passionate Spanish music, as well as the very latest editions of cut toe-tickling, tantalizing American jazz. Everything new and renovated and open nightly with a lineup of good entertainers, everybody will visit this wonderful night-club.

"CALIFORNIA BEAR" LANDS 15 SECOND KNOCK-OUT

Column writers would starve trying to write up the fights of Mack House, the great light-heavy brought out by Watson Burns, the renowned producer of champions. For Mack House ends up his fights too soon. Here is the fight by rounds, Monday night at the Compton arena between he and Charles Seminoff:

ROUND ONE

They shake hands. Seminoff lands light left to face. House lands a couple of left jabs, then bing! He shoots a hard, straight right to Seminoff's chin and goes down for the full count. Two prelims Billalobas vs. Woodworth, McDaniels vs. Lavore, a special, Leal vs. Lomeli and a semi, Brown vs. Cardenaz, filled out the night's card.

Jack Thompson Gets O'Brien Plum on 23rd

Jack Thompson

Of course it is hard for the fans to understand why Johnny Adams, conqueror of "Tamable Tommy" O'Brien did not get handed over to the tender mercies of Thompson's ready right, but nevertheless they meet in the same ring at the Olympic Auditorium that Silver met his Waterloo. It really looks like easy pickings for Young Jack but then Tommy might come out of that shadow he seemed to be under with Adams. Thompson, fresh from a win over Algier and Makagon at Frisco has a world of confidence in himself of stopping the erstwhile "killer" in a few paragraphs. They square off on the 23rd and a packed house is expected.

WILLS' CONQUEROR IS TIED UP

NEW YORK.—All signed up and no place to go appears to be the situation of Jack Sharkey.

In a splash of gratitude for the opportunity Humbert J. Fugazy gave him to reach the pugilistic summit through the medium of the Wills fight, Sharkey entered into an agreement binding him to box for the Brooklyn promoter this winter. Fugazy, however, has been unable to obtain an indoor arena thus far. The Boston heavyweight consequently finds himself tied to a contract, which for the time being, appeared useless.

Sharks Dont Bluff This Girl Swimmer

LONDON.—In the shark infested sea with the water colder than that of the English channel, 15-year-old Peggy Duncan today swam from Robben's land to Capetown, a distance of about seven miles, in nine and one-half hours. A dispatch to the Daily Express from Capetown, South Africa described the swim. The little girl was the only one of six women and six men who started the race to finish. One girl abandoned the swim a mile off the coast after having been 13 hours in the water. Another girl saw a shark when three miles off the coast and scurried to a nearby boat.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL NOT A GOOD BET

College football has nothing to fear from the professional gambler, in the view of Wall street brokers, explaining that the game is too complicated to "dope out." One firm estimated week end wagers at only $300,000 as compared with $3,000,000 bet on the Dempsey-Tunney fight.

SCHOOL BOY SHOWING CHAMPIONSHIP CALIBRE

VERNON JACKSON

L-A-D-E-E-Z and Gentlemen we have with us tonight Vernon Jackson. Now, this is the Vernon Jackson you have been hearing of now and then as the fighting school boy, stepping out in the Kleigs, his picture on a page for the first time. And will he give a good account of himself? Just listen to this.

Vernon Jackson, quiet gentlemanly, 18 year old school boy, his uncle a minister, Rev. Prowles at Oxnard, has been a member of Le Blanc's band since it was first organized. While getting his schooling and musical training he has also acquired the manly art of self-defense or "Sock, block, and take 'em," until now he is ready to try out the boys who trot in A-1 class.

He has a very wise and efficient manager in Mr. Hubely who has used good judgment in not letting his boy launch out among the fast company until he knew he was ready. Vernon is still light for a bantam weighing only 116 pounds, but has already beat some of the boys who were headlining while he was still taking lessons. This is part of his casuality list:

Jimmy Jasper, K. O., one round; Salvador Lopez, K. O. two rounds; Bob McDonald, K. O., four rounds; Don Caballero, won, four rounds; Tony Palacio, draw, four rounds; Lonie Contreras, draw, four rounds. He beat Topy de Soto in four hot rounds, breaking his hand and having to lay out till well. Bob McDonald is the boy who beat Pee Wee Noland which puts Vernon over Pee Wee. Even a lost decision to Georgia Lopez was upopular with the fans who booed Georgie and yelled for Jackson at San Bernardino. The game little fighter steps a speedy workout with "Young Jack Thompson" at the Main St. Club every afternoon. Jack is his ideal and Thompson says the boy has the goods. He also trains with Corporal Ray Schwatz.

This boy whom we expect to open the sporting world's eyes in another year, fights Friday, November 19th with Mickey Gill at San Diego and luck to him.

CALIFORNIA EAGLE AUTOMOTIVE SECTION

TIRES TAKE A BIG DROP

Prices Lowest In History of Tire Game

BY: E. L. DORSEY

Tires, that part of the automotive equipment that makes the automobile practical, that makes riding easy and comfortable; tires, the very heart and soul of the automobile, without which the highways and byways, the various industries, the business houses and the family consumer would today be in a chaos has had a drop in prices.

Never before in the history of the tire industry has prices descended to such a low level as those announced on the 15th inst.

Practically a 15% drop in prices on all the best rades such as U. S., Firestone, Goodrich, Racine and others has created sales conditions never expected.

Many conditions have been contributing causes to the lates tslash. The drop is not exactly a natural one, consequently cannot last or be permanent. Same concerns are going to suffer and when prices do again rise as they must the public is going to receive a better article for their money with less flavor of a conglamoration of powdered coal dust, buffed junked rubber and an inferior glucus matter representing cement amalgamated with 5 or 10 per cent pure gum cooked and moulded on carcas made of inferior short stapled cheap grade of cotton augmented by a reduction of from one to two plus and too represented and peddled to the automotive public at fabulous prices.

Standard concerns are tired of the brand of tires being sold the public today, under the guise of Grade-A at their expense by concerns who stretch the rubber to the point of concrete. The public is tired of buying a casing that looks like a tire when it is purchased and turns out in a day or two of wear to be found only an infringement, a cheap substitute of the real article. So in order to clarify the atmosphere there is going to be a house cleaning and when the dust is settled a tire will be a tire and the public will be saved from purchasing a wolf in sheep's clithing.

PURCHASERS WARNED TO BEWARE BUYING CARS WITH RENT BATTERIES

Within the past few months many purchasers of used and reconditioned cars have been victimized in a small way by unscrupulus dealers delivering them a rent battery practically stolen along with the car. Being unaware of the fact they innocently appear at a battery service station for service charging and to their great surprise they are informed that the battery they have being a rent battery it is impossible for the service station to service it.

BATTERIES PAINTED YELLOW

"Well, I purchased this care and the battery is the one they had in it, is the story the service man gets. "But," says the service man, "your battery is painted yellow and that designates it as a rent battery."

True, this is not always the case but don't at any time, anywhere, accept a car for purchase that has a yellow painted battery in it or any color except black for you are taking a chance and the owner can reclaim his battery, object as you may, and send the theif to jail for putting a yellow battery in a car to be sold without informing you of its status.

So don't fail to object, object strenuously if there is a yellow battery in your car you purchase and see to it that the salesman replaces it.

Mr. Waller Davis valves in his Overland had an argument with the pistons and the pistons had two of their heads broke. The repair man found him $35.00 for allowing such disgraceful conduct.

The Y. M. C. A. And The Auto

From Sunday's observation of the opening of the "Y" it loks as if parking space is going to have to ve considered.

Twenty-eighth street n the vicinity of the new building was congested to the 10th degree to say nothing of side streets adjacent thereto. In one lone hour, over 480 machines of all descriptions had entered the area mentioned and the crowd was yet to come. If all this happened on opening day what might be expected when swimming pools, cafetina, lodging, games, lectures, gyminasts and whatnots get under way.

King Albert a Cycle Fan

LONDON—King Albert of Belgium, the monarch whi drives his own motor cycle, has bought his seventh machine of this type.

The ruler's latest mount, made here, was displayed at the Olympia motor cycle show and attracted a great deal of attention. It is of unusual design, and when making high speed it is almost noiseless due to an improved type of silencer.

The King, who is also fond of aviation, often makes 200 miles a day, unaccompanied, when out on a motor cycle spin.

MICHEL PROTESTS "JIM CROW" METHODS OF THE STARR PIANO CO.

for their instruments? and is it not true that the biggest thieves on earth are not members of the Black race, but highly respected members of the White race with some low type Whites contrastingly intermixed?

I am firmly convinced of the fact that the Starr Piano Company would today be more than 150,000 dollars poorer in its great wealth, if the Negroes in and around Los Angeles had not been very liberal buyers and users of their Pianos and Phonographs all these years, as I am also convinced of the fact that the Starr Piano Company is entering upon a new era of trial crusades, when it aims to eliminate, as far as possible, the Negro trade and cater to what they consider the better White trade, and, perchance, but without making any big efforts to attain it, such of the Negro trade, as may be willing to pay 10% down payment to the White man's 5% for the same new Piano. To punish a whole race on account of a few dishonest members of this race and some other slow-paying members of the same race and advance their down payments on new Pianos exactly to double the sum that a White person has to pay, is a very harsh and cruel measure, not of retrenchment, but of peptty shortsightedness, if not brutal heartlessness, and I can never approve of this sordid and untimely measure.

I could no more charge a Negro twice the terms of a Piano down payment than I could rob a bank, steal a watch or kill a man. Doubtless some Negroes with wealth can and would pay more than $100 down payment on a good Piano, or pay spot cash for it, but if such volunteer exceptions can be found nd dealt with, the writer of this letter will be pleased to accept their larger payments promptly with a big grateful smile. On the other hand, the acrimonious action of Mr. Fred Gennett must be laid before the people of this country to decide whether or not a Negro shall pay twice as heavy an instalment as a White man.

But the majority of the Negro people are hard working people, with usually the toughest kinds of jobs allotted to them, paying them from between 4-7 dollars per day, some a little more and some even less than this amount. The Negro women hardly do any better than that on only 50 cents per hour remuneration, if they work by the day.

Remember, Mr. Robinson, it is not the Negro that makes our economic conditions of America, it is in the larger sense, the White man. He carves out the fate of the Negro with a capital "F," as only the White man is the boss of the industrial throttle of the land's machinery.

And that a human, our black brother, should be forced to pay twice as heavy a down payment on a Piano, simply because he is black and usually receives less wages than the White man, is not only unAmerican, unfair and unkind, it is really ridiculous, preposterous and almost a burlesquing stunt, executed by wrong-judging and mismanaging managers who have failed to study and recognize the Negro's economic condition.

The writer does not ask you for any particular sympathy for himself, because I am running not far from the 60 years score of my age, being 59 years old this coming 8th day of May. You know, Mr. Robinson, I am heavily indebted, with three mortgages, amounting to $7600, holding a tight grip upon my home. The Starr Piano Company holds the papers, I know of more than $95,000 worth of current commissions yielding business, giving me about $4,500 dollars of remunerations, if people were to pay up in accordance with their contracts.

So you see by leaving your employment at the age of nearly 59 years, I am inviting hardships and trouble in my older days, but I am establishing a commercial principle of equity in trading the same way with the same measure of equality with all the citizens and with every citizen, in fact with every human being, in the United States.

If I were to charge one nickel more by schedule orders of the firm, but not by voluntary consent of the Negro buyer on the down-payment terms for the Piano than I would charge the White man, my guilty conscience would destroy for me the entire pleasure of the sale. I would, if I were such a moral culprit, such a swift and hidden breaker of our civic codes of laws that make all of our citizens equal sharers of the same terms of selling prices of the firms, not live out my life correctly and turn against my own blood in my own humble body. You can never find a true and genuine Jew on this earth that would accept such an infamous edict, I certainly never would; some cheap, trashy, unprincipled Jew or Gentile may do your bidding, I certainly cannot—

I am getting old and gray and Mr. Fred Gennett is utilizing some of the Negroes' moneys I have been making for him to fit out a more beautiful establishment in Los Angeles, where the Negroes are no longer wanted, because it may "hurt" some white trade, but you can be safely assured, when this latest Piano news makes the rounds all over this territory, that the Negroes will not suffer by your action, nor will I, as some big Piano dealer will spring up, suddenly like a rescue party over-night, only too glad to have the very best Negro trade that you wrong-guidedly reject. Mr. Fred Gennett may desert the Negro trade I have created in the last 10 years by most herculean efforts, but I shall never desert my own creation, nor the good people that enabled me to create that particular trade.

If I were to desert, my dark friends here my married mother and my departed father would be restless in their noiseless graves in the little Jewish cemetery on Germain soil, for they, like me, always stood by the poor and friendless, by the persecuted and the ones that were counted out by the so-called bosses of the world, for my parents were real Jews of German proclivities with hearts of purity and minds of steel. I would insult their glorious, beloved memories, sully their kind-hearted deeds toward all mankind of all races and annihilate their own tender beliefs in the inviolable business-and-trade-rights of every human, if I were to work any longer with you under your new 10% Negro and 5% White Man's Piano-down-payment rule.

In my resignation from a position that would have paid me Four Thousand Dollars per year at least, had I continued longer with your house, I am glad and proud to say, lies the essential spirit to build up our America on commercially just rights.

I stand at all times for the eternally just commercial principle that the Negro in America must be treated the same as the White man is treated and that in all the world the commercial liberty of one buyer is as great and as vital a civic force as the commercial liberty of another buyer. If every store in the Union would lay down an ukase, like Mr. Fred Gennetts, one of the bloodiest revolutions ever known would sweep over our dear land and millions would be wading much deeper in blood, than they would in mud.

You advise me, dear Mr. Robinson, to sell to others, to Germans, to Jews, etc., and thus neutralize and evade Mr. Gennett's 10% down-payment Negro edict. I refuse to do this thing now, since the issue of race treatment of two separate measurements has been raised by Mr. Fred Gennett and I am man enough to face this issue, even if it would bankrupt me or leave me penniless and homeless, in the streets. True it is, my wife and I are getting older very fast and only a few years may separate us from our two awaiting graves but we would rather die with the sustaining honor left behind our dead bodies that we, as Jews, were not fiendish persecutors, but real true friends of the Negroes, our Black brothers and sisters, than to be known as narrow-minded bigots that loved the Whites for their money and hated the Negroes for their color.

Why should I turn away from my beaten path and sell now to other nationalities instead of selling to my Negro patrons and friends, after many years of loyal friendship with them?

More than anyone else do they sigh for a musical education because they are of the most musical racial stocks in the world. When I see a poor, curly-haired Negro baby, my heart turns with real love and sympathy toward it, and I feel that my warm duty is to help, not to hurt, that black baby. It is true that there are also White children that need my assistance and I would not refuse to aid them, if I could, but the Black child has a much harder road to travel than the White child, and I have vowed, more than ever now, never to forsake the weaker for the stronger, so help me God, if there is one:—

And to charge the poor, struggling parents of that innocent Black baby 10% down payment, but let the parents of the White baby escape with only 5% down payment, would not only constitute an ethical offense and a moral crime, but it would be against the old talmudic teachings of the Jews, who are above such a cruel and criminal performance, as well as against the civic laws and the good order of our common country. Mr. Fred Gennett can order that such a dirty thing should be done, but would he really do it himself? He may, if he wants to try it, put out his double-scale-Piano deal, but not with my help, but my most determined opposition.

I admire you, Mr. Robinson, in many ways and am proud that you were the one that fought hard against the enforcement of Mr. Gennett's new rule, and I am sorry you lost your fight; but this time I cannot and will never fall in line as a disciplinary salesman, because Mr. Gennett is absolutely wrong and unfa... in his unjust and unmodern ruling. We must elevate, not press down the Negro, because he needs elevation much more than Mr. Fred Gennett. And please remember, Mr. Robinson, that the writer of this letter fought for the Negro's recognition as a free human being and for his right to a fit place under the sun and the stars and stripes of America, 35 years ago.

The only way how I shall be pleased to work for you and your house, would be if you rescind your discriminating rule and sell new Pianos on equal terms to the Negroes with the Caucasians, by either charging 5% down payment for both, or 10% down payment for both, but never 10% for Negroes and only 5% down payment for Whites.

Thanking you for the second chance you have given me to come back to you and feeling sorry I cannot accept it, unless you equalize the terms for both race-citizens, I am, with no malice, only friendship for you personally, but determined to respect the law of the land as superior to Mr. Fred Gennetts law.

Very truly yours,
LOUIS MICHEL,
2631½ Mansfield Ave.

Los Angeles, Calif.,
September 22, 1926.

Messrs. Harry L. Nolder and A. J. Robinson,
Policy-Managers Starr Piano Co.,
630 S. Hill Street, City.

Dear Gentlemen: As long as Mr. Fred Gennett's cruel, criminal and crazy 10% Negro and 5% White man's new Piano-down-payment rule is your 1926-27 store policy on American soil, I refuse determinedly and unconditionall yto toil for you. It is him who has made this infamous and abominable rule, not you, dear sirs, and he must, though millionaire-libertine he is with his vicious edict, take it back, if he wants to survive both the laughter as well as the condemnation of the American public.

His bughouse rule strikes an idiotic blow against the commercial equality rights of all of our citizenship; it violates the best spirit of race-peace and race-adjustment of this nation; it sows the poisonous seeds of race dissension and race hatred between the White and the Black races of this country. It would, if its rattlesnake-like spirit was to be permitted to travel into every store and selling warehouse of this Union, disrupt our beautiful land and lead us, if this country were to approve of such a suicidal, money-fanaticized, one-sided, yet two-faced rule, and applaud and imitate it, into the infernal temptations of gigantic race riots, relentless bloodshed and the deadliest civil war the world has ever known. It would make smiling liars and criminal race-hypocrites out of your salesmen and saleslades and a den of most degrading commercial iniquity and injustice out of your store, if the Gennett ukase could prevail. I simply detest it, heartily denounce it and defy Fred Gennett to enforce it.

If he can prove that he is not undermining our social peace and national security of both racial citizenships with his slaughter-house-Jacobine-Sansculotte-libertine-10% Negro and 5% White Man's new-Piano-down-payment rule, then he is, indeed, a better man than a hangman, a public demagogue, and a money-deluded commercial adventurer, or even a disturbing traitor to both constitutions, the National one of America and the State Constitution of California.

I mean every word I say in this last letter to you and stand ready with every drop of blood in my body to defend this sacred principle of equal comercial trading rights of all of our citizens.

I am, dear gentlemen, not your enemy, but your friend, who will live to see Mr. Fred Gennett acknowledge his terrible mistake.

Very truly yours,
LOUIS MICHEL,
2631½ Mansfield Ave.

UPTON'S
BAROMETER CLATTER
By
Chas. L. Upton

Burning up the rails in their record 42-hour run between Los Angeles and Chicago, the six special trains which were rushing—three of them from Chicago here and three from here to Chicago—across the continent were running on scheduled time at this writing last week.

All the trains have broken previous speed records. The Santa Fe reported that its eastbound train, "The Chief," passed through La Junta, Colo., at 8:15 a. m. The Southern Pacific reported that its eastbound De Luxe train passed through Tucumcari, N. M., on scheduled time. The Los Angeles Limited De Luxe operated by the Union Pacific dashed through Buena Vista like a streak of greased lightning on its way to Salt Lake squarely on time. This is all very interesting news to the traveling public to know that these mighty caravans of steel will carry them safely at break-neck speed to the two greatest cities on earth, cutting five hours off of the old schedule. For this valuable service the public can justly give its praise, not to the railroads, but to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and various Los Angeles newspapers, who have continually fostered the move by relentless publicity until they finally got the faster service. The Pullman porters, maids and waiters are not interested so much in the time these trains make as they are in the amount of people they will carry. A train speeding toward home at the rate of 90 miles an hour with about three passengers on board does not mean a great deal in their young lives, even though it comes in on scheduled time. What they want is the people to serve; a train running at the rate of ten miles an hour with a top and bottom load of prosperous passengers on board means a whole lot more to them than the former, so let's hope they carry some people. The passenger list of the De Luxe trains leaving Los Angeles the first day was as follows: Santa Fe, 60; the U. P., 30, and the S. P. 15; add about ten pickups between here and Chicago and you will have a close figure on the correct estimate. So much for the De Luxe trains.

Maid Blanche Mattison Takes First De Luxe

The charming Los Angeles maid, Blanch Mattison, was the first maid to leave here on the new De Luxe Los Angeles Limited. All decked out in a brand new uniform and a fresh marcel, Maid Mattison presented a pleasing picture to look at. She was the recipient of many compliments from the many high officials who were down to see the new train on its way. Maid Mattison has worked her way up to the top of the ladder, as far as maids go, by hard and faithful work and never complaining when asked to go out. She started in the service a year ago as an extra maid and has been on the go ever since. This honor which has been bestowed upon her was done on merit alone and the Clatter wishes for her a continued success.

Maid Ella Greer Demonstrates Gold Coast Limited

Maid Ella Greer demonstrated the new Gold Coast Limited last week and in doing so she demonstrated a train which she will operate on this winter. Maid Ella Greer has been operating on the Los Angeles Limited ever since Los Angeles maids have had it and is an artist in this line. She will be the oldest Los Angeles maid now operating on the Gold Coast.

C. H. Levy and L. A. Coffin Leave

C. H. Levy, delegate to the P. P. B. A. convention in Chicago, left last Saturday for the Windy City. Mr. L. A. Coffin also left last week but started a few days earlier than Levy. Mr. Coffin is vice chairman and will serve in that capacity while in Chicago. He expects to visit in Kansas City before he returns. Mr. Levy's plans were not learned before he left, but it is thought that he will visit New York, his former home, while back East.

New Orleans

In the latest issue of The Pullman News, Porter Vance of New Orleans has the picture of his new born 7-pound boy. The article accompanying the photo states that it is the height of Mr. Cance's ambition to raise his boy to be a Pullman Porter, which is all very good as far as Mr. Vance's ideas are concerned, he has a perfect right to plan his own son's career, but why a Pullman Porter? is the thing that puzzles us. On the other hand, fathers of new born babies in Los Angeles, and we have any number of them, plan an entirely different career for their sons. One porter recently interviewed said that he was raising his son to be a high Pullman official. That being the case, if both of these porters should live to see their ambitions realised, the Los Angeles porter's son will be the New Orleans porter's son's boss. That suits us, how about you, NEW ORLEANS?

PILLOW SLIPS

The Davis brothers are cutting quite a figure down in San Diego, and we are puzzled to know why both of them came over there at the same time.

H. B. Wilson, after bidding in the Gold Coast and getting it has now changed his mind and returned to the extra list. How come, Wilson?

Maids will be able to get new uniforms of a much better material of gray mohair for $15.00 and $1.50 for regulation apron and cuffs.

50-Piece Brass Band. Enough noise to fill the World. At the Barnes Auditorium, Thanksgiving Night, November 25th.

A stag car will be put on the Owl Limited and will carry nothing but men. This will be some car, and I guess the boys on the Owl will run around so that they will all get a shot at it.

Jack Raimes and Dick Moore are still hitting the ball on the Coast Line.

R. C. Raimes fell through a trap door at Kansas City recently and narrowly escaped death.

Sugar Davis is still hitting a clean ball and says he cannot afford to lay off—Xmas is too near.

Big Traveling Chef Tom Harrison is still acting as the high meat slinger down at the S. P. Tom knows more about cutting a beef steak than a monkey does a cocoanut.

H. E. Fry was one of the first porters to get a taste of cold weather on the Gold Coast. Fry will try anything once.

Maurice Felix, red cap, who has been off for ten days has now returned to work.

Joe Daggett, Santa Fe red cap, has returned to work after spending a two weeks' vacation.

A. L. Brookins expects to leave in a few days for San Diego.

J. S. Hankins says if they keep messing around his line he will have to give it some air.

A. Allen reports that his wife is now well on the way to recovery.

Otto Johnson is still all smiles over being able to hold down the Owl.

J. B. Minter is still on the sick list, and J. L. Hill is waiting anxiously.

W. E. Mitchell, who has been on the sick list for sometime, happens to live in the same block that J. L. Hill lives in and some say that Hill has been casting his eyes longingly toward Mitchell's house.

They say that J. Raimes messed up a chuckle luck game at Emeryville. He must know something.

The good ship Matrimony is still sailing peacefully for C. Smith No. 2.

Jim Ponder was seen driving at break-neck speed towards Watts and we wonder. Yes, we wonder!

The new club cars on the Santa Fe De Luxe are equipped with a space for dance hall and moving pictures, some class!

A very delightful surprise shower was given by the Ladies Aid Society, choir and friends of Hamilton M. E. Church Tuesday evening, November 9th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Wortham, honoring their little month old daughter, Lonah Deane. Little Miss Wortham was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents, among which were:

A gold necklace, Ladies Aid Society; 5-piece Silve Set, Hamilton Choir; Blue Silk Quilted Coat, Knit Cap, White Kid Shoes, Mrs. Fannie Brown; Kimonos, Mmes. Roberson and Eastlin; Kimono and shoes, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hogue; Knit Shoes, Mmes. Wilson, Coleman and son, Henry; Silk Hose, Miss Harris, Mrs. White; Rubber Suit, Mrs. Gresham; Rubber pants, Silver Mush Bowl and Cup, Mrs. Holmes; Gold Ring, Mrs. F. Scarlet; Blankets, Mrs. R. Brown; Mr. M. Brooks, San Diego; Pillow, Mrs. V. M. Cole and daughter; Baby Record Book, Mrs. and Miss Fobbs; Embroidered bib and baby ratler, Miss Lottie Gresham; Rattler, baby sister and Peter Towns; Pink flannel bat hrobe, Mrs. Benton; Gold beauty pins and cash, Mrs. Bly; Knitted Sack, shoes and cap, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Extradition of Walter White Sought By So. Carolina

WHITE LAWYER OF AIKEN, S. C. OFFERS TO MAKE DEFENSE

Calls "Bribery" Charge Excuse to Put N. A. A. C. P. Investigator in Mob's Hands

New York, Nov. 20—Startling developments in the exposure of conditions surrounding the recent lynching of one Colored woman and two men in Aiken, South Carolina, include the following:

1. A letter from L. G. Southard, white lawyer who defended the mob victims, to Walter White, asserting that the "bibery" charges against the N. A. A. C. P. investigator were "all bluff and intimidation," but that they represented a scheme to get you back there to do violence to you. Mr. Southard volunteers to come north and appear before Govenor Smith of New York to argue against extadition of Mr. White should extradition be demanded by Govenor McLeod. Mr. Southard writes to Mr. White: "You started the work and that is what they do not want and they know that the world will know the guilty ones and that is anther thing that they do not want."

2. A sworn affidavit has been sent to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, at 69 Fifth Ave. signed by J. Murray Lane, a white man who was in court when Demon Lowman was acquitted and immediately afterwards saw "law enforcement" officers "juggling around the jail", clearing away automobiles. The affidavit in full reads as follows;

South Carolina, Aiken County:

Personally apeared before me J. MURRAY LANE, sworn says, That on the afternoon and evening of October 7th., 1926 immediately after Demon Lowman had been declared not guilty in Court of General Sessions at Aiken I was in and arund Aiken court House at Aiken S. C. That Policeman James Woodward came out and ordered all cars to move out from around the Jail and school house. I saw juggling around the jail by the officers, Nollie Robinson, A. D. Sheppard, Pink Gaddy, Ed Andrews and some others, some I did not know, all of them appeared very SORE and MAD. This was between sun-down and dark, right after court adjourned. I went on home and did not know that the three Lowmans had been taken from the jail and lynched until the next morning, but I sure was expecting to hear it, from what I saw the evening before.

The four names mentioned are among those sent to Govenor McLeod by Mr. White.

3. The New York World, continuing its inquisition into the lynching, in special dispatches published conspicuously on its front page, is arousing the press and the entire State of South Carolina.

In its issue of today, the World prints telegrams from South Carolina editors showing that most of the white dailies condemn the lynching and are demanding punishment of the lynchers. As a sample of the comments telegraphed to The World by South Carolina editors, are the following:

Pierre H. Fike, Editor Spartanburg Journal: "The Aiken lynching is one of the foulest blots on the honor of Suth Carlina. . . . Those who participated in the Aiken lynching knew in their hearts that they are cowardly, brutal murderers. . . . The punishment of the guilty parties ought to be the business of every South Carolinian."

Charles O. Hearon, Editor Spartanburg Herald: "Every man who respects law and order should demand that the mob members be punished."

R. Charlton Wright, Editor Columbia Record: "The Aiken lynchings stand out as the most ferocious and abhorrent crimes committed in South Carolina during the many years of my residence here."

A number of editors, however, resent "outside intrusion" and predict there will be no convictions no matter what the evidence uncovered.

Hilarious Jazz Party Nearly Ends In Drowning

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 20.—A rollicking colored jazz band and colored maids serving the "punch" in a beautiful Venetian Garden, at the home of Jack White, movie director, came near being the setting for a tragedy a few nights ago. A series of week-end parties have been held, in bizarre costumes, with Fatty Arbuckle, Lew Cody, Pauline Starke, and other greater and lesser lights as guests. It was learned that at this particular party not only was an expensive cocktail set stolen, but aroused by the jazz music dispensed by the orchestra and the liquid refreshments, several of the more reckless guests caught two of the party who were dressed too formally, and threw them into the deep swimming pool in the garden. Neither being able to swim and weighted with their clothes, they were in danger of drowning until rescued.

Magnolia, Colored Composer's Hit, To Be Recorded

(By A. N. P.)

New York, Nov. 20.—Alex C. Rogers and C. Lucky Roberts, perhaps the foremost present day music composers of the group are perfecting pans whereby their, latest song hit "Magnolia" the little piece of the show which they produced on Broadway this season will be published and reach the records and piano rolls. Friends of the composers throughout the country simply to show the effect of group action, have been informally waging a campaign to popularize the number by asking the music shops and department stores for Magnolia and where they have not got it prevailing upon them to stock it.

A few of the librettos and lyrics which Messrs. Rogers and Roberts have writen and which have made their impress upon the popular music of the day are "Bon Bon Buddy," "Baby Blues," "This and That," Bert Williams' "Nobody," "Jonah Man," "I may be Crazy But I ain't No Fool," and the "Elder Eatmore Sermons," "Mr. Lode of Keal," and Darktown Follies, while they also have done the scores for "In Dahomey," "Bandana Land." Free copies of Magnolia have been offered to those pianists who write them at their studio, 225 W. 46th St., New York City.

Nine Georgia Lynchers Receive Sentences

Douglas, Ga., Nov. 20.—Nine white men, all of whom have confessed to complicity in the lynching of Dave Wright, a white man, here last August 27, have been sentenced to prison terms ranging from four years to life.

Major Wright, who is serving a sentence with his wife, for killing a colored man, was the first to confess being one of the Wright lynchers. He was given life imprisonment for the prominent part he played. His wife is a three-time murderess, two of her victims having been colored. The eight other white men who received sentences with Brown were all well-known young farmers around here.

Steals Ride; Given Life-Time Prison Sentence

(By A. N. P.)

New York, Nov. 22.—Because of a set of laws of which he knew nothing and which the judge had forgotten himself, Frank Roding, 39, was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Allen of General Sessions Court, after having pleaded guilty to stealing a ride in a taxicab while drunk.

The court first sentenced him to 118 months imprisonment, after he, with the persuasion of his own attorneys and representatives of the district attorney's office had confessed his misdemeanor, but afterwards it was learned that a certain section of the Penal Code required that where such an offender was guilty of three other offenses, no matter how old, he should be sentenced for life. Three other crimes were fastened to Redding and the judge, regretfully, was compelled to resentence him for the period of his natural life.

Well Known Man Kills Man And Woman In Car Crash

Eugene Sorrel, colored, 1466 Hooper Avenue, while driving at what was said to be terrific speed, crashed into a car said to have been parked by the highway in which were Charles Fox, 30; Miss Helen Brown, 22; and three others. Fox, proprietor of the Del Mar Garage, 527 S. Grand Avenue, and Miss Brown were hurled from the car and instantly killed, the others escaping with slight injuries. Sorsel, who has a cigar store at 1007 S. Central Avenue, was held for manslaughter. He is a very well thought of and succesful business man prominent in Elk circles as well as other activities.

Eugene Sorrel, who crashed into another machine while driving south on Central Avenue Sunday night, was held over for trial at the inquest over the white man and woman killed in the smash-up.

More Coolidge Fallacies

President Coolidge's Armistice Day address was another proof of the fact that public sentiment in America is not passionately devoted to the preservation of peace. We are not waging peace as once waged war. And time, it is to be feared, is weakening our resolve that never again shall millions of the finest young men pay in agony for the follies of nationalism and the greed of profit hunters.

Particularly disquieting were the President's uterances on war taxation and the conscription of men and money in the next war. The President first said that in the event of another war we cannot depend wholly on taxation but must resort to "use of the national credit." A little later he declared for an all inclusive policy of conscription. Nothing more contradictory than these two statements can be imagined. The one effective may to script wealth under the capitalist system is to pay out of taxation the whole cost of war. Actually it is impossible to defer the cost of war. We pay for war as we go in men, munitions and money. The resort to credit merely means that certain classes of bond holders in the community and their children after them are favored at the expense of other classes. They loan money which later generations of wokers must repay. To talk about continuing this system of paying for wars by loans and at the same time to talk about conscripting wealth is utter nonsense. The President, and it is to be feared, most other advocates of wholesale conscription, do not really intend to conscript wealth. The bill now before Congress only assumes to control wealth. Conscription under a capitalist government will be for labor and its purpose will be to give the war machine absolute power in the country. Nothing more dangerous can be imagined. The President ought to substitute a policy of paying for war by taxing the rich for this misleading talk of "all inclusive conscription."

COMMENTS

By: W. J. WHEATON

Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it; except the Lord kep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain. So sang a great poet of centuries past who trod the earth with Homer, but who sang of the greatness and love of God while Homer sang of the gods. We learned where a church was dedicated in one of our cities and that the cost of that edifice was more than $500,000. Then we recalled the many church buildings of the Race costing over the two hundred thousand dollar mark. Some of those buildings were new, others were obsolete, or buildings of questionable valuation, sold to Race congregations at top prices.

Has the Lord built those houses, and does the mere pile of stone, brick and mortar make a sacred dwelling for His presence? It cannot be possible that He who said 'but when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth." The preacher encourages ostentation by making public the amount of contributions and many a poor man, who cann ill afford it, sacrifices the needs at home in order to outshine his neighbor. Many is the poor woman who toils over the tub or range for a nominal wage induced to lay the fruits of her toil on table in order that she might be praised in public for her loyalty. And that too: when she might alty. And that too: when a portion of that money should be put aside for use in her declining years. It is from this class that the means are raised for the erection of those imposing piles of brick and mortar.

Even the purchase and building of these edifices have a tendency to awake sectional passions which, to say the least, are un-Christian. A church is bought or erected in a certain locality by a group headed by the Rev. S. Then a group headed by some other "divine" becomes envious and under the lash of sectional pride they are goaded into the act of seeking the ownership of one more pretentious. Then hundreds of thousands of dolars which might be used in building Race industries are put into liabilities. We say liabilities: because the majority of those edifices are, practically, closed six days in the week and function for the most part only on the seventh. As a general thing, about four persons benefit from those investments: preacher, janitor, organist and chorister. Just imagine how many persons could be given employment by an industrial investment of, say, just what it cost to erect the one church in New York City.

Now understand: we are not decrying the usefulness of churches. We acknowledge them as the one useful medium for racial progress, but is it wisdom to deny the materialistic side of Race progress entirely for the spiritual? Would it not be wisdom to encourage the same financial sacrifices in the building up of Race industries and who, but the preachers, should lead in that undertaking. Imposing cathedrals, while they may be a panacea, are not the cure for our racial ills. They do not break down the barriers which confront them in religions, much less the entanglements of racial prejudices. A concentration of our religious activities would avail more than the scattered efforts of the many churches representing the same creeds. In some communities, there are as many as fifty churches of the same denomination, some in the same block. Why could not one office house that number? Sometimes mere pique has ordered the split, is that the spirit of Christ?

W. H. Clausell Passes Away

The porters of this district were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Porter W. H. Clausell last week at his home in Watts. Mr. Clausell was an old timer in this district and was highly respected and liked by all his co-workers operating on the Southern Pacific via the coast line to San Francisco for years. He was a man who loved home and family, and was just about to emplete a new residence in Watts when death called him. Mr. Clausell leaves a large family to mourn his death, along with a host of friends.

In Memoriam To W. H. Clausell

Good bye old pal, you have gone from us now,
To a land where they know naught of sweat from the brow,
To a land where there are no cold steel rails
Just the sweetest of songs from the nightingales.

You have just closed your eyes, as all mortals do
When their mission on earth's been full filled
In the chill of the air from November fair
While obeying your Master's will.

Yes! We miss you old pal, as a comrade true blue
As a man among men, with a heart big and true.
Though our grief may be great, still there's room to rejoice
For we know that you're answering The Master's Voice.

All of you sheet artists who were not on the road Thanksgiving day can consider yourselves lucky, provided you had the wherewith to shove your feet under somebody's table, and partake of some of the national bird, and I don't mean chicken. Up to date we are forced to give the high honor of stowing the most drum sticks away to the preachers of Los Angeles. They never miss. You can't beat a man at his own game, so why try. But the big feed day is gone now, so what's the use of talking of past remembrances. Let's settle down to normalcy and the old bill of coffee and rolls with an occasional dish of oatmeal when we got the price, and let it go at that. For one, the writer always did have a horror of Thanksgiving, because when you do come back to life, you come back so hard, I thank you.

Last week the boys had a good shot at the coast on account of the many football specials. Every man that was in calling distance of Mr. V. V. Ross was doubled out with a top and bottom load, and if you did not get your share it was not any fault of Mr. Ross.

Diego took down the line from Tijuana, and if Martha don't try to Rose paint Mr. Ross did not have you on a foot ball special, it is a sure thing he did not miss you on a race track. R. L. Armstrong has been waiting for the opening day for months and was in his glory last week. He can stand flat footed in San Diego which is 18 miles from the race track and tell you what horse is running by the sound of his hoofs. So if you have any sporting blood in you and feel for a little quiet plunge on the ponies, see Armstrong first, and you won't go wrong.

Pullman Porters And Red Caps Patronize Jim Crow Restaurant

When will the boys learn that a few extra pennies are not as much to them as self respect? It seems a long time, according to reports coming from a reader of The Railroad Clatter, which he relates as follows: The Pullman Porters and Red Caps eating in the Arcade lunch room on fifth street are unjustly treated by the management refusing to let them sit at any of he ables when the stools are crowded. I have proof that these men who eat in there can not eat at any of the tables on account of the poor whites that are frequently customers of this place. There is Mr. Johnson around the corner with his place half vacant at times on account of his own race not patronizing him. It is about time we all wake up and stand out for our rights. If we are going to insist on eating at such places, why not demand that we sit where we want to or boycott the place. I have consulted Mr. Johnson in regard to his prices and found them reasonable, and have noticed that he makes a specialty on treating railroad men with the highest respect, being willing to help them at all times. Why not patronize your own race?—Respectfully E. L. ARNAUD.

WOMEN DOUBLE MEN'S CONTRIBUTION AT NEW HOPE CHURCH

Women's Day at New Hope Baptist Church was a notable day in the history of the church due to the fact that in addition to the rendition of an unusually god program the women raised $701.00 in subscriptions to the men's $300.00. Mrs. Viola Brandon, with her usual artist capability, planned the programs and thus brought together some of the city's best talent. Especial numbers answering this description were the oration by Miss Viola Baucom; Solo by Mrs. Anna Spicer Range; the violin solo, "Meditation" from "Thais"; a unique and very good reading by Mrs. Ada Ross; an original composition by Mrs. Smock; Holy City by Miss Thelma Brown, contralto. In fact all the numbers on the programs which were published in full in last week's issue were exceptionally good, and were rendered 11 A. M., 3 and 7:30 P. M. to a packed auditorium. The 3 P. M. program by the girls of Flaming Youth under the leadership of Mrs. Mable Gray, was very pretty with the settings and costumes in white. Mrs. Clara Randall was mistress of ceremonies for the evening and Mrs. C. A. Richardson for the morning. Rev. Mrs. Palmer, one of the race's most able women deliverd a wonderful sermon at the morning services.

Who will lead in the Parade of States December 6th at Phillips Temple, 42nd and Wadsworth.

KNOTTY BITS

Recently the writer visited one of the leading churches in the city and while there had the pleasure of listening to a leading evangelist. It was the first service of this distinguished gentleman and as is customary, he started his series of lectures with the broad national issue "Evils of our Country."

He is a very eloquent speaker and so known throughout the country. One would only necessarily be present but a few moments to know he is a resident of a Southern State.

In the summing up, the many issues he had so ably discussed, the Negro question was mentioned but with no remark relative thereto. It was indeed a great surprise to one who had made a careful study of the various races, to learn that the Colored man is a hindrance to the progress of our great nation. Particularly was this true when it came from a minister of the Gospel in this 20th Century.

One cannot in this case say it was ignorance as the speaker is a learned man and has been in actual contact.

From a Baptist standpoint one too wonders whether the many passages in that Great Book were accepted or just a deaf. It was my opinion so to speak, and reiterated the remarks thinking such seed would fall so to speak, and iterated the remarks thinking that such seed would fall upon fertile soil, and thereby bring egotistical gain. How much poorer it would have been for him to have remembered that good seeds and kindness are conclusive to a better feeling and people with a final result of a better nation.

After having heard this lecture I have recalled many times the courtesies extended foreigners, while, if the very same gentleman should meet an American Negro of equal intelligence such treatment would not be prevalent. This is particularly true as regards the West Indian. All ask the question why? To be frank we are unable to give one reason except the oft repeated statement "slavery."

It is first regretable that such needlessly ever existed and tho that such existance should be harbored in the minds of man to the detriment of a once persecuted people.

It is indeed gratifying, however, to learn of the great advancement of the Colored man. It is only a few short years since ignorance was common. But today in every walk of life the Black man is a dominating factor, and as time goes and achievements are made, confidence will be strengthened and greater deeds will be felt, and then deserved rights will be had.

It is my belief God's great plan will dominate in this great country as it has in the past. The two great races will continue to advance in the future. Ignorance will disappear and with the coming of Intelligence and the work of higher nature, the race will drift to the only true American product, the American Indian, God how sweet the looked for catastrophe.

New Need For A Federal Lynching Law

By Noman Thomas

For the Associated Negro Press.

Lynchings, which in the last two years have shown a gratifying decline, are again on the way up in the United States. One of the most horrible crimes in recent years was the triple lynching of three Negros in South Carolina. These victims were taken from the jail and killed, although one of them had just been declared innocent after trial, and the other two, one a woman, had been granted a new trial. It is alleged that the police officers were accomplices in this crime. The public authorities of South Carolina were as usual doing nothing until Walter White of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and later the New York World goaded them into action. "It is yet too soon to predict that there is courage enough and decency enough in South Carolina to bring the lynchers to justice."

Not to be behind in crime Texas reports a triple lynching for reasons unknown. Two of the victism—a man and his wife—were burned to death in their cabin. This in the country of the Fundamentalists who pride themselves on their religious zeal.

In view of these facts and others like them, it is high time to revive agitation for a federal anti-lynching law. It would, of course, have been better if the states had taken care of this matter. A federal law will not be self-enforcing. Nevertheless, if American citizenship means anything it means the right to life as against the mob. The United States is bound to guarantee that to its Negro citizens. Undoubtedly the previous agitation for the Dyer anti-lynching bill in Congress was partly responsible for the improvement in the South. This time support should be given to the bil in dead earnest. There is no room for sectional feeling in this matter, nor can the North in view of its own race riots assume a holier-than-thou attitude. All of us as decent citizens must get together to remove from the United States a disgrace which is not shared by the most backward peoples on the earth.

If you fail to be present at Philharomnic on Nov. 30th inst., you will miss one of the grandest Musical treats of your life.

Makes County Pay For Lynching

(By A. N. P.)

Lexington, S. C. Nov. 22.—A jury in Common Pleas Court, acting under a directed verdict from Judge M. L. Benham, presiding, granted Adger Allen, in behalf of the estate of Will Allen, a verdict of $2,000 against Lexington County Monday afternoon, for the lynching of Will Allen which occurred in 1921. Allen was lynched after having been accused of killing a white man. Damages were sought for the family under the South Carolina constitution of 1895. This was the second trial of the case, the first having resulted in favor of the county.

A suit against Aiken County for the lynching of Clarence Denen and Berth Lowman by masked mob October 8, loomed Friday, as a result of the verdict here. Probate Judge George R. Webb has issued citations in Columbia to show cause why Thomas L. Hahn, should not be appointed administrator for the estates of the persons lynched. Hahn was counsel for the woman who was lynched.

Court Gets Prisoner's Guitar Out Of Pawn

(By A. N. P.)

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 22—"Bill" Simpson on trial in Judge Bullock's court on charges of failure to provide for his family, stated that he would be willing to support his family, if he had his guitar, which was in a Main street pawn-shop, needing $2.40 to be redeemed. Wm. Staley, court clerk, offered to get the instrument out and "Bill" was sent on his way rejoicing, promising to keep the groceries coming, with his musical ability.

ECHOES OF ARMISTICE DAY

G. G. G.

O'er all the land, the call was sent
To low and high degree
Into each home the summons went
Come—pay the Nation's fee.

This Country which has sheltered you
Now needs your valiant arm
Come, answer, every heart that's true
Democracy's alarm.

A few came freely to this call
From sense of duty high
They loved their country best of all
For it, would even die.

But many others who with pride
Would boast their father's deed
Used every cunning scheme to hide
And dodge their country's need.

One race alone, one valiant clan
Of all this mongrel lot
Did answer almost to a man
Their many wrongs forgot.

And each black bosom held a heart
That loyal beat and true
And each black soldier did his part
Though oft' 'twas hard to do.

The meanest work, to them assigned,
Was nobly done and well
With treatment cruel thru hate designed
They fought their way thru Hell!

Does it seem strange that in each breast
A hpe could fondly grow
That should they do their very best
Their honest worth would show?

The land would recognition pay
Black manhood, and respect
Was this presumption? Tell me pray
Did they too much expect?

Perhaps 'twas bold in them to dream
This justice to secure
Without their prejudice 'twould seem
The Whites could not endure.

For when these heroes homeward came
The same old curse was found
And to that Nation a lasting shame
This curse was gaining ground.

A butchered woman's unborn child
Kicked thru the Georgia dust,
Was ever German act so wild
With brutal, bestial lust!

Then East St. Louis jealous grew
Of Southern chivalry
And started killing Black folks too
In earnest rivalry.

In Washington, D. C., hate supreme
Held sway, for a spell
And hunting Blacks become the theme
Of hoodlum, crook and swell.

Chicago next, this pastime tried
But came out second best.
The Blacks had learned to fight, not hide,
The hunt soon lost its zest.

So, these Black men, not loathe to die
For world democracy
Nor knew they'd fought for one big lie
A White hypocracy!

And this reward, their Country gave
For loyal service done,
They lynched and burned their soldiers brave,
Yet called the German "Hun"!

O Nation! Which in this great hour
Has proved such little worth
Unless you right this wrong, your power
Shall perish from the earth.

BRONX HOTEL AND PALM GARDEN

Perhaps what makes the Bronx Palm Garden so popular is the courtesy extended by the efficient staff, perhaps it is that classy revue of Emily Wharton's with their many changes of costumes and acts, perhaps the genial Mr. Millirons and able assistant Mr. Hicks. Anyway it gets more and more popular and many a traveler stops over a night to enjoy the recreation and the music of the Creole syncopators. On the Hotel roster this week are: Mr. A. Oates, G. C.; Jas. Tate, N. Y.; Jas. Martin, Chicago; G. W. McCoo, Denver, and M. Hall, Chicago.

Miss Burton served punch in regular society style which was dee-li-cious. (The punch, not the style.)

One of the biggest events of the season (sounds like a barker for a side show) was held at Echo Park Club House by the Musketeers last week. The versatile Tommy Miles was Master of Ceremonies. The cups were won by the Misses Gladys Mathouiean, Portia Pruitt, Esther Peck, and Jessie Mae Nickerson. Miss Mary Jane Clark wore a wonderful creation of pink crepe and was given honorable mention as was Miss Caroline Wickliffe in a beautiful gown trimmed with silver lace. Mr. Middleton (Willie, in case no one knows), coupled with Miss Forby gave a wonderful exhibition of the fox trot and received honorable mention.

L. A. HIGH NOTES

Well! Well! Well! L. A. High has now counted a most remarkable milestone. She is no other than Miss Alicia Allen, charming member of the Dodecagenian Art Club.

Sh! Don't tell no body! but Miss Eugenia Grant is learning the trade of a modiste and if the truth must be said, she is doing quite well.

"Here comes the bride" is the tune by which one of our L. A.-ites will approach the altar soon, probably in December sometime.

Miss Velma White has finally decided to let her raven tresses grow.

Be ready girls, to ride on Christmas Day as Mr. Lawrence Stewart is going to "come out" in a new Jordan New 8 Line.

We L. A. High girls have something up our sleeves. You'll know in sweet bye 'n bye.

Mr. Walter Gregory attended a Dodge' meeting Monday. He expresses an opinion of enjoying himself immensely.

L. M. N. Goldfish
O. S. A. R. Goldfish.

This is a new saying circulating among the most exclusive citizens of L. A. High ahem! The meaning is not yet known.

Most of the L. A.-ites are in favor of the cardinal and gold. Know what that stands for? No. Well, come to recreational center Friday after school and find out.

Are we all ready for that grand ole' Thanksgiving Dinner? Notice it is capitalized.) Yes Bo. Bring on the eats. I'm only "afeared" that e may not be able to keep up our reputation as god dancers at that ne and only Shrine Ball that night.

Well folks, us Spaniards (Truth) will say adios senors and senoritas, we will be with you again next week.

One ton of real pleasure found at 15th and Main. Those wishing to claim their share please call Thurs., Dec. 2nd, scare of Silver Fox.

Roland Hayes and thus the public has been published in the press of the country. His name was coupled with that of a well-known Countess as engaged in marriage. It is evident that such rumor was intended to infant his return engagements in America, or the United States, by creating the usual racial prejudice which inter-racial marriages arouse. Previous in his last tour of the States it was either a French, Belgian or some such who was named as his consort. That proved false: so has this latest canard. Roland Hayes is married—to his art.

THANKSGIVING

This is the day of Thanksgiving and we are thankful indeed for the blessings of health and opportunity to render service for the further advancement of a struggling race.

We are thankful for a wonderful people, a great majority of whom are striving to give to mankind all of the rights which should be theirs.

We are thankful for a growing sentiment which promises to lift the veil of darkness from the benighted Southern states and make them bright stars in the galaxy of states.

We are thankful for the disintegration in our very own midst of the hooded cowards of the Ku Klux Klan.

We are thankful for a broad-gauged citizenship on these Western shores, all enjoying to the utmost the most wonderful climate in the whole wide world.

We are thankful for health, strength and all blessings granted unto us, and praise the Lord forever more for this situation.

BIGGER BUSINESS

Government is the most important big business in the world. Most people accept government, as they do the rain and snow, without realizing that it is something entirely within their control. Few people ever think of the possibility of its failure.

OUTLAWING THE RAILROAD STRIKE

The arbitration of the request for increased wages for conductors and trainmen of Eastern railroads began October 28th, in New York City. It is being conducted under the provisions of the recently enacted Watson-Parker Railroad Act.

The controversy involves a request by conductors, trainmen and Pullman Porters and Maids for a nincrease in wages approximating 20 per cent. It involves approximately 89,000 employes on 23 Eastern railroads.

While the men demand increased pay, the railroads claim there is no jutsification for pay increases at this time.

But here is the point of greatest public interest. There is no strike nor threat of strike. The members of the board of arbitration have been chosen. These members represent the public, the employes and the railroads. Every fact in connection with the demand for pay increases will be weighed and considered, and such increases will be granted or denied as a matter of right and justice to the three parties at interest, namely, the public, the employes and the railroads.

The workmen and the railroads are to be complimented on this orderly procedure, which has superseded the day of strike threat with its demoralization of business.

THE LOW DOWN ON PACIFIC BEACH

Race patriots rise up not unlike the passing ships of the night with expressions of race patriotism and undying fealty for its salvation amid the wreckage of The Pacific Beach Club, which went a glimmering when unseen hands with a flaming torch set it afire and destroyed the buildings thereon now quite a year ago.

All sorts of remedies have been sought to salvage it but thus far to no avail.

Now the patriotic end of the affair looms up, but it comes shy of the motive power which it takes to put big things over. The United States in the World War had plenty of patriotism and more money to back it up. The race patriots of Pacific Beach have the patriotism but are lacking in the motive power; and don't seem to know it.

Now as a matter of fact the Pacific Beach Club was made possible by sincere and honorable patriotic effort, based on representations which seemed plausible and which offered an amazing opportunity for the people of our group to have a beach of their very own.

Things went along fine, and it looked like the fondest dreams would come true and then came the fire.

Then hope was far fetched, complications set in which eventually convinced far-sighted men and women which composed the membership that the task was one which no sort of stretch of the imagination could make their dreams of a beach home come true. These are cold, naked facts staring the membership in the face, and despite the iron-clad lease which lays in escrow for a title in 10 years time, one must come to the conclusion that a beach at this spot is far fetched indeed.

Now with the morale of the people destroyed and endless litigation before them, only lawyers and the courts would be enriched, and the people, to our way of thinking, would lose all they have put in and whatever they may yet put in for salvage purposes.

It is simply the way fate has decreed and we say rather than for the people to lose every penny, they should by all means accept the proposition of their money back and the lot deal contracted in the concern liquidated and this is what they will do.

METHOD IN THEIR WORK

There is quite a stir just now over the overt act of a local minister who is charged with gross race disloyalty. We appreciate the quiet but methodical manner in which the Ministers' AllianceAlliance is proceeding in the premises. In such matters as this, that is the better way for the beating of drums and crashing of brass but ascentuates the ego and brazenness of such pernicious beings.

WHAT DID SEATTLE GET?

The question has been asked: Who made Seattle's Street car problem? The answer is: The politicians who wanted the city to own the lines, and who got the people to buy them on the theory that the city could operate them cheaper than a private company.

While the politicians are responsible for the problem, the people will have to pay the bill for this political experiment which cost $15,000,000 to start with; on top of $3,500,00 lost in taxes since the city owned the lines. Other taxpayers have had to make up this $3,500,000, besides paying one of the highest street car fares in the United States—10 cents a ride or three rides for a quarter—instead of five cents as promised by the politicians.

It would be hard for anyone to point to one single advantage which Seattle has derived fro mthis costly experiment. The disadvantages which have resulted are so apparent that they should be an bject lesson to every person who can profit by the experience of others.

DOINGS OF CAPT. E. L. BAKER CAMP No. 1, UNITED SPANISH WAR VETS

Last Friday evening over 500 people danced with them at Patriotic Hall in the Gym on the 10th floor. Music was good. Floor was better. The looks of the women folks both of the Auxiliary and friends were best. Among those present was Warrant Officer King, Band master of the 25th Inf. U. S. A., who is a visitor in town. Many of the Camp were his old friends.

The Camp has grown much in the past year and has accomplished some very constructive work for the benefit of the veterans and their dependents. It has lost two members by death, Comrades Fain and Snoten. It has at present four in the hospital, Comrades Clay, Hall, Newman and Crumbly.

With the Auxiliary, it is now busy geting together "Xmas Cheer" for those in the hospital and in the barracks at the Home at Sawtelle.

The Camp desires to thank those who attended their dance and those who did not attend, but bought tickets.

PHILADELPHIA ROYAL GIANTS AND SHELL OIL TAKE A GAME EACH

With the drawing power of continued good playing the Saturday's game was best attended of any Saturday games played yet this season in the Winter League. The Phillies chafing under a defeat from the Oilers the week before revenged themselves on the opening day of the week-end series by grabbing eight coupons to the Oilers three.

The games both days were characterized with considerable fumbling on both sides and lack of good hitting on the part of the Giants. The pendulum swung back on Sunday before a crowded park and the Oilers won 4 to 2.

JACK JOHNSON FINALLY BARRED BY CAL. COMMISSION

San Francisco—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, has been barred from California rings by the state athletic commission.

At its last meeting of the year here today, the commission denied Johnson's application for a permit. Johnson's age, recent record and the fact that he has been convicted of felony were given as reasons for the act.

Hope had been expressed locally that Wilson Burns who still handles Jack's affairs would be able to keep the ban from being placed on him as the colorful ex-champion could still draw big crowds here.

Merry-Makers Trim La Premieres in Sensational Game

In probably the most sensational game of the season the Merrymakers cut-figured, cut-fought and cut-played the La Premieres on Sunday, November 21st, at Snyder's Field. The close margin of 5 to 4 shows it must have been an air-tight game but to have witnessed the all-round playing of "Red" Bryant who bids fair to be another "Red Grange" would have been a treat in itself. He made the winning point by wonderful work in calling the signal in the last minute of the last half then leaping behind the line in time to receive the pass himself.

Johnny Riddle starred for the La Premieres carrying the ball and playing the line for the lone tally.

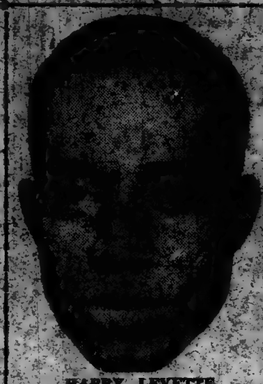
Detective Jesse Kimbrough is the coach of the Merrymakers and the whole club holds honorable respect to him, for giving his time to their club.

Young Langford on De Hate Callahan Card

George Thibeau's little star, Langford, will furnish a bright spot on the bill Monday night, November 29, in which Langford meets Johnny Lemon in the semi-finish.

Johnny Lemon vs. Young San Langford, 125 pounds, six rounds.

Jackie Sherman vs. Benny Miller, 130 pounds, six rounds.



Jimmy Schwartz vs. Tommie Rawson, 142 pounds, four rounds.

The Main Bout between Paul De Hate and Monty Callahan marks the rapid rise of De Hate who has climbed into a contender in a few months. But against the clever hard-hitting Callahan he may not score. Recently for a large consideration Eddie Sears manager of Callahan has secured an interest in Callahan, as with the fast-fighting Sears interests combined Callahan and Langford are in reality stable-mates and will doubtless be seen on the same card.

DICK DONALD'S BIG OUTDOOR SHOW BACKS NEXT HEAVYWEIGHT CONTENDER

Hogue Fights Walker

With his usual originality and fearlessness in promoting big features Dick Donald Zamora local fight impresario is staging at Wrigley Field Saturday, November 27th, the first heavyweight go tournament in the country since Gene Tunney made a walloping target out of Jack Dempsey and made himself a target for challengers from the world over.

He has lined up a wonderful card of five-round pug mayhem, all heavyweights. They were arranged on short notice owing to the fact that the controversy concerning Wrigley Field was not settled until late last week. Said controversy was brought about by the political pandering of residents in the vicinity of Wrigley Field when opposition was based on the fact that Dick intended to make all his bouts night matches. Through a dearth of good heavies and light heavies, it was impossible to make all six matches mixed affairs this time, so there are one and each bout will be pulled off in the afternoon.

Jack Hogue, local Negro is a good fighter with a nice string of victories.

Mack Hester the "California Bear" showed in his last two fights that he has a sledge-producing punch and knows how, where and when to apply same. Those two would have made a dandy pair for a fight full of thrills but all this arguing, coaxing and cajoling could not get Jack to agree to take Mack on, so Johnny Walker was substituted for Hester's best win.

Tracy is looking in opposition to the 2715 to 4 dopers from a point of view attending this great show which will begin its elimination tournament for a championship fight. Below is the full program:

Cook Bob Hogue vs. Manny Byrne; Jack Hogue vs. Marvin Shedder; Mack Hester (California Bear) vs. Johnny Walker (the ex-Navy); Charlie Semino vs. Russel Rainey and Steve Hogue vs. Tiny Stewart.

The bell will ring the ring opening battle at 2:00 P. M. at 2:30 o'clock rain or shine.

Swimming Catalina Channel Is Greater Event Than English Channel

The sensation the last performance last week by Walter Ranger Taber in swimming the 22 miles between Catalina Island and Huntington Beach for the first time in history did not attract the attention of the public lacking international interest. The English Channel known long before the Catalina Channel was ever discovered and separating two old world countries draws more attention from this fact, whereas a physical feat to swim through the treacherous, chilly and shark-endangered waters in the surprising time of 15 hours and 37 minutes which Taber did today, is really greater than the swim from England to France across the English Channel.

Coaches May Eliminate Shift Play in Football

Chicago—The Western Conference will be asked at its meeting in New York next week to consider the proposal of Bob Zuppke, Illinois coach, that the strategic "shift" be eliminated in next season's games.

The offensive shown has too much advantage, he argues in barring its attack against the defensive team with the aid of momentum acquired by rhythmic shifting, which is within or without the law by the margin of a second's fraction.

LOS ANGELES LEADS CITIES' RATIO, 1 CAR FOR EVERY 2 1-3 PERSONS

Figures indicating the popularity of the automobile in California as compared to other states, were received by the Traffic Comission from the United States Bureau of Public Roads.

New York, by reason of its great population, still leads the states in the number of registered automobiles, but California is a close second. There are 1,562,000 motor vehicles in New York and 1,420,628 in California. Nevada has the fewest machines, with but 21,000 registered.

California motorists pay more in gasoline taxes than any other state, the total for the six months period ending July 1, amounting to $7,400,000. Florida is second with $6,200,000. No gasoline taxes are collected in New York, Massachusetts, Illinois or New Jersey.

The United States Bureau of Public Roads estimated that the average automobile uses 22½ gallons of gasoline a year. With a 2-cent tax here, the average tax paid in California would be $4.50 a year.

There is a motor car in the United States for every six persons, the total count being 19,697,832.

Los Angeles leads all the cities of the United States in the number of automobiles, there being one car for each two and one-third persons. In Los Angeles County, 500,000 motor vehicles are registered at the present time.

THE DUTY OF YOUR SPARK PLUG

Functions of the various parts of a battery ignition system in a motor vehicle are compared with a truck driver and the truck by Dr. F. B. Silsbee of the United States Bureau of Standards at a recent meeting of the Washington section of the Society Automotive Engineers. The building up of energy in the primary circuit is similar, he said, to the storing up of energy in the engine flywheel when the driver "steps on the gas" with the clutch disengaged.

When the clutch is engaged this energy gives an impulse to the rear wheels. Similarly, when the primary circuit is broken by the commutator a high voltage impulse is induced in the secondary circuit and causes the electric current to jump from one electrode of the spark plug to the other, causing the spark that ignites the charge in the engine cylinder.

The spark lasts only about one-thousandth of a second for battery ignition and about three-thousandths for magnet ignition. In this interval an oscillation of the current and voltage occurs in the secondary circuit and this oscillation has a duration of only one-millionth of a second, said Doctor Silsbee. The current then settles to a value of approximately fifty milliamperes and the voltage drops from 4000 to 800. Next there is a decrease in quantity of the current flowing between the spark plug points until the spark becomes extinct.

Sparking voltage is increased by widening the gap between the points and by density of the compressed charge in the cylinder. Increase in temperature or in the sharpness of the points lowers the sparking voltage.

Ions such as are demonstrated by the recently discovered Milliken rays must be present in the cylinder before a spark can occur, as they are the carriers of the electric current. Misfires in ignition troubles would occur said the speaker, if spark coil manufacturers would make the coils so that they would deliver both higher current and voltage so that more energy would be effective.

J. A. Kimbro has moved his wares, from an auto standpoint, to the Overland Whippet agency on 40th and Central where Mr. Bruce is in charge. Mr. Kimbro stated he went to where they fix a real car to sell. Good luck.

Dr. Robert Williams of Dental fame and family motored to Santa Barbara on last Sunday. They report a well spent trip.

Speaking of accidents, Gene was lucky at 102nd and Central Ave., last Sunday night.

Geo. Grant the real estate veteran lost his religion last Saturday when he had a flat and everything was closed. We hear he again joined church Sunday and started afresh.

IF, WHEN you drive, you heed the rule
In passing hospital or school,
Bowing to sign with proper grace,
And aptly moderate your pace,
Exercising you shall most—
You're numbered in the "careful" class.
Where roads, alas, are far too small—
For most folks take no heed, at all!

BE IT the sun'rise's dusky chief
In signs to manifest belief—
Now quickest to the wrench to toss
Where railroad track and highway cross;
Most folks (we note it with dismay)
Pay no attention whatever—
Off hit pair also forever be
The pain for driving carefully!

Community Chest

Meeting with generous giving upon every side from citizens of Greater Los Angeles, the Community Chest citywide appeal for 1927 swung into its final period this week.

The appeal will come to a close on November 30, following twelve days of actual solicitation by members of a vast civic "army of mercy" covering every corner of this large city.

With reports coming from the entire city a complete check of monies received has not yet been made. The first day's collection netted $207,577 in gifts and the second day $216,542 with 27,426 citizens giving of their funds.

Daily report luncheons are being held at the Alexandria Hotel, where workers report for duty each morning and receive the progress of the drive. Joseph Scott, campaign chairman, presides.

Scott also urged workers to remind citizens that a gift to the chest is a contribution to the Red Cross, the Salvation Army and 152 other welfare, charitable and relief organizations.

The Forget-Me-Not Club of Electa Chapter No. 36, E. S., takes this opportunity to express its appreciation to the many friends whose presence was responsible for the success of the Breakfast Dance at Eagle Hall, November 11, 1926.

LONG BEACH NEWS

(By Elinor Ramsey, Washington)

Among the many affairs held by the clubs of Long Beach, was ah, Arnette the program given by the Colored Women's Federated Club, Magic Tia Sunshine. Many excellent speakers were on the program. A surprise farewell party in honor of Mrs. Horace Shelton, former President of the Club, followed.

A beautiful pillow was presented her as a token by the club.

Delicious refreshments made by the "Tip Top Ins" were served.

Miss Lula Belle Perine, of Los Angeles, was the house guest of Mrs. E. M. Washington for a week. Many pretty affairs were given while she was in our midst. We hope she will return and make her visits much longer.

The "Si-Yi" Club gave a military dance at the home of Mrs. Higgins. Most everyone was dressed suitable for the occasion. The evening was spent in dancing and cards, followed by a chili supper.

To the surprise of Mrs. N. L. Washington, formerly Elinor Ramsey, the "Si-Yi" club presented her with a miscellaneous shower plus delicious refreshments, on last Monday evening.

Another one of the famous dinners given by the Golden West Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Trailers, Wilmington, Calif. All invited. Dinner forty cents a plate.

When in Long Beach, don't forget to stop at the Tip Top Inn, 1157 California St. One of Long Beach's most popular cafes. Come prepared to spend an enjoyable evening. Don't eat and run.

Mrs. M. D. Hays of 426 Alamitos is confined to her bed with pleurisy. We wish her a speedy recovery.

What is the talk of the town? Of course, it is the dance given by the Bachelor Boys. Sponsored by Norman Washington on last Wednesday evening. The hall was filled with music swaying people, just merely gliding to the strains of the Black Bottom Seven Kings Orchestra. No foolin' it was some dance!

Railroad Philosophy

New York, November 15.—"An old man doesn't go to a young man for advice but the young man goes to the old man to ask him what he thinks of of a new proposition. I went after the old men."

It was this philosophy of W. H. DesVerney, old time porter in the Pullman service, and now organizer for the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, that brought more than seventy per cent of the porters of Saint Louis into the organization. In a speech to the New York porters, in their regular weekly meeting, Mr. DesVerney, who has just returned from the west, explained the phenomenal growth of the Brotherhood in Western cities.

The men in Saint Louis were only waiting to know what it was all about, he declared. "There have been so many schemes to fool the porters, engineered by the Pullman Company and others that, it is not surprising that men far from the center of our activities should not realize what a power the Brotherhood has become. When I had shown the old timers like myself that the Brotherhood was accomplishing what we had all needed and wanted for so many years, they came in and brought others with them. I was in the service for thirty-seven years. I know what conditions have been, and I know that the Pulman Company will never improve them unless we demand and enforce our rights."

Pullman officials have expressed themselves as being especially perturbed at the action of so many old and "loyal" employees in joining the Brotherhood and taking active part in the movement. "It isn't so surprising when the young men get restive and want to upset things," one superintendent is quoted as saying, "but what I can't understand is why porters who have been with us for so many years should suddenly turn and fight the Company." Such sentiments were expressed by officials to Saint Louis porters, grown old in the service, who were carrying Brotherhood cards in their pockets, according to Mr. DesVerney.

The resignation from the service of S. J. Bradley, one of the most popular and influential men in the district, to take charge of the Saint Louis office and the further organization of the Brotherhood was a bomb shell to the Company, Mr. DesVerney said. Bradley had been in the service for seventeen years and was considered a leader, not only by the men, but by the Pullman Company. A chapter of the Women's Economic Council, an auxiliary to the Brotherhood, is also being organized in Saint Louis.

DODECANESIAN TEMPLE ENTERTAINS WITH DOG POUND FESTIVAL

Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department

Despite the fact that at the recent election a playground bond proposal for $1,500,000 for the purchase of new recreation sites failed to secure the necessary two-third vote, many sections of the city are again petitioning for play fields as necessary for the welfare and safety of the children in these districts. The Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department is, of necessity, giving the answer that new sites must be obtained by assessment district proceedings, as no department funds are available for the purchase of land.

The fact that so many requests are made for playgrounds at this time accounts for the heavy majority vote accorded the playground proposition. An analysis of the vote is expected to indicate that the "no" votes were generally given in sections where there are few children or where there is no realization of the physical and moral effect of supervised play on the life of the child.

x-x-x-x

As a number of the municipal playgrounds Thanksgiving festivities are being arranged. Greater attention, however, is centered upon Christmas pageants and activities that will interest the children during the mid-winter school holidays.

The effect of these supervised play programs on children as shown in the great saving of property by the city's Hallowe'en entertainments. Of much interest to the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department was the fact that approximately 15,000 who have not heretofore patronized the playgrounds enjoyed the Hallowe'en "parties" and were kept off the streets and out of mischief.

x-x-x-x

At the recent dedication of a new municipal playground, neighborhood "gangs" of youths looked upon the new grounds as serving further possibilities for depredations and a new center for disorder. Extra directors were temporarily kept at the playground, with the result that always follows the establishment of a new playground: the "gangs" have broken up and the members are individual patrons of the ground, finding in supervised pastimes new interests and a means of utilising their energies without resorting to rowdyism. Neighborhood residents attest the moral effect that follows the provisions for wholesome and expertly-directed play.

Forcefully Striking

The following poetry by Andy Razaf, so forcibly tears the mask from the fallacy of hatred that it should be broadcast to the four winds of the earth that all may read as they run.

RACE PREJUDICE

The white, red, black and yellow man
Had nothing to do with his birth;
His color can never be a stamp
Of individual worth.

So then, why harp on race and creed
And the shade of a devil's hide;
When it fails to stand for a guarantee
Of what he possesses inside.

To Death, the reaper, all men are fools,
For none does he step aside;
He laughs at their boasting for this and that,
Their arrogance and pride.

What does he care for race conceit,
For man-made values and terms,
Skin and flesh and blood are dust
And all are but food for worms.

So prejudice is ignorance,
The need of intelligent thought;
The lack of thinking for ourselves,
But believing what we are taught.

There is only one race—the Human race,
Regardless of class or skin;
In good or evil brawn or brain,
All groups of men are kin.

Rev. J. M. Eddie former pastor of Friendship Baptist Church will speak next Sunday afternoon for the Junior Mission Society. The public is asked to attend.

Mr. Earl Grant, formerly a dining car chef on the Illinois Central Railway and Mrs. Ena Copeland, were quietly married last Thursday afternoon in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Grant are comfortably domiciled in their newly acquired home at 202 N. Vermont. Mr. Grant since coming to Pasadena has entered the field of transfer and hauling and to his credit has a well established and lucrative business. Mr. and Mrs. Grant are originally from Chicago.

So many things have been said about "Sheik" Stocks as an all-around athlete, especially starring in football, that it's a matter of repetition in mentioning his achievements on the field. However, he is still heeding the lines and going through for many a yard dash. They can't stop him apparently.

J. O. Clisby of 1069 N. Mentor, is a recent golf tourney played at Griffith Park Municipal Golf Links, defeated 18 in a playoff. Clisby has been swinging a wicked mash for some time and for this affair was awarded a silver trophy. His opponents were all white.

Mr. W. C. Wilkins has just returned from Colorado, Texas, his birthplace, where he spent an enjoyable month visiting relatives and friends at points in Southern and Central Texas and he visited Oklahoma and Kansas City, Missouri.

Mrs. Lauretta Calmore-Howard, daughter of Mrs. Rhoda Calmore-Harris has returned to residence from Kansas City where she has been for some time. Her stay will be indefinite.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET
More than 125 men and boys were present on last Monday night in the Social Hall of Friendship Baptist Church, the occasion being father and son banquet. Little men, big men, large and small boys all sat around a heavily laden festive board awaiting the signal. A sumptuous repast had been prepared by a corp of women from classes 1 and 2 of the Sunday School, supervised by Mrs. Virgie Crorie, assisted by Mesdames Butler, Stolworth, North, Harris and Tait, with the following ladies as waiters under the direction of Mrs. Beatrice Reynolds: Mesdames Bailey, Woods, Mills, Robinson and Clisby. The food was wonderfully cooked and nicely served and was most palatable. The women deserve much credit for their effort to make the affair an overwhelming success.

After the repast a song by the men, "Praise God from whom all Blessings Flow," Rev. Turner, as President of the Brotherhood Class under whose auspices this banquet was given, together with the Mentor class of which W. H. Harrison is president, acted as toastmaster after a few remarks introduced Fletcher Smith, Supt. of Sunday School as Master of Ceremonies. Short, happy talks were made by James Fox, one of Friendship's best, who in his own way told what the boys expected of their dads and what he had taken of all kinds in his younger days that must not be taken by boys. Rev. Young, Pastor of Friendship made and we predict much for his future. Dr. Lilliah also spoke very encouragingly in part "If the colored people would develop their own folks it would not be necessary to run out to the white folks every time they wanted a speaker or wanted to do something worth while"—cumulative applause greeted that assertion. Rev. Barton spoke in lieu of Rev. Brown of First A. M. E. being absent.

Capt. Wm. Rapport, always at home had the ball and again started by Mrs. E. Harrison-Smith at the piano. Lack here of space bars the enumeration of the numbers rendered. Have a booklet with the names appertaining to a splendid and orderly affair compiled with the New Age Printing and Publishing Co. [illegible]

Women, take notice! Peeping Tom who has long since been extinct has reappeared in Pasadena. Be careful that your bed room window shades are pulled down when retiring, for, it is reported, a well-known colored man in town was arrested a few days ago for peeping in some white woman's window.

FRESNO

Final arrangements are being consummated for the cornerstone laying of the artistic new Scottish A. M. E. church on Thanksgiving day by Pilgrim Rock Lodge No. 10385, G. U. O. O. F., assisted by San Joaquin Lodge No. 5537 of Stanford. District Grand Master Ralph Robinson and several other Grand Lodge officers have been invited to be present and officiate.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses B. Sheffield, the much feted house guests of the former mother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sheffield motored home to Los Angeles last Saturday morning after being the incentive for a number of delightful and exclusive affairs.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sheffield at two tables of whist in honor of their guests, a buffet supper [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Moses B. Sheffield, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Rapp, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest Rapp, and Mr. Richard B. Sullivan.

Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Rapp, Jr. entertained at a novel affair in compliment to the visitors, five tables being devoted to whist, with the spacious living room as given over to dancing. Mrs. Sheffield is a strikingly beautiful woman, and her natural charm was enhanced by a gorgeous creation of orchid [illegible] satin of the same tint, heavily embroidered around the skirt with orchid ostrich feathers, and held in place at the waist by a wide girdle of orchid chiffon. With it she wore a huge coat of Alaska seal. At 12 o'clock a midnight luncheon was served. Mrs. Alex W. Clarke, Mrs. William F. Bradshaw and Mrs. Gertrude Bowman-Grayson assisting the hostess in dispensing with her hospitality.

Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans Tripp entertained at a brilliant affair for the Sheffields, the guests motoring out to their picturesque country place on Olive avenue. Progressive whist was the diversion of the evening, and when scores were tallied, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Sheffield were awarded the prize for high score, and were also presented with a guest prize by their hosts. Supper was served at midnight in the artistic dining room, and centering the table with the charming hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Moses B. Sheffield, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Bowes, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sheffield, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] A. Rapp, Jr.

FORMER KANSAS WOMAN DIES IN BATH TUB

Mrs. Margaret Mitchell who was employed at 3311 Edgewood Drive met with a peculiar accident which resulted in her death at the home of her employer on the evening of November 27th.

It seems that Mrs. Mitchell in taking her bath had the gas heater going and in the closeness of the room, the fumes caused her to collapse and her death was caused by inhaling the fumes of carbon or in other words monoxide poisoning. The accident was not discovered until the following morning when the body was then removed by the Coroner who issued a certificate of accidental death from the causes mentioned above. Later on the body was moved t othe parlors of the Connor and Johnson Undertaking Company and shipped to her former home at Topeka, Kansas.

Mrs. Mitchell was a prominent citizen of the Capital City of Kansas and at one time was employed as a teacher in the public schools of that city. She was very popular, well known and highly respected and truly a worker for the betterment of mankind.

ROLAND HAYES' SONGS ENCHANT

Roland Hayes' is a powerful mind endowed with strong poetical sensitiveness. If it be possible his work is even more poetical than musical. One critic has said that Roland Hayes' music is the music of the future.

The audience at the Academy of Music on Wednesday evening, November 17, though not as large as his former audiences was a mixed one and a very appreciative one. It was at first slow to respond to the great tenor who opened his program with "Selve Amiche" from the seventeenth century and "Eviva Rosa" from the eighteenth century. Mr. Hayes rendered these with ease, naturalness and vivacity. His closing number in the first group was "Ah Spietate" from the Opera "Amadigi" (Handel). He was greeted with applause at the end of this group, and aroused to warmth his audience by singing as an encore "Would You Gain the Tender Creature." The audience was completely won by the rendition of this.

In the second group (German), Mr. Hayes rendered "A Boatman's Hymn to the Twin Stars," "Secret," and the "The Town." Two of Brahms works were sung: "We Wandered" and "I Dreamed at Night." These were done particularly well, but it was in his rendering of the English group of songs that his voice rose to the heights. Truly, he subordinates the voice to articulate speech, and for fear lest the music should take flight he virtually clips her wings. For dramatic effect his singing of "Lamont of Ian the Proud" was all that could be desired. "Rose of the Night" (heard before by Philadelphia audiences) "Dreamy Lake" and "In a Myrtle Shade" clearly showed how well Mr. Hayes interprets his songs. The idea of the piece is grand. He was encored and rendered very thonchingly one of the favorites "Water Boy."

The audience on Wednesday night was much interested in the group of Negro spirituals rendered by Mr. Hayes in view of the fact that he was singing three of his own arrangement two of which have been heard here before "Lit'l David" and "Camp Meetin'," "Zion, Weep-a-low" made a profound impression on his audience, and there was evidence of anting to shout when he sang "Made My Vow."

The enthusiastic audience waited for another number at the close of Mr. Hayes' interesting program, and they were well repaid for he gave (with an aesthetic study of the religious world) "Wade in de Water."

The enthusiastic audience waited William Lawrence, as his accompanist, lends much to an artistic program.

The affair was under the personal direction of Mrs. Carl Diton.

LAY CORNER STONE FOR ODD FELLOWS TEMPLE

Sunday was a gala day at Watts when all the city turned out to witness the laying of the cornerstone for the new hall now in course of erection for Tranquil Lodge of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows.

Preceeding the ceremonies the members of Transquil Lodge, Los Angeles Lodge and visiting Odd Fellows formed a marching column and headed by Willis' Boys Band paraded the streets of Watts.

Returning to the building at 112th and Compton a large stand erected for the occasion was utilized for the exercises of the afternoon.

The District Grand Master, Isaiah Robinson, was present, also P. D. G. M., J. B. Bass; Grand National Treasurer of the H. H. of Ruth, Eliza Warner; District Grand Director, L. C. Cosey and other notables were present.

Commander Newton St. Station Host at Big Thanksgiving Dinner

On last Thursday Thanksgiving Day, Captain L. L. McClarey was host to a big Thanksgiving Dinner at the Newton Street Station.

The long table was beautifully decorated and instead of bars and cells, one could have easily visualized themselves in the Biltmore, Alexandria or Ambassador. And then above all, there was present that pure and undefiled spirit of democracy.

Special invited guests for the occasion were present in the persons of Dr. W. R. Carter, Superintendent of Negro Work for the Baptist denomination; W. H. Sanders, representing the East Side organization of which he is president and J. B. Bass, representing the press.

Captain McClarey stated to his officers assembled that it was the purpose of the department to keep in touch with all movements for a better and more efficient service and that he had as his guests men who co-ordinated to the utmost with the department for that end. Dr. Carter was called upon to give thanks for the food and from that time on all present exhibited the ability to do full justice to the occasion.

We are much pleased at the attitude of the Newton Street Commander for this spirit of keeping in touch with the people of his bailiwick; and by joining forces with all who stand for law and order to be a part and parcel of the movement that this section shall occupy a place second to no other for the object stated.

DOCTOR BUILDS AND EQUIPS MODERN OFFICE

By: A. FERDINAND CADREZ

The new building at 3315 Central avenue, now nearing completion under the supervision of Architect C. Smith and constructed by J. C. Broussard is unique in many ways. This suite of offices embraces all of the latest features necessary for the treatment of diseases of man. Light, ventilation and heating arrangements are unexcelled; sterilization and other elements of safety for the patients security are unsurpassed. The building is fireproof and no expense has been spared in securing the very best. The walls are hand decorated and woodwork Mahogony, adding elements of beauty unsurpassed among our group in the city, and equalling in thoroughness any to be found in Los Angeles, barring none, with the added advantage of being on the ground floor.

Dr. M. J. Marmillion, one of the best Fealme Specialists in the city, who is practising the unique system of curng many baffling diseases without resorting to the knife, will occupy this special building on or about the 1st of December. It is hoped that in the near future a clinic will become a part of these modern facilities.

The public is cordially invited to inspect the conveniences offered. The project here's mentioned marks a 'NEW DAY' for the group in the city, indicating a desire for better things and putting forth a tangible effort to secure something of the "Better Nature." Central Avenue may now boast of having a real group Doctor's office, one that may be indicated to visitors without shame. It is hoped that other substantial buildings of our people will soon be gracing the Avenue.

Choral Society Scores Mighty Triumph

The Los Angeles Choral Society, under the direction of Mrs. Clara Hulbert, featuring Mr. Frederick Skinner, phenominal tenor, for the benefit of the Second Baptist Church building fund, scored a signal success in their initial concert at Philharmonic Auditorium on last Tuesday evening.

The great Chorus lived up to its advance reputation and performed in faultless manner, complete harmony was ever present and stamps the director as a musical genius of the first water.

The numbers rendered by Mr. Frederick Skinner were superb and were well received by the large audience, which was most generous in its applause. It was the consensus of opinion that Mr. Skinner has before him a wonderful future. His rich baritone voice, with its wide range and exquisite expression won the plaudits of the people.

Ministers Vigorously Assail And Denounce "Jim Crow" Ideas And Speech Of Negro Pastor

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 26, 1926.
Mr. C. R. McFadden,
Editor, "South Los Angeles News"
352 E. 68th St., City,
Dear Sir:—

The Interdenominational Ministers' Alliance desires to make known its position relative to an article which appeared in your paper Friday, Nov. 19th inst. under caption "Colored Preacher speaks at Meeting". In the alleged address, the Rev. W. A. Venerable countenanced, encouraged, and offered to work for segregation in wholesale, of the colored people. Concerning this, the Alliance would say—

First. Every man has the right to his estimate of himself, and also his opinion on all matters, and therefore Mr. Venerable's stand goes without our concern or interference, as an individual.

On the other hand, as a Christian Organization, composed of plain law abiding American citizens, who believe in the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, we do not believe in nor endorse the sentiments expressed by the Rev. W. A. Venerable. He therefore did not, nor does he now represent us, and he has been asked for his resignation as our secretary. As American citizens we stand for, and expect nothing more nor less than that guaranted all our fellow citizens under the Constitution and before the law.

Requesting that you make known our position, we are, dear sir,

Faithfully yours,
INTERDENOMINATIONAL MINISTERS' ALLIANCE.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Rev. W. A. Venerable, Pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist Church, Los Angeles, delivered an address, Thursday evening, November 16th, to the Freeset Improvement Association, an organization of white people, having as one of its objects the keeping of Negroes, Japanese, in fact all people who do not happen to be white, out of the territory bounded by Slauson, Manchester, Central Avenue and Main Street. In this address the Rev. Mr. Venerable is alleged to have advocated segregation of the races, separate schools for Negroes and whites. He branded the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People as an organinition in the hands of politicians for the purpose of vote-getting. He advocated a campaign of education to create sentiment for this movement for the positive segregation of the races.

Those of us who have lived in the South, know what the result of race segregation is. It means inferior school buildings and equipment, inequality of accommodation on the railroads. In fact there are portions of the South where a Negro cannot secure Pullman accommodation, due to the unjust segregation of the race.

The Interdenominational Ministers' Alliance wishes the public to know that its position on this matter is far from that expressed by the Rev. W. A. Venerable. The Alliance believes in the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, and therefore takes the position that no race should be discriminated against; that all men, regardless of race or color should have equal opportunities along all lines. They should be permitted to live any place they are financially able to live.

The Rev. Venerable's position is so far from that held by the Alliance that this body has requested his resignation as Secretary.

Faithfully,
THE INTERDENOMINATIONAL MINISTERS' ALLIANCE.

Y. M. C. A.
Los Angeles, Nov. 24, 1926.

We, the members of the Welfare Committee of the Interdenominational Ministers' Alliance, beg leave to report the following:—

1st. After a most careful and exhaustiv investigation, we find that utterances attributed to the Rev. W. A. Venerable, as published in a newspaper known as "The South Los Angeles News", in its issue of Friday, Nov. 19, 1926, are substantially true as those of Mr. Venerable's delivered at a public meeting.

2nd. That the utterances referred to are damaging. That Mr. Venerable's attitude and language misrepresent us and vitally affect the welf being and future of our group. And materially give comfort, encouragement and assistance to ill-disposed members of the white people who despise, would segregate, and otherwise miss-use and all-treat us as Negroes.

3rd. That Mr. Venerable's position, as disclosed in his speech now appearing in public print, is altogether out of harmony with Christianity, and should be, and is hereby, repudiated.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. We recommend a special Committee to be appointed by the President of this organiation to make known to the "South Los Angeles News" our position as American Citizens, as against that of Mr. Venerable's: And request that the same be printed in the next issue of that paper.

2. We further recommend that the statements of Mr. Venerable as printed in "The South Los Angeles News" and also the findings and the action taken by the Interdenominational Ministers' Alliance be printed in all the Colored papers of this city.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 25.—Harry J. Wachs, a Republican worker of the 40th division of the 24th Ward has been sentenced to two years in prison, and must pay a fine of $1,000. Wachs had pleaded guilty to false registration. It appeared that he was the dominating factor in the forgery of forty-six signatures on the division registration books, and upon investigation it was found that the voting lists contained over one hundred false names. Several colored workers were implicated in the fraud. Leslie B. Robinson pleaded guilty to the charge of registering votes unlawfully and has been sentenced to three months in the county prison, testimony being brought out that Robinson registered about thirty persons in his district to save them time. William Nichols and Clarence Gross and Lewis Linzer, all of the same neighborhood, were also arrested, but charges against the three last named were nolle prossed.

COMMENTS

By: W. J. WHEATON

In reply to the numerous letters and telephone calls received in protest to our stand in commenting on the waste of money in the purchase and erection of churches, we will say: No, we are not opposed to churches. We stated that we deemed them essential as "one of the mediums of racial progress." Neither are we inclined to atheism though we do plead guilty of slipping away to some quiet place, where the birds chant the anthems accompanied by the music of the giant trees under the masterful touch of their Creator, and where we can contemplate calmly on the foibles and hypocricies of life and worship God.

x—xx—x

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth His handiwork. So sang the Hebrew poet centuries ago. It was taught us in youth and remembered in maturer years. We reiterate the statement, that the four wall of brick mortar, even when the form of consecration is considered, does not constitute a House of God unless the spirit of Christ abide therein. It is not the object of this column to create hatreds nor awaken other than helpful thought, but, if we have stirred the leaders of our religous and moral lves to some constructive thinking, we are satisfied. In the language of the street: "And that's THAT!

x—xx—x

We have done splendid in getting racial representation in the state legislatures. Illinois heads the list with 5. New York and Missouri follow with 2 each. California and Nebraska contribute 1 each. Don't become discouraged. By'm by ketchum congressman. It has been 30 years since a Negro was elected to a Nebraska legislature. It shows that the pendulum is begining to swing back. The days of Rainey, Bruce, Small and the prior coterie of Negro legislators may be repeated, with this addition, increased INTELLIGENCE.

x—xx—x

Opportunity, for the Negro farmer, is gradually closing its door in the State of California. The Middle Western farmer and the foreign immigrant are seeing the great possibilities of the state and taking up desirable land. Soon the Negro farmer will wake up, but then, it will be too late. Products of the State are being shipped to the Orient to compete with Oriental productions. The markets of the nation bid for its fruts. Go where you will, on some shelf, in some foreign clime, you will find some production of California's soil. Preserved California fruits and vegetables find a market the world over. Come: Mr. Negro Farmer! Come to California! And bring with you INTELLIGENCE AND MONEY!

Household of Ruth No. 561, Gives Reception

HONOR GRAND LODGE AND NATIONAL DELEGATES

The mebers of Household of Ruth, No. 561, gave a rousing reception to its delegate to the Grand Lodge and to the National Meeting recently held in Pittsburg, Pa.

The members and friends turned out in large nubmers and paid their respects for the occasion.

Mrs. Martinez as Mistress of Ceremonies presented a highly creditable program which was enjoyed by all. Miss Gray as a reader made a lasting impression when she so vividly read the poems of Phillys Wheatley; Most Noble Governor of 561, Mrs. Nannie Wilburn gave a most wonderful address of welcome, which was responded to in like manner by Mrs. D. a Wilson, other musical numbers by Miss Martinez, and Miss Washington were highly creditable indeed.

The delegates honored were: Mrs. Sadie Alexander; Mrs. M. Bates, and National Grand Treasurer, Mrs. Eliza Warner. Other honored guests were Mrs. D. Batson, P. D. N. G.; Mrs. J. G. Eggleston, R N G; Sunshine Miller, D G. T.; Isaiah Robinson, D. G. M.; J. B. Bass, P. D. G. M.; L. Cosey, D. G. D.

At the conclusion of the program presentation of flowers were made to each delegate, also to each guest who formed the group with the present and past officers. Household No. 561 set a new record for fraternal effort on this occasion.

GORDON MANOR

UPTON'S RAILROAD CLATTER

By Chas. L. Upton

OUTLOOK GOOD FOR DISTRICT

The general outlook for the Los Angeles district at the present writing looks very good as far as steady work is concerned. With the many different lines and additional cars on some trains, prosperity to a small extent is certain; from the two year man on up to the five year man conditions have improved, and they are now able to speak above a whisper and hold a line without fear of being bumped off by Bumping Brown or some other rolling stone of the district. There are any number of lines now that a two year man can hold, and a five and six year man is setting pretty. Two years ago no one in this district would have expected to see such men as Otto Johnson, Starks, and a few others that I could mention on such trains as the "Owl" nevertheless they are there now and it looks as if they are there to stay. It is a common remark that nobody wishes to grow old, but the seniority list changes this aspect, everyone wishes to grow old as far as your right is concerned.

HIGH OFFICIALS PAY LOS ANGELES A VISIT

PILLOW SLIPS

The S. P. Red caps have been giving vent to their feelings to E. L. Arn and for panning them about the way they fall for the Fifth Street Jim Crow lunch room.

E. L. Arnaud almost ran afoul of the law recently when he undertook to carry some sugar cane back to the States from Mexico.

Mr. E. L. Arnaud has been appointed assistant Railroad Clatter reporter so watch your step.

Some porters make more money in the sign out office than they do on the road, that is verbally.

Miss Vivan Kochinsesy from Chicago is the house guest of Mr. E. L. Arnaud.

On making a survey of the bidding list it was found that there are 38 lines up for bid at the present time. Have you got what you want? If not get busy and bid.

R. Tindal is bidding on line 685. Tough luck, kid, and no chance.

There is a bunch of mail in the S. P. sign out office for P. J. Anderson.

Frank Jasper is trying to sell his house at 1208 E. 33 St., which is income property and a good buy. Call around and look it over.

Many have wondered why they cut the new car on the Phoenix line out at Cvote Wells. It is on account of The S. D. and A. being unable to pull it over the hump. However it may not last long as they are figuring on putting on another train in the near future.

W. E. Marshall, a recent temporary transfer from Montreal here, is about to return to his former district after spending the summer. He says he has too much Eskimo blood in him to stay here.

When is T. D. Starks going to learn how to play pool?

Mr. Dan Hood, the writer, will be around to your house in the near future to get that subscription.

A dead head gang left San Francisco last week on the stumper after taking up thanksgiving patrons. The lucky tourist car porter who had them was Coleman, and he says he wished all the travelling public was like them, so they must have been red hot. This is the bunch that came down, J. L. Sykes, J. Carter No. 2 and W. Carter, J. A. Lee, A. S. Lee, T. D. Starks, A. S. Lewis, A. L. Arnaud, Dick Bradley, W. V. McCall. The porter said the only snake in the bunch was J. Carter No. 1.

Maid Tenie Upton is still on the sick list.

UNION PACIFIC WAITERS SING DE LUX BLUES

The boys on The De Lux are singing 'a mloud and long, trying to make both ends meet with the few patrons they are carrying to and fro on the fashionable train. Things have reached such a stage that a letter of protest was about to be filed with the D. C. Department for one night only in the windy city. After much discussion both pro and con, it was decided that one night would not be enough for so long a run and it was dropped for the time being. But as we go to press 90 per cent are in favor of cutting out at West Chicago.

Edgan C. Mosley, formerly pantryman on diner 304, has severed his connections with the company.

Haywood Perry, I. O. U. king of diner 385, is off again for some unknown reason.

Quite a few of the old familiar faces have been seen since The Gold Coast has been put on.

A number of those star waiters who have always had a great desire to be classed as Stars, can easily secure an exalted position on the "De Lux."

Henderson Jenkins was an uninvited guest to a thanksgiving dinner The reason he forgot to make connections at Columbus.

L. A. Playground and Recreation Department

A city wide tennis association, composed of tennis groups in nearly every section of the city, is being organized under auspices of the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department. With sanction of the Southern California Tennis Association, the new municipal association will hold an open championship tournament in January on the playground cement courts now being constructed in Griffith Park.

Local municipal club contests will be encouraged, these to be followed by sectional contests to end in the city-wide tournament. A corps of umpires and linesmen are to be trained by the department and these will be officially recognized.

A number of tennis clubs are already sponsored by the playground department. Hollywood telephone exchange girls now play at Poinsettia recreation grounds on Monday. A tennis tournament is under way at Ross Snyder playground. A new tennis club has been formed among employees of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation.

x—xx—x

Christmas "parties" and pageants are being arranged at the various municipal playgrounds by the department of dramatics and pageantry of the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department. The programs are already under rehearsal by hundreds of boy, girl and adult participants and many of them will be of such magnitude and color as to attract many special visitors to the play fields.

x—xx—x

Playground attendance at municipal recreation centers is at present exceeding that of the summer vacation period. The establishment of new records is attributable to the fact that since last spring there has been a rapid development of better programs than ever before undertaken and the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department is coming in more intimate touch with the residents of the districts where there are playgrounds. This week the attendance at the chief recreation areas maintained by the city approximated 60,000, Ross Snyder Playground having reached a daily average of 1,478 children and adults.

RACE BAITER AND TRAITOR

The action of the Reverend Venerable in joining forces with the enemies of his own race has been rightfully rebuked by his own brethren of the cloth. Their action was not hasty at all, but was taken after due investigation and consideration. His expulsion as Secretary of the Interdenominational Ministers' Alliance was by practically a unanimous vote for conduct unbecoming a minister and branded as an enemy to his own people.

We commend the body for this act. The sooner the other organiations clean house of this sort of character the sooner will we be in a position to present a solid and worth while front to the enemy. The position of fighting for a principle from within and without is an unequal task, therefore the quicker that all race traitors are unhorsed the quicker results will be obtained.

We do not agree with some of our most militant friends when they speak of horse whipping and applying tar and feathers to this gentry, for we are against mob rule under all circumstances, we are for law and order. Therefore the remedy is to shun such animals and divorce them from being any part or parcel of our being. This is the better way.

In slavery time there was ever present the despicable traitor who would betray his brother in chains who sought freedom and we have them to day as evidenced in the conduct of the Rev. Venerable who sought to betray his race to the Fremont Improvement Association (a second edition of the Ku Klux Klan) whether for thirty pieces of silver or not, we have yet to learn, but his utterances when speaking before them shows that he was in for betraying them just the same.

AGENDA HOLD DANCE ON UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

The "Agenda" of U. C., Los Angeles, held one of the most unique affairs of the season out on the universiyt campus Saturday, November 27. The members o fthe Belles Lettres of U. S. C. and Mr. Holloway Smith, the visiting Iowa State football player was the honored guest of the Agenda.

The purpose of this dance was to acquaint the colored students of U. C. with each other as well as to introduce a co-operative spirit between the Belle Lettres of U. S. C. and the Agenda of U. C.

The feature of the dance was a brief program in which Mr. Bunche, president of the Agenda, gave a brief talk on the purpose of the gathering. Miss Curray gave a wonderful violin selection which was followed by a speech from Miss Ellsworth, president of the Belle Lettres. A delightful solo was rendered by Miss Muckelroy followed by a well interpreted reading from Miss Brown. Mr. Smith, the Iowa football player was then introduced and he gave a short talk in which he expressed his appreciation of the excellent welcome which the members of the Agenda were extending him. Atty. Tyler and his wife and Mrs. Robinson, along with a few others were sponsors of the affair.

The members of the Agenda deserve to be congratulated upon the success and class of the dance. They proved to Los Angeles that the young colored people can give a first class affair and conduct themselves decently. This dance will go down as a tradition on the U. C., S. B., campus.

PHILADELPHIA ROYAL GIANTS SLIDE BACK TO SECOND PLACE

After holding a tight grip on the top notch of the Winter League line up so far this season, the Philadelphia Royal Giants dropped back to second place Sunday. Doc Crandall's White Kings seemed to get the Giants' number last Sunday and took both games of the double-header from them. This drops tem back to second place in a tie with the Shell Oilers for spot No. 2.

The Shell Oilers have come up to second place, throug two defeats of Pirrone's All-Stars and this week's games will tell whether the Giants will have to give up second place to them and slip back to third or start up again to the top. Thanksgiving game, postponed on account of rain, was set for Thursday, Dec. 2nd, between the Giants and the Kings.

Saturday and Sunday Pirrone's All Stars will lock horns with the Phillies at White Sx Park, the League battle ground. And this is how the teams stack up at present:

White King Soaps	8	5	.615
Phila. Royal Giants	7	6	.538

Young Jack Thompson Is Taking Much Needed Rest

Jack Thompson

No alibis; no claims; no spiteful cracks about the referee—that's oung Jack Thompson when asked his own reasons for losing the decision in his fight with Russ Whelan at the Olympic Auditorium last week. "I was just tired, that's all," said the dapper Beau Brummel in his quiet, genflemanly way. "Seemed like I just couldn't get going; didn't have any 'pep.' There were only two times during the fight that I felt like myself." And that is the whole story.

His capable and very efficient Tom Sielski says practically the same thing, so it must be so, for these two have a perfect understanding and are more than fighter and manager; they are pals.

Mr. Sielski has been able to keep in perfect touch with the "powers that be" and has been able to kee pJack so well supplied with fights that he has not had a rest spell between for a long time. He has really the boy's interest at heart and keeps in close touch with his mother and father of whom Jack is very proud. Their influence has helped to make Jack the clean liver he is and in January when he will be ready to go again he will be at his best, ready to cut a swath among the lightweights and junior welters.

Miss Ederle Will Not Come To California To Swim Catalina Channel

GERTRUDE EDERLE

Although Gertrude Ederle, the wonder-girl has been earnestly solicited to come to California and enter in the great channel swim from Catalina Island to the mainland at the first of the year, she has refused the tempting bait held out.

Since her historical swim, it is true another woman has made the difficult crossing of the choppy English Channel, but her feat will always stand out as being the first time i nhistory the difficult peak of athletic achievement has been attained by a member of the so-called weaker sex.

YOU WON'T HAVE TO GO TO ENGLAND TO HUNT THE KING'S PHEASANTS

Peterson declares that in a very few years pheasant hunting will be had in Southern California. Over 3000 pheasant were brought to Southern California and released last month in various locations. The birds multiply fast and under protection by the state, should make ideal hunting in three to five years.

In oLs Angeles County are three locations which in former years produced wonderful valley quail hunting. They are Mint, Bouquet and San Francisquito canyons. Good valley quail hunting also should be had around Hemet, Winchester, Elsinore and down through San iDego County to the Mexican border.

The quail limit is fifteen birds a day or thirty in one week for desert and valley and ten birds a day or twenty a week for mountain quail. The rabbit limit is fifteen a day or thirty a week with the exception of District 4 of Southern California, where there is no limit.

Too much meddling spoils a family or spoils a good boxer. When a couple are going good there are always meddling Janes with unsavory advice. When a fighter is going good there is some fellow waiting on every corner to tell him how to fight, how to train how to treat his manager, and what to do with his money. And in all instances it causes trouble. Moral: Keep your muzzle on.

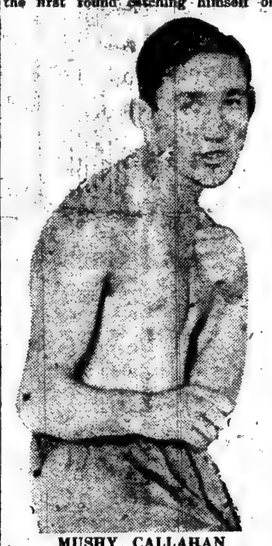
go against Geo. Godfrey or Homer Smith. In the event that Wills is not secured, Godfrey will probably be pitted against Smith.



Although age and lack of action beat Wills he is not yet in the discard and is getting plenty of offers. As the man who caused more pugilistic and political upheaval, more arguments, law suits, etc., in his chase of Dempsey than any former boxer, Wills would be a great attraction. Coupled with his fighting ability, and everyone knows he can really fight in a "hit in clinches" bout; he would fill Wrigley Field and the optimistic Donald could come from behind the bad breaks he has gotten.

Threatening weather, postponement and a changed card caused him to call off Monday's bouts owing to prospect of a small attendance.

Young Langford Deserved Draw Decision at Callahan De Hate Event

On account of the quick ending of the main event between Mushy Callahan and Paul De Hate at Jack Doyle's arena Tuesday night, the semi-windup between Young Sam Langford and oJhnny Lamar furnished the principal entertainment of the evening. Lamar's hand was raised at the end of the fast battle but it should by all means have been a draw. Langford stumbled back in a fast exchange in the first round catching himself on one hand which counted against him as a knock-down. But he easily evened matters up by shooting hard straight lefts to Lamar's jaw.

Langford stumbled while running on the road a couple of weeks past and split open a finger on his right hand. It was not well and he could not use the hand to any advantage even though he ha dplenty of opportunities. But if referee Joe Rivers and Johnny Lamar were not of the same family as is stated he at least would have gotten a well earned draw.

Callahan sprung the surprise of the season by pulling a one-minute knockout of the dangerous Paul De Hate, who has made a sensational rise this summer by beating good boys who Callahan did not beat. Jackie Sherman, a willing mixer and hard puncher lost to Benny Miller in a close decision.

Tokichi Kawata, a game little Jap, who knows infighting won over Jimmy Schwartz in the second event and Kazuo Takashia, Jap, much taller and stronger than his opponent won over the game little colored fighter Eagle Thomas.

On December 14th at the great Doyle's Vernon Arena, Mr. Gerald Slaughter better known as "Baby Gans" is going to present Mr. Russ Whelan, a chicago citizen, with a "do your shopping early" Christmas present. And that same Christmas present is going to be a good, sound thrashing, maybe a knockout.

And why this wise crack? you ask, and how do we know so much. Well, they are matched to fight ten rounds on one of the best cards the match-making artist, Wadham has lined up this year, and to meet will mean the loss of the prestige Whelan has gained, by beating the over-worked Jack Thompson, Tuesday before last, in the Olympic arena.

One reason Gans will beat him is because Gans fights somewhat on the same style as Whelan; on his toes jabbing fast with his left and watching for the opening his opponent makes when he leads. Gans is great on countering and he will out-counter Whelan. Then he has had a good rest while recovering from an infected tooth and training daily is in tip-top shape. Thompson would have beat Whelan too even though he fights a crowding open style; not much on the feinting and foot-work but keeping on his man till he finds the mark for that crushing right. He was too tired to keep up with the reverse speeding Whelan but Gans is fresh and will keep in close connection with him at all times. That the house will be a sell-out is a sure shot for Whelan s now considered as big a danger to the colored boys as O'Brien was. So, although there is no Thompson, Gans will avenge the defeat of one of the three colored kings.

HOWARD SMOTHERS LINCOLN 32-0.

CAPACITY CROWD JAM STADIUM

(By Associated Negro Press)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.—Before a crowd which jammed to capacity the new Howard University Stadium, the Howard "Bisons" revenged their past grievances against the Lincoln "Lions" by the score of 32-0 in the annual football classic of the Negro colleges of the United States, at Hoard University, Washington, D. C., on Thanksgiving Day, November 25th, 1926.

It was Howard's day. hTe team, which had gone through the entire season under the direction of Coach Watson with all victories, took Lincoln's scalp by steady, incessant hammering, scoring in every period, and gaining eighteen first downs to Lincoln's six, three of which were made on penalties to Howard. Howard completed three out of ten attempted forward passes for a gain of 56 yards, and Lincoln five out of eighteen for 29 yards. In scrimmage Howard gained 275½ yards to the visitor's 36. Coles, C. Simth and Dan Brown did stellar ground-gaining for the "Bisons," although there was no sensational running, while Thomas, Capt. V. B. Smith, and Rainey were towers of strength on the line.

Hibbler, Lincoln's quarterback, deserves hnoorable mention, also Temple, the end, who connected with more than one pass and Captain Grasty, at tackle. But all in all it was not a game of outstanding individual achievements. Rather it was a stronger and faster Howard machine mowing down a weaker and less aggressive Lincoln ensemble.

In the piling up of Howard's points C. Smith contributed two touchdowns, Coles contributed two more, and Simpson, eft end, added the other by leaping into the air to catch an aerial toss of 28 yards and racing 25 yards more for a touchdown—the only really sensational play of the game. Coles' toe was succesful only in two of the tries for extra points after touchdown.

Howard Stadium Dedicated with Impressive Exercises

CONGRESSMAN MARTIN B. MADDEN DELIVERS ADDRESS

(By A. N. P.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 1.—The Hoard University Stadium was dedicated here Thanksgiving Day with impressive exercises, the least of which was not the 32-0 defeat handed Lincoln by Howard, before thousands of gradhates and friends of the two universities that are usually referred to as the leading colleges educated primarily for Negro youth.

Prior to hte game, which each year draws a crowd numbered well into the thousands, the assemblage made its way to the newly acquired athletic field. There exercises were held commemorating what was termed the highest achievement from an athletic standpoint in recent years, representing as it does the only stadium owned by a Negro college.

CONGRESSMAN MADDEN

The dedication address was delivered by Congressman Martin B. Madden of Illinois. The congressman has all times shown a keen interest in the welfare and progress of Howard University and it was befitting that he should be the chief speaker. He commended the university upon its achievement and referred to the place which Howard held in the educational circles of the race and what Howard graduates were doing to promote the advancement of the Negro in America in all walks of life.

The program was presided over by Dr. Mordecai Johnson, president of Howard University, who spoke of the "new Howard Spirit" and outlined briefly the program of development which the university had adopted.

As an indication of appreciation of his efforts in acquiring the stadium and in helping to provide adequate athletic health and recreational activities for Howard University, Dr. Emmett J. Scott, secretary-treasurer of the university and the "moving spirit" in accomplishment which was being celebrated, was presented an ebony and silver plaque. Dr. Scott responded to the pesentation address with a statement as to what the stadium should mean to Howard.

A crowded house greeted the participants in the baby contest at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church last Tuesday evening, and listened to an interesting musical and literary program under the direction of Mrs. William A. Bigby, Jr. The dominant feature of the evening was the preachers and deacons quartetts, which were unusually amusing. Mrs. Emma Chance presented little Jesse Kimble with the first prize, little Joseph H. Dunlap, Jr., the second, little Melvin David Dixon, third and little Vernada Sims the fourth. The sum of $128.00 was realized from the contest.

TOO DOGGONE MUCH MOTHER-WIT

MRS. JETER DEFENDS HER ADMINISTRATION OFFICE AS TREASURER

"I ain't got no book learnin' but I got a doggone lot of mother-wit," said the President of E. L. Baker Auxiliary one evening at her home in giving vent to her elated feelings after being elected for the year 1926. But to prove it was only the shadow and not the substance of mother-wit she possessed, when it became necessary to audit the books and the Auditing Committee brought in the report that the Treasurers' books did not balance, and that there was $20.00 difference, the President, Emma Johnson, colored, had a number of others to examine the books. All said the same thing—that the books did not balance and that there was $20.00 difference. All told the truth but none could say why there was that difference. Under the circumstances, it was impossible for the books to balance. The money was not drawn from the bank and and had not been put in the bank. It was part of the receipts of the evening. At one time $9.54 was voted out, at another tme $9.90 was voted out. Each time $10.00 was given to the secretary. As the money was not deposited in the bank, naturally the bank book did not show it. It was only necessary for this statement to be made on the cash book and Minute book. The treasurer was not present when the report was made, and before securing a statement from her, which was quite necessary, she was accused of stealing the money. And when she attended a meeting at a later date and attempted to state why the books did not balance, she was told by the President in speaking of her newly appointed Treasurer (one who before had been Treasurer): "I have a Treasurer now who won't steal, and one who won't let anybody else steal. Imagine the President of so worthy an Organization as a Spanish-American War Auxiliary expressing herself so comonly, and in the presence of some very intelligent ladies. There were some white ladies visiting and one of them told her she did not think there had been any money misappropriated, but that it was short-sghtedness on the part of someone.

The next time this Treasurer attended a meeting after that was with a written statement requesting of the President, Emma Johnson and Senior Vice-President, Ida Taylor, a simple apology. I say 'simple apology' because the President would have made such a one as her "Doggone Mother-Wit" would have afforded, which would have been very simple indeed. I don't know what kind of an apology the Senior Vice-President, Ida Taylor would have made, but judging from this insulting remark—"If it were me and I was accused of stealing anything from the Auxiliary, I would run my hands in my pocket and pay it and stop the argument"—her apology would have been just about as simple as the President's. However, no apologies were made, and as soon as the Secretary had finished reading the request, the President rapped her gavel and said: "That thing shall not come up on this Auxiliary Hall any more. That thing has been settled."

But nothing has been done on her part to bring about a settlement, and how can it be settled without the principal figure in the case knowing something about it? It was just another display of 'Mother-wit.'

I didn't know before that there was a law to prevent one from defending one's self. I thought all laws gave one that privilege, regardless of what they are accused and I still believe they do: except that laws that are guided by 'Mother-wit' instead of common sense.

In speaking of the Treasurer who wouldn't steal (the woman who, to hear her talk, invented the Banking System; the woman who finds it necessary to show the Bookkeeper in the bank where to 'get off at' for making mistakes on her book) I ame sure the President forgot the condition in which this woman, Sarah Snowden, once had the Auxiliary money when she was before Treasurer. She was supposed to have deposited the money in the First National Bank to the credit of E. L. Baker Auxiliary. But when the President with Secretary and the now accused Treasurer went to have the money arranged so these officers could handle it there was no money there to the credit of E. L. Baker Auxiliary. She had deposited the money in her own name and the President, Secretary and Treasurer were told by this Bank Official thae only way they could claim the money was to secure her signature the same as was in the bank or she must come in person to release it. The President Secretary and Treasurer delivered the message. It was just a matter of concealing her ignorance why the President did not let that Treasurer make a statement. She had made it appear that her accusation was true. She knew that if that Treasurer made a statement she would clear away the doubt in the minds of the members and that would reduce the height of her elevated feelings.

How well do I remember the words of the Department President on the night of the election of officers: "Now sisters, you are about to choose a President. Whatever you do, choose your best. A very wise choice was made in the way of choosing a Social Autocrat. One who at the expiration of two years cannot perform a simple duty in the way of conducting the Auxiliary without the use of a book.

It will soon be election of managers and I hope the next President will be one with a "Dorgone lot of Common Sense," instead of 'Mother-wit.'

The prevalence of Ignorance is the cause of the non-attendance of so many of the intelligent women who have joined the Auxiliary. They joined because they realized the many branches of education that are contained and they desired to come in contact with people who know and who do things, but not to be dominated by ignorance.

MRS. M. E. JETER

Keep South California Free

My dear friends and loyal citizens of South California:

I am surprised and dumbfounded at the overwhelming stupidity of some of our citizens who are opposed to the division of California into two separate states. Many of the opponents thereof voice their sentiments against such a movement in a manner that would cause an ignorant person to believe that such a project were an act of secessionism. Cannot such people see for themselves that which is throttling our fair Southland? The people of Southern California and the people of Northern California have no more in common than the people of Florida and the people of Maine.

There are fifteen gubernatorial divisions of our Atlantic Coast which elect their own governors and send their own representative to Congress and the Senate and does any person believe for a moment that the citizens of Florida would for one moment tolerate the upkeep of roads and institutions in Maine with Florida's tax money? As long as our citizens of the roses and palms send their taxes to keep up the roads and institutions of the snowdrifts and boulders of the frozen north just that long will our fair Southland lie parched and sunbistered for the lack of the waters from Boulder Dam while we sit with our hands tied and watch the politicians of the frozen North; administer to our little woes.

Tehachippi's peak should mark the line where all loyal citizens South thereof could point with just pride to our own beautiful capitol in the glorious city of Los Angeles. Our tax money which is thrown as chaff to the chilly breezes of the North, would soon build us a finer state building than exists in any state in the union today. We have scores of good citizens in the Southland today who understand our requirements far better than any of the politicians of the North.

With the Southland free to her own administrations Los Angeles would reach her three million population mark n less than ten years. Admittedly it would be a terrible blow to our neighbors of the frozen North to be obliged to assume their own responsibilities but eventually it must and will be so. Why not now? It requires as long to make the journey from San Diego to the present wintry capitol as it does to travel to Salt Lake City, Utah.

Just fancy the people of Florida traveling to Boston on court business! I am for liberty, sane government and South California.

Give us government in our midst administered by representatives from our midst and Southern California will do the rest. Improve our own harbor at home and erect our own state capitol with our taxes.

Cut loose that will stone from our necks and destroy forever that machine which is throttling every tax payer and property owner South of the Tehachipi's peak.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE 8TH AND TOWNE

Cooperation of African Methodism was strongly demonstrated in a Union Thanksgiving Service at First Church. The Rev. Dr. Austin pastor of 2nd Church preached the sermon.

The speaker gave as a retrospective glance at the old historic customs which showed how far we had departed from Puritanic attitude and illustrated it by shewing blasphemy was a cardinal offense to the great Eternal in self offering instead of sin offering. However to the sovereign will all men must bow and every tongue must confess, in utter obedience.

Dr. Miller, president of the A. M. E. Alliance officiated. After the sermon, he called for expressons, many responded. "Shall we meet beyond the River" was then sung and the congregation stood, in silent prayer in sacred memory of the late Dr. J. E. Edwards, the former pastor and builder of 8th and Towne as she now stands, and who died in full triumph of faith, November 22, 1926, in Waco, Tex. Mrs. Cranshaw, sister and Mss Edwards, the daughter of the late deceased are at this writing en route to Waco, Tex., to attend the funeral.

The Ministerial Alliance authorized Rev. A. E. Liles, pastor of Ward Chapel and secretary of the Alliance to wire condolence to the family of the deceased. Thus closed one of the best annual Thanksgiving days in the history of our Methodism in this section of the country.

SUNDAY EVENING AT THE BIG TENT

WHOSE SON IS CHRIST? Prove it—will be the subject at the BIG TENT, 20th and Central Ave. presented by the Evangelist Pastor P. G. Rodgers.

At no more opportune time could such a message be brought to the people, many already are beginning to doubt under the baneful influence of MODERNISM.

To the faithful Fundamentalist this sermon will be as rain in a dry time and to the one who halts—doubting before the modern philosophy of 'Who is the Christ?'—Pastor Rodgers promises to not only interest but to assist mightly in settling the question.

Let none hesitate to attend these services because of the cool nights—for it is just as warm in the Big Tent as in a Big Church—Modern heating appliances take away all the chilll. Services are conducted every night during the week except Monday and Saturday, at 7:45 P. M. Everybody is made to feel at home.

GOD AND YOUR CAUSE

"I know that thous will maintain the cause of the afflicted and the right of the poor." Ps. 140:12.

This psalm of David was dedicated to the "chief musician" and was therefor written after he had become King of all Israel and organized the choirs of the Tabernacle worship. He therefore knew life as a poor laborer, as a special outcast and political outlaw and as a rich and royal ruler of a mighty nation. David had known trouble in all its forms and affliction in all its phases.

Moreover he spoke by the Spirit, the Spirit of the Lord, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of Knowledge and fear of the Lord—the seven fold Spirit of God. Isa. 11:1-10, Rev. 3:1.

The words of our text therefore are tried words, true and faithful. They are full of consolation to the believer and show us to whom to go and on whom to depend in our present and coming trials and distresses.

I. The Knowledge of a tried faith, "I know that the Lord will maintain the cause of the afflicted. Faith realizes, knows, becomes certain. There are things about the help and consolations of religion that the believer can know. God invites us to try Him to acquaint ourselves with Him and be at peace. The heart can know. Get knowledge in divine matters. I Know."

II. God's help of the afflicted. "I know that the Lord will maintain the cause of the afflicted and the right of the poor."

There are various kinds of affliction. There is the ffliction of injustice. When one is treated wrong and unkindly, hated without a cause, maligned in the newspapers, lives under the burden of a constantly perverted public sentiment denied the benefits for which he is taxed, driven from the doors of public places of service and comfort, without regard to personal decency and refined behavior, it is an affliction hard to bear. "Oppression maketh the wise man mad" said the book of divine wisdom. It does all right.

"But He that is higher than the highest regardeth, and there be higher than they." Ecc. 5:8. Heavens decree only needs time for fulfillment, and what men sow they reap; while there is a glorious compensation for every ill endured.

Then there is the affliction of poverty and deprivation. O how it sometimes tries the soul to see others pass with the haughtines sof pride and plenty and vaunt their success or good fortune while you labor and strive and then have but little—while often the soul is worried how to meet the rent or meet the payments in this or that, or the furniture must go back. It is an affliction on the soul. It tests you out. I admit it. But take your cause to heaven, to Jehovah, to the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. He will help you. He will maintain your cause. I know, for I have tried him. David had and he knew. I have and I know. The Lord will maintain your cause.

Then there is the affliction of accident and disease. Be it on you or on those you love, it burdens life, it takes away the usefulness and joy of existence, it blasts hope anddestroys ambition, it makes unhappy day and night and helps the specter of poverty to frighten the soul. There is help against it up yonder. The soul that knows the way to God knows the way to help and health and holiness and power. Amen. I would like to give you many instance sof this by way of illustration, but I may not for time will not allow.

III. The right of the poor. The poor do they get their rights? The rich, the important get two months trial in court where two hours would settle it for a poor person,—maybe not so long. It makes one fear that laws are not made to give justice, but to afford employment and emolument to lawyers. Ah, Lord God, thou knowest. What can we say?

Ah, the right of the poor. What you get in this world must be fought for, no matter if it is yours, by franchise and constitution and legal statute and what not. Now money can't fight but it can hire fighters. Who then is to maintain the right of the poor. They have no money. No imposing wealth is a wall about them or

WATTS

The Odd Fellows are gaining ground by erecting their beautiful structure, a $2000 hall, a building creditable to any city. They had their cornerstone laying on last Sunday and every move was carried out by the Order which deserves the highest honor.

Say, do you know the people of Watts are coming to the front. Mr. Frederick Skinner will make his appearance before the public displaying his wonderful talent November 30th at the Philharmonic Auditorium as a star for the future in the Choral Club, and then he leaves for a tour of the big cities.

The choir of A. M. E. Church rendered a lively program on the 27th inst to a full house. Rev. Scott was delighted to see how each one tried to do their best. We must say everybody of intelligence tries to make their church workers do their best; we have everything to encourage the young people to look up.

Mr. Lewis Francis of Ruby St. has been very low but we thing he is some better at this writing.

Mrs. Mary Bateman has moved back to Watts.

Mr. Wright from Pasadena was down visiting old friends, Sunday evening.

N. J. will have their installation, Dec. 27th with the brethren.

Pullman Men Hold Important Convention

(By: A. N. P.)
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 26.—The Sixth Annual Convention of the Pullman Porters Benefit Association of America was held here. Sixty-two elected delegates coming from all the larger districts embraced by Pullamn service, including representatives from Montreal on the northwest; Jacksonville, Fla., on the southeast; Seattle, Wash. on the northwest, and Los Angeles, Cal. on the southwest, gathered for the annual meeting. These 62 elected delegates were the duly elected and authorized representatives of 8468 Pullman porters and shop employes who are bembers of this Association.

The address of welcome was delivered by Mr. Perry Parker, the Grand Chairman, and responded to by Mr. Henry Pope, Jr., of Nashville, Tenn. On the evening of November 16th, a public reception was held for the delegates in the Y. M. C. A., 37th street and Wabash avenue, which was largely attended and hugely enjoyed by the delegates, their families and host of friends in attendance.

On Wednesday evening, November 17th, a banquet was tendered by the officials of the Association to the delegates in the beautiful Fort Dearborn Elks Club, 3920 South Parkway, at which Director I. F. Smith of Chicago was the Toastmaster, and Mr. George Arthur, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. was the guest of honor. The high point in Mr. Arthur's address was "Be loyal to yourself and in being so, loyal to the Association."

In the daily sessions of the convention, reports were read from all departments of the Association and from each of the Local Lodges thereof, and many matters of interest and of importance to the membership were discussed, considered and passed on. Throughout the convention the prevailing spirit as emphasized in many of the addresses was lovalty to the Association, loyalty to the Pullman Company and continuance of friendly co-operation between the company and its employees. The annual elections were conducted on the afternoon of Saturday, November 20, with the following results: Perry Parker was re-elected Grand Chairman by acclamation; the following directors were re-elected: I. F. Smith, Central Zone; T. A. Crenshaw, St. Louis Zone, and S. J. Freeman, New York Zone. J. M. Brown, porter of the Pennsylvania Terminal District, was elected Vice-Chairman, succeeding L. A. Coffin, Porters' Instructor of the Los Angeles District. O. E. Robinson was re-elected Grand Secretary.

As a result, Negroes will continue to ride on the rear seats of busses in Columbia as heretofore.

Pacific Beach Club Members To Get Money Back

Pacific Beach Money Backers Win Out

On Saturday, December 4th, the Board of Directors of the Pacific Beach Club which is composed of Attorney E. Burton Ceruti, Pres.; Dr. J. M. Smith, Vice Pres.; Dr. V. Robinson, 2nd Vice Pres.; Hon. F. M. Roberts, Sect.; Dr. A. Bauman, Treas.; Dr. W. R. Carter; Dr. W. C. Gordon, Dr. B. C. Orffut, and J. B. Bass, in reular session assembled by a vote of 5 to 1 accepted the offer which had been tendered by Hal R. Clark which provided that all who had invested any money and all creditors would receive not only their money back, but 10 per cent interest form the time they had been out of use of the same.

One thousand dollars good faith money has been put up in escrow as a guarantee that sufficient money for the purpose of paying all claims as noted above within a period of thirty days.

These are the conditions under which the directors voted to accept the offer made and unless money is paid by the time mentioned the lease revert back to the club.

It might be further stated that there was a sharp division among the Board members on the question the President, backed by Drs. Smith, Robinson and Orffutt, wanted to fight to obtain the beach for all time and posterity. On the other hand the majority composed of Dr. A. Bauman, Dr. W. C. Gordon, Hon. F. M. Roberts, Dr. W R Carter and J. B. Bass, contended that in the situation brought about since the fire, the broken morale of the people, endless litigation in the holding of the beach an impossibility and in the end the people would sight, the inability to finance, made be without the beach and money as well And to the end that a better taste and feeling should exist, reinforced by at least 90 per cent of the Charter Members voted that the people get their money back.

L. A. Baptist Ministers Union Disapproves of Rev. Venerable's Actions

The Los Aneles Baptist Ministers Union in session December 6, 1926, listened to the Committee's report whichw as appointed a week previous to investigate the articles which appeared in a paper known as The South Los Angeles News, dlivered by the Rev. Wm. A. Venerable.

The different statements which appeared in the said article dwelt largely upon segregation of our people—separate schools and the separation of the races, white and black. This addres was delivered by the Rev. Wm. A. Venerable, at a meeting of white people in which he was one of the chief speakers. The artices purported to show that Rev. Venerable, Secretary of the Colored Ministers Union, endorsed and advocated these changes which to us as a denomination we believe are not for the best interests of our people.

Therefore, the Los Angeles Baptist Ministers Union goes on record as opposed to this article and submits its sentiments to all whom it may concern:

I. We concede that under the law of these United States that the right of free speech is denied no man.

II. Rev. Wm. A. Venerable in speaking of himself and for himself was entirely within his rights as an American citizen.

III. The Baptist of Southern California deny him the right to represent them in his private or public statements to any one, private or public purporting to convey to them the opinion of the aforesaid constituency regarding any question, moral, civil or religious, and further no organization before whom he may appear has the right to construe his statements as the express wishes or endorseemnt of our group and be it further understood that the Los Angeles Baptist Ministers Union disapproves the sentiment therein expressed.

The New Champions

The month of December finds two new champions on the agency staff of the Golden State Guarantee Fund Insurance Company.

Rev. Wm. Luke produced the largest volume of business in the Life Department during the month of November, while the honors in the Health and Accident Department went to Mrs. Miriam Morgan.

Rev. Luke by hard consistent work has established an enviable record with this great Company. He is engaged in two great services to humanity. In addition to serving the material needs by supplying insurance protection, he is attempting to serve spiritual needs as a local preacher in one of our Baptist Churches.

The record of Mrs. Miriam Morgan gives a very splendid example of the rewards for the virtues of patience, determination and courage. She began her career in the insurance business with several handicaps and has experienced many discouragements, but she had the patience, determination and courage to stick to the job until she made a success.

Mrs. Morgan is the first woman to wear the Health and Accident Gold Championship Button. She has made a splendid record in supplying the people of this comunity with the attractive policies and service of the Golden State Guarantee Fund Insurance Company.

Says Europe Envies America's Position In Africa

(A. N. P.)

Hampton Institute, Va., Dec. 6.—Discussing economic conditions in Africa, Miss Mabel Garney of Teachers College, Columbia University, and a well-known authority in the field of rural education, stated to the faculty and students of Hampton Institute in her address here Wednesday evening that it is not only the territory of Africa that the European governments want, but her trade For this reason she believes Europe is jealous of the American hold on Africa. For, although America owns no land in Africa, comercially she is supreme. This same situation of European jealousy over Africa was one of the chief causes of the World War. "The war was not fought so much to amke the world safe for democracy, as to make Africa safe for European powers," stated Miss Carney. "Germany now wants back what she had to give up, and Italy is loking for something that she can call her own.

"The native thinking people of Africa are awakening to the realization that the country is out of their control; they feel their racial inheritance has been slipping away from them and they are unhappy over it. Some European countries, however, are doing all they can through education to give Africa back to the native people and the country doing the most in this respect is Great Britain—Africa's best friend."

Bishop Clement Defends Al Smith

(A. N. P.)

Monroe, N. C., Dec. 6.—Official note by the church was taken of the spread of the spirit of the Ku Klux Klan among the Protestant religious bodies when Bishop George C. Clement of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, speaking here at the Sixteenth annual session of the West Central North Carolina conference of the church, declared that he would advise Negroes a thousand times "to vote for wet, Catholic, Democratic Al Smith before you cast one vot for a dry, Protestant, Ku Klux Klan Republican like Jim Watson of Indiana."

Because of the recent repulses of the wets in various states, he expressed it as his belief that there is no reason to feel that there is any chance for the repeal of the Prohibition Amendment.

"No true American," he asserted, "can oppose a man because of his religious belief, for the very cornerstone of American democracy is religious tolerance. But even to imagine a Negro voting for a Ku Klux Klansman, no matter what his party affiliations, is an absurdity."

Kentucky Editors Found Guilty; Appeal

(A. N. P.)

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 4.—William Warley, editor of the Louisville News and I. Willis Cole, editor of the Louisville Leader, were judged guilty and fined $250 each and costs on the charge of libeling Judge Ruby Lafoon by City Judge H. F. S. Bailey, acting as Special Circuit Judge at Madisonville, Kentucky.

The Louisville News was also fined $250 on a similar charge as that brought against the editor. A motion A motion to squash the libeling charge against the Leader as sustained by Judge Bailey, it being ruled that the Leader is not a corporation and is owned and managed solely by Cole. Both Warley and Cole were granted a right to appeal.

Judge Bailey presided with an agreed order entered at the September Circuit Court term, at which time the two editors appeared in Court in Madisonville represented by Allen P. Dodd, a prominent Louisville barrister, who asked for a special Judge and asked that the case be tried through briefs.

Editors Warley and Cole were indicted by the Hopkinsville Grand Jury because of articles appearing in their papers preceeding the trials of Bunyon Fleming, Nathan Bard and Columbus Hollis, who were charged with assault on a white woman and are the outcome of what Kentucky fair-minded and right thinking white and colored people feel was a miscarriage of justice in Lexington, Kentucky, when a colored man was hanged for an alleged assault upon a white woman and within the next few weeks a white amn was declared insane for an assault upon a young colored girl.

The Louisville Leader of April 10 carried a headline which said, "Justice Mocked Again; White Rapist of Eleven Year Old Colored Girl is Declared Insane." Mother Cries, "My God, Is There No Justice in America?" Indictments were brought against the Leader editor as results of headlines and article of April 17 which follows: "Madisonville Sets Stage for Speedy Trial and Hanging of Negroes: Justice Will Not Slip as in the Merchant Case." The paragraph: "Outdone by Mississippi, Georgia and other states south when it comes to making Negroes charged with certain offenses, pay the extreme penalty. Outside of the courts, Ky. bids fair to outdistance them all in the double standard of laws, the mockery of it, when the Negro is involved through speedy trials, which fall little short of legalized lynching at a very high cost, and Madisonville is about to outdo Lexington in the effort to put the old state over." The judge, who under the law, simply acts as referee in a case, has in this instance busied himself with the prosecution, and citizens, a special court has been called, a bigger army than that used at Lexington, at a greater expense, is to be on duty, and it is the concensus of opinion that Hollis, Fleming and Bard are to be swiftly convicted and hanged as to make the Lexington affair look like a penny with a hole in it. It makes no difference whether they all confess or not, or what the circumstances are!"

Indictments were brought against the editor of The Louisville News for similar expressions which carried headlines in heavy type, reading: "Legal Lynching Coming;" and the following suba: "Madisonville Men Apparently Being Rushed to Gallows by Farcial Trial; Up to Date No Guilt Proven; Guilty or Not, A Fair and Deliberate Trial Due Them. Is Kentucky to Have Another Legal Lynching? That is the Question on Each Colored Person's Lips in Kentucky."

There are a very few fair-minded People in Kentucky, white or Colored, who believe that it was not the intent and purpose of the editors to say anything through their papers that would be of an inciting or libelous nature and was brought out in the strong defense argument. Whatever criticism there was in the articles of the kind of justice handed out to Negroes in Kentucky, there was made by the editors in these cases, or any other of the past, was against the system, rather than the indvidual Judge in the cases.

The case against the Kentucky editors is not so much a case against them as it is against the whole public press; most especially, that of the Negro newspapers, and the fight is for the freedom of the whole press as guaranteed under the Constitution of the United States and the case against Cole and Warley will be carried to the Court of Appeals.

PASTOR RETURNS TO PULPIT AFTER LONG ILLNESS

After an illness of several weeks, Rev. Greggs returned to his pulpit on last Sunday morning. Although he was somewhat weak from the effects of his recent illness, he delivered a very forceful message using as his subject, "The Hero'am of Jesus."

The many members and friends of this great church were happy to have the pastor in his place again. This was evidenced by the hearty greetings given Pastor Greggs at the Inspirational Services held Sunday evening. A splendid program was rendered which included spicy remarks from several members of the church, special music by the choir and solos by the sweet gospel singer, Mr. Edward Jackson.

It was a very enjoyable occasion that demonstrated appreciation for the service of this faithful pastor. Rev. Greggs made a very fitting response which was filled with practical suggestions and was very eloquently delivered. Judging from the enthusiasm with which the pastor's message was received, this great church will start its new year with renewed vigor and zeal.

In addition to Rev. Gregg's phenoimnal record as pastor of the People's Independent Church, he has rendered great service to the community.

"Keep South California Free." We wondered what was up now. What manner of segregation or separation was now being proposed. Oh, well, it was no cause for alarm. Only an academic effusion of some person, whose knowledge of California and Californians were very meagre. There is no North or South California. But listen to this argument: "There are fifteen gubernatorial divisions of our Atlantic Coast which elect their own governors and send their own representatives to Congress and the Senate, and does any person believe for a moment that the citizens of Florida would for one moment tolerate the upkeep of roads and institutions in Maine with Florida's tax money?"

x—xx—x

NO! Nor either would the people of California expect the people of Oregon to be taxed for the upkeep of California highways. Florida and Maine are separate in their sovereignty; as are California and Oregon, but CALIFORNIA is a sovereign state from Oregon on the North to the Mexican boundary South. From the Pacific Ocean, West to the boundary lines of Nevada and Arizona, East. The Tehatchapi mountains are not a political division of the state they are just a part of the State's scenic beauty. Better be thankful that there is one part of this Comonwealth which is free from the isms of Secession, Segregation and Separation. That still has the spirit of Old California in giving to all men a SQUARE DEAL.

x—xx—x

It does seem too bad that the race has to fight the traitor within the ranks as well as the foe without. What can be done to cast out the Harpies which drag their foulness to the camp of the enemy and with loathsome talons dig pitfalls for their fellows. Some folks will never grow away from their pevious envionment; never will learn to stand upright as men should stand. Divesting a traitor of a secretaryship is not sufficient. He should be divested of his cloth and advertised throughout the world. He should be ostracised by the Race and shunned by all men.

x—xx—x

A Race sychophant can do more damage to racial progress in five minutes of talk before a sympathetic audience of unthinking whites than seems possible. That audience is in the mood to receive his words and, although, they may know that the servile parasite does not represent the Negro of this day they herald him as a "Leader of the Negro Race Advocates Segregation" or what not. God hasten the day when the men and women who are fighting the battles for Racial Betterment will not have to search the ranks for traitors but can march forward in solid array, an unbroken phalanx, waving the banner bearing the inscription, "ONE FOR ALL, ALL FOR ONE."

Mrs. Ethel Clarke, Director of Activities, Boker T. Washington Community Center, promoted an Indoor Carnival, November 29-December 1st which was a splendid success both from a matter of finance and fun.

Number of the fraternal and social socieites had booths and they each did a splendid business. Aside from that the Carnival acquainted the people of San Francisco with the significance of the Center. Those who had booths were Shasta Lodge, Elks; Jewel City Lodge, K. P.; Guiding Star Temple, Daughter Elks; Calanthes; Eastern Star; Eliza Warner, Baby Show; Mothers Club; Girls Hi and some others which we cannot recall. Mrs. Clarke provided a program of entertainment each night. The first night a playlet was given by the Dramatic Club. Second night a number of little tots gave a program of Folk Dances. On the third night the Community Glee Club put on a minstrel. Every one of the entertainments were were well worth the price. Let it be known, that if every Negro who essays to politics in San Francisco was as loyal to the Race and its interests and showed as unselfish a spirit as JOHN TAYLOR, there would be more progress made in political recognition for the Race. John may not have a college degree, nor be as fluent in "Gab" as some, but when it comes to hard "horse

Letter From Jas. A. Gray, President Central Station Railway Ushers Protective Association

My dear sir:

There is some mistake in regards to the Red Caps Club and The Central Station Railway Ushers Protective Association, of course there is a similarity in names which is misleading or confusing, but there is no connection whatever. There have been so many calls in regards to this matter that I wish to say th Protective Association is a working organization and I believe the club is a social organization. The Association is suported by its members and do not depend upon the public for its existence. The purpose of our Association is to bring about a better understanding of working condition between the Manageemnt and station employees of the S. P. Co., otherwise to care for its members when in need, which we do out of our own treasury.

JAS. A. GRAY, President.

President Jas. A. Gray Sends in Hot Reply to E. L. Arnaud On Jim Crow Lunch Room Article

Followin is a letter received from Pres. Jas. A. Gray of The General Station Railway Ushers Protective Association:

Editor Railroad Clatter.

Dear Sir:

An article appearing in your column in The California Eagle of the 27th in regards to Pullman Porters and Red Caps eating in so-called restaurants where they are not wanted and failing to patronize a Mr. Johnson. In defense of the Red Cap Porters and the writer's so-called race pride, these boys of whom I am well acquainted with, as I am one of them, do firmly believe in race pride, and a clean place to eat. Here this question comes to my mind, Do our business men know just what race pride really is? I think courteous and polite service given on equal terms as any other business man, of course this means cleanliness too, Mr. Editor. In my opinion, and I am voicing the sentiment of the boys, Cleanliness is our first step in man's pride of his place of business and should head the list in courteous service and race pride. Race pride as I understand it, like charity begins at home and thereby continues wherever the individual may choose to go in business or otherwise. These men live in clean and comfortable homes that include kitchen and dinin room, and these homes are well kept, and if by chance there is a poolroom in any of their homes it is either in the attic or the basement, and there are no loafers tolerated, I would rather you make a personal investigation of all the places around the depot, and choose the one best suited to your health. We railroad men know servic in all its branches, know when we get it and so appreciate it. Now, Mr. Arnaud, the instinct of self-preservation must do more than feed our bodies it must also feed our minds as well as protect them from the soap box Southern business man to the pesent day business man. We have three kinds of hunger instead of one, and strutting ones stuff to give the very best that is in them, is only the manifestation of one of those hungers. Do your part and not the change. Just to open up a place of business and expect us to patronize it because you happen to be of our race without giving value received, is beyond comprehension and does not constitute good business nor sane patronage from any one. Let us quit using the word RACE-PRIDE to win our point of argument, instead, put it into practice and the rest is assured. Now, I am going to ask the writer, does he feel satisfied that he was justified in his criticism of the group of men he mentioned in his article of November 27th? If so, I feel sorry for his judgment of businses ethics.

Respectfully,
JAS. A. . GRAY.

Knotty Bits

In a recent article of this paper the writer was surprised to read a statement relative to the destruction of Pacific Beach. It was not so much the actual happening, nor the motive behind the unlawful act, but the spirit of acceptance as a matter of Fate, as in the article it was stated "that since Fate has decreed all effort should be abandoned."

The author of that article is right so far as the establishment of a pleasure pier at Pacific Beach is concerned, but I daresay now that renewed efforts should be put forth to protect the rights of the Colored man. Each should be mindful of the one thought, "that where there is a will there is a way."

It is not the intention to stir up racial hatred as there exists enough at present. It is my belief that there is a right and wrong way to do things. In this intellectual age it is only logical that the course to pursue is a righteous and logical one. It is the duty to first know the ends sought are right and all agree that right in the end wins. Then too, the legal issue must be considered. One may be right in his desire but his method of procedure may be wrong, hence failure.

Under the first question of right, no one can question the equal rights of the American Negro, not even the most bitter enemy of the race. It must be remembered that the Negro is an American citizen, that this is his country, that he did his bit in the world's war, that each and every one is ready to protect the flag as was shown in the battle on San Juan Hill where the late Theodore Roosevelt would have perished had it not been for the sturdy loyal Black man.

It is not the intention of the writer to infer there should be a social reform and an amalgamation of the races. Such at this time would be a great mistake. It would be greatly criticised by all thinking people, but there should be equal citizenery civil rights, which will give to the American Negro the Pleasures of life now enjoyed by the white man and even the foreigner who has never raised a hand in defense of this country.

It is now admitted that the Pacific Beach project is lost. It must also be remembered that of all the 3500 miles of Coast of this great nation, not one is set apart for the American Negro, an American citizen. The question now comes, "What can be done about it?" I say let a little of that red blood manifest itself. Yuo must remember that worth while things are not easily obtained and that success will depend upon organized effort.

In the case of Pacific Beach one can readily see wasted energy. It is a known fact that the Supervisors of Orange County contemplated condemnation had it been rebuilt. What is true of as regards supervisorial action at that Beach will likewise be true in all county adventures.

The question now comes to mind: "Is it possible for the Negro to have a beach where he may go with pleasure to himself and family?" I hold that such is feasable and possible. That there should be a meeting of representative men and women at which time definite plans may be made. It is my desire to ultimately have a home-like community, where one may bathe and enjoy life as the Great Ruler intended.

John Bowers, the famous star of Hollywood and family surprisingly paid the family a fleeting visit, and left the host imported individual cigarette service. Covers were laid for Gertrude Norris, Claribell Parker, Louise Bevers, Vivian Lee, Emma Lee Sayers, Roy Seeley, Bernard and Ruebon Lewis and Mr. Strickland.

VINDICATED

We join in hearty congratulations to our County Supervisors who gained such a sweeping vindication in the courts from the charges against them. Especially do we congratulate the Hon. Jack Eean, who bore the brunt of battle. We feel that these men are now stronger in the estimation of the people than ever before.

MALICIOUS PROPAGANDA

Strange to say, but way out here on these Western shores we have the spectacle of men and women who doubtless to a great extent are more pitiful in their delemia of petty race prejudice than was ever the most abject son of a slave. Born in an atmosphere of ignorance and intolerance they are striving with might and main to keep the heel of oppression upon their fellow man. Many of these creatures hail from way down behind the sun. They come up from the sticks in Texas and other Southern climes and as soon as they arrive here they begin to sow the seeds of hate of race against race and in this situation to the very forefront comes the Fremont Improvement Association. This Association is organized to keep a certain portion of Los Angeles white. Now if these people were thoroughbreds and really counted for much they would buy up all portions of the spot in which they reside and keep it just as they would want. They are not such and their only capital or stock in trade is prejudice and this is the sort of propaganda they are sending forth.

Here follows a sample of the appeal sent forth by the President of this Fremont Improvement Association whose name is J. B. Brown:

"Since time began and people found it necessary to associate or live together, organization for political and economic convenience has been necessary if community progress and stability are to be maintained.

"The Fremont Improvement Association is organized for the general welfare of the district radiating from the wonderful Fremont High School, particularly south of Slauson from Hooper to Main Street. Much has been accomplished, but much must yet be accomplished.

"The integrity of our homes is endangered. We must preserve the schools and district for our own race. The safe guarding of all property against the encroachment of the Negro and Mongolian races into the district is our most urgent work. Your co-operation and membership in the Association is necessary—it is your Association—you owe it to yourself and the community in which you are a vital part to join and give all possible assistance in keping your district WHITE".

Here is another from the President, L. G. Fellows, Director of the Cressmore Improvement Association:

"We are not trying to crush or humiliate the black race, which is much younger than our own; we are only following a law of nature which has ben obeyed, respected, and fought for ever since time began—the right of living among our own KIND. The Negro, in his attempt for the uplifting of his own race, is dragging the Caucasian race down to his own level, which is wholly a selfish and unnatural effort at self advancement and we are thoroughly justified in protecting our families and our homes against this injustice."

And again we have another from J. A. Bowlzer, President Community Welfare Association:

"Why is it that so many blacks want to be called Caucasians? Why are they so relentless in their efforts to associate and be "equal" to the whites? It is envy, it is pride, it is ignorance.

"Envy is responsible for their organized attempts to break into our white communities. This envy is bound to prove a boomerang unless we miss our guess. The white people all over the country are beginning to realize that the Negro is a real menace to white institutions. And this realization will surely strengthen their desire to segregate the races."

This is the sort of propaganda reinforced by other equally sordid articles from race haters that the Fremont Improvement Association is using its effort to thwart the constituted rights of citizens of the United Staes assering their rights. They are striving to make converts to their cause and admit they are coming on slowly but surely.

It is no doubt a source of gratification that they have enlisted under their banner the Rev. Venerable of the black race and are doubtless encouraged to push their cause as never before.

This same Rev. Venerable was scheduled to appear before this same association and speak on last Tuesday evening, but things were getting a little too hot for the Reverend and he sent in an excuse that he had a previous engagement, so it is said.

In the meantime the colored people who have money to buy when bargains are offered to them by unprejudiced white persons who need the money, which fails to lose its value, even though it comes from dark hands, are exercising their God given privilege unafraid of the cohorts which would hold them back. They think not of who lives by the side of them, before them or behind them. They are simply seeking to do the best they can and enjoy their God given right for a place in the sun.

EXCLUSIVE 13 GIRLS' CLUB

Before the Exclusive 13 could have their Hollowe'en Dance given October 17th, 1925 at the Humming Bird Cafe they had to have $90 to put th dance over. Not having this sum and especially after the Lion Teamrs failed to co-operate with this club, the Club Service girls, which includes the Misses Vivian Elam, Minnie Sandford, Thelma Valentine, Cleota Battles, Frankie Williams and Theodora Jones agreed to ask one of our business men to help us finance the dance.

Mr. Wilson agreed to the proposition and after all expenses for the dance were paid the club's share of the proceeds was $29.75. The club had a total of $6.50 left in the treasury and the above named girls knew exactly how the club stood financially.

They were expected to meet at Miss Jones' Beauty Shop, Monday, November 3rd, 1925 so that the books and money could be turned over to them as Miss Jones was leaving the next day, November 4th for New York.

PIRRONE'S ALL-STARS AND PHILADELPHIA ROYAL GIANTS SHUT OUT EACH OTHER

After a "fine" week of rain which made the field fit only for "mud-horses" Saturday, old Sol shone out on Sunday, December 4th and let the Philly Royal Giants tie up with Pirrone's All-Stars. To make up for the loss of Saturday's game, a double-header was played Sunday, the Giants taking the first one, leaving the All-Stars out in the cold, but they came back in the next frame and did the same thing to the Giants. Harney pitched the first game for the Giants striking out 8 men; Duncan caught both games.

Harney pitched 5 innings of the second game, Cooper 2 innings. In the first game Bodie Wells and Duncan all made two base hits. In the second game Pick Hawks, Manuel Fonseca, Mackey and Dixon all made two base hits.

The umpires were Hack and Ferguson and official scorer, Wm. Wells Watson.

Don't get the big head! Combined with self-conceit and self-praise it complicates in a disease called "Puffitis" and "Puffitis" ends in a knockout. Knockouts come to the best of men, in business or in the ring, but they won't come nearly as quickly or draw as little sympathy if you haven't lost foresight and friends through over-swelling of the chest. Don't forget the time when the going was rough and the "pickins'" slim.

Merry-Makers Tie Nil Nisi Bonum For Top Spot in Club League

"Gee, ain't they rough," exclaimed an excited rood Sunday at Snyders Field when the La Premieres and Nil Nisi Bonums were playing. Looker enough to her perhaps but those boys were really fighting for the top.

When the game closed, the indicator heads points to Nil Nisi Bonum 13, La Premieres 6.

The game was chock full of exciting moments and outstanding plays. Benjamin and Tinsley lined up to "stone" as "ground gainers" for the N. N. B's, helping their club manfully to make those last two touchdowns in the last three minutes of the game that got them over. Martin of the N. N. B's did some sweet work, making the extra point after the first touch down, and it also showed plenty of strategy in the N. N. B. action. While the La Premieres were expecting the ball to be swooped to Benjamin field for a kick, Martin plunged thru the line with it sky-rappin' in and accepting. An unfortunate incident occurred in Tobey Jackson getting his nose broken in a mêlée.

On Sunday next, December 11th the Wilshire Olympics play the La Premieres.

The league now stands:

L. A. Premieres and N. N. B's, tied; 2 La Premieres and Wilshire Olympics, tied; 3, Hooper Wolves.

Musby Callahan Refuses Big Purse for Bout With Young Harry Wills

"Young Harry Wills(" no relation to the "Brown Panther") is back in town, with his stock boosted up 40 per cent, after four straight victories at San Diego. The machinery has been in motion for some time to get Callahan, the junior welter title-holder inside the ropes with Teddy, and at last he was offered $7500 cold cash which he promptly and flatly refused Joe Levy, Olympic's far-seeing matchmaker has grabbed off young Wills and matched him against Harry Kid Brown of Philadelphia. Brown has just recently arrived from the Quaker City but has been here long enough to be refused a match with all the other boys his weight including Callahan.

He has beaten some of the best boys in the East and is in the same stable with Eddie (Kid) Wagner, conquerer of Sid Terris and who held Tommy O'Brien to a draw back East.

Young Wills is being trained by his brother Sylvester Smith who is working him carefully so that he may win without question. While a slump seems to have fallen into the camp of the colored fighters, this boy has been coming right along. He is under the very able management of Mr. Tom Scott a young man of pleasing personality that works well towards getting Harry's goods before the public and may be well relied upon to pilot his boy on t ople top.

OLDER BOYS CONFERENCE

The Southern California Older Boys Conference held in Glendale, November 26-27-28 was attended with a cosmopolitan body of over 700 of the finest High School students in Southern California. The 28th Street Branch was well represented by a high-powered delegation of 8 members. Bernard Jefferson, the peerless President of the 28th St. Senior Hi-Y and ember of the Southern California Older Boys Council, personally supervised the designing and engraving of the beautiful Hi-Y Service Plaque and pesented it at the Conference, he worthily represented the delegation in the World Brotherhood Torch Carrygmay and also as the distinguished honor of representing the entire Conference as the Glendale Presbyterian Church addressing a fully Sunday School audience of 900 Sunday morning at the Conference devotional hour. Earl Hall held the audience spellbound while singing in basso-baritone "The Lost Chord."

Selma Wesley Shakelford contributed his Conference with his piano selections and accompaniments. Thomas Nelson, Prince Greene, Wilbur Dyson and Delaney Shealy took very active parts in applying technical points and reasoning out facts in the discussion groups and forums. Inspired by the contact and main purpose of the Conference the delegation resolved for the sake of humanity to pass "Safety First." A special dinner program is being arranged for the delegation.

Athletic activities grow wider full swing at the "Y" every day. Basketball practice began this week and you the floor is clear and the water is fine.

NEW "Y" ASSISTANT

H. A. Foster, Night Clerk

With the addition of Rev. Herbert A. Foster, local distributor of the National Baptist Voice and forerm Secretary of "Tourists Mission" under the auspices of the Home Mission Board of the National Baptist Convention, the 28th St. Y. M. C. A. has placed in a very responsible position a young man, who is affable yet sincere, energetic and capable.

Mr. Foster for years was in close touch with the activities of "Y" work in Detroit, Mich., and during the war was called by the white "Y" to take charge of religious services and Bible Class at Fort Wayne, Mich., among our group of soldier boys.

Mr. Foster is an alluminus of Toronto Bible College, where he post-graduated and accepted pastorate at Chatham, Ontario.

Mrs. Madeline Foster, his wife, is sister of Miss. Florence Cole-Talbert, dauhter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A Cole of this city.

To those who do not know where Mr. Charles Ford, Jr., of the Wilshire Olympic Club has disappeared, I take this emans of telling you Mr. Ford has been at the Olive View Sanitarium one and one-half miles north of San Fernando for three months in quest of his health and he so desires that his many friends would drop him a line if not a visit. It will cheer him up a good deal.

YOUNG DRIVERS FACING ARREST

THOSE UNDER AGE AND MINUS LICENSE AFFECTED

Wholesale arrest of children violating the traffic laws while driving automobiles were ordered yesterday by the Police Comission. The order was made at the suggestion of Commissioner Birnbaum, who said reckless juvenile drivers are breaking all traffic ordinances and have been responsible for several recent accidents.

According to the commissioners, children under 14 years of age, who are barred by the State Motor Vehicle Act from driving at any time and juveniles between the ages of 14 and 18 who have no drivers' licenses, will be taken directly to Juvenile Hall before their cases are called in court if they are found operating automobiles.

Minors between 14 and 18 who have obtained license at the request of their parents will be given traffic tags the same as adults and the police will request the courts to revoke the license of any child who commits more than one violation.

'High-Brow' Hobo Scorns Rail Rods; They Motor Now

Omaha, Nov. 9.—Riding the rods of railroad trains has been tabooed by the American hobo who prefers to ride more safely and luxuriously in the seat of some one's automobile.

Consequently, women hoboes are becoming more numerous and the male members of the American Nomad have a new problem on their hands in addition to that of unemployment, Tom Curry of Cincinnati national secretary of the International Brotherhood Welfare Association, told the annual national convention of hoboes here today.

While unemployment, as usual, will be the major topic of discussion at the convention, Secetary Curry said international peace, old age, disability pensions, foreign relations with other workers, labor agencies, labor colleges and industrial education all have a part on the convention program.

James Eads How, "millionaire hobo", who organized the International Brotherhood Welfare Asociation, under whose auspices the hobo meet is being held, also was here.

Invitations to the convention have been sent to President Coolidge and Governor McMullen of Nebraska.

Twenty-five Years Ago

October 1, 1901—twenty-five years ago—the first four-cylinder valve-in-head automobile motor ever built in American received its first road test in and around Syracuse, N. Y. It was the first Franklin, and John Wilkinson, its designer, was trying for the first time in the history of the world an air cooled automobile motor mounted on a woden frame.

PARENT TEACHERS ASSOCIATION FORM SAFETY COMMITTEE

By: Mrs. L. V. Jefferson, Vice-Press Chairman, L. A. Federation

Aroused by the many accidents which have occurred in Los Angeles County recently, caused by automobiles driven by children, the Los Angeles Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations, under the leadership of Mrs. W. W. Hopps, president, has formed a safety committee to investigate the causes and prevention, not only of automobile accidents, but all forms of preventable injury to which children are subject.

Mrs. Hopps' committee, composed of Raymond D. Pollich, principal of Grant School, whose notable work along safety lines at Grant has brot him into favorable repute chairman, the seven vice presidents and the seven counselors, have outlined the work of accident prevention as follows:

Every association principal has received an outline plan of a safety campaign in her district. She is instructed to—

1. Form a safety committee of five persons.
2. This committee should bear in mind; 1a. Safety applies to mental and moral welfare as well as physical. 2a. The welfare of the child is the paramount requisite of all education. 3a. Safety practices lead to physical safety. 4a. Statistics show that home is not a safe place, as note, burns, scalds and falls. 5a. Children should be taught the right way to perform tasks.
3. Make a census of all accidents in the district (moral and physical).
4. Catalog all hazards.
5. Co-operate with children's safety committee in school.
6. Consider all material sent in by Federation Committee.
7. Have safety section on every program.
8. Try to get parents' co-operation in accident prevention.
9. Study with principal regarding accident prevention.
10. See that children are provided with safe transportation to school, picnics, and all entertainments.

In the high schools the comittees should seek to get the co-operation of parents to prevent the hazards caused by automobiles in the hands of children.

Anyone intersted in assistin in this safety program should communicate with the principal of the nearest school.

Ho! Ho! Everybody will be going to the Annual Ball given by the Forresters Drill Team, No. 8677, A. O. F. at 15th and Main St., Thursday evening, Dec. 30th.

Grant Chapel Scores Another Success

The excellent choir of Grant's Chapel rendered a wonderful Thanksgiving program to an enthusiastically appreciative audience. Very effective remarks were offered by the Pastor, Rev. E. D. Scott. As special numbers Miss Dawden played a piano solo and Mr. Geo. Comfort a violin solo.

On Tuesday evening, November 23, Grant Chapel Choir presented a very impressive program at the Crescent Methodist Episcopal Church of Hollywood, under the able direction of Mr. L. G. Eggleston. Negro Spirituals were the features of the presentation and the soloists were all admirably cast. The members of the church regretfully saw the choir depart and requested an early repitition of the musical treat.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE

On Wednesday evening, November 24th there gathered in Odd Fellows Hall a notable gathering of men and women, several of whose names are synonomous with Odd Fellowship in California.

It was the occasion of the annual banquet of the Past Grand Master's Council, No. 155, of which E. W. Fisher is the presiding officer, and the Patriarchy, No. 127 led by C. J. Williams, Past Most Noble Governors Council, No. 8, their husbands and friends had been invited to assist them in honoring the representatives who had represented the state in the national meeting. The honored guests were Mrs. Eliza A. Warner, treasurer of the National Grand Household; Mrs. Minnie Bate, delegate from Household of Ruth, No. 561, and Mrs. Maud Batson, Past District Grand Most Noble Governor, who were the representatives fro mSouthern California to the National Grand Household in the recent meeting of the Biennial Movable Committee of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows of America, which convened in Baltimore, Maryland.

The guide of the Order in the national office held by our Sister Warner was voiced by each speaker around the board. Isaiah Robinson District Grand Master delivered an address setting forth plans, if adhered to will add to the prosperity of the order in California. The ladies told of the meeting to the delight of all. E. W. Fisher was Master of Ceremonies contributing much to the pleasure of the occasion.

The menu gave the keynote to our annual feast of Thanksgiving Turkey and all the fixin's.

After a very pleasant social time all departed thanking the Past Grand Masters Council and the Patriarchy for a wonderful evening.

MR. COHN.

Dear Sir:—I have been so busy in the last few days that I have been unable to see you in regard to preparing the continuity of Mr. Nichol's story the "Thought Supreme." But I have Read the story, however, and I find it an admirable theme for a successful Feature production.

Booker Washington was a wonderful man and was admired by whites and blacks alike. And that portion of Mr. Nichols' story that has to do with Booker Washington would be exceptionally good. The Colored man, I mean the law abiding and self respectful citizen, has long been misjudged by a good number of us, and anything that would tend to raise his standard should, and no doubt would, have support of both races. And anything that would strengthen the relation of the races would, to my mind, be a good thing. The "Thought Supreme" would be success for that reason.

Los Angeles County Sends Greetings To The World

The opulent beauty of the district now called Los Angeles County gladdened the hearts of explorers long ago. The unique equability of its charming climate offered health. The wealth of natural resources in its warm valleys, rolling hills, high mountains and picturesque coast contour, promised prosperity. It was like a Garden of Eden to the travel-tired padres of 169.

Years of comparative activity in pioneering were followed by decades of quiet. The city of Los Angeles, for example, in 1880 had only 11,093 residents, with several thousand more scattered throughout the district.

Then colnnization quickened, Los Angeles County in 1926 had a population of 2,147,878 and an average of 10,000 people arrived monthly to settle in the sunshine land on the Pacific.

Today the outlook is brighter than ever. Much has been accomplished of late years. Far more, an hundred times as much more, must be done before this remarkable section is fairly started toward real development, production and trade expension. Its surface is but scratched. Its business opportunities appear unlimited.

The back country of Los Angeles County is the magnificent young southwest portion of the United States, with its immeasurable riches. It is a vast region comprising Arizona, New Mexico, Utah, Nevada and California, and parts of Colorado and Wyoming west of the Continental Divide, and is bordered by the treasureland of Mexico. It is changing constantly before our eyes into an empire of industry and progress.

Its many communities maintain direct and continuous relations with Los Angeles County by radio, airplane service, railways and excellent motor roads. The interchange of business between this huge tributary territory and the coast county with its wonderful harbor is amazing. Tonnage at the pot has increased ewelve hundred per cent in five years and is gaining every month.

The county has become an immense marketplace for the wares and products of its neighbors on land and friends across the seas. Buying and selling take place on a grand scale. Curious consignments come from the Orient. Foreign buyers bid for California and back country products. National and international concerns maintain western branches whose purchasing agents buy in the local markets and ship to the four quarters of the globe. All sorts of commodities are bought and sold, and Los Angeles County with its many marts, is like an animated fair with numerous booths. Hundreds of thousands of visitors annually make their individual purchases. Local manufacturing plants buy raw materials and ship nationally known products.

Superbly located for foreign and domestic commerce, Los Angeles County has a swiftly growing trade with Mexico, the Central and South Americas, Hawaii and the South Seas, Australia and New Zealand, China, Japan and other awakening Oriental countries, and with marvelous northern California, Oregon, Washington, Alaska and Canada.

Its great and ever-expanding harbor is scientifically planned and built for an unceasing future growth. Its strides in shipping during recent years have astonished the maritime world. Its exports rose from $2,159,725 in 1916, to a value of $71,792,434 in 1925, and during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1925, Los Angeles Harbor commerce led every American seaport except New York in volume. The local wharves handled 22,268,421 tons of freight borne by 5,901 vessels. And, in the intercoastal traffic, Los Angeles surpassed even New York City in tonnage.

Yet the harbor facilities must be multiplied without delay to meet demands. Business with the back country has only begun. Local manufacturing is in its infancy. Our commerce is a crawling child. The prolific soil here offers independence and health to millions of people. There are innumerable chances for success awaiting workers, in finance, labor and trade.

Aside from business and climatic attractions, there is the charm of romance: romance of the past and present.

The former, so generally recognized and appreciated, recalls in a flash the days of old when California in lonely loveliness lay by the ocean, unknown to the world until the Spanish priests and soldiers came to found missions and tame the wilderness. It is heroic history, which stirs the blood, with its pardres and pirates, discoveries and duels, grain-planting and gold-finding, its sea storms and shore strife, its Indians and strange incidents. It helps us make light of our own problems.

The romance of the present is the magical metamorphosis of Southern California. Enterprises and towns are springing up on all sides. Great accomplishments are being swiftly succeeded by greater ones. The birth and growth of ideas are so sudden that one is constantly being surprised by his neighbors.

Romance, old and new, in Los Angeles County, is an intangible asset. It cannot be measured in tons or dollars or degrees of temperature, yet it should not be dismissed too lightly, for it stimulates the imagination and pleases the mind in these days when the latest inventions excite only momentary notice. It is inspiring, indeed, to contemplate the past, to witness what is taking place arund one, and to help a little oneself in waving the magic wand of transformation.

Los Angeles County men and women feel a constant pride and joy in developing their remarkable territory. Their notable happiness of spirit is, perhaps, due more to the satisfaction which comes from doing things, rather than from an enchanting environment or a tonic atmosphere. They are a happy people, whatever the reasons, and full of faith, courage and hospitality. They see so much to do, so much more than they and their descendants can ever do, that they are always glad to have newcomers join in the glad work of development.

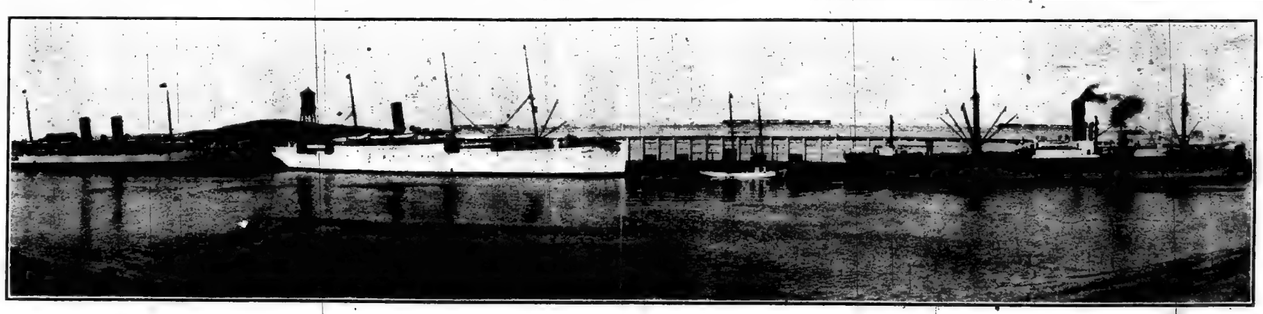
There are 4,115 square miles within the boundaries of Los Angeles County. It is nearly half the size of Massachusetts or New Jersey, four-fifths as large as Connecticut and two-thirds the size of Hawaii, and more htan three times the area of Rhode Island. Most of th ecountry is undeniably beautiful.

Magnificent mountain walls bound it on the north. The lovely fertile valleys of San Gabriel and Pomona are in the eastern part of the county. The rich fields and orchards of Orange county, and a fair curve of the ocean, form the southern boundary. The Pacific, mightiest of seas, on the west, stretches away to the Orient and the southern archipeligos.

The county has a coast line 85 miles long, with unsurpassed bathing beaches and fascinating resorts. Its coast cities are inspiring in their beauty and business activities. Their swift advance in commerce of late years is amazing. The sea fishing is unexcelled on the Seven Seas. The kelp beds and waters along shore teem with vast schools of many varieties. The numerous free municipal piers are thronged with anglers. Sea fowl hover about for their toll. Catalina Island and San Clemente lie in view westward.

Nine-tenths of the population is within thirty miles of the sea. Maritime pursuits and pleasures are mounting higher and higher each year in the lives of people here.

The climate in general is marvelously even throughout the entire year. One can find interesting differences in weather, however, between the warm valleys, the mountain heights and the dry atmosphere of the desert region back from the coast. Health seekers can have exactly what they desire in climate in Southern California. A detailed analysis of weather conditions will be found under the heading of climate.



Los Angeles County has been the leading county in America in agricultural production for the past fifteen years. U. S. Government figures show this conclusively. Modern scientific marketing methods prevail. The total acreage is 2,633,360, of which there are 882,333 acres of agricultural land and an actual prducing area of 247,223 acres under irrigation. The irrigable area at present is estimated at 362,118 acres. Gigantic irrigation projects are under way involving many millions of dollars. The soil responds with celeriiy to cultivation.

The remarkable strategic position of the county is one of its greatest assets. It is on the new frontier of America. Few districts on earth are as advantageously placed for trade.

Thereare 52 times as amny people. The tax rate in the county for 1925-6 was $2.18 which covers great improvements.

There are over 1,300 miles of paved roads in the county, and in the past ten years it has spent $24,000,000 on highways. Contracts were let in 1924 for $15,000,000 worth of road-building in Southern California and omre than 500 miles will be added by this expenditure. The city of Los Angeles plans to pave 150 additional miles of new streets at a cost of $1,500,000 and made many other street improvements. In 1924 the Second street tunnel costing $4,000,000 was completed. The million dollar Mulholland Drive was finished, a wide boulevard 25 miles long on the crest of the Santa Monica mountains from the city to Calabasas near the sea, with a glorious panoramic view.

THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles is notable among cities of the world for its beauty, its magicalcal growth in population and commerce, its happy, energetic people and their vision in planning for its future.

It is one of the most typically American communities in the land today. Its residents come from the best elements in various sections. Many have had success elsewhere. All bring judgment gained in past experiences. They represent the Main Streets of the United States.

Every State in the Union has proud sons and daughters taking active part in the development of the young metropolis on the western shore of her country. Their varied contributions in education, finance, art, science, business and plain straightforward work, are of inestimable value. The rosters of the great local States Societies reveal names well known in former homes. These families made history in staunch old New England, in the cavalric South, in the substantial Middle and Central states and the Western states of pioneer days, and now, their descendants are making modern history on the Pacific Coast, the last frontier.

One could easily write a book about Los Angeles. This is but a brief chapter. Further information, detailed, accurate and interesting, may be obtained by addressing the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and requesting specific data.

In 1781, twelve years after Padre Junipero Serra founded the Mission San Gabriel Archangel in the San Gabriel Valley near by, 141 colonists from Mexico settled here and named the village La Ciudad de Nuestra Senora la Reina de Los Angeles, The City of Our Lady the Queen of The Angels. Half a century later there were but 770 inhabitants. At the end of 1926 there were 1,265,519 within the city limits. Los Angeles had grown from a pretty pueblo to a great city. Its metropolitan area is 418.86 square miles.

Its commanding position at one of the world's crossroads points, is chiefly responsible for the city's swift development as a commercial center. Great have been the efforts of men here, but Nature did most in the beginning. Foreign trade through the harbor was about doubled last year. Domestic commerce increased with similar rapidity. People poured in at the rate of ten thousand a month.

More than ever must be done to meet the demands made by these sudden gains in business opportunitiesand population. What has been lately accomplished is tersely set forth hereafter.

BUILDING

Last year 43,969 building permits were issued, aggregating $152,646,436 in value. They included: 142 industrial buildings and additions, 72 new factories, 14,184 dwellings costing $52,779,698; 42 churches at $1,663,650; 23 theatres at $3,901,575; 18 club buildings at $2,830,480; 19[illegible] schools at $6,634,335; 38 public buildings at $889,684; 57 hotels at $8,442,086; 570 apartment houses at $16,009,191; 125 office buildings, 161 public garages, 704 mercantile buildings, 23 motion picture studios, also warehouses, shops and so forth.

Only four cities surpassed Los Angeles. They were New York, Chicago, Detroit and Philadelphia.

Local building did not quite equal that in 1923, but it exceeded 1922 by $31,439,649. It has begun again in 1926 with zeal to meet necessities.

Many of the downtown buildings erected are notably handsome and artistic. The new churches, theatres, and clubs are distinguished for their architecture. Los Angeles homes are noted for their smartness and elegance. The bungalows are charming and surrounded by blooming shrubs and flowers. Some large homes are palatial. Perfect residence types of various countries and periods may be seen, correct to the smallest detail.

CIVIC CENTER PLAN

A magnificent plan for an immense cultural and administrative center, has been completed. The engineers submitted and considered 875 sketches before making a decision.

A vast area is involved. The project is astounding in magnitude and entrancing in beauty. It involves twelve plazas, a vast passenger terminal, splendid esplanades, radial street arteries connecting with every main highway, east and west streets on grade and north and south streets depressed to eliminate entirely crossings. All public buildings will be assembled handsomely with many practical and artistic features, and made easily accessible from all points of the city and county. The historic old Plaza and Plaza church will become part of the prodigious new project. An old section of the city will be rejuvenated and glorified. The down-town traffic congestion will be greatly lessened by fittin this big center scheme into the colossal Major Traffic Plan which involves a $100,000,000 expenditure and covers the entire city area of 418.86 square miles.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY SOIL FACTS

COUNTY SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

The educational advantages of Los Angeles County are an unfailing source of satisfaction and justifiable pride to residents. Visitors in city and town are interested and pleased to note the excellence of the public school system and the completeness of modern equipment. The schools, colleges and universities, public and private, throughout Southern California, have kept pace with the great advances made in population and commerce. Distinguished educators and from afar have often investigated the public school methods here and unqualifiedly declared them to be of the highest type in America.

The enrollment in the county public schools for the school year ending June, 1925, was 423,175, divided in 170 districts, of which 64 per cent are within the city area. Funds from a bond issue of $33,640,000 voted by the city in June, 1924, are being spent on 110 new primary school buildings of 8 to 30 rooms each; and 25 of these are on new sites. There are 22 high schools and 16 more being built. Ground has been bought for 124 more primary schools on forty new sites to be added to thse nw in use. Many buildings are benig provided to increase the capacity of existing elementary schools. Few other cities, if any, have ever considered an expansion of such magnitude in schools, for the reason thatno large city has ever grown so rapidly as has Los Angeles. Most of the schools are spacious and splendid. Our-of-door exercises are par tof the all-year curriculum and classroom windows are opened wide much of the time. The health of tpupils is notably good.

The University of California, Southern Campus, located in Los Angeles, has 6,539 students and is growing so fast that the regents obtained early in 1925, a new and larger site. The future home, also within the corporate limits of Los Angeles city, consists of 375 acres between the Beverly Hills district and Santa Monica, immediately adjoining Westwood. Here superbly located on rolling hills three miles from the ocean, and comanding a splendid view of the Pacific, Catalina Island and adjacent inland territory, the fine new university buildings will rise. Ninety acres of level ground will be used as a campus and athletic field. It is realized that in a few years, the branch will have an enrollment of ten thousand and an annual budget of $2,000,000.

The present site is a handsome one on Vermont Avenue. The attractive brick buildings covered with ivy, were once occupied by the State Normal School and later assigned to the university branch by the State of California. The Normal School courses are now being given at the Southern Campus of the University. The original campus at Berkeley, main part of the university, is famed for its beauty and situation. The future home of the branch promises to be admirable. Its courses and standards are equal in all respects to the great parent instiution.

The University of Southern California, an endowed institution of high standing, is located on ample grounds near the downtown section of Los Angeles. There are 9,989 students in its 8 colleges of law, liberal arts, music, commerce, theology, dentistry and pharmacy and the graduate school. It, too, is seeking a vast campus to provide for expansion.

Occidental College at Eagle Rock, Pomona College at Claremont, Whittier College at Whittier and the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena, are excellent in every respect. They, too, draw students from all parts of the United States because of their thorough courses of study and fine faculties and their location in the favored southland.

Private schools of national fame are numerous in Los Angeles County.

LOS ANGELES HARBOR

Cabrillo cruised the California coast in 1542 and may have seen the tiny dent where Los Angeles Harbor is today. Others followed: Vizcaino, Serra in 1769, Crespi, Gomez, Gaspar de Portola. The fascinating Spanish colonial period came. A little trade sprang up between this coast and Mexico, South America and Spain. Ships lay offshore and loaded from rowboats.

A tiny tug arrived in harbor in 1861, the schooner Lew Perry appeard, and th tug towed her across the bar! She seesm to have been the first vessel to enter.

Almost a half century later, in 1910, a city 20 miles inland, extended a friendly arm of land to the sea, shook hands with Wilmington and San Pedro towns, and joined them in digging the dent into a real seaport.

Americans can justly feel pride in what their youngest large city has done on the western frontier. Magical speed in harbor making has been maintained. A tremendously important new trade has been brought to the shores of the United States.

The wharves of the port made from a dent, handled 20,310,743 tons of freight carried by 6,155 ships, in the last calendar year. This freight had a value of $727,853,568.

The only American port which had a greater ocean tonnage was New York City. It was first, Los Angeles second in total tonnage. Los Angeles was first intercoastal tonnage, however, and exceeded New York in this trade. Los Angeles exports to foreign countries had a value of $6,774,250 in the year ending June 30, 1919. Five years later, in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1924, they were $44,796,273. They grew steadily in the next six months, and for the calendar year 1925 were $71,770,268.

Los Angeles' commerce is notably cosmopolitan. Shipments of all sorts parts of the world. There are 145 of goods were made to countries in all steamship companies now calling regularly at Los Angeles, with 179 services or lines. Three of these are unique in marine history, because they encircle the world on a schedule. They have 24 ships visiting 30 ports. No other American port is visited by all three of these round-the-world lines.

The extraordinary development of Los Angeles Harbor's world trade has interested the maritime nations of the earth and all who follow the sea for a living. This admirable advance is due, primarily, to the city's superb location on one of the cross roads points of the globe, with a magnificent tributary back country; and secondarily, to the co-operation and energy of Southern California communities. It belongs to all of them.

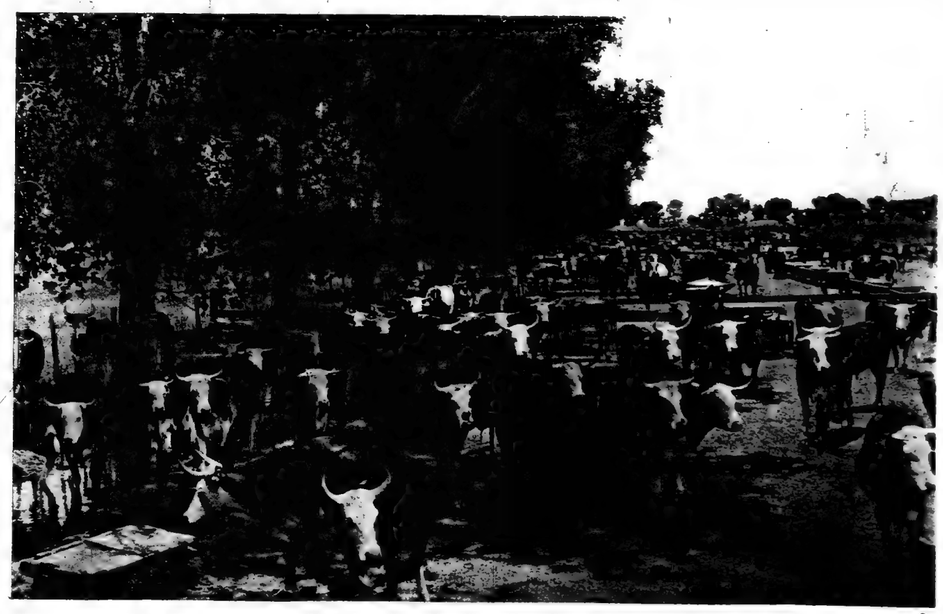
The passenger traffic of the port is increasing swiftly also and in 1925, amounted to approximately 987,090.

Los Angeles exported 15,707,120 tons of oil in 1925 and is the greatest of oil ports.

Its petroleum products go all over the world. It is estimated that every fourth automobile in England runs on Los Angeles gasoline. China is the greatest market for Los Angeles kerosene, and Chile for fuel oil; while Los Angeles crude oil runs refineries in Japan and Argentina.

It heads the list of lumber importing centers, with a record of 1,183,526,000 board feet received last year.

This is accounted for by the tremendous building program in Southern California. This lumber includes not only redwood and Douglas fir and other woods from the northwest, but also hardwoods from the Philippines and Central America.



Its fishing fleet numbered approximately 800 boats in 1925. The wholesale value of last year's catch was $6,752,592 based upon $.025 per pound. The sardines caught weighed 165,597,078 pounds. Eighteen canneries are busy now, exporting sardines to Europe, the Orient and South America. Last calendar year 31,514,000 pounds of canned sardines were exported from Los Angeles or about 50% of all sardines shipped out of the United States. The tuna industry is leaping ahead, as the flavor fo this delicious fish becomes more widely known. The Southern California fishing fleet last year caught 270,103,704 pounds of fish on nearby banks off the California and Mexican coasts.

The total comerce of last year, 20,310,743 tons, with a value of $760,685,682, will be surpassed year by year, as th trade grows heavier in volume and wider in territory tapped.

cess, modern in equipment, and affords every facility desired ni a port from which to maneuver, practice gunnery and train men. Battleships, light cru'sers, destroyers and submarines, with attendant craft, aggregating more than half the entire navy, make headquarters here. The complete American fleet, including ships from the Atlantic side of the continent, assembled at Los Angeles in the Spring of 1925 and took part in the most extensive of naval operations.

The opening of the Panama Canal was a great help to Los Angeles. It enabled local manufacturers and shippers in general to compete directly with imddle western and eastern concerns. The short cut via canal and low ocean freight rates brought Los Angeles close to communities which formerly had been considered outside her territory. It was an economic advance of value to the nation.

Los Angeles is the chief terminus of the Panama Canal, the outstanding Pacific port near the end of the great waterway, and the principal port of all ports in handling canal commerce. The United States Shipping Board statistics show that in 1923 a total of 12,201,232 tons of intercoastal commerce passed through the canal, and of this total 8,574,657 tons originated at or was destined for Los Angeles, more than 70 per cent. The remainder was divided amnog other Pacific ports. During nine months ending January, 1924, 4,053 vessels went through the canal and 1,476 of these were oil tankers from Los Angeles, which paid $6,750,799.10 in tolls, or over 36 per cent of the total revenue, $18,547,398.31, of the great canal.

CUSTOM COLLECTIONS

Custom receipts at Los Angeles Harbor mount higher and higher. The United States government figures for the Port of Los Angeles speak eloquently:

1919	$ 334,857.85
1920	839,489.63
1921	1,298,878.60
1922	2,152,803.87
1923	3,811,808.55
1924	4,254,214.59
1925	4,260,485.88

The net tonnage of ships which called at the harbo in 1919 was 1,822,-921, and in 1925 it was 16,449,958 tons.

Los Angeles shipments to Hawaii averaged $300,000 a month in the preceding year and for the last fiscal year have been in excess of $750,000 monthly. Trade with the superb southern islands is ever increasing and contemplation of their future is inspiring.

Los Angeles put on her sea boots and made her longest marine stride when a committee was formed by 200 leading public-spirited citizens, who gave $1,000 each and their even more valuable advice and time for over two years, in forming a major harbor plan vast enough to provide for all future development, unification of railroad terminals, wharves, slips, breakwater extensions, etc.

This was one of the biggest civic surveys in wold history. Famous engineers were engaged. The great ports of the earth were studied. A plan of astonishing magnitude was laid out and energetic work was resumed in 1925, along new lines. The breakwater will be extended four and a half miles south, in deep water, off shore a mile to a mile and a half, opposite Long Beach, forming a vastly larger harbor aong the beach and most convenient, for commerce. It is now over two miles long.

Aside from commerce there is yachting in Southern California waters. Pleasure craft of all kinds are seen in the harbors. Yacht clubs are numerous. Regattas include coastwise events, races to Catalina and San Clemente Islands, to San Diego and Ensenada, Mexico, Santa Barbara and San Francisco, and longer sails to Hawaii, Alaska and Vancouver. Cruises to the South Sea Islands, Australia and New Zealand are not uncommon for Los Angeles yachtsmen.

The municipal wharves of Los Angeles Harbor are 34,100 feet in length and te privately owned wharves 24,300 feet. New ones are being steadily added to the waterfront. Several of the very strongest corporations in America have lately acquired frontage in order to increase their shipping facilities at this swiftly develop'ng port, where the total freight in 1919 was valued at $86,481,470, and in 1925 had risen to $671,406,570, with promise of greater increases in the future.

Some of the swiftest and staunchest of shipbuild'ng has been done by Los Angeles County shipbuilders. Long Beach s docks join these on the south, with splendid facilities. The most modern and complete of equipment for construction and repairs is available day and night for the huge freighters and smart passenger liners calling regularly from all parts of the earth. In April, 1925, the largest oil carrier in the world, the Standard Oil tanker, John D. Archbold, was overhauled in 15 hours by the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company and a new repair record established. Usually at least a week is required for such work at most ports. The tanker has a cargo cuppacity of 155,800 barrels of oil. Her moulded depth is 43 feet. She was raised out of water, a height of 27 feet, in three hours. Her entire hull with 1,754,375 square feet of surface, was scraped, cleaned and painted by a force of 80 men, while other reomved straightened and replaced her 14-foot propeller and her starboard crankshaft; overhauled both main engines her deck and cargo equipment. The Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company built and launched thirty steel freighters of 8,800 tons each in three years and fifteen days. This achievement helped the United States Shipping Board bridge the Atlantic Ocean in record time. The South Western Shipbuilding Company built 28 fine ships during the war period. Other local firms made admirable records. On one busy day the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company's dry dock held four subamrines and a destroyer. Naval vessels are always to be seen in the harbor as it is headquarters for the Pacific fleet.

Many wooden vessels of 4,400-ton type, coast steamers, tugs, small boats and fast yachts are built at Los Angeles Harbor and Long Beach, Balboa, Newport, Redondo and other coast cities of Southen California.

OIL

Los Angeles County ranks high among oil-producing districts of the worl Discoveries are being made steadily and new fields being developed on all sides. The oil is piped direct to the harbor from the vast oil fields of the county, and from there it is transported about the world by 37 tank steamer lines. New lines are laid as needed. Experts say there is so much oil beneath the surface that decades will pass before the supply is greatly depleted.

The 587 producing wells on Signal Hill near Long Beach in 1925 produced 187,741,921 barrels of oil. Other fields were remarkably active. The value of petroleum products of Los Angeles territory in 1924 reached a total of $221,880,298, and the weekly pay roll of the oil companies averaged $598,158. There were 160,767,018 barrels of oil produced, and dozens of refining plants handled it. Nearly all the great oil companies and many small concerns are actively engaged in the county.

Vegetable oils are also produced and refined locally.

Natural gas is plentiful. One company, the Midway Gas Company, brings gas to the city from nine fields at the rate of 169,000,000 cubic feet daily, and it is sold for industrial purposes by the Southern California Gas Company at 15 to 40 cents per thousand cubic feet. Other concerns operate similarly in fields near by.

PUBLIC BEACHES

Of Southern California's 274-mile coast line, 85 miles l ie in Los Angeles County. Nine-tenths of the County's population lives within 30 miles of the ocean. Virtually all of the beach frontage in the County is municipally owned and controlled, and is open to the public at all times. Surf bathing may be enjoyed the year 'round under conditions ranging from the quiet calm of protected coves and inlets, to the booming breakers rolling in from the mighty Pacific.

Extending from north to south along the County's coast line are many attractive little cities. Santa Monica spreads over the foothills of the mountain range which bears its name, and comands a superb view of the mighty Pacific. This city, with Ocean Park and Venice, comprise the Bay District cities, world famous for their pleasure piers and miles of public beaches. The Coast Highway, running from the Canadian to the Mexican borders along the Pacific Ocean, connects these cities with Playa del Rey, El Segundo. Manhattan Beach, Hermosa and Redondo.

Further south Palos Verdes rears its rolling terrian to comand an excellent view of the Pacific. Behind it lie the great guns of the coast artillery of Fort McArthur.

Yachting and Fishing

Thirty miles off the coast lies enchanted Santa Catalina Island with its picturesque Avalon Bay, a amgnificent hotel, a yacht club, golf club and many attractive homes. Excursion steamers ply regularly between the island and Los Angeles-Long Beach harbor, and great fleets of private yachts may be seen at all times, cruising across the intervening chanel and around the island.

Catalina, with its sister islands of San Clemente and Santa Barbara, make up the world-famous chain of Channel Islands so rich in old Indian lore and romance of early Spanish conquest. Southern California waters are the year 'round rendezvous of many Eastern yachtsmen. The proximity of Los Angeles-Long Beach harbor and Newport Bay to the Panama Canal, makes cruising between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts increasingly popular. The annual yacht races Hawaii and other mid-Pacific islands eclipse anything of a similar nature staged on other waters.

This great protected channel is also a veritable paradise for salt water fishermen. Frank Gray Griswold, in his book, "Some Fish and Some Fishing," tells of landing giant sea bass off the Catalina coast weighing 493 pounds, swordfish weighing 463 pounds, marlin or spearfish weighing 372 pounds and tuna, yellowtail and albacore of varying weights. This channel is one of the only two places in the world where tuna are to be found.

In all directions from Los Angeles radiate some of the nation's finest highways, making accessible an array of scenery and a diversity of recreations unexcelled by any other part of hte world. Supplementing this excellent network of highwyas is the Pacific Electric system, one of the finest in the world, operating 6,000 Using these facilities the visitor can reach with a short ride of Los Angeles, his favorite kind of scenery varying fro mthe booming surf of the Pacific to the snow-clad peaks of the Sierras and the picturesque desolation of the desert. Many miles of shore line offer surf bathing, motor boating, yachting and salf-water fishing the year 'round, while the mountains with their miles of highways, trails and bridle paths invite alike the motorist, the hiker and the rider. Mountain camps are provided for the motorist, while numerous golf courses lure devotees of the green. Los Angeles is not only the climatic capital of the nation hut the year 'round playground of millions.

The Story Of Los Angeles' Sheriff's Office—By: Undersheriff Biscailuz

PROFITS OF THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE

(From a speech by Eugene Biscailuz)

At different times, we hear a great deal regarding the cost of government, high tax rates, assessments and such financial matters, calculated to make the tax-payers very dissatisfied with the fact that they live in these great United States.

This evening, I am coming to you in a omst optimistic spirit. I would like to leave with you a thought calculated to make you feel better; to make you feel more satisfied with the fact that we have government, and that we have good government, and that we have profitable government. What I have to say, of course, particularly is confined to the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, but I believe that the ideas which I have to bring out concerning the Sheriff's Department, are, to a greater or less extent, true with other departments in county government.

Everybody is talking costs—costs of government. Tonight, I am going to talk about the profits of government; the profitable things that are accruing to the tax-payers of this county from the Sheriff's Department.

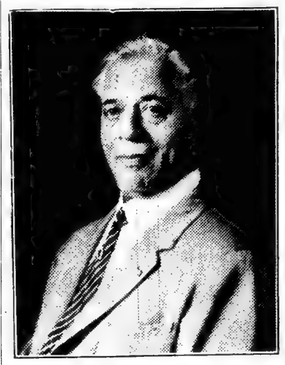
Now, it is a fact that we have an appalling amount of crime, as I have called your attention to on various occasions. All crime is costing society money. It is costing the tax-payers perty, huge sums. But what would happen if we did not have police organizations to recover some of these losses? Would ot your losses be far greater in extent than they are? For example, I might city to you that last year, 13,000 or more automobiles were reported stolen to the Sheriff's office. Throughout the course of the year, eighty per cent of these were recovered for their owners. Our Auto Theft Detail alone recovered cars having an estimated value of $680,000. Had we not recovered these cars for their owners, somebody would have been out $680,000.

So we might say that this is an item of profit to the taxpayers, by virtue of the fact that we have a Sheriff's Department to recover property from the thieves who take away your goods. In just the same manner, our Burglary Detail recovered some $270,000 worth of property that was stolen from citizens of the county in burglaries. Throughout the course of year, the Sheriff's Department, independent of the various government agencies and the various other policing bodies of the county, prosecuted cases on prohibition charges in our courts, in which fines were assessed by the courts which brought into the county treasury, approximately half a million dollars. These three items alone constitute a sum of more than one and a quarter million dollars, and it is one and a quarter million dollars worth of profitable savings to the tax-payers of the county. The figures which I have mentioned, are the results of only three of the fourteen details or squads which constitute the criminal division of the Sheriff's Department. I might say that each of the fourteen details render profitable service to the county, but on account of the nature of their work, it is difficult to measure he value of some of these profits. However, you can readily understand that throughout the course of a year, Sheriff Traeger had his eye on nearly 30,000 suspicious characters working against society's interests in this county. To be a little more exact, we conducted 28,000 investigations of matters involving criminal circumstances. As a result of these investigations, we removed from society's midst, over 10,000 men and women who commit crimes against our laws, and we placed them in the County Jail where you were protected from them. I say that we cannot measure the profits that accrue to you in this type of work, at least not in increasing crime. I would like to be able to tell you about these results, and how our organization has developed into one of the most efficient in the United States. In fact, prominent men have come to us from eastern and other sections of the country and have told us that, for our size and weight, we are in fact doing more than many other sheriff's departments, and we are prud of the fact, and we are proud of the fact that Sheriff William I. Traeger has been very largely responsible for bringing this condition about.

FACTS ABOUT THE SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1926, 12,292 prisoners were booked in the County Jail, which was an increase of twenty-six per cent over the year previous. A total of 690 prisoners were assigned to Honor Camps during the year, which was an increase of twenty-one per cent over a year ago. Major crimes in the county increased nearly twenty per cent over the year previous. The Sheriff's Deputies and Constables made a total of 28,830 criminal investigations during the year, and 10,655 arrests. There was a total of 13,086 automobiles reported stolen to the sheriff's office. More than $680,000 worth of stolen automobiles were recovered and loot valued at $271,000 was recovered in property stolen in burglaries. Prohibition fines totaling $433,000 were assessed by the courts on liquor cases prosecuted by the Sheriff's deputies.

There is a total of 4,009 square miles of territory in Los Angeles county, embraced within the sheriff's jurisdiction. The sheriff's office does no tattempt to do policing duty within incorporated municipalities in the county, but in the unincorporated sections, population exceeds 338,000 people. This population, the equivalent of that of a large city, has been protected with a comparatively small personnel. There are 460 men on the pay roll of the Sheriff's Department, and only 350 of these are available for duty outside the office.



The Sheriff attributes the fact that crime has been well suppressed throughout the county during the last year to the well planned organization of the department and the efficiency of hisdeputies.

A system of sub-stations located in outlying sections of the county has been adopted, which is helping to meet the problem of large area and growing population, requiring more and more police protection. These substations have tended to reduce the need of a larger personnel of officers than would otherwise be required to meet the situation. A corps of resident constables is located in each township of the county.

Particular attention is called to the Public Relation Campaign which is designed to inform the public, through the medium of the press, the radio, lectures, printed matter, etc., of various methods which it can apply to prevent crime. The theory underlying the Public Relation Campaign is that, if the public can be encouraged to use precautions against crime on he one hand and the authorities develop their organization and officers efficiently on the other hand, "crime and criminals will be sandwiches beween two mighty forces, leaving them very little breathing room."

Holiday Contribution Of Mayor George E. Cryer

Experience has taught Los Angeles that its growth in population, its industrial expansion and the prosperity of its citizens can be measured definitely and exactly in terms of water and hydro-electric power. Failure to provide ample and reliable supplies of water and water power automatically halts development, while the assurance of these basic necessities, in generous quantities, will encourage and support almost unlimited growth.

Twenty years ago, when Los Angeles was rapidly approaching the limits of its domestic water supply, it constructed the Owens River aqueduct, capable of meeting the needs of 2,000,000 people. Along this water course the city developed large quantities of hydroelectricity—and thus supplied a second basic necessity.

So rapid has been the expansion of Los Angeles during the past ten years that it now finds itself, once more reaching the limits of its water and power resources. To meet this situation Los Angeles, in common with the entire Southwest, has turned to the Colorado River.

Ranking as the third larges river in the United States, the Colorado is now recognized to be one of the richest natural resources in America. Its potential wealth exists in the form of water for irrigation and doesmtic use and vast quantities of hydro-electric power.

From its head in the Rocky Mountains, 14,000 feet above sea level, the Colorado travels 1,700 miles to its outlet in the Gulf of California. It extends through two nations—the United States and the Republic of Mexico—and with'n this country its drainage basin includes portions of seven states; namely, Arizona, California, Nevada, New Mexico, Colorado, Utah and Wyoming.

As the Colorado now runs its course, unregulated and uncontrolled, it is a terrifying flood menace, threatening, each year, to overtop its banks and permanently destroy the rich agricultural vallys along its lower reachs. Ranchers in Imperial Valley, in Southern California, have expended millions of dollars in erecting temporary flood protect'on works, in their annual battle to hold back the raging waters of the Colorado.

Should the Colorado ever break through these levees, the entire valley would be transformed into a great inland sea. Imperial Valley is far below sea level; therefore, the flood water could never be drained off but would permanently destroy 600,000 acres of highly developed land, a dozen towns and the homes of 60,000 people.

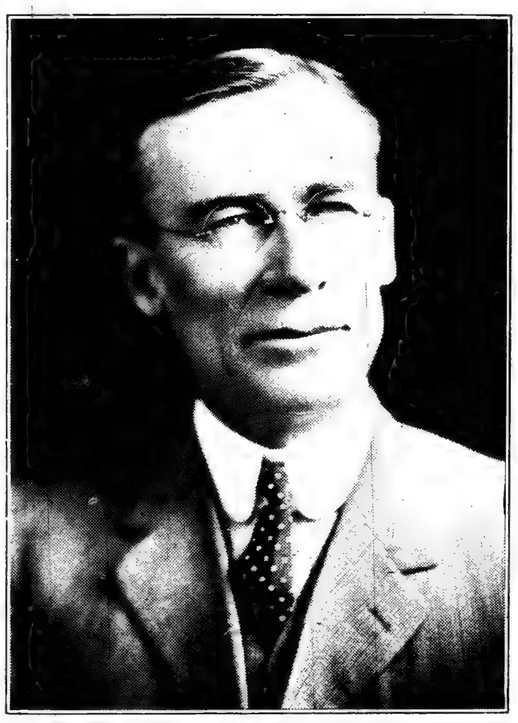
Several years ago the Federal Government, through its Reclamation Service, made an exhaustive survey of the problems of the Colorado River. In 1922 the Reclamation Service submitted its report and recommendations to the Secretary of the Interior. This report, in turn, was approved by the Interior Department, and presented to Congress for consideration and action.

Careful surveys made by the Government had revealed that, through proper control and conservation of Colorado River water, 6,000,000 horsepower of hydro-electric energy could be developed from this stream, and enough water stored in reservoirs to irrigate 6,000,000 acres of land, potentially fertile, but now arid and useless.

Initial development, the Government's report declared, should be set underway at Bouldr Canyon. A dam 550 feet high at Boulder Canyon, it was shown, will permanently eliminate the present flood menace; will create a resevo'r capable of holding 26,000,000 acre feet of water, enough to bring under irrigation 1,250,000 additional acres of land in Arizona and California; will provide a site for the generation of 1,000,000 horsepower of hydro-electr'city.

Thus, it was disclosed, by the construction of Boulder Dam, the Government, in one stroke, will transform the Colorado River from a black flood menace into a source of inexhaustible wealth, benefitting the entire Southwest.

When the U. S. Reclamation Service submitted its report to the Department of the Interior on the problems of the Colorado River, in 1922, it recommended the construction by the Federal Government of two major projects.



Its first recomendation was that the Federal Government construct a main irrigation canal from the Colorado River to Imperial and Coachella Valleys. This canal was to be entirely within the United States and was to replace Imperial Valley's present main canal, which passes for a distance of 60 miles throuh Mexican territory before reaching California.

It second recommendation was that the Federal Government construct a dam 550 feet high across the Colorado River in Boulder Canyon.

'Erection of a high dam at Boulder Canyon, Government engineers pointed out, would: (1) Permanently eliminate the Colorado River flood menace; (2) Create a reservoir capable of irrigating 1,250,000 acres of desert land; (3) Provide an opportunity to generate 1,000,000 horsepower of hydro-electric energy.

These recommendations were approved by the Secretary of the Interior, and the report forwarded to Congress for action. Shortly thereafter a bill, based upon the recommendations of the Interior Department, was introduced in both Houses of Congress.

When Congress convened in December of 1925, the pending legislation was submitted to Secretary of the Interior Hubert Work, for consideration and approval. Secretry Work, in a report to the Senate Committee expressed his approval of the general plan. He suggested, however, certin additions and changes in the bill.

Mayor Cryer

The most important of Secretary Work's suggestions was the recommendation that the bill provide, not only for a dam at Boulder Canyon, but also for the construction and opeation by the Federal Government of a hydro-electric generating plant at the dam site. The original bill had contemplated that the Governemnt would lease, to various municipal and private agencies, the right to develop power available at Boulder dam, but had not contemplated the erection of the plant, itself, by the Governemnt.

Where the original bill had provided for an appropriation of $70,000,000, Secretary Work recommended that the measure authorize the establishemnt of a fund of $125,000,000. This money, he stated, should be used to cover the cost of constructing Boulder dam, the hydro-electric generating plant and also the All-American canal. With these three projects financed, he stated, there would remain $21,000,000 available to meet interest payenmts on the money invested during the time the various structures were being built. In accordance with Secretary Work's recommendations the bill was amended to include the plans outlined by him.

Amended bill retins that provision of the original bill which specifies: (1) That all money invested by the Government in the construction of Boulder Dam must be repaid with interest, from the sale of power developed at the dam site. (2) That the cost of the All-American canal must be repaid by assessments on the lands benefitted by this project.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover, a strong advocate of the Government's Boulder Canyon dam project, has rendered invaluable service in the ironing out of the many difficulties incident to the drafting of legislation.

That President Coolidge strongly favors the development of the Colorado River was indicated in October, 1924. At that time, in a telegram received in Southern California, the President stated:

"The major purposes of the works t obe constructed there involve two fundamental questions which must always remain in public control—that is, flood control and the provision of immense storage necessary to hold the seasonal and annual flow, so as to provide for the large reclamation possibilities in both California and Arizona.

"These considerations seem to me to dominate all others and to point logically to the Federal Government as the agency to undertake the construction of a great da mat Boulder Canyon or some suitable locality."

The Colorado River Aqueduct

When Los Angeles, ni 1913, completed its Owens River Aqueduct, the people of this city confidently believed they had solved their domestic water problem for generations to come. This great artificial waterway is capable of supplying the needs of 2,000,000 people.

Since the Owens River Aqueduct began to pour its precious cargo of water into Los Angeles, however, the rapid growth of this community has amazed the entire world. Thirteen years after the completion of the aqueduct we find Los Angeles supporting a population of 1,200,000, and climbing toward the second miilion mar kat the rate of 100.000 new residents a year.

Los Angeles' astounding development has confronted its Municipal Water Bureau with the same problem it faced prior to the construction of the Owens River Aqueduct. It is a problem of findin and developing a new and large source of domestic water.

Realizing that thsi city must begin to prepare for that day, in the very near future, when it will reach the limit of its present water supply, William Mulholland, Chief Engineer of the Municipal Water Bureau, in 1923, began to survey a route for an aqueduct to bring water to this city from the Colorado River. At the same time a large number of other cities in Southern California indicated their necessity of developing additional domestic water supplies.

Mr. Mulholland's surveys and detailed studies revealed that it was feasible and practicable to build a gigantic aqueduct that will divert sufficient water from the Colorado River to supply, not only the needs of Los Angeles, but also the requirements of a score or more of other municipalities, in Southern California. His studies further disclosed that the Colorado River is the only source capable of meeting Los Angeles' water requirements.

The result of these surveys and studies has been the selection of a route for the greatest domestic water supply system ever launched on the face of the earth. As now planned, the Colorado River Aqueduct will be 260 miles long—only a few miles longer than the city's present aqueduct; but in size and capacity it is to be alomst four times greater than the Owens River water carrier.

With a capacity of 400 second feet, the Owens River Aqueduct is capable of meeting the water needs of 2,000,000 people; the Colorado River carrier will have a capacity of 1,500 second feet and will be able to supply 7,500,000 people with domestic water.

Construction of the gigantic Colorado River Aqueduct already has been launched. Under the direction of Mr. Mulholland, workmen now are engaged in the excavation of a two-mile long infiltration canal paralleling the western bank of the river. Th's canal, starting at a point 16 miles north of the town of Blythe, will extend northward along the bank of the river and at a distance of about 500 feet west of the western shore line.

Traversing, as it does, an area of gravel and sand, the canal will serve as a natural and highly efficient filtration system. Water from the river, it has been demonstrated, rapidly filters into the gravels along its banks, and after passing through these deposits will pour into the canal completely freed of all silt and other foreign matter. Once in the infiltration canal, the water will be diverted into the main conduit of the aqueduct and started on its long journey across mounains and valleys toward the cities of Southern California.

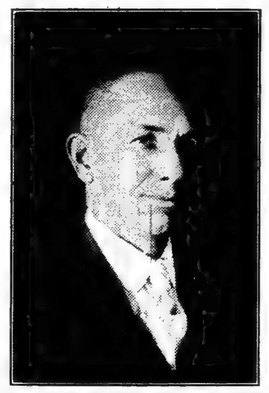
Construction of the Colorado River Aqueduct will be a herculean task; it will necessitate the investment of millions of dollars; it will require, probably, eight years to complete. And it will support 7,500,000 peple and build Southern California into one of the most populous and prosperous areas in America.

The water hel din storage behind Boulder dam, Government surveys disclose, will be capable of generating a peak load of 1,000,000 horsepower of hydro-electricity or a continuous flow of energy amounting to 600,000 horsepower. In accordance with the recommendations of Secretary of the Interior Hubert Work, Boulder Canyon dam legislation, now pending in Congress, provides that this electricity shall be generated in a plant t obe constructed and operated by the Federal Government, and sold to the various municipalities and agencies in the Southwest in need of electric power.

Careful surveys of the electric power needs of Southern California and the Southwest generally have shown that there is an urgent demand in this region for all the electricity available at Boulder Canyon dam.

The citizens of Los Angeles, by a vote of four to one already have instructed their municipal officials to contract with the Federal Government for a fair share of the electricity that will be available when Boulder dam is constructed. So rapid has been the increase in the use of power and light in this city, during the past few years, that the Bureau of Power and Light is now able to generate in its power plants along the Owens River Aqueduct only about 60 per cent of the energy that it distributes to its consumers. The remaining 40 per cent the Bureau must purchase wholesale from a private power company.

A study of the growing electric power needs in the Southwest discloses that by 1935 the region within economic power transmission distance of Boulder Canyon will require 1,750,000 horsepower of electricity more than it is now consuming. This amount is almost three times greater than the 600,000 continuous horsepower available from Boulder Dam. Thus, it is manifest, the growing need for hydro-electric energy in the Southwest will provide a ready market for all the energy available from Boulder Dam.



Use of Boulder Canyon power in industrial, commercial and agricultural expansion throughout the Southwest, will create new national wealth of huge proportions, engineers and economists point out. Taking as a basis for computation the present wealth of Southern California coordinate with the quantity of electric power now in use, it is found that no less than $15,000,000,000 of additional wealth will be brought about by putting Boulder Canyon power to work in Arizona, Nevada and California.

Through the use of a share of this power in Southern California, profitable employment will be created for the ever growing army of men and women that is pouring into this favored region each year.

It is, therefore, apparent that Boulder Canyon power will not only provide the means of financing the great dam, but will enrich, also, the entire nation through its use in moving new wheels of industry and commerce. Furthermore, power from Boulder Dam will be a vitally essential phase of the Colorado River Aqueduct project. In order to bring domestic water from the river into Southern California through this great artificial waterway, it will be necessary to raise it over several intervening barriers. Power from Bouldre Dam will be required to operate the pumps used in lifting the aqueduct water over these omuntain obstacles.

Los Angeles already had launched the construction of its Colorado River Aqueduct. It awaits only the action of Congress to share in the benefits of Colorado River electric power. With its aqueduct it will bring in enough water to supply 7,500,000 more people. With its power it will build permanent prosperity for these millions.

L. G. ROBINSON

Probably one of the most interesting figures of the Race in Southern California is L. G. Robinson, Custodian and Chief Janitor of Los Angeles County Buildings and President of the Angelus Funeral Home.

Born in Barnesville, Georgia, on the same date as the Great Emancipator, and in the year that marked the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, since early youth, his life has been a series of colorful experiences. Unable to read or write at seventeen, Mr. Robinson took advantage of the first chance for an education and at 20 had completed the course at Barnesville Grammar School.

Leaving there he took the Academic course and studied Theology at Payne College, Augusta, Georgia for 6 years. Later he attendd Knoxville College for two terms. In 1898 he was ordained as a minister of the C. M. E. Church by Bishop L. H. Holsey at Augusta, Georgia.

Finding his chosen field limited in the Southland, he came to California in 1904 to try his fortunes and settled in Pasadena. Securing a position as porter at the Pasadena Hospital in that city, he held it for two years and later worked for the city of Pasadena for nine months. During this time, Mr. Robinson resolved that he would be independent of any man within a few years. This resolution he made good by the thrifty life he consistently lived.

In 1907 he began working for the County of Los Angeles and in 1912 was made head of the Department of Janitors, which at that time only employed 19 men, white and colored. Later he moved to Los Angeles, but continued to hold the pastorate of Scott's Chapel in Pasadena until 1916.

During his pastorate he was often honored with the presence of Judge Curtis D. Wilber, now Secretary of the Navy, who preached and lectured to us much to our benefit.

With an eye to doing the utmost to serve his Race and at the same time maintain an unquestionable record of efficiency as a County official, under his able supervision, the Department has grown from 19 employees to 165.

Under their chief's constant urging, most of the men own their homes. He demands that they be men of character and ability to do their jobs faithfully and well. Because of this, Mr. Robinson is held in the highest esteem by his co-workers of all races, including the highest officials and most influential people in Los Angeles and its environs.

In 1923, in order to assist a friend, Mr. Fred Shaw, he joined the Angelus Funeral Home and was later made president. Under his capable direction, the business has grown to large proportions.

It is interesting to note that Mr. Robinson was the first person to demonstrate successfully that cotton could be grown in California better than in Georgia. He brought a stalk bearing 170 full-grown bolls, which he had raised in his back yard in Pasadena, into the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce in 1907 where he met Frank Wiggins, the secretary and wagered that he knew more people in Los Angeles than th secretary. Robinson won.

Mr. Robinson is married and the father of three children. He is connected with mst of the bigger Race bus'nesses in the city; an ardent fraternal, civic and religious worker and stands ready to lend a hand to anyone in any way he can. People of all races in all walks of life consult him on various matters of import which has increased his versatility and quickened his keen, ready judgment and accurate decisions.

COURT DECISION

Last week a very important decision was hande ddown by Judge A. P. Shaw in a local court. The question before the bar was not one related to the desert, the sea, a kidnap or a murder, but "who is responsible for the knockout". It was the opinion of the court and concurred in by the associated judges, "that V. M. Cole be, and is found guilty of engineering the letter 'K', that the one responsible for the 'nock' is now unknown and that those interested about the 'out' consult with the said V. M. Cole or the prisiding judge, (Rev.) A. P. Shaw."

There is one thing sure, you will be surprised at the informat on you will receive and the novelty of it. This confidential news will mean a lot to you and to your posterity i nthe future for the knock out may also mean a knock on your door by "Opportunity". So it would be wise to investigate.

Mrs. Amanda Asberry of Amey St. was hostess to the Poppy Girls Club and a number of friends on Wednesday afternoon. The table was artistically decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, the same color scheme being carried out in the place cards and nut cups. After a three-course luncheon whist was played; prize winners were Mrs. Veada Cleveland, Blanche Everett and Grace Boyd.

Among the guests were Mrs. Willie Mae Carter, Gladys Matthis, Mayme Norman, C. Jeeter, B. DeVaughn and Miss C. Bailey. Guest prize was won by Mrs. Carter.

The Story of the Los Angeles Public Schools

The story of the development of public education in Los Angeles reads like a story of Aladdin and His Lamp, the main difference being that the story of the Los Angeles Schools is a true one. Ordinarily, statistics are not very interesting and are meant to be read by a few who may be interested in the subject. In this brief article it is our intention to give a few statistics which, in a concise way, tell a remarkable story of the public schools of the City of Los Angeles.

The first record that we find of any public school in Los Angeles dates back to 1817, the first teacher being Maximo Pino, an invalid soldier, who received a yearly salary of $140. School supplies in those days were extremely difficult to obtain. The government paymaster furnished the writing paper which was used from the government storehouse. Knowing how difficult it is to obtain supplies from any government storehouse, we wonder if perhaps the famous "scrap of paper" expression did not originate here. When this paper had been thoroughly covered with figures and choice extracts from the Catechism, it was returned to the soldiers to be manufacured into bullets. Thus it happened that many a bad Indian made his first acquaintance with the Catechism through a bullet rather than through the church.

The first school session with terms from three to four months in length lasted for two years, and then a nine year vacation followed. Such a program was, no doubt, heartily in accord with the will of the pupils at that time and might possibly receive an astoundingly favorable vote even by the boys and girls of this time. The general public took very little interest in the schools. The old soldier schoolmasters who were their teachers were tyrants, and the school government a veritable military despotism. They proceeded on the pedagogical formula of "No lickin', no larnin'." For the slightest offense a sound thrashing with the cat-of-nine-tails was the punishment. It has been suggested that the yells from the culprits were the foundations of the present class yells, and that the dullest boy in the class, having the most practice, was, no doubt, the father of the yell leader in our modern university. For the above statement we have the authority of a famous California historian, Mr. J. M. Guinn.

Mexico did better by education in California than did its predecessor, Spain. The most active and earnest friend of the public schools at this time was the Mexican Governor, Micheltorena. We have in Los Angeles a school which is named after this famous Mexican Governor. He appointed an officer in his army, Lieutenant Medina, as schoolmaster, but due to the favorite Mexican sport of revolutions, which seems to date as far as the early 1820's, school was interrupted inasmuch as the building was needed for barracks and the larger boys for soldiers. Between revolutions the school held its very limited sessions.

An interesting inventory found among the records of this period reveals the supplies which were purchased for one year's school:

Number Purchased

36 primers
11 second readers
14 catechisms
1 table
6 benches

Cost

Primers	$1.00
Blackboard	2.00
Jar for water	2.50
Ink	1.00
String to rule blackboard	.50
Inkwell	.37

There were a few well educated, intelligent people among the higher class of Mexicans of this period, but the rank and file were ignorant and indifferent to education, especially to book learning; "and the children in their affection and filial reverence for their parents were unwilling to know more than their progenitors."

Senorita Soledad, daughter of Don Coronel, one of the noted pioneers of Los Angeles and in whose honor we have a school named, assisted her father in teaching in the Los Angeles public schools in 1838. She is the first woman school teacher of whom there seems to be any record. She introduced the study of Music and Physical Education in the schools. In the Chamber of Commerce collection of relics of early Los Angeles days there is a harp which Senorita Soledad played for the childen as a reward for diligent study.

During the gold rush period of '49 the school sessions were irregular and the instructors poorly paid. The early schools seem to have been run on the "come and go as you please" proposition, both on the part of the students and the teachers. The records of this period report an incident in which the school committee, having visited the school twice and finding no children assembled, "arranged with the schoolmaster for a full attendance next Friday."

In 1852 the first school tax levy of 10 cents on $100 was made in the city. Until this ten cent tax was levied schools were forced to close after a very short period due to the fact that funds were exhausted.

The first teachers' insttute was held in the old Bath Street School Building north of the Plaza on what is now North Main Street. It was held there because the school house located on the corner of Second and Spring Streets was considered too far out of town.

In 1854 the Honorable Stephen C. Foster became mayor of Los Angeles and in his inaugural address he made the statement: "first in importance among the needs of our city is education." He urged the organization of a Board of Education and the appointment of a superintendent of schools and, as is the famous American custom today, he who advocates a thing is usually elected to do it. Accordingly, the City Council appointed the Honorable Stephen Foster as superintendent of schools. Thus we find the mayor of the city becoming its first school superintendent and three of the seven members of the City Council constituting its Board of Education. It has only been within recent years that the public has been willing to trust to its school teachers the business of administering its schools, the public having felt in the past that others except those who knew most about it seemed to be more desirable administrators than the teachers.

The school board and superintendent worked diligently and vigorously to secure the erection of a new up-to-date school building and before the close of 1854 a new school house was located on the northwest corner of now occupied by the Bryson Block. Second and Spring Streets on the lot It was a two-story brick building costing about $6000. It was ensidered to be located well out in the suburbs and would take care of the growth for some years to come. The master of thsi school being a lover of nature endeavored to plant trees and shrubbery to beautify the grounds, but due to the difficulty of carrying the water from the well and the excessive number of rodents the life of the trees and plants was short.

The first high school was built in 1872, a two-story wooden building containing eight rooms. It was located where the Hall of Records now stands and was later moved by high trestles over the tops of buildings to the corner of California and Hill Streets where part of it still stands. In 1875 five new school houses were constructed, modeled after the first ones consisting of one room each. These might be likened to our present bungalow schools of which we have many in outlying districts.

The question of need of additional accommodations for school purposes in Los Angeles due to the influx of population seems to be no new one, for quoting from an annual report of the superintendent in 1871 we read, "Owing to the increasing demands for accommodations, I think it will be necessary to add four more rooms if they can be rented in a suitable location." In 1890 we find there were seven double day sessions. Two schools were taught by one teacher. Educationally speaking the double day session is an unsatisfactory arrangement, but from the standpoint of the prosperity of the city, it is a good barometer of the growth and development of the community.

The following tables show the comparative growth of the Los Angeles Schools from 1835 down to the present day, dealing not only with the growth in numbers of pupils and teachers, but also with the total amounts for salaries and other interesting data:

Year	Number Schools	Enrollment	Average Daily Att.

For the last twenty months the Board of Education has expended more than a million a month on land buildings and equipment. These facts are almost unbelievable by those who are not closely in touch with the work. They are very easily checked when one drives about the city, as i tis impossible to visit a single section of the city that has not within the last two or three years had an addition to a school building or a new building.

The following figures give an idea of the vast consumption of supplies for our schools. There was purchased during the year 1925-26:

16,000 boxes chalk	$ 6,360.00
4,400 gallons liquid soap	3,740.00
37,000 dozen black board erasers	51,430.00

The Custodian Superintendent has under his charge over 1000 gardeners, janitors, and watchmen, salaries for this work for 1924-25 being budgeted at $920,000.00. Last year these men wore out: 1300 feather dusters; 1300 common brooms; 4000 floor brushes; 1100 scrub brushes; 1800 mop cloths. For dusters they used 75 miles of cheesecloth.

In 1922 the City of Los Angeles voted $17,400,000 worth of school bonds which were expended as follows:

Elementary

69 new large elementary buildings
41 substantial additions to old buildings.
11 classroom bungalows and sanitary buildings.
32 new sites
90 additions to present sites.

High School

3 new junor high school sites
9 additions to old senior high school sites
6 additions to old junior high school sites

In 1924 additonal bonds were voted to the amount of $34,640, which have been spent or encumbered as follows:

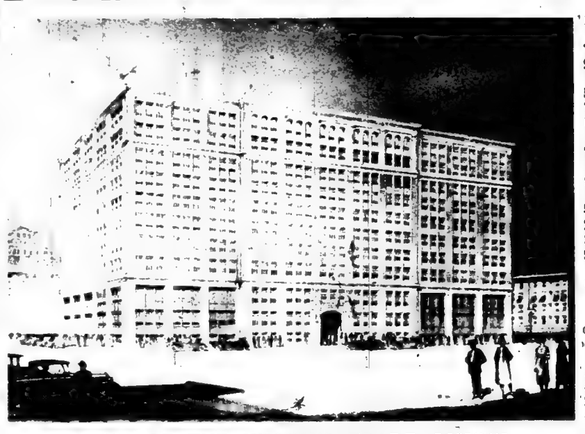
The following table shows the total expenditure on Bond Issues since 1914:*

*Date of Election	Elementary	High	Total	Vote Carried
May 14, 1914	$ 3,000,000	$ 1,600,000	$ 4,600,000	7 to 1
June 8, 1920	6,000,000	3,500,000	9,500,000	15 to 1
June 6, 1922	10,040,000	7,360,000	17,400,000	15 to 1
June 3, 1924	19,360,000	15,280,000	34,640,000	20 to 1
	$38,400,000	$27,740,000	$66,140,000

From the above facts it is perfectly evident that the growth of the Los Angeles City School System has been phenomenal. When any business organization finds its volume of business doubled in the period of four years it is confronted with a serious problem of expansion. This has been the case with the Los Angeles Board of Education. The citizens of Los Angeles be in public education and are willing to spare no expense to furnish their boys and girls with the very best educational advantages that can be had. With the great number of teachers desiring to come to Southern California and particularly to Los Angeles City the very best teachers are secured.

After all, we are not really building physical plants, we are building character and citizenship; we are not endeavoring to teach courses of study, we are endeavoring to teach boys and girls. It is the aim of the public schools to fit boys and girls not only to make a living and take their places in the industrial, professional, and business world, which is necessary and proper, but more than that, it is the aim of the Los Angeles School Department to develop the kind of men and women who will do credit to this great Southland and to the state and nation of which they are a part. It is the hope and aim of every school teacher that the boys and girls under her direction shall be better citizens in the future by being better citizens during the present, for these boys and girls are just as truly citizens now as they ever will be.

Just as the engineer has his tables and standards by which he makes his computations, just as the mariner has the compass by which he obtains his bearings, as the business house has means of determining its volume of sales and accomplishments, so does the School Department have its measures and objectives, as they are called, by which progress is measured. This school system measures its accomplishment by the generally accepted cardinal principles, or main objectives, of education. Each subject taught should contribute directly to one of more of these objectives, or yardsticks of education. These generally accepted objectives are:



1. Health.
2. Command of fundamental processes. (These include reading, writing, arithmetic, and the elements of oral and written exprsesions.)
3. Worthy home-membership.
4. Vocations.
5. Civic education.
6. Worthy use of leisure.
7. Ethical character.

By means of a constant check or evaluation of subjects, we are able to determine whether or not we are turning out of our schools the sort of a finished product that we desire. What shall it profit the boy or girl who shall gain the whole curriculum and lose his own health? What progress can a student make in the world today unless he can read, write, and figure accurately and express himself adequately through the written and oral forms. Our schools should endeavor to make the student a more worthy member of the home, not of some future home, but of its present home. The schools should prepare for a vocation, should give thorough training in civic education, point out responsibilities that the individual has for the state as well as the obligations the state has for the individual. He should be taught the worthy use of his leisure time and last but by no means least, unless the student posesses the type of character tha is honored and respeced by the community, of what value is all the rest of his education.

As mentioned above we are not endeavoring to teach subjects, we are endeavoring to teach boys and girls. Above the proscenium arch in the Los Angeles City High School Auditorium is a motto which is read many times by each student enrolled in that great institution before he shall graduate. This motto embodies the real spirit of education:

"Obedience to Law, Respect for Others, Mastery of Self, Joy in Service; These constitute life."

This is the ideal that school teachers are ever endeavoring to hold before the boys and girls who so soon will be the men and women of the community. Someone has aptly said that education is the ability to read the sign post at the corner and know which way to turn. The Los Angeles School Department is endeavoring to turn out boys and girls who are able to read the signs of the times and turn in a direction that will lead to service and success.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR-ELECT BURON FITTS
Elected at the last election by a phenominal vote

This young man is distinguished for his over-seas career, his association with the office of District Attorney, serving in the capacity of Chief Deputy for more than two years. His popularity with his over-seas colleagues was largely responsible for his election to the high and honorable position of Lieutenant Governor of California. He will be glad to meet his many friends in his new law quarters at 1210 Chester Williams Building. There you will find the same Buron Fitts.

THE REPUBLICAN PROTECTIVE LEAGUE

The Republican Protective League was organized in 1905 in the city of Oakland. From that time on we have been found advocating the candidacy of various men throughout the state.

The first endorsement of our Club was Roosevelt and Fairbanks for President and Vice-President. We next supported President Taft. We also endorsed the candidacy of Ex-governor Pardee.

In 1909 many of the members of the organization moved from Oakland to Los Angeles where we then took up the organization work again i nLos Angeles. Thru Attorney G. W. Wickliffe, who was Council of our organization at that time, we were duly organized here with Captain G. W. Hawkins, President of the organization and Lucille Shelten, Secretary. Mr. Wicklifle had the organization to transfer from Oakland and, thru the Secretary of State, it was duly organized in the city of Los Angeles. From that time until today we have been found doing political work thru this organization. After Mr. Hawkins' death, Mr. William Quall became President and Mrs. Gwendolyn Gordon was Secretary. We have taken part in every election from that time on.

Now w ehave leased a beautiful place for headquarters at 1710 South Central Avenue which we will open early in the year where we will conduct the business of the organization.

Since we have been organized in the city of Los Angeles, we have been identified in every campaign. The first candidate that we supported in this city was the late Mayor Alexander. And from that time on we have had the privilege of endorsing Mayor Rose, Mayor Charles Sebastin and Mayor Frederick Wodoman. We hav ealso endorsed Mayor Cryer three times that he has succeeded himself.

Now for the National work. We have been identified with every election from the time of President Taft. We took a very active part in Chief Justice Hughes' campaign when he was defeated thru the trickery of Senator Johnson. We also took an active part in Presidents Harding and Coolidge elections. We have been found in support of Senator Shortridge since 1915. We supported him again in 1920 agains tCongressman Kent. We again supported him in the last election against Judge Clark. We have also had the pleasure of supporting Governor Stevens and Lt. Governor Young in 1918. Four years later we supported Governor Friend W. Richardson instead of Stevens. Our organization was also on record as supporting Congressman Osborne, a friend of our people. Since the death of Congressman Osborne, we have been supporting Captain John D. Frederick. At the last election we supported Joe Crail to succeed Frederick who did not run.

Our organization has always tried to endorse men that we felt were best qualified to fill the office. I will have to admit that we have made mistakes in some of our endorsements, but nevertheless we are still trying to better our condition.

The time has now come when we feel that we should secure quarters for our organization as is done in other large cities throughout the United States so that we can work hard to gain recognition as other groups. We feel that the only way that we can succeed is by our ballot and continue to demand things that we should have as any other group of citizens.

Our new quarters will be opened for all the people of our group in this section of the city. We have many prominent men and women of this city who have been members of this organization for many years past. I hope that we can continue to strengthen our organization as we have many big problems to solve and the only way to solve these problems is by united forces.

We have a problem at the coming election of selecting our Councilmen for the city of Los Angeles and we must be on our guard to stand by the men that we know will give us a square deal thruout the city. We have the right to have he same recognition as any other group of people. I am simply quoting these facts so that you may see the necessity of organized forces for fighting.

For twenty years we have kept the organization alive and what we need most now is more co-operation from our people. The opening date of our headquarters will be given out thru invitations and thru the newspapers so that all of the people will know what we are going to do. It is up to us to make good.

President Coolidge in his message to Congress said:—

"The social well-being of our constant effort for the amelioration of race prejudice and the extension to all elements of equal opportunity and equal protection under the laws are guaranteed by the Constitution. The Federal Government especially is charged with this obligation in behalf of the Colored people of the nation. Not only their remarkable progress, their devotion and their loyalty, but our duty to ourselves under our claim that we are an enlightened people requires us to use all our power to protect them from the crime of lynching. Although violence fo this kind hasovery much decreased, while any of it remains we can not justify neglecting to make every effort to eradicate it by law."

SENATOR C. W. LYONS

SENATOR SHORTRIDGE

CONGRESSMAN CRAIL

SENATOR PEDROTTI

THESE ARE THE CANDIDATES THAT WE SUPPORTED AT THE LAST ELECTION

SENATOR SHORTRIDGE

Senator Shortridge has always been found to be our friend. We can depend on him at all times to stand for a square deal for all people. During the last campaign a letter was sent to me by Mrs. Myrtle Foster Cook of Kansas City, Chairman of the Colored Women of the Western Division under the Republican National Committee under Chairman William Butler. Part of the letter was as follows: " 'Never change horses in the middle of the stream' is a wise old saying, homely but true. Senator Shortridge had made a fine record in the National Congress. He has also stood square for the best interest of all the people."

CONGRESSMAN JOE CRAIL

We have other men i npublic life such as Congressman Joe Crail, who has succeeded Congressman Frederick. Mr. Crail has been tried and found to always give a square deal to our group. He has a brother on the Superior bench in the person of Chas. S. Crail who is true and fair in his decisions to oll the people.

W. E. EVANS

W. E. Evans has a wonderful record also.

GOVERNOR C. C. YOUNG

Governor C. C. Young has made a wonderful record in the State of California since his long service in the State Legislature and as Lieutenant Governor of the State of California.

BURON FITTS

Buron Fitts, one of our leading young attorneys who was Deputy under Attorne yAsa Keyes, has made an outstanding recor din the District Attorney's office and has been elected Lieutenant Governor for the next four years.

SENATOR CHAS. W. LYONS

Senator Chas. W. Lyons of the 39th senatorial district has been tried and found to be a true friend to our group and we can depend on him any time that he is called upon.

SENATOR J. W. McKINLEY

Senator J. W. McKinley is one of our newly elected senators who has made a good reputation in the past and we believe that he can be depended upon.

SENATOR JOSEPH L. PEDROTTI

Senator Joseph L. Pedrotti was not a candidate at this time but is one of staunch admirers. He is a young man who has ben tried and found to be a friend to all the people regardless of creed or color. We have tried him on many occasions and he has always responded readily.

This is the ticket that our organization has supported on the Superior bench:—

Harry A. Hollzer, Sidney N. Reeves, Rueben S. Schmidt, Robert H. Scott, Albert Lee Stephens, Frederick C. Valentine, Charles B. Burnell, Charles S. Crail, Chas. B. Burnell, Walter S. Gates, Edward T. Bishop, William Hazlitt.

CAPTAIN L. L. McCLARY

We shall now speak of our district which is called the Newton Street District that takes in from Sixth Street to Slausson Avenue, from the river to San Pedro. At the head of that district we have Captain L. L. McClarey who is a man that stands for every person in the district and will treat them squarely as citizens and respect them as such. The people in the district feel grateful to the Mayor and Chief of Police to have such a man as the Captain to conduct the affairs of that district as he does. We who come in contact with Captain McClarey in the district can see that he is fair and square to the citizens that come under his supervision.

CAPTAIN GLENN

We have in the detective bureau Captain Glenn who has male a wonderful record in the Police Department during the twenty years that he has been in the service. He has been promoted gradually from patrolman to his present position.

COUNCILMAN SPARKS

Councilman Sparke of the fifth distirct is a candidate to succeed himself at the next spring election. He was formerly the License Clerk of this County for many years. He has a very wide acquaintance throughout this city. He stands for all the people in his district. He has lots of courage and we must return him to the Council at the next election.

COUNCILMAN SHAW

Councilman Shaw of the 8th district has made a good success as Councilman. He was presented at the opening of Florence Avenue and was presented with a gold shield set with diamond. This present was given to him by the citizens in his district for the good word he has done in the district since he has ben Councilman. He is a candidate to succeed himself and there is no doubt about his winning as his people will support him. He is easily approached and will listen t oany man or woman who comes to him from his disthict. Leet us re-elect him at the spring election.

COUNCILMAN BOYLE WORKMAN

Councilman Boyle Workman of the 4th district is president of the City Council. He is a candidate t osucceed himself at the next election. He has made a good record. He is a native son and his father was Mayor of the city of Los Angeles. Ifeelthat no man knows yhat the people want more than Councilman Workman. He can feel sure that the people will send him back next spring.

COUNCILMAN COLDEN

Cuncilman Colden of the 15th district has made a wonderful record in that district. eH now represents the sectin that is covered by Watts which was lately admitted to Los Angeles and was not included in his district when he was elected. We have a very large group of our peopl ein that district now and I feel that Mr. Colden will give a square deal to all the people in that district. He is a candidate to succeed himself and all the people who know him will help him in the coming election.

The councilman's duty today is one that should be considered by every one who lives in these various districts. The district representation means that every councilman is responsibl efor his district. Whenever a proposition is brought up in that district it is wholly for that councilman to represent that district in the City Council.

PORO COLLEGE ST. LOUIS, MO.

PORQ COLLEGE and PORO ANNEX Buildings are three-story, fire-proof structures of brick, reinforced concrete, and steel. There are four floors, including the mezzanine floor between the first and second stories, with a total of one hundred thousand square feet of floor space. Both buildings are equipped with electric elevators. An automatic passenger elevator in the PORO COLLEGE Building ascends to the Roof Garden. PORO COLLEGE, PORO ANNEX and PORO GARAGE Buildings with furnishings and equipment represent an investment of over ONE MILLION.

Poro College stands as a monument to the capability of a race. Its genius is a woman— MRS. ANNA M. MALONE. The story of her success outdoes fiction in its strangeness. Starting in 1900 in the back room of Lovejoy paying a rental of $5 per month to the present imposing structure, employing hundreds of persons and furnishing thousands of Agents is a mighty step in the march of progress.

It is here that the world famous "PORO PRODUCTS" are manufactured and sent out to the many thousands of agents in all parts of the world and truly, according to "PORO'S" own story, those familiar with the Hair and Toilet Goods Industry, it is only necessary to mention "Poro" to recall the dominant part that "PORO'S" product shave played in the development of Beauty Culture.

Founded and conducted in a spirit of true Christianity and dedicated to the advancement of the Race, Poro College extends its benefits—Moral, Physical and Economic—throughout a large part of the world.

Chief Probation Officer of Los Angeles County.

PROBATION AND ITS RELATION TO CRIME

In 1902-1903 the Legislature of the State of California created the Probation law. This law gave the Court the discretionary power ofreleasing both minors and adults on probation where the ends of justice, and the best interests of the public as well as the defendant would be subserved by so doing.

The Adult Probation Department ofLos Angeles County kept no records up to 1908 regarding those men and women placed on probation; since that time a record has been kept and up to date approximately ten thousand men and women have been granted permission to file applications for probation. Of this number 4163 men and women have been rehabilitated under this law, the majority of whom have become good citizens in the community in which they reside.

It has been the rule of the Probation Department not torecomend probation in cases where there is not an excellent opportunity for the man or woman to respond to the leniency extended. Only such cases are recommended where in the judgment of the Probation O_cer the subject will profit by his experience with the law, and become a better citizen.

If a man has been arrested for the first time or as some people term it "first time caught," this is no reason in itself why he should be granted probation on this showing alone. If this was true, approximately seventy-five per cent of those applying for probation would be entitled to leniency.

Contrary to the opinion of many, it should be noted that the criminal of today is not being mollycoddled, nor is he encouraged in leading a life of crime through the adoption of the probation law, or other humane statutes.

The fact that every man that requests probation must stand on his own rights and not know until the time the Judge passes sentence, that he is to be granted leniency, is in itself a strong point revealing the fact that probation can never be promised but must be earned.

It is true that the United States leads the rest of the world in the number of crimes committed. This state of affairs will continue as long as the so-called "law-abiding citizen" treats these conditions as a matter of course, or because of ignorance, carelessness, neglect, or failure to register a vote of disapproval at the polls and thus fails to protest against same.

If crime is to decrease, the people must stand firmly for law and order, and endeavor to assist in its enforcement. This can only be done by cooperation of the citizens with the police and other organizations working for the preventon of crime.

Experience has taught us our most efficient prevention remedy may be summed up in the word, education. The coming generations, as well as the present, should be taugh tthat our laws must be respected and obeyed. When one considers that sixteen per cent of those tried in the local criminal courts have no education, fifty-seven per cen grammar school training or part of same, and only twenty-one enter High School, this leaves only six per cent of those handled as having had part of or a complete college education. Those interested in crime suppression could, with profitable results, spend much time in the education of our young people.

When one is deprived of his liberty by the State, it is no more than fair to that party that he be educated, and if possible taught a vocation or trade while in confinement at prison, instead of being released with $5.00 cash, a suit of clothes and the best wishes of those who sent him to the institution.

It is imperative that we not only spend time and research as to the causes and reasons for crime, but it is also true that much time could be adequately spent on rehabilitating those who are arrested for crime and who have made the necessary showing, which would offset the idea of their committing a crime again.

CARL L. MAY, Supervisor,
Adult Probation Dept.

THREE BIG PROJECTS ADVANCED

Three important opening and widening proceedings, all included in the Major Traffic Street Plan, were advanced during the past week, according to reports from the Traffic Commission.

Referees filed the awards of damages for the widening of Olive Street, from Seventh Street to Pico, to a uniform width of 80 feet. This calls for a five-foot strip benig cut from each side of the street.

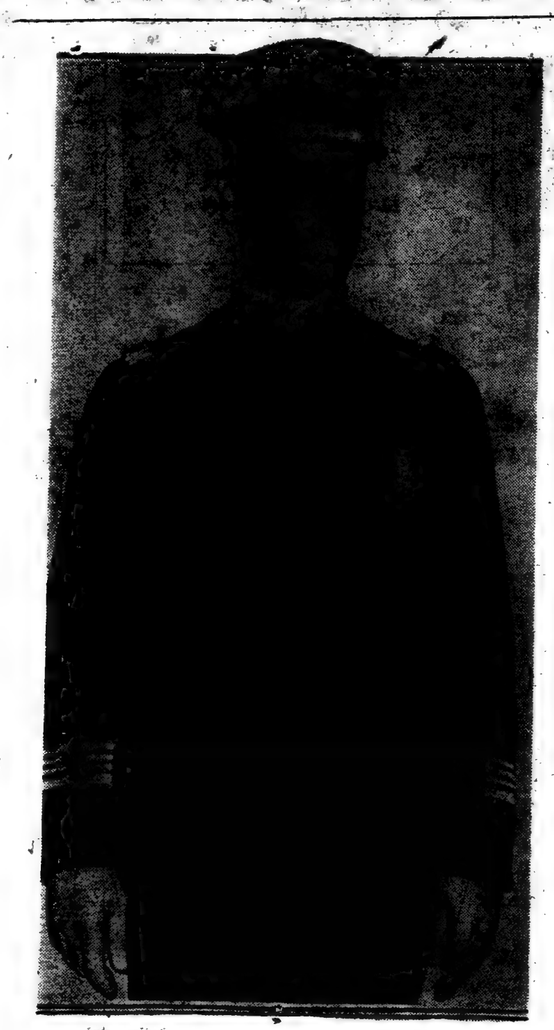
The total damages for the improvement were set by the referees at $1,682,143.98. Property owners petitioned for the widening so that Olive may be used as a retail shopping street, with wide sidewalks.

The condemnation suit for widening Eighth Street, from Figueroa to Windsor Blvd., a distance of nearly five miles, was filed by Deputy City Attorney Delorey.

This project calls for a 80-foot street, and the elimination of jogs. It will cost, according to estimates, $2,990,250, of which the city will pay as its share $328,928. It will provide a new artery to the western section of the city when completed.

Protests were denied for the widening of Temple Street, from Broadway to Park View Street. This project, estimated to cost $1,000,000, will also get city aid, $100,000 having been allocated from the six-cent permanent improvement fund.

LOS ANGELES HAS MOST AUTOS



Importance of providing traffic congestion relief in Los Angeles is shown in figures obtained from the U. S. bureau of public roads by the traffic commission. The report discloses that while there is a motor car in the United States for every six persons, there is a machine for every two and one-third persons in Los Angeles county.

The total number of automobiles in the United States is 19,697,832. New York has the most machines, with 1,562,000, while California is a close second with 1460,000.

New York has no gas tax, so California leads all other states in the amount received from gasoline taxes. During the first six months of 1926, $7,400,000 was collected in California. Florida was the second state, $6,200,000.

Volume 40, No. 28 LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, DECEMBER 17, 1926 Section II, Christmas Edition

The Activities of Our Los Angeles Police Department

L. L. McCLARY, Captain Newton Street Station

too busy or offers some excuse for not going to court, it becomes impossible to convict and we are compelled to turn loose on the city the arrested party, to continue his criminal endeavors.

Inasmuch as this is your Government, you make thru your representatives the laws and elect the judges, it would seem to me that you should take a very keen interest in your Police Department, assisting it in every way to perform its proper function in Government.

I have no thought of blaming our citizens for any of the faults of the Police Department, but I am tying to get a better understanding so that we may be benefitted, the public by increased co-operation and the police by greater efficiency.

The marvelous progress that is ours wherein we have surpassed the achievements of all time and all nation in those things that bring to us the comforts and necessities of life: our automobiles, electricity, transportation systems, magnificent buildings, and those hundreds of other things that we now enjoy, and which has cost and is costing many millions of dollars annually, are here because the men behind them had the confidence in our form of Government. They believed that the constituted authorities would preserve law and order, and with that belief they worked and invested with the result that the great achievements before mentioned are now enjoyed by all. To continue forward in this great march of progress the public must have confidence in constituted authority, and so it is the duty of all citizens to fully co-operate with the law and order agency to the end that we will have a people who know and trust their officials.

While the enforcement of criminal law is the greater part of the police officers' duy, there are many acts of service which come within his province, and the faithful performance of those things greatly increase his value to the community.

With love for home and country and with confidence and respect for constituted authority, let us all work gether for continued progress, having uppermost in our minds the thought of making this a better place in which to carry on our various proper vocations, a better place to rear our children, and a better place in which to live; and co-operation is absolutely necessary to bring about that condition.

Assuring all that every man in this Police Division stands ready to render service of the highest order, they join with me in thanking the residents of this district for that splendid support and co-operation which we have received in the past, and conveying to you all the season's greetings, I remain,

Respectfully yours,
L. L. McCLARY,
Captain Commanding Newton Division.

A YEAR OF CO-OPERATION

By James E. Davis,
Chief of Police.

The Los Angeles Police Department has good cause to celebrate thanksgiving this year, for during the past twelve months it has obtained a very high degree of efficiency and has won the friendship and co-operation of all good citizens. While the department has not increased in numbers it has been so thoroughly reorganized as to insure the utmost efficiency in every division and bureau, and the rigid system of inspections has given its members an improved appearance that has attracted generally favorable comment.

Despite the fact that New York, Chicago, Detroit and many other eastern cities have suffered from disastrous crime waves, Los Angeles has been fortunate in this respect and there has actually been no increase in crime proportionate to the increase in population here. The favorable conditions in our city are equally attributable to the increased efficiency of the police and the splendid measure of co-operation given by the general public. It is becoming more and more apparent that the citizens realize that they have an obligation to the police department as much as the latter has an obligation to them, and this condition has not failed to bring the desired results.

In our city we are also fortunate in avoiding class or racial conflicts such as have disgraced many municipalities; and we have adopted the very sensible view that race, creed or color has very little to do with the crime problem. Law breakers are about evenly distributed, in proportion to population, in every community and wherever we find a region or district requiring a great deal of police attention it is quite certain that the municipality as a whole is deserving of blame. Law breakers congregate in any district where they will find kindred spirits and where there is an appearance of laxity on the part of law enforcement officers, and such conditions often exist in the most exclusive residential districts as well as in the less prosperous parts of the community. It is my belief that Los Angeles as a city is showing marked progress in every regard and our crime charts indicate that the permanent residents of Los Angeles average very high in their respect for law and order. Our chief problem this winter will be to keep out this city the hordes of gunsters and gun men who may be driven out of eastern cities during the intensive warfare conducted against them at this time, and who may seek the benefits of our pleasant climate and opportunities to prey upon the thousands of wealthy tourists who come here for recreation. The police force is now so organized that its members can be counted upon to quickly overcome any gangs of criminals who seek to make this city their headquarters. Our record during the past year indicates that in any encounter between policemen and gun men the forces of law and order will inevitably triumph.

NO TIPPING

What's that? We could hardly believe our eyes! But there it was right over the door as we walked by way of curiosity into the Wonder, Waffle and Coffee House, at 1310 E. 12th St. For yea, verily, verily, many are the times we have tipped when we could not spare it, or would like to have, but couldn't, but that saves us of any feelings on the matter for there we are welcome without it. Looking around we noticed that the fixtures were brand new, and as high-priced as those in use down town, the service quick and courteous and the prices so low that it is cheaper to eat there than at home. Mr. Watkins, and Mr. Bennett have been only open a few days, but needless to say, they will draw many to this unique Waffle House, at 1310 East 12th St.

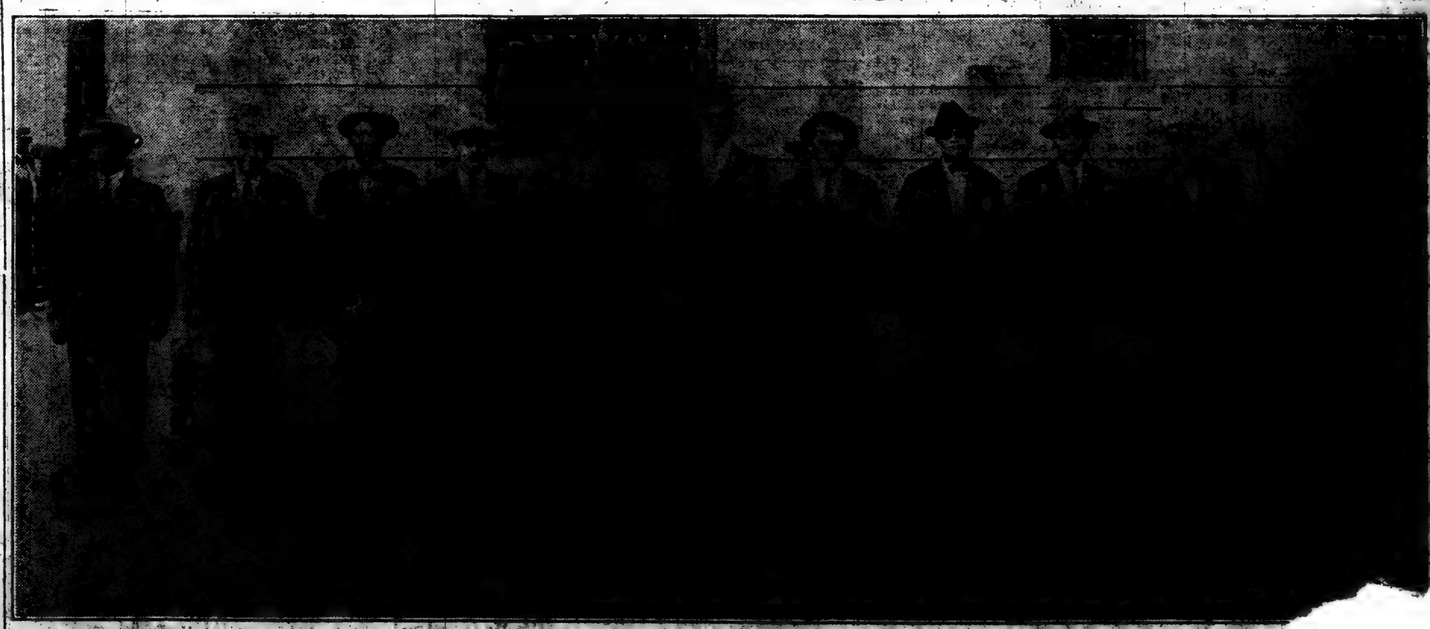
JAS. E. DAVIS, Chief Of Police

THE POLICE AND THE PUBLIC

In our form of government, where so much depends upon the executive branch, of which the Police Departments are the greater part, a more perfect understanding should exist. To many of our citizens, the Police represent the Constitution, the Judge, the Jury, Prosecuting Attorney, and everyone connected with law enforcement, and for that very reason Police Officers should be highly trained specialists. The degree of confidence and respect in which they are held depends upon the manner in which they discharge their duties. If courteous and competent, an excellent effect for good, will obtain. If otherwise, a very bad effect will prevail, and if the public loses confidence in its law enforcement officers, then they also lose confidence in their Government, and then Anarchy, Communism and Lawlessness begin to take root, which, if left undisturbed will destroy the very foundation of our Government.

So it behooves us all, as good citizens, to look well to the kind of police force we have and to select only those specially fitted by education, training and environment for that most important branch of our Government, and if proper care has been exercised in securing good police officers it then becomes the duty of all good citizens to assist those officers in their work; for, in truth, they are the servants of the whole people but not the servant of any individual person, and they can be best assisted by friendly co-operain problems that concern the welfare of the community, a ndviolations of the law should be taken to the Police and not those things such as personal spite, revenge and jealousy. The police are ready at all times to render service to the people in their district, but the degree of service depends largely upon the co-operation of the people; so it seems to me that if the public endeavors to help more and criticise less we would all be much benefitted.

Many of our citiens do not understand that proper evidence must be presented in court to secure a conviction, and many times a citizen is the only witness, and when that citizen is



UNIFORM POLICE NEWTON STREET STATION

The citizens of the district in which the Newton Street Station is located are happy in the thought that they have the finest set of officers and patrolmen that are second to no other anywhere or any place. From Captain McClary on down the line the above group of officers are well liked and highly respected. Captain McClarey, Commander of this Station, can well feel proud of this magnificent galaxy of officers.

WM. C. GLENN, Captain Of Detectives

DETECTIVE FORCE NEWTON STREET STATION

The above group composes the Detective force working out of the Newton Street Station and is composed of well trained and highly efficie group we find officers who rank with the best in the land; still down above them and they are the pride of all law-abiding citizens. Cr ranking an honorable record to command at the Newton Street Station.

FIRE CHIEF SCOTT WRITES FOR HIS DEPARTMENT

RALPH SCOTT, Chief of L. A. Fire Department

FIRE DEPT. EXPANSION IMPERATIVE

The average citizen can not realize the tremendous growth of Los Angeles, as measured ot only by the increase in area by annexation, but increase in building and population from internat growth. The records of the Los Angeles Building Department show that since January 1, 1923, 60,171 building permits were issued for buildings intended to be used as dwellings. The records of this department also show that the housing capacity of these buildings is for 109,418 families, or an estimated total of 474,000 persons. These figures are not the result of guess work but are statistics carefully kept. Evidently this increase would alone populate a city of considerable consequence. During the same period of time, Los Angeles had increased in area by annexaton approximately 54 square miles, thereby still keeping itself well out of reach of any competitor.

After a city grows to the size of Los Angeles a few hundred thousand more or less increase in population or a few square miles of added territory mean nothing at all to the most of our citizens. As a matter of fact, the necessity for such things as fire protection increases directly as area and population inhrease, and what may have been adequate ten years ago is by no means adequate today. Fire protection must be supplied, and the issuance of bonds furnishes the only possible means by which fire department expansion can take place. It has never been possible to pay for the erection of engine houses and the equipment of the same with expensive apparatus from current revenues of the city.

The Fire Department must now purchase and pay for the installation of all fire hydrants, and the difficulty of securing adequate provision for this necessary work is becoming greater from year to year, and for the present fiscal year no money is available for hydrant installation. It does not need much argument to prove the necessity of an adequate number of fire hydrants. Without fire hydrants, an army equipped with the most modern apparatus obtainable is helpless in the event of a fire. The records of the Fire Department show that at the present time there is an actual shortage of 5,000 hydrants. This shortage reacts upon fire department efficiency in many ways; particularly in the outside sections it renders it impossible to get more than one or two streams of water on any fire where, usually four or more streams could be used to advantage. Practically a total loss from this reason alone, adequate number of available the fire extinguished with a loss. At the every piece down with case, it being necessary to carry this amount to lay the long lines of hose which necessity now demands. A line of one or two thousand feet is at the present time not unusual and fire hose, while usually very well built, is not calculated for any such service as this. The Fire Department engineers are familiar in practice, at least, with friction losses in lines of hose. To get an effective nozzle pressure on a line of several thousand feet in length, it is necessary to supply an enormous pressure at the engine, this resulting in very early deterioration and destruction of the hose, as well as deterioration of the apparatus itself, both for the season of overload as above stated, and the continual furnishing of unusually high initial pressure. Fire hose is a rather expensive commodity and when it is known that there are at all times in service in this department mroe than $100,000 worth of fire hose, costing on an average one dollar per foot, it is well to look to the care of this equipment. A fire hydrant is a permanent investment and when once installed will last for fifty years.

It will be comparatively fresh in the minds of many that the Fire Department in 1922 campaigned for and the people voted favorably upon a bond issue of $2500,000 for Fire Department expansion. It may also be remembered that the Fire Department accepted this figure as a compromise amount, stating at the time that it was insufficient to bring the department up to standard. The fact that the bonding limit of the city was nearly reached was the principal factor in preventing the submission of a bond issue of twice that size. It will be remembered also that from the bond issue of 1922 one million dollars was set aside to be used exclusively for the rebuilding and extension of the fire-alarm system, leaving but $1,500,000 to be devoted to Fire Department purposes exclusively. By the expenditure of this latter amount the Fire Department made a wonderful expansion showing and the Department was augmented by the addition of twenty-five distinct fire-fighting companies, which included the building and equipment of fifteen bungalow type fire stations, five 2-story fire stations, the purchase of a number of pieces of real estate necessary for the establishment of new houses, 31 large pumping engines, five aerial trucks, five city service trucks, and a quantity of fire hose and minor equipment, as well as the construction of the 4-story reinforced concrete headquarters.

Fire protection is like insurance; everybody agrees that it is necessary in the abstract, but the need is seldom realized until the actual situation arises. I am told that in cities which have already suffered a conflagration that proved to be of such proportions as to practically wipe out either business or residence districts, or both, there is no difficulty in persuading the voters that fire protection is necessary. Los Angeles has thus far been extremely fortunate in this regard, as no fire of any consequence, speaking comparatively of course, has ever occurred in this city. Let us hope that it will never occur, but as an insurance against such a contingency the fire fighting fraternity must ever be vigilant. It devolves upon some agency, therefore, to educate the people in the matter of necessity for periodical bonds for this purpose, for, as above stated, there is no other way of securing the necessary funds. The Fire Department and its spokesmen must evidently carry on the campaign, which we are willing to do, and leave no stone unturned to secure a favorable result.

The Los Angeles Fire Department conducted an intensive campaign during October of this year for the passage of a bond issue of $2,500,000 for additional fire protection, but the measure was defeated at the polls November 2nd. The proposition received a favorable amjority but not the necessary two-thirds which a bond issue requires for passage. It is my desire that this matter be again brought to the attention of the voters at an early date in 1927, as the additional fire protection must be supplied if Los Angeles is to be maintained as a city reasonably safe from fire, there being no other method yet proven practical by which funds for Fire Department extension can be secured. In this coming campaign we intend to be very definite as to the manner of expenditure of bond money. Every voter should know in detail just what benefit his district will derive from the expenditure, and thus, with cards face up on the table and the voter in possession of all information available it will be strange indeed if Los Angeles can not authorize an expenditure of money to make possible a growth of the Fire Department which will be commensurate with that of the city of Los Angeles.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS FACES GIGANTIC PROBLEMS

City's Construction Body Working Out Big Program of Streets, Sewers, Buildings and Bridges

Great cities are great builders. Centers of population that have endured are notable for their constructive work. This is true throughout all history. Excavations made in ancient lands reveal that the buried cities had carried out great constructive work.

As communities grow it becomes more and more necessary to provide for their needs. First paths are made, then roads are built and later great highways are constructed. As the population becmes greater it is necessary to construct great sanitary systems.

Los Angeles, the fastest growing city in the world, a city that achieved in two decades what required two centuries for other cities to achieve, faces in an acute manner all the construction problems of the great cities of the world. With more than a million population it will be necessary to spend more than a billion dollars in order to catch up with its construction program.

This huge program is being worked out by forward-looking citizens and their plans ultimately reach the board of public works. This commission is without doubt the most important in the city government, with the possible exception of the Bureau of Water and Power.

With the very efficient Hon. Hugh J. McGuire as its president it has control of many subsidiary departments of which the biggest is the engineering department employed more than 2200 persons, under the direction of the city engineer, more than 500 of these workers are of the colored race.

The present year has seen the completion of several major bridge projects, among the most important being the Macy Street Viaduct, the Anaheim Street Viaduct (Wilmington), the South Sherman Way bridge, and the widening of the Universal City bridge. The total value of this construction is $1,077,000, not including rights of way and property damages.

Bridges and viaducts under construction include the Seventh Street Viaduct, Fletcher Drive bridge across the Los Angeles river, the Riverside Drive-Dayton Avenue bridge, and two sections of the Glendale-Hyperion viaduct, the estimated value of this work being $1,245,000.

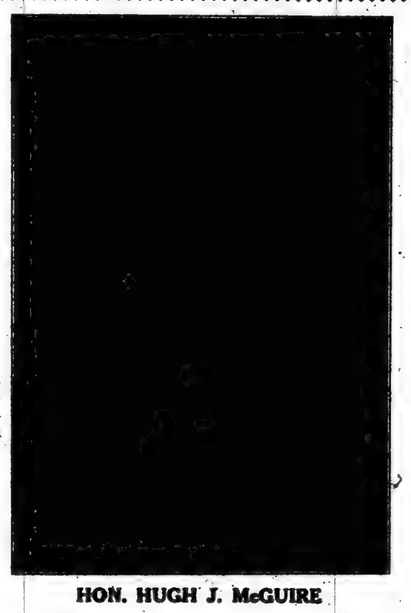
Plans are being prepared for the main structure of the Glendale-Hyperion viaduct, the First Street viaduct, the North Spring Street bridge, and the Fourth and Lorena Street bridge and grade separation. It is expected that these prjects, aggregating over $2,000,000, will be under construction in the coming year.

Twenty-one pedestrian subways included in the $350,000 bond issue of 1925, have been completed at a total cost of approximately $153,000, while eight others are under contract and rapidly nearing completion. Plans are being prepared for nine additional subways and it is expected that the balance of the issue will be allocated to definite locations shortly.

Work has been started on the grade separation of Downey Road and the Union Pacific; condemnation proceedings are under way for the separation of grades at La Brea Avenue and San Vicente boulevard; while construction will soon start on an overhead crossing carrying the Pacific Electric over Pico street at San Vicente boulevad. The estimated cost of these projects is $588,000.

The contract has been awarded and work has been started on the Municipal Refuse Incinerator, authorized under the 1924 bond issue of $400,000.

The total mileage of streets in the city of Los Angeles on December 31, 1926, is 4422.11. Of this amount 1092.96 miles are paved, 1190.72 miles are otherwise improved and 2138.43 miles are unimproved. During the calendar year 161.53 miles of streets were added to the city by annexation, of which 34.48 miles are paved, 56.76 miles are otherwise improved and 70.59 miles are unimproved.



Following is a detailed statement of the work accepted during the past year:

Olympic Games for Los Angeles in 1932

By GEORGE HJELTE,
Supt. Playground and Recreation

George Hjelte

Los Angeles is to enjoy a privilege in the year 1932 which comes rarely to an American city. In fact, it is a privilege which only one American city has ever before been accorded. The International Olympic Game will be held in this city during that year. They were held in America at St. Louis during the year 1904.

The Olympic Games are a modern replica of the classic Greek games which originated in the seventh century B. C. At that time they were a national festival held each four years and participated in by the several integral parts of the Greek Republic. They became an event of the utmost importance in the national life of the ancient Greeks and continued until the decline of the Greek Republic.

Late in the 20th century the classic Greek Games were revived and the first modern games staged at Athens in Greece in the year 1896. These games were participated in by the leading nations of the world and, to the credit of our nation, it may be said that first honors in the games were won by athletes and contestants from the United States of America. This honor has never since that time been achieved by any other nation.

No international conclave of any kind is of greater significance to the people of the world and of greater value in the promotion of internationall goodwill than the modern Olympic Games. It is therefore a distiction of great note that Los Angeles will enjoy in 1932 when thousands of athletes in all branches of sport meet here in sunny Southern California to vie with each other and to promote a finer spirit of international good will.

Los Angeles must awaken to its responsibility in connection with the Olympic Games. That responsibility involves the provision of the physical equipment to accommodate the various contests which include almost every known branch of sport, the provision of accommodations for the hundreds of thousands of people who will flock to Southern California to witness these games, and the provision of facilities at the games for many spectators.

Fortunately this city has one of the finest outdoor stadiums in the world in the Coliseum at Exposition Park, with a capacity of 90,000 people and with an arena which lends itself well to all sorts of contests. The greatest deficiency in equipment in Los Angeles is possibly in relation to swimming, for we have at the present time no swimming pools adequate in size to accommodate the extensive swimming program of the Olympic Games and provided with sufficient accommodations for thousands of spectators. Provisions should be made at an early date to provide an adequate swimming pool. Doubtless there is only one place where that pool should be located—opportunity is presented here of utilized and that is at Exposition Park. Arizing the great grandstand now standing in the park which may accommodate 7000 people.

The holding of these games on the Pacific Coast will act as a tremendous stimulus to the development of health and strength among the young people of the West. Boys and girls now ranging in age from 12 to 20 years will by the time the games are held mature in the Olympic contests. It here, be old enough to represent their should be the ambition of every boy and girl to strive to improve in physical strength and agility to merit the honor of representing the nation in the Olympic Games in 1932. The municipality should feel a sense of responsibility to provide at this time the necessary outdoor space and playground equipment to give Los Angeles youths the opportunities for training which they should have.

It cannot be said that the young people of our city are justly dealt with unless more playgrounds and other recreation places are provided at which they may spend their leisure time and improve themselves in many ways. Los Angeles prides itself upon its leadership in most matters, but it is a significant fact that, while standing fifth in population in the United States, we stand fourteenth in the number of playgrounds operated by the municipality. We should take time by the forelock and improve this condition while yet vacant property can be secured at prices within our economic capacity.

The ancient Olympic Games symbolized the importance which the Greek people attached to the development of physical form, health, skill and endurance. The attitude of any municipality toward these matters may well be gauged by the number of places which rae provided by the mun- playgrounds and other recreation icipality for its young people. In anticipation of the privilege, the responsibility and the opportunity of entertaining the thousands of international athletes, Los Angeles should at this time do its part so that it may be looked upon as a model in the matter of municipal provision for play and recreation. The Playground and Recreation Association of America is planning to hold in Los Angeles in the year 1932 an International Congress on Play and Recreation. Los Angeles will be held up to critical examination by the many visiting delegates from all over the world and should lay its plans now to develop a complete and thorough recreation system to which it may at tha ttime point with great pride.

Service Meeting Here

The first active move of Mr. Arthur District Superintendent of The Pullman Co. to get acquainted with the men of the Los Angeles district, was made last week in a series of service meetings held at the Southern Pacific yards. The different topics discussed were very helpful to many, although some were the cause for heated arguments between Porter Instructor L. A. Coffin and the porters who openly expressed their opinions on many subjects brought up. At Friday's meeting Porter A. L. Norwood, an old timer, on the Owl Limited became so hot over a remark made about the train which he has spent the better part of his railroad life on that for a time it was thought by many who were present they would be made unwilling witnesses to a fist fight but he finally cooled down. In a part of Mr. Arthur's address it was mentioned about the old time labor board pass-ing the buck, and apparently from the way the different arguments ended at the meeting the officials were ever ready to pass the said buck to Porter Instructor Coffin. The meeting was well attended by all the men in the district which disproves the oft heard rumor that you can not get the men to attend meetings in this district. When the men are properly notified as they were in this instance, you can always get them to attend. It is the plan of the management to hold similar meetings every three months. This will be a splendid step in our new superintendent's administration and should tend to promote a closer relationship between the Porters in all matters pertaining to service. The men in this district are ever ready to give one of the chief products of The Pullman Co. the highest consideration, and are constantly striving to improve its standard and efficiency. Service meetings of this nature are a much needed tonic as conditions very from time to time and have to be met accordingly. All large corporations hold such meetings and in this manner are able to maintain a high degree of efficiency. Let's have more service meetings, BUT confine them to SERVICE ONLY.

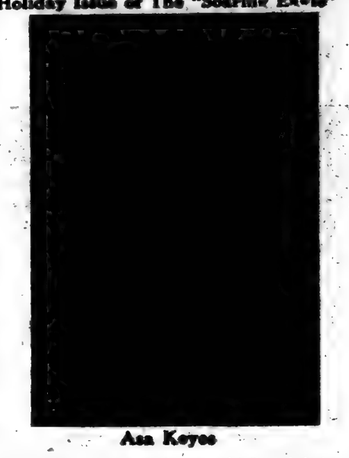
Joining in the holiday spirit for the year 1926, the following 18 judges of the Los Angeles Municipal Court through the columns of this publication to the part of their constituency which it serves, and to all who may chance to read, extend the greetings of the season and in compliment to the long service of forty odd years which this journal has served the community.



We appreciate the spirit of this act in all of its fullness and it serves as an incentive for us to redouble our efforts in our field of effort so we may deserve the confidence imposed.

These officers have been known for many years, and enjoy the confidence of all the people who know them. They are of sterling worth and aptly fitted to the positions which they occupy. Without exception we may say that they deal out even handed justice to the humblest and most exalted alike.

Qualified and well versed in the law, they have earned their spurs, and at a real sacrifice give their service as public officials as a duty of citizenship. It is a well known fact that the salary received by our judges is not equal to what they can earn as practitioners at the bar, and it is happily a program for future legislation to increase the salary of not only these, but of all other judicial officers.

Greetings From L. A. District Attorney's Office

With their Chief far away the Office of the Far Famed District Attorney Extends the Greetings of the Season in the Holiday Issue of The "Soaring Eagle"

Asa Keyes

Deterrents in the path of the would-be violator of the Law there may be, but the office of District Attorney of Los Angeles County is of no small importance when the so-called "Crime-wave" is considered.

Heading this office, this country's second largest, is one who has won the respect and admiration of those with whom he has come in contact—Asa Keyes!

Since a chain is no stronger than its weakest link, Mr. Keyes has surrounded himself with a corp of workers that have established a record of successful prosecutions of which this county may be justly proud. His chief Deputy, Harold H. Davis, and Assistant District Attorney, Charles W. Fricke, are men of high repute.

In this office is found a spirit of co-operation and harmony that is rare, to which may be traced theexcellent standards maintained therein. Complainants in this office meet upon an equal footing. Wealth, color, or social standing play no part in the treatment accorded the "man on the outside". This office is maintained for the prosecution of crime and "persecution" is a word that is unknown herein. The office of District Attorney is an office "of the people, b ythe people, and for the people", and, as such, it will continue to be conducted by the District Attorney of Los Angeles County—Asa Keyes!

My Wishes for the New Year

By:
Policewoman Georgia A. Robinson

When first requested by the CALIFORNIA EAGLE to address its circle of readers through the medium of its columns in the Christmas Number, I found it hard to choose from the many topics that I believe would prove of [illegible] this Holiday [illegible] to address [illegible] Young [illegible] certain sub- [illegible] not only now, but at all times.

Our boys and girls of today are the men and women of tomorrow. Their status and their mental and physical development are being widely and exhaustively written about by many authorities and others interested. The exercise of my official duties as a policewoman has brought me in contact with our young people, to a very unusual degree, so that I feel competent to speak to them now with knowledge and authority, and confident that my criticisms and suggestions will be accepted in the kindly spirit in which they are offered!

Of primary interest is the attitude of the boy or girl who has reached Intermediate School, toward their teachers. They show a disposition to resent the teacher's exercise of authority, and interpret it as a manifestation of personal ill-will or prejudice or she is a member of a certain group. I have personally investigated a great number of such cases, and found this attitude on the part of the juvenile to be entirely unjustified.

On the contrary, I frequently found the child being treated with too much leniency for its own good. Discussion of the matter with the teacher brought out the reason for this: They felt that the Colored child was suffering from what the psychologists call an "inferiority complex;" that is, he has an innate belief that all the world is against him, because of his Color, and is sometimes disposed to show this in bursts of resentment, unruliness or impudent speech to his teachers. The latter, understanding this, shows too much consideration for the child, to the juvenile's detriment. For in this way he does not get all that he should from his school life.

[illegible] of [illegible] y need [illegible] s a gen- [illegible] our young [illegible] intelli- [illegible] and sophisticated, well-poised and capable of taking care of herself. Our young girls are the equal of those of any group in the matter of high moral standards. I have dealt with girls of all races in the course of official duty, and find no cause for disquiet on this score, among the Colored girls.

Moreover, it has been officially remarked and highly commended, that the parents in the Colored family retain influence and authority over their girls for a much longer period than parents of other groups, of the same social status. That is, such girls of our group who come under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court are almost always much older than the girls of other races who come before the court for the same reasons.

This is the Yuletide Season, when our hearts are attuned to joyous things: therefore, I do not wish to be harsh or severe in my comments—but I do feel that constructive criticism is for the good of the entire group, at all seasons!

One of my most earnest wishes for the New Year, is that our Young People shall cultivate greater courtesy, not only toward their elders and those in authority, but to each other in social intercourse, and at the same time set a pleasing and inspiring example in this respect to their childish brothers and sisters.

Courtesy and Good Breeding cost nothing, but their practice makes for smoothness and harmony in our family and social life, and they are an invaluable asset in the business world.

I would particularly point out the desirability of quiet, dignified behavior in public places. Too often, our young people, assembling in groups in the street, store or elsewhere, indulge in loud talk and laughter, attracting the unfavorable attention, not only of critical members of other groups, but of the better class of our own people.

While on the subject of good breeding, I am reminded of a certain young millionaire and his sister, from Montecito, who visited a prominent Los Angeles family last summer. Among many social honors extended to the visitors, was a musicale given by their hosts. The exquisite manners of the young man were a subject of lively discussion among our girls. For instance, when any lady rose, or left the room, the young man stood up, out of deference and respect to her. Many of our young men were present, and I hoped that some of them might be inspired to emulate the visitor's example. However, to date I have seen nothing to indicate that such was the case.

It is not that our young men are not capable of the highest and best in culture and breeding. They feel that they are not expected to exhibit these ultra-refinements of courtesy; they "get by" without them; thy are accepted "as is." It rests with our womanhood to be more exacting; to demand, and they shall promptly receive.

In fact, one of the most unfavorable features of the attitude of our youth is the lack of chivalry on the part of our young men toward the girls of their acquaintance. For instance, an utter lack of formality in extending invitations, carelessness and indifference in the matter of keeping engagements punctually, all showing a demoralizing lack of respect for our young womanhood. And again, young men repeatedly accept invitations to the homes of young women, enjoy the hospitality of their hostesses and their parents, yet never reciprocate these courtesies, or even acknowledge them in any way dictated by good breeding.

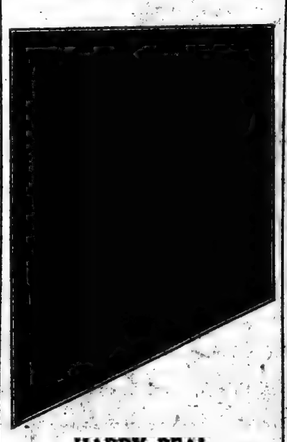
The remedy for all this remissness is in the hands of our girls, as I said before. They should insist upon the strict observance of the laws of good-breeding.

Now, lest the above be interpreted as the disgruntled fault-finding of one already "out of the race," it should be remembered that courtesy and polished mannera characterize the cultured person always and everywhere. These are not matters of changing fashion, nor attributes of the "old folks," to be heedlesaly disregarded by the younger generation.

It is another of my most earnest wishes that the substantial men of our group would cultivate more intimate association with our younger men, through the [illegible] Y. M. C. A. clubs, or [illegible] institutions, so that these [illegible] might benefit by [illegible] for guidance in the things that make for professional, business and social success.

Our women are not so remiss in this respect. They have many study clubs, such as the Phys-Art-Lit-Mo, the Friday Morning Club, and numerous others. Their doors are open to girls and young women, who appear very ready to avail themselves of the opportunities thus offerde.

On the other hand, it is my opinion that there is no place in our life for any club not dedicated in some way to the betterment of community conditions. I do not favor the purely social or pleasure club, even for young people, and whether they be "fraternities," "sororities," or what-not.



After attending the National Federation of Colored Women's Clubs in Oakland this past summer, and hearing of the splendid accomplishments all over the country for the betterment of our group, I pledged myself themand there to do more and bigger things, in my own field of endeavor, during the coming year.

And it is to be hoped that all who read these words will be my co-workers toward this end, and do their bit for the advancement of our group in 1927!

A RECORD FOR PROGRESS

How well the Golden State Guarantee Fund Insurance Company has played its part in developing higher respect for the institution of Life Insurance, increased the knowledge of its salesmen, provided employment for them, opening avenues for employment for others, served its many policyholders, increased confidence and respect for Negro business may be seen in the folowing:

1. We pay our claims as we say and exactly according to [illegible] and according to law.
2. We have given training to 50 persons in the world so that they are able to intelligently represent us.
3. That we are now looking for more agents to train. WE employ them, teach them and pay them.
4. Where some people said Negroes could not do a big business we have proven that we can.
5. We have issued about 7,000 policies and approved more than $[illegible]5,000.00 in loans on black people's property. This is proof w eare doing real service.

When you insure in our Company, you get 100% worth on your dollar. Any Company can insure your life but so far as I know our Company is the only Life Insurance Company in California that will insure you,employ you and lend you money on your property.

Another thought: We have made greater progress since we started than some of the oldest companies in the East. For comparison, when we close our books this year, the total amount of cash handled in our 17 months of operation will exceed $90,500.00. This is more in the short time than some of the bigger companies in the East did altogether in their first six years of existence.

We are proud of our record and everypolicyholder in this company has a right to feel proud of his company—our Company.

Come on, dear people of the Golden State, and let us make 1927 the biggest and best year of progress in our history. We can do it.

Yours for a bigger and grander Golden State.

WM. NICKERSON, Jr., President.

The Golden State Guarantee Fund Insurance Company Wishes You A Merry Christmas and A Prosperous New Year

Judge Georgia Bullock Advocates Redeeming Station For Women

Division VI of the Municipal Court is one o fthe twenty-four divisions of the Municipal Court created by an act of the Legislature of the State of California, in February, 1926.

All cases of Failure to Provide, and cases in which a woman is a Defendant, with the exception of Wrigh Act and traffic violations, are heard in Department 6 as well as all cases where men are arrested with and charged in the same complaint with a woman or women Defendants.

After sentence is pessed, in many cases reconstruction work in connection with these Defendants should begin. While the Law has provided various agencies for that purpose, which include Probation Officers and Social Welfare Agencies, individual work is done by high minded people inspired only by a desire t oserve their fellow men.

There are four measures advocated by social welfare experts, viz. preventive measures, remedial mekasures, educational measures and recreational measures.

After a girl has been arrested and convicted, an investigation before judgment, or after, reveals in many cases that she is largely the victim of her environment and poverty, disease and ignorance, although it is the duty of every member of society to provide same, reasonable and practical opportunities to such a girl whereby she may become a self respecting member of society.

The Probation Officers complain that hundreds of girls, diseased to such an extent that they are a constant menace to society, have but 67 beds in hospitals which are devoted to this class of person, who make prostitution their business. Some part of the overflow, of course, is cared for in the General Hospital and in various charitable institutions; but there is evidence that many victims of this condtion exist who cannot be and are not adequately cared for

Therefore we see a sorry, hopeless procession of human beings ground through the Mill of Justice today only to go out to meet the same conditions and come back omorrow . . . . just a treadmill existence, for some, at least.

It is useless to talk about reform unless the means are at hand. We hear today much about the theory, and see too little of the practice. While people of varying degrees of intellect and education argue their various theories, starvation and disese of minds and bodies in many cases win the battle.

The officers and workers of Division VI of the Municipal Court owe a debt of gratitude to those who take up the work of he Court when legal procedure les go. Among those co-operating with Division VI are the Midnight Mission, Salvation Army, pastors of the various churches of our city and the unflagging zeal of the Superintendent of County Charities and others. Their understanding and splendid assistance fight the good fight—Let us all join hands!

Judge GEORGIA P. BULLOCK,
Division VI, Municipal Court,
City of Los Angeles.

SAN PEDRO

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lucas entertained at their beautiful home Sunday the 12th inst, with a seven course dinner, the following Los Angeles party: to wit, Dr. Jno. S. Outlaw, M. James M. Vena and Lawyer Isidor D. Blair.

The party on reaching San Pedro went first to Mr. Eugene Lucas' office at 1st and Freed Street and motored therefrom to his cosy residences where for the first time said party was met by Mrs. Lucas who proved herself to be a splendid hostess, and hard to excel when it comes to making it pleasant for her husband's friends.

Incidently it may be added that Madam Lucas is from Jackson, State of Michigan, and whose parents and relatives are among the first citizens of that state.

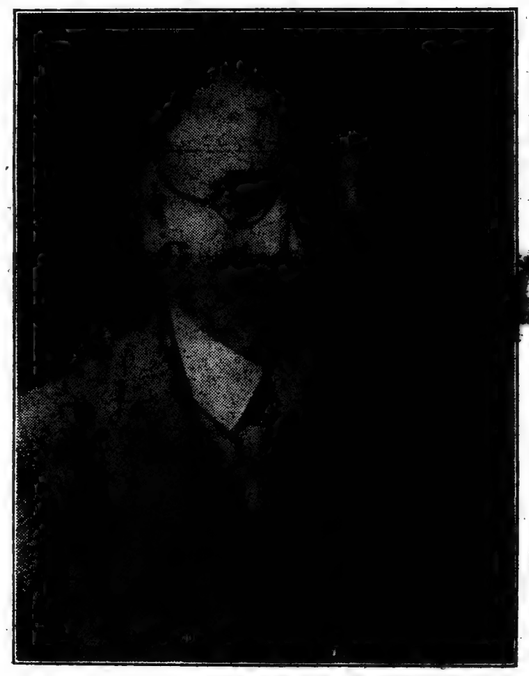
ISIDOR D. BLAIR.

City Attorney's Duties

Comparatively few people have an acurate idea of the duties of the City Attorney, and I am glad to present this brief outline of the office for the information of the readers of the California Eagle.

It is the almost universal idea that the City Attorney has to do with the prosecution of crime. This is enirely erroneous. The business of the City Attorney is entirely civil; he occupies the same position toward the municipal corporation known as The City of Los Angeles that the General Counsel holds toward a private corporation, advising its officers and board of directors, and handling all cases in court involving the corporation; preparing and approving of bonds required under the Charter; all contracts entered into by the City; all deeds and legal documents involving City property; all ordinances enacted by the City; all franchises granted to public utility corporations within the City of Los Angeles. His office also handles all Workmen's Composition cases for City employees and handles all matters before the Railroad Commission of the State of California involving public utility rates, grade crossings, etc.

The City Attorney is assisted by a staff of 25 attorneys, together with a large force of stenographers, clerks, process servers, etc.



The volume of litigation which the City Attorney's office is required to conduct is not only large and important, but also varied in character; and as the business of the office keeps pace with civic growth and development it shows a constant increase in both volume and variety. This litigation is conducted not only in the Municipal and Superior Courts, but also in the Appellate and Supreme Courts, and even the Supreme Court of the United States.

The City Attorney's office has been so organized and systematized that the legal work of the City is handled by attorneys especially trained in the particular kind of work referred to them. For instance, in the opening and widening of streets, alleys and rights of way, many condemnations of private property become necessary. This work is conducted by a corps of attorneys, who handle that class of work only and all street proceedings are examined and checked with the greatest possible care. An assistant to the City Attorney attends every session of the City Council and all important Council Committee meetings. The greater portion of the time of one deputy is devoted to the answering of questions and giving information to persons coming to the office, not only with reference to matters connected with the City government—in which capacity the office acts as a clearing house for the troubles of all departments—but to almost every imaginable perplexing situation requiring legal advice. A representative of the office attends all sessions of the Legislature and takes care of he preparation and presentation of legislation necessary for the protection and development of the City at large.

When it is considered that the expense of municipal government maintenance is in excess of $20,000,000.00 a year, and public improvements in the city aggregate many times that amount, it will be readily understood that a great number of very important matters arise involving large sums of money and requiring much expert legal work and attention.

The large bulk of office work, such as conferences with the publ'c and with City boards and officials; letters answered; approval of bonds, deeds, etc., cannot be given in tangible form; however, the following summary will give some small conception of the volume of this work during the past year:

More than 3000 ordinances were drafted and checked; 1195 street improvement projects were worked on; 1016 lighting proceedings handled, 333 Sanitary Sewer matters, 391 Contracts; 1774 Council Reports, 956 Workmen's Compensation Claims and 189 other claims; 121 Annexation Proceedings; 42 leases; 229 Street Vacations; 308 Zoning matters and 736 Formal Opinions; in addition to almost 725 litigation matters which have been handled through the various courts of the state and coun t.yr

...ANDS FOR THE PEOPLE

In ... with Assemblyman Roberts of the 74th District by R. G. LaMar, Secretary of the California Citizens Civic League, we found our representative standing by the people. "I am just as determined now, as when first elected, to carry out the will of the people, with regard to the Reapportionment Measure. The people declared in favor of the same and I consider that I would be derelict in my duty and obligation if I did not proceed to carry out the mandates laid down in the recent state election. I believe w eas representatives of the people owe them that consideration. No, I shall NOT be a party to any fillibustering scheme. Not only in the matter of Reapportionment, but in no matter pertaining to the interest of the people."

Out of the results of the last election the triumph of Senator-Elect J. W. McKinley from the 38th District brings to the forefront a man who gives every evidence of being a popular and happy choice for the people.

We can visualize a great future for him and that he will at all times serve them faithfully and well.

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY Y. M. C. A.

T. A. GREENE

Twenty years of effort, twenty years of toil, twenty years of hope and devotion and Secretary T. A. Green, of the local Y. M. C. A. realized his ambition when the doors of the modern Y building were thrown open on the 13th day of November.

The fruition of the genial Secretary's life's ambition was freely acknowledged by the wonderful support of the people which made the task possible, and it is to them that he gives the fullest possible credit.

To those on the outside looking on, they have admired the fight which at times seemed an unequal task for the Secretary to gain his objective, but he looked neither to the right, left nor behind, but looked ahead always and gained success.

Truly T. A. Green is worthy indeed of all the honors which he has achieved. Kind hearted and generous t oa fault, all factions, all denominations, all races and creeds accepted his leadership and now they feel highly complimented in having done so.

NEW DEPARTURE

GRAND NATIONAL I.B.P.O.E.W. ORATORICAL CONTEST

The Grand Lodge of Elks at its session held in Cleveland, Ohio, in August of this year upon the recommendation of the Grand Exalted Ruler, J. Finley Wilson, established the establishment of an annual National Oratorical Contest, to be participated in by young men and women now in attendance upon and in secondary schools.

The purpose of this step or undertaking is to encourage the Negro youth to undertake a careful study and investigation of literature and history, both ancient, medieval and modern, and thereafter such study and investigation by writing articles for publication and public declamation thereon, thus preparing themselves for a great service to their race, by way of public advocacy of the rights and privileges of all mankind, which of course, includes the great black race.

For putting the aforesaid proposition, the Grand Exalted Ruler, referred it to the Department of Education, which acting through its Commissioner of Education has selected as the topic for discussion for the contests for this Grand Lodge year, "The Constitution of the United States," with particular reference to the thir-Amendments thereto. The contest is to be held in April and May, 1927. The Commissioner in explaining the selection of this subject at this time says that his object is to direct the minds of every Negro student in a High School or schools giving similar instruction to a reading and study of the organic law of his or her country, and in this instance emphasizing those amendments familiarly known as the war Amendments, because they abolished slavery, established universal citizenship and prohibited the denial of sufferage because of race, creed or color.

The Commissioner feels that at this time, when the United States Senators are saying that no one expects these amendments to be enforced so far as Negros are concerned, that a general discussion urging the enforcement of these provisions in all aspects that relate to the denial of the Negros' manhood rights would be helpful and hence, he feels that if we could get all of the Negro students in the High Schools throughout the United States and the adjacent talks of the war to study and through the Constitution and amendments that it would aid in the enforcement of these Amendments.

To encourage in this endeavor the Grand Lodge of Elks, have inaugurated the National Oratorical Contest and proposes to hold the final contest in Washington, D. C., sometime in May, 1927. Sectional contests will be held in April, 1927, in various cities in different sections of the country, it depending upon the number of schools that desire to enter pupils. Of course, for this effort to be successful, the Elks shall have to have the assistance of the High School and schools giving similar instruction by their principals and teachers throughout the country. A representative of each of such school is urged to write W. C. Hueston, Commissioner of Education of the I. B. P. O. E. of W., 1740 Broadway, Gary, Indiana for information.

NEGRO SYMPOSIUM PLANNED

PROMINENT COLORED PEOPLE QUIZZED ON THE RACE'S FUTURE

Negroes in all parts of the country are receiving these days a questionaire on the future of their group and the sort of tactics that should be adopted. The Messenger, a Negro labor monthly, is conducting the symposium. Many interesting replies have already been received from various sections of the country expressing widely divergent views. A Negro on the editorial staff of a large daily newspaper says "Racil consciousness aims for maximum gain. It narrows the vision and shortens the perspective of those who practice it." Communists believe in double exploitation." This journalist holds that "Complete amalgamation of the whites and blacks absolutely necessary to a solution of the race problem." The district manager of a large Negro weekly is "Neither for nor against amalgamation. It depends on the conditions under hich it comes about." A prominent business man is in favor of complete separation of the races in every shape and form.

The first group of answers will appear in the December number of The Messenger, which is published in New York City.

Questions

1. Is the development of racial consciousness (a definite group psychology—stressing and laudation of things Negro) compatible with the ideal of Americanism (Nationalism) as expressed in the struggle of the Afroamericans for social and industrial equality with all other citizens?
2. Will this deal of equal rights and privileges be realized within the next century?
3. If and when this ideal is realized, will it or will it not result in the disappearance of the Negro population through amalgamation?
4. If the struggle for the attainment of full citizenship rights and privileges, including industrial equality, is to result in the disappearance o fthe Negro through amalgamation, do you consider the present efforts to inculcate and develope race consciousness to be futile and confuaing?
5. Do you consider complete amalgamation of the whites and blacks necessary t oa solution of our problem?
6. Do you desire to see the Afroamerican group maintain its identity and the trend toward amalgamation cease?
7. Can a minority group like the Afroamericans maintain separate identity and group consciousness, obtain industrial and social equality with the citizens of the majority group, and mingle freely with them?
8. Do you or do you not believe in segregation, and if so, in what form?

TITUS ALEXANDER

As it is his usual custom wishes us to extend to our readers the compliments of the season and in addition to express his appreciation for the hearty and splendid support given to him by the people at the recent election.

What A String Of Fights Has Thompson Had!

While Jack Thompson is taking his much needed rest looking better and feeling better every minute it furnished a great surprise to find on looking him up in the Record Book, that he has fought forty-three fights in almost the same number of weeks. The clever, brainy, and business-like Tom Sielski, who manages Thompson is also giving his stable mate "Sailor Larry" a rest until late in the season This is the enviable record that Thompson holds and what a lot of K. Mack House Will Be Pinch Hitter For Black Hopes

MACK HOUSE

Defeat has swept into the ranks of the colored boxers all over the country. Seems a sort of jinx is on, but the breaks will come again no doubt. Among our local boys Gans, Thompson and Langford have lost. Wills fights next week at the Olympic against the same Harry Brown who beat Gans, but if he should lose there are still some good boys left. One boy who swears he will hold the ring supremacy in the light-heavy ranks, is Mack House, the California Bear. Mack is the knockout king, and he fights shortly after the Wills-Brown bout so he swears that if Wills strikes out he will be the pinch hitter to bring home the bacon when he fights.

Now Young Harry Wills Do Your Stuff!

Matchmaker Joe Levy, who seldom makes a mistake, presents the following menu for his well pleased customers at Olympic Auditorium, on next Tuesday night.

Young Harry Wills vs Harry (Kid) Brown, 10 rounds.

Young Nationalista vs Newsboy Brown, 10 rounds at 117 lbs.

Billy Harns vs Ashley Smith, 6 rounds at 160 lbs.

Rodolpho Romirez vs Patsy McGraw, 4 rounds at 122 lbs.

The management of this great fight arena did not dream when they arranged the match of Young Wills and Harry (Kid) Brown, that it would turn out to be the big event it has proven to be. When the match was made nobody knew much about Harry (Kid) Brown, but last Tuesday, the 14th, by beating Gans he put himself on the firing line of the Pacific Coast Brigade. Wills ought to beat him though. Wills is remarkably cool and hits like a lot of trip hammers, and is a splendid ring general. But there is one thing sure, there will be an awful crowd out to see what's what. Young Nationalista, meeting Newsboy Brown in the other ten round spot will be another great bout.

SNYDER FIELD SCENE OF FRAY

Pigskin fans in this neck of the woods are eagerly awaiting the starting whistle of the Musketeer-Laddie Xmas battle set for nine o'clock Xmas morning.

Both teams are evenly matched and a lively battle is expected.

Alvis Parrish is the outstanding back on the Laddie team and Elliott Qualls is also a good ball carrier.

The Musketeers are out to avenge the 9 to 6 defeat they received last year and are depending on "Ike" Lewis, stellar Lincoln performer ,to do the heavy work.

Levy, Dade and A. Williams are sure to make things interesting for the 'steers. Leighton and Osborne, K. Thompson and C. Thompson are great backs and can be counted on to "tit for tat" the Laddies.

Joe Guerrero Making Name Of Emsco Famous

JOE GUERRERO
"The Emsco Boy"

Those patrons of the padded lists who were fortunate enough to be out to the Tiger Flowers-Eddie Huffman fight on July 24th were no doubt surprized and deeply interested in the fact that there was a solid bock of over a thousand rooters for Joe Guerrero who boxed and won that day against Jackie Sherman. They were all fellow-workers of his from the Emsco Mfg. Co. plant which had closed in order to attend their boys' fight in a body. And such a yell went up from them when his hand was raised. The "Emsco Boy", if he keeps on going up the ladder will make the name of "Emsco" famous.

"The Emsco Boy" is matched to box Ritchie Kink in the ten round main event at the Wilmington Bowl, Wednesday, December 22nd. This match is considered a super natural for the Harbor fans.

TOMMY MYLES

We have with us tonight a boy (beg pardon), young man, who is well adapted through his association with athletics to supply jottings of the boys' sports. His column will be called "Dust from the Campuses" and we welcome his snappy review of the club and scholastic sports, as well as our "gentle readers . . . a-d-v-e-r-s and what goes with you, meet Mr. Thomas William Myles, better known as Tommy Myles!

DUST FROM THE CAMPUSES

Newell Eason, who prowls around in the Bruins' Den is establishing quite a reputation as a fistic artist out that way. Barring accident, the "kid" will cinch a berth on the Bruins team. Bill Edwards, feather weight; Al Johnson, lightweight; and Ishmel Flory, middle weight, are all showing great promise.

Brice Taylor, star Trojan guard, who played his last game of collegiate football against Notre Dame recently, wa snamed on the First All-American Team my the Big Ten Sports Magazine in its latest edition. This magazine is recognized as the leading sports authority of the Middle West. This staff extends its congratulations to Mr. Taylor on this high honor.

Ralph Johnson Bunche, athletic and outstanding Scholar, was in the north last week to take examinations for the Rhodes Scholarship. He went as the representative of U. C., L. A.

The Kappas, as well as the many other friends of Mr. Leon Whittaker, will be glad to welcome him home for the holidays after his many achievements at the University of California (Berkeley). Mr. Whittaker, besides being a student is a boxer of no mean ability.

"The Spirit at Southwestern is the finest that I have ever seen", said Mr. Lloyd Griffith, prominent Omega and a leading law student regarding the institution he now attends.

This writer has received information that collier Carter of Jefferson High Track Team fame, now a student of the Oregon Agricultural College will arrive in the city next Monday to remain for the Xmas season.

The stock of the boys at the Vermont Street Institution is boosted again. Keneth Levy, '30, is fastest sprinter seen out that way. More power to Brown Bruins.

We are happy to extend the greetings of the season to our many friends at home and to Students and Athletes the country over.

We hope for you a joyous Yuletide and a prosperous and contented New Year.

Baby Gans' Loss To Brown Big Surprise Of Year

VERNON ARENA SCENE OF BIG UPSET

Surprises and upsets! Baby Joe Gans with a rematch in the offing with Mushy Callahan who has acquired the junior welter weight title recently since Gans beat him, and with a promise of a match with Champion Sammy Mandell, went into the ring Tuesday night, December 14th, with a world of confidence in himself and the confidence of over 12,000 fans who were betting at odds of 5 to 6 that he would beat Harry (Kid) Brown. Brown, who has been trying to get a main bout here for some time since his arrival from the East, was thrown into the gap to sub for Russ Whelan who beat young Jack Thompson a couple of weks ago. Nobody conceded him a chance with Baby Joe but he did the surprising thing of knocking Gans down after a few seconds of fighting in the first round. After the first session it was just an uphill climb for Gans trying to even up matters. Gans took the third, seventh and ninth, and had Brown in a bad way in the fifth. Asked about the fight the next day Gans admitted defeat but said that the lights had blinded him as they came together in the first giving Brown the chance to slip over the punch that downed him and lost him the fight. Charley Long, a good Omaha boy, who was brought here under the Sielski tutelage, had bad luck after beating Billy Vincent in the semi-wind-up, knocking him down for the count and getting the decision, then to lose it by Vincent claiming a foul. Long is a good boxer and a hard puncher and if he really fouled Vincent it was not intentional. Mateo Magdalena beat Joe Cirro; Kid Dougherty knocked out Joe Waterman in the other events and Pruit Steelman beat Ralston Dewesse in the curtain raiser.

WHITE KING BALL CLUB MAINTAINS HIGH STANDARD

By: CASEY

The White King Baseball Club of the present season is doing its share in maintaining the high standard set in the past years by baseball teams representing the Los Angeles Soap Company in Winter baseball.

Doc Crandall's present club is composed of stars from the Pacific Coast League, the Texas League, the American League, the National League and the International League. The individual clubs represented are Los Angeles, Missions, San Francisco, Sacramento and Seattle in the Coast League, Fort Worth and San Antonio in the Texas League, Chicago and Brooklyn in the National League, Jersey City in the International and the Washington Americans. And we can't forget the one and only "Beans" Reardon who represents Heydlers National League umpiring staff. Quite a cosmopolitan aggregation.

Profiting by the experience gained

last season when two of his p[illegible] sire, Charlie West and Clyde [illegible] deserted him just before the championship series was to be played for the Royal Glaster Cup. [illegible] stern up any pitcher representing [illegible] Major League club and anyone is fortunate enough to have championship series this season, that his mound staff composed of Moody, Keating, Hasty, Barfoot and Walter Mails will be intact.

This years infield shows several new faces mixed with the veterans of last year, namely Ray French and Ray Jacobs, two hard hitting "rays." Babe Twombley is the only veteran remaining over from last year's outfield.

Cid Durst and Pete Scott are now major leaguers and consequently unable to play winter baseball. Wally Rhoat handed the berth of managing the Santa Monica club of the Triple A League. But Babe has plenty of help in Art Jahn, Brick Eldred, Dick Cox and Nick Cullop, four of the hardest right handed hitters in baseball. Nick Cullop, who goes to the Washington Americans next season, is second only to Babe Ruth in hitting the ball far and wide and is expected to set some long distance hitting records in the Winter League parks.

Art Jahn was one of the best hitters in the Coast Loop last season and goes up again to the Chicago Cubs this year. You all know Dick Cox and 'tis a mystery how he was waived out of the National League. Just one of "those things."

Figuring from stem to stern the White King club looks a lot stronger than the club of last year but then again, so do all the other clubs in the league. The games, as they have been played so far this year, are faster than the games played in the Coast League and many opinions have been expressed that no better ball is played in the big leagues. An idea of the truth in that statement may be gained from scanning the batting averages of he players who are either just going up or have just come down from the big show. There are not many of them in the charmed three hundred circle.

That the baseball fans of Los Angeles and Southern California are showing their appreciation of this fact is shown by the large attendance at both Parks this Winter. And it is due only to this large attendance that the backers of the clubs are able to obtain the talent to play fast ball. It looks like the best year in the history of he winter baseball and may the best club win, as it probably will.

INTRODUCING
GLADYS MATHONICAN

L-a-d-e-e-z and gentlemen, we take great pleasure in presenting to you a well known and popular young lady, very proficient in various lines of athletics, and very apt with the pen in writing about the same.

Tall, graceful, clear-skinned, bright eyed, she represents a splendid example of what fresh air and athletics do for our girls. She will, each week, keep our Sport Page enlivened, with news of what our local girls are doing in athletics so that the folks "Way down East" and the world over will know that the Sunkist Maids of Los Angeles are occupying bright spots in the annals of athletics.

This little lady is a senior of Manual Arts High School, Past President of the very popular Dodecagenians, Past Vice President Junior N. A. A. C. P., President of the Girl Reserves, of Y. W. C. A. and several other activities. Folks meet Miss Gladys Mathonican.

BY
GLADYS MATHONICAN

HELLO EVERYBODY !

Now, I hope you are all acquainted with me as I have "loads of fun" and "lots" of news of "girls" sports in store for you if you will watch this column very carefully.

You know it really seems as though these Sunkist Maidens in California are letting the girls in the East outstrip them in the world of sports, but when that West-side girls football team, composed of such well known athletic Misses as Vannie Dade, Catrita Harbard, Gladyce Greenaway, Dorothy Patton, Lorraine Price, May Turner Alethea Williams and Elizabeth and Phita Westbrooks, gets organized and arouses the interest of a similar group of east side girls, there'll be "hot times" in Los Angeles. If these teams and the basket-ball teams that the Girl Reserves are organizing don't turn out girls that will give the boys, let alone those athletic damsels in the East a good race we'll all want to know the reason why.

Such lively ones as the Misses Anna Collier, Hazel Earls, Gladyce Greenaway, Francis Lewis, Maybelle and Mahana Jones, Agnes Johnson, Constance and Iona Phillips, Olivia Redmond, Alba Stevenson, Velma White, constitute the membership of the G. R. Basket Ball team. These girls really mean to put on some clever exhibitions of basket ball. They crave competition (wake up there you girls by other clubs).

It has recently been observed that some young tennis stars are frequenting the Jefferson High School team's courts on Sunday morning bright and early. Pillsette had better watch her step.

Well folks, that all for a starter, but those girls pace along with this column.

[Note.—This column will deal with the activities of our Sunkist Maids in general as sports, both indoor and outdoor. Is there any request or names that you suggest only? If so mail your communication in to Sports Editor, the California Eagle. The best suggestion gets it.]

PLAIN FACTS

By Dr. Ruth J. Temple
[Staff member White Memorial Hospital, Attending Staff Member Maternity Division City Health Department.]

NOTE—Address all communications concerning this Department to Dr. Ruth Temple, 3556 So. Western Avenue. Phones UUniversity 1255; VAndike 1221; EMpire 9981. I wish to apologize to my readers for missing the column for the past two weeks, but new babies and other professional duties, which could not wait, left me no time in which to prepare the talks for you.

I do sincerely appreciate the way in which the women are taking hold of the truths published herein from week to week and I plan to have an article for you each time from now on, without fail, even tho the new babies do crowd in upon me.

My part as a physician would not be done faithfully unless I devoted at least some time to the education of my readers to a better understanding of hospitals and their place in the lives of mankind. First I should like to say that I have not one penny invested in any hospital in any place in the world. Therefore all that I shall say is with an effort to impart to my readers the truth concerning hospitals as I have found it during my eight years as a practicing physician and my one and a half years as a student—almost ten years of experience in all, in the larger and smaller hospitals of the City of Los Angeles.

During that time I have definitely learned a few facts which it is well for my readers to consider.

1. First I learned that the more intelligent and better educated a person was, the easier it was to persuade them to go to the hospital. The better class of people always apreciate hospitals and hospital service more than a less enlightened class.

Wealthy women practically always have their babies in the hospital. They have intelligence enough to believe in Safety First. They know that the hospital is a safer place in which to be sick than the home. Therefore they always choose the hospital.

2. Next I learned that there is very little or no money in the operation of a hospital unless only very wealthy patients are cared for. All hospitals for the poor or for the middle class of patients, either are run at a loss, or else just barely break even. Every month the White Memorial Hospital, tho they charge as high as $42.00 a week for a few rooms, the hospital is run always at a loss. The same is true of all hospitals operated for the middle class of people. Nurses, food and maintenance cost so much that nothing is left for profit.

3. Third I learned that colored people are deathly afraid of a colored hospital. It does not matter how good that hospital is. If they once hear of any one's dying in the place, they take up a "new wail o cry" against it and knock and knock and knock it until they almost knock it down!! It is hard, very hard for any colored institution to grow because its own people are terribly prejudiced against it.

As I hear the usual knocks against the Dunbar Hospital I often stop and ask questions, and I have found, in fact, most of the people who "knock" have never been inside of the hospital. They are not basing their opinions upon personal knowledge but upon the unfounded rats of the Dunbar Hospital nor of any other hospital in the world. People die, hundred of them at every hospital in Los Angeles. The Dunbar Hospital has as clean a record and as few deaths as any any fewer deaths than some other hospitals and yet our poor people who don't have even the remotest idea as to the actual facts knock and knock and knock; simply because the hospital is black and because we are of the same race as it is. If you do live near the Dunbar Hospital and chance to see a dead body removed, just remember that one or even more dead, may be at that every hour are being removed removed from some other hospital; which you didn't notice perhaps because it is white and therefore you don't know anything about how many patients die there each month.

We talk about white prejudice, but dear friends, a terrible lot of prejudice against black enterprises lives and dwells in black hearts, and we must overcome it and give our own a fair chance.

Learn more about other hospitals, how much they charge, how many persons die in them each month, what kind of service you get from the nurses and doctors in them and you will think far more of our own colored hospital.

Do you know that they charge less at the Dunbar Hospital than at any other hospital in town unless that hospital is a semi charity or entirely charity hospital?

Let us love our own better, patronize our own more, whether it be hospital, grocery store, news paper or boot black stand. Let us help boost our own.

H. C. HUDSON, M.D., D.D.S.

Dr. H. Claudy Hudson, who has resided in our midst since graduated his profession for the period three years, has not only carried on practice regularly as a dentist, but he's endeared the people for the wonderful devotion to humanity.

He went into the world-wide struggle for service as a member of the convention of the local N. A. A. C. P. and was elected as president.

How well the estimate placed on his value was justified, is the wonderful home he brought both to civic pride and concert eventis.

The doctor is loyal, genial, full of thralls and indeed a leader of merit and worth.

UPTON'S RAILROAD CLATTER

By Chas. L. Upton

DECEMBER LOS ANGELES MAIDS ANNIVERSARY

Time flys like specks of dust in the wind, and before we know it another year slips around. This month the maids of the Los Angeles district have the honor of being two years old. Much has happened since the first Los Angeles Limited train to Chicago rolled out of the S. P. depot with a Los Angeles Maid in charge. I have no doubt that it will bring a laugh to many of the two year olders when they look back upon their first trip across the continent. Remarks as follows were common to the much bored porters who had been left rulers supreme for so many years without the feminine sex to bother them: What time do we get to San Bernardino, because they never did call that station right, and Porter! must I lock up at this station and that station, and how long do we stop there, and will you show it to me on my time table, and do I sleep in the drawing room, and I just took a bundle of towels out of the last car, they were all out in yours and Oh! I just had a manicure! and will you kindly make room in your locker for my clothes and they brought enough along with them to make a trip to Europe; I lost my keys! How do you make ou this old time table? This uniform is too big for me and I am going to change it, and when do we EAT, I'm starved! Poor things! Many a green girl slept by their coffee and rolls in the morning, and the hard boiled porters were mostly in fault because they would not wake them up. But, it's different now since the porters have at last arrived at the conclusion that the maids are here to stay, and we see a closer relationship existing between the two exponents of Pullman service, co-operating together as one is gradually bringing a higher standard of service to the Pullman patrons. But stop! Let's see who the first maids were out of Los Angeles, and how many of them are still with us There were, naming them as they rank in seniority: Tennie Upton, Mabel Ruffin, Clara B. Wells, Alice E. Haney, Aileen Matthews, Eudora B. Jasper, Hazel M. Robinson, Lillian Gilmore, Ella Greer, Hazel Lewis, Magnolia C. Pickens, Sadie M. Reed Blanche Mattison, Marie Scott, Mamie Bradshaw and Blanche Hall. Out of this number of maids there are still fourteen left who started two years ago this month. Those who have left the service are Clara B. Wells and Sadie Reed, both of whom obtained a sweet papa and gave up the road for family duties. In this length of time the maids have been made a present of another Limited train which they operate as far as Ogden Utah. And summing it up all in all Los Angeles is very proud of her maids and consider them the best trained maids in the Pullman service. I wouldn't be surprised some of these Golden State and Santa Fe maids might bawl me out about this, but it will not be the first time I have been bawled out by a maid, because I happen to have one in my own immediate family who manages to keep me well tuned up as far as bawling outs are concerned, so girls, send in your protests and I will take them with a smile. My shoulders are broad and my head is hard, and I am a glutton for punishment. Los Angeles maids are the best in the country. During this, the Maids' Anniversary, we all extend our sympathy to Maid Ella Greer, who is off for ninety days on account of her health, and wish her a very happy Christmas and a happy New Year. The Clatterer wishes also to extend the holiday greetings to the new maids who have joined the ranks in the past year and takes this means in extending to them the privilege of using this column for their social notes and railroad news. I thank you!

PILLOW SLIPS

Extra cars seem to be getting all the good loads to San Diego and the regular men are singing the blues.

Look who's here! The honorable Mr. J. S. Hankins comes to life with a bouncing baby. Can you beat it? Now we wont' be able to get along with him. It has even been rumored already that he has been growing up and down Central about being a papa. Mother and baby are doing nicely from the last reports. So we will now put kid Hankins in a class with E. L. Arnaud and J. Worthen. Pass the cigars and we will all have a smoke.

F. Fauver will find apartment hunting a much easier job without the use of a candle.

Wanted to Know—What the U. P. waiters are substituting for money these days.

Frank James (Tiger Flowers) has been entered upon the roster of diner No. 2. We are glad to see you with such a congenial crew. A good chance to talk prize fighting.

Haywood Perry, was was very recently styled the I. O. U. is with the S. P. now.

If you do not want to see it in The Clatterer, don't let Joe see it. It's every tub from now on, so watch your step. The U. P. reporter is on your trail.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Back to life again, and here it is: Big Traveling Chef Tom Harrison has been very busy between instructing the Hon. P. D. Buck and putting tab service on the Owl at $1.50 per. Mr. Buck and Big Tom made a big hit with the passengers.

Blondie Henderson, the famous head waiter on the "Owl" has been transferred to The Golden State, the excess train.

Mr. Sidney Addelson has taken Blondie's place on the "Owl."

The "Owl's" tab service is very well taken. All passengers get their money's worth.

The Golden State has a head waiter on every car whose duty is to serve all out of car service. They are red hot in their new Palm Beach suits.

The S. P. have now adopted the system of putting crews on light trains that are best suited to light work.

The inspectors are singing the blues since the new change in schedules, because they can not go out and get back the same day unless they go on the Coast Line or over to Colton.

Head Waiter Max Hall spent Saturday in Los Angeles looking over the football game.

Waiter Fred Thornton has his hands full trying to keep the boys in line. He just recently had the misfortune of losing his old standby, Hard Boiled Smith, who was killed in a train accident.

All crews had a turkey for Thanksgiving, and Tom Harrison can rest in peace.

Is that natural gas that Mr. T. A. Sims has or just a habit?

Our next candidate for the Senate will be Mr. A. L. Norwood of the Owl.

The porters who get up in a service meeting and hold the floor should have a taxi cab meter hung on to them.

C. W. Murdock brought out some good points in last Friday's meeting.

But there is no hope for Greenfield. He's in the right church but the wrong pew.

T. D. Sparks did not last as long on the "Owl" as we thought he would. We take it all back.

Porter S. B. Evans was seen in his usual place, the S. P. Depot, with a new gray suit on. What's going to happen?

A. Noel has been putting in some time at the Santa Fe for a change.

Maid Blanche Hall had a very narrow escape from serious injury at Bullock's Department Store when she got her hand jammed in an elevator door. Her little girl who was with her at the time, fell through the elevator shaft. Both are doing nicely.

Maid Tennie Upton, who was injured in a Yellow Taxi cab, is now up and around, and says if you have to be hurt let the Yellow do it. A most satisfactory settlement was made.

J. H. Holden was signed out on an extra car to San Diego last week which was supposed to go dead head. However, the train pulled out at midnight and left Mr. Holden in the dead head. He woke up next morning in his seven gallon gat at the Santa Fe depot. He could have just as well been home in bed.

UNION PACIFIC LINES

Pooling from tips to dormitory service is the very latest system injected into the lives of some U. P. waiters.

What has become of Chas. McKinney? He's got the boys all guessing.

There is a rumor that diner No. 304 will be operated via Pasadena. Just when this service will be inaugurated we are unable to say but refer you to the Sheik of that car.

The Baker Heater committee continues to function, but how was the crew cut without an advance notice from this honorable body?

High Rating Of Liberty Building-Loan Asso.

Placed In "A" Class In Matter of Legal Safeguards and Regulations Protecting Investors; Nation Wide Survey Made

By C. C. Wakefield
(From L. A. Evening Express)

California building and loan associations, in the matter of legal safeguards and rigid operating rules designed to protect their investors, rank among the leading associations in the United States. In a rating table of the building and loan associations in this nation, compiled by William Stephen Marlowe, and published in the October 9 issue of the Magazine of Wall Street, California is given an "A" rank, the highest that can be obtained.

The building and loan associations are subject to the laws and regulations of 48 commonwealths. These laws and regulations are rated in Marlowe's analysis for the first time. He summarizes not only the legal safeguards, but also sets forth the essential facts about the actual operation of these associations in each state.

California gained the highest rating, an "A," due to the following safeguards and restrictions imposed upon associations in this state: First mortgage on real estate or deed of trust with note. Annual examination and reports required. Supervision includes compulsory uniform accounting. By-laws require state sanction. Directors are shareholders and are liable; elect officers. All plans legal. Preferred shares permitted. Maximum fees $1.00 per share. Loans to non-members. Officers and directors cannot borrow. Contingent reserve or guarantee fund required. No real estate deals; interest rate limited to 12 per cent. No specific limits on borrowing.

Liberty Only Negro Association Receiving Such High Rating

The Los Angeles negro can look with pride at the fact that an institution fostered and developed by him, with local talent and finance, is the only race institution in the entire country to come under the above high rating. The timely organization of the Liberty together with the consistent support of our groups, has placed the Liberty in an enviable position among race business organizations.

Undoubtedly the Building and Loan Association as a financial institution is coming into its own. In a recent address Secretary of Commerce Hoover said: "I know of no institution or organization more worthy of support and confidence than a Building and Loan Association." Thus it may be seen that statesmen, financiers and working men, all turn to the Building and Loan Association as the logical institution for the development of community thrift and prosperity.

All our lives we, as a rase, have believed that what was good for the other fellow, was good for us also, and this spirit has been the watchword of our progress. We know the worth of the Building and Loan Association, so we built one for ourselves. Three successful years and a phenomenal growth in membership and finances have justified our judgment and industry.

From an unknown few, the Liberty has advanced to a lusty, industrious two thousand members; from an ineffectual $10,000.00, it has advanced in assets to beyond the $152,000.00 mark; from an organization with only hope and a great ambition to serve, it has progressed to such an extent that it has been able to advance over $136,000.00 to members of our race to secure homes for themselves on a reasonable and well drawn plan of monthly payments with a minimum risk of losing those homes. Thus we have helped during the past years to stabilize negro property values in negro neighborhoods; we have forced better conditions for borrowing money in all parts of the city for our people; we have brought together in a financial institution of first class rating and indisputable worth, a part of the financial resources of our people for their own use and benefit.

The work of the Liberty Building and Loan Association and the many benefits which it will ultimately give to this community, has only just begun. Each day sees a gradual increase in the resources at our command; every loan and every account makes a hundred new friends and a thousand more well-wishers because of the service which we give and the urgent need which we fill. Home ownership is one of the basic charms of Los Angeles, her greatest claim to prosperity and achievement and this association has set for its purpose the determination to keep the negro population of this city on a par with the white in the percentage of homes owned.

OUR PEOPLE WON'T EAT AT ANY OLD PLACE

When it comes to meals as in our home life, any old thing at any old place won't do for our people any more. Neither do they patronize colored eating houses for so-called race pride when some other race will offer them food at more reasonable rates with better service and cleaner surroundings. So they look for the best. If you happen to be near 38th and Central to transfer or on other business or even if it is out of your way, just take a look in the newly opened Sterling Cafe at 38th and South Central. Mrs. Carrel, the proprietress, has the cleanest, coziest place seen in many moons and turns out real honest to goodness home cooking with good pies and French pastry. Try her cooking once and you will come a long ways afterward.

THE SERVICE OF INSURANCE

Insurance is a device for repairing a serious injury, or a means of indemnification of a financia loss. A device for repairing the loss of a ship, we call it marine insurance; if it is to repair a loss resulting from destruction of a building or automobile by fire, we call it fire insurance; if it is a loss resulting to a wage earner from loss of time through sickness or by accident, we call it health and accident insurance; if it is a loss resulting from the death of the bread winner, or wage earner, we call it Life Insurance.

The whole idea of insurance is to REPAIR LOSSES. One may ask how are losses determined? By the value of the thing insured, of course. If one has a house it has a definite value. A ship would have a definite fixed value. The amount of insurance obtainable is determined by this value. So with a wage earner. The amount of Health and Accident insurance obable is measured by the value of that wage earner's time. Turning from this, one may ask has a life a value, and if so, how is this value determined? We answer, yes. During the World War the government set an arbitrary amount of $10,000.00 on each soldier, which probably indicated the "value" of a soldier. In civil life there may be different methods of arriving at the probable value of lives of different people, depending upon their education; that is, some authorities have estimated the value of a man's life finishing from a college or university, at from $40,000.00 to $75,000.00. Another way of determination of a human value would be to take into consideration his life expectancy. To illustrate: Suppose a man at the age of 35 earns $1,000.00 a year. From the American Experience Table of Mortality, the average expectancy of a life at this age is 31 years; that is, he would have a chance to live that long and probably would, provided that he did not meet an untimely death through accident or disease. If he was a laborer and depended entirely upon his job for a support and earned $1,000.00 a year and he did live 31 years, he would have a value of $31,000.00. His value being determined, he should immediately set about to determine what amount of loss would be suffered by his demise and proceed to insure in such adequate sum.

The great trouble with most people, however, is that they either place TOO LOW an estimate on their own lives, or they do not make any estimate at all. Without thinking, many a man who is making $1,000.00 a year insures his life for $2,000.00 and boasts of being heavily insured. As a matter of fact he should carry $20,000.00, and which same when paid, and placed on interest at 6 per cent by his widow would earn $1,200.00 or 80 per cent of amount he earned during his lifetime. This would be what we call adequate insurance. But suppose for any reason a salaried man of $1,500.00 a year finds it impossible to pay for $20,000.00 worth of insurance, what is the next best thing to do?

To illustrate, we will take an example a $1,500.00 a year salaried man who has a wife and two children and who has a mortgage of $4,000.00 on his home, and $1,000.00 on a new automobile. This means that in event of immediate death of the bread winner, the sum of the two items, or $5,000.00 will in time fall due, and if not paid, the down payments made on home and automobile will be lost. Now, in order to protect these first payments and to secure the home and automobile delivered clear to the wife and children, he will have to carry enough insurance to cover the entire amount of $5,000.00. In addition to this, however, it will take $1,000.00 for the doctor and undertaker. This would bring total amount to $6,000.00, but a man would not want to leave his widow and his children with no funds to take care of immediate necessities, so he adds at least $2,000.00 to his insurance policy for his widow's living expenses for at least two years, and another $2,000.00 to apply on the education of his children, making a total sum of $10,000.00 worth of insurance, the LEAST amount he should think of carrying.

He should not carry it all in the same company. He should carry a part in one company, a part in another and still another part in another.

In addition to life insurance, all bread winners should carry accident and health insurance to insure his salary as more people are kept from work by accidental injury than are idle through lack of employment and for the further reason that "The chance that a person will meet with some disabling injury within a year is about ten times greater than the chance of death from any and all causes during the same period."

THE BACHELOR GIRLS CLUB
By M. H.

The Bachelor Girls and their friends were recently entertained on their social evening by Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso George (Miss Lennie Mae Gipson) at their home on Ellendale Avenue. Mrs. George was formerly a Bachelor Girl.

There were representatives from most of the prominent clubs of the city. Mrs. George proved to be a very charming hostess. The evening was spent in dancing and an enjoyable time was had by all present.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Inez Gray.

AT THE BIG GOSPEL TENT

Sunday night, December 19th, at the BIG TENT, 20th and Central Ave., Evangelist P. G. Rodgers will present by urgent request the subject of BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST. No other sermon has aroused such an interest in the study of the origin of Christmas as this and Pastor Rodgers promises again to clench every point with the Bible and the facts of history for those who are anxious to know the truth. Mr. Rodgers also wishes to announce that the new Wadsworth Church building which has been the subject of much interest for over two years is now to be a reality, as every wheel has been set in motion to start erecting the new church. The location of the new church home will be 37th and Wadsworth streets and as soon as the building is ready the tent will come down. At the present the services held each night during the week at the tent—at 7:45 P. M. are helpful in every way and the Big Tent is comfortable for everybody—young and old—ALL ARE WELCOME!

The Whit-Delphi Married Ladies Art Club held its First Annual Bazaar at the residence of Mrs. Ida Stevens, 1271 E. Washington street, December 9, 1926. Space will not permit me to tell of the wonders and beauties of the great display of hand-made flowers and needle work made by the members of the club, and to say that everyone was surprised beyond the most sanguine expectation is putting it mildly.

The public responded generously. Mrs. Ida Stevens, Mr. C. J. Smith and Miss Beulah Smith were made happy as the winners of a pillow, 1 pair of pillow cases, a beaded hand bag, respectively. Miss Dalphena Jackson, treated the club with two of her favorite instrumental solo selections, which were sufficient to electrify the musical soul of Paderewski, and Mr. Henry Mosely accompanied by Mrs. Capitola Cooper, rendered a couple of vocal selections, entitled, "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Dear Little Mother O' Mine" which were sufficient to make Black Patti set up and take notice.

The lunch served by the club was amply sufficient to suit the appetite of the fastidious. It was declared by all who partook of it that the luncheon had few equals and no superiors.

The club though only a few months old, has its full quota of members with quite a number of excitable ladies on the waiting list, and is progressing wonderfully. The next place of meeting will be at the residence of the president, Mrs. Edith Whitley, 1271 E. Washington street, December 23rd, at 7:30 P. M.

Doings Of Long Beach

By:
ELINOR RAMSEY WASHINGTON

Dan Cupid is quite busy in Long Beach. He has shot his famous arrow and will unite Miss Evelyn Brice of Annapolis, Md., and Mr. S. J. Morse of Philadelphia, both at the present time residing in Long Beach. The weding will take place on the fifteenth of January. They will leave for Cuba, stopping in the East and then return to Long Beach where they expect to make their home.

Mrs. Joseph Dortch, Mrs. E. L. Estelle and Mrs. Richard DuBois are on the sick list but are on the road to ammend. We wish the mauccess.

Don't forget the Christmas dinner dance to be given at the "Tip Top Inn." The best of fun, food and music will be had for only seventy-five cents. Be sure to come and bring the family. If you don't, you will always regret it. Will see you Christmas Eve.

The "Cosmopolitan Club' of Long Beach, held their meeting at the home of Mr. Irvin Higgins. Many topics of importance were discussed; after, the meeting changed to the initiation of members. A delicious repast was served.

December promises to be very gay socially. Among the holiday events are: the dance given as the annual affair held during the holidays by the "Si-Yi" Club. A Christmas tree party by the Golden West and dinner dance given by Mrs. Howard at her cafe, combined with many private dinners and parties.

Again we had the honor of Miss Iris Bogle, Jules Narcisse and Chas. Smitherman of Los Angeles as the guests of Mrs. N. Washington. They seem to be really pleased with Long Beach.

Mrs. Edeth Gilmore has returned after a pleasant trip of one month in the East with relatives. We are indeed glad to have Mrs. Gilmore back, things wil surely pick up on California avenue now. "Watch her step."

We, the people of Long Beach, take this time to express our sympathy to Mrs. Thomas Williamson on behalf of her husband, Mr. T. Williamson, who passed from the earth to land of eternal happiness. He was one of the first colored men to come to Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gray of Orange avenue entertained at a prettily appointed five-course dinner on Sunday evening. Chrysanthemums and roses in a beautiful hand-painted bowl centered the table. The dinner was complimenting Mr. and Mrs. McCrea, visitors and Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Washington. A very sociable evening was spent.

The Girls Reserves are having an entertainment at the M. E. Church, on next Friday evening, sponsored by Miss Francis Andrews. All are invited.

The Humming Bird Cafe witnessed four of Long Beach's social leaders at a dance held there last Monday. Those present from here were: Mrs. Helen Nickerson, Juanita Marten, Messrs. Short and Patterson.

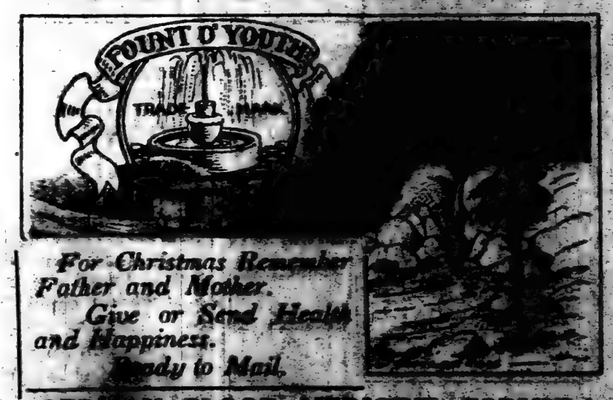
Urban League Secretary Bringing Things To Pass

Addressing the members of the Phys-Art-Lit-Mo Club of prominent race women here today, Mrs. Katherine J. Barr, Executive Secretary of the L. A. Urban League, announced that the management of the Safeway Stores, a corporation controlling a chain of 1000 grocery stores in western communities, had been induced to place a given number of negro clerks in stores where they will have an opportunity to prove their ability as salespeo. The club women were appealed to by the speaker to learn the location of the stores where race women are employed and give them some business and encouragement.



It was further disclosed in an interview with Mr. Edward Cole, Vice-President of the Safeway Stores Corporation and the Superintendent of the personnel department that the negroes employed as clerks will be given every opportunity to advance to store manager, district superintendent and any higher position for which they prove capable of filling. Hitherto, a few negroes have only been employed by this firm as porters.

A few months ago, through the efforts of the local Urban League, the Yellow Taxi Cab Company engaged a number of negro men to serve as supervisors of taxi stands. This is a step higher in the emplor of the taxi business than that of a cab driver and the work was given to race men in appreciation of the great volume of business the cab company gets from negroes.

For the past week Mr. T. Arnold Hill, Industrial Secretary of the National Urban League of New York City, has been holding conferences with members of the Community Welfare Federation and a number of heads of establishments where large numbers of men and women are constantly employed and where but few, if any, members of our group are given employment. Mr. Hill's work here in a measure, is a sort of follow-up of the work of Mr. Charles S. Johnson, nationally known survey expert, Director of the Department of Research and Records of the National Urban League, who spent the month of September here studying the industrial condition of the race under the auspices of the Community Welfare Federation and the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Johnson was assisted in his work by the Los Angeles Urban League, the N. A. A. C. P., several of the churches and other civic organizations; a large number of the special service workers, school teachers and college student of both races. His final report is daily expected and will be studied and used as a basis upon which will be built a firmer industrial future for negroes in Los Angeles and surrounding towns. It is expected that Mr. Hill will return to the Pacific Coast in the spring to direct the industrial campaigns in various cities visited by him.

The Lone Wolf Social Club, on December 10th at Patriotic Hall, entertained a host of approximately two hundred and fifty; music by the Sensational Mr. Henry Prince and Syncopators. Everyone had a pleasant time.

EDITORIAL

OUR CHRISTMAS NUMBER

We come to you again with our Annual Holiday Edition for your approval. As we strive each year to improve upon the preceeding one, this year is no exception to the rule.

We appreciate to the utmost the recognition given to this publication from all classes of our citizenship and from our County and City Government. We take the same as wholly impersonal but that it has been given in reward for years of constant effort and devotion for a cause.

We point with pride to the fact that every line you read in this paper, every advertisement which meets you vision, all artistic arrangements of matter (if there be any), is the product of our own plant and the genius of our devoted force of skilled mechanics and the front office of this institution for this we have faith that our white friends are much pleased and our own group gratified indeed.

With these thoughts out standing in our minds we come to you with our entire staff, wishing for you a Merry Christmas indeed.

TOO BUSY FOR SMALL STUFF

We have no time to hold malice against anybody, much less the Rev. Wm. A. Venerable who complains to the contrary. We are entirely too busy trying to assist in doing the big things, which will be helpful to all.

THE BRAZEN SENATOR HEFLIN

Poor old Senator Heflin from Alabama, holding a seat in the United States Senate by fraud and intimidation, gained by the shedding of the blood of American citizens, and raping of their constitutional rights, dares to stand in his place on the floor of the Senate and excoriate twelve men, good and true, who rendered their verdict in the Doheny and Fall case.

It is a blot upon the escutcheon of the Senate itself for the ravings of this blatant demagogue.

E. L. Doheny is as far above this species of animal as the Heavens are from the earth. He would sacrifice, willingly, his life before he would stoop to the cowardly act of brow beating any man simply because he could.

We hold no brief for Mr. Doheny, in fact we have never met him, but we know that he is all man and will go his full length for a friend; and we have not the slightest doubt that his act to Mr. Fall was but in line with his reputed generosity to help a friend.

As we write these lines we have in mind his generous act in assisting a group of our people who had been struggling under a great burden to save a ranch property in Mexico. They appealed to Mr. Doheny and in his spirit of goodness he advanced them the necessary $23,000, and their holdings were saved. Mr. Doheny simply took their note. Surely these black boys could not help him to procure government or any other kind of leases. It was the act of a real man.

HERE IS SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT!

Twenty-five of the 58 counties in California increased their tax rate in 1926. 17 stayed the same as in 1925, and 16 lowered their rate. The county indebtedness for the 58 counties is $135,013,859, an increase of $6,975,431 over 1925. The number of acres of land assessed this year totals 51,571,162, a gain of 476,011 acres. These figures closely approximate conditions in many other states.

In a growing state, it is natural that county expenses increase. But, if the state is growing, it is just as natural that tax income from newly assessed property and from increased assessments on old property which has grown in value, should be larger.

As business grows, its cost of production, management and administration generally decreases, barring some unusual condition. The reverse seems to be the case as government increases, barring the same unusual conditions that affect business.

If the people constantly demand more at the hands of government than it can supply with a normal increase in tax revenues, they must expect constantly increasing tax bills. But under normal conditions, it would seem as if business administration of governmental affairs could so arrange its budgets that the normal increase in tax receipts yould take care of the normal growth of governmental activities.

Of course, if government goes into various lines of business which are entirely foreign to the functions of government, it is but natural that the people should experience abnormal increases in tax rates.

ENCOURAGE HONESTY BY REMOVING TEMPTATIONS

The National Credit Association plans a $1,750,000 fund to prosecute commercial crooks—fraudulent bankruptcies, inside robberies, arson for insurance, and similar business crimes. Estimates vary all the way from $500,000,000 to two billion dollars lost every year through such frauds.

And yet the nation is essentially honest. Statistics show that of the millions of auto sales on deferred payments, only 1/63 of one per cent fail after having paid one-third down on a 18-month contract. The percentage of loss increases rapidly with the extension of time and the smallness of the down payment.

Credit is the foundation of American business; the country would starve to death overnight, on a strict cash basis, even though America has more money per capita than any other nation on earth. The maintenance of credit, which is bankable honesty, is imperative, but the man who invites sales that tempt repudiation, is as potent a criminal as the thief himself. Starting in to punish offenders and t oeducate tyros or excitable sellers who d onot yet realize their co-responsibility, the Credit Association can perform a splendid national service.

"Lead us not into temptation", is no meaningless phrase; it is profound philosophy for religion and business.

LET IN THE SUNSHINE

Gas for fuel is of especial value in cities in that it makes for a smokeless and therefore a sunshiny, healthful city. The cost of city illness, of grime, of blackened trade because of smoke-induced fog and gloom, is a terrible indictment of American sense. Gas fuel eliminates most of this waste, and lets in the health-giving, heat-making sunshine.

That is one reason for the extraordinary spread of gas as fuel. "Cook with gas" is no mere fanciful sales slogan; it is a life-saver like "Safety First".

COMMENTS

By W. J. Wheaton

A widely read editorial writer, one whose column is read by millions, commenting on the intention of Japan sending missionaries to the Occident to teach the beauties of Buddhist religion, writes this. "The noble young Prince Gautama wouldn't know his Buddhist religion today, so many changes.

The same of the founder of Christianity. He talked of giving to the poor, protecting women and children, but never mentioned building fifteen million dollar cathedrals. We worry little about women — haven't even passed a law to stop child labor. But we do build fifteen million dollar cathedrals."

True; we Race folks haven't worked up to the fifteen million dollar round, yet counting the financial standing, as a race we are aptly aping the people who do. The fifteen million dollar cathedral nor the five hundred thousand dollar church edifice are no more than so many piles of brick and mortar unless the spirit of Christ abide therein. Japan has taught the Western world many things, both in art and spiritual culture. If there is any possibility of her teaching, through the Buddhist religion, a higher concept of civilization we will welcome the advent, and please send us your best representatives as we have a special field for them. Send us your very best one for special work at Aiken, South Carolina.

Have you read how the Jew merchants by heridity—are seeing the great opportunity offered by agriculture and buying up available land? They are going in for truck gardening. Seeing that the trend of the population is bound for the more congested districts he is taking advantage of the hegira and moving to the suburbs near the towns and cities. It is a well known fact that the population must have food, as well as clothing, and food is the most essential. We are still urging Mr. Negro farmer, with intelligence and money to come to California. This State not only feeds its and the surrounding populations, but it feeds the WORLD

Athletics, among our boys and girls, especially the strenuous out-door kind, should receive th encouragement of all who have their welfare at heart. "A clean mind in a clean body." Give them plenty of tennis, basketball, football and out-door hiking, and they will have worked off the surplus energy of youth which at this time finds its outlet on the ballroom floor. A center for the community, properly supervised, is an asset. The city of San Francisco realizes the value of healthful recreation and spends anually, hundreds of thousands of dollars for the building and maintainance of play grounds properly supervised, AND THEY ARE FREE TO ALL.

It will be a serious blow to the Press, particularly that of the Negro, should the Appelate Court affirm the decision of the lower court in its verdict given in the Warley-Cole, Libel case. According to the evidence there was no personal attack which would prejudge, or cause one to believe that there was a prejudgment of the case, rather, it was a criticism of the "justice" which had been meted out in preceding cases where the alleged culprits were of different race connection. We have often wondered if the Negro Press was fully awake to the great issue confronting it. Issues which have a direct bearing on the future power and usefulness of the Race papers. To deny the right of judges to give flagrant decisions, savoring of racial prejudice, without the power to criticise; the value of the Race papers will be nullified.

FOUR—CALIF EAGLE

Every Negro paper in the United States of America should get behind the N.A.A.C.P. in its fight to secure a decision favorable for the defendants. Little or big, weekly or weekly, all should contribute in assisting the Association in the fight to keep unmuzzled the only fighting weapon of the Race. Every man and woman of the Fourth Estate should contribute his or her mite. Our Negro papers used to be looked upon as the medium through which our social activities were made public. Few were the editorials or comments on public affairs but today it is different. The Negro press is a power to be reckoned with. It is guided by the intelligent brain of the New Negro. It moulds the opinion of the Race. Do you wonder that your enemies will seek to destroy the usefulness of your only weapon of defense?

We agree with the North Carolina Bishop who said that religion should have no place in the politics of the nation. That is so far as eligibility to hold high office is concerned. After lamenting the spread of Ku Klux ideals among the evangelical churches he says that, "it is better far to support a Catholic of the Governor Smith type, a Democrat, than some of the Protestants who have Ku Klux sympathies if not direct members." Well, we can only add that should the issue come up between two such as Al Smith and Jim Watson it would be no guess where the majority of the Race vote would go. But there will be no issue of the kind. Calvin Coolidge will be the next nominee of the Republican party and succeed HIMSELF.

The solons are massing their forces for the march on Sacramento when battle of legislative wit begins January 3rd, '27, after 30 days of preparing their ammunition and armistice will be declared through the month of February and hostilities begin again in March, which will be a battle to the finish. The only prayer of the plain citizen is, that fewer freak laws will be foisted on them and, if possible, some of the rank ones repealed. We understand that our Race champion, John Gaylor, will keep an eye open for any legislation which may prove inimical to the welfare of the Race.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

President Coolidge's Message to the Country

President Coolidge's message has been presented to Congress and to the country. It covers the field of national interests in a comprehensive way and gives satisfaction to those who like it and arouses criticism on part of those who don't. The document is carefully, if not craftily drawn, in view of the ensuing National election. The President is the head of his party, and is always supposed to keep one eye upon its political advantage, while watching the welfare of the nation with the other. This is allowlowable and expected. The fate of the Republican party is in the balance. Is Coolidge to be, or not to be the next candidate? He himself probably does not know. But no word will escape the presidential lips for the next twelve months which will not have this contingency in view.

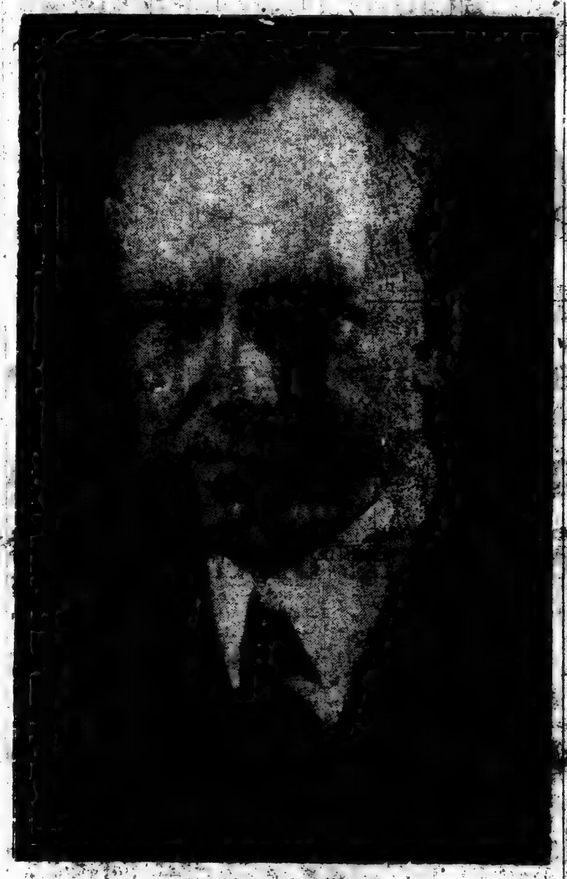
The New York Times believes that this reference to prohibition and his remarks on the Negro question had reference ulteriorly to his own self-succession. However, this may be, we find that these items are of greatest special importance to the Negro race. The President discloses no conviction on the moral quality of the Eighteenth Amendment. One does not learn from this disclosure whether he is wet or dry by private conviction. But he does declare in terms unmistakable for the enforcement of the amendment because it is the law. His position is much broader than the moral question involved in prohibition. It strikes at the very vitals of lawlessness, of which violation of the Eighteenth Amendment is but a single form in which its brazen audacity asserts itself. These are his words—"Some people do not like the (18th) amendment, some do not like other parts of the Constitution, some do not like any of it; but for any of our inhabitants to bserve such parts of the Constitution as they like, while disregarding others, is a doctrine that would break down all protection of life and property and destroy the American system of ordered government."

President Coolidge is a man of even temperament and cool spirit. Like Tennyson's linnet, he is void of noble rage. One could wish that Theodore Roosevelt might have expressed the same sentiment with his dynamic personality and vehement righteousness. The President indulges in polite form of speech when he says that this practice would destroy ordered government. The case calls for the indicative, not the subjunctive mood. This widespread practice is destroying orderly government and is breaking down protection of life and property. Mississippi elects to ignore the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments, while adhering to the rest of the Constitution. New York disregards the Eighteenth Amendment, but swears undeviating allegiance to the rest. They both equally undermine the foundation of government and bring our boasted institutions to nought. America is the most lawless nation among civilized peoples. This nation flouts with impunity its own fundamental law. The President says that those entrusted with the enforcement of the law ought not to violate it. This is a high and holy sentiment, expressed with sermonic impotence. Mr. Coolidge is responsible for the enforcement of federal law. Every office-holder is responsible to him. Sermonizing is not enough. Roosevelt would have said that any office holder found violating the prohibition law would be summarily dismissed. The nation would have approved the drastic pronouncement. Gloved hands will not do the work for the bare fist.

Let the South heed the wisdom of the President's wise words. Let the Wets heed it. They are both undermining the foundation of free institutions which they so fervently avow to uphold.

But above all, let the Negro heed these words. He is the chief sufferer from violated law. He must uphold the Constitution in its integrity. He cannot pick out the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments and insist upon their enforcement, while flagrantly violating the Eighteenth Amendment to appease his degraded appetite or to swell his evilly made fortune. The conscience of the nation must be aroused upon the moral integrity of the law. Massachusetts cannot point the finger of scorn at Georgia, nor the Negro at the white man. We all fall too far short of respect and reverence for law The Negro should give the nation a model lesson in obedience to the Eighteenth Amendment

When the President engages to deal with the Negro question per se, he becomes more tenuous, less logical and less convincing. His reference is entirely well meant and kindly. The fact that he would step aside and mention the Negro in his annual message serves to bring the question before public attention The general tendency is to let the issue pass by default. It is no longer considered good form to mention the Negro issue in public discussion. On more than one occasion, Mr. Coolidge has condescended, if it be a condescension, to make reference to the Negro race. For this he is due our racial thanks. We have been so far degraded in the public equation, that the smallest favor is thankfully received. If the President's reference to pohibition was a sermon, his mention of the Negro was in the nature of a prayer. But when all other modes of procedure fail, the prayer may be the last resort.



The American people are besought to treat the Negro kindly, even fairly. The American people ought not to lynch the colored people for they will not hold them guiltless for lynching the helpless victim. There is no indication of declarative intention or affirmative purpose, but an appeal to conscience instead of to the law. It may be that this is the only form of appeal that the American people will hear in their stiff necked attitude of law defiance. Will they heed a prayer, though it comes from the President of the United States?

"Our duty to ourselves under our claim that we are an enlightened people requires us to use all our power to protect them from the crime of lynching." These be heavily fraughted words. Though kindly intended, nevertheless, they are potential with untold mischief for the Negro race. I believe that this is the first time in the history of the government that the President of the United States has identified himself with one element of the American people as contradistinguished from another. He is supposed to be President of all the people, and officially to make no discrimination on account of race, color or previous condition. The Negro does not expect to be relieved from the crime of lynching as a supercilious duty that the white race owes him on the basis of racial difference, but because he is an American citizen entitled like the rest to the equal enforcement of the law. But after all, lynching is not wholly a racial evil. Although the Negro for the time and in certain localities bears the chief brunt of the heinous practice, yet white men, and even white women have fallen victims to the mobbish wrath. Since the record has been kept, not a single year has passed that has not recorded white victims. As many as a hundred white men have been lynched in a single year. No remedy for lynching or for any other form of lawlessness is going to be effective where the Negro is singled out as the sole beneficiary. Any such attempt is defeated at the start. The great defect of the Dyer Bill was that it became interpreted as a Negro measure. Lawlessness knows no race: the law should be color blind. An effective law against lynching would be of greater national advantage than all of the proposed legislation of the present session of Congress. But it must be nation wide in its purpose and support. If Congress should pass an anti-lynching measure based on race, it could not be enforced. The President does not even suggest the enforcement of the Fifteenth Amendment, and if he did it would fall on deaf ears and dead hearts, because the Negro is the sole beneficiary. We want no class legislation for the simple reason that it would be futile.

One lays down the President's message with a sense of gratitude for a well meant, kindly word, but with the reflection that the race has sunken to the zero level in in the political equation. The President speaks without any sense of political obligation. Whatever he does or says grows out of his own gratis, grace and goodness. We seem to have lost all power of demand, which the ballot confers. Let us reflect as to how long this political imbecility will continue. Will it still be so after the next administration, whether the present incumbent succeeds himself or no? It all depends upon the political sagacity of the race. If we use wisely the residue of political power which we now have, the next administration will regard the race as a worth while factor and not as a helpless mendicant.

Let the political tocsin for nineteen twenty-eight be—"The full enforcement of the Constitution including the fourteenth, fifteenth and eighteenth amendments."

KELLY MILLER.

Sesqui-Centennial Exposition Awards Howard University Gold Medal

(By A. N. P.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 20.—A letter has just been received by Emory B. Smith, alumnus and field secretary of Howard University, from the jury of awards of the Sesqui-centennial exposition, notifying that the international jury of awards of the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition has awarded Howard a gold medal for promoting the higher education of the Negro. The letter also stated that diploma of award was being prepared and will be ready the early part of the coming year. This marks the culmination of an endeavor on the part of Howard University to co-operate to the fullest extent in the promotion of the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition.

Among the visitors in the city is Dr. J. C. C. Owens, member of the Board of Directors of Western University, Kansas City, Kansas. He is visiting friends here and will be the guest of the W U Club, Monday evening, which meets at Miss Edna Hill's, 1462 W. 6th Pl.

Seek Salary Increases At Howard

(By A. N. P.)

Washington, Dec. 20.—President Mordecai Johnson of Howard University, in recent hearings before the subcommittee on interior department appropriations, has asked that government appropriations to Howard University be increased to allow a salary scale for instructors at Howard University be increased to allow a salary scale for instructors at Howard of $1,500 a year, with other salaries ranging up to $6,000 a year. Dr. Johnson pointed out that many teachers leaving the high schools in Washington go to Howard University to receive Class-A College training under instructors who receive smaller salaries than are provided by the recently adopted scale for public school teachers.

TWO STATESMEN: ONE WHITE, ONE BLACK

(By A. N. P.)

Champaign, Ill., Dec. 20.—As the late Senator William McKinley, senior senator from the State of Illinois, was lowered into his final resting place here last Friday before an assemblage which included men and women nationally known in the civic, educational, political, and financial worlds of America, a bevy of colored men joined the cortege, while amid the family and the chief mourners stood two more of the group. It was fitting that it should be so. These two faithful friends, "servitors," the daily papers called them, friends would have would have been a more accurate description, had perhaps a more intimate knowledge of and were closer to Senator McKinley than any other men dehpite the fact that this wonderful political figure and millionaire was surrounded by courtiers and satellites.

One Charles J. Pickett, "the bronze diplomat," whom Senators from widely different sections have dubbed "the most useful" and who incidentally is one of the most influential attaches in the senate building, was the late solon's political and confidential adviser. No one who visited Senator McKinley's office and knew its inner workings ever doubted that fact, for despite the secretaries of whom there were half a dozen in title, the man who guided the office and whose opinions were sought on every important question, who though styled assistant was secretary in fact, was that same "bronze" Charley.

Though the senator was inherently "right" on the race question, having been born in the days of abolition and steeped in its traditions by his parents, his well-known kindly spirit toward everything which affected the welfare of the Negro and the cordial welcome which a colored visitor always received at his office may in no small part be attributed to Pickett.

Henry Lincoln Jonson, Captain Walter Cohen, and numerous others of political persuasion can testify to the practical help which McKinley's office could always be depended upon for when a battle for members of the group was in prospect. Quiet in his benefactions, scores of colored churches and numerous needy churches have received his help. Two boys in the University of Illinois and one in the Art Institute of Chicago are there now through his generosity. Pickett was the referee who selected those worthy. The entire 8th Illinois reveres the legislator's memory. Pickett acting in his name through his intimate acquaintance with war department affairs gained during his service with the late Secretary of War Weeks, made possible the federalization of the 8th when it was slated to be mustered out. That action saved colored national guard units to the service, and set a precedent which made possible later the induction of the 15th New York and other units. Pickett, who has been in the senate office building for twenty-five years formerly was confidential man to the late Senator Shepby M. Cullom of Illinois for seventeen years. When the senator died, Pickett it was who wound up his affairs. The public will probably never know all the good which this quiet efficient man has accomplished. He is said to have half a dozen officers awaiting his services among them both the junior senator and the senator-elect from Illinois. The other man whose grief attracted attention [illegible] Jonson, the senator's personal attendant. He it was McKinley called for when stricken.

The clods fell gently on the coffin. Four thousand people stood bareheaded about the grave. The group of colored men bowed with sorrow all of whom had some personal attachment with the senator mingled with the white. It was as McKinley would have wished.

Brotherhood Asks Right To Represent Pullman Porters

(By A. N. P.)

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 20—The Brotherhood of Sleping Car orters made their appearance here last week before the United States Railway Mediation Board, asking the right to represent the more than 10,000 Pullman Porters in negotiations with the company. The public which has not been clear on the procedure of the Union gets a better conception of its status by this move. The Brotherhood so far has not had the right to officially represent the porters. It must show that more than five per cent of them are members of their organization and have requested them to so act. The Board took their appeal under advisement and will investigate their claims to learn whether they actually have the right to speak for the Pullman workers. A. Philip Randolph and Donald Hichberg are said to have presented the claims of the organization. No advance news of their efforts, however, have been available.

Mrs. Sam Middleton who met with an accident in her home a week ago, is recovering.

Provision Made For Beautiful Burial Ground

Two very serious handicaps confront any colored person who wants to buy a burial lot for his beloved dead. In the first place, the two major cemeteries, Rosedale and Evergreen, have nearly exhausted their burial lots. So rapidly has Los Angeles grown that in the matter of cemeteries as in other great and commanding needs, provision has not kept pace with the demand. In the second place, the case of L. A. Investment against Alfred Gary, which decided that a restrictive clause against occupancy by a colored person in a deed conveying land is valid, has been seized upon by the newer cemetery associations, as the method under which they can prevent the burial of colored bodies.

Already litigation has arisen over such a claus in regard to the Forest Lawn Memorial Park, and too, difficulty over the right to bury in lots owned, has been experienced by some folk already in Roosevelt Memorial Park.

The inherent injustice of a restriction that forbids the burial of a colored body in a cemetery is too plain to need comment. The earth, is the common mother of us all, and when the ashes of human kind are once mingled again in the soil of her bosom, what can there be of colored distinction? It would seem that race prejudice would at least cease with the grave, but there are those who carry it even into the silent chamber of death, where the dead mingle again with the clay.

These handicaps of course are serious and a practical and honorable way out has forced itself upon large numbers of our group. Fortunately, many who have been in the city for a long time, took time by the forelock and reserved t themselves burial plots so that they are not confronted with present difficulties. A great many have security of burial grounds for reason of their membership in fraternities or churches, which own cemeteries. But unfortunately, many have not made these necessary reservations, and cannot now make them for the reasons above indicated.

The problem therefore presents not only a present difficulty, but one which would grow in the absence of adequate cemetery provisions to an embarrassing if not, alarming extent. The difficulty, however, has been met in an honorable way and in a manner which at once subdues race prejudice and meets the difficult problem of scarcity of burial lots. There was presented to the various churches and lodges, not long ago, the Paradise Cemetery project and many became familiar with it. The project includes the conversion of a beautiful parcel of ground about twelve miles from the heart of Los Angeles, into an elaborate burial ground.

The project goes far enough to provide a beautiful ornamental fence; that the entire surface be sown in blue grass; that parks and driveways be immediately constructed; that a beautiful chapel be built, and that perpetual care be provided for withous possibillty of failure. The idea was at once conceived that this cemetery project should be put to the free and absolute disposal of our group, as a fraternal and religious cemetery. There was no racial organization owning or controlling a burial ground in Los Angeles County or in the State, so far as is known, and so, the Prince Hall Masonic Cemetery was formed, and at once set to work to convert the Paradise Cemetery project into a Masonic Cemetery; open to all religious and Fraternal bodies and members.

The negotiations have been succesfully cmpleted. All of the plans for the laying out and beautifying of what was to have been Paradise Cemetery, have not only been adopted, but have been enlarged upon. The Cemetery; Prince Hall Masonic Cemetery, is offering to the public burial lots, plots and sections. The selling plan is very advantageous in that every church and organization is donated one free lot, for every lot sold. In this way the churches can later on dispose of these lots to members when occasion demands, and thus aid themselves in paying for Church property, and meeting building obligations.

The plans of the cemetery have been enlarged so that they now include the erection of a life sized statue and monument of Prince Hall, who was the first race man in what are now the United States, to open, set up or establish a genuine fraternal organization among our group under a lawful warrant and charter.

When one considers the enormous outlay of such a project; the fact that the difficulties usually attendant upon the raising of funds for the purchase of land, and for necessary improvements have all been overcome; taken together with the liberal offer of one free lot to church and organization for every lot sold in conjunction with the substantial remuneration and the wide oportunity afforded individuals to act as selling agents; the project not only meets a great public necessity and demand, but is progressive and laudable as well. Offices of the Prince Hall Masonic Cemetery have been opened at 1102 East Adams Street in the Unity Finance Building. Telephone HUmbolt 2056, and officers of the Association are now displaying the maps, and giving out literature and information.

In no instance, has a project of such large proportions, and one offering opportunity to provide for so urgent a necessity been launched under circumstances more favorable or more advantageous. 12-24-24-1

UPTON'S RAILROAD CLATTER

By Chas. L. Upton

PORTER SHUT OUT OF CAR NEARLY FROZEN TO DEATH

While the sun is shining here, it's cold in northern Ontario, as Joe LaFrance will tell you. Clinging with frozen hand to a Pullman car while his train roared through the frozen night of northern Ontario, was the experience he had and as a result he is now lying in a hospital suffering from severe frost bites.

When the train stopped at Sioux Lookout, Joe climbed out to examine a faulty dynamo, before he could regain his car, the train started, and the door went shut. He clutched a hand rail, and for twenty miles he held on, until the train reached Hudson.

FRED THORNTON ACTS AS DINING CAR CONDUCTOR

In the recent death of "Hard Boiled" Smith, a dining car steward operating on the S. P. from L. A. to Frisco, it fell the lot of Fred Thornton one of the crew to take charge of the car. It has since been discovered that the death of Smith was not an accident as many had believed but was a plain case of suicide on account of domestic troubles he had been having for some time. From the latest reports of the case Smith deliberately laid his head upon the track as it pulled out and was killed. As the train neared Frisco, Thornton found a letter which Smith had left asking that his body be cremated and what insurance he had left to go to his wife. Fred Thornton proved he was capable in every respect as a dining car conductor, and goes to show what our boys can do if given a chance.

JOE LEE

Some time ago a petition was circulated to get Porter Joe Lee back to work, Joe who got into some difficulty over family affairs has never been put back to work on this account. The petition carried hundreds of names and was forwarded to Chicago for approval of the management. It has been filed sufficient enough time now for a hearing but as yet we have heard nothing. How come? Joe is a good porter with a splendid record and should be put back to work, and in my opinion the grievance committee should get busy and see what is holding it up.

DO NOT GET DISCOURAGED

Some of the Maids as well as the porters are beginning to get discouraged because they are not making any money no the new trains. They holler before they are really hurt, and should take things as they come until time picks up. Rome was not built in a day, and you must remember that these trains are new trains and the traveling public must get used to taking them before you can expect to get yours. Another thing to be taken into consideration is that at this time of the year when there are no rates on, the better class of people can travel on the limited trains that do not carry any excess fare and not be crowded out as they woud when the rates ae on and the tourists are traveling. Just wait until they put the rates on and you will see a great difference on excess fare trains. Learn to take the bitter with the sweet, and quit singing 'em.

Dixon, a Union Pacific porter, was shut out of his car when he attempted to get a lady passenger's hat from another train which she had just left. However, his case was not quite as bad as the porter who was shut out in zero weather. Dixon broke the glass door in with his hand and escaped injury.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL !

CHRISTMAS DAY

Ever since the natal day of our Savior this day has been looked forward to as one of joy and good will to all mankind. As time passes the Christmas spirit should ever grow and go out in all of its fullness into the hearts of men. Truly joy makes us forget the small, narrow and petty jealousies of which mankind is heir to, and we can see no reason why mankind could not hold on to this joy forever and make this old world in which we live, worth while.

Truly the spirit which reigns at Christmas time is the token of good will, and we are in, absolutely so, for good will to all mankind to reign forever more.

APPRECIATION

Though rather early since the production of our Holiday Classic, composing our issue of last week, we have been overwhelmed with telegrams, letters and personal congratulations for the number. We join in with our staff in appreciation for this recognition and all of us will ever strive to be worthy of words both written and spoken in commendation thereof.

CEMETERY

We have had many inquiries relative to a proposed cemetery for a certain group of people. Thus far we have not been so fortunate as to get the very intimate details and have gained only such information as that which is furnished by an article published in this issue on another page, which is available for all to read for themselves.

WHAT CAUSED THE BOSTON TEA PARTY?

The paramount duty of government officials is to keep taxes as low as possible.

Everybody knows about the Boston Tea Party and what it led to, in our colonial days. Everybody—every taxing official at least—ought to remember the folly of overtaxation, and the people ought to remember that they must pay for what they get

C. A. Dyer, legislative agent for Ohio farm bureaus and granges, in an address at an agricultural legislative conference, said in part:—

"The taxpayer is the one to bring about relief. He can do it through his own efforts and through organization. The greatest part of the taxes are used locally. The taxpayer has the opportunity of attending local meetings where local budgets are reviewed, and of fighting extravagance through such organizations as the farm bureau and grange."

If more interest were taken in local meetings where tax budgets are reviewed, taxing officials would not be so liable to add extra tax burdens.—Lima, Ohio, Star.

DAMAGING EFFECT OF SMOKE

Gordon D. Rowe, chief smoke inspector of Cincinnati, Ohio, places our financial loss in the United States, from smoke and its effects, at $1,870,000,000. This is enough money, he says, to build a 12-inch paved road 50 feet wide from New York to Los Angeles, and bisect it with another from Chicago to New Orleans.

In recommending efforts to control smoke, Mr. Rowe says it is a crime against coming generations to burn coal in the raw state. There are only two ways to burn it economically and smokelessly; pulverize or gasify. He believes that when the real market value of gas and its by-products is correctly understood, the prodigious daily waste of our valuable natural resources will stop.

INCREASED COST AND DECREASED EFFICIENCY

It would be a very grave mistake for legislators to reduce and limit the cars in a train, as railroad labor organizations are planning to have them do.

The first and inevitable effect of such legislations would be demoralization of the service with an increase in operating costs that would inevitably increase rates.

The United States has the largest commerce, the lowest rates, the best service and the highest paid railroad labor of any country in the world.

This is due to the fact that by purchasing larger locomotives and hauling longer trains the railroads have been able to continue payment of the growing demands of shippers, without increasing rates. This has been accomplished in the face of greatly increased cost of labor, material and supplies and increased taxes.

Statistics show that injuries to employes are being reduced, increased needs of shippers are being better accommodated, traffic is being moved in larger volume and with greater regularity and speed, the railroads have passed few of their burdens arising from increased wages and cost of supplies to the shipper but have overcome them by increased efficiency; all of which warns against legislation restricting and hampering efficient operation.

Train limit schemes have but one objective—more jobs, and more jobs mean increased cost and decreased efficiency.

Th emany friends of Mr. Sorral were indeed much pleased to learn of the decision and showered Gene with congratulations. Tragic Passing Of Dr. Lucien McMahan

On last Saturday evening, while crossing the street near 16th and Central Avenue, Lucien McMahan graduate registered pharmacist, was struck by an automobile driven by a woman and sustained injuries from which he never regained consciousness and passed away at the hospital on last Wednesday night

Mr. McMahan was about 58 years of age, a quiet disposition and well liked by all who knew him For the past several years he has filled positions as pharmacist in many of our local drug stores

His native home was in Calloway County, Mo. His parents were of the foremost and highly respected citizenship of that commonwealth. Many years ago Lucien came to Denver-Colorado, where he engaged in business and was highly successful, owning there the leading drug store in that city. Later on he found his way to California, living at San Diego, and later moving to this city. This writer has known the deceased intimately and well for forty years, and can testify to his loyalty to a friend and his honest and upright life.

He leaves a sister in California, Mrs. W. D. Carter, of Pasadena, other sisters, near relatives, and a host of friends who mourn his passing.

Captain Glenn To Retire

It is a general rumor that Captain of Detectives, W. A. Glenn has asked for and will be permitted to retire on January 1, 1627. If such report proves to be true. Los Angeles will lose the services of a very valuable man who has made an enviable record as a peace officer during the past quarter of a century. The Captain has been eligible for retirement for some years but his love for duty has kept h m at his post.

Cards are out announcing the 30th marriage anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Banks of 96th and Normandie venue.

Dr. H. D. Prowd is reported on the sick list.

Christmas Sermon

THE LORD'S WAY

By: C. P. JONES,
Pastor Christ Temple

"The Lord preserveth the strangers; He relieveth the fatherless and the widow; but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down." Ps. 146:9...

At this season we celebrate the greatest mystery of the ages, the birth of the Son of God into the world, the incarnation of the God-head God manifest in the flesh.

Wonder of wonders He came to us emptied of divine might and glory, appealing to us with the sweet eyes and lips of a helpless babe, needing our ministrations, yet protected by all heaven and full of eternal an unconquerable possibilities. In this He was a type, a picture, a representation of His religion He gives to men. They must sustain it, yet it sustains them.

He and His religion were God's gift to men. Christmas was designed to celebrate that gift. It is a time of goodwill ad generous, happy giving, if ever there was such a time

HOW IT WORKS

But we are concerned with how the religion of Jesus works. He comes to us as our Lord and our God. What does He do for us?

1. He preserveth the strangers. To the Jew that meant any foreigner, any person not of their own family, race or nation, whether such lived among them or was far away. It was the spirit of good-will toward men expressing itself in religious sentiment. It was the admission of God's love and care for those not your own. Strangers—the other fellow—the alien—the one you are inclined to regard with indifference, even with scorn. Christ is for him too. Christmas is also his time of hope and joy and peace and goodwill. Jehovah, the Lord, preserveth the strangers. And do you know He has a special care for the stranger within our gates, and also for us when we are strangers within the gates of others. He preseveth the stranger. I wish I had time to say more about t.

2. He relieveth the fatherless and the widows. In these days the widow is not so badly off as formerly, but even I knew the day when the widow's lot was a destitute and lonely one. But the fatherless are always lonely, even though they be rich, and who can describe the unhappy lot of the poor and destitute child wh has no father? These are God's special care. To relieve them is His delight. He makes it His business.

O the spirit to scorn and kick and suspect and scold and abuse the poor and the distressed, that is the spirit of hell, it is the devil's own way. But to help the needy, to care for the perishing, to relieve the burdened, the friendless, the helpless, the uncared for, that is the spirit of the Christ, that is the way of God, the delight of heaven. "I was a stranger and ye took me in, naked and ye clothed me, sick and ye visited me, in prison and ye came unto me, hungry and ye fed me, thirsty and ye gave me drink." When, Lord? When ye did the same to the least of these my brethren. Ah, the Blessed Babe of Bethlehem, He is spiritual brother to all who are born again; but in assuming over flesh and our infirmities He became brother to all mankind. He is good to all. He cares for all.

3. How He does it. How does the Savior carry out His will to help? How does He relieve the fatherless and the widow and preserve the stranger? Yes, the angels help, the stars in their courses help. He has unseen forces that work for us. But practically it is done by those who believe in Him and love Him. Through those to whom He makes known His will and gives His mind; whom He endues and fills with Himself.

From the Father of light comes all good. Even the good that irreligious people do is the indirect influence of the life of the Christ, the Goodness, the manifestation, the salvation of God. But to you and me—is the lesson. We serve Him by serving those He loves, those who are His special care. The good deed to others, that's the real test of religion, the delight of God, the perfecter of our faith, the beautifier of the soul, the embellisher of the character. Amen.

4. The way of the wicked He turneth upside down. His way with the wicked. Many souls will be made happy this Christmas season, many lives will be lightened, many will rejoice in time to come for what th espirit of Jesus has done for them.

But the wicked, those whose mouths are full of cursing and bitterness, whose hearts are full of evy and hatred, who delight but in lust and drunkenness, whose lives are as foul with sin as a wolf's den, whose sins are written in their forehead and look dull and sullen out of their eyes, who delight in the way of the forward and hate the house of God, whom the Lord's day is but another day to rob and lie and steal and threaten and fight and kill—what of them?

The rod is for the fool's back. The jail, the pistol, the knife, the billie, the brass knucks, curses, scowls, kicks; dishonor, disgrace,—all these this Christmas wil bring to them. There is no excuse for wickedness. We were born to it. Yes. But we have been redeemed out of it. Light is come into the world. There shines the Star of Bethlehem, the Star of the East, and all the stars of heaven join the chorus of redemption and cry, Amen. The Day Star has arisen. The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light. Peace and Goodwill have come to men. Amen.

THAT "BULLET ROGAN" REALLY "GOT IT FIXED" SUNDAY

Just a single, but it did the work Sunday at the White Sox Baseball Park when Bullet Rogan became the man of the hour and rapped out a single sacker. The bases full and the score hopelessly tied in the eleventh inning, darkness approaching and Pirrone's All Stars making a desperate struggle to hold the Philadelphia Royal Giants down till they would get to bat again. This was only one of the many times the great Rogan has acted as pinch hitter in his baseball career but never at a more critical time or to such prolonged cheeing from the fans. At it was too late to play the scheduled double-header, two games will be played on Christmas day.

Last Week's Line-Up of All-City Football Team Unofficial

The line-up for an All-City Football team as published in last week's issue was not one picked out by the club league but only an answer to the invitation we extended to any and everyone to voice their opinion as to what would be a good team picked from various schools, colleges and clubs in the city. Everyone is privileged and invited to write or bring to the Sports Editor of this paper what he or she considers a logical All-City Team. At the end of the season we will attempt to bring together a Conference of Coaches to pick an official team.

Below is one reader's suggestion for this week:

R. E.	I. Sallsbury, (R. W.)
R. T.	Rosser (N. N. B.)
R. G.	Carnegie (Wil. O)
C.	Tallie Terry (N. M.)
L. G.	H. Brown, (N. N. B.)
L. T.	O. Drisdin (LaP.)
L. E.	C. Jones (LaP.)
Q.	"Red" Bryant (M. M.)
R. H.	B. Jackson (LaP.)
L. H.	W. Townes (N. N. B.)
F. B.	Smith (R. W.)

RED GRANGE HEADED THIS WAY

Chicago, Ill. The season's final, played before 10,000 fans at Comiskey park, was one of the best games seen this year on a local gridiron. Red and his gang finally won out over the Chicago Bulls, 7 to 2, but for three periods neither team threatened the other's goal.

Red himself furnished one of the thrills of the game when he intercepted a forward pass and covered 23 yards before he was downed. Another feature came when Larry Morin, former Indiana captain, dashed 42 yards for the only touch-down of the game.

UPPERCUTS AND BLOCKS

By: HARRY LEVETTE

Why is it so natural for us to make new resolutions on New Year's? It appears that any old time would do at any old day and hour of the old year. Yet we wait until the tragic hour, when the clock strikes 12 on the last day of December, to solemnly promise and swear to a lot of things. Which promises we keep just about as long as a snowball would last in Hades.—But we continue to make them each year so here goes this writer with a few for 1927.

Harry Levette

—00—

RESOLVED: That we will not argue or swear at the pressmen, linotypers, cut boys, stenogs, lithographers, janitor, and the office cat when the stuff we write may happen to have a misprint or two.

—00—

RESOLVED: That when the trusty "oil can" breaks down while speeding to a prize fight, ball game, tennis game, swim meet, chitterling supper or a love match, that we will not call down curses on the head of poor Henry Ford.

—00—

RESOLVED: That we will not refuse any cigars that happen to be passing around on New Year's day, nor any invitations to Turkey or eggnog.

—00—

RESOLVED: That the girls of Los Angeles are the finest, sweetest, prettiest and peppiest in the world, but we will at present refrain from taking on another household "sparring partner."

—00—

RESOLVED: That we will always take an uppercut at false friendship, double-crossing, and crooked sport, and block any one who takes a smash at us for telling the truth.

—00—

RESOLVED: That the men who operate the Main St. gym and A. C. the Manhattan Gym, the Olympic Auditorium, Hollywood Stadium, Culver City A. C., and Vernon Arena, as well as the men on our able Boxing Commission shall have their names placed on the roll of honor as men who are helping make California the best place in the world for the great game of boxing.

RESOLVED: That we will continue to make the Sport Section Section of the "Soaring Eagle" better and better, upholding its policies and increasing its service to our "gentle readers." So since by the time you see "Upper Cuts and Blacks" again, 'Kid 1927' will be in the ring, we wish you one and all a wonderful New Year and hope you spend as many more as Methusalah—Selah! (!)

BASKETBALL SEASON SWINGING INTO LINE

With the Hollywood A. C. quintet slushing with S. C., Thursday, Stanford Monday, and the Oregon Aggies, Tuesday, interest in the now thoroughly launched basket ball season is rapidly increasing. Hollywood grabbed off a lot of rep ever since winning decisively over Occidental and Southern Branch, but they are now up against three of the best teams in the Coast Conference. With Kearney Geerts and Means they have a great offense and their defense if equal will leave them nothing to fear.

Although his record has been beaten by other runners, Charlie Paddock the great sprinter is still called the world's fastes human.

Merrymakers 7; Wilshire Olympic Club 7

On Sunday afternoon, December 12th on Ross Snyder Field the football team of the Wilshire Olympic and the Merrymakers, two of the outstanding clubs of the city, played to a 7-7 tie before one of the largest crowds of the season. The fast Merrymakers aggregation were conceded two touch downs better than their ancient rivals. Nevertheless it woud have been a different score had it not been for this: Late in the third period with the Merrymakers in possession of the ball on their own 35 yards line Everett's stellar back fumbled, Echols who played a whale of a game for W. O. C. recovered and ran for atouch down carrying two tacklers with him but referee Riddle called the ball back and penalized the M. M. Club five yards for off-side. It was a good game anyway, just to see the little red-headed quarter-back of the Merrymakers their outstanding player run the ends.

FAMOUS HORSE ARRIVES AT TIA JUANA

Carlaris arrived at Tijuana this week. He came dow nfrom Pleasonton, where he has been carefull prepared for another winter campaign.

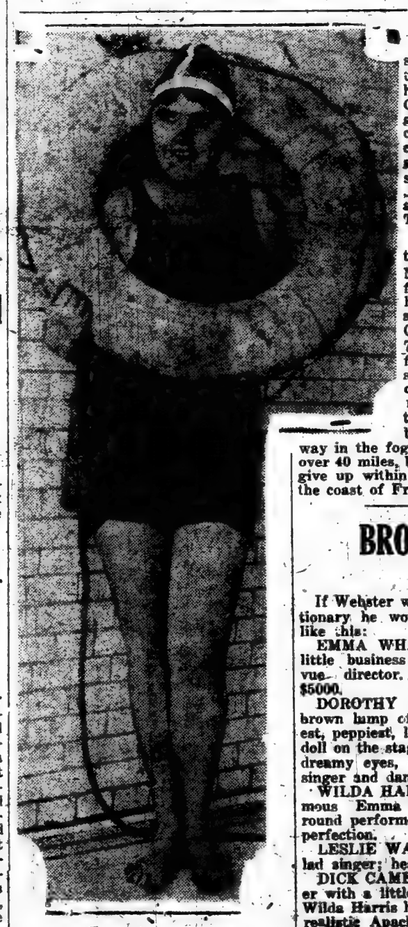
The husky son of Pharlaris looked like another Man o' War in his series of successes down yonder a year ago. He topped off a sensational string of victories by covering a mile and a quarter of Mexican terrain in the astounding time of 2:02.6 to ne this owner $70,700 in the Coffroth, the richest purse in the history of the turf.

When the 3-year-old outgallonedseasoned campaigners like RoyeroRer Cherry Tree, Kentucky Cardinal, Princess Doreen and others is that kind of time, with wee Willie Mundas keeping a stranglehold on him along the entire route, great things were predicted for him in the big Eastern fixtures.

Carlaris proved a big disappointment, however. Following his phenomenal victory at the border, he failed to reveal anyting like his Tiajuana form in four or five starts.

At last the California fans who have been reading and hearing of the wonderful French Tennis Star, Suzanne Lenglen will have a chance to see her in action. At the Olympic Auditorium on December 28th to a probable S. R. O. crowd the brilliant girl athlete who has held the world's tennis championship so long will flash across the courts in a match with her closest rival, the California star, Mary Browne.

Interest is at fever heat among tennis circles and many clubs will attend in a body as all are anxious to be present, in case the rapidly improving native daughter should beat the hard-driving, rapid-playing Suzanne. The French champion has only been able to keep just one jump ahead of her opponent all through the tour of the famous Pyle's troupe.



When they started the tour, October 9, Mlle. Lenglen had little trouble in defeating the California star. The farther west they came the better Mary Browne showed.

At Portland a sensation was caused in tennis circles when the California girl carried the French star to 20 games, losing the set, 11-9.

While Suzanne Lengen, greatest woman tennis payer of all time, is lolling on the sun-kissed sands of Coronado, Mary K. Browne, who will be her opponent at the Olympic Auditorium Tuesday evening, December 28, is putting in many hours of practice on the Santa Monica courts.

Miss Browne feels that her lucky star is in the ascendancy and that she will defeat the great French player when they meet at the auditorium.

Clarabelle Barret, Champion Endurance Swimmer Also A Singer

CLARA BELLE BARRET

Though it hardly seems necessary with the universal fame she has won as a swimmer Clara Belle Barret, the great mermaid who claims the world's championship in endurance and long distance swimming is singing a couple of songs in her act at the Hill Street Theatre this week.

She is the school teacher from Pelham, N. Y. who sprang into fame last August in her heroic attempt to swim the great English Channel. Starting at 7:50 in the morning from the English side she swam for 21 hours, continuously, covering nearly twice the distance on account of tides, and losing her way in the fog. Her total swim was over 40 miles, but after all she had to give up within a mile and a half of the coast of France.

Main St. A. C. Holds Last Show Before Holidays

At the Main St. A. C. last Saturday a suitable wind-up of the season was given in a show which was even better than the always good shows that Carlo Curtis and his side-kicks put on. The verdict by referee Johnny Schiff in the main bout was fat from popular, in which he declared a draw between Benny Farrel and the flashy Gaston Lopez. Pete Pachoto beat Maximo Lemelli, Fred Allen defeated Tony Archer and Tony Solteso won over Danny Solis in the curtain raiser.

BRONX BITS

If Webster was to write a new dictionary he would start something like this:

EMMA WHARTON—A first class little business woman, splendid revue director. Legs insured for $5000.

DOROTHY WILLIAMS—A little brown lump of sweetness. The cutest, peppiest, little 18-year old baby-doll on the stage or off. Pretty figure, dreamy eyes, a dainty little dandy singer and dancer.

WILDA HARRIS—Sister to the famous Emma Wharton. Good all-round performer, plays boy parts to perfection.

LESLIE WALTON—Splendid ballad singer; heart and soul worker.

DICK CAMBELL—A man performer with a little different stuff. With Wilda Harris he does one of the most realistic Apache Dances seen in this neck of the woods.

MR. CARPENTIER—Publicity and Amusement Manager. Versatile, capable, successful.

MR. DARBY HICKS—Just slap him on the back and say "Hello Darby." Everybody likes him; he likes everybody.

CREOLE SYNCOPATORS—A merry, mad, music making mob of Jazz Hounds. Their music "just won't don't."

Amateur Fisherman Catches 400 Lb. Sea Bass

"Science, science and knowing how."

Such was the terse comment today of Edward M. Grant, 1917 Brooklyn avenue, when being congratulated by friends on his feat of landing a 400-pound "Schoolma'am" black sea bass yesterday off Redondo Beach with a light fishing tackle using a 21-strand line.

The fish measures 6 feet 5½ inches in length when finally hauled on the deck of the fishing barge Gratia.

Grant said that landing the fine fish while the bass was fighting kept him quite busy for about two hours.

OUR OWN JULIAETTE MISSES BIG CHANCE TO PLAY

It was stated on this page some time back that Juliaette Harris, our great colored Tennis Star would be backed by the Eagle to play against some member of the Suzanne Lenglen tennis troupe. Well, we were not joking. We really took steps to have her appear on the program.

After a consultation with Mr. Pickens and Mr. Andrews at the Olympic, Monday, when the final decision was to be given it was reported by Mr. Pickens that owing to the fact that no local players would be used it would be impossible to give her a chance at this time. But he assured us that at some future time she shall have the opportunity to wield her racquet across the nets against sime of the white stars.

HUGE CROWD SEES A GREAT FIGHT SPOILED

We don't know and don't care how any one else saw that important fight between Young Harry Wills and Harry "Kid" Brown on Tuesday, December 21st, but what we saw was a sure win for Wills if it had not been for that unlucky low blow in the first 1½ minutes of the 6th round. He took the 1st with a gallop, the second was even, and he kept ahead in all the others until it came to its sudden termination in the 6th when after driving Brown to the ropes in Will's corner with hard left hooks and right swings to the head he shot a long right intended for Brown's body and the blow went low. It all happened so suddenly that only the ringsiders realized the fight was over for a minute. Brown was not hurt and bounced around the ring bowing and shaknig hands with the new-made friends he has gained by his second decision over a star colored boxer in the month and all in the city. It was a great fight while it lasted, both fighters leaping into the fray at the first bell. Wills landed the first blow a right to jaw and left to head took a left to head and right to body from Brown, then shot a shower of rights and lefts to head and body, outfighting Brown. From then on the boys fought furiously both determined to win and both committing little breaks in ring etiquette and being warned by the referee. In the fourth and fifth Wills had Brown holding from his damaging body attacks which he kept up in every clinch.

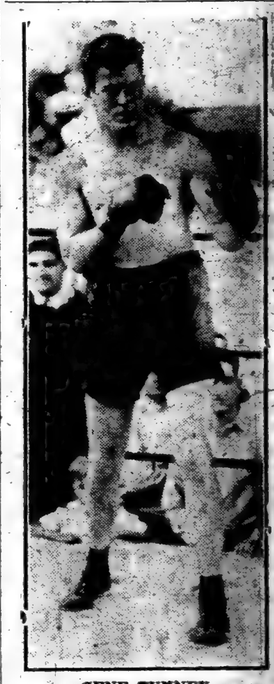
The breaks seem to be against Wills here as the boy is willing and square, wouldn't foul any one intentionally and he attested the fact that he is good, faster than Brown and a harder puncher.

The other bout of the 10-round double wind-up saw Newsboy Brown get the decision over Young Nationalista in a rattling mill where the two little rivals foughts like demons at times dropping science and slugging toe to toe. Nationalista is fast and clever; Brown has a terrific kick in both mitts and is accurate and careful with his blows.

BABY JOE GANS TO TAKE LOSS OUT ON DALY

Baby Gans is said to have promised to make up for his loss to Harry "Kid" Brown at Jack Doyle's Vernon Arena on the 14th by taking it out on Pete Daley next Tuesday night in the same historic fight factory.

Daley is the Frisco top-nothcher who in Moose Tausig's camp is considered as the best lightweight among the native sons of the 'oggy city. He beat Larry Murphy in every round last week. Gans is training hard at the Main St. Club every day and will be in his usual shape. His eyes weakened by an infected tooth could not stand the strong glare of ring lights in his match with Brown and spoiled his fight.



Mack House, the California Bear, who has proven a knock-out king is reported to have been slated to box in the semi-windup against some good boy. The usual record crowd that turns out at Vernon for the mixed battles will see the bouts.

SPEEDWAY TO BE SUNDAY'S RACES AT ASCOT MATCH EVENT

Sunday, the semi sky of Ascot Park will see the running of one of the greatest match races ever held by drivers of the big time cars.

Bill Cranor, Ed. Winfield, Harry Hooker and Barney Kloepfer will compete in the event with the winners of the two-day heats competing in top honors and a $500 purse being up by the promoters, in addition to $100 side bets posted by each of the contending drivers.

The race will be an added feature of the five-race program carded by the promoters for the afternoon.

Girletics

Well Folks, how do you like that name for a column heading? Who suggested it? If you will listen carefully I will tell you. It was none other than Mr. Harry Levette, Sports Editor of this paper.

Now that that's over will see what the girls are doing.

* * * *

By the way, from what I hear, I don't think we're going to have room enough in the paper to keep up with what these girls are going to.

* * * *

Some of the Eastside girls have formed a team known as The Eastside Girls Baseball Team, and are eager for competition in baseball. These energetic ones are the misses Ramelle Laqueo, Geraldine Webster, Geneviene Hawkins, Marjorie Baine, Mayme Dunn, Albertine Oliver, Webbie Johnson, Mercedees Wright, Lillie Brodie, Ollie Mae Collins, Dorline Whaley.

* * * *

The members of the Dodecagenian Art Club have answered the challenge of these girls. They say the fact that they are interested in Art, a mental study, is no sign that they have no time to exercise physically and to prove it are organizing both a baseball team and several tennis teams. Players in this group consist of the misses Pearlita Johnson, Jessie Mae Nickerson, Quincella Nickerson, Edna Moore, Velma White, Irma Jones, Alicia Allen, Armita Benton, Irene Marvin, Marguerite Robinson, Gladys Mathonican. Good athletic entertainments are expected of these groups.

* * * *

Just a word to remind you that the Westside Girls Football Team still desires to challenge a similar group of girls in football.

The Girl Reserve Basketball teams are getting ready for some good, hard, earnest practice and are going to surprise you soon with the date of their first game.

Any club wishing to challenge another club may easily do so by writing editor of this column in care of California Eagle, 847 Central Ave.

"BABY" DOROTHY WILLIAMS INTERESTS EASTERN SHOW PRODUCERS

A little 18-year old girl, Dorothy Williams, living with her mother, sisters and brothers, at 1220 Birch, has by her excellent work as a singer and dancer, attracted the attention of some of Chicago's and New York's booking offices. Several letters have come to the Eagle office inquiring about her partly through frequent mention, made of her in this publication, and through her work being noticed by visitors from the East. It has been a pleasure to give them the desired infomation, for she is a sincere, earnest little peformer who will some day make a name for herself in the Theatrical World.

In less than a year's start, through a natural talent and close study, she has equaled the work of those with years of stage experience. She has a natural grace, pretty figure and pretty expressive features. This, with a sweet disposition and earnestness, will carry her rapidly along the road to stardom, such as Florence Mills and other race girls enjoy. Her picture in dance poses will be published in our special New Year's edition.

This annual event staged by the A. A. U. arouses keen interest among the boys and some of the world's future best boxers are developed. Tom Gallery Legion match-maker, and Bob Howard, boxing instructor made up the entry lists and engineered the big affair.

At Pasadena a monster Christmas dinner benefit was held for the newsboys by Manager Morrie Cohan. Great fighters such as Jackie Fields, Baby Gans, Newsboy Brown, "Bad News," Eber Corp., Izzy Schwarty, Young Harry Wills, Jack Sparr, Archie Wallace and Eddie McKeans gave exhibitions in addition to the regular show. Lou Daro loaned his wrestler, Kotsonaros, Prof. Nitta his world famed jiu jitu- experts and a vaudeville bill to Victor Hermann's jozzy band rounded out the variety of the benefit. Famous old timers such Jim Jeffries, Billy Papke, Frank Moran, Ad. Wolgast, Spike Robinson, and Tommy Ryan were present.

Horseshoe Pitching Championship Changes Hands

Although horseshoe pitching does not cause any great excitement in this part of the realm, yet it is interesting to know that the championship was won by Patt Mossman of Eldora, Ia., who defeated Frank Jackson at Chicago with a score of 52 to 19.

A Fifty-Two Page Christmas Edition

NASHVILLE GLOBE SCORES BIG TRIUMPH

WEEKLY PUBLICATION IN TENNESSEE'S CAPITAL HAS SEVEN SECTIONS FOR THE HOLIDAY EDITION

The Nashville Globe issued a Holiday Number, December 17th. It was a fifty-two page newspaper containing six sections, eight pages to the section and one section four-pages. It was the largest special edition ever published by a newspaper in the National Negro Press Association. The paper was printed for the purpose of showing Nashville's progress and as a compliment to the enterprising citizens of the capital city Tennessee.

It has many interesting features. It contains a one-page writeup of the several universities located at Nashville, viz.: Meharry, Walden, State Normal, Roger Williams, Fisk, with special mention of the Theological and Training Seminary. It has its Santa Claus letters, and a two-page presentation of the oldest Negro bank in the United States, the Citizens Savings Bank, and the National Baptist Publishing Board's Plant. There are eight pages of photogravure brown, presenting cuts of some of Nashville's best known men and women.

The president of The Nashville Globe Publishing Company is Henry A. Boyd, who is secretary of the National Negro Press Association, and who is connected with a number of other organizations. He has sent us a special marked copy for our information.

TOWN BARS SKILLED NEGROES

(By A. N. P.)

Blackwell, Okla., Dec. 20.—Charles Compton, employed as a foreman by Grant Renne, white, housemover and raiser of Kansas City, was forced to leave this town recently with a crew which had been sent with him to raise the roof the city light and water works building. This is one of the many small cities and towns in Oklahoma which draws a complete bar on the Negro. Only once colored man lives in the town, a postoffice worker who both works and sleeps in the federal building.

Compton, an employe of the big contracting firm which has its headquates in Kansas City, has handled impotant jobs thoughout the south fo the company fo moe than thity years. Before he reached Blackwell with three other skilled workmen, he was warned that he had better not leave the train. But he did, and he and his companions were jeered by children and grownups alike. The city manager finally compelled him to return to Kansas City with his workmen.

WHO CARES?

"I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul. I cried unto thee, O Lord: I said thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living." Ps. 142:4, 5.

David was an outlaw. He was hiding in a cave. Once he had been very popular. The women had sung, "Saul has killed his thousands." He had been the idol of the people, the popular young officer of the army. Doubtless more than one person had said, "He's every inch a prince. He'll be King some day. And happy will Israel be when it comes to pass." He had been the King's chief body guard, his special attendant and his son-in-law. Now he is an outcast, a fugitive, not from justice but from the fear, the hatred, the envious vengefulness of constituted authority; the victim of the most unreasonable prejudice; the forced foe of those he would be delighted to serve and whom he had no idea of injuring.

The burden upon his soul was great. He loved men. He needed friends. But no man cared for his soul.

They Cut His Acquaintance

"There was no man who would know me," he said. People were afraid to acknowledge his acquaintance. They were afraid to look at him or how to him or kiss him on the street or elsewhere. Until a few outlaws, like himself, gathered to him and made him the leader of a gang of bandits, he was utterly without friends. He had been compelled to take his mother and father to an alien land for protection. His big brothers who had despised him, what had become of them? We don't know. Maybe killed in battles, serving the King; maybe despising him still; they had repudiated him as an upstart, too smart anyhow. Sometimes our kin are our poorest consolation. Anyway, we hear little of David's six brothers or of their children. The children of his sisters, Joab, Abishai, Asahel, Amasa, these distinguished themselves. But what of his brothers and their children—his brothers who asked him just before he fought Goliath, "With whom did you leave those few sheep in the wilderness?" What of them? "No man would know me; refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul."

Friend in Need

There is a time when we, you and I, need friends; not mere suspicious-minded acquaintances waiting to see how we are going to come out, but real friends. Not mere companions in jollity or sin, but friends—people who love us and care for our souls; friends not afraid to speak a word of cheer when we are weary.

Ah, young or old, the time comes when the soul is tried. King Saul is dead and gone but there are plenty of his like yet alive today. Getting down to the reality of it they are, may be rich and powerful; maybe they are only the relatives, or henchmen, or tools, or "me-toos" of the rich and powerful. Such peoltroons have not the proper care for their own souls, let alone yours. Yea, not every one knows how to put the proper value on his soul. Nor does he care, for the other man's. He would send it to hell for less than a dime. What such as they know or care about a soul? All they want is the gratification of the lusts and ambiions of today. To be great in this world or to hobnob with the great or to feel themselves as belonging to or allied to the great; or worse still, to prey upon the great; that is all they want. "Money, money, money, give me money," is the clamor of the world today. The soul? Ah, who cares for it? The soul? What do you mean by that? Build a hospital for my body. Give me a shot of serium and add a few days, if you can, to my hectic existence—but my soul? Give me money; give me social distinction; give me power; give me pleasure. My soul? Oh,—ah-er-O well—No man cares for his soul any more; not many. That's passe, old-fashioned, fogy. I'm the son of a monkey, the developed offspring of a baboon. My soul? What do you mean my soul? Bah!

You'll See

But some time, some where, man must come face to face with his soul. Maybe unfortunately his starved out, neglected, warped, twisted, lie-steeped, sin-painted, selfish, hardened, sprained, unsaved soul—but nevertheless, his soul. That time runs some men crazy—women too. Some it drives to drink and dope. Some frantically seek amusement, jazz, whathot. They are running from their souls. They are trying to escape conscience and that reasoning that one must ere long do with one's soul. Some, come at last to see their souls condition, run into frantic, fantastic delusions and try to save it there—pity them.

An Intercessor Needed

But it is fine indeed at such a time to have someone to truly love you and really pray for you. It is blessed to have someone to pray for you. Only the truly spiritual, the faithful, the pious, the holy care for men's souls. Not every evangelist even cares for men's souls. They are after making church members and reputations. They hunt souls, not to save them, but to count them and exploit them. Yet there are true ones who care for souls.

One Who Cares

"No man cared for my soul." That's all right. Maybe not. But there is One who does. Jesus died for your soul. He loves it. He cares for it. In His name turn to God. Heaven is not money made. There is no hatred in heaven, except of sin, and Jesus put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. He'll look after the sin part for you. He'll take the load of your guilt. He cares. He cares for your soul—not just your influence, your property, your service. He cares for your soul.

"I cried unto Thee, O Lord. I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living. In thee will I hide. To Thee wil I turn for help, whatever the test that tries the soul. And Thou art my portion too. Let them drive me out, ostracize me, try to segregate me, scorn me. Maybe they think they have reason. I still have Thee left. Thou at my portion. Rich portion too is God. Worth while is He. Be a man. Face your soul. Give God a tryout. Let Him into your life. You'll find out something. Make trial today. Amen.

Christmas Tide At St. Paul

"Are you willing to believe that love is stronger than hate; stronger than evil; stronger than death, and the blessed life which began at Bethlehem nineteen hundred years ago is the image and brightness of the external love? Then you can keep Christmas not for a day, but always. We, therefore, wish you all, and to share with you all the abundant gladness and the true joy of our Lord's nativity."

The Lord bless thee and keep thee.

WHAT IS THE NATURE OF THE RACE PROBLEM?

I am asked by a correspondent who expresses interest in my release to discuss the propositions involved in the following interrogative:

1. Is the American Negro problem a political problem, and can it be solved by politics?

2. Is it a religious problem, and can it be settled by religion?

3. Is it an economic problem, and can it be solved by economics?

My general response is that all of these factors are efficient agencies in the solution of the race problem; but no one of them is sufficient. It wil require all of them operating separately and co-operating conjointly to bring about the desired solution. Ever with these it will poss bl yrequire additional agencies beyond those men tioned to effect the desired consumation.

In sociology, as in mathematics, before attempting to solve a prbolem you must first state it, with the involvement of certain known and unknown elements. When the unknown quantity is isolated and equated in terms of the known, the problem is said to be solved.

We know that there are two easily distinguishable groups of races, which have sundry different physical characteristics and peculiarities; that the white group has been and is the more numerous and controlling factor; that it possesses many acquired superiorities; and that a subtle something called race prejudice, has kept them socially asunder. If we can isolate race prejudice and bring it under the control of known principles, then we would be well on the way to solution While as yet no social analyst has been able to do this, yet we are warrantably satisfied that race prejudice will not yield to the dictates or the exigencies of politics. The Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments gave the Negro full political equality with the whites, but the exactions of race prejudice have practically nullified their intent and purpose. If politics could solve the race problem, the reconstruction enactments would have done so. Indeed the sanction of race prejudice is so controlling that it bids the American people make a scrap of paper out of their own constitution; and it is done. Even where indications are of sat sfactory solution.

Let us take the border states of Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, Kentucky and Missouri, where the Negro votes as freely as any other citizen, in those states the race problem is not solved nor is the final solution clearly indicated. These states practice all of the modes of race distinction and d'scrimination which we witness in the lower South where there is practically complete disfranchisement. Separate schools, jim-crow cars, segregation and anti-intermarriage laws constitute the general order. If the prevailing regime is less restrictive than is the lower South, it is not due to the fewer use of the ballot but to the relativity of the two populations. The fact is the privilege of exercising the right to vote is ever conditioned upon comparative number. The Negro votes freely in the North and West where his numbers are insignificant. In the border states where the race is relatively more numerous, the franchise, through unrestricted, has more than once been placed in jeopardy whenever it threatened to upset the demands of race prejudice. It is, therefore, plain to see that the franchise does not condition and control race prejudice, but is conditioned and controlled by it. What reason have we to suppose that the franchise would solve the race problem in the South, when it obviously fails to do so in the North? If every Negro in the United States had every political right demanded by the Equal Rights League or the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the problem would scarcely be shifted to a new plane, but would be as far from solution as it is today. No one ever heard of solving the Jewish problem by polit'cs. The Nineteenth Amendment has not solved the sixth problem. Politics creats so many problems not solved. It was not a hasty philosophy that injected this idea in the first place.

Politics has its own field and sphere. It has to do with the control and regulation of the government whose chief function is to protect life and property and to insure justice between man and man. Government cannot control the feelings, passions and prejudices of men except in so far as these interfere with the ends of justice.

The American people experienced a spasm of virtue during the anti-slavery conflict which culminated during the Civil War and its immediate aftermath. It did seem, for the moment, that the malignity of race prejudice was relaxing in the severity of its actions. During this propitious event, the Negro was given full political power and prerogative. Every safeguard that the law could devise was thrown about him to uphold and protect him in his recently bequeathed status. It was during this interval, when race prejudice was momentarily off guard, that the Negro reached the pinnacle of political power and preferment. Then we had Negro senators, congressmen, governors, judges and legislators widely scattered thruout the South. Washington was familiar with Negro senators, congressmen and registors, editors, recorders, marshals and foreign ministers. But also, where are they today? They have vanished as a school boy's tale, the wonder of an hour. They came at the time when race prejudice was held in obeyance by virtue of a greater passion. But as soon as the greater passion began to wane, race prejudice began to reassert itself and swiftly swept away all but the last vestige of the erstwhile political power and privilege once so generously enjoyed.

Today the Negro is rapidly approaching the sore point on the scale of political favor, because race prejudice is now in the accendancy. As good an organization as the Republican Party, and as good a president as Calvin Coolidge will not appoint a colored man to the high political stations formerly accorded the race, because race prejudce forbids. Negroes are excluded from high office and segregated in the civil service because race prejudice exists, and politics or politicians have not the moral courage to resist its demands.

From what has been said, the fair minded reader must be convinced that no early solution may be looked for through the agency of politics. But the political field should not be supinely surrendered. Because we cannot secure all, there is no reason why we should not be able to command much more than we are now securing. Ten million Negroes count for nullity in the state mainly because they do not wisely and skillfully marshall and manipuate their forces. There are still some few things that could be commanded upon the basis of political strength.

I wonder, by the way, if Mr. Matthews, of Massachusetts, with his fourteen points, is still alive and is still insisting on his ambitious scale of racial recognition. His bill of rights was moderated enough for ten million sovereign American citizens, and ye tnot a single one fo his fourteen points has received the slightest consideration from the friendly powers to whom they were presented. Who will have the temerity to repeat this audacious political fact of demanding race recognition? Will those fourteen points be again demanded during the approaching presidential campaign? I am hoping to see the Negro increase in his political preferment. I expect, as well as hope to live to see the time when larger recognition will be accorded the race. But I have no expectation or hope to live long enough, to see politics exercise a controlling influence over race prejudice or have any determinitative effect upon the solution of the race problem. Politics cannot solve the race problem; but the race problem cannot be solved without politics.

And now I have devoted all of my allotted time and space to this one interrogative alone. I shall return to the subject in some future release when I hope to treat with equal fullness the political and religious agency as factors in the solution.

Seeks to Block Discrimination in Appropriations

(By: A. N. P.)

Washington, Dec. 27.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, through its local president, Neval H. Thomas, has addressed a letter to Congressman Martin B. Madden, chairman of the house committee on appropriations, protesting against the discrimination exercised against colored schools in the appropriations for the current year.

In the allotments for new buildings and grounds the colored citizens of Washington are given but $525,000 out of a total of $3,750,000, according to the letter of Mr. Thomas.

"In the aggregate," writes Mr. Thomas, "the colored schools, already far behind the white in physical equipment due to accumulated shortages in appropriations, will receive but 15% of the appropriation for next year when we are nearly one-third of the total school population and attendance."

Many needs of the colored schools are emphasized in the letter, and Mr. Madden is called upon to come to the aid of the colored citizens of Washington in this instance as he has in others of the past.

Colored Catholics of St. Odilia's To Break Ground For New Church

On Sunday, January 2nd, at 3 P. M., ground will be solemnly broken for the new St. Odilia's Church. Impressive ceremonies will mark the event. A short afternoon service will be held in St. Odilia's Chapel, which up to the present time has served as a temporary place of worship. At the conclusion of the service the different church societies, the congregation, and the clergy will go in procession to the near by grounds, where the new church will be located. A cross wil be erected, the grounds will be blessed and dedicated forever to the service of God by the Very Rev. Ignatius Lissner, L. A. M., who will turn the first shovelful of earth. He will be followed by the incumbent pastor, the officers of the Church societies, and the members of the congregation. The address at the open-air service will be made by Father Schlecht.

The new edifice will be erected on a desirable corner lot at the intersection of Hooper and 53rd St., will be of Spanish Miss'on design, and will accommodate 400 people. Building operations will be started the first week of January, and it is hoped to complete the church for Easter.

St. Odilia's was started on January 10th, 1926, to serve as a bond of solidality between the Colored Catholics of this city. The congregation is progressive and has grown rapidly, while numerous converts have been received into the church during the past months.

Lately a Convent for three Sisters doing settlement work among our people has been provided thruough the splendid co-operation of all the church members.

Rev. Edmund J. Schlecht, L. A. M., is pastor of St. Odil'a's.

NEWS FROM THE FERRIS FAMILY

Wellington, New Zealand,
November 28, 1926.

THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE,
Los Angeles, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Bass: We are writing to inform you of the welfare of the Ferris Jazzland Revue.

We had quite a nice trip over on the R. M. S. "Tahiti" as the Pacific was calm and peaceful. Only a few of the young ladies were seasick. It was a pleasant nineteen day journey. There were two sea burials.

We stopped at Papeete, capital of Tahiti Island and gave an afternoon performance. We made a barrel of money, which we have yet. We tried to exchange it on our arrival here and found it was worth only a few cents as Tahiti Island is a French and the Francs are considered less than pennies.

We are now on our eighth successful week here.

The seasons are opposite here from there. November, December and January are the summer months here. We are having unusual weather here for this time of the year, plenty rain and floods.

I must say this seems like one big garden, you can ride day in and day out and everywhere you see ferns and flowers of all varieties and berries growing wild.

The people are very kind and courteous and do everything to impress you that this is the greatest little spot in the world.

We wish all friends a Merry Xmas and Happy New Year.

Yours sincerely,
BISMARK FERRIS.

The following clipping shows how the Ferris family is liked in New Zealand:

"Ferris Jazzland Revue

"An appreciative audience was in attendance at the second and final appearance last night at the Opera house of the Ferris Jazzland Revue Company. The entertainment, as on the first night, as characterised by its extreme brightness.

"There was not a dull moment in the show. The eccentric dancing and clever patter of the performers sustained the audience's interest throughout the evening. Old folk songs and plantation melodies were popular features and popular jazz hits were also provided by the jazz band, who proved themselves to be syncopators of exceptional merit."

IN NEW YORK

BY: C. A. B.

HOWDY FRIENDS:

Here I am in New York, to my mind, the world's greatest metropolis

It was about the middle of October when I came to New York, and even though I was a little late I immediately went to Columbia University and signed up for Journalism and Public Speaking. Day by day in every way I am getting more out of these courses which I hope will help better prepare me for the work I hope to accomplish in California for the advancement of our people in that section.

Among the week-end visits of interest was first to Newark, N. J., where I visited my sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. K. Carter and Mrs. M. E. Churchman of East Orange, all of whom took me sightseeing about the places of interest n Newark and East Orange.

On November 16th in company with my sisters and nephew we visited the Sesqui-Centennial at Philadelphia, Penn., and at the close of the second day had not seen everything of interest on the grounds.

We first stopped at the Pittsburgh Building which was a mammoth structure and dated back to 1763 showing that even as early as that it was one of the outposts of civilization. Pittsburgh is the home of the "Pittsburgh Courier," one of the Negro's leading journals; the University of Pittsburgh; Carnegie Institute of Technology; Duquesne University; Pennsylvania College for Women and showed Pittsburgh to be the fifth city of the country in banking resources as wall as the world's greatest iron, steel, glass and Heins factories center.

We had only to cross the great terrace which landed us into the church of the New Jerusalem where we listened in on a radio program given on one of the largest radios we had ever seen. The church of the New Jerusalem is built on the doctrine of Swedenborg, the well-known scientist and philosopher.

Seamen's Church Institute had also on display many far reaching aspects of the religious field it covers.

The Philadelphia School of Design had on display many specimens of fine art.

The next point of interest we visited was the Sesqui-Centenial model Post Office. This building was not only the home of the Post Office, but was also a dispensary of free Post Cards of the buildings and activities of the exposition. There was a gallery running across the four sides of the model Post Office which gave the observer a full view of all operations and machines in action. On display were early postal records, reports, guides, postal motor vehicle service, pneumatic tube for mail transportation, machine making gvernment stamped envelopes, postmarking and canceling machines as well as tools, guns and portraits of notorious criminals. This Post Office is a marvel in modern machinery, and a demonstration of not man, but machine power, the most modern in the world.

Finding that our time was growing short we decided to scan most of the buildings of minor importance, and thus save time for the points of greatest interest which was the Educational Building, the largest we believe among them. While we were interested in everything going on at the "Sesqui" all the time we had our eyes open for whatever part the Negro was playing in this human drama of past, present and future history of the world's greatest nation, for one hundred and fifty years.

Upon entering the Education Building we saw at once that here was a day of intellectual feasting. Just inside the door was a fountain of information furnished by the National Nursing Organizations, and the American Red Cross, from which one could secure information as to how to secure good health by proper eating, sleeping and exercise. The most modern hospital equipment was on display and books and periodicals containing informations, and records of the best nurse training schools in the country and diagrams of the known diseases that infect the nation today. Pictures of famous health resorts stretching over the nation and charts showing the work of the X-Ray and Violet machines, as well as radium treatment for straightening crooked limbs.

We also observed, on display, one of the first printing presses put on the market, that was housed in one of the first country print shops of American type and style.

Among the greater institutions of learning on exhibition at the exposition were Lincoln, Princeton, Pennsylvania and Temple University and Hampton, best of which display excellent taste and arrangement. In chronological order they clearly "Ace" Foreman to Fly to N. Y. with Greetings From N. A. A. C. P.

The afternoon of February 25, 1927 will mark the first attempt of a Negro to wing his way from Coast to Coast. Numerous flights have been made across the continent, but "Ace" Foreman will be the first boy of our Race to attempt such a daring undertaking. With him will go his mechanician, Mr. Artis N. Ward, whom he has been teaching the art of flying. Ward, who has a diploma from the American School of Aviation, is said to be an expert airplane mechanic and also a member of the American Society of Experimental engineers.

Foreman will follow the mail route via Reno, Salt Lake and Cheyenne where he will have to attain an altitude of 10,000 feet to cross the Green River mountains of Wyoming. This is the shortest air rout to New York, but it is also considered the most dangerous at this time of year because of the heavy snowfall and frequent storms encountered in crossing the Rockies.

As to whether Foreman will make the flight successfully, no one knows, but our thoughts and good wishes should be with him, and every Negro in Los Angeles, should be at the field when these boys leave to wish them luck and God speed to the first Negro to attempt to fly from California to New York.

The Los Angeles branch of the N. A. A. C. P. is arranging to send greetings to the head office in New York, and every person on the field will have the privilege of sending a greeting card to their friend back East.

SUE WALTER COHEN FOR TAXES

(By: A. N. P.)

New Orleans, La., Dec. 27.—United States Attorney Wayne G. Borah has filed suit in the federal court to recover taxes and penalities due the collector of internal revenue by Walter L. Cohen, comptroller of customs, John H. Lowery and B. V. Baraneo, officers of the Peoples' Industrial Life Insurance Company which it succeeded. Cohen is head of the company. The company is also made defendant to the action which is directed at enforcing payment of $1,780.61 which remained unpaid when the Peoples Benevolent Company was dissolved in April, 1922, and its assets divided among Cohen and the other officers and members. The defendants claim that taxes are not owed and that the dissolved company discharged its obligations to the government at the time of its dissolution. The government contends that the distribution of the assets of the dissolved company constituted a trust for the discharge of the federal taxes and that the several persons concerned should be held responsible for the unpaid amount.

A Little Child in the Pennsylvania Station

(By: A. N. P.)

The holiday season was on, and the great Pennsylvania station was filled with hurrying hundreds. In the main waiting room there was a Negro mother with a little two-year old baby girl, bundled for the weather in a woolen Teddy Bear suit, and cap. The mother was indulgent, and the little youngster walked aimlessly through the waiting room. Sympathetic and cordial smiles and nods greeted her. She strolled beside a drinking fountain. Three charming and aristocratic appearing white ladies had gone there for a drink. One dropped her penny in the slot, got a paper cup, filled it, and turning sweetly to the child said: "Do you wish a drink?" with the question she held a cup of water to the baby lips, and the little one drank eargerly, while the other two looked on cheerfully—and others were looking, but the three were oblivious Patting the little one gently on the cheek, she took the same cup, filled it, drank, waved a bye-bye to the baby, joined in by the other two, and went away.

What promises to be an outstanding feature of the New Year is a Great Emancipation Celebration to be given at the Second Baptist Church, Sunday afternoon, January 2nd, under the auspices of the Second Baptist Brotherhood, which program has been endorsed by many of Los Angeles, leading organizations, and the purpose of which is to impress the good of Emancipation and to emphasize the necessity of using it in larger measures.

Among other special attractions, Attorney Willis O. Tyler, noted orator, prominent and brilliant attorney, and counsel for the N. A. A. C. P., will be the principal speaker. There will be patriotic hymns, violin and vocal selections, an organ voluntary, a choir anthem, music by the Second Baptist male quartette, reading of the Emancipation Proclamation, Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, and brief remarks consistent with the nature and spirit of th eprogram.

The public is extended a very special invitation.

Divorce Indicated For Wife of Roscoe Simmons

(By: A. N. P.)

Chicago, December 28.—According to the indicated intention of Judge John P. McGoorty of the Superior Court here, Mrs. Charlotte Simmons, wife of Roscoe Conkling Simmons, nationally known orator and formerly one of the editors of the Chicago Defender, wil be granted a divorce from her husband on charges of cruelty and drunkenness.

In her bill for divorce, Mrs. Simmons catalogues a number of the usual complaints against her celebrated husband, revealing traits of her husband with which the public is not supposed to be acquainted. He is accused of abusing her, striking her, throwing her down the stairs of their home, chasing her out of the home so that she had to seek protection from the neighbors, and jealousy.

Mrs. Simmons is the former Charlotte Ebbs, a member of an old line Louisville, Ky., family. She was married to Mr. Simmons Christmas day 1924; the orator is said to have mortgaged his home to give her a $5,000 Christmas present.

Her bill has not been answered. Mr. Simmons is not in the city, and it has been impossible to get in touch with him.

ELK TREASURER MUST FACE TRIAL

(By: A. N. P.)

Chicago, December 23.—Frank W. Henry, treasurer of Fort Dearborn Elk Lodge, No. 44, was returned here this week from New Orleans, where he was apprehended by Chicago detectives who had sought him after a warrant had been sworn out for him, alleging embezzlement of the lodge's funds.

According to statements mad by James Martin, exalted ruler of the order, Henry has misappropriated $1856 of the lodge funds since last April.

Henry, until little more than a year ago, was a partner in the undertaking firm of Poole and Henry. Poole moved out and went into business for himself. Henry's establishment was destroyed by fire, but friends, including Martin, aided him in bringing his business together ag'n.

MUSICIANS PROGRESSIVE ASSOCIATION ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Maude Rosemond-Watson acted as hostess and Mr. John A. Gray and Mrs. Gazella Gaston had charge of the musical program.

COMMENTS

By:
W. J. WHEATON

Even the President of the United States seems to have the wrong slant—color complex—when it comes to the consideration of the proper attitude which this government should take toward its citizens. Even he seems to forget that the Constitution of the United States guarantees to all alike is fullest protection. Why should any part of the citizenry be designated? Why should the darker hued people be designated and set apart for special legislations? It is law not special legislation which is desired but the enforcement of the law or laws which guarantees that protection. The crime of lynching is not only lawless but it breeds a disregard for constituted authority and undermines the stability of the government. It matters not what the racial connection of the victim of a mob might be, the fact that a law has been violated should be suff'cient to cause the arm of the law to reach out, grasp and punish the violator.

While it is a fact that the majority of the mob victims are Colored citizens and that there seems, in some sections of the country, to be manifestations of racial hatreds, the anti-lynching bill was designed to punish the persons who indulged in those atrocious orgies without regard to lineage. No special legislation is sought by the Colored citizen of the United States. He does not want to be set as'de for any special privilege. Having played his part in founding, preserving and maintaining the sovereignty of the government under which he lives he only asks that that government accord him the same rights accorded every other citizen and the laws granting those rights be strictly enforced The President must be congratulated in omitting one of the stock phrases so much used: "Social Equality" That much abused slogan has at last, let us hope, become obsolete where the colored race in the United States is concerned.

This is a day that calls for trained men and women to fill the professions and make successes in the marts of trade. The intricate machinery of business, especially, calls for training that will strengthen character; promote hohesty, and make for efficiency. Without these there will appear the man who tries to live by his wits, veneer his dishonesty with a smattering of generalities, and then, at last, when the light of publicity begins to show the shallowness of their pretentions, fades from the picture like the mist before the bright rays of the sun. Often they leave behind them a trail of broken trusts that cause no end of sorrows. Broken homes; penniless widows and sorrowing orphans. All of that comes from trying to do that for which you have made no preparation. "Be yourself." It's a wonderful say'ng. Often when you are thinking that you fool the public you are but fooling yourself, and with disastrous results; results which lead either to a prison cell or an untimely grave.

The Hon. Senator from South Carolina, Cole Blease, has a case of "Righteous Indignat'on." He accuses the senators elect, Smith of Ill., Vare of Penn., Gould of Maine of being illegially elected to that body and says that Senator Peper of Penn., should be kicked out of the senate. Did one ever hear of such rank blatant ranting? How did the senator from Palmetto State—some of whose inhabitants rightly deserve the nick name of "Weasels"—break into that august body? Can he, or any of the men who represent a southern constituency say that they have been legally elected? What about the hundreds of thousands who are not, because of their race, allowed the right to vote? Surely the representatives from that section of the United States cannot claim legality in their election when two-thirds of the citizens of the sections which they represent are forcibly kept from voting. If the senatorial boot should be applied it could find no better mark than the senatorial seats of Cole Blease and his colors.

Blease is one of the demagogical foes of justice who beclond the real racial issues by violent rhetoric. Racial equal'ty is their most effective slogan in creating racial antagonisms. They seek to place a barrier in the path of every effort made to create a more thorough understanding. Every prate of national loyalty and patriotism while openly breaking the law and flaunt their defiance in the face of Constituted Authority, as designated by the Constitution of the United States. It will be well for the Senate to investigate who shall sit in the seats of the righteous, they will find many whose claims to immunity will be forfeited and commissions issued with fraud.

Ex-Soldier "Howls" On Community Chest

I am an ex-soldier, formerly of the 9th Cavalry, who was transferred to the 5th Illinois Infantry. I was in the U. S. Hospital at Portland, Oregon and Tacoma, Washington at different times, also at Sawtelle in the hospital section. I applied at the Red Cross and the American Legion for help, also the D. A. V. But they would not assist me. But some white men came in and were given $15.00 a piece by the Red Cross. When I asked for $5.00 they gave me nothing at all. I was overseas 26 months, was shot 4 times, am sick now, and am really in need of help.

The organizations I mentioned above receive their money from the Community Chest and it is supposed to be used in aiding ex-service men, but they do not aid the colored soldiers.

I make this appeal to my people so that you might know that these organizations show partiality to such an extent as to flatly refuse to help colored men who have every claim to their assistance. Yet when soliciting they claim to help anyone whose condition is made known to them and is needful.

EMANCIPATION CELEBRATION TO BE FEATURE OF NEW YEAR

The Emancipation program to be given at the Second Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, January 2nd, 1927, under the auspices of the Second Baptist Brotherhood, which program has received the endorsement of many leading local organizations, promises to be an especial feature of the New Year.

Mr. Willis O. Tyler, prominent and brilliant local attorney, has been secured as a principal speaker, and this, in company with other expressions and attended by musical selections from some Los Angeles' most popular artists, will make a program significant in itself, even disregarding the worthy cause of Emancipation for which it is to be given.

Further details will be announced later. But that the date, Sunday afternoon, January 2nd, 1927, may be reserved, we come now to forecast the occasion.

Fred W. Lucas, Furlong Tract, Passed Away

In some manner the article which gave an account of the death of Fred W. Lucas, prominent, in political circles, and as a real estate dealer, was omited from our previous issue.

Mr. Lucas passed away after a brief illness at his home in the Furlong Tract. It seems that he contracted too deep a cold while investigating some mining properties in the northern section of the state, the cold developed into double pneumonia resulting in his death on December 1th.

Mr. Lucas leaves a widow, a sister, Mrs. Mattie Lucas Henson, 1041 2ast 29th Street, and a host of friends who mourn his loss.

Reception For Captain William Glenn

PRESS WILL GIVE MONSTER RECEPTION HONORING CAPT. WILLIAM GLENN, RETIRED POLICE OFFICER

Arrangements are being made by the combined Press of our city, consisting of the California Eagle, New Age-Dispatch, and Pacific Defender to give, in honor of Captain William Glenn, who retired on the 31st inst, after 25 years of service on the Los Angeles police force, retiring as Captain of detectives—a monster banquet.

The Colored Press of Los Angeles as stated above believes that in doing honor for this accomplishment we but compliment ourselves.

The reception will be given at the Bronx Hall, Tuesday evening, January 11th, to which the public will be invited. Full details of this epoch making event will appear in our next issue. The Press invites the co-operation of all the people to make this occasion what it should be.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos Pursley of Monrovia were host and hostess to eight of their friends at an elaborately appointed dinner party Sunday, December 26th. The food was excellent and enjoyed to the highest. The guests were entertained with music after dinner and when making their departure extended New Year Greetings and thanks to their host and hostess.

Aiken, S. C. Again in Limelight With "Miscegenation" Case

(By: A. N. P.)

New York, Dec. 17.—The lynching community of Aiken, South Carolina is again in the limelight with a "miscegenation" case, according to information reaching the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 69 Fifth Avenue.

White people in the community between the towns of Windsor and White Pond have threatened "trouble" to a young married couple if they try to live in their home because the young husband, Arthur Munday, is accused of having colored blood. Munday was arrested after his marriage, charged with "posing as a white man" and later released in $1,000 bond. A local newspaper reports:

"Munday gave bond and is now at liberty, but it is understood that he has been plainly told by citizens of the community that if he should undertake to return there with his wife there would be trouble.

"The crime of miscegenation, charged against him is severely dealt with under the laws of this State, a penalty being fixed of from not less than 12 months and a fine of $500 to ten years and a fine of from $2,000 to $3,000 upon conviction. This is to prevent intermarriage between the races.

"The woman in the case is said to be crushed by the charges that have been brought and the developments following her marriage."

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Hunt of Glassell street entertained with a sumptuous Christmas dinner, having as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Meadows, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Van Norton and their children, the Misses Theresa, Bernice, Masters Charles and Harold. The color scheme was red and green and the centerpiece was a huge bouquet of poinsettas. Mr. Meadows was delightfully surprised to find an elegant gold watch, a gift from his wife, in his plate.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Allen of 1553 East 33rd Street, entertained a family reunion with a seven course dinner Saturday, December 25, 1926. Their house was beautifuly decorated with holly mistletoe.

After dinner Mr. Alton Redd, son of Mrs. Elvira Allen, played Santa Claus by presenting the family of over 100 gifts from the Christmas tree.

The members of the family present were: Mr. J. S. Mallett, Ella and Harry Mallett: Mrs. Daniel Webster, Vivian, Dorothy and Geralding Webster; Mrs. J. A. Stafford and son, Harold; Mr. and Mrs. A. Williams and their five children; Mr. and Mrs. Stanaslaws, and their three children; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Allen, and son, Alton, Redd and Laura Webster, neice of Mrs. Allen from New Orleans, La.; Mrs. Mossitt, Kansas City; Mrs. A. Hightower, sister of Mrs. Allen and Harold Clark.

GLADYCE GREENAWAY

He, Ho! We hope everyone had a wh-p-roaring-sizzling Christmas week. Everyone we've seen and talked with has said they had a good time. So it must be so.

* * * *

A new song entitled "I Want My Ma-Ma" will soon be published. This song was written and sung very effectively Christmas evening. The writer wishes to remain annonymous. Mystery surrounds this songbird and we are sure that some of those birds over at the "U" who think they are "detectives" will unravel it. Oh Curtis!

* * * *

Walter Gregory is sporting a regular sized he-man ring and says that "this here" ring will never leave his finger. That's a challenge to the girls.

* * * *

Walter Floyd, our Westside Athlete, has at last received all his medals back from various girls. He has twenty-one (not girls—medals). We hope that Lucille will see to it that Walter does not give away any of his medals.

* * * *

Famous last words: "We're doing sixty now. Here comes a motorcycle cop trying to race us. Let's step on it."

* * * *

We take this opportunity of wishing Eloise and Bill Allen (Mr. and Mrs.) a Happy New Year and many, many years of happiness. Eloise and Bill are our very newest newlyweds.

* * * *

Miss LaVera White had a few friends over Sunday and we really mean they had a good time. LaVera can be depended upon to see that her friends have a good time. The latest Eddie Peabody recorus were played on the "fonegraf."

* * * *

We dedicate the following verse to the bozo who thought he would be on easy stroet when he married:

"You find you've been treated quite rough
Before marriage you believed lots of stuff
About all the dough
Your wife would bestow
And now you find it's all blough."

Ha, Ha!

* * * *

Does anyone look more chic and "parisy" than Bebe and Fidda Westbrook of Poly in their new suits and bonnets? Nay, Nay!

* * * *

We'd like to know who made that wise crack the other night about milk being a good gargle for sore throat if mixed with other ingredients. We won't be wrong if we say that New Year's Eve will find lots of sore throats being treated.

* * * *

Advice to those who are timid around Thanksgiving, Christmas or New Year's:

"We know it's not proper
We know it's not race
But the bird who howls the loudest
Generally gets the biggest slice".

If the above advice is used constantly you will find that it works. Call the ambulance.

* * * *

Well, well, here's hoping you get home New Year's Day—some time. See you in Sunday School.

The Achievement Social Club had their Christmas party, December 23rd and had a large crowd and a nice time also good music. At the last meeting we elected officers for the coming year: Mr. W. Marshall, Pres.; Miss F. Johnson, Vice; Miss E. Fortier Sect.-Treas. Officers will be installed next meeting, January 4th, at the home of Miss Fortier, 923 E. 33rd Street. We are going to have a special prdgram. Come out and be with us.

THE FORUM

Many interesting matters were taken up at the Forum, Sunday. The Committee's report on the revised constitution was partly adopted.

The Forum will celebrate the sixty-third anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation, Sunday, January 2nd. A very splendid program has been arranged. Attorney E. Burton Ceruti will deliver the principal address.

All who appreciate what our forefparents passed through in this country should be present to give expression to this occasion.

PONCE DE LEON DIED SEARCHING FOR THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

Traveling through the murky swamps of Florida, Ponce De Leon the ancient explorer, hoped to find a fabled fountain springing from the earth that would miraculously change him from old age to youth. There never was, nor ever will be any such fountain, but there is a remedy advertised elsewhere in this issue manufactured by the Fount O'Youth Laboratory which hundreds have already testified to its wonderful restorative qualities. It is called the Gold Seal German blood tonic.

MEMORIAM

In fond remembrance of my beloved husband who passed away December 2, 1926 and my dear dear brother who passed on December 7 1925.

'Tis sad dear ones to give you up,
But God wants you, I know
To help make up his precious jewels,
On that bright and golden shore.
You are happy in that better land,
With loved ones who are so dear
Waiting on that golden shore,
Longing to greet you there.

Sleep on dear ones the time is not far
When the gates for me, too, will stand ajar
We will meet in that city, where there is no sorrow
No pain, no deaths, no day
Call ed tomorrow; we will meet in that beautiful home above,
And dwell forever in God's eternal love.

A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

December the 11th will never be forgotten by Mr. S. M. Maddox, of 1729 E. 52nd street. Out of his many birthday celebrations, there are none to be remembered as the one just passed.

To the younger set a birthday is an event to celebate and rejoice over, but Mr. Maddox was looking at his with a different significance, it reminded him that he was one year nearer the end. In youth, one does not dwell on upon this thought, but rather upon what the bright future has in store.

But when Mr. Maddox returned home in the evening from the American Express Company's office, his place of employment, his thoughtful and beloved wife had invited about fifty guests, the house had all been arranged, the guests all seated and the lights all out, he rang the doorbell, his little, kind wife hurried and opened th edoor, he walked in and instead of greeting her as usual he asked why the lights were not turned on, she hurried and pushed on the lights, and to his surprise and delight, his many, many friends were all seated as thick as could be around the room, with the center table laden with nice presents presented in token of their deep appreciation to him on his birthday celebration. Mr. Maddox lost his speech for a while, and he has never been able to thank his many friends for such a wonderful surprise. After his birthday celebration has passed, he feels much younger than before, just to know that he had so many friends.

Mr. Maddox takes this method to express his sincere thanks and deep appreciation to every one who took a part in this great surprise.

members f the Seminole Indian Nation in the State of Florida to end the truce made for them by Chief Osceola with the United States Government in the year 1837 and to become citizens of the United States by swearing allegiance to the Government, and to take such other legal and necessary steps all legal restrictions which have heretofore prevented them from enjoying all the rights and privileges accorded other nations and peoples by the United States. In the councils with the people of my various tribes, I, as the ordained Chief of the Seminole Indian people in all Florida, have been authorized to take such steps as I deem advisable to bring a more amicabl erelationship with the United States Government." This is signed by Ha-Thron-War-Har-Chee, known in the venacular as "Tony Tommy."

Thus the last defiance of the Indian comes to an end. How many of us remember the defiance of Osceola? "Blaze with your serried columns, I will not bend the knee." How many remember the origm of that tribe? Was it the Indian or the African blood that gave it such stamina? There is a family chronicle of how one John Green leaving the Everglades of Florida was a rifle marksman under Jack son at the battle of New Orleans and for his prowess was given citizenship. He migrated to Maryland and established a family. Some of his descendants are now living. It has been more than ninety years past since Osceola made his truce with the Government. For seven years, after 1835 the second war of the Seminoles was waged, it cost the lives of thousands as well as millions of dollars. It was the bloodiest and possibly the costliest of any of the Indian wars.

showed the advancement made in art and science, and had also on exhibition their first and last graduation class.

After some inquiry we learned that the Negro exhibit was in charge of Mr. G. Grant Gilmore in the Agricultural Building and we immediately started out in search of the same, and to our great surprise found that the display was not what one would expect. To our mind in face of the actual achievements of the Negroes in this section it would have been better to have had no representation than to have had such a conspicuously poor one.

"Sesqui" was both Educationally and artistically a success, but we think that it will be more than an hundred and fifty years before Philadelphia spens quite so much money for the entertainment for 25,000,00 and receive a compensation of 5000,-000,000.

While in Philadelphia we stopped at the Douglass, a beautifully appointed hotel manned by colored, but after some little investigaton we found that a syndicate owned and operated by whits men was building hotels in cities stretching across the country, naming them after colored persons, and to some extent placing colored managers in them, and the Douglass was one of these hotels. We were somewhat surprised especially when we learned the next morning that the porter, at the station, where we came in on a late train, sent us to the Douglass in face of the fact that a hotel just around the corner was owned and operated by colored persons.

And from San Francisco to New York, the Negro is the target at which all other races hurl their prejudices.

UPTON'S RAILROAD CLATTER

By Chas. L. Upton

TO MY READERS

I have always wanted to meet the man that invented two big holidays within a week of each other. New Year's is the greatest holiday in the world for an alibi; for instance, you receive a Xmas card from some friend that you have entirely forgotten, all you have to do is to return the compliment on New Year's and everything is hotsy totsy.

Xmas week all the big people and great big people told you through the columns of this wonderful paper about their work, ambitions and many other things which were of vital importance to the community at large; I do not believe I have read a finer article with so much constructive advice, then the one written by our Hon. Policewoman Georg'a A. Robinson. The sentiments and desires of Chief of Police Jas. E. Davis, shows an appeal for co-operation which cannot be denied as without prejudice, while our friend Capt. L. L. McClary stands out clearly for equal rights as far as the law is concerned. This has not only been shown to us, but proven in his past admin'stration at the Newton Street Police Station. We might mention a good word for the splendid record achieved by our Fire Department, the only one of our race in the city. Our Newton Street Detective force is without equal in any city. Our Sports writer on the Eagle staff, Mr. Harry Levette has made wonderful progress during the short period he has been connected with it, always furnishing us with the latest in clean sports and ever ready to give a helping hand to some athlete who is striving to attain honors in the sporting world. Our editor, Mr. Bass is ever ready to fight to the last ditch for the equal rights of his people, a fearless leader at all times; he has been especially liberal in giving the railroad men a column in his paper in which to express their views.

This week, which is the beginning of 365 more days of m'sery or pleasure, or what have you? the editor has requested the Eagle staff to gas the pubic with a few ines of their own particuar ine, and as I am about the smallest fish on the Eagle staff, it is my earnest desire to give the public first hand information about the Railroad man.

The great value of the raliroad man in many instances is underestimated. The railroad man of today is not the same care-free, spend-thrift type which you came in contact with 20 years ago; he is thrifty, economical, progressive, and considerate. He has learned to invest his money wisely in business and real estate, he has profitted by his older brothers experience, with the result that he is now classed as the highest type of citizen. His reliability is no longer questioned and considered a risk as in years gone by, but to the contrary, his patronage is earnestly solicited by all those who are striving through competition for greater business. Society columns would not be complete without the mention of him as a guest to this social function and that social function. He is considered the back-bone of an econom'cal epidemic that has recently struck the Negro race throughout the country. His financial support is a big factor to the various church, Y. M. C. A's. Cloored Insurance Companies and banking institutions. In fact, I might venture so far as to say that the Railroad Man is connected with three-fourths of the Black American industries of this country. For instance, if the Railroad Man should withdraw his financial support from Central avenue, which is the nucleus of colored business in this city, you would witness a marked depression within a few days. He is always a willing and cheerful giver to charity. His traveling experiences enable him to discuss intelligently on most any topic and with authority. But does he receive the support that he gives?

Pastors of churches should have at the very least one Sunday set aside a month as a Railroad Man's day; instruct their congregation to come in closer contact with him, charge each member to bring a Railroad Man along with them to church on that particular Sunday, for he of a different town in a strange city is confronted with many evils which the coming year of 1927 with new fast train service established, putting us five hours closer to Chicago and the East, this in itself should have a tendency to inspire us as a forerunner to the prosperity that this city shall derive from the same; the Railroad Man and Woman shall play an important part on this program, without his courtesy, good service, honesty and reliability it cannot be a success. The migration of Eastern capital and Eastern tourist would soon get discouraged from coming here if they had to contend with an inferior class of railroad men. He is a cog in the great wheel of progress and prosperity for the year of 1927. May he contine the good work that he had accomplished during the year of 1926.

Wishing the Railroad Man and his Family and the Readers of this, the Railroad Clatter, a most Happy New Year and hoping you had a still greater Xmas, I remain,

Your humble servant,
CHAS. L. UPTON.

Indian Christians Renounce Faith

(By: A. N. P.)

New York, Dec. 23.—That Christianity is losing ground among the Indians of the East is attested by recent accounts of the restoration of 10,000 Indian Christians to the Hindu faith in one day at a recent ceremony. Several Swamis of the Hindu missions are said to have united for the purpose, while local preachers and officials worked day and night for two days to assure the success of the ceremonies.

The movement to win back Hindus who have turned Christian is gaining ground, according to these reports. The Hindu Sabha organization to combat Christianity's spread started some years ago to bring back Hindus. In the Moplah riots in 1920 thousands of Hindus were forced to embrace Mohammedanism.

Mohammedanism is having the same success all over North Africa, and is spreading south, according to the reports of missionaries over there. They claim that Christianity now has its back to the wall, its enemy now being, not paganism, but another powerful religion in which the native finds greater solace, and whose emissaries open him up to less oppression. The Christian trader following the Christian missionary has been the bane of the native.

Hide Pennsylvania Suspects From Mob

(By: A. N. P.)

Media, Pa., Dec. 28.—After warnings had been sent to Gov. Pinchot that trouble might arise, Ollie Strickland, alleged confessed killer of a young white woman, and Amos Wilson and Walter Webb, condemned to die for the murder of a white man, were removed by an order of Judge W. Roger Fronefield from the Delaware County jail to the Eastern penitentiary in Philadelphia. Posses of whit efarmers were said to have been threatening the jail. The district attorney sought to prevent the removal of the last two men, fearing that such an action would jeopardize the chance of exacting the penalty which has been imposed upon them.

TELLS SOUTH TO LET THE NORTH ALONE

(By: A. N. P.)

Washington, Dec. 23.—Southern Democrats who oppose modification of the Volstead Act are advised in a letter to the Thomas Jefferson League to remember what the South did to nullify the spirit of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments in taking the ballot away from the Negro. The letter was written by L. A. Whipple, an attorney of Cochran, Ga. It is Mr. Whipple's belief that the North should be let alone to nullify the spirit of the Eighteenth Amendment so long as the South is permitted to laugh at the Fourteenth and Fifenth. Otherwise, he argues, something may happen to make the South change its position.

SPIRIT OF GOOD WILL

We dined Christmas breakfast at the home of our office foreman and it was indeed among our best experiences at the thoughtfulness and intuition of his good wife of what was just the right menu to set forth. Had we ordered it ourselves with a four days' warning no breakfast which we have ever ate could excell the one prepared on Xmas day by Mrs. D. H. Hamilton, one of our very lovely and esteemed matrons, who in a quiet and unostentatious manner with comfort and all the necessities live in their neat little home with little Miss Hamilton on East Adams Street. This courtesy is one of the bright spots of a very strenuous year.

The next day we were again so fortunate as to get there late but in time to a great feast at the home of our good friends Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanders, and the huge bird which these good people had prepared began to diminish, even though we were far unequal to the task of making the job one hundred per cent. With graciousness of manner Mrs. Sanders prepared and Mr. Sanders served, and truly the spirit of hospitality, and good will reigned supreme. We were taken on memory's wings way back to school days when we attended the same school and marveled that time in its flight even though thousands of miles distant had provided this feast in the home of the schoolmate of long ago.

These two happenings, while in a manner are wholly personal, our pen could not resist the true spirit of real democracy, good will and true fellowship, which guards us in this editorial comment.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

With the incoming year of 1927 the highest ambition of man can well be his improvement over the preceding years. This improvement should cover every angle of life and includes the banishment of prejudice in all of its forms. Men must be just to their fellowmen and this truly would make living worth while.

A NEW PROGRAM

The meeting of the State legislative body at Sacramento next week promises to be an interesting and we hope a profitable one from every viewpoint. A new administration with a progressive program will mean much for the future of our great commonwealth.

INSPIRATION

To put all the emphasis on the value of an education is a mistake in so far as education without inspriation is valueless. Only when you include inspiration as an element of education or one of its by-products can you rate education above all other advantages. There are educated men, well read and intelligent men who are of little value to themselves or society because they have not that divine spark of inspiration which puts education to work without which education can not work.

Education comes to man through reading, talking and thinking. Inspiration comes with it through the right kind of reading, the right kind of conversation and the deep and profound sort of thought. In other words, some literature conveys book learning and other literature proposes only to inspire the reader, to lift him out of his work-a-day stupor.

Unknown to many, the human mind, by proper impetus, is capable of kindling the divine spark of inspiration. There are many workmen who are stirring their creative ambitions by daily meditation on the ideals of their occupation and upon the vast possibilities lying dormant in their field of labor. No man ever suffered by imagining his job bigger than it really was. Of such imaginings is inspiration made.

Inspiration hitched up to education or just plain knowledge is making men, communities, nations, business enterprises and all the great inventive, industrial and commercial marvels of the twentieth century.

"There can be no great and lasting work without inspiration," wrote Emerson.

Anybody ever hear a flapper sing "Home, Sweet Home?"

Granddad may have been a sod buster, but not on the golf links.

That big hole in the family budget is where the turkey went through.

Who remembers when a girl with an unattractive face had to let it go at that?

Mother kept that school-girl complexion by occasionally walking five or ten miles past a lot of drug stores.

Cheese, says a dietitian, is one of the oldest of foods, and no archaeological expedition was needed to unearth that fact.

Whatever became of the old fashioned girl who, at this time of year, had a dresser drawer full of doilies and fancy work prepared for Christmas giving?

Captain McClary To Address Interdenominational Ministers' Alliance, On Monday December 27th

Among the many interesting visitors of the Ministers' Meeting and of the many fine, wholesome, helpful speeches that were made before that body of world leaders and guardians of civilization we refer to a few of the things that were said by Captain L. L. McClary of the Newton street station.

It was not the many words of the Captain that moved this body of Christian watchmen to endorse the programme of Captain McClary, but it was the soul of the man and the principles that actuate that soul and his express purpose of making these principles a living reality. The Captain who believes in Jesus Christ as the San of God and who knows Him as a personal Savior, should find a place in our programme of life, that each man will be his best only in so far as he subscribes to these ideals. He believes that a better understanding and closer relationship between the Church and the Courts of Justice is necessary and will be better for all concernd. Therefore he appealed for ministerial co-operation.

EXTRACTS FROM SPEECH

Captain McClary said that, he "appealed to the ministry to cooperate with the law enforcement agents for the protection of our homes, our community and our country". He said that he "wanted to get the Christian spirit into the Law enforcement Department; that a man who loved God, Home and Country would make a good officer of the law". In his version on Race Prejudice the Captain said that "he was aware of the fact that there still existed a lot of Race Prejudice" this he termed as mental prejudice and a lot of it was directed against the Colored People, but he said that Race prejudice can never be overcome by force because it is a disease of the mind and cannot be reached by force; but in the face of a high, spiritutal, moral and mental preparation, prejudice will fade away.

He stated with delight that the most of the men who worked under him were giving a portion of their time to study, many of them giong to night school. With him KNOWLEDGE IS POWER.

The Captain paid a high tribute to the Progress of the race during their sixty years of freedom. He admonished the Race not to be discouraged, stating that it had had less than a hundred years of free mingling wih men and affairs; that a hundred years was too soon to conclude your judgment of a Race. He called attention to the hundreds of years the Roman Empire was in its making; the building of the English Government; and the making of our own country, America; concluding by saying that, "The Race has done remarkably well, take new courage and buckle down to your books and you will win".

I. ALBERT MOORE, Secretary.

TO CO-OWNERS OF THE MISSOURI GROUP OF MINING CLAIMS

One and All:—

Mr. G. W. Miller, of Tucson, Arizona, wishes to give out the following information as to the activities in and about the Mining camp in the Comobabi Mountains. Viz, That on account of new discoveries of Ore and water on the GREAT BLOW OUTS PROPERTY, we have decided to move te camp in about 10 days from the present location, to the above named property, a distance of about three fourths of a mile. It will be a great saving of time and expense of hauling water as we are now doing.

On the property where we are now sinking a shaft we have Thousands of tons of Milling Ore on the dump and in sight. A large part of it will sort at $50 a ton.

On the GREAT BLOW OUTS PROPERTY where we are moving to in a few days, and where we are to place our Mill as soon as we can make the necessary atrangements, there is an ore body 100 feet wide, and a big part of it, shoved up from 30 to 60 feet in sight. About a third of this body will sort at $50 a ton with the other two thirds giving lesser gradations down to $5 and $3 a ton. Thus we will get our richer ores down around 60 and 90 feet.

Preparations are now being made to borrow $25,000 with which to secure our Mill and meet some other obligations. This we hope to accomplish by the first of February, and from then on will be our struggle to pay off in May.

The Miller family has now grown to nine persons. There being eight men and one woman, all of whom are from the East, making the trip over land by auto. We are expecting an addition of a man and wife from El Paso, Texas, the man, a blacksmith and mechanic.

Mr. Miller wishes to say to all, that our delay was on account of the slow coming in of the money, but that from now on we are to be in a position to drive thru to the pay off strong.

Very respectfully,
J. A. WARREN.

Advertising Manager

Robert G. Lamar's remarkable showing in his stellar work for the holiday number of the "Soaring

Robert G. Lamar

Eagle" has gained him the permanent position as Advertising Manager for this publication.

While the occasion mentioned was not by any means Mr. Lamar's first activity along advertising lines for us, it was his most concentrated, and more time was given to the effort. In this situation our patrons were much pleased and as we seek at all times to give patrons the very best, it necessarily follows that we were highly pleased.

Therefore, starting the New Year Mr. Lamar will fill the position spoken of above. We bespeak for him the courtesies which go with this position and a due consideration for his cause.

J. B. BASS, Editor.

THE CLATTER KING

We indeed appreciate the real worth and sacrifice of time and effort as demonstrated by Chas. L. Upton, who edits our Railroad Clatter column, which appears each week in this publication. Few people realize what it means for a busy man to gather the items as does Mr. Upton without failing a single issue during the year. He does this not for his own edification, but that he might contribute his mite for progress and to please the public.

Chas. L. Upton

Railroad Clatter is well and neatly edited, it has gained such headway that not only the railroad men but all readers each week are eager to scan Upton's column.

Three Unlucky Boxers Get Xmas Suspensions

Packy McMullen, Los Angeles boxer, was indefinitely suspended for physical unfitness; Dave White of Oakland, was ordered to hang up his gloves for two months because he failed to appear at El Cerrito and Lancho Delgado, Pasadena, was banned from the ring for a month for fouling at Pasadena.

Did Rickard Know Walker Would be Middle Champion

It seems funny but Tex Rickard had already made preparations to stage Mickey Walker against some contender for his crown before he had even received the gift from referee Benny Younger. He is also booking Jack Fugazy for two other fighters.

Walker, once holder of the welterweight title, became middleweight champion through a questionable decision over Tiger Flowers in Chicago on Friday. Roberts scored a stunning one-round knockout of Joe Dundee, "the uncrowned welterweight champion," on Saturday in San Francisco. Wallace is in demand as a result of his knockout in Cleveland of Louis Kid Kaplin, who recently relinquished his featherweight title without being defeated.

Winfield Wins Four Auto Races at Ascot

At Ascot Speedway, Sunday, Ed. Winfield showed he could classify in the spectacular speed king class by leading the field four times in the dizzy whirl around the big dirt saucer.

It was the most spectacular performance seen here in years. In a 25-up race, won by Winfield, the spectators were treated to a real thrill when the star and Barney Kooper locked wheels in front of the stand. It looked like a death crash, as both machines were going at top speed, but Winfield managed to get his car right side without serious accident.

C. M. Mikkelsen won the consolation race, with Bill Rahler and Ganey DeWitt finishing second and third.

Holidays are over now, let's get down to business. And let's keep some of those resolutions we made on the "Zero Hour", New Year's eve.

Wonder how many local boxers on Christmas yielded to that well known coaxing: "Come on, be a sport, take just one". If you didn't do it, don't.—Pass them on to us, we've quit boxing.

Heard the mail carrier blowing the gizzards out of his whistle early Christmas. And lo, and behold! A card from Tom Sielski, manager of young Jack Thompson, and a present from him and Jack. That't Tom's natural way, very thoughtful, always rememciate it and wish him and his stable ciate it and wish he and him stable of great fighters a glorious and continued success in the New Year. Jack is looking fine now a days, getting rested and ready to whip any and everybody who is game enough to face him.

Some of our boxers should have been out to the Olympic Tuesday and learned some foot work from Suzanne Lenglen, the world's tennis champion. On her toes all the time, light heeled, fast as lightning.

Say "gentle readers", how about a few boquets about our Sport section? Ladies you may write too. Don't be afraid. We have no private censor to open our mail. Address Sports Editor California Eagle.

Along Fisticuffs Row

Dick Donald is full of smiles with prospects of a big season starting with the Tiger Flowers-Lomski Mack House-Kilrain match next month, at Wrigley Field.

Joe Levy has picked another good one in the Brown-Adams bout next Tuesday.

The Wadhams, Masters, Snyder combination at Jack Doyle's Vernon Arena is one that can't be beat for arranging good bouts and drawing the crowd.

Don't forget Eagle Thomas in signing up good bouts. He is a game, willing, fast, tough little bantam who never fails to please the crowd. You can reach him through the Eagle office.

At Culver City Thursday in the last show of the year Everett Strong meets Paul Farrish in the ten round main event.

The Hollywood A. C. has had a hard time getting a match for Danny Kramer, who will headline the opening show January 7th.

The Manhattan Gym has signed up a lot of new members for the new year.

Watson Bums, Geo. Titlington, Tom Sielski, and Tom Scott, have great programs lined up for their fighters for the coming year.

BRONX BITS

Christmas Eve, Christmas night and all Holiday week, was a big one, every night a large crowd, everybody practicing their famous dance, the Black Bottom and trying to learn the newest one "The Arthur" and on New Year's night oh, Boy! Oh, Joy, a musical gamble in honor of the one-eleven centuries, all night long. All this in the beautiful Palm Garden. Of course the hotel is always full of guests.

At The Suzanne Lenglen-Mary Browne Tennis Match

Who said it took a fight or a football game to draw a crowd? At the Olympic Auditorium, Tuesday night, December 28th the streets, sidewalks, aisles, doors and auto parks crowded and still they come.

Here comes the celebrities now! Movie stars from Hollywood; the patrolmen stationed at the front form a lane for them to pass in as they drive up to the front of the great building in the glare of the bright ligts. Authors, scenario writers, directors, owners, magnates, famous golfers, bankers, brokers, merchants, excited school girls, big butter and egg men, all out to see the little girl who has made a great name for herself than any tennis champion yet.

A craning of necks, a stir at the dressing room entrance and on to the smooth, green, brightly lighted court trips Suzanne like a ballet dancer.

Such dazzling-like drives from one far corner to the other far corner; such volleying close up to the net; now leaping high in the air to pick out a lofty one, now almost diving to catch a far low one, an inch from the floor and whip it sizzling back across the net. Such vigor and vitality the perfect picture of robust health. And such fighting spirit. No wonder the French soldiers held back the invaders so long if that is the national vitality and spirit. And the rounds of applause that met each of her wondrous plays. Truly she was all that the press of the world has said of her.

With the rest of the brilliant troupe she has gone to San Antonio, Texas to play Sunday in the big auditorium there.

Where are all our race tennis players and fans? It seems they are conspicuous by their absence. It did not show much real interest in the sport or much appreciation of the fact that they were absolutely welcome. Did we make a false statement when we told Ma Fyle and his manager, Mr. Pinkney that our race people were highly interested in tennis?

GANS SAVES 'REP' BY KNOCKING OUT DALEY

Baby Joe Gans won part of his prestige back Tuesday night at Jack Doyle's Vernon Arena by knocking out Pete Daley in five of a ten round bout.

The knockout was a technical one, Daley being so badly cut that Referee Roth stopped the fight. Of course the cloud of the Harry (Kid) Brown defeat still hangs over Gans, and no doubt he would like to wipe it out. Whether he will be required to do so or not before he gets a crack at the king-pin remains to be seen. But with good personal care of himself he ought to be able to hold his own from now on.

Billy McClain Opens Big Theatre

Ever heard of Billy McClain? Of course you have. Producer of the original Smart Set, big time star in the palmy minstrel days, globe trotter, fight manager, trainer, and fight promoter. A man who carried Sam McVey to Australia and who presented Langford and McVey to the crowned heads of Europe. That's Billy McClain, only a lot more beside. He is now proprietor of the McClain Theatre at 876-78-80 Williams St., Buffalo, which great pleasure palace formerly the Crescent, was opened on December 13th with Dudley's Darktown Frolics. All of the city officials and the elite of the city were on hand, and a good start was made for an auspicious season. Billy knows more about the show business than the average amusement impresario is lucky enough to know and is sure to make a big success. On our desk is a letter just received from him sending regards to the Spikes Bros., Reginald Siki, Bully Smith, Editor Bade and all other friends. In another issue we will tell some interesting anecdotes of Billy's career that reads like a novel.

Big Changes Made At Negro National Base Ball League Session

On December 15th, at St. Louis, Mo. a special meetnig of the Board of Directors was held, with Dr. C. B. Key, acting president, and owners Steve Pierce of Detroit, John Schorling, Chicago; J. L. Wilkinson, Kansas City; L. A. Brown, and Richard Dent; St. Louis; Warner Jewell, Indianapolis; Q. I. Gilmore, secretary of the league presided at the books. Among the several changes made were the accepting the application of the Dallas, Texas Yellow Jackets, as an associate member. It is a crack team and will give a good account of itself. Much of the business transacted can not be made public at this time until after the annual session at Detroit which will be on January 11, 12, 13, 1927.

Three new baseball cities will be added two of which have taken the Cleveland and Dayton franchises over and all the teams will be well balanced and evenly matched, the Cuban stars bringing over the strongest team that ever left the island including the great Montabro. Several of the teams will go south for the spring training The Royal Giants finishing out the winter league here.

End of Year Sees Four Surpass Grange

Red Grange, the galloping ghost, had his yardage record of 1017 beaten by four other football stars this year.

Welch of the Pitt Panthers set the high mark of the year, and also the new record with 1190 yards. Manuel Laranets of the University of Southern California was close behind with 1166 yards. Morton Kaer, his teammate on the Trojans, gained 1121 yards for the season, and Charles Rogers of Pennsylvania made an even 1000.

Close behind the Grange record were Donohoe of Carnegie, with 968 yards; "Cotton" Wilcox of Purdue, with 967, and Herb Joesting of Minnesota with 962.

"Sweet Baby" Dorothy Williams

And this is the picture of the little girl who will wrest the world's tennis crown from the world up and coming Suzanne? But she plays with her every instinct to win, intense poise and concentration that is truly amazing here in the middle of the theatrical world.

Already we are in communication with Ma Fyle, manager of S. H. Dudley's Darktown Follies, who are playing in Buffalo, N. Y., with a capacity of 60 years. He is the booster extraordinaire of Mary Jo Fyle's tennis career and is going to see that she gets the proper training and competition. She is an apparent champion in the making. Watch for Fyle of the Dudley Follies.

Girletics

By GLADYS METHONICAN

Well Folks, the match between Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis player, and Mary Brown, local star, at Olympic Auditorium, was a never-to-be-forgotten one. It at first appeared as though Suzanne was going to have a difficult time in defeating Mary Brown, but it took only a short while to convince the 4,000 fans present differently.

Suzanne outplayed Mary in every minute of the game allowing her to score only one game which happened in the last set. The final score was 6-0 and 6-1. The tennis fans were carried away with the marvelous playing of this French girl. It is too bad that our own Juliette so closely missed having a match with Suzanne.

In the mixed doubles match, which followed the main match, Mary Brown partnered with Harvey Snodgrass, defeated Suzanne and her partner, Paul Feret in a hard fought three set match score being 3-6, 6-2 and 6-3. The crowd was astounded by the ability of Suzanne to outvolley the men.

We are only too sorry that more of our race girls were not present to view these unusual matches. We only hope that in the near future we will have developed such race girl stars, who will be given the chance to perform before a similar group and numbers of spectators.

The girls are beginning to practice now for the various games such as basketball and baseball.

The Girl Reserves have a very active basket ball team with such outstanding players as the Misses Hazel Thomas, and Eurelda Bing.

The Girl Reserve basket ball team last year was to have played the team of the Girl Reserves of Oakland, but unfortunately did not get to have the game. We certainly hope that it will be possible to have it this year.

Well girls competition is still desired, so organize a basket ball, base ball, or football team in your group and write editor of this column at the California Eagle, 847 Central Ave.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The Sports Editor wants to call attention to the fact that his two very able assistants, the pretty, charming, and brilliant Miss Gladys Mathonican writer of "Girletics" and the brainy manly little disciple of Blackstone, Tommy Myles, writer of "Dust from the Campuses" are well initiated and stepping right out with their respective columns. Watch their space. They have much in store the coming season.

A good way to help would be to start the New Year with a paid up subscription: It is better to have the paper come to your home than have to look for it on the street. And the more subscriptions the better paper.

MRS. CARROL HAD TO WORK CHRISTMAS

Just a little ad in the Eagle brought Mrs. Carrol, who has opened the Navy Boarding Cafe, many orders for chicken suppers, which called Mrs. Carrol had to work all day Christmas. Ham Jenkins Great Denver Boxer Makes Debut at Main Street

Ham Jenkins is in town! Maybe that doesn't mean anything much now, but after he makes his bow to the public Saturday night at the Main Street A. C., it may mean a whole lot. If he lives up to the big scrap book he brought with him he will cut a swath through the ranks of the best welterweight boys here till it looks like a reaper had passed.

He starts against Dick Green, the tough Long Beach slugger and if he gets by him he will be sent against some of the best the city holds. In the insert above is shown Mrs. Jenkins, who holds the unique position of wife, trainer and diet manager so it may be assured that Jenkins needs fear nothing from mishandling.

Glancing hurriedly down the line just before going to press we find that in Denver, Pueblo, Boulder, El Paso and other boxing centres, Jenkins has met such men as Stanley "Soakem" Yoakum, Gussie Weiner, Mike Ryan, Billy Fisher, Joe Marks, Joe Dunn, Buster Logwood, Jack Doyle, Hi Gill, Sally Kronick, Al Weigast, Imey Garfinkle, and many others.

Olympic Matches Surprise Fighters For Tuesday Night

Matchmaker Joe Levy has pitted two men against each other in next Tuesday's 10 round main bout at the Olympic Auditorium who have sprung real surprises on the public this season. They are Johnny Adams, the mountain lion of San Berdoo, who surprised everybody by beating the "Killer" Tommy O'Brien and Harry Kid Brown, who surprised them still more by winning over Baby Joe Gans. These two at 137 pounds and evenly matched as to build will be a real treat as they are both game, hard hitters and anxious to hold the prestige they have gained.

The other bouts include Billy Harlow vs. Billy Atkinson, six rounds, 158 pounds; Dan Levy vs. Jimmy Hackley, six rounds, 128 pounds; Wilby Brown vs Dick DeHaes, four rounds, 120 pounds; Ted Lewis vs. Michael Finn, four rounds.

PART I.

I had dined that evening with my friend Wheaton, a successful attorney, at his beautiful home. We had been friends for a number of years and, on rare occasions, I had accepted some of his many invitations to dinner.

On this rather chilly November evening, I had found Wheaton alone. Mrs. Wheaton and her two daughters had gone out to play bridge. Gamble for prizes, as Wheaton expressed it. When we had finished our coffee, Wheaton led me to a most comfortably furnished living room. A wood fire crackled in the large open fireplace. We drew our chairs, two great overstuffed rockers, nearer its cheery blaze, lighted our cigars and proceeded to enjoy each other's company.

Having touched on the different topics of the day, Wheaton took a copy of the Chicago Defender from the library table and remarked: "This Rhinelander-Jones marriage seems to have created quite a stir all over the country."

I nodded.

"If, continued Wheaton, it were anything new, I should take no notice of the continued flurry of comment. As it was so in the beginning, is now, and presumably ever shall be, world without end, why worry?"

He paused for a moment. "Now, continued he, just how many of our most distinguished and wealthy families of this country, and more especially those of the South, can be absolutely certain that they are pure Caucasian."

Wheaton again turned to the table and picking up another paper read this extract from one of its articles: "Henry S. Holt of the Rockbridge Circuit Court, (Virginia) * * * * pointed out that in twenty-five generations every person had thirty-two million grandfathers, not to speak of grandmothers; and that in his own case he could not prove the absence of other than Caucasian blood in his ancestry."

After a long draw at his havana, Wheaton slowly exhaled its fragrance. I sank deeper into the cushions and waited in silence noting his half-closed eyes. My friend had grown reminiscent and I felt certain that he was about to relate some past experience, which would indeed be well worth the listening. Slowly Wheaton arose, put some wood on the fire, resumed his chair and leaning forward addressed me.

"Doug, my grandfather told me of a case that happened in his birthplace, the parallel of which I wager one finds but once in a life time."

For more than two hours he talked. I asked no questions during that time, so absorbed was I in the story. At eleven o'clock I bade my host goodnight. Having reached my room I sank into "old comfort," what irony. The old rocker was as a park bench compared with Wheaton's overstuffed.

I could not sleep, although a-bed later than usual. I thought to read myself to sleep, and taking the December issue of the Crisis from my reading table turned to page fifty-nine. I was soon absorbed in the "Marked Tree." When I had finished Part I, found myself regretting that the story had not been completed in that issue. I continued to read, and on page seventy-eight read read Mark Seybolt's article, became further interested and resolved to write the story told by Wheaton's grandfather, a slave, embellish it in that style peculiar to myself, rename the characters, but leave the facts unchanged. For want of a better name I shall call it DEFIANCE. Not only the dog, but the characters through and through breathe defiance. * * * * * * * *

God! What a night it had been. Death everywhere. Death in the great white mansion on the knoll. Death at the little cabin in the quarters. Death in the cane brake.

A night of battle, murder, and sudden death. An ignorant, grief-stricken soul battling between the right and wrong, battling for life, battling to save.

A murder. The work of an assassin. The culmination of a fued of hatred.

Sudden death to Angie May, in the quarters. Sweet, gentle Angie May, only daughter of old Mammy, a wife of less than a year, and that night a mother.

And death had stalked into the mansion and taken the little Master.

Mammy nodded in the chimney corner, her grief well nigh spent. Upstairs, her master, Melville Gradley lay dead, a bullet in his brain. Shot by an unknown assassin in the canebrake. His young wife lay in the pink and blue chamber, a newborn infant at her side. Grief-stricken, Mammy downstairs was aroused from momentary sleep by the opening of a door. A girl crept into the kitchen, her brown face paled to a greenish hue, her cheeks wet with tears. She laid a bundle, wrapped in an old shawl, in Mammy's lap, sank on the floor and sobbed out:

"Angie May's daid, an de ain't no fiah in de cabin."

An hour passed. Mammy sat as one in a dream. What had Lou said about the little master? "Doan bleve dat chile gwine lib, ain't tuk de bres since he come. An po' lil' missy jes kep sayin' how I goin lib an' no word from Mel?" And den, "Mah lil' baby, das all keepin' me heah."

When Lou had laid the child in Mammy's arms and said, "Ef he rous up an tak de bres he mout lib but dah doan seem tu be no bref in 'im," she went back to attend her mistress.

Mammy crossed the room to the bench in the corner, she unwound the shawl and wrapped the little master's body in it. Into the soft white flannel she wrapped Angie May's boy.

At daybreak a tired, trembling, old woman climbed the stairs to her mistress' room. In her arms, wrapped in white flannel, an infant stirred, then wailed feebly. Lou took the child from Mammy, with a "Praise Gawd," and laid it on her mistress' arm.

The young mother smiled, and in a weak voice asked "Has your Master come?"

"No Missy, soothed Lou, Mars Mel ben d'layed somewhar, but he'll be heah dreckly, honey."

Downstairs a tall man, with a pale face, on which dumb grief and despair were plainly visible, awaited Mammy. He was Angie May's husband, Jim.

It was not long before Mammy arrived as the tenseness of the room upstair was too much for her. She was immediately greeted with the abrupt question which fell from Jim's lips: "Mammy, whar's mah baby?"

Mammy hid her face on his arm and trembling, pointed to the shawl-wrapped bundle on the bench.

The next day they buried Angie May, the baby clasped to her cold breast.

Just Bits of Life As Seen by You and Me

By: Dorothy Jean Armstrong

EVERYBODY'S NICHE

No matter how cold or bad the weather chanced to be, old Phillip was always there with his bundle of newspapers beneath his arm. He greeted the world and everyone within with a pleasant good morning and he gave each of us a smile to cheer us on our way. Somehow the day would not have been half so easy to live through or the day half so precious had not old Phillip greeted us with that smile of his.

Old Phillip was a little pale-shaped fellow who sold us our paper each morning as we reached the station platform. He never failed to see that the young housewife received her paper folded with the shopping page outside, or that the young business man found his paper neatly creased at the Sporting Section. And when Christmas morning dawned, and the world was a busy place, old Phillip would hand each of his customers a tiny bag of Christmas candy and he would wish each of us a Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year's.

After the sunshine and happiness must always come the dark clouds, happiness and the sadness. Since this story deals with real life, into the midst of this happiness must also creep the sorrow.

One night when the wind was a torrent of darkness among the gusty trees, and the moon was a ghastly galleon upon the shimmering waters, and the road a ribbon of moonlight over the trodden streets, the word was whispered that Old Phillip's hours were numbered. Then later toward dawn he passed into the Great Beyond.

Death comes and takes each time, a life. Sometimes it takes a king, a prince or a beggar. It steals among us and before a word is spoken or a hand is moved, a place is vacant and someone else must be called forth to fill that vacancy. Death comes, but the world must keep on moving. You see life is like that. It has been so from the beginning of time and it will continue to be so until the end of time. So after they had laid Old Phillip's body to rest and a few days sped here and there, the world rolled on, and men learned to forget.

Another fellow sold the papers in Old Phillip's place and when Christmas rolled by again he gave each customer a greeting Christmas card and package of cigarettes, but it was different. Old Phillip had a niche in one's life that no other could fill.

The idea of this story is simply to bring out the fact that you and I have a niche in this world that no other one can fill quite as we do. That is the reason we should each find just what we are best fitted for and train ourselves to fill that position to the very best of our ability. Let us each vow that on tomorrow after the golden sun has broken the golden day farewell, and failed behind the hill that we shall have found our life's work. Your niche in life may not be that of merely selling papers, but whatever it may be put your soul into it and give the world all that there is within you. Your life will be sweeter and your God will be satisfied.

The Southern California Alumni Association gave a party December 28th at the home of Miss Cromwell-Bright, 1147 So. Hobart Blvd. All who were present expressed pleasure over the splendid manner in the course of the evening.

SAN DIEGO NEWS

MISS VIOLA JEFFERSON

Another Move Towards Segregation

Several weeks ago, a proposition was offered a real estate dealer, Mr. Wm. Collins and his saleslady, Mrs. A. A. Knight, operating under the license of Brown and Botts, a piece of land, in the north-east portion of the city, for the purpose of a Negro Cemetery and as it was understood to be a gilt edge proposition, no shorter than a good commission to the sellers of the lots, the dealer and salesman began to get busy. The men that offered this proposition were the so-called honorable white men of the South. But the better thinking members of our race held a mass meeting and denounced the move toward segregation and to fight every move in discrimination and segregation against our people. The results of this meeting is shown in the following article which appeared in the S. D. Union, and I reprinted for the Eagle readers:

"Suit to Regain Land Bought For Negro Cemetery

"Suit to set aside his sale of 20 acres of land southeast of the city was filed yesterday in superior court by Claude Woolman, the defendants being the California Land Buyers' syndicate. Following the transaction which was concluded October 27, the buyers announced that a portion of the tract would be set aside for a cemetery for members of the colored race. Woolman declares that it was represented to him that the purchasers intended to subdivide the property into building lots. He would not have sold the tract, he declares, had he known that any portion of it would be used for a cemetery. He sues for recision of the deal on the grounds that false representations were made with intent to deceive him as to the real plans of the purchasers.

"Woolman sold the 20 acres for $13,090, receiving $500 on account with the deal going to escrow. When plans for establishing a Negro cemetery on the tract were announced, a storm of protests from residents and owners of nearby property resulted, both city council and board of supervisors being appealed to.

"Officers of the Land Buyers' syndicate say they had nothing to do with promoting a cemetery, simply buying the land from Woolman and reselling it to C. R. Wilson, who is handling the cemetery project, they say."

The San Diego Local Branch of N. A. A. C. P. held it election of officers, December 2nd at Bethel A. M. E. Church, 1643 Front street. Mr. D. V. Allen was elected for the third term as president; Mr. Wm. Dyson, vice-president; Miss Viola Jefferson, secretary; Mrs. E. W. Anderson, assistant secretary; P. L. Johnson, Treasurer.

FRESNO NEWS

Xmas was ushered in mid a blaze of festivities, and marked the coming of a number of visitors to spend the week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duncan, Jr. and son, Charles 3rd, and Ted Smith, motored down from Sacramento to spend the Yuletide with Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans Trigg at their picturesque country place on Olive avenue. Motoring down with them was Miss Marie Orr, who spent her time with Miss Dorothy Hinds.

Mrs. Clarence Williams came down from her home in Berkeley to visit with her mother, Mrs. Virginia Watkins.

Mrs. William M. Thompson arrived last week from Los Angeles and is the house guest of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. D. Dixon.

Pat Taylor and party will arrive within the week to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Bigby, Jr. They will motor down from Oakland.

The Xmas dinner dance given by the Foxette Card club last Wednesday evening in compliment to their husbands was one of the most brilliant functions of the ultra season. The luxurious dwelling of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. W. Clarke was used as a fitting setting for the affair, and the long, heavily laden table was enhanced in the center by a miniature Xmas Tree, while tall, pink tapers in silver holders formed an artistic end. Turkey was the "piece de resistance," and the after dinner hours were given to dancing. The personnel of this lively club and their husbands includes Messrs. and Mesdames Carl Moulden, Henry C. Wilkes, William A. Bigby, Jr., Alex W. Clarke, Burtz Biller, Clarence P. Graves, Samuel L. Hamblin, Causey Smith and Joseph Heimes.

Equally as brilliant was the elaborate dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans Trigg preceding the Xmas Ball, in compliment to their popular house guests. Mrs. Trigg possesses a pronounced culinary ability and the immense turkey and other tempting viands did her justice in every way. Holiday decorations were used in decorating the table and tall, pink tapers in gold candle sticks were placed at each end. The guest list included Mr. and Mesdames Charles Duncan, Jr.; William A. Bigby, Jr.; Miss Marie Orr; Miss Dorothy Hinds; Mr. Ted Smith and Mr. Hen Watkins. The intervening hours between the dinner and the ball were given to progressive whist.

Society was very generous in its patronage to the Xmas Ball at the Marigold Ballroom and a large number of out-of-town guests added much to the spirit of the evening. Carl Moulden and Otis Edmondson, sponsored the affair and everyone seemed to have enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. Leroy Calhoun and Mrs. Fred Grant have issued cards for a large New Year's Eve party to be given at the artistic residence of the first named lady.

NEGRO ACTIVE IN BUSINESS MOTON FINDS

TUSKEGEE HEAD BELIEVES STATUS OF RACE IMPROVING

The modern Negro is fast developing as a business man and is active in all forms of business enterprise existing among white people, Dr. Robert E. Moton, head of Tuskegee Institute and successor to Booker T. Washington, declared yesterday when he arrived on the Tenyo Maru en route around the world.

In the Negro communities of the South they have their bank presidents, heads of realty corporations, theaters, department stores, drug stores, restaurants, etc., he said.

The world war had a great influence on the Negro and his problem, Dr. Moton also declared, and relations between the Negro and the white in America are on a better basis today than at any time since emancipation.

There is a growing conviction among the white people that they have nothing whatever to lose in being fair and just to the Negro, the educator asserted.

Since the war an organization has been formed known as the commission on interracial co-operation. It was inaugurated by a group of outstanding white leaders from every state in the south, who met just after the war to consider the application of the principles for which the war was fought to the conditions which obtained between black and white in the suth. Through this form of activity the condition of the Negro population has improved in almost every direction, he said.

Dr. Moton inspected the Kamehameha Schools yesterday and in the afternoon, at Mission Memorial hall to spoke to a large audience of teachers, students, and others interested in educational matters. Governor Farrington presided at the meeting and Dr. A. L. Dean of the University of Hawaii introduced the speaker, who told first of the raising of the $10,000,000 for the endowment funds of Hampton and of Tuskegee Institute, and the particular opportunity this would give to the two schools for the development of the work among the Negro race.

He paid a heartfelt tribute to General Samuel C. Armstrong, the founder of Hampton Institute, saying that he was the first to bring to the realization of the race the dignity, beauty and necessity of work with the hands, this being only one of threefold gifts brought to the race by him. The others were a belief in the ability of the race to be and to do, a self-respect which should engender respect in others; and a strong realization of the importance and possibility of race adjustment—the working, side by side of races of different colors and temperaments without the domination of either race.

At the suggestion of Governor Farrington, the meeting closed with the singing of America by the entire audience.

THE KING'S SEAL

"For the writing which is written in the King's name and sealed with the King's seal, may no man reverse." —Esther 8:8.

When the Jews were allowed by King Cyrus the Persian to return to their own land and rebuild their temple and their capital city, quite a number of them remained in the land of Babylon and Persia because they were doing well. Some also because they were too poor to go, for the distance was great, for those days, and promised little but hardship on the way, and a long time after they get there. The hardier spirits of men are pioneers, the rest must be forced, or they follow on when the pioneers have made things easier for them. They then come on behind and find fault because things are not altogether to their liking.

But the Jews who remained among the Persians after the proclamation of emancipation were like their kin in all ages, enterprising. They followed the seat of empire from Babylon to Shushan, or Susiana.

Here they were opposed and plotted against by an Amolekite, one of their ancient enemies, named Haman, the Agagite, who being of royal lineage, had attained unto a high standing in court.

His the Jews have always been the counselors and advisors of those who ruled the various lands in which they have lived.

We find Esther as queen and Mordecai her cousin sitting at the King's gate. Esther's beauty and charm through divine providence, had made her queen. Mordecai had discovered and revealed a plot of the King's life.

So when Haman attempted to destroy the Jewish people Mordecai enlisted the interest of Esther the queen and she ordered a three day's fast and silvertured to intercede for her people in the presence of the King, who was at the time taking a vacation and allowed no one in his presence except those who were called. Otherwise the penalty was death, unless he held out to such one the golden scepter. Esther receiving this favor, made successful intercession for her people so that Haman was hanged on the gallows he had prepared for Mordecai the Jew, and the Jews were allowed by royal decree to fight for themselves, knowing that the King was with them—though according to the law of the Medes and Persians, he could not reverse his decree which had been issued by Haman, using the King's ring.

It is the story of the King's change of attitude toward the Jews through the intercession of Esther that is told in our text. But the spiritual lesson set forth therein is "plain to him that understandeth." God grant us spiritual minds and understanding hearts.

In this wonderful and striking lesson of history the plan of salvation is beautifully and encouragingly pictured. The King represented our heavenly King, Haman represented Satan. Mordecai was a type of Christ. Esther of the church. The writing written in the King's name is the scriptures. The word of God is forever settled in heaven and unchangeable. If the Bible said it, it is so. It cannot be added to nor taken from. Ps. 119, Prov. 30:5, 6; Rev. 22:18, 19.

But also the Christian himself is an epistle known and read of all men. 2 Cor. 3:1-3. As surely as the Holy God of Israel wrote the ten commandments on two tables of stone, so surely He writes the law of Christ in the Christian heart and life. Men who wish can find fault with the Bible, but they cannot change it. So with the true believer. He is God's unchangeable, irreversible epistle—the light of the world, the salt of the earth, the heaven-ordained, God-established witness of the divine adventure. Written in the King's name—cannot be reversed. Praise God for it. Amen.

Now one thing more. It must be sealed with the King's ring. That ring represents the Holy Ghost, the seal of the covenant of promise. "In whom after ye believed ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise." Eph. 1:12, 13. "And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God in whom ye were sealed unto the day of redemption." Eph. 4:30.

The Scriptures were Spirit given, Spirit-sealed. So must the overcoming Christian be. Walk by the Spirit and ye shall not fulfil the lusts of the flesh." Gal. 5:15-26. Written and sealed, the whole thing a divine work. The King's name—the King's ring. That makes the King about all of it, and authenticates the document and carries the power of the government with it. Your salvation is a divine thing. It is given from God and sustained by the Almighty. Don't be uneasy. No man can reverse the King's decree. Do you know God? Are you born again? Are you living in the name of the Lord? Have you the seal of the Holy Ghost? Is He yours as an abiding witness? Have you made heaven sure? Don't let any one tell you that you can't, for you can. The Bible is so plain about it. "We know," said Paul. 2 Cor. 5:1. He also said, "I know." So may not you and I? We surely may if we believe God so as to follow and obey Him.

Heaven! Glory eternal. Victory ever more. Honor unmarred and that cannot be impeached. All these and unspeakably more shall be ours by and by, if we be among those sealed with the King's ring.

"Bring forth the best robe and put it on him and put a ring upon his finger." Luke 15. Amen.

Citizens To Honor Capt. Wm. Glenn at Banquet

GALA AFFAIR TO BE STAGED AT BRONX PALM GARDEN TUESDAY EVENING

RETIRING DETECTIVE A FAVORITE OF ALL LOS ANGELES' BETTER CITIZENS

The combined Negro Press assisted by the Police and Fire Department of this city will signally honor Capt. Wm. Glenn on next Tuesday evening, January 11th at the Palm Garden of the Bronx Hotel.

The affair is sponsored by the California Eagle, The New Age-Dispatch and the Pacific Defender, who feel that the record made merits most highly any honor which can be bestowed upn this officer who has made history for the race and whose record has been such as to receive the highest commendation of all the police officials, high and low, as well as the people at large.

To attain a Captain's rank over the many obstacles which had to be encountered is indeed a feat worthy of the recognition which Captain Glenn has received.

It is in this spirit that the combined Negro Press of the city calls upon the people to turn out in large numbers on next Tuesday to express their appreciation for a service that the three papers join in to sponsor a public reception in his honor.

A short, snappy program will be rendered in which high city officials will participate including Mayor Geo. E. Cryer, Chief of Police Davis, Captain McClarey, Judge W. D. McConnell, Judge James Pope, Fire Chief Scott, Lieut. W. L. Stevens (retired), and others.

Participating further will be Policewoman, Mrs. Georgia Robinson, W. O. Tyler, Rev. A. P. Shaw, Father Cleghorn, Deputy Sheriff J. B. Loving, Clara C. Hulbert, Mrs. Lulu Slaughter, Dr. H. C. Hudson, Noah D. Thompson, L. G. Robinson, Hugh E. Macbeth, Lieutenants Jesse Kimbrough and Chas. S. Brody.

The following have been asked to serve on the Reception Committee for this history making occasion. The ceremonies will begin at 9 P. M. At its conclusion those who care to may partake in the Reception Dance to the strains of music furnished by the far famed Palm Garden Orchestra which will also furnish the music throughout the evening.

To assist the newspapers in paying the expense of this affair a nominal charge of 50c will be made at the door of Palm Garden.

TO THE COLORED RACE: GREETINGS

We are now on the threshold of a new year. At this period we usually halt awhile to mark time, preparatory to marching forward. The past year has been one of infinite incertitudes. Racial events, like Cæsar's river, have moved with such incredible slowness that one can hardly tell whether they have been going forward or backward. Each individual and each organization has plodded its weary way and pursued its favorite fantom. Our larger movements have not moved perceptibly. We can hardly tell whether they have been progressive, stationary or retrograde. They have been carrying out the program rather than carrying up the work.

The ministers of the gospel have filled the pulpits with fidelity and have proclaimed the truth as the mark of their high calling requires. But it has fallen for much part on deaf ears and dead hearts. There has been little fresh impulse towards righteousness. There has been no great quickening of the conscience or fresh enthusiasm for the salvation of men on the heavenly side. The churches have hardly held their own in the duel with the devil. The mind of the race, especially the younger generation, has not been moved to Godward. The grosser pleasure of the flesh have chilled the higher and holier joys of the spirit.

The school teachers have been holding class and hearing lessons. They have proceeded with conscious satisfaction of things pedagogical as they are now ordained, unconscious of the fact that the educational regime is at the parting of the ways. The only worthwhile end of education is inspiration, not information. The letter killeth; the spirit maketh alive. It is but an observation not a criticism, much less a reflection upon the educational fraternity to say that, on the whole, it has been mimicking the form rather than emulating the spiritual aim of educational standards.

Our higher education has been augmenting in quantity rather than intensifying in its stimulation of the intellectual, moral and spiritual energies. There have been internal movements and mutterings in our higher institutions of learning, of whose forebodings we are not yet quite sure. The outcome is in issue, with our hopes and fears struggling for the ascendency.

In the economic domain, we have been marking time. An increased number of the race has been employed at good wages. Home ownership has been increased. Small business have sprung up and are operating with unnoticed success. But there has been little indication of fresh business energy or enterprise. The lamentable failure of some of our most boasted undertakings a year or so ago has dampened the ardor and chilled the spirit, if it has not cut the nerve of concerted business projects.

The political movement has been decidedly retrograded. If the Negro is not convinced that he counts as a cypher in the political reckoning, he must be opaque to the point of obtuseness. To cap the climax, the President has just affixed his signature to a measure designed to wipe out the last vestige of political control on the part of the race. On the face of the enactment the provision is ethically praiseworthy. An office holder should not be placed under tribute, directly or indirectly, by those who manipulate the political machine. But as ex-Secretary Slemp is well aware, it is impossible to operate Southern Republican politics without placing the expectant as well as the rewarded office holder under tribute. The effect of this measure will be to eliminate every Negro from the slightest semblance of political leadership. Perry Howard and Ben Davis are the last of the Mohicans.

However, the past year has demonstrated one clear political preposition. The race need look no longer to any party for political salvation. For this at least we may be thankful; for the crafty politician cannot hope to dupe the race in the future as he has done with repeated success in the past, with deceptive hope in the triumph of any

Retiring Captain of Detectives Presented Diamond Studded Badge

Capt. L. L. McClary presenting badge to retiring Capt. W. M. Glenn on behalf of fellow officers and citizens

Eagle photographer gets snapshot of Capt. W. M. Glenn (left); Capt. L. L. McClary (center); and Lieut W. L. Stevens, retired (right), immediately after presentation of badge to retiring officer

Friday, December 31st, was the history making event in the police annals of the city of Los Angeles and of special interest to the members of the Colored race.

Sweeping every obstacle from his path toward the top, Capt. W. M. Glenn had reached the climax of his career and was retired with distinguished honors and left behind him a career that others might emulate in the future days to come.

At the appointed hour, 1:30 P. M., on Friday, December 31st, a vast group of people gathered in the assembly room of Newton Street Police Station where the ceremony incident to his retirement and the presentation of the gold diamond studded badge, which was a contribution of his fellow officers and the citizens in general was to be presented and pinned upon him. The audience consisted of high police officers, his fellow officers and prominent citizens from all walks of life. With Lieut. Jessie Kimbrough acting as master of ceremonies the meeting was called to order and Capt. L. McClary was introduced to make a speech of presentation and to pin upon the breast of Capt. Glenn the insignia in honor of the great police power of the city of Los Angeles. The high esteem in which he was held by the citizens contributed to the success of the occasin.

Before presenting Captain Glenn with the badge, Capt. L. McClary, Commander of the Newton Street Station, made a very forceful, logical, and pleasing address in which he vividly portrayed the life of the faithful officer of the police department, the way in which he passed the dangers and of the things which came up before the members as they proceed upon their way, all complimented in the highest degree upon the efficiency and integrity of Captain Glenn. Speaking further, he said, "I congratulate you upon your success, because you have gained it in spite of the obstacle of your color. We might as well admit it and we all know that you and your group have a harder road to travel because of your color, than those of my own group."

At the conclusion of this very appropriate and eloquent addres, the badge spoken of was pinned upon his breast amid the applause of the throng there gathered. Capt. Glenn was then called upon for a response and while he responded with tears and with voice quivering he responded in words befitting the occasion and spoke of the loyal support which he had received from members of the department and the force. His speech was short but to the point and was appreciated by all who heard it.

At this juncture, the Master of Ceremonies, called upon J. B. Bass, Editor of the California Eagle, to make a response to the speech delivered by Capt. McClary; and in a few well chosen remarks he congratulated Capt. McClary for his most unusual and splendid address, and Capt. Glenn for his most successful administration and cited the fact that this occasion indeed made history not only for Los Angeles but for the entire country. Mr. Bass further stated that inasmuch as a member of our group had achieved such success on this occasion we had in our presence a distinguished leader from the East in the person of W. G. Matthews of Boston, Asst. Atty. General of the United States and that nothing would be more in order than to have him at this time to make a few remarks on this history making event.

Amid great applause, Mr. Matthews arose and spoke in high terms of the great achievement of Capt. Glenn and said that it was the happiest moment of his life to be present on this occasion and that the East and all sections of the country should emulate the example as set by Capt. Glenn.

At the conclusion of this address, Capt. Glenn and Capt. McClary posed for pictures and the meeting was adjourned to another section of the room where Lieut C. S. Broady and Lieut. Jessie Kimbrough had prepared refreshments galore and served everyone present. Too much commendation cannot be given to these faithful officers for their efforts in making the arrangements for the success of this occasion. Prominently seated upon the platform was Lieut. Stevens who was only a few months retired with high honors frm the force.

GOLDEN STATE AGENTS PROMOTED

The promotion of three men from the ranks of agents to superintendents and assistant superintendents is just the beginning of a big problem for growth and expansion, according to the Director of Agencies of the Golden State Guarantee Fund Insurance Company, Mr. George A. Beavers, Jr.

Mr. B. N. Hunigan formerly of Wichita, Kansas, and who has made an enviable record with the Golden State has been made superintendent of the Oakland District. He will succeed Mr. E. J. Johnson who has done remarkable work in building up business in the northern city. Evidence of the popularity of Mr. Hunigan was shown in the hearty greetin gand cheers given him by his co-workers on last Tuesday evening at the residence of the President of the Company, Mr. Wm. Nickerson, Jr.

Mr. Hunigan during the time he has ben connected with the Golden State staff, has made many friends and although they are sorry to see him leave Los Angeles, they rejoihe in the fact that he has received a pro-

N. A. A. C. P. To Initiate Its Stellar Program For 1927, Sunday, At A. M. E. Zion Church

It will be well for all of the people of Los Angeles who are appreciative of the great services of our militant organization, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, to turn out in full force to get first hand information for its big, impressive and pretentious program for the year 1927. Aside from the general plans, the program committee has provided for a strenuous year's work.

Mr. Robert Whittaker will speak. Mr. Whittaker is well known for his connections with all movements which are for the uplift of all people, especially for his connection with the Reconciliation and Civil League. His He known for his ability to speak on things which will interest all people and who is for the ideas of fair play and justice. A pleasing speaker, well informed, there is no doubt that a great speech is in store for those who attend.

President Hudson and his entire cabinet are busily engaged upon a program for this year's activities which will out do all previous efforts. The people are rallying most splendidly and there is no doubt that the year of 1927 will be a banner one.

There never was in the history of the world, a time when an organization like the N. A. A. C. P. was more neded than in the present day. The enemies from without as well as from within are busily engaged in forming combinations and cliques to curtail our group, particularly of all American citizens, from engaging in full line with others under the constitution of this country.

We want to urge everybody to turn out Suondy and give the year's program a rousing sendoff. 2:30 is the time and the A. M. E. Zion Church, Pico and Paloma is the place.

Republican Protective League Gives Grand Opening And Reception Sunday

The pioneer political organization known as the Republican Protective League, will, on next Sunday, open to the public the doors of their new home located at 1710 Central Avenue.

We have been informed by Mr. Chas. Olivier, Chairman, of the Executive Committee, that this property has been secured, everhauled, and renovated and made into a most beautiful club room which one might wish to see and that permanent headquarters will be opened and maintained 365 days in the year.

Of all political organizations this has been the first to establish itself in this manner and it is planned to be conducted strictly first class and for no other purpose than for the progress and continued growth as the Republican Protective League.

On next Sunday from 3 to 7 P. M., the public is invited to attend its grand opening and reception. We understand that there will be a program rendered and refreshments served free to all.

The following is the executive family of the League: Wm. Quall, Pres.; E. Burton Ceruti, Dr. Albert Baumann, Dr. S. S. Turned, Atty. L. K. Beeks, Atty. C. D. Murdock, Atty. W. M Austin, Dr Frank A. Gordon, Dr. F. R. Whiteman, Atty. Fred Mason, C. E. McKinney, Wm. Robinson, R. C. Owens, Rev. R. M. Wade, Father Cleghorn, Chas. Olivier, Chairman, E. C. Nelson, Sect. There is also a regular committe which is composed of some of the leading and representative citizens.

PITY FORFEITED

"And mine eyes shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee, and ye shall know that I am the Lord."—Ezek. 7:4.

We little imagine that when we are making life hard for others, we are making it still harder for ourselves and for our children. We seem to flatter ourselves that we are a sort of superior class of being, the special pet of God, or chance, or the divinities, or of nature, or whatever we are pleased to call the mysterious power responsible for our being here and being fed. We regard the apparently less fortunate with scorn. We swagger by them with looks and manners of contempt. We shunt them away and push them with the shoulder. We don't want to give them place in the earth. We plot against them in our clubs and lodges and even in public places. We deny them public benefits. WE HATE THEM. We show it all we can. But we do not know that we are sowing the wind that we may reap the whirlwind. Then that our pride may have the wider range and flatter us the more effectively we reach up toward heaven and try to pull the living God from His throne, defy ourselves and make science our archangel. This helps us cast aside the Bible as a divine book. We can then break their bonds in sunder and cast away their cords from us. We can do away then, with religious restraint and fear, for we have no God to fear. We have ignored Him, denied Him His place in the universe and run at liberty like the wild beast of the wilderness.

WHAT AVAILS IT

Some forget God, we deny Him. The end of it all is unpitying judgment. The sun shines though the greatest of men, and the most beautiful of women would rather live by electric light and sleep the day away. The moon shines though blind men never see it.

God lives and loves and rules and shines though proud men would rather seek and live in the befouled lair of their own ungodly imaginations and pamper the wild beast in their hearts and call it all civilization and the survival of the fittest. God lives, let the fool say there is no God. Ps. 53. God lives, let the strong and proud live as they wish and in their flattery scorn their fellows and ignore Him. Ps. 73.

God lives, let the foolish find fault with His church and ministry and go on unrestrained in their ungodly debauchery.

GOD OF JUDGMENT

God lives and for everything, secret thing or otherwise, He will bring men into judgment. Ec. 11:9; 12:13, 14. Don't think you are a special something that happened here and so you are going to escape. Brother, you are headed for judgment. You can't get out of it. There is an irresistible hand pushing you on. You don't know where you are going. You befog your own path with your foul ideas and your own ungodly notions. You have blinded your eyes, as Israel did, with your stubbornness and pride. You have alienated yourself with your wicked works (Eph. 4) from your eternal God. Israel did that too. But you are headed for judgment. It is once appointed for man to die and after death the judgment. Heb. 9:27, 28. You can't get around it. Just as surely as men die you are going to judgment.

Like Israel you don't want to be told about it. That's because you are a fool. If you are a student in a school you want to know about the examination, you must pass and the result of not obeying rules. That's judgment in school life. As a citizen you want to know the laws of your country and the result of breaking them. But as a citizen of the universe a subject of time and eternity you don't want to know the judgment of your God.

THE UNSEEN

But you have never seen God. No and you had better not want to see Him till you have made peace with Him. Nor have you ever seen President Coolidge, maybe, nor the city of Washington, nor the Supreme Master of the Masonic Lodge, nor the Pope. But you have felt the influence of all these and seen the results of their existence. You have never seen God. Well, seek Him and you will find Him. And you will find Him worth your while when you do. You can make him your friend and in the day of judgment it is worth while to have made the judge your friend. You are a fool. You are going on to judgment and taking a special pains to make the judge your enemy. You must meet a court in which your own conscience and record will cry out against you. What hope have you but mercy?

Ever read about Venice, the Doges and the Bridge of Sighs? O brother, you are up against the secret of the Lord. You are going to judgment and are such a fool you don't want to be told about it. But you are going to judgment just the same. If you are living in sin all the secret forces in the universe are working against you. You can't get by them. Israel did not and you and I can't.

Thine eyes shall not spare. There is a day of grace, and when that is past hope is lost, the soul is lost, right has fallen, eternal doom is the sinner's portion.

TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE

One of our readers after reading frequently in articles and ads. concerning some mysterious "Knockout", did a little sleuthing around to find out what it was all about. Being fond of the water himself and having a wife and some lovely daughters also fond of the water he broke this news to his delighted family circle.

"Get out the bathing suits from the mothballs in the old cedar chest, or get new ones by early spring for we are going to have a place where we can really use them, and by the way, Mrs. Bruce's Bathing establishment down at Manhattan will re-open after being closed two years."

You may call us at the Eagle office for further information.

Ground Breaking For A New Church

The Wadsworth Seventh Day Adventist Church will hold a ground breaking service on their new church site at 37th and Wadsworth Streets, Sunday afternoon, January 9th, at 3:00 o'clock sharp. The Bilbrew quartette will sing and prominent speaker will take part in the exercises. Two have been chosen to turn the first spade of earth which will start the Harvey Brothers' steam shovel excavating Monday morning and the long looked for and promised building will start to rise. Sunday night at the BIG TENT, 20th and Central Ave., the Pastor of the Church, Elder P. G. Rodgers will preach on the subject of "Saul's Night With a Witch", and it is hoped that the many friends who have been attending the tent services will bring someone along with them for both these services.

Everybody always welcome to every service.

The Pleasure Seekers entertained their friends with a dancing party last Wednesday at Christian Tavern. About 20 couples responded to their invitation and danced to the strains of the Golden State Jazz Orchestra until about 11:30 when a delicious buffet lunch was served. The evening was then finished in dancing. Did we have a good time??? Sure thing. It was the Pleasure Seekers Party.

"NOTHING DOWN"—$30.00 Per Month

The Walter L. Gordon Company

This Week Introduces The

"NO DOWN-PAYMENT-PLAN"—Now, many house renters in Los Angeles can start the new year "owning" their own homes" if able to pay $30.00 or more per month with "NO-DOWN-PAYMENT.—SO WHY PAY RENT?

Come or phone us Today for Confidential Arrangements on Low terms—We are at your service Absolutely Free.

A PRACTICAL BUSINESS SUGGESTION

We positively know of more than one hundred renters on the East and West side, some of them paying as high as $60.00 monthly to "rent a pretty house," when if these same "thoughtless renters" would only come into our office, THE WALTER L. GORDON COMPANY is able to make a business arrangement with the owners of these "high rent houses" so that they could be bought and paid for by the same renter in monthly payments as low as $30.00 to $50.00. Again with outstretched arms, we ask—WHY PAY RENT?

A recent count shows that there are more than 50,000 Afro-Americans in Los Angeles, many of whom have lived here as "house renters" more than 10 years. Isn't that appalling?

Also it is equally sad that less than 5,000 own their own homes, and more than 40,000 are still "House Renters"—WHAT DO YOU OWN? Make a start today! Phone us to call for you, or step into our office with $30.00 and buy a home.

Justice Dept. Orders Probe Of Marine Violence In Haiti

New York, Dec. 31—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 69, Fifth Avenue, has received a letter from John Marshall, Assistant Attorney General, stating that the U. S. Department of Justice, on the basis of affidavit forwarded by the N. A. A. C. P. charging shooting and violence by U. S. marines in Miami, has asked a thorough investigation by Major General John A. Lejeune, commanding officer of the Marine Corps.

The Department of Justice's letter, addressed to James Weldon Johnson, N. A. A. C. P. Secretary, is as follows:

"Permit me to refer to your letter of November 24, 1926 enclosing an affidavit made by Mrs. Mabel I. Burnside of the County of Dade, in Florida, with respect to certain alleged action on the part of the Marines toward herself and her brother following the storm at Miami.

The Department has referred this matter to Major General John A. Lejeune, with the request that he thoroughly investigate it and advise the Department of the result. As soon as General LeJeune has been heard from you will be advised."

Mrs. Burnside's affidavit stated that although she was in a relief organization doing relief work, the Marines were going to compel her to come with them for forced labor, and when her brother went to her assistance a Marine shot them both.

GOLDEN STATE CLUB

The record of the old year is written. A new pear of promise opens with opportunity for great achievement. Days, weeks and months have glided by in swift transition carrying 1926 to its tomb among the ages past. A short twelve months ago we hailed its advent with glad acclaim and with resolutions of achievement. Whether we succeeded or failed in our efforts, time, relentless tomb builder, has closed the books and opened the shining new volume of 1927. 1926 was a successful one for the G. S. C. In the realm of finance we can point with pardonable pride to the year's attainment. The old year is gone. We stand at the portals of the new. What will its record be? To the members of the G. S. C. Club, it mill be just what me make it. In the dawn of this year of promise let the members of the G. S. C. resolve to do our part in the upbuilding of the G. S. C. We are all co-partners in this club. Our rights and our benefits are equal, also our duties. Let there be no shirkers. But let each be an ardent worker in spreading the glad tidings of success. Let's gladden the heart of our president by making 1927 the successfullest year in the club's history, and then celebrate our victory Aubust 20th in honor of our Second Anniversary.

Business Manager of G. S. C.

Groping Hands

By: H. L.

A visit to Major J. R. Loving's office in the new county jail where he is chief inspector, is a revelation. From ceiling to floor the walls are covered by great oil paintings, crayon drawings and portraits all done by the hands of men and women who have for some reason or other fallen into the iron hands of the law. But Major Loving by his quiet insight has tempered this iron hand so as to encourage the growth of the artistic talent some of the unfortunte occupants of the great Bastile have in subservience, so that with ready response to human kindness and friendly interest the latent desire for expression and achievement that lies even beneath the surface of the art-it's soul springs into being. Prison walls are forgotten, resentment at the law is lessened, and gladly, eagerly, the slightly privileged prisoner grasps improvised, palette or sculptor's board and pictures the light of his own letter being on canvass and in clay or other substance.

Groping Hands! Have you ever in tramping over a rocky mountain-side spied a little plant that has taken root and struggled up between the rocks, its little tendrils reaching toward the sun. If the hobnailed heel of oppression, the biting lash of scorn does not crush and destroy the latent talent that lies dormant in many who though not wholly bad, have sinned against the conventions, then like the plant they will after all find real womanhood and manhood with groping hands.

So the Major's office is a veritable art gallery and museum. There high on the wall is a large realistic oil painting of Joan of Arc on the march. Another of her at the stake with the red-tongued flames just beginning to reach for her inspired body. There a life-size painting of the minute-men in battle with the British soldiers, and there "Peter the Hermit" being led to the Papal throne. A German artist is drawing a large picture of a Spanish monastery in colored crayons, also a grove of California ecualyptus trees. All around on table and pedestals are many articles of handiwork, wood carvings in bottles, statues, furniture, etc., and a small realistic scaffold with guards and priest standing around the prisoner who drops through the door when the trap is sprung. The crayon artist mentioned above is also a poet and author; and expressive of the gratitude for kindness and the desire for expression which keeps them groping through the shadows of despair and misfortune when in trouble he penned the following beautiful acrostic.

The writer happens to be unfortunat in making a good start for the new year, typewriter being on the bum, half sick with La Grippe and many other wonderful things which go to make life worth while giving up, so he begs his readers to bear and grin until he is able to get some real snappy news and a fresh start, it seems a shame to start 1927 making excuses. But it is better to start that way than not at all, so let's discuss things in general, and put the December Pullman news on the pan. We note in this issue that the famous Montgomery Brothers, Jim and Wallace, are posted on the Honor Roll, and we ask, How come? Did the same man write both letters? In looking further we read an account of one laid to rest. An account of his death which was published in this clumn during the week of October 22nd. But oh, so different as the Editor of The Pullman news sees fit to call Mr. David G. Scott, a man who spent 44½ years in the service a champion dust and dirt chaser, some title, and then lay it on the porters. So again we ask, How come? Still further, we would like to know, why there is so little news published in the Los Angeles items about the porters. Evidently Mr. Turner, our chief clerk, has forgot all about the boys or has given up entirely to the Railroad Clatter. If so I shall consider it as a star in my crown and let it go at that. But we would like to know how come? Still further we read the Xmas message of our president, Mr. E. F. Carrey as follows: "Again it is my pleasure and privilege to wish all the members of the Pulman family a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year." The words are nice, but of course they will not buy bread, and it only goes to bring tears to our eyes when our minds drift back to the days when on Christmas, providing we hit the ball, we received a bonus, so we ask, How come?

The 1927 campaign of the N. A. A. C. P. is to start off with a deal of enthusiasm looking forward to the accomplishment of many things along all lines. With the great anticipations it requires the solid support of all Pasadena. This association is fully able to meet all issues that are brought to our notice along the line of discrimination, but its the same old "gag," just about time this organization gets to running good some other club or political aggregation shows its head above the crest sponsored by somebody else who wants to become conspicuous for leadership. Too many fingers spoil the pie is a slogan that has ruined every organization ever promoted in Pasadena. If these purported leaders would get behind the N. A. A. C. P. and help build up its strength they would be a deal better off. It has been said, one must be a good follower before playing the role of a leader. The issue has never been properly met in Pasadena, neither by a class and indiduals, subsequently we ase continually up a tree waiting for the other fellow to do something. No organization seems to have rallied strength enough to demand any particular amount of representation and for this reason we should get shoulder to shoulder in a great membership drive for the National Association of Colored People. The meeting of this body is held on the 4th Thursday of each month at the First A. M. E. Church.

His visit here primarily is for the purpose of recuperating his wife's health but while here was induced to preach for Dr. Carter in this campaign. Great crowds were out at both services resulting in additions at the two services. Dr. Botts is pastor of one of the largest Negro Churches in Omaha and a man of much experience in all lines of ecclesiastical endeavor. While in the city they are the house guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Carter.

On close investigation of the grandstand erected to view the New Year's parade one would suggest they were preparing supports upon which to rest another Brooklyn Bridge. Every precaution was taken to avoid another such crash as happened a year ago when 10 persons or more paid with their lives for the avariciousness of some individual. The usual crowd was on hand to view this gorgeous spectacle, which was estimated to be about 750,000. Not even a cloud was visible to mar the day and the sun shone ever so brighter which added much zest to the beautifully decorated floats.

FRESNO

The anniversary of President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation was celebrated with fitting ceremonies on New Year's day under the auspices of the N. A. A. C. P. A spectacular parade five blocks long with all colored civic, fraternal and mercantile organizatins participating, created wide and marked attention as the line of march was followed thru the residential and business sections of West Fresno. William A. Bagby, Jr., headed the gala procession as grand marshall, Percy Dosts orchestra followed with the music, the executives' cars, trucks with children, lodges, also business floats and citizens in privately owned cars completed the line up. Following the parade an interesting musical and literary program was given at the Second Baptist Church under the direction of W. I. Pickerson, as Master of Ceremonies. The Rev. Fred A. Hughes was the speaker of the day, and his forceful and eloquent address on "The New Emancipation" was one of the ablest that has ever been presented to our group in this city. The following program was rendered: Anthem, Invocation, Rev. M. D. Dixon; Reading of Emancipation Proclamation, Mrs. Etta M. Kennedy; Instrumental Trio, Miss Helen Wolfe; Piano, Otis Edmondson; Saxophone, Ben Watkins; Cornet; Piano Duett, Misses Rose and Ruth Hannibal; life of Frederick Douglas, William A. Bigby, Jr.; Reading from Dunbar, Miss Melvina Byrd; Piano Solo, Miss Manhonia Thurman; Life of Lincoln, Miss Mattie Pilkinton; Vocal Solo, Miss Louise Clarke, G. Washburn Clay was director general of the day, and is to be commended highly, upon the complete success that was attained.

To Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Calhoun and Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Grant goes the honor and distinction of giving the largest and most brilliant party of the past year. A New Year's eve supper dance was featured at the luxurious Calhoun residence in Madison Avenue, and society and the ultra fashionable set danced and frolicked the old year out and formally ushered in the new year with the proverbial horns that were provided by their hosts. The gala decorations and soft colored lights, the gorgeous creations worn by the women, and the elaborate supper that was served have remained the choice bit of gossip over the tea cups. The dancing lasted far into the morning, and the guests at this lovely affair included: Messrs. and Mesdames J. Evans Trigg, William F. Kennedy, James L. Clarke, Eugene Hinds, William A. Bigby, Jr., Joseph Holmes, William Hemmitt, Henri Sims, Robert Thurman, Robert B. Sanders; Mesdames Clarence Williams of Berkeley; William Marshall, Eugene J. Morris, Zella C. Mansfield, Gertrude B. Grayson, Misses Zolla Chavers, Dorothy Hinds, Symyra brown of Los Angeles, Messrs. Maceo King, Ben Watkins, Richard B. Spikes, Dan Cole and Dr. H. C. Wallace.

Mrs. M. E. Brooks and her talented daughter, Miss Maxine Brooks spent the holidays in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sheffield have returned from Los Angeles where they spent the holidays with the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Maceo B. Sheffield. They were lavishly entertained during their stay, and enjoyed their sojurn immensely.

Mrs. Clarence Williams f Berkeley was the incentive for a large dancing party last Tuesday evening, given by her brother, Ben Watkins at the Henry Sime residence in F street. All of the younger set enjoyed the affair.

OH, FOR THE DAYS OF INGALLS

In noting the proceedings of the United States Senate in these latter days and the brazen effrontery of the senators from the southland with their uncouth and bloodthirsty remarks, one would wish to call back the hands of time to the days of the great statesman, Senator J. Ingalls of Kansas, who, if alive, and in his place in the United States Senate, would command such respect from the southern fire eaters that they would not dare to pull off a "holier than thou" bunkum that they are forcing on the people from the floor of the United States Senate today. Ingalls, tall and erect, with a tongue that cut like a rapier, would skin them alive and leave their hides hanging from the fence. Readers of the political history of our country can well remember the castigation which he gave Senator Vorhees of Indiana when that senator attempted to pull off the same kind of propaganda which Senators Heflin, Robinson, Pat Harrison, and other southerners pull off who are there owing to the fact that the electorate of their several states brow beat, defraud and disfranchise contrary to the constitution under which we live. It is the irony of fate that no northern senator has been produced who can take the measures of these dare devils from the southland and they go on and on unchallenged in their unlawful conduct on the floor of the United States Senate.

NEW DAY

And now we have a new day and whoever heard of the sons of Ham actually participating in a big banw robbery as was pulled off on last Wednesday in the heart of a great city like Los Angeles. Heretofore the crimes committed by him have been petty in character and were confined to small things, but as time passes it seems that this brother is also graduating and becoming adepts in the larger things in criminology, which is food for thought and devoid of credit.

N. A. A. C. P. IN 1927

The National body of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has announced an ambitious and far reaching program of progress for the year of 1927. From the accomplishments of this great body and its continued progress along the line of helpfulness towards the colored people should be assuring to all the people and they in turn will no doubt demonstrate heir appreciation by giving the Association their unstinted support. Taking up the same line of action of its main body, our local branch in this city has continued to uphold the National branch in this bailiwick to do their utmost in supporting the National and looking after equally so, our local field of effort. With this progress the local association should have the united support of all people who stand for principles of manhood rights and the equal achievement of one tenth of the country's population. In a large measure it is not the Association's fight, it is the people's fight. The officers of the Association are merely instruments to carry on the fight for them, therefore every man and women should put on their habilnents of warfare and join in with the host who stand for justice and fair play and do all in their power in support of the program for the local organization.

BETTER AND BIGGER BUSINESS

Just why it is such a difficult matter to get our business men to organize for their own protection and to improve their status is an enigma to us. It is a question which our local business men should take up and find a solution for. In this modern day any business worthy of the name must take advantage of organizing its business in order to produce results and thrive as it should. We have here in our midst some real, genuine business concerns in spite of the fact of a general lack of organization among business men. There is not the least concern but what these same business concerns should have weathered the storm, checked up on the right side of the ledger could do ten times the amount of business which they have done with co-operative organization behind them. There are many businesses with growing opportunities to enter therein for certain and sure success, and only the lack of co-ordination and organization has prevented the exploration in these fields of efforts. Therefore, for 1927 all who stand for progress and for our group to take the same position in business as other groups, we must get together on a really unadulterated program for better and bigger business.

RETIREMENT OF CAPTAIN GLENN

The retirement on the last day of December of Detective Captain Wm. M. Glenn, is of great import for the reason that in his retirement the race has demonstrated by one of its members great fortitude and strength of character. It is history-making and sets a precedent in the police annals of the entire country. The incident of the Captain's retirement, brings to the forefront the fact that we have in this section broad gauged officials who have refused to close the door of opportunity in a man's face because of his color. Capt. Glenn served valiantly and well, fought and earned his spurs, went as high as it was possible for him to go and then retired in honor and glory. We are thankful for this measure of faithfulness and say to Chief Davis, to the Mayor and Board of Police Commissioners and Captain McClary, the commander of Newton Street Station, for the same. It evolved upon Capt. McClary, the commander of Newton St. Station, to function for the department at Capt. Glenn's retirement. The words spoken by him on this occasion marked him as a broad gauged American citizen who is absolutely for a square deal to all mankind and we are satisfied that we express the sentiments of all the people when we say that we appreciate to the utmost the great work which he is doing in this community on behalf of all the people.

Cincinate—Raymond G. Roberts, 18 years old, has asked the courts to undo his romance with Mrs. Martha Evans Roberts, 65 year old heiress. The youth's father also wants the court to allow his son "reasnable alimony". Roberts alleged he was coaxed into marrying the heiress by promises of a life of ease thereafter.

Philadelphia.—Police are looking for a hit and run driver who knocked down a woman in her yard while she was hanging clothes on the line. The fugitive truck driver, police say, apparently lost control of his car, ran on the pavement, crashed through the fence around the woman's yard and knocked her down.

Chicago.—Forty-four wives out of a total of fifty-four refused their jailed husbands for Christmas gifts. One wife told the court she already was supporting herself and five children and saw no good reason for adding a husband to the list, particularly at Christmas time. The judge had sent invitations to all the wives to appear in his court.

Chicago.—A street corner Santa Claus is the ruse whereby Frank Mitchell may find his wife-stealing pal. Mitchell and his pal went west years ago looking for a fortune. They went into business. Mitchell left his wife with his pal while he was away. He returned and found that his pal and wife had gone.

TO THE COLORED RACE: GREETINGS

particular party or politician.

During the year our agitative organization has been striking at the hydra headed monster of race prejudice, wherever it exhibits itself. But so fast as one head is bruised, just so fast does another emerge and deadly as the first. We can but reach the symptom, where the disease is systematic. We must, however, continue to deal with surface indications, because we are wholly unable to reach the core.

The literary movement has been more or less active. Several titles have appeared of Negro authorship that give interesting and encouraging indications. The interest of the white world in the output of Negro talent is still sustained. The so-called New Negro asserts his right to the title, although it does not yet appear what he shall be.

The great philanthropic movements are in a deliberate and hesitant mood. There must be a social philosophy before there can be an effective philanthropy. You must know what you are helping people for or what place they are to fill in the social scheme before philanthropy can be wisely applied. There is no clearly defined or understood race philosophy or race statemanship. Why and whither is the puzzle of it all.

So much for the retrospect; but what of the immediate present and the early future which we are now facing?

What shall be the program for the year of our Lord, nineteen twenty-seven? Let each individual and organization continue the work to which it is already committed, with renewed zeal and determination. All of these projected lines of endeavor are helpful in their several spheres. No one of them is adequate to the whole circle of racial needs. There is no likelihood of any radical departure from established and existing ways during the ensuing year. No new or exciting reform is now in sight. Let everyone perform his accustomed task with sharpened race consciousness and a keener zest to serve the racial weal.

There is, however, one common sense, common place, moral movement which should engage the interest and the energy of every Negro of light and leading. The cause of prohibition promises more beneficial results for the race than any other movement which is ready to hand and easy to espouse. It yields great political advantage. The old line parties are split in twain. The Eastern Republicans are wet; their Western co-partizans are dry. The Southern Democrats are dry; their Northern confederates are wet. The politician deals in only one commodity—votes. The essense of political ethics is success. If the Negro will stand by the 18th Amendment with unflinching firmness, he will thereby exert great influence in the political equation. The women and the Negro hold the destiny of parties in the hollow of their hand, if they will only use it wisely at this critical juncture.

Political asperities, even in the South, would be greatly minified, if both races stood upon a common moral platform. The evil of lynching, of which the Negro so bitterly and so justly complains, is closely connected with the liquor evil. The decline of lynching and the abolition of liquor go hand in hand. The inrush of Negroes in the North finds easier and smoother adjustment to the new and strange environment because the handy saloon does not so quickly fan the evil passion of the rougher element of both races. If we want the nation to enforce the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments, let us show our consistency by upholding the Eighteenth Amendment.

Up to the present time, the Negro has shown little enthusiasm for the cause of prohibition. There has been little manifested ardor for the Eighteenth Amendment. Negro newspapers have not as a rule, insisted upon this racial policy. Even our ministers and churches have seemed to be lukewarm, both as touching the moral and political aspects of prohibition. The Y. M. C. A. is not on record for ardent advocacy of this law of temperance anti righteousness. The Negro politician on the whole has been indifferent, if not disposed to the side of wetness. They have loked upon the issue from a purely political angle, wholly unmindful of the maize of moral inconsistency in which they entangle themselves.

I call upon every upstanding and right-minded Negro in the land to take a New Year Resolution:

"I will observe the Eighteenth Amendment and will encourage others to do likewise. I will vote for no man or party that does not favor the enforcement of the Eighteenth, as the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments, without equivocation or evasion."

Heavy Stick Work Beats White Kings in Double

With heavy slugging by the Royal Giants in the double-header on Sunday last, the Giants kept up their winning streak by taking both games. The White Kings were not slouches by all means playing the colored boys hard but failing to offset their batting streak. Below are the results of the double battle:

L. A. Girl Gets Flattering Local Offers

Quick to see and use talent for the stage several large night clubs of the city have offered an engagement to Dorothy Williams the little Los Angeles girl who has made such success in her profession as actress as to draw their attention. She has not accepted any of them at present because of tentatively promising to join a large road show comprised of both white and colored performers which travels out of N. Y.

In the meantime she is taking special lessons in toe-dancing from a former member of the Fuchon and Marco features. She has accepted a week's engagement at the Follies Theatre on Main street where she is playing this week to packed houses.

UPPERCUTS AND BLOCKS

By: HARRY LEVETTE

Your Sports Editor does not often try to write poetry, and you need not dignify the verses below by calling them that. We leave poetry to be written by Dunbars, Longfellows and Edgar Allen Poes. But here is some good advice we scrambled together into a sort of rhyme jingle, that may come in handy in Sports when the road is rocky or in life when the race after the elusive loaf of Holsum seems hard. Just take it down from where you pin it in your hat-band and read it when you need it most. So here goes:

Harry Levette

BUCK UP

When there's two strikes on you, and the bases full;
Two men out already, home team needs your pull;—
Now tenth inning;—score, a tie;
Pitcher winds to let 'er fly,
And to hit that last one don't seem possible,
Steady now!
Buck up!
Get set!
You might win yet!

When each player in the foursome's shooting "par"
While your best shots end in "water hazard" far
When your "brassie" digs the turf
While the gallery shouts with mirth
And that 9th hole seems as distant as star—
Steady now!
Buck up!
Get set!
You might win yet!

When both half-backs, crippled and you've got the ball
But the other 'leven meets you like a wall,
When there's still five yards to gain
Coach just raves; you try in vain;
But some husky tackler "downs" you for a fall—
Steady now!
Buck up!
Get set!
You might win yet!

When your head swims from that last smash on the chin,
And the other guy's gloves hurt you like his grin,
Legs weak, arms tired, full of doubts,
Crowd all yelling, "knock 'im out,"
And your seconds want to throw the towel in,
Steady now!
Buck up!
Get set!
You might win yet!

When the odds seem all against you in life's game,
When as try you may, you lose as just the same—
When the way seems dark and drear
When your future don't seem clear
And instead of praise your efforts all get blame—
Steady now!
Buck up!
Get set!
You might win yet!

EX-CHAMPION OF THE MIDDLEWEIGHTS TO FIGHT IN LOS ANGELES THIS MONTH

TIGER FLOWERS! There's a name that will draw a crowd anywhere, not only in this country but in the whole world. And it will draw a capacity crowd to Wrigley Field on January 22nd for Dick Donald's big show and the biggest of the year in the West.

With all the bad luck that the amiable Dick has had this season, he, after all, has the choice plum that all the other promoters would be glad to have. Against Flowers he has matched Leo Lomski, the great fighter who is sure to give Flowers the battle of his Lomski had somewhat the same experience New Year's day that came to his opponent when robbed of his middleweight championship in Chicago. Lomski fought Joe Anderson in Portland, New Year's Day, floored him twice and had him out on his feet a half dozen times yet the Referee gave the decision to Anderson. This will not hurt his drawing power for everyone knows he can fight and will aim to beat the Tiger at his own game. Something unprecedented is happening in the annals of sportdom from the fact that already many inquiries have been made for seats by people high in church circles who do not make a practice of attending Boxing Contests. This is due to the fact that Flowers, the "Georgia Deacon" is a great church worker, a clean-cut, quiet gentleman and a real family man. His thousands of friends, white and black, are anxious not only to see him fight here but also to see him reverse the unfavorable decision rendered against him by Benny Younger at Chicago.

In the rest of the card Bob Lawson, stablemate of Flowers is matched with a good opponent.

REVIEW OF THE YEAR IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

The year just ended has been the most surprising year in history in the realm of Sports.

1926 was a harrowing one for champions, notably the titleholders in the various classes of boxing. Ted Morgan of Seattle, Wash., junior lightweight; Fidel La Barba of Los Angeles, Calif., flyweight, and Charley (Phil) Rosenberg of New York, bantamweight, being the sole survivors of the nine who topped the lists in 1925.

Other champions who hit the toboggan surprising everybody as well as themselves were:

Paul Berlenbach lost to Jack Delaney; Harry Greb to Tiger Flowers; Mickey Walker to Pete Latzo; Rocky Kansas to Sammy Mandell; Tiger Flowers to Mickey Walker; Pinkey Mitchell to Musy Callahan.

TENNIS

Big Bill Tilden lost to Rene La Coste of France.

GOLF

Bobby Jones lost to George Von Elm.

BASKBALL

Phil. Royal Giants of Negro National Leagues; Washington Senators of American League; Pittsburg Pirates champions of world.

FOOT BALL

Notre Dame loses collegiate title to Carnegie; Princeton won championship of "Big Three"; Sam Houston College won Texas championship in the Southern Athletic Conference.

SWIMMING

Georges Michel hold the world's record for swimming the English Channel. His time was 11 hours and 6 minutes.

WRESTLING

Joe Stecher retained his title as heavyweight champion of the world.

HOME RUNS

Babe Ruth is the undisputed home run king and is now in te city autodraphing baseballs.

RUNNING

Clarence De Mar of Boston is the champion marathon runner.

BILLIARDS

Jake Schafer beat Edward Horemans, Belgian, at Chicago for the 18.2 balkline billiards championship.

HORSE RACES

Scapa Flow, son of Man-O-War is the horse that won the Futurity and championship of money winners among the two year old. The Futurity purse was $66,000.

BICYCLE RACING

McNamara of Australia, and Linari of Italy won the 41st annual six-day bicycle race in N. Y. and championship of cycling teams.

The year has ben very unfortunate for top-notch colored boxers. Tiger Flowers, middle-weight king and only colored champion in any class lost to Walker; Chick Suggs and Danny Edwards were both beaten and received setbacks. Out on the Coast here, where there was a larger number of first class colored boxers than anywhere in the country, bad luck came also to Young Jack Thompson, Baby Joe Gans, Young Sam Langford, Geo. Godfrey, Young Harry Wills and Sailor Larry, all receiving setbacks for one reason or another. But all of them especially Young Jack Thompson bid fair to climb back within the present year.

Bronx Bits

REVUE CLOSES

With New Year's eve night, the Bronx Cabaret Revue which has been running for four months under the direction of Emma Wheatley, closed until January sixth. Emma is a Chicago girl with large aspirations in revue work in Chicago and New York. With her sister, Wilda Harris and the girls of the chorus, she has produced some of the best floor shows seen at a local night club. The illness of a sister at home calls she and Wilda back where they will probably remain the balance of the season.

Leaving last Sunday over the Santa Fe, they promised their many to return soon.

HAM JENKINS MAKES BIG HIT WITH L. A. FIGHT FANS

Any lover of boxing who failed to be out to the Main Street A. C. Saturday night, missed seeing the Entry in the local field of a real fighter. And he is none other than the new colored welterweight from Denver, "Hamilton" (Ham) Jenkins.

Stacked up against Dick Green, the hard-hitting Long Beach pugilist, who has a nice string of victories to his credit —"Ham" had a real tryout. But he came out of the six-round special event, with every round to his credit.

"HAM" JENKINS
Who made a hit with his victory over Dick Green, Saturday

To our idea a boxer who can come out of a tight place when in danger, make the other fellow miss, and then when he lands a good blow be on the job to follow it up fast with more, is a good boxer. And that is what Jenkins excells in. From the first round he shot hard, straight lefts to Green's body, soon taking the starch out of him, then shooting hard rights to the head as Green would rock back on his heels or fall into the ropes Ham would be right on him shooting lefts and rights.

Green fought back well, but Jenkins always managed to escape without harm. Only Green's toughness saved him from a knockout, he going to the floor on one knee in the fifth and half through the ropes in the third and fourth.

Ham's clean, careful work was seen and commented on by several sport writers, and boxing experts and all agreed on the same score that he really can fight.

In the four-round opener Danny Solis beat Carl Bennet; second bout Joe Reinhardt beat Tommy Ross; third, Reginald Aguayo beat Tiemy Carrilo, a tough, game boy who is green but will be good with training and Benny Furrel fought George Lopez to a rattling good draw.

All Round Athlete of Bears To Try Channel Swim

Fall River, Dec. 27.—Harry Dudley of California, welterweight, won the decision over Scoops White of Worcester in a 10-round bout at the Casino A. A. here tonight. Dudley injured his right shoulder in the fifth round and thereafter relied wholly on a left jab and hook. The decision was somewhat of a surprise.

Vernon Jackson Wins Four Good Fights At San Diego

Vernon Jackson, the "fighting School Boy" who is rapidly climbing the ladder in middleweight rank is busily resting after a run of four strenuous fights at San Diego. Synopsis

A chilly November evening finds the author in close communion with his very dear friend Wheaton, a brilliant attorney. Both enjoying the warmth and cheery glow of an open hearth soon become reminiscent and talkative—especially our friend Wheaton. They first discuss the topics of the day, mentioning the Rhinelander-Jones marriage and the statistics compiled by a Virginia Circuit Court judge and his doubt as to the average Caucasian proving the absence of other than Caucasian blood in his ancestry. Swinging abruptly from this general discussion, Wheaton decides to tell me a story told to him by his grandfather, a slave, and which I decided to reproduce. * * * * * * *

Death stalked about on that night, and the ungrim seemed the fiercest yet in that section. Melville Gradley lay dead upstairs in the "Big House" with a bullet through his brain, the work of an assassin in the cornbrake. Angie May, daughter of "Mammy", a wife of only a year and that night a mother, dies in the quarters. Missus upstairs also gives birth that night to a baby, which, when brought to "Mammy" she discovers is dead. "Mammy" has a trying moment deciding whether to tell Missus the truth and probably kill her as she is dreadfully weak and worried over Melville not returning (his death being carefully kept from her), or whether to switch Angie's live baby for Missus' dead baby? She does the latter, carrying Angie's crying baby upstairs to the little weeping mother, and returning downstairs to inform Jim, Angie's husband, of his dead son. The following day Angie May is buried with her supposed baby clasped close to her bosom cold in death.

PART II.

Miss Sammantha Porter, a distant relative of Mrs. Mel Gradley, lived with her nephew and his family some twenty miles from the Gradley plantation. She was called "po' relashun" by the Gradley slaves, who, however, did by no means dislike her, no doubt owing to the fact that Miss Samantha adored Mel Gradley. Mel was at that time a handsome boy of sixteen years. His cheeks glowed with health, brown eyes sparkled with mischief and fun, his beautiful brown curls were brushed back from a broad, intelligent brow. Miss Samatha frequently used Mel's many achievemens to spur her somewhat supine nephews, to greater effort in their classes.

On this particular afternon of which I write, she was seated in the most comfortable chair in the sitting room, knitting genteelly, with mits on her knuckly fingers, giving advice to the boys, and, in their sight, making herself generally disagreeable. She had stopped to pick a knot from the yarn then continued:

"Yas, Mel tuk evah prize offahed las yeah fuh the highes' scholarship. He was firs' in mathmatics, spellin, history, penmanship an' rhetric. He jes swep evahthing up, tell the boad jes decided they wouldn' offah any mo' prizes; said it was jes like buyin Christmas presents about foah times a yeah fuh Mel Gradley. They got so used to givin' the prizes to Mel, that they wouldn' buy onything that wasn' suitable fuh a boy. Once somebody did sugges' buyin a lovely sewin' basket fuh the spellin' prize, but Len Brackett's wife jes got right up at the boad meetin' and said:

"'Whut in the name a Gawd would Mel Gradley do with a sewin' basket?'"

* * * * * * * * * * *

In the late afternoon of a fine autumnal day, on the summit of a rocky mountain, a lone little rider courageously sat on a spotted pony. Then carefully down the mountainside they came. As they neared the bottom, a shot rang out sharply. The pony reared suddenly, throwing its youthful rider and plunging into the thicket was lost to sight.

Ethel Cartwright lay at the bottom of the gully, her yellow curls spread about her small head like a halo. Her left limb was twisted beneath her body, the pain sickened her. She looked up at the sinking sun; soon the shades of evening would fall, then came the realization that she would be lying alone in the woods and helpless. Again she heard a shot, it seemed nearer. With a well nigh exhausting effort she raised herself slightly and called: Ye hoo, Ye hoo, Ye hoo, Help, H - e - l - p!

How loud her cry seemed, it echoed, and then came an answer: Ye hoo, Ye hoo, call again! I'm coming, help, help, coming!

Ethel called again then waited. Mel Gradley ran to his horse, untied him, sprang into the saddle and whistling the hounds, dashed up he ravine, through the glade, under the chestnuts, maples and sweet gums that formed a green, red and gold canopy over his head. Then on to the top and down into the gully.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Ethel, propped up in bed with numerous pillows about her, looked up eagerly as Aunt Sally trudged into the room. "Oh 'Mammy', called Ethel, what have you there?"

Aunt Sally tossed her head and remarked that she did not suppose her little mistress could guess what was in the basket, or from whom the basket had come. But the girl persisted, "Did Mel send it?" For Mel had sent something every day since the accident had occurred.

Sally opened the basket, a sleek hound pup wiggled out. "Oh you darling," cried Ethel, "you shall have a bone."

When Mrs. Cartwright came into the room a few minutes later, and saw the pup with a greasy bone on the spotless counterpane, she ordered Sally to remove it at once. The pup objected, and when Sally persisted, growled. "Take my tray too, Mammy," said Ethel.

Sally gathered up the remains of Ethel's lunch, and again attempted to take the pups bone, and then, to Ethel's amusement, the pup snapped at Sally's fingers.

"Oh you spunky little love, laughed Ethel, I shall call you Defiance." And the pup ever after was called by that name.

* * * * * * * * * * *

For more than seventy years a feud had existed between the Cartwrights and Gradleys. It had lived and thrived with all the fierce and bitter unreason that marks hereditary hostilities. When Mrs. Cartwright had given birth to Ethel, little more than twelve years before, she had been thankful that the child was a girl. "The hand of God had intervened," she had told her husband. For some reason he had not seen fit to argue the point.

Four years before Ethel's birth, in a great white mansion on the Gradley plantation, a boy had been born, son of Melville Gradley. That same night Melville Gradley had been shot while hunting in a cane brake.

Before dark he had lost two ducks in the brake, and later just at dusk had gone into the brake, with his dog, to recover them. That night Huntington Cartwright, a neighbor, had returned home somewhat the worse for liquor. He had in his possession a revolver, one chamber of which was empty. Head wagged, likewise tongues, but both families had been prominent, and while the slaves still remembered and whispered, others seemed to have forgotten.

Now that the year 1926 has come to a close it will be well to look back and see what the girls accomplished.

Among our own girls we have Miss Isadore Channels of Chicago, who captured the Ladies National Singles Championship by defeating Miss Ballard of Philadelphia, ex-Ladies Champion, in the National Colored eTnnis Tournament which was held in St. Louis last year. Miss Ballard, formerly champion, now holds second place. Our own Juliaette took fourth place after a hard fought game with Miss Ballard, score being -, 3-6, 6-4, in favor of the latter. We are indeed very proud of her.

Coming back to the coast, Juliaette still remains undefeated as Ladies Champion of the coast. Geneva Stocks took second place by defeating Cora Lee in the Labor Day Tournament of '26. Who knows how this line up will be at the end of this year?

It might be well to add here, that the girls in L. A. have advanced quite a bit in the last year along athletic lines. It mght well be remembered by those who were present at the last Annual Brookside Park Picnic, that for the first time they witnessed a well rounded base ball game played by two organized girls baseball teams in front of many enthusiastic spectators. The girls have taken more of an interest in swimming and have even gone so far as organizing a girls' football team.

With the enthusiasm that the girls have now, how can any one put a limit to what they will accomplish thsi year in different lines of athletics. We only hope that our Sunkissed maidens will line up to our expectations. If so, our Eastern sisters will have a plenty to worry about.
